"It has appeared to me for a long time past that the best method open to us at the present time for promoting a really intelligent study of the Eastern classical tongues, and transfusion into the vernacular languages of the knowledge of the West by really competent persons, is the establishment of Fellowships yielding a handsome income, to be held for limited periods by persons engaging to devote themselves to this work during the period they may hold the post ; and accordingly I should wish the sum collected in my honor to be devoted by the Senate to the establishment of such a Fellowship. The sum subscribed would yield, at 5 per cent., nearly Rs. 100 per mensem, and, as I do not think any Fellowship should be of less value than this, I trust the Senate may be able by some means or other to make the monthly amount up to the above sum. If necessary, I will myself gladly contribute towards the attainment of this end.

"This is not the first Fellowship that has been established, though I have heard nothing as yet of the results which have hitherto been secured ; and I would avail myself of this opportunity of urging on the Senate that they make known far and wide, if this have not yet been done, that these Fellowships have been established and are available for all or any who will accept the terms. It is by no means necessary that the Fellows should belong to the Punjab, and I would deprecate any such limitation. Even if competent men should not be at once forthcoming, the announcement should, I believe, stimulate many to endeavour to qualify themselves,—and this, I think, is what should be kept in view. I can hardly overstate the importance which I attach to this matter, and I only wish I could induce many others to think with me."

This letter was addressed to Colonel W. R. Eliott, then acting as Commissioner of the Lahore Division, through whom and his predecessor, Major W. G. Davies, the bulk of the subscriptions collected had been realized, and to whose keeping the money had been entrusted.

5. The request of the Government that Sir Donald McLeod's letter should be communicated to the Senate, was apparently complied with, as may be gathered from the following extract from the proceedings of Senate Meeting held on the 30th December 1871 :—

"Sir Donald's letter, annexed herewith, was then read to the Meeting. The income from the investment of his memorial, to be called the "Punjab-McLeod Fellowship," is Rs. 80 per mensem. Sir Donald wished in his letter that his Fellowship be raised at least to Rs. 100 per mensem. It was accordingly proposed that Rs. 300 be voted for eight months, i. e., from the 1st of May 1872 to the end of the year.

"Carried."

I can find no further trace of any Senate Proceedings in regard to this Trust, except the Resolution passed by the Senate on the 30th November 1872, which is quoted under Article No. 3, para. 4.

6. The Readership has been held by the following persons for the period stated against each name :—

	From	To
Madan Gopal, M.A. ...	15th April 1873 ...	21st October 1874.
Badri Parsad, B.A. ...	17th February 1875 ...	18th March 1877.
Bishen Lal, Raizad, M.A. ...	19th March 1877 ...	7th December 1877.
Ishwar Dás, M.A. ...	8th December 1877 ...	31st May 1878.
Aya Rám, B.A. ...	1st June 1878 ...	5th January 1880.
Pírzáda Muhammad Husain	6th January 1880 ...	25th May 1884.
Muhammad Ashraf ...	26th May 1884 ...	15th October 1884.
Maulvi Inám Ali, B.A. ...	16th October 1884 ...	31st December 1885.

I find that Pírzáda Muhammad Husain, B.A., was appointed on probation from 6th January 1880, upon a salary of Rs. 50 per mensem, while the remainder of the salary, Rs. 50 per mensem, was given to one Bábu Panchanan Mukerji, who drew it up to 31st December 1880, from which date Pírzáda Muhammad Husain drew the full pay or Rs. 100 per mensem, until 25th May 1884. From 16th October 1884, Inám Ali performed the duties of this Readership, although drawing the salary of the Patiála Translator (No. 1 of this Report), Pandit Harkishan Dás, M.A., receiving the pay of this Readership, although performing the duties of the Patiála Translator, and this interchange of salaries and duties was continued up to 4th October 1885, when Pandit Harkishan Dás, M.A., left the Oriental College and Inám Ali was definitely appointed to this Readership.

7. This money was invested by the Trustee in two batches,—one batch consisting of Rs. 17,600, Government 4 per cent. paper having been purchased on the 6th January 1872, for Rs. 17,556, and the second batch consisting of Rs. 7,500, Government 4 per cent paper having been purchased for Rs. 7,365-13-4 on the 6th April 1870. From this date the Trust has consisted and now ought to consist of Government 4 per cent. securities to the nominal value of Rs. 25,100, purchased for Rs. 24,921-13-4, a trifling deficiency of Re. 0-13-10 having been made up from the General Funded Account.

The income derived from this investment has been from the commencement, year by year, invariably credited to the Current Account, and consequently the Trust is clearly entitled to an augmentation in respect to the interest on the investment from the dates of investment to 31st August 1873, the date preceding that on which the Trust commenced to be discharged and from 22nd October 1874 to 17th February 1875, the period during which the Readership was vacant; while, on the other hand, a reduction should be made from the endowment of the Trust in respect to the salary paid to the several Readers in excess of the income arising from the investment. A salary of Rs. 100 per mensem has been invariably paid to the several Readers, whereas the income arising from the endowment has been only Rs. 1,004 per annum.

The amended account of the Trust should stand thus—

	Rs.	A.	P.
Difference between annual interest derived from Rs. 25,100 Government 4 per cent paper and the salary paid to the Readers from 15th April 1873 to 31st December 1885, omitting period from 22nd October 1874 to 16th February 1875, when the Readership was vacant	2,428	12	8
Less interest at 4 per cent per annum upon Rs. 17,600 Government paper from 7th January 1872 to 6th April 1872, and upon Rs. 25,100 from 7th April 1872 to 14th April 1873, and from 22nd October 1874 to 16th February 1875	1,525	9	10
Net amount paid in excess by the University ...	903	2	10

The orders of the Senate will be necessary for the adjustment of this excess and for the continuance of the present rate of salary paid to the Reader.

No 7.—Alfred-Nabha-Jind Scholarship.

In July 1870, His Highness the Rája of Nábha presented a donation of Rs. 5,000 for the foundation of a Scholarship in the Punjab University College in honor of the visit paid by His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh to the Punjab during the early portion of that year. This donation was paid by His Highness the Rája to the Commissioner and Superintendent of the Umballa Division (Mr. J. W. Macnabb), and remitted by that official to the Secretary to Government, Punjab, by whom it was remitted to the Trustee of the Punjab University College, as advised in letter No. 431, dated 6th August 1870, from the Government to the Registrar, a certified copy of which is below printed.

(No. 1.) No. 431, dated 6th August 1870.

From—T. H. THORNTON, Esquire, Secretary to Government, Punjab,

To—The Registrar, Punjab University College, Lahore.

No. 292, dated 18th July 1870, from Commissioner, Umballa.
Reply to ditto.
No. 429, dated 6th August 1870.

Forwards, for information, copy of correspondence noted in the margin, regarding the donation of the Rája of Nábha for the foundation of a scholarship in the Punjab University College, with intimation that the transfer receipt has been made over to the Trustee.

(ENCLOSURE.) No. 292, dated 18th July 1870.

From—J. W. MACNABB, Esquire, Offg. Commissioner and Superintendent, Umballa Division,

To—The Secretary to Government, Punjab.

Forwards the enclosed receipted remittance transfer receipt for Rs. 17,000, paid into the Umballa Treasury by the Rája of Nábha on account of donations as follows:—

	Rs.
1. Donation to the Lahore University	12,000
2. Donation towards the foundation of a scholarship in the Lahore University in honor of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh	5,000

(ENCLOSURE.) No. 429, dated 6th August 1870.

From—T. H. THORNTON, Esquire, Secretary to Government, Punjab,

To—The Offg. Commissioner and Superintendent, Umballa Division.

I am desired by the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 292, dated 18th July, forwarding transfer receipt for Rs. 17,000, the amount paid into the Umballa Treasury by the Rája of Nábha on account of—

	Rs.
1. Donation to Punjab University College ...	12,000
2. Donation towards the foundation of a scholarship in Punjab University College in honor of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh ...	5,000

A kharita is enclosed for transmission to the Rája, together with copy for record in your own office.

2. During the month of June 1870, a donation of Rs. 5,000 was presented to the Commissioner and Superintendent, Umballa Division (Mr. J. W. Macnabb), by His Highness the Rája of Jhínd for the foundation of a scholarship in the Lahore University College in honor of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh's visit to the Punjab in 1870. This donation was remitted by the Commissioner to the Government, as advised in his letter No. 237, dated 8th June 1870, and was by the Government handed over to the Trustee of the Punjab University College, by letter No. 318, dated 15th June 1870, below printed.

(No. 2.) No. 317, dated Lahore, 15th June 1870.

From—LEPEL H. GRIFFIN, Esq., Under-Secretary to Government, Punjab,

To—The Offg. Commissioner and Superintendent, Umballa Division.

I am desired by the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 237 of the 18th June, forwarding remittance transfer receipt for Rs. 5,000, being a donation of the Rája of Jhínd for the foundation of a scholarship in Lahore University College in honor of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh's visit to the Punjab. A kharita is enclosed for transmission to the Rája, together with a copy for record in your office.

No. 318.

Copy of Commissioner's letter to L. C. Probyn, Esq., Trustee, Lahore University College, with its accompanying transfer receipt for Rs. 5,000.

No. 319.

Copy of above forwarded to Dr. G. W. Leitner, PH.D., M.A., Registrar, Lahore University College, for information. The money has been made over to the Trustee.

3. The Senate, by a Resolution passed at the Meeting held on the 4th July 1870, determined—

"5. That the interest of the donation of the Rája of Jhínd, amounting to Rs. 5,000, together with the Government grant on such interest, be devoted to Sanskrit Scholarships, to be called 'Alfred-Jhínd Scholarships,' and be dealt with on the same principle as the 'Alfred-Bahâwalpur Scholarships.'

"RESOLVED—That these proposals be considered after the consent of the donors had been obtained. The proposals might be affected by the Resolution that may be arrived at regarding Proposal I (the donation, Rs. 20,000, by the Mahárája of Patiála) for a joint 'Alfred-Phulkian Fellowship.'" and the Executive Committee in the report on the Budget for 1871 made the following proposal:—

Extract from Budget Report for 1871, page 19.

One Scholarship will be given to the first man of the year who may pass the Entrance Examination of the University College, and who undertakes to study at least for the First Arts Examination at this College.

The Scholarship will be tenable for two years. It is proposed to give only one Scholarship the first year, and to allot the other the following year, by which arrangement there will in future always be a vacant Scholarship available for the best man who may pass in the Entrance Examination of any one year.

which appears to have been accepted by the Senate at the Meeting held on the 26th December 1870.

4. The following is a true extract from the Proceedings of the Senate Meeting held on 20th January 1872, which forms the only other reference to the Trust.

VII.—(1 b)—The Nábha Scholarship was passed, and Rs. 192 entered in the column of expenditure instead of Rs. 16.

4. The Scholarship has been awarded to the following persons :—

Achhru Rám	1874
Sri Rám	1875
Sardár Gurdial Singh	1876
Muhammad Shafi	1878
Jya Rám	1879
Prabhu Dial	1880
Chetan Anand	1881
Raila Rám	1882
Gopál Dás	1883
Ahmad Dín	1884
Múl Chand	1885

But the accounts show that the Scholarship was awarded from March 1872, although the names of the recipients cannot be traced, and that the Scholarship was drawn in 1872 and 1873.

5. The donation of Rs. 5,000 from H. H. the Rája of Jhínd reached the Trustee on the 21st June 1870, that from H. H. the Rája of Nabha on the 23rd August 1870, both sums having been on the date of receipt credited to the Funded Account. The former sum was invested on the 4th July 1870, when Government 4 per cent paper to the nominal value of Rs. 5,100 was purchased at a cost of Rs. 4,990-14-4, and the latter was invested on the 13th September 1870, when Government 4 per cent paper to the nominal value of Rs. 5,100 was purchased at a cost of Rs. 4,965-14-6.

The endowment should have, from the 14th September 1870, consisted therefore of Government 4 per cent paper to the nominal value of Rs. 10,200 purchased at a cost of Rs. 9,956-12-10. The income annually derived from this investment has been invariably credited to the Current Account, and as the trust was not discharged until some date in the year 1872, as the scholarship endowed from this Trust was not awarded in 1877, and as the income arising from the investment has every year actually, though occasionally perhaps only by a small sum, exceeded the amount paid away in discharge of the Trust, the Trust is entitled to an augmentation, and this augmentation must be carried out at the expense of the Current Account, to which the income and savings above detailed were credited. It is not yet possible to state what the augmentation should be, owing to the confusion in which the payments in discharge of scholarships were recorded in the accounts.

No. 8.—Bahawalpur Arabic Scholarship.

During the month of May 1870, at the request of H. H. the Nawáb of Baháwalpur, Major C. C. Minchin, then Political Agent and Superintendent of the Baháwalpur State, placed at the disposal of the Government a sum of Rs. 25,000, to be expended in such a way as would commemorate both the visit of H. R. H. the Duke of Edinburgh to the Punjab and the Nawáb's first visit to Lahore. Of this donation Rs. 15,000 were handed over to the Commissioner of the Lahore Division for the construction of a memorial drinking fountain or tank in Anarkali, and Rs. 10,000 were paid to the Trustee of the Lahore University College, for investment, although the Nawáb, on the 30th August 1870, objected "against the investment of the money on interest," and suggested "that the sum be laid out in carrying on some trade, and the profits arising therefrom be expended in encouraging the study of Arabic."

2. The only documents on record in the Registrar's office regarding this Scholarship are two letters from the Government, of which certified copies are printed below :—

(No. 1.) No. 707, dated Murree, 17th June 1870.

From—T. H. THORNTON, Esquire, D.C.L., Secretary to Government, Punjab,

To—L. C. PROBYN, Esquire, Trustee, Lahore University College.

I am desired by the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor to forward Rs. 10,000, a donation made to the Lahore University College by His Highness the Nawáb of Baháwalpur, in commemoration of the visit of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh to Lahore, and am to request that the amount may be invested in Government securities.

(No. 2.) No. 708, dated Murree, 17th June 1870,

From—T. H. THORNTON, Esq., D.C.L., Secretary to Government, Punjab,

To—G. W. LEITNER, Esq., Ph.D., M.A., Registrar, Lahore University College.

I am desired by the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor to inform you that His Highness the Nawáb of Baháwalpur has given a donation of Rs. 10,000 to the Lahore University College in commemoration of the visit of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh to Lahore.

The amount has been made over to the Trustee, and the liberality of His Highness has been acknowledged by this Government; but His Honor suggests that the thanks of the Senate might be also appropriately conveyed to His Highness.

and the following translation of a letter from the Nawáb's Minister to the then Registrar (Dr. G. W. Leitner):—

(No. 3.) Dated 30th August 1870.

From—His Highness the Nawáb of Baháwalpur,

To—Dr. G. W. LEITNER.

I received your letter in which you state that in the Durbár of 4th July 1870 it was made known to every member of the Committee and other gentlemen present that I intended to give a donation of Rs. 10,000 in honor of the visit of His Royal Highness Prince Alfred, the Duke of Edinburgh, to the University College, and it was planned that the interest arising from the investment of this sum should be expended in encouraging the Arabic education and in giving scholarships to the students reading Arabic; and that the donation be called "Alfred-Baháwalpur Donation," for this would commemorate both names; but that if this plan were not approved, then any other in this place, or the same with any modification thought necessary, should be suggested in order that steps should be taken according to it. In reply, I tell you that I approve of the plan of expending the income in encouraging the study of Arabic language and sciences, as also the name "Alfred-Baháwalpur Donation;" but I have objection against the investment of the money on interest, and suggest that the sum be laid out in carrying on some trade, and the profit arising therefrom be expended in encouraging the study of Arabic.

(Seal of the Nawáb.)

3. The correspondence below printed has been furnished to me by the Commissioner of the Lahore Division:—

(No. 4.) No. 30, dated Baháwalpur, 14th May 1870.

From—Major C. C. MINCHIN, Political Agent and Superintendent, Baháwalpur State,

To—The Secretary to Government, Punjab.

His Highness the Nawáb of Baháwalpur on the occasion of his late visit to Lahore requested me to place the sum of Rs. 25,000 at the disposal of Government, to be expended in such a way as would both commemorate His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh's visit to the Punjab and the Nawáb's visit for the first time to Lahore.

I beg to suggest, for the consideration of Government, that the sum of Rs. 10,000 should be presented as a donation to the Lahore University, and that Rs. 15,000 should be expended in constructing a drinking fountain or tank in some central situation in Anarkali, for instance, in the neighbourhood of the Museum or at Charing Cross, with an inscription in English and Urdu that the fountain or tank had been erected by His Highness the Nawáb of Baháwalpur to commemorate the visit of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh to the Punjab.

If this proposal is sanctioned by Government, I would further suggest that the Deputy Commissioner of Lahore be asked to undertake the work, the design and site to be approved by the Lahore Municipality.

I have paid the amount into the Lodhrán Tahsíl, and have requested the Deputy Commissioner of Mooltan to remit the amount to your order by a transfer receipt on the Bengal Bank, Lahore.

4. Neither the Nawáb nor Major Minchin appear thus to have expressed any decidedly specific wish regarding the disposal of the portion of the donation made over to the Trustee of the Lahore University College, and consequently the Senate, at the Meeting held on the 4th July 1870, considered certain proposals put forward by the Executive Committee for the disposal of this donation, and passed a Resolution thereupon to postpone all further consideration of the proposal until the wishes of the donor had been expressed.

The following is a record of these proceedings:—

"4. That the interest doubled by the Government grant of the Bahawalpur Donation (amounting to Rs. 10,000), which has been given in honor of the Duke of Edinburgh, be devoted to founding the 'Alfred-Bahawalpur Scholarships.' The scholarships to be of the amount of Rs. 10 per mensem each, to be awarded to the successful candidates in the Arabic Examination of next year. Details to be settled by Senate, and to be tenable at the Oriental School."

The equivalent interest from the Government has not been devoted to doubling the interest of donations 4 and 5, but has been allotted to the general purposes for the institution, as preferred by His Honor in his No. 534, dated 23rd September 1870, para. 3.—G. W. L.

"RESOLVED—That these proposals be considered after the consent of the donors had been obtained. The proposals might be affected by the Resolution that may be arrived at, regarding Proposal I. (the donation of Rs. 20,000 by the Mahárája of Patiála) for a joint 'Alfred-Phulkian Fellowship.'"

5. The Executive Committee in the comments upon the Budget for 1871, submitted to the Senate at the Meeting held on the 26th December 1870, made the following proposal:—

"Baháwalpur Scholarship of Rs. 33 per mensem.—To be given for one year to the man who stands first in the highest Arabic Examination of the year. His duties will be the editing and compilation of Arabic books under the direction of the Senate."

And this proposal seems to have been sanctioned though never carried out, inasmuch as, so far as I can ascertain, the scholar was principally employed as a member of the teaching staff of the Oriental College.

6. The value of the Scholarship has been hitherto considered to be Rs. 33 per mensem, or Rs. 396 per annum, and it should be given for one year to the man who stands first in the highest Arabic Examination of the Punjab University. The Scholarship has been awarded to the following persons :—

Ghulam Murtaza	1872
Maulvi Abdul Hakim	1873
Maulvi Muhammad Dín	1874
Ghulam Murtaza	1875
Sayad Abid Husain	1878
Sadr-ud-dín	1879
Mian Ahmad	1880
Muhammad Dín	1882
Abdul Azíz	1883
Imám-ud-dín	1884
Rashíd Ahmad	1885

7. The money was actually received by the Trustee on the 23rd June 1870, and was invested on the 11th July following, when Government 4 per cent paper to the nominal value of Rs. 10,200 was purchased for Rs. 9,982-3-2.

8. The Trust now therefore possesses invested capital to the nominal value of Rs. 10,200, held in 4 per cent Government securities, and the annual income derived from this investment has invariably been credited to the Current Account. A considerable augmentation to this benefaction from the Current Account seems to be due, in respect (1) to the income arising from the endowment from the date of investment, viz., 11th July 1870 to the 1st November 1872, when the Punjab University College commenced to discharge the Trust; (2) to the income arising from the endowment during the years 1876, 1877 and 1881, when the Scholarship was not awarded; and (3) the ordinary income having been always in excess of the ordinary expenditure, to the difference between the income realized and the amount expended in the discharge of the Trust. I have not yet been able to ascertain what these sums amount to owing to the difficulty of tracing in the accounts the actual payments made to the several holders of the Scholarship, some of the vouchers and bills having been mislaid, and some being manifestly incorrect.

No. 9.—Amritsar-McLeod Memorial Scholarship.

The only document in existence relative to this endowment is the one of which the following is a certified copy :—

No. 1624, dated Amritsar, 10th November 1871.

From—A. E. HEATH, Esquire, Extra Assistant Commissioner, Amritsar,

To—R. TAYLOR, Esquire, Trustee of the Punjab University.

Having received a letter from Dr. Leitner, Registrar of the Punjab University, informing me that you are the Trustee of the Institution, I would beg in consequence to notify to you that there is a sum of Rs. 1,922-10-0 ready to be placed to the credit of the University.

This sum was subscribed by various gentlemen in the Amritsar District, and was intended to go towards the endowment of a Scholarship founded in honor of Sir Donald McLeod to be held by a boy either of the Amritsar District or of the Amritsar School, which would be awarded according to the result of examination of the Punjab University College in the same manner as the Scholarships given by that body to Anglo-Vernacular studies to be tenable in the Lahore Government College.

This was the general plan.

The money is now ready, and I would invite your instructions with regard to its disposal as the Trustee of the University.

N.B.—The letter is countersigned by Colonel C. H. Hall, Deputy Commissioner of the Amritsar District.

2. The money, Rs. 1,922, was actually received by the Trustee on the 24th November 1871, and was invested on the 6th January 1872, when Government 4 per cent securities, to the nominal value of Rs. 1,900, were purchased at a cost of Rs. 1,895-4-0, the small balance of Rs. 26-12-0 remaining as a balance from the amount received.

3. The interest from this endowment has been from first to last credited to and expended in the Current Account. No action appears to have been taken to apply the income realized year after year from this investment to the purposes for which it was designed, until the general enquiry instituted by the Finance Committee appointed by the Senate at the Meeting held on the 30th April 1885, to consider and report upon the financial position of the University.

In consequence of the report of that Committee, the Syndicate, at the Meeting held on the 30th October 1885, nominated a Sub-Committee to frame proposals (amongst others) respecting this Trust; and this Sub-Committee submitted the following report thereupon :—

(e).—With reference to the portion of the postscript referring to the Amritsar-McLeod Memorial Fund, assuming that the amount was received by the 1st January 1872, the letter to the Trustee being dated in the previous November, our proposal is, that the Current Account make good the interest for 14 years, ending the 31st December 1885, at Rs. 4 per cent. per annum, amounting to Rs. 1,076-10-8 (or, adding a few annas which would bring up the total of the Endowment to Rs. 3,000, Rs. 1,077-6-0), that Rs. 3,000 of the investment of the General Funded Account be then converted into a separate Promissory Note representing this Trust, and that an Amritsar-McLeod Scholarship of Rs. 10 be then founded in the Lahore Government College, tenable by a boy of the Amritsar District, or from the Amritsar District School, though not belonging to that district. The Syndicate should, of course, add proposals as to the examination at which this Scholarship should be awarded, and the term for which it should be tenable, it being understood that only one such Scholarship can exist at a time.

At the Meeting of the Senate held on the 30th November 1885 it was determined that these proposals of the Sub-Committee regarding the Amritsar-McLeod Memorial Fund should be accepted and acted upon, and that a Scholarship of Rs. 5 per mensem, tenable for two years at the Lahore Government College, be awarded to that boy of the Amritsar District or from the Amritsar District School, who stands highest in the Entrance Examination of the Arts Faculty, and has not obtained a Scholarship of greater value.

5. Adapting these directions to the facts which have become known in the course of my enquiry, the sum of Rs. 1,084-5-1, representing simple interest upon the investment from 24th November 1871 to 31st December 1885, should be credited to this Trust from the Current Account, and this sum, together with the small balance uninvested in January 1872, should be expended in the purchase of Government 4 per cent paper to the nominal value of Rs. 1,100 which, with the securities already purchased, makes up the investment of Rs. 3,000 fixed by the Senate in the above-quoted Resolution.

No. 10.—The Fuller Exhibition.

In October 1874 the Committee of the subscribers to the Memorial in honor of Major Abraham Richard Fuller, R. A., Director of Public Instruction, Punjab, who lost his life by a sudden accident on the 21st August 1867, repeated an offer previously made to make over to the Senate a sum of Rs. 11,709-9-2 with a view—(1) to the application of Rs. 1,383-5-0 either to augment the endowment of any existing Fellowship, or to found an annual prize (medal or books); and (2) to the investment of the remainder, or Rs. 10,326-4-2, the proceeds of which should be applied to the foundation of a Fellowship or Scholarship, to be called the Fuller Fellowship or Scholarship, and to be tenable for one year by that student of any of the Punjab Colleges who shall obtain the highest place in the B. A. Examination of the Calcutta University or the corresponding examination of the Punjab University College, and shall continue his studies for the next higher examination.

2. A certified copy of the letter from the Secretary of the Committee, dated 14th October 1874, in which this offer was made, and which constitutes the sole record on the subject, is here printed :—

Dated Lahore, 14th October 1874.

From—C. W. W. ALEXANDER, Esquire, B. A., Secretary to Fellowship Endowment Committee,

To—E. W. PARKER, Esquire, Offg. Registrar, Punjab University College.

With reference to former correspondence regarding the offer made by this Committee to make over to the Senate the funds at their disposal for the purpose of founding a Fuller Fellowship or Scholarship in connection with the Punjab University College, I have the honor to inform you of the decision at which the Committee have arrived.

2. The Committee having carefully considered the objections raised by some of the subscribers to the Fellowship Fund, to the proposed application of the fund, are of opinion that these objections are unfounded. The manner in which they proposed to dispose of the subscriptions to the fund is strictly in accordance with the conditions on which the subscriptions were solicited and obtained, and the Committee would therefore be fully justified in adhering closely to their original proposal. In order, however, to obviate any possible objections on the part of certain subscribers, they have resolved so far to modify their former proposal as to place such of the subscriptions, amounting to Rs. 1,383-5-0, in regard to the intentions of the donors of which there can be any doubt at the disposal of the Senate, with a view to its application either (1) to augment the endowment of any existing Fellowship, or (2) to found an annual prize (medal or books). The remainder of the sum at their disposal, Rs. 10,326-4-2, they now again offer for the acceptance of the Senate on the same conditions as before, viz., that the amount be invested, and the proceeds applied to the foundation of a Fellowship or Scholarship, to be called the Fuller Fellowship or Scholarship, and to be tenable for one year by that student of any of the Punjab Colleges who shall obtain the highest place in the B. A. Examination of the Calcutta University, or the corresponding examination of the Punjab University College, and shall continue his studies for the next higher examination.

3. The proceedings of the two Meetings held respectively on the 31st October 1874 and the 29th May 1875, at which the Senate accepted the proposal, are subjoined :—

Extract from Senate Proceedings, dated 31st October 1874.

Proposition VIII. had been circulated with supplementary notice of Meeting under date the 16th October 1874. It contained a printed letter from Mr. Alexander, Secretary to the Fuller Endowment Committee, offering to make over to the Senate, the sum of Rs. 10,326-4-2 for the foundation of a Fellowship or Scholarship, and Rs. 1,383-5-0 to be founded and combined with any existing Fellowship or Scholarship. The former was to be subject to the condition that it should be awarded to the best student of the High Proficiency in Arts Examination of the Punjab University College, who should continue his studies for the next highest Arts Examination.

The Officiating Registrar pointed out that at present the High Proficiency in Arts Examination was the highest Arts Examination held by the Punjab University College, but there should be no difficulty in organizing an Honors Examination for which the scholarship-holder might prepare when required. He also drew attention to the fact that an offer in similar terms had been made by the Committee in 1872, and had been discussed by the Senate in its Proceedings No. 9, dated 30th March 1872.

Colonel Young proposed that the offer be accepted in the terms of Executive Committee's proposition. It was accordingly unanimously resolved that the Senate accept with sincere thanks, the donation of Rs. 1,383-5-0 and Rs. 10,326-4-0, respectively, referred to in paragraph 2 of the letter from the Secretary to the Fuller Endowment Committee, on the conditions specified—

> The sums will be funded and early arrangements will be made to give effect to the wishes of the donors.
> The Scholarship which will be founded shall be called the Fuller Exhibition.

Extract from Senate Proceedings of the 29th May 1875, Appendix II,

"THE FULLER EXHIBITION."

This endowment was founded under a Resolution of the Senate No. 9, dated 31st October 1874. The Fuller Endowment Committee made over to the Senate the sum of Rs. 11,709-9-2, of which Rs. 10,326-4-2 were to be devoted to founding a Scholarship, and Rs. 1,383-5-0 were to be combined with some existing Fellowship or Scholarship.

The Senate, in accepting the donation, directed that Rs. 10,326-4-2 should be funded, and a Scholarship, called the Fuller Exhibition, founded, the holder of the Exhibition drawing Rs. 420 per annum.

4. The original condition thus was that the Fuller Exhibition should be awarded to the best student at the High Proficiency in Arts Examination of each year, in which English was a compulsory subject, who shall continue his studies for the Honors in Arts Examination to be held in the following year : and it is thus tenable for one year. Adapting this condition to the present circumstances of the University, the Exhibition should be awarded to the successful candidate who stands highest at the B. A. Examination, and who continues his studies with a view to obtaining the M. A. degree.

5. The money thus accepted was actually paid to the Trustee on the 3rd December 1874, and the whole of it was at once invested by the Trustee, who, on the 16th December 1874, purchased Government 4 per cent paper, to the nominal value of Rs. 11,400 at a cost of Rs. 11,713-5-0, a sum slightly in excess of the amount made over by the Committee, such excess having been paid from the general balance at credit of the Funded Account. The annual income derived from this investment is Rs. 456, and this income is subject to an annual charge of Rs. 55-5-3, which represents the annual interest at 4 per cent upon the sum of Rs. 1,383-5-0 set aside for the benefit of the Alexandra Reader,—see Special Trust No. 2.

6. The Exhibition has been awarded to, and has been enjoyed by, the following graduates for the following periods :—

	From	To
Múl Ráj ...	1st January 1875 ...	31st December 1875.
Iswar Dás ...	1st January 1876 ...	31st December 1876.
Lál Chand ...	1st January 1877 ...	31st July 1878.
Narayan Dás ...	1st October 1878 ...	30th November 1879.
Muhammad Husain and Chuni Lál.	1st January 1880 ...	31st December 1880.
Umrao Singh ...	1st January 1881 ...	30th June 1882.
Abdul Azíz, B.O.L. ...	1st October 1882 ...	30th September 1883.
Maya Rám, B.A. ...	1st October 1883 ...	30th June 1884.
Ruchi Rám, B.A. ...	1st July 1884 ...	30th September 1885.
Guru Datta, B.A. ...	1st October 1885 ...	31st December 1885.

It is necessary to mention (1) that the division of the Exhibition in 1880 was wholly unauthorized and irregular,—Chuni Lál, in whose behalf this division was apparently made, having passed third at the High Proficiency in Arts Examination in 1878, while Muhammad Husain passed highest at that Examination in 1879; and (2) that Abdul Azíz, alias Harwas Ram, by whom the Exhibition was held from 1st October 1882 to 30th September 1883, was not eligible for it, inasmuch as he passed the High Proficiency in Arts Examination in 1882 on the Oriental side, in which English did not form a subject for examination. The candidate to whom it should have been awarded in 1882 was Rám Prásad.

7. The Trust now still possesses Government 4 per cent securities to the nominal value of Rs. 11,400, which produce an annual income of Rs. 456, of which, however, Rs. 55-5-3 should be considered as annually appropriated for the augmentation of the income derived from the Alexandra Trust.

The interest derived annually from this investment has been year after year credited to the Current Account, and the rate at which the scholarship has been usually paid to the scholars has been Rs. 35 per mensem, or Rs. 420 per annum. It is not yet possible to ascertain the amount actually paid in each year to each of the scholars above named, and until this information is obtained, it is not possible to say if the payments in discharge of the Trust have fallen short of, or have exceeded, the income received. This will be settled as soon as possible.

But, as the accounts of each Trust must, under the new Financial Rules, be separately kept, it is very desirable that the annual charge upon the income from this Endowment in favour of the Alexandra Trust, should be capitalized, and the amount capitalized transferred wholly to the Alexandra Trust Endowment.

The orders of the Senate will be necessary hereafter on this point and for the future regulation of the income.

No. 11.—Jhind Gurmukhi Scholarship.

Early in January 1881, His Highness the Rája of Jhínd paid a sum of Rs. 5,000 into the Rohtak Treasury as a donation to the Punjab University College. This donation was remitted to Lahore, and having been received by the Trustee on the 26th January, was credited to the Funded Account.

2. The following is a certified copy of the only document on record in the University office referring to this Trust :—

(No. 1.) No. 195, dated 15th January 1881.

From—W. M. YOUNG, Esquire, Secretary to Government, Punjab,

To—The Registrar, Punjab University College, Lahore.

I am desired to intimate that His Highness the Rája of Jhínd has made a donation of Rs. 5,000 to the Punjab University College for support of the Gurmukhi Section of the University College.

The Deputy Commissioner, Rohtak, has been instructed, through Commissioner, to receive the amount on tender, and the Accountant-General has been informed.

3. The only reference to this Trust in the recorded proceedings of the Meetings of the Senate is here extracted :—

Extract from Senate Proceedings, dated 29th January 1881.

"4. The Senate in congratulating the Institution on the financial and general progress made in the year 1880, then proceeded to pass the following vote of thanks :—

* * * * *

"4. To His Highness the Rája of Jhind for a sum of Rs. 5,000 for the Gurmukhi Section of the Oriental College."

4. The following are certified copies of correspondence bearing on the same subject placed at my disposal by the Accountant-General. The two former are on record in the University Office :—

(No. 2.) No. 49, dated 28th January 1881.

From—L. W. KING, Esquire, Assistant Commissioner, Rohtak,

To—The Principal, Government College, Lahore.

In reply to his No. 15, dated 26th instant, informs him that, in accordance with Accountant-General's docket No. 1109, dated 24th instant, copy of which is herewith enclosed, the amount has been credited in the Cash Account of the current month.

(ENCLOSURE.) No. 1109, dated 24th January 1881.

From—The Accountant-General, Punjab,

To—The Deputy Commissioner, Rohtak.

With reference to paragraph 3 of my No. 816 G. D., dated 18th current, I have the honor to request that the sum of Rs. 5,000 received from Jhind officials should be distinctly credited in your Cash Account for the current month.

(No. 3.) No. 52, dated 28th January 1881.

From—L. W. KING, Esquire, Assistant Commissioner, Rohtak,

To—The Accountant-General, Punjab.

In reply to his No. 1109, dated 24th instant, informs him that the sum of Rs. 5,000 has this day been credited in the Cash Account as directed.

2. Forwards copy of a docket No. 15, dated 26th instant, from the Principal of the Government College, Lahore, requesting the money to be sent to him, and solicits instructions on the point.

(ENCLOSURE.) No. 15, dated 26th January 1881.

From—Dr. G. W. LEITNER, Principal of the Government College, Lahore,

To—The Assistant Commissioner, Rohtak.

In reply to his No. 34, dated 22nd January 1881, has the honor to inform him that the best course would be to send the amount of Rs. 5,000 (five thousand) only to the Registrar of the Punjab University College, with instructions to place it to the credit of that institution, as an advance subscription for the next ten years, on condition that Rs. 600 be spent annually by the University College, on scholarships to students of Gurmukhi who have passed the Budhimán and Widwán Examinations, respectively, and are continuing their studies at the Oriental College, the only Institution at which a class has been formed for the instruction of Bháis, both in Punjabi literature and in branches of general knowledge. The scholars may appropriately be called Jhínd Budhimán or Jhínd Widwán Scholars, respectively.

(No. 4.) No 1618, dated 2nd February 1881.

From— The Accountant-General, Punjab,

To—The Deputy Commissioner, Rohtak.

In reply to para. 2 of your No. 52, dated the 28th January, I have the honor to state that it is not necessary for the sum of Rs. 5,000 to be remitted to the Registrar, Punjab University College. A cheque has already been issued to the Agent, Bank of Bengal, Lahore, with a request that the sum of Rs. 5,000 should be charged to Government by credit to Punjab University College account.

5. This donation having been, as above stated, credited to the Funded Account on the 26th January 1881, was not invested by the Trustee until 12th April 1882, when Government 4 per cent. paper, to the nominal value of Rs. 4,800, was purchased at a cost of Rs. 4,971-12-0, leaving Rs. 28-4-0 as a cash balance in the Funded Account. The interest annually arising from this investment is Rs. 192, and this amount has been always credited upon realization to the Current Account—certain scholarships having been charged to the Current Account per contra. Practically the income from this Trust has been added to the income arising from the Trust next described, No. 12, and from the Special Trust No. 31, and the account of the three Trusts combined, from the dates of investment to 31st December 1885, is stated under No. 12.

No 12.—Patiala Gurmukhi Scholarship.

The only paper on record is that of which the following is a certified copy :—

(No. 1.) No. 3271, dated Lahore, 12th September 1881.

From—W. M. YOUNG, Esquire, Secretary to Government, Punjab,

To—The Registrar, Punjab University College, Lahore.

I am desired to forward, for the information of the Senate, the accompanying copy of a letter, with translation, dated 10th August 1881, from the Mahárája of Patiála, intimating that His Highness has made a donation of Rs. 25,000 to the Punjab University College, to be utilized on certain objects indicated by His Highness.

2. This handsome donation will be paid into the Umballa Treasury. His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor considers that the amount should be invested in Government securities, and the interest applied strictly to the purposes for which the subscription has been given.

(ENCLOSURE.) Translation of a letter dated 10th August 1881.

From—His Highness the Mahárája of Patiála,

To—The Secretary to Government, Punjab.

After compliments.—In commemoration of my first visit to Lahore, on the occasion of the Viceregal Durbár, held there in November last, I promised to subscribe Rs. 25,000, for the public benefit, to the Punjab University College Funds. I wish that this sum may be utilized in the following manner :—

The interest of Rs. 10,000 should be spent on Gurmukhi teaching and scholarships, while the interest on Rs. 5,000 should be given to the students who may pass the Gyáni Examination in that language as scholarships; but so long as there are no such students, the money should be given in scholarships to the Gurmukhi students, and that the interest on the remaining sum of Rs. 10,000 should be utilized for the general benefit of the College.

It is my desire that the scholarships should be named after me in commemoration of my first visit to Lahore, on the occasion of the recent Viceregal Durbár.

I therefore beg that you may be pleased to inform the Punjab University College authorities of my wishes, and to direct the officer in ch rge of the Umballa Treasury to receive the sum of Rs. 25,000 from the Patiála authorities, and credit it to the Punjab University College Accounts.

2. The Senate at the Meeting held on the 29th January 1881, had passed a vote of thanks to the Mahárája for the donation in the following terms:—

Extract from Senate Proceedings, dated 29th January 1881.

"4. The Senate, in congratulating the Institution on the financial and general progress made in the year 1880, then proceeded to pass the following vote of thanks:—"

* * * * * * *

"3. To the Regency of the Patiála State for the offer of a donation of Rs. 25,000 on the occasion of the presentation of an address to His Excellency the Viceroy (the Marquis of Ripon), which will be found appended to these proceedings."

But no effective plan was laid down for the utilization of the income to the purpose indicated by the Patiála Regency.

3. The money was actually paid to the Trustee on the 7th December 1881, and the portion, Rs. 15,000, belonging to this Trust, was invested by him on the 12th April 1882, when Government 4 per cent. paper of the nominal value of Rs. 14,400 was purchased for Rs. 14,915-4-0.

4. The annual interest arising from this investment has been Rs. 576, and it has been hitherto credited to the Current Account, the expenditure upon Gurmukhi teaching and scholarships having been charged to the same account.

The following account shows how the income arising from this, the preceding Trust, and Trust No. 31 combined, which practically under the arrangement stated in paragraph 5 form one Trust, has been disposed of:—

	Rs. A. P.
(1). Interest from the Patiála Special Endowment, from 12th April 1882 to 31st December 1885, at Rs. 576 per annum	2,144 9 9
(2). Interest from the Jhínd Special Endowment (Special Trust No. 11), from 12th April 1882 to 31st December 1885, at Rs. 192 per annum	714 13 11
(3). Subscription from His Highness the Rája of Nábha for the three years 1883, 1884 and 1885 (Special Trust No. 31)	600 0 0
Total ...	3,459 7 8

The expenditure upon Gurmukhi teaching and scholarships during the three years ending 1st December 1885, has been as below stated:—

		Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.
Gurmukhi Teaching	... 1883	... 580 0 0
Ditto	... 1884	... 600 0 0
Ditto	... 1885	... 479 14 2
			1,659 14 2

Ditto	... 1885	... 805 14 3
Total	...	...	3,385 5 11

5. The Senate, by Resolution No. 34 passed at the Meeting held on the 30th November 1885, decided "that the proposals of the Sub-Committee regarding the Gurmukhi endowments be accepted and acted upon—vide paragraph 32, Report of Financial Committee," and the proposals of the Sub-Committee in question were as below extracted:—

(a).—As regards the Patiála, Jhínd and Nábha Scholarships, referred to in paragraph 32 of the Report, though only a portion of the Patiála donation (Rs. 5,000), was given for scholarships only, the remaining Rs. 10,000 being available either for teaching or for scholarships, and the Jhínd donation and Nábha annual subscription are not limited to scholarships, still as the Senate, by its Budget for 1883 and 1884, showed its intention to apply the interest of Rs. 10,000 of the Patiála donation and the whole of the income of the Jhínd endowment together with the Nábha subscription, to scholarships, it will probably be considered most appropriate to regard only Rs. 200, the interest of the remaining Rs. 5,000 of the Patiála endowment, as having been spent on the teaching staff in those years. If this view be accepted, Rs. 600 were available for Patiála and Jhínd scholarships in 1883, and Rs. 800 for Patiála, Jhínd and Nábha scholarships in 1884, or Rs. 1,400 in the two years; while the sum actually spent on these scholarships was Rs. 1,020-9-6. The balance, amounting to Rs. 380-6-6, might be placed in the Savings Bank to the credit of the Gurmukhi endowments, given by these three States, and any similar savings in 1885 and subsequent years may be added to this investment. It need not be limited to scholarships, as the Senate was not bound to allot so large a portion of the endowments to scholarships as it has done; and any attempt to divide the amount between the three endowments would be quite arbitrary, it being impossible to say which of them has not been fully spent.

These proposals, as will be seen by a reference to the facts recorded under this Article, and under Special Trusts Nos. 11 and 31, overstate the annual income from these endowments, and it is also advisable to remark in this connection that the Financial Committee, in paragraphs 32 et. seq. of their report, do not accurately state certain facts connected with these endowments.

Carrying out the proposals of the Sub-Committee, however, in accordance with the directions of the Senate quoted above, correcting the amount of the income and incorporating the transactions of the year 1885, the following will be the result:—

	Rs.	A.	P.
Interest and subscriptions shown in paragraph 4	3,459	7	8
Deducting interest on the portion of the investment purchased by Rs. 5,000 of the Patiála donation, which should be considered as having been spent on the teaching staff ...	714	13	11
Net receipts ...	2,744	9	9
Expenditure on scholarships shown in paragraph 4 ...	1,726	7	9
Saving due to the Trust from the Current Account ...	1,018	2	0

And the difference between the donations received and the cost of securities purchased amounting to Rs. 113-4-0, that amount is due to the Trust from the Funded Account.

No. 13.—Bikrama Singh Natural Science Scholarship.

On the 19th November 1880, Sardár Bikrama Singh, Ahlúwália, C.I.E., of Jullundur, paid a subscription of Rs. 1,100 for the general purposes of the University, upon condition that the Senate agreed to give in perpetuum a Natural Science Scholarship of Rs. 5 per mensem, tenable in the Oriental College.

2. I cannot find any original papers regarding this donation, nor can I find any trace of the alleged conditions of the endowment having been considered and agreed to by the Senate. The only entry in the Proceedings of the Senate regarding this donation is contained in the recorded Proceedings of the Meeting held on 29th January 1881, when the Senate passed votes of thanks to several donors, and, amongst them, a vote of thanks to Sardár Bikrama Singh, for paying a subscription of "Rs. 1,100, provided the Senate agree to give a Natural Science Scholarship of Rs. 5 per mensem in the Oriental College," and to this condition the Senate apparently agreed.

3. This scholarship has been held by the following persons:—

	From	To
Pandit Anant Rám ...	8th January 1883 ...	30th September 1884.
" Mathra Dás ...	1st October 1884 ...	31st May 1885
" Rám Kishen ...	1st June 1885 ...	31st December 1885

4. This donation of Rs. 1,100 was credited to the Current Account, and was expended on the general purposes of the University, and consequently, according to the recorded terms of the agreement, the University is bound to grant a perpetual scholarship of Rs. 60 per annum out of its own resources.

It is a question for the consideration of the Senate whether it would not be now desirable to create a permanent endowment for this perpetual obligation, which may possibly, in the course of future years, be overlooked if it is retained in its present position. To create a permanent endowment it would be necessary to purchase Government 4 per cent securities to the nominal value of Rs. 1,500, which would just now cost about Rs. 1,480—a sum considerably in excess of the amount of the donation made in 1881. The acceptance of such proposals as that under which this obligation was incurred, although possibly desirable from other points of view, involves an ultimate financial loss to the University.

No. 14.—The Egerton-Maler Kotla Arabic Scholarship.

On the 19th December 1881 the Deputy Commissioner of Ludhiána, remitted to the Registrar, Punjab University College, a sum of Rs. 3,000, which was at once credited to the Current Account.

This remittance represented a donation presented by His Highness the Nawáb of Maler Kotla, which he desired should be invested for the purpose of founding an annual gold medal in honor of Sir Robert Eyles Egerton, K.C.S.I., C.I.E., then Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab.

2. Certified copies of the original papers on record in the University Office regarding this Trust are here printed.

(No. 1.)

No. 4143, dated Lahore, 17th November 1881.

From—W. M. YOUNG, Esquire, Secretary to Government, Punjab,

To—The Registrar, Punjab University College.

I am desired to inform you that the Nawáb of Maler Kotla has made a donation of Rs. 3,000 to the Punjab University College. The sum, which will be sent to you through the Commissioner of the Umballa Division, should be applied to the purposes of the General Fund, unless the Nawáb should express a desire to appropriate the donation to any special fund in connection with the University College.

(No. 2.)

No. 19, dated Lahore, 18th January 1882.

From—W. M. YOUNG, Esquire, Secretary to Government, Punjab,

To—The Registrar, Punjab University College.

In continuation of my letter No. 4143, dated 17th November, regarding the donation of Rs. 3,000 made to the Punjab University College by the Nawáb of Maler Kotla, I am desired to forward, for the information of the Senate, copy of the letters marginally noted, and to request that, as the Nawáb has finally made no suggestion regarding the disposal of his subscription, the Senate will be good enough to consider how it may be most advantageously laid out, and that you will inform me of the Senate's decision, in order that it may be communicated to the Nawáb.

Commissioner Umballa's No. 4, dated 4th January 1882,

(ENCLOSURE No. 1.)

No. 464, dated 10th December 1881.

From—The Commissioner and Superintendent, Umballa Division,

To—The Secretary to Government, Punjab.

In reply to your No. 4142, dated 17th November 1881, I have the honor to forward a murásila from the Nawáb of Maler Kotla, expressing his wish that the Rs. 3,000 should be invested for the purpose of maintaining a yearly gold medal to bear Sir Robert Egerton's name.

2. The Nawáb has not indicated any particular branch in which he wishes the medal given, but apparently leaves that point to be decided by His Honor.

3. I have the honor to enquire as to who is the proper person to make the investment—the Registrar of the University or the Accountant-General.

(ENCLOSURE No. 2.)

No. 4605, dated 20th December 1881.

From—W. M. YOUNG, Esquire, Secretary to Government, Punjab,

To—The Commissioner and Superintendent, Umballa Division.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of the murásila from the Nawáb of Maler Kotla, forwarded with your No. 464, dated 10th instant, expressing his wish that the Rs. 3,000 subscribed by him towards the Punjab University College should be invested for the purpose of maintaining a yearly gold medal to bear Sir Robert Egerton's name; and in reply to state that His Honor feels grateful for the kind intention of the Nawáb, but thinks it would be a pity to expend the amount on a gold medal, as he is unable to suggest any particular subject on account of which it might be conferred.

2. The Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor would suggest, for the Nawab's consideration, that the interest of the Rs. 3,000 will give a scholarship of Rs. 10 per mensem, and thinks that, if the Nawáb will consent to devote the money for this purpose, it would be the most appropriate way of allotting it. The student might be a nominee of the Maler Kotla State, or in default of such, the scholarship might be conferred upon some other student.

(ENCLOSURE No. 3.)

No. 4, dated 4th January 1882.

From—The Commissioner and Superintendent, Umballa Division,

To—The Secretary to Government, Punjab.

In reply to your letter No. 4605, dated 20th ultimo, I beg to state that the Nawáb of Maler Kotla agrees to the suggestion of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, that the interest accruing on the Nawáb's subscription of Rs. 3,000 be devoted to the grant of a scholarship to any student in the Punjab.

3. The Senate, however, at the meeting held on the 17th April 1882, made a counter-proposal, described in the extract from the published proceedings of that meeting which is subjoined—

7. As regards proposal 3, regarding the Maler Kotla donation of Rs. 3,000, the Senate generally accepted the views expressed by the Executive Committee in their proposal 3, adding the hope that His Highness would also see his way to the perpetuation of the annual Maler Kotla gold medal, given to the best man in whatever subject in every year, as well as of the Maler Kotla Scholarship, for both of which an annual subscription of Rs. 600 was sufficient. It was then proposed by Mr. Young, and seconded by General Pollard, " that a reply be sent to Government acknowledging the Rs. 3,000 that had been sent through it, and asking His Highness whether he had any objection to the amount being carried to the revival of the old Maler Kotla Arabic Scholarship which had fallen into abeyance owing to his not having sent the necessary funds; and that, if he so desired, it would, in future, be termed the 'Egerton-Maler Kotla Scholarship,' and awarded to the man in every year who stood first in the Punjab in the Maulvi Examination." Carried unanimously.

3. The Executive Committee recommend that the donation of His Highness the Nawáb of Maler Kotla of Rs. 3,000 be accepted in part payment of the amount (Rs. 5,200) due by him for the Maler Kotla Arabic Scholarship and the McLeod-Maler Kotla Medal, since 1872, and advanced by the Punjab University College on behalf of his State; the former of which, as referred to in the Review of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor on the Educational Report for 1878-79 has recently ceased; and they further recommend that the first man in the Maulvi Examination of the year be styled " The Egerton-Maler Kotla Scholar," and that he receive a scholarship of Rs. 120 for one year, being the amount equivalent to the interest at 4 per cent of the sum now given by His Highness.

4. A certified copy of the correspondence which followed the resolution of the Senate above recorded is here added—

(No. 3.) Extract of letter No. 136, dated Simla, 9th June 1882.

4. The Nawáb of Maler Kotla will be addressed through the Commissioner of Umballa, in accordance with the Senate's Resolution in paragraph 7, and his reply when received will be communicated to you.

(No. 4.) No. 519, dated 5th September 1883.

From—The Commissioner and Superintendent, Umballa Division,

To—The Secretary to Government, Punjab.

IN reply to your No. 137, dated 9th June 1882, I have the honor to report that the Nawáb accepts the proposals of Government with regard to the disposition of the interest of the Rs. 3,000 subscribed by him for an Egerton Scholarship.

2. I much regret the delay that has occurred in this reference. It has been occasioned by a search for the papers connected with the late Nawáb's yearly donation, which seems to have been arranged independently of this office; at least no trace of them is to be found.

Endorsement by the Punjab Government.

No. 295, dated Lahore, 14th September 1883.

Copy forwarded to the Registrar, Punjab University, Lahore, in continuation of paragraph 4 of this office letter No. 136, dated 9th June 1882.

5. It will be noticed that no definite instructions are given either in the Resolution of the Senate above extracted, or in the letter written to the Government, in reply to No. 137, dated 9th June 1882, by the Commissioner of the Umballa Division, regarding the disposal of the principal which the Nawáb at first, according to the correspondence recorded in para. 2 above, desired should be invested. It will also be noticed that in the letter No. 519, dated 5th September 1883, from the Commissioner and Superintendent of the Umballa Division, to the Government, which is printed in para. 4, that the Nawáb accepted the proposals of Government with regard to the disposition of the interest of the Rs. 3,000 subscribed by him for an Egerton Scholarship, and as the Nawáb thus only agreed to the proposition for the disposal of the interest on the endowment, it must, I am afraid, be assumed that the Nawáb was under the supposition that the endowment created by his gift of Rs. 3,000 actually existed and had not been expended in the current account for general purposes.

6. The Resolution of the Senate, printed above, was passed upon a recommendation of the Executive Committee, which is printed in the margin of the proceedings held on the 17th April 1882. This recommendation appears to have been based upon the erroneous supposition that the amount of the old Maler Kotla Arabic Scholarship, originally subscribed by the Nawáb, was for several years advanced by the University.

7. The Egerton-Maler Kotla Arabic Scholarship has only been once bestowed, viz., upon Qázi Nazír Hasan, who held it from 1st December 1883 to 30th June 1885. Qázi Nazír Hasan passed highest in the High Proficiency in Arabic or Maulvi Alim Examination, 1883, and was not therefore entitled to the scholarship according to the proposal of the Senate recorded in para. 3.

8. The Trust is apparently entitled to the restoration of the capital misapplied to the current account, together with interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum from 19th December 1881 to 31st December 1885, a deduction being made on account of the amount paid in the years 1883, 1884 and 1885 on account of the scholarship. If this supposition is correct, the aggregate amount to be replaced will be Rs. 3,484-4-4 on account of the principal and interest up to 31st December 1885, less Rs. 183-3-9 paid on account of the scholarship from 1st December 1883 to 30th June 1885, or a net sum of Rs. 3,301-0-7.

Before coming to a final decision upon the restoration of the money belonging to this Trust, the insolvent position of Special Trust No. 16, also founded by a Nawáb of Maler Kotla, should perhaps be considered by the Senate.

No. 15. (Brandreth Endowment).—The Registrar's Prize.

On the 5th December 1871, a sum of Rs. 500 was paid and credited to the Funded Account which was presented during the previous month by Mr. Arthur Brandreth, Barrister-at-Law, of the Bengal Civil Service, at that time holding the office of Commissioner and Superintendent of the Mooltan Division, for the purpose of founding an annual prize to be called "The Registrar's Prize."

2. I can find no original papers relating to this donation, and the only reference to it in the office records is contained in the proceedings of the Executive Committee at the meeting held on the 25th November 1871, of which the following is a certified extract :—

Mr. Brandreth's letter insisting on the interest of his donation of Rs. 500 being called "The Registrar's Prize" was read out. It was resolved to recommend to Senate that the interest be doubled, and that it be given to the best man at the purely Oriental examinations who passed in any subject connected with the History, Literature and Language of India or of countries connected with India fixed by the Executive Committee.

This recommendation was, so far as I can ascertain from the recorded proceedings, never placed before the Senate. I have twice addressed Mr. Brandreth with a view of ascertaining the real conditions on which his donation was presented in December 1871, but I have not been able to obtain any very definite reply regarding the conditions imposed by him, beyond the fact that he desired his donation invested and the income utilized as a prize.

3. The donation was credited to the Funded Account by the Trustee, and was invested in Government securities as a part of an investment made on the 6th January 1872 at a cost of Rs. 498-12-0.

The annual interest has been annually passed to the credit of the Current Account, and, except in the year 1882, when a prize of Rs. 25 was awarded to one Ahmad Dín by the directions of Dr. Leitner, then Registrar, the interest has invaribly been expended on the general purposes of the University.

4. It is requisite now for the Senate to determine the position which this Trust shall occupy for the future, as well as what arrangement should be made regarding the part appropriated by the Current Account of the income of this Trust.

A strict adherence to what was apparently the tenor of the letter from Mr. Brandreth, read at the Meeting of the Executive Committee held on the 25th November 1871, would necessitate the replacement from the Current Account of the interest on Rs. 500, at four per cent., from the 6th January 1872 to 31st December 1885, the cost of the prize granted in 1882 being deducted. If this arrangement is ordered the amount to be replaced would be Rs. 280-15-7, viz., Rs. 279-11-7 interest from 6th January 1872 to 31st December 1885, and Re. 1-4-0 the balance remaining from the original donation after the Government paper had been purchased, less Rs. 25 paid away in 1882 as the prize, or a net sum of Rs. 255-15-7.

No. 16.—The Maler Kotla-McLeod Medal.

The only original papers connected with this Trust are two vernacular letters of which I transcribe accurate translations :—

(No. 1.)

Dated the 27th December 1870.

From—Nawáb MUHAMMAD SIKANDAR ALI KHAN, Ráis, Maler Kotla,

To—The Gentleman kind to friends (Sáhib Meharbán Dostán), Lahore.

I had written you before of my intention to found a scholarship of Rs. 15 per mensem, to be given to a student who may read Arabic in the Lahore College. I had also expressed my intention of giving money for making a bust of Sir Donald McLeod, the late Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab. Now I have purposed to pay you Rs. 1,000 for the bust (which are paid to me by Government through the district of Ludhiána, out of the Customs duties). The price of the bust will shortly reach you through Mr. McNabb. The money for the Arabic scholarship will also reach you every year through the Deputy Commissioner of Ludhiána. I have so arranged that it is hoped that currency notes will be sent to you on account of the money so fixed.

Dated the 22nd January 1871.

From—Nawáb MUHAMMAD SIKANDAR ALI KHAN, Ráis, Maler Kotla,

To—The Gentlemen kind to friends (Sáhibán Meharbán Dostán), Lahore.

I received your letter, and come to know all that you had written. I have paid a sum of Rs. 1,000 in the Agent's Office, Umballa, and believe that you will soon get it. You are at liberty either to make a die for the medal I wish to give or a bust of Sir Donald McLeod, with whom I had talked about the latter plan. I am ready to pay what the bust may cost above what I have given. But as you are in favor of making a die, and as the plan you propose is more conductive to the public benefit, therefore I concur with you on this point. I send you a hundi of Rs. 580, of which Rs. 180 are for the year 1871 and Rs. 400 as annual subscription. In future I shall always send you a receipt, and hope that you will pay off the Arabic scholarship given by me by drawing money from the Ludhiána Treasury.

2. It appears that Nawáb Muhammad Sikandar Ali Khân, of Maler Kotla, on the 5th January 1872, presented the donation of Rs. 1,000 which is referred to in the above communication. He apparently desired that the donation should be invested, and that the income should be devoted to the establishment of a medal to be called the "Maler Kotla-McLeod Medal," and to be awarded annually to the best man of the year, whether in Arts (including Oriental), Law, Medicine or Engineering.

3. The donation, however, was not invested, but was credited to the Current Account, and expended in the general purposes of the Punjab University College. Notwithstanding this misapplication of the principal, a medal called the "Maler Kotla-McLeod Medal" has been awarded to the following students :—

Múlráj	1874
Iswar Dás	1877
Lál Chand	1878
Panchanan Mukerji	1879
Pírzáda Muhammad Husain	1880
Umrao Singh	1882
Chuni Lál	1883
Jiya Rám	1884

The cost of these medals has been defrayed from the Current Account of the University; and on the 3rd March 1876, a sum of Rs. 504, the equivalent, at an exchange of 1*s.* 8*d.* per rupee, of £42, was paid from the Current Account to Mr. Wyon for an alternative die for the "Maler Kotla-McLeod Medal." The die is in the custody of Mr. Wyon.

4. It seems advisable to mention here that "in the nominal list showing the Special Trusts discharged from the interests and profits of separate investments" prepared by Dr. Leitner in October 1885, and now before the Syndicate, Serial No. 11, it is stated that this donation is included in the general allotment, a phrase which is, to say the least, ambiguous; that Rs. 40 is the annual income from the investment; that the income is spent in accordance with the wishes of the donor; but that the expenditure in providing the annual medal exceeds the income. A similar statement has been practically reported in every edition of the Calendar, but it is nevertheless inaccurate.

5. If an accurate account is now compiled, opening with the original donation of Rs. 1,000, and being debited with the cost of the die, Rs. 504, and with the cost of the medals annually presented, which has averaged about Rs. 100 per annum, the insolvency of the Trust would be clearly demonstrated. Such an account cannot be prepared without a reference to Mr. Wyon, who in the absence of the vouchers alone can state the sums paid to him for the medals.

The amount of the donation presented has consequently been long ago alienated, while the University has expended considerably more than it has received in connection with this Trust. The specific orders of the Senate for the restoration or abolition of the Trust will now be requisite.

No. 17.—The Jaishi Ram Medals.

On the 15th April 1875, the committee of subscribers to a fund raised for the purpose of establishing a memorial in honor of Munshi Jaishi Rám, Extra Assistant Commissioner, who was assassinated on the 31st August 1871, whilst temporarily acting as Judge of the Small Cause Court at Lahore, paid over to the Registrar of the Punjab University College the funds collected, aggregating Rs. 2,002, and expressed a desire that the funds so collected should, with the approval of the Senate of the Punjab University College, be devoted to the endowment of a prize to be given annually in the Law School.

2. A certified copy of the letter No. 746, dated 8th April 1875, from the Deputy Commissioner of Lahore, through whose instrumentality the fund was raised, is appended :—

No. 746, dated Lahore, 8th April 1875.

From—Captain R. P. NISBET, Deputy Commissioner, Lahore,

To—The Offg. Registrar, Punjab University College, Lahore.

Referring to your No. 644, dated 15th October 1874, I have now the honor to state that the Committee of the Jaishi Rám Memorial Fund have closed their proceedings.

2. The amount of subscriptions collected by the Committee is Rs. 2,002, for which sum I enclose a cheque in your favor on the Punjab Bank. There are also subscriptions still outstanding to the amount of Rs. 265, of which I send a detail, and which it may be quite possible still to collect, and I hope you will endeavour to do so, though, if the Committee had deferred closing their proceedings, it would have indefinitely postponed the transfer of the funds in hand to you.

3. The Committee, as you are aware, have resolved that the funds collected, and now remitted to you, should, with the approval of the Senate of the Púnjab University College, be devoted to endowing a prize to be given annually in the Law School of the University College, in the form of a gold medal, and one or more silver medals to be called the Jaishi Rám Medals.

4. I shall be glad to hear from you in what way the Senate of the Punjab University College consent to carry out this proposal.

As noted opposite the names of two subscribers in the above list, two more subscriptions were paid subsequently, so that the whole sum collected was Rs. 2,037.

3. And the Senate, at the meeting held on the 29th May 1875, accepted this proposal in the following terms :—

"The Jaishi Rám Medals."

"The Jaishi Rám Memorial Committee presented the sum of Rs. 2,002 to the Senate of the Punjab University College, for the purpose of establishing a prize in connection with the Law School, and desired that the prizes should take the form of one gold and one or more silver medals, to be called the Jaishi Rám Medals, to be awarded, under the orders of the Senate, to students of the Law School.

"The Senate, in accepting the donations, being of opinion that the funds were not sufficient for the endowment of more than one annual gold medal, has prescribed the following rule in regard to its award :—An annual gold medal, to be called the Jaishi Rám Gold Medal, shall be awarded to the student who shall stand first at the Final Examination in Law each year; provided that he shall have complied with all the rules regarding admission, character and examination for the time being in force in the Law School. Silver medals will be struck if the funds prove to be sufficient, and the conditions of their award will be prescribed hereafter."

4. The medals have been awarded to the following students :—

Gold Medal.

Jhínda Rám	...	1878
Piyárí Lál, Qánúngo	...	1879
Thákur Dás	...	1881

Bansi Rám	...	1883

5. The money was soon after invested, and Government four per cent securities, to the nominal value of Rs. 2,000, were purchased at a cost of Rs. 2,045; the small excess over the aggregate of the subscriptions collected being met from the general balance at credit of the funded account.

This Trust is at present hopelessly insolvent. A pair of medal dies were executed for these medals by Mr. Wyon, at a cost of £68 5*s.*, for which at an exchange of 1*s.* 8*d.* per rupee, Rs. 819 were paid on the 3rd March 1876 from the current account. Had this sum been paid, as it should have been paid, out of the subscriptions collected, the invested capital belonging to the Trust would have been very materially reduced. The cost of the medals annually executed in London, and presented year after year to the persons named in para. 4, has exceeded Rs. 120 per annum; the actual amount cannot be ascertained owing to the disappearance of the vouchers, without a reply to a reference made to Mr. Wyon, whilst the interest on the invested capital, without any deduction for the cost of the medal dies, has never exceeded Rs. 80 per annum.

The specific orders of the Senate are now necessary for the continuance or suspension of this Trust, at the credit of which Government four per cent. securities to the nominal value of Rs. 2,000 nominally stand.

No. 18.—The Maclagan Prize.

On the 11th July 1879, Rái Bahádur Kanhya Lál, M.I.C.E., Executive Engineer, Lahore, who had been acting as Secretary to a Committee of subscribers to a fund raised to perpetuate the memory of General Robert Maclagan, R.E., who for many years occupied the office of Chief Engineer, Punjab, and Secretary to the Punjab Government in the Department of Public Works, transmitted to the Registrar of the Punjab University College, the sum of Rs. 2,050, realized by public subscription to the above-mentioned memorial, and requested that the money might be invested in Government securities, or otherwise as the Registrar might consider best for the endowment of a Public Works prize in honor of General Maclagan, to be given annually at the Punjab University College.

The money was not invested by the Trustee until the 10th February 1881, when Government four per cent securities to the nominal value of Rs. 2,000 were purchased at a cost of Rs. 2,025-1-4.

2. A certified copy of Rái Kanhya Lál's letter is subjoined:—

No. 941 D., dated 11th July 1879.

From—Rái Bahádur KANHYA LAL, Executive Engineer, Lahore Division, and Secretary, Maclagan Memorial Committee,

To—The Registrar, Punjab University College, Lahore.

IN continuation of paragraph 3, of my letter of 25th February last, I have the honor to forward herewith Rs. 2,050 only, being amount realized on account of Maclagan Memorial, and to request that the money may be invested in Government securities or otherwise, as you may consider best, for the endowment of a Public Works Prize in honor of General Maclagan, to be given annually at the Punjab University College.

2. Acknowledgment of amount will oblige.

3. And the Senate, at the meeting held on the 6th May 1879, had previously agreed to the proposal in the following terms:—

Recommendation of Executive Committee.

"No. 7.—The Executive Committee recommend that Rái Bahádur Kanhya Lál's generous offer, to make over the Public Works Memorial subscription in honor of General Maclagan, to the Punjab University College, be accepted with thanks, and that the annual interest on the sum of Rs. 2,049 already subscribed, be devoted to a medal to be given to the man who, being, or having been, a graduate or undergraduate of the Punjab University College, stands highest in the highest Engineering Examination of the year, wherever the same may be held."

Decision of Senate.

The seventh proposal was accepted: the President of the Executive Committee, seconded by Dr. Leitner, and all the members present agreeing, presented the thanks of the Senate to Rái Kanhya Lál and his supporters in the Public Works Department, for founding a Maclagan Medal in connection with the Punjab University College.

4. No candidate has ever passed the Final Examination in Civil Engineering according to the prescribed Regulations, and as that examination is the highest examination of the University in Civil Engineering, the medal should seemingly never have been awarded. It was, however, awarded in 1882 to Ganga Rám, for whose benefit a special examination, under the authority of the Registrar, Dr. G. W. Leitner, was held in November 1881. A khillat and medal, costing Rs. 80, were presented to Ganga Rám, at the Inaugural Convocation in November 1882, but no award has since been made, for the reason that no one has passed the Final Examination in Civil Engineering, which, as stated above, is the highest examination in Civil Engineering held by the University.

5. The Trust on the 10th February 1881, possessed Government four per cent securities, to the nominal value of Rs. 2,000, which, as stated above, were purchased at a cost of Rs. 2,025-1-4, a small balance of Rs. 24-14-8 having been left at credit of the funded account. This investment produces an annual income of Rs. 80, which has annually been credited to the current account, but the facts here stated show that the Trust is now entitled to an augmentation of Rs. 390-11-10 in respect to the income arising from the endowment from 11th February 1881 to 31st December 1885, which was credited to, and expended in, the current account. The cost of the medal and khillat presented in 1882, viz., Rs. 80, to Ganga Rám being deducted from this sum, and the small difference between the amount subscribed and the cost of the investment being added to it, a net sum of Rs. 335-10-6 is due now from the current and the funded accounts on account of this Trust.

Nos. 19 and 20.—Benefaction of Nawab Inayat Ali Khan of Maler Kotla.

There is no trace of any original correspondence relating to this Trust, but I gather from verbal evidence available to me that His Highness the Nawáb Ináyat Ali Khán of Maler Kotla visited the Senate Hall on the 17th January 1881, and personally presented a donation of Rs. 2,000 to the Registrar, which he desired should be separated into two benefactions.

No. 19.—The Watson Medal.

One moiety of his donation, viz., Rs. 1,000, he desired should be devoted to provide the means of founding a silver medal in honor of Major-General Sir John Watson, K.C.B., to be awarded annually to the student who stands highest in the examination held by the Punjab University in Political Economy.

No. 20.—The Griffin Prize.

The second moiety he desired should be assigned for the foundation in honor of Sir Lepel Henry Griffin, K.C.S.I., of an annual prize to be given to the candidate who shall stand highest in Muhammadan Law, in the examination held by the Punjab University for Qázís.

3. These proposals, thus informally tendered, do not appear to have been formally considered or accepted by the Senate, which, however, at the meeting held on the 29th January 1881, passed a vote of thanks to the Nawáb for the donations made, and in the vote of thanks the proposals as above explained were recited.

The Watson Medal has been awarded to the following students :—

Sheikh Umar Bakhsh (Honors in Arts)	1882
Arjan Singh, M.A.	1883
Sri Rám, M.A.	1884
Sant Rám, M.A.	1885

The Griffin Prize has been awarded to the following :—

Kázi Zaffar-ud-dín	1882
Muhammad Husain	1883

4. This donation of Rs. 2,000 was credited by the Trustee to the funded account, on the 17th January 1881, but was not invested until the 12th April 1882, when Government four per cent securities, to the nominal value of Rs. 1,900, were purchased at a cost of Rs. 1,967-15-8, leaving a cash balance of Rs. 32-0-4 at credit of the Trust.

Apportioning these amounts in moieties, each Trust would, on the 12th April 1882, have possessed an invested capital in Government securities, to the nominal value of Rs. 950 and a cash balance of Rs. 16-0-2.

The annual interest arising from this investment has been always credited to the current account, to which account has been charged the cost of the medals and prizes awarded.

The correct account of each Trust would be therefore as follows :—

Inayat Ali-Watson Medal.

	Rs.	A.	P.
Balance on 12th April 1882	16	0	2
Interest at the rate of four per cent per annum on Rs. 950 from 13th April 1882 to 31st December 1885	141	6	1
Total receipts...	157	6	3
Cost of medals bestowed in 1882, 1883, 1884 and 1885	165	0	0
Sum paid from current account in excess of receipt ...	7	9	9

Inayat Ali-Griffin Prize.

	Rs.	A.	P.
Balance on the 12th April 1882	16	0	2
Interest at the rate of four per cent per annum on Rs. 950 from 13th April 1882 to 31st December 1885	141	6	1

No. 21.—The Alwar Medal.

On the 12th May 1882, the sum of Rs. 2,500 was received from H. H. Sri Sawai Mangal Singh Bahádur, Maháráo Rája of Alwar, as an Endowment Fund to provide for the annual award of a gold medal to the best student in both English and Sanskrit.

2. Attested copies of the correspondence on the subject have been obtained from the Political Agent at Alwar and are subjoined :—

(No. 1.) No. 144, dated 9th March 1882.

From—Dr. G. W. LEITNER, M.A., LL.D., Registrar, Punjab University College, Lahore,

To—The Political Agent, Alwar.

WITH reference to his marginal note* to Mr. A. Brandreth, late Judge of the Chief Court, Punjab, forwarding a letter from His Highness the Maháraja of Alwar, offering to endow an annual medal of the value of Rs. 100, to be awarded to the best student in both English and Sanskrit during the year, has the honor to state that the conditions of this generous offer have been accepted by the authorities of this Institution, and that the necessary amount to secure the aforesaid endowment (viz. Rs. 2,500) may be sent to undersigned at His Highness's early convenience, as the next examination will take place in May next, after which the results in all branches will be declared.

* Dated 22nd August 1881.

(No. 2.) No. 256 G., dated 1st May 1882.

From—The Political Agent, Alwar,

To—The Registrar, Punjab University College, Lahore.

WITH reference to the correspondence ending with your docket No. 144, dated 9th March last, I have the honor to forward herewith first halves of Government currency notes, aggregating Rs. 2,500 (two thousand five hundred), as Endowment Fund for the annual award of a gold medal to the best student in both English and Sanskrit.

2. The second halves of the notes will follow on your acknowledging the halves now sent.

3. I also enclose extract of a letter from His Highness the Maháráo Rája's Secretary, intimating the wish of His Highness, relative to the design of the medal.

(ENCLOSURE.)

Dated 1st May 1882.

From—The Secretary to His Highness the Maháráo Rája of Alwar,

To—The Political Agent, Alwar.

IN the correspondence which was lately received from the Senate of the Punjab University College, Lahore, intimating the acceptance by that body of the endowment made by His Highness the Maháráo Rája of Alwar, for the purpose of awarding a gold medal annually to the best student in Sanskrit and English, I find no mention has been made regarding the design of this medal, and I consequently beg you would kindly inform the Senate that the Maháráo Rája wishes the following may be adopted :—

That there should be a bust representation, and the name of His Highness on the obverse side of the medal. On the reverse side there should be the name of the Punjab University College round the border, and the following inscription in the centre :—

For Proficiency in Sanskrit and English.

Should the Senate have any objection to this proposal, or should they be inclined to suggest another form, I beg due intimation of this may be given beforehand. The money has been sent through your office, and I hope it has reached the Managers of the University.

3. It does not appear that the conditions of this Trust were ever reported by the Registrar (Dr. Leitner) to the Executive Committee, and consequently they were not reported by the Executive Committee to the Senate. The receipt of the donation was, however, reported at the Inaugural Convocation of the University on the 18th November 1882, and the Maháráo Rája's representative was on that occasion specially presented to His Excellency the Viceroy as the representative of the donor.

The Senate, however, by Resolution No. 24, at the meeting held on the 28th November 1885, directed that a die should be provided for the medal, in accordance with the original conditions of the donor, the cost of which should be paid from the endowment for that purpose; that a medal be annually provided from the interest on the remaining capital, and that the interest on the endowment from 1st July 1883, be repaid to the Alwar Endowment Fund from the current account.

In obedience to these directions, the die has been executed at a cost of Rs. 300 by Messrs. Hamilton & Co. of Calcutta, and two gold medals have been provided by the same firm for presentation to the candidates qualified during the years 1886 and 1887.

4. As His Highness the Maháráo Rája of Alwar seemed to take considerable personal interest in the execution of the die, one of the medals provided was sent for his inspection, and although not altogether pleased with his bust as portrayed on the medal, he has supplemented his gift by a further donation of Rs. 400 to defray the cost of the die, and the cost of one medal, which he desires to retain as a specimen and a memorial, of his gift.

5. The original donation was actually received by the Trustee on the 12th August 1882, and although at once credited to the funded account, was not actually invested until July 1883, when Government four per cent securities, to the nominal value of Rs. 9,000 were purchased by the Trustee at a cost of Rs. 9,123-14-9. At this rate the cost of Government four per cent securities, to the nominal value of Rs. 2,500 was Rs. 2,534-6-9. If, therefore, as ordered by the Senate at the meeting held on the 28th November 1885, interest on the endowment from 1st July 1883 to 31st December 1885, is added to the original donation, the account of the Trust will stand thus—

	Rs.	A.	P.
Received—
Amount of donation...	2,500	0	0
Interest at four per cent per annum from 1st July 1883 to 31st December 1885	250	6	6
Total	2,750	6	6
Expended—
Cost of Government four per cent securities to the nominal value of Rs. 2,500	2,534	6	9
Cash balance at credit of the Trust, payable from the current account	215	15	8

The account of the Trust has been accordingly adjusted on this basis.

No. 22.—Rai Kanhya Lal-Pollard Prize.

On the 3rd January 1883, Rái Bahádur Kanhya Lál, M.I.C.E., presented a sum of Rs. 1,000 to the University, for the purpose of founding a prize to be called the "Rái Kanhya Lál-Pollard Prize,' which he desired should be awarded annually to the candidate who stands first in the First Examination in Civil Engineering. The prize was designed to be given in the shape of Engineering Books or cases of Drawing Instruments.

2. The donor desired his donation invested, it is presumed, in Government securities, and the income arising therefrom to be devoted to the object declared in his letter tendering the donation.

A certified copy of his letter, on the subject, is subjoined :—

Dated Lahore, 3rd January 1883.

From—Rai Bahadur KANHYA LAL, M.I.C.E., Member of Senate, Punjab University, To—The Registrar, Punjab University, Lahore.

Herewith a currency note, No. $\frac{P}{12}$ 19071 for Rs. 1,000, as a special donation to the Punjab University for founding a prize in honor of General Pollard, R.E., to be called "Rai Kanhya Lal-Pollard Prize," and to be given, annually, to the best candidate who stands first in the First Examination of the Punjab University in Civil Engineering.

I beg to suggest that the money may be invested, and the interest accruing therefrom be used in giving the above prize, in the shape of engineering books or cases of drawing instruments, &c.

Please acknowledge the receipt of the amount, and oblige.

3. The Senate, at the meeting held on the 27th January 1883, accepted the donation on the condition proposed by the donor. The following is a true extract from the proceedings of the Senate at that meeting :—

"7. The Syndicate reported that Rai Bahadur Kanhya Lal, C.E., had made a donation in the present year of Rs. 1,000, on the condition that the amount should be invested, and the interest accruing therefrom should be used in giving a prize in the shape of engineering books or drawing instruments to the candidate who stands first in the First Examination in Civil Engineering of the Punjab University.

"Resolved, that a vote of thanks be tendered to Rai Bahadur Kanhya Lal, and that the donation be accepted upon the terms proposed by him."

4. The donation was not invested, at the time of its receipt, in accordance with the directions of the Senate, conveyed in the resolution extracted in the preceding paragraph, but as the prize was awarded in the years 1883, 1884 and 1885, at the rate of Rs. 40 for each year at the expense of the Current Account, the Senate, by Resolution No. 23, passed at the meeting held on the 28th November 1885, determined that "a sum equivalent to the donation of Rai Kanhya Lal should be set apart in the Funded Account under his name." This decision has been acted upon, and the Trust possessed on the 31st December 1885 Government 4 per cent securities to the nominal value of Rs. 1,000.

5. The prize, consisting on each occasion of a purse containing Rs. 40, has been awarded to the following persons:—

Guláb Singh	...	...	...	1883
Jai Rám	...	...	...	1884
Saran Dás	...	...	...	1885

The conditions of the Trust, as above set forth, do not appear to permit the bestowal of money prizes, and yet no prizes, but money prizes, have been presented.

No. 23.—Khalifa Sayad Muhammad Hassan Khan-Aitchison Medal.

On 12th February 1883, Wazir-ud-daula, Mudabbir-ul-Mulk, Khalifa Sayad Muhammad Hassan Khán, Khán Bahadur, Wazír of the Patiála State, presented a sum of Rs. 3,000 for the purpose of founding a gold medal in commemoration of the Hon'ble Sir Charles Umpherston Aitchison, K.C.S.I., LL.D., Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab and its Dependencies, and first Chancellor of the Punjab University, to be awarded annually by the Punjab University to the student who shall stand first on the list of successful candidates at the annual examination for the degrees of Bachelor and Master of Arts, on the condition that his first language shall be English and the second Arabic, and without regard to caste or creed.

The donor further expressed a desire that his donation should be invested in Government securities, and that the Registrar should make all necessary arrangements for carrying out his wishes.

2. The Syndicate resolved at Meeting No. VI., held on the 14th February 1883, that the donation should be accepted with thanks, and that the sum remaining over after meeting the cost of the die should be invested, and the interest thereof devoted to the payment of the cost of the annual medal. This Resolution was approved and confirmed by the Senate at the Meeting held on the 24th March 1883. A literal extract of the proceedings of the Senate on the occasion is appended, in which is printed a certified copy—which I have verified—of the letter written by the donor when presenting his gift:—

3. Proposal III. upon the Notice of the Meeting and Resolution of the Syndicate, No. 1 of the 14th February 1883, were read. The Resolution referred to was as follows:—

The Registrar read a letter, dated the 9th February 1883, from Wazir-ud-daula, Mudabbir-ul-Mulk, Khalifa Sayad Muhammad Hassan Khán, Khán Bahadur, Wazir of the Patiála State, which was as follows:—

"As the Hon'ble Sir Charles Aitchison, K.C.S.I., L.L.D., Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab and its Dependencies, is a true well-wisher of my countrymen, and a great supporter of the Punjab University since, its beginning, I have intended to found a gold medal for the commemoration of his name, to be awarded annually by the Punjab University, to the student who shall stand first among the list of B.A.'s and M. A.'s, on the condition that his first language should be English and second, Arabic, and without regard to caste or creed.

"The die for the medal I propose should be on one side the likeness or bust of Sir Charles Aitchison, with his name, &c., and on the other, the founder's name, as written at the end of my letter, with the foundation era, viz., 1883.

"For this purpose I have requested the Secretary, Simla Bank Corporation, Limited, Simla, to remit you in the name of the Punjab University, Rs. 3,000 (three thousand), and I request you to invest the said sum of Rs. 3,000 in Government securities, and kindly make all the necessary arrangements for carrying out my wishes."

It was resolved that the donation should be accepted with thanks, and that the sum remaining over after meeting the cost of the die, should be invested, and the interest thereof devoted to the payment of the cost of the annual medal.

It was resolved unanimously that the Resolution of the Syndicate be approved and confirmed.

3. This sum was not invested, and the Senate, by Resolution No. 35, passed at the meeting held on the 30th November 1885, ordered that the recommendation concerning this endowment, made by the special Sub-Committee appointed by the Syndicate on the 30th October 1885, should be carried out.

These proposals were, that interest at Rs. 4 per cent per annum, should be allowed on the sum of Rs. 3,000 from the 9th April 1884, when the balance of the Funded Account was handed over by the Trustee to the Registrar; that in case the medal has been or be awarded in 1885, the interest should cease after 31st December 1884; but otherwise it should run on until the endowment is invested; that a die be ordered for the medal; and that, after providing this, a portion of the investments of the General Funded Account be converted into a separate promissory note, representing the balance of the sum belonging to this Trust.

4. These directions, adapted to the subsequent occurrences affecting the Trust, have been carried out as far as possible, that is to say, the die has been ordered, and, pending the execution of the die, a separate promissory note for Rs. 3,100 has been set aside out of the General Endowment Fund investment for the benefit of this Trust.

A plain gold medal without Sir Charles Aitchison's bust, was awarded to Nihal Chand, B.A., in 1885, at a cost of Rs. 100, which has been deducted from the sum placed at credit of the trust on account of interest.

The interest at Rs. 4 per cent from 9th April 1884 to 31st December 1884, amounts to Rs. 87-12-6, whilst the excess of the interest for 1885, viz., Rs. 120, over the sum paid on account of the Trust during 1885, was Rs. 20. Accordingly Rs. 107-12-6 has been added to the Trust at the expense of the Current Account, and the price of 4 per cent, Government securities having been on the 31st December 1885, Rs. 97-12-0, the nominal value of Government 4 per cent securities set aside on account of this Trust is Rs. 3,100, the cost of which at the rate stated above was Rs. 3,030-4-0, a small cash balance of Rs. 77-8-6 standing at credit of the Trust.

No. 24.—Khalifa Muhammad Hassan-Griffin Medal and Scholarships.

The subjoined copy (certified as a correct copy) of a letter from the donor sufficiently describes the originally declared object of this Trust.

Dated 21st June 1883.

From—Khalifa Sayad MUHAMMAD HASSAN, Khan Bahadur, Wazir of the Patiála State,

To—The Officiating Registrar, Punjab University, Lahore.

Herewith I have the honor to send to you, as my donation to the Punjab University, 670 copies of the translation of Sir Lepel Griffin's "Punjab Rájas," which, for the benefit of that Institution, I got printed at my own expense, and which, according to my wishes, has been translated into Hindustani, the common language of India, by my brother "Mushír-ud-daula Mumtaz-ul-Mulk," Khalifa Sayad Muhammad Husain, Foreign Minister, Patiála State, and a Fellow of the said University.

2. I desire that the sale proceeds of the whole stock be invested in Government securities, and the interest accruing therefrom be disposed of in commemoration of Sir Lepel Griffin's name in connection with the University in the following manner, viz., one gold medal to be annually awarded as a prize to such a student who in competition with others may happen to gain the Degree of Master of Oriental Learning or of Bachelor of Oriental Learning, his first language being Arabic and the second English, no regard whatever being had to caste or creed.

3. The shape and size of, and the inscription upon, this medal to be exactly similar to the one I previously proposed for Sir Charles Aitchison, with only the necessary difference that this medal will bear Sir Lepel Griffin's name and bust.

4. As the amount of interest from the whole investment is sure to exceed the cost of the medal, I should therefore for the remaining sum request the University to use their own discretion in establishing one scholarships in the name of the above personage, tenable by the students whom the University may think entitled, and who may have for their first language the English and for the second the Arabic, or vice versâ.

5. I have also to inform you that the Punjab Government, having heard of my intention to get the translation published, had, with a view to help me in my undertaking, kindly promised to purchase 300 copies of the work. As the principal object of the Government has always been to support the University, I should not wonder if they happen to buy some more copies from the University than the number they promised to purchase from me.

6. With regard to reserving the copyright, I think this practice, contrary to Europe, proves a hindrance in this country in the diffusion of useful works among the people. I did not therefore like to reserve it for myself; but for the purpose of having the University stock disposed of within a reasonable time, I have published on one of the pages of the book that no one is authorized to reprint the work for three years more, and after the expiration of the above term, the reprinting right shall rest for five years with the Proprietor of the Victoria Press, wherefrom this first publication has been issued.

2. In making these proposals, the donor estimated that a sum of Rs. 6,030 would be available from the sale of these books for the proposed purposes of the Trust, but as a matter of fact, the sum actually realized up to the 31st December 1885, by the sale of 330 copies, was Rs. 2,970 only, an additional sum of Rs. 36 being due from the late Registrar, Dr. Leitner, the price of four copies of the book sent by his orders to the Oriental Institute at Woking in England; the number of copies still in hand on that date was 336.

3. I can find no trace of any proceedings either by the Syndicate or Senate, at or about the time of payment regarding this Trust.

4. The Finance Committee in paragraph 36 of their report stated that "the proceeds of the books given for the Khalífa Muhammad Hassan-Griffin Medal and Scholarship are apparently now sufficient to provide either for a medal or for a scholarship, though not for both. The orders of the Senate may properly be taken as to the foundation of the medal or scholarship without delay."

The Syndicate thereupon referred the matter to a sub-committee, which reported as follows:—

(c).—As to the Khalífa Muhammad Hassan-Griffin Medal and Scholarship, our proposal is that any sums received in 1885, by sale of the books up to the end of November, be added to the Rs. 2,817 previously received, and that a scholarship of, say, Rs. 10 a month, tenable for one year, be founded in accordance with the terms of the Trust, the foundation of the medal being postponed until a sufficient portion of the remainder of the books are sold, and the investment of the money being provided for in the same way, as has been proposed in the preceding case. If the Senate thinks necessary, the opinion of the donor might be asked as to the proposal to found the scholarship first; but the scholarship would be more beneficial to the University than the medal. A preliminary motion accepting the Trust, and thanking the donor, would also be desirable, as it is understood that the orders of the Senate, on the subject, have not yet been taken.

The Syndicate on the receipt of this report proposed "that a scholarship of Rs. 10 a month be founded from the Khalífa-Griffin Endowment, as proposed by the Committee, and that, as it seems doubtful whether the conditions stated by the Khalífa are possible of fulfilment, the matter be referred to the Oriental Faculty for report."

5. The Senate, however, by Resolution No. 39, passed at the meeting held on the 30th November 1885, decided that "the wishes of the donor, as expressed in his letter dated 23rd September 1885," handed to the Senate by Dr. Leitner on the 30th November 1885, "be immediately and literally carried out."

A certified transcript of this letter is here given:—

Dated Patiála, the 23rd September 1885.

From—Wazír-ud-daula, Mudabbir-ul-Mulk, KHALIFA SYAD MUHAMMAD HASSAN, Khán Bahádur, Prime Minister, Patiála State,

To—Dr. G. W. LEITNER, Registrar, Punjab University, Elysium Hotel, Simla.

As my wishes have not been carried out in awarding the gold medals and scholarships I founded in the name of Sir Charles Aitchison and Sir Lepel Griffin, I beg officially to send you again, herein stated below, the details of he conditions, and shall feel obliged by your making the arrangements accordingly, viz.:—

1st.—To enter the conditions according to the undermentioned interpretation in the University records.

2nd.—To award medals and scholarship or scholarships to qualified student or students.

Please let me know after your having done so.

Interpretations of conditions of medals and scholarships.

(1). Khalifa Muhammad Hassan-Aitchison Medal to be awarded annually to the candidate who stands first in the M. A. Examination in Arabic, or failing such, to the candidate standing highest on the pass list of the B. A. Examination, whose second language was Arabic, without regard to caste or creed.

(2). Khalifa Muhammad Hassan-Griffin Medal as in (1) changing M. A. into M.O.L., B.A. into B.O.L., and "second language" into "classical language" and adding after Arabic, "and who has a practical knowledge of English."

(3). Khalifa Muhammad Hassan-Griffin Scholarship might be a scholarship of Rs. per month (or two scholarships of Rs. per month) tenable for two years in the Oriental College, to be awarded to the candidate standing highest on the pass list of the Intermediate (O. F.) Examination, whose classical language be an Arabic, and who has a practical knowledge of English, without regard to caste and creed.

It has been found impossible to obey this direction owing to the refusal of Sir Lepel Griffin to permit his name to be associated with the medal or scholarship, and the Syndicate at Meeting No. VI., held on the 17th February 1886, having directed that the donor be requested to state what he wishes done with the money, he has proposed to arrive at a decision shortly, the matter being still under his consideration. In the meantime, that is to say, in January 1886, the money was invested by the purchase of four per cent Government securities to the nominal value of Rs. 3,000 at a cost of Rs. 2,981-8-8.

No. 25.—The McLeod Medal and Purse.

The University possesses no original records in regard to this Trust, but, having access to the records in the office of the Accountant-General, I am able to place on record an accurate history of the Trust.

2. During the years 1870 and 1871, a subscription was raised among the European residents of the Punjab, with a view to the establishment of a memorial of the late Sir Donald Friell McLeod, K.C.S.I., C.B., Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab, who resigned charge of the Punjab Government on the 1st June 1870.

The sum realized amounted to Rs. 6,411-6-0, and, as Sir Donald McLeod expressed a wish that the sum collected, after paying the cost of a portrait placed in the Lawrence Hall at Lahore, should be invested, and the yearly interest of the investment should be expended in a gold medal and purse, which should be awarded not to any particular institution, but to the individual who should pass the best examination in the Oriental classics, combined with a competent knowledge of English, the Committee of subscribers, through Major-General S. A. Abbott, who acted as Chairman, requested the Government to nominate some local ex-officio Trustees for the purpose of carrying out the projected scheme.

By a demi-official note, dated 20th October 1871, from Mr. (now Sir) Lepel H. Griffin, then Secretary to the Punjab Government, the Government announced that the Director of Public Instruction, and the Accountant-General, Punjab, would be requested "to have the kindness to consent to act as Trustees to the funds which have been already collected," and requested "the Director of Public Instruction to make arrangements for the early competition as may be most in accordance with the expressed views of Sir Donald McLeod."

The Director of Public Instruction appears subsequently to have made over the task of making arrangements for the competition to the Senate of the Punjab University College, by which two resolutions have been passed on the subject.

3. At the meeting held on the 30th March 1872, the Senate resolved—

That the annual medal and purse given in honor of Sir Donald McLeod by European residents of the Punjab, be awarded by the Senate, in accordance with Sir Donald McLeod's wish, to the student of the Punjab University College who obtains, in each year, the highest place in Arabic or Sanskrit, and whose attainments in English are equal to the First Arts Standard.

And at a subsequent Meeting held on the 25th October 1873, the Senate unanimously resolved—

That the McLeod Medal and Purse be awarded annually by the Senate to a student who, having been educated in the Punjab, has acquired High Proficiency in Arabic or Sanskrit, together with a knowledge of English not inferior to the First Arts Standard of the Punjab University College, or any recognised University, and whose superior merit in Arabic or Sanskrit has been proved by the result of a public examination held during the year.

4. The medal and purse has been awarded to the following students :—

Munshi Lál, M.A.	1877
Pírzáda Muhammad Husain	1880
Pandit Harkiskan Dás	1882
Rám Prasád	1884

5. The Trust, which is not in the custody of the University, but which is still retained in the possession of the two Special Trustees, (the Director of Public Instruction and the Accountant-General, Punjab), possessed, on the 31st December 1885, invested capital to the nominal value of Rs. 7,000, held in four per cent Government securities, and a cash balance of Rs. 362-1-1. The account of this Trust being in the hands of separate Trustees has been credited with all sums due in respect to unutilized income; and now that the new Financial Rules prescribe the maintenance of an accurate separate account for each Trust, the Government may perhaps be disposed to sanction the transfer of this Trust to the custody of the University.

6. The conditions on which this medal and purse has been, and is now, awarded are very vague, and the Senate might now be moved to frame more specific conditions.

B.—ENDOWMENTS NOT PERMANENT.

No. 26.—The Jullundur Medical Readership.
No. 27.—The Jullundur Persian Scholarship.

There are no original papers in existence regarding the establishment of this readership and scholarship, except an attested copy of a letter, dated 18th June 1870, from Dr. G. W. Leitner, to Mr. L. S. Saunders, then Deputy Commissioner of Jullundur, which has been furnished to me by the Deputy Commissioner of Jullundur, and a reference therefore to the minutes of the proceedings of the Executive Committee and Senate of the Punjab University College, is only possible.

2. At a meeting of the Executive Committee, held on the 18th June 1870, it appears that a letter from Mr. L. S. Saunders, Deputy Commissioner of Jullundur, was read, regarding Medical Scholarships, and that the following proposal was, after long discussion, adopted and ordered to be submitted for the approval of the Senate :—

"That the subscription of Rs. 100 per mensem from the Jullundur District, after being doubled by an equivalent grant from Government, be spent, in accordance with the wishes of the subscribers, in the following manner :—

1.	Two Persian Scholarships of the monthly value of Rs. 15 each to be given to the two best candidates for the Persian Examination of the Punjab University College from the district	Rs. 30 per mensem.
2.	Three Vernacular Medical Scholarships to men of that district, tenable at the Lahore Medical School, of the monthly value of Rs. 10 each	Rs. 30 per mensem.
3.	A Lectureship on Persian Literature and its relation to Arabic and Urdu—to be held in connection with the Oriental School	" 30 "
4.	A Persian Scholarship, open to all comers, tenable in the Oriental School ...	" 10 "
5.	A Medical Fellowship, to be competed for among the best Sub-Assistant Surgeons, tenable for a certain number of years, as may be settled by the Senate. The Fellowship to be worth Rs. 100 per mensem, and its duties to be the translation and edition of Medical treatises in the Vernacular under direction of the Senate	" 100 "
	Total	" 200

It will be noticed that these monthly payments were intended to be met from the monthly subscription of Rs. 100 from the Jullundur District, which, according to the principle on which the Government grants to the University College was then calculated and paid, was doubled by the Government.

3. This proposal was presented to the Senate at the Meeting held on the 4th June 1870, and the following extract is the true record of what took place in regard to this proposal :—

With regard to the doubts expressed by Sir Henry Durand as to the desirability of relying upon a monthly subscription for the purpose of founding a Fellowship or Lectureship, on the ground that there is no sufficient guarantee of permanency in the source of income, Mr. L. S. Saunders, the Deputy Commissioner of Jullundur, explained that the subscription of Rs. 100 per mensem, from the Jullundur District, was sufficiently permanent, as it was a portion of the percentage on the malba, which the zemíndárs had willingly agreed to give to the Punjab University College. The only objection to the proposal having thus been removed, it was carried.

The Executive Committee at a Meeting held on the 13th July 1870 directed that the Senate having passed the proposal of the Executive Committee, the Medical Fellowship should be at once advertised.

There is no means of ascertaining how the first and only appointment of Medical Fellow was filled up.

At a Meeting of the Executive Committee held on the 17th March 1871, it was incidentally mentioned that the Medical Fellow entered on his duties from the 1st February 1871, and at the same Meeting it was resolved that his salary from that date, for the four months previous to 1st June 1871, the date from which the Senate had appointed the Medical Fellow, should be paid by the University, out of the grant for rewards to managers of unaided schools. This Resolution was not apparently confirmed by the Senate, and at a Meeting held on the 5th May 1871, the Executive Committee further resolved that "the question of Dr. Rahím Khán's date of tenure of Fellowship was to be submitted to Senate." The reference seems never to have been made to the Senate, and as a matter of fact, according to the accounts, Dr. Rahím Khán, the Medical Reader, commenced to draw the salary of the Fellowship from 1st June 1871.

4. At the Meeting of Senate held on the 26th December 1870 was presented the Budget Estimate of "income and expenditure for the year 1871, accompanied by a rough sketch of Objects and Reasons explaining the same," which, according to addenda to the proceedings of a Meeting of the Executive Committee held on the 5th November 1870 was approved by the Committee at that Meeting, and in that rough sketch is a proposal in the following terms :—

Jullundur permanent subscription.

(a). Medical Fellowship of Rs. 100 per mensem.—The Committee would recommend to add to the duties laid down for the "Fellow" in proposal II of the Proceedings of the Senate of the 4th July 1870, the occasional delivery of popular lectures on Sanitary and other Medical subjects to Hakíms and others, and the contribution of articles on the same subjects to either the Journal of the Anjuman, or to an Urdu Medical Gazette, which it is proposed to start under the auspices of the Medical Faculty of the Punjab University College. The Fellowship to be advertised immediately on the report of the Medical Faculty.

(b). The Vernacular Medical Scholarships of Rs. 10 per mensem each.—The particulars of the Examination and tenure of these Scholarships, will be left to the consideration of the Medical Faculty, and are recommended to be advertised without delay.

(c). Two Jullundur Persian Scholarships of Rs. 15 per mensem each.—It is proposed that the two best men from that district, who may pass by the Middle Persian Standard in April 1871, receive these Scholarships, if otherwise qualified. In this, as in every other Oriental Examination, an acquaintance with "Western Science" is required,—vide page 8 of the Report of the Executive Committee, dated 15th March 1870.

(e). One Persian Scholarship of Rs. 10 per mensem.—It is proposed that this scholarship be awarded to the first man, if duly qualified, who may pass by the "Lower Standard" of the Persian Examination of April 1871.

The Senate at that Meeting is said to have passed the Budget prepared by the Executive Committee after discussion of every item, but there is no trace of any specific resolution sanctioning the above-mentioned addition to the Medical Fellow's duties.

5. I have ascertained from the Jullundur Treasury accounts recorded in the Accountant-General's office, that the sums remitted to the University from Jullundur for this Medical Readership up to 31st December 1885, have been as below listed :—

The salary of the Medical Reader, at the monthly rate of Rs. 100, commenced from the 1st June 1871, and was regularly paid up to 30th November 1885, an aggregate of Rs. 17,400 having been thus paid.

The salary of the Persian Lecturer, at the rate of Rs. 30 a month, has been paid from the Current Account from 1st January 1871, and the Persian Lecturer, who has been always hitherto under a misapprehension considered an Endowed Reader, has been actually a teacher in the Oriental College. No portion of the subscription from the Jullundur District is, however, available for this Lecturer, which, according to the original design, and under the old system, by which the Government grant-in-aid to the University College was given in the shape of an equivalent to each individual subscription or donation, was payable out of the Government grant.

In future the Persian Lecturer, on a monthly salary of Rs. 30, should, under the orders of the Senate, be treated as an ordinary teacher in the Oriental College whose salary is paid from the allotment granted to the Oriental College.

No. 28.—Raja Harbans Singh's Sanskrit Scholarship.

This Scholarship was apparently created out of an annual subscription of Rs. 500 presented by Rája Harbans Singh.

No original correspondence on the subject of this subscription and its disposal is in existence, nor can I trace in the recorded proceedings of the Meetings of the Punjab University College Senate any reference to the conditions on which the subscription was given and the scholarship founded.

2. It has always been supposed that the scholarship was open to competition, and that having been established as a companion to the Baháwalpur Arabic Scholarship (Special Trust No. 8) it was each year awarded to the candidate who stood first in the Higher Sanskrit or Shástri Examination.

3. This is a mistake, as I gather from the accounts that is was awarded first to Pandit Tulsi Rám, a teacher in the Oriental College, who, having passed second in the Middle Sanskrit or Visharad Examination, 1872, passed second in the Higher or Shástri Examination, 1874. Pandit Tulsi Rám obtained the scholarship from 1st January 1874, and held it up to the 30th April 1876. His successor was Pandit Behári Lál, also a teacher in the Oriental College, who passed highest in the Highest Sanskrit or Shástri Examination, 1875, and who held it from 1st May 1876 to the 30th June 1878.

The scholarship remained vacant until 1st October 1878, from which date Pandit Mathra Dás, who passed highest in the Highest Sanskrit or Shástri Examination, 1878, received the scholarship, and held it up to 30th September 1879.

These three incumbents received the scholarships at the rate of Rs. 33 per mensem.

From 1st October 1879, the Scholarship of Rs. 33 per mensem appears to have been split into two or more parts, and awarded to two or more students of the Oriental College—a practice which was continued up to 31st May 1885, after which one scholarship of Rs. 17 per mensem was paid to Pandit Hari Kishen until 31st December 1885.

Rája Harbans Singh paid his annual subscription of Rs. 500 up to 31st December 1884, and not having since that date paid the subscription, the Trust may be supposed to have lapsed.

I am not yet able to prepare an exact account of the Trust, owing to the difficulty of tracing the names of the recipients of the scholarships in the vouchers and accounts.

No. 29.—Rai Kanhya Lal Persian Scholarship.

This scholarship of Rs. 10 a month is given partly out of the annual subscription of Rs. 60 paid by Rái Kanhya Lál, Bahádur, M.I.C.E. That gentleman has given for several years an annual subscription of Rs. 110, of which Rs. 50 were designed for general purposes and Rs. 60 as a subscription towards a Persian Scholarship of Rs. 10 a month, the remainder being a charge against the Government grant which was formerly paid in the shape of an equivalent to each specific item of receipt. I am not yet able to prepare an exact account of this Trust.

No. 30.—Griffin's Gurmukhi Scholarships.

A donation of Rs. 1,000 was made on the 23rd November 1882, by Sir Lepel Henry Griffin, K.C.S.I., in accordance with a promise made on the 18th November 1882, at the Inaugural Convocation of the University, for the purpose of creating two Gurmukhi Scholarships, each of the value of Rs. 5 per mensem, and the amount was credited by the Trustee to the Current Account.

2. There is no trace of any correspondence on the subject, and apparently no conditions as to the award of these scholarships were made either by the donor or by the Senate.

The Senate, at the meeting held on the 30th December 1882, passed the following Resolution with reference to this donation:—

> That the donation of Rs. 1,000 given for Gurmukhi Scholarships by Sir Lepel Henry Griffin be accepted and placed in the Current Account, and that the thanks of the Senate be conveyed to the donor, and that intimation be given him that two scholarships in his name had been provided for in the Budget, and would be continued to the extent of the sum received.

3. The expenditure out of this donation has amounted to the following:—

	Rs.	A.	P.
During 1883	101	6	6
Do. 1884	119	12	0
Do. 1885	124	2	9
Total ...	345	5	3
	330	5	3

This amount has been placed in the Funded Account in the Special Account necessitated by the New Financial Rules.

No. 31.—The Nabha Gurmurkhi Scholarships.

The following is a certified copy of the only document regarding this Trust on record :—

No. 448, dated Simla, 25th September 1883.

From—R. H. MERK, Esquire, Officiating Under-Secretary to Government, Punjab,

To—The Registrar, Punjab University College, Lahore.

I am directed to forward herewith, a translation of a letter of the 16th August 1883, from the Rája of Nábha, with a sum of Rs. 200 contributed by His Highness for the year ending 31st March 1883 towards the encouragement of Gurmukhi in the Punjab University College.

(ENCLOSURE) Translation of a letter, dated the 16th August 1883,

From—His Highness the Rája of Nábha,

To—The Secretary to Government, Punjab.

In a meeting of the University College held at Lahore on the 28th March 1882, in which I was also present, as I happened to be at Lahore at that time, I told the meeting that for the encouragement of Gurmukhi, I would give to the Punjab University the interest on Rs. 5,000 at the rate of Rs. 4 per cent per annum, or Rs. 200 a year, with effect from the 1st April 1882.

As the first year has ended on the 31st March last, I have the pleasure to remit herewith the sum of Rs. 200.

Please forward this sum to the Registrar of the Punjab University, with an intimation that the amount is to be expended by the Senate for the encouragement of Gurmukhi only.

In future the Rs. 200 will be remitted direct to the Registrar every year.

2. The first subscription of Rs. 200 was paid on the 4th October 1883, and subsequent subscriptions of Rs. 200 were received on the 10th May 1884 and 11th May 1885.

The disposal of these subscriptions is shown under Special Trust No. 12, and the savings of the income from this endowment will, in accordance with Resolution No. 34, passed at the meeting of the Senate held on the 30th November 1885, be annually credited to the Gurmukhi Endowment Fund.

No. 32.—The Harbans-Aitchison Medal.

No. 33.—The Harbans-Leitner Medal.

There is no original correspondence regarding the establishment of these Trusts on record in the University office.

2. The following extract from the proceedings of the meeting of Senate held at Simla, on the 14th October 1882, contains all the information available regarding the creation of these Trusts :—

IV.—The Registrar then read out a telegram from the Assistant Registrar, informing the Senate that Rája Harbans Singh had intimated his intention of granting, in honor of Dr. Leitner, an annual medal of the value of Rs. 100 to the First Master of Oriental Learning who had taken up Sanskrit, as also an annual medal of the same amount, in honor of Sir Charles Aitchison, for the First Master of Arts who had taken up the same language.

* * * * * * * *

Resolved, on the motion of Chancellor, and carried unanimously, that a vote of thanks be passed to Rája Harbans Singh for his liberal offer, which the Senate accepted.

3. A certified copy of the letter remitting the amount of a donation of Rs. 1,000 for the dies for the medals is subjoined.

Dated 29th November 1883.

From—Rája HARBANS SINGH,

To—E. W. PARKER, Esquire, Offg. Registrar, Punjab University, Lahore.

I herewith send a cheque on Agra Bank for Rs. 1,000. Please send the amount to Dr. Leitner, M.A., Ph.D., for the die of the medal, and acknowledge receipt at your earliest convenience.

P. S.—Please write something about this in the Punjab University Report.

4. The donation thus presented for the purchase of dies was actually received on the 23rd November 1883, and was credited by the Trustee to the Funded Account: it was not invested, but formed a portion of the Funded Account balance made over to the Registrar by the Trustee on the 9th April 1884.

5. The Finance Committee in paragraph 36 of their Report, suggested that as this gift of Rs. 1,000 was given, not for investment, but to pay for dies for the medals, the necessary steps should be taken to procure the dies as soon as an adjustment is effected between the Funded and the Current Accounts.

The question was then referred to a Special Sub-Committee, which reported as follows:—

As regards Rája Harbans Singh's medals, our proposal is that the Senate thanks the Rája for his donation, and his promised annual subscription (unless this has already been done), and that, on the adjustment between the Funded and Current Accounts being effected as proposed, the necessary steps be at once taken to procure the dies. Should any balance remain, it is understood that it may be added to the General Endowment Fund; but the first step is to procure appropriate dies for the medals.

Whereupon the Syndicate proposed that these proposals should be accepted and acted upon.

The Senate, however, by Resolution No. 37, passed at the meeting held on the 30th November 1885, directed that "the cordial thanks of the Senate be given to Rája Harbans Singh for his donation of Rs. 1,000 for the Harbans-Aitchison and Harbans-Leitner Medals, and that the conditions of the donor be carried out, and that the die be ordered at once."

6. The dies are in process of execution: the delay in the execution of the dies has been due to the difficulty of obtaining estimates for the work at a cost falling within the amount available.

7. The medals were awarded in 1882 and in 1885 to the following persons:—

HARBANS-AITCHISON MEDAL.

1882. Harkishen Das, M.A.
1885. Rám Prasad, M.A.

HARBANS-LEITNER MEDAL.

1882. Durga Datt, Shastri.
1885. Mathra Dás, M.O.L.

The cost of the medals on each occasion was Rs. 200 or Rs. 400 in all, but the donor has only as yet given a subscription to cover the cost for the year 1882. The cost of the medals for the year 1885, having been paid out of the Current Account, the Trust is indebted to the Current Account for that amount.

No. 34.—The Stulpnagel Prize.

In October 1882, Charles Rebsch Stulpnagel, Esq., Ph.D., Professor in the Government College, Lahore, since Inspector of Schools, Lahore Circle, offered to bestow, so long as he was alive, an annual prize of Rs. 50, to be granted to the successful candidate for the B. A. degree, who, taking up Philosophy at that examination, obtains the highest number of marks in that subject.

The Syndicate accepted the offer with thanks at the Meeting held on the 7th February 1883, but there is no trace of the offer having been placed before the Senate.

The prize was bestowed in 1883 contrary to the conditions prescribed by the donor upon one Abdul Aziz, alias Harwas Ram, who obtained the degree of B. O. L.

The holders of this prize have been—

Abdul Aziz, B.O.L., alias Harwas Rai ...	1882
Jiya Rám, B.A.	1883
Sawan Rám, Bahel, B.A.	1884
Chetan Anand, B.A.	1885

No. 35.—The Lewis Prize.

In October 1885, Thomas Crompton Lewis, Esq., M.A., late Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge, and Professor, but now Principal, of the Lahore Government College, offered an annual prize of Rs. 50 to the student who passes the best examination in Mathematics at the B. A. or B. O. L. Examination, provided he passes in both the lower or A Course and the higher or B Course.

This offer was accepted with an expression of thanks to the donor at the Meeting of Senate held on the 30th November 1885. The prize was not awarded in 1885, but was first awarded on the result of the B. O. L. and B. A. Examination for 1886.

C. BENEFACTIONS.

No. 36.—The Bahawalpur Senate Hall Building Donation.

The University Office contains no original records regarding this benefaction.

A reference to the letter No. 30, dated 4th May 1870, from Major C. C. Minchin, Political Agent and Superintendent of the Baháwalpur State, to the Government, which is printed under Special Trust No. 8, will show that His Highness the Nawáb of Baháwalpur in May 1870 presented a sum of Rs. 15,000 to the Lahore Municipality, for the construction of a drinking fountain or tank in some central situation in Anarkali in commemoration of the visit of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh to the Punjab.

The Commissioner and Deputy Commissioner of Lahore have placed at my disposal certain files from which I have been able to trace the further history of this Trust.

2. The Lahore Municipal Committee at a Special Meeting held on the 27th July 1870, considered the estimates which had been prepared for the construction of an ornamental tank in Anarkali, and finding that the estimated cost of such a construction would amount to Rs. 37,100, resolved to ask His Highness the Nawáb for a further donation of Rs. 10,000. This further donation of Rs. 10,000 was promised by H. H. the Nawáb, and the amount was remitted on the 15th May 1871 by Captain L. J. H. Grey, then Politcial Agent and Superintendent of the Baháwalpur State. These donations were both deposited in a floating account at the Bank of Bengal.

A Committee was then appointed to manage the project, but as it was anticipated that some delay would occur in the execution of the work, the Deputy Commissioner, by letter No. 321, dated 10th June 1871, on behalf of the Municipal Committee, requested that the donations might be invested. The exact date of investment cannot be traced, but the advice of investment from the Bank is dated 19th July 1871, from which I gather that Government securities to the nominal value of Rs. 25,000 were then purchased at a cost of Rs. 24,833-7-8, a balance of Rs. 166-8-4 remaining out of the original donation. The Committee appointed to manage the project never met, and nothing further appears to have been done in connection with the construction of a drinking fountain or tank until April 1873, when the Commissioner of the Lahore Division, Mr. Arthur Brandreth, instituted inquiries into the progress of the matter.

3. The result of these inquiries was contained in the letter No. 1465, dated 20th May 1873, from the Commissioner of the Lahore Division, to the Political Agent and Superintendent, Baháwalpur State, and the latter officer's reply, No. 849, dated 17th October 1873, certified copies of which are subjoined.

(No. 1.)

No. 1465, dated 20th May 1873.

From—A. BRANDRETH, Esq., Commissioner and Superintendent, Lahore Division,

To—Major C. C. MINCHIN, Political Agent and Superintendent, Baháwalpur.

I have the honor to forward, for your perusal and return when done with, the correspondence noted in the margin, regarding the construction of a memorial drinking fountain or tank in Anarkali, from the donation of Rs. 25,000 by His Highness the Nawáb of Baháwalpur, to commemorate the visit of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh to the Punjab; and with reference thereto, I beg to inquire if you have any remarks or suggestions to offer before action is finally taken in the matter.

(Margin: No. 474, dated 13th May 1873, and enclosures as therein noted. File of original correspondence of Commissioner's Office, containing eight letters and annexures.)

(No. 2.)

No. 849, dated Baháwalpur, 17th October 1873.

From—Major C. C. MINCHIN, Politcial Agent and Superintendent, Baháwalpur,

To—A. BRANDRETH, Esq., Commissioner and Superintendent, Lahore Division.

In reply to your letter, I beg to inform you that His Highness the Nawáb approves of the Rs. 25,000 presented by him, being made over to the Senate of the Punjab University College, to build a Senate Hall and Library for the Library of Sir D. McLeod, conditional on the Senate Hall being generally available for the use of the European residents of Anarkali and Donald Town for meetings, concerts or other entertainments, and also for meetings of the Anjuman and other joint meetings of European and Native gentry.

4. The Senate approved of this suggestion, by Resolution passed at the Meeting held on the 25th October 1873, and I subjoin a certified extract from the proceedings of the Meeting of Senate held on the 25th October 1873, para. 18 :—

The Officiating Registrar then moved that "The Nawáb of Baháwalpur having approved of Rs. 25,000 formerly given by him, in honor of the Duke of Edinburgh's visit being handed over to the Senate to build a Hall to be used for Meetings of Senate, as a Lecture-room and University Library, on the condition of its being available for general meetings of the residents of Anarkali, when not required by the Senate, the Senate accept this munificent gift on the above-mentioned terms, and that a letter of thanks be sent to the Nawáb."

This was seconded by Rai Mul Singh, who spoke of the necessity of having some Special University building, and of the usefulness of a Hall such as proposed, if situated close both to Anarkali and the city.

Dr. Center then proposed " a vote of thanks to Mr. Brandreth, who had taken the greatest interest in University affairs, and to whose services in a great measure we owed this munificent gift." This was carried by acclamation, and the Meeting then broke up.

5. And, as a result of this consent, the Deputy Commissioner of Lahore, on the 13th December 1873, made over to the Trustee of the Punjab University College, the Government securities of the nominal value of Rs. 25,000, and cash to the amount of Rs. 2,497-13-4, of which Rs. 166-6-4 represented the uninvested balance of the original donations, and Rs. 2,331-7-0 represented the interest on the Government securities from the date of investment to 30th November 1873.

The Trustee credited these sums to a separate account, called the Building Account, which was maintained for the years 1873, 1874, 1875 and 1876, and was closed before the construction of the Hall was completed, and the following is an abstract of this account :—

RECEIPTS.

	Rs.	A.	P.
Uninvested balance of donation given for the drinking fountain in honor of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh ...	166	6	4
Sale proceeds of Government securities to the nominal value of Rs. 25,000	25,791	14	2
Interest upon Government securities up to 10th December 1873 ...	2,492	15	1
Total amount thus received from the donation of His Highness the Nawáb of Baháwalpur	28,451	3	7
Contribution from Current Account	3,666	2	6
Total Receipts	32,117	6	1

EXPENDITURE.

	Rs.	A.	P.
Construction of University Hall	30,326	13	1
Repairs to and rent of Oriental College	500	0	0
Senate Hall Petty Establishment	236	8	6
Senate Hall Furniture	1,054	0	6
Total Expenditure	32,117	6	1

6. This account excerpted from the Trustee's books, is manifestly an incorrect statement of the expenditure on the construction of the Senate Hall, and does not show accurately the manner in which the gift from His Highness the Nawáb of Baháwalpur was disposed of.

In the first place, although the Government securities purchased out of the Nawáb's gift were not sold until various dates during the years 1873, 1875 and 1876, the interest on these securities, after 10th December 1873, was credited to the Current Account, and not to the Building Account, and, although the donation was presented for the construction of the Senate Hall, a charge of Rs. 500 was made to the Building Account for the rent of, or repairs to, the Oriental College. These objections were pointed out by the Auditor in his Report on the accounts for the year 1875, but were not apparently corrected. Then I find that Rs. 580-8-0 paid specially to a staff for supervising the erection of the building was charged during 1875 and 1876 to the current account under the head " Office Contingencies," and the cost of furniture is obviously not a charge upon a building account.

7. A correct and complete account showing the actual cost of the construction of the Senate Hall, and the actual disposal of the gift made by His Highness the Nawáb of Baháwalpur, has been compiled with the following result :—

EXPENDITURE.	Rs. A. P.
Construction of the Senate Hall	34,348 15 7
Supervising and care-taking establishment during construction	580 8 0
Enclosing the verandah, building out-house, &c. ...	980 14 3
Total ...	35,910 5 10

And this expenditure has been met from the following sources :—

(1) Amount realized from the Government securities presented by His Highness the Nawáb of Baháwalpur, and interest thereupon up to 10th December 1873, as shown in paragraph 5	28,451 3 7
(2) Interest upon these securities from 11th December 1873 to the various dates of sale	1,345 2 9
(3) Sale-proceeds of Government securities to the value of Rs. 5,000 belonging to the Funded Account ...	4,695 11 6
(4) Contribution from Current Account	1,418 4 0
Total ...	35,910 5 10

8. The Finance Committee at page 3 of their Preliminary Report, were of opinion that certain items, six in number, aggregating Rs. 12,821-11-3 which had been paid for from the Current Account, were properly debitable to the Funded Account, and in consequence of this recommendation, the Senate, by Resolution No. 11, passed at the meeting held on the 28th November 1885, directed that these items should be repaid from the Funded to the Current Account. This direction has been obeyed, and among these six items, are the following :—

	Rs. A. P.
No. 1.--Additional expenditure incurred in building the Senate Hall	2,791 3 8
No. 5.—Enclosing the verandah of the Senate Hall and constructing other buildings	810 5 0
Total ...	3,601 8 8

The analysis of the expenditure incurred in the construction of the Senate Hall, recorded in paragraph 7, shows that taking into consideration the interest on the Nawáb of Baháwalpur's Government securities, up to the dates of their sale, which was credited to the Current Account, as well as the full amount realized by the sale of the Promissory Note for Rs. 5,000 belonging to the Funded Account, the amount payable by the Funded Account for the excess cost of the construction of the Senate Hall and out-buildings was not Rs. 3,601-8-8, as supposed by the Finance Committee, but Rs. 1,418-4-0 only. There has thus been an excess charge to the Endowment Fund in this account to the extent of Rs. 2,183-4-8, which should now be refunded by the Current to the Funded Account.

One Spurious Trust.

I have thus, so far as has been possible, explained the position of each Trust in the possession of or connected with the University, and I conclude this report with an explanation of a Trust which, though it has been borne on the books as a Special Trust, has no real existence.

2. In the Punjab University College Calendar for the year 1877-78 there appeared in the chapter relating to Special Endowments, the following account under the heading "The Leitner Prize :"—

"This prize was founded by Dr. G. W. Leitner, the first Registrar of the Institution, by a sum of Rs. 1,000. Its interest, viz., Rs. 50 is given annually towards the award of a prize for the best essay, whether in English or the Vernacular, on 'Educational Reforms.'"

This description was repeated in the Calendar for 1878-79, but in the Calendar for 1881-82 the description under the heading "The Leitner Prize" was slightly varied, and ran thus—

"This prize was founded by Dr. G. W. Leitner, the first Registrar of the Institution, by a sum of Rs. 1,000. Its accumulated interest, viz., Rs. 100, is to be given annually towards the award of a prize for the best essay, whether in English or the Vernacular, on 'Educational Reforms.'"

The same description was inserted in the Calendar for 1884-85, the last published, the amount of the supposed accumulated interest being however omitted.

Finally, in the nominal list of Special Trusts discharged from the interests and profits of separate investments prepared by Dr. Leitner in October 1885, and now before the Syndicate, the following description of this alleged Trust was published :—

No. 15.—Leitner Prize.

Founded in October 1870 by Dr. G. W. Leitner, for the best annual essay, whether in English or in any of the Vernaculars, on "Educational Reforms" —(No correspondence) Rs. 1,000 (see Calendar for 1884-85, page 226).

3. So far as the University accounts show, no single donation of Rs. 1,000 has ever been presented by Dr. G. W. Leitner, either for the purpose of founding a prize or for any other purpose connected with the University, and the complete analysis of the Funded Account, just made proves that no donations or subscriptions presented by Dr. Leitner have ever been credited to that account. The aggregate amount of donations and subscriptions presented from time to time to the University by Dr. G. W. Leitner, has been less than Rs. 1,000, of which Rs. 662 less a refund of Rs. 140 were given previous to 11th January 1870, and the remainder was given subsequently. Whatever was given by Dr. Leitner after 11th January 1870 was credited to the Current Account, and expended therein on general purposes; whilst what was given before 11th January 1870 was credited to the University General Account, the unexpended balance of which, on the 11th January 1870 was transferred to the Funded Account then first opened.

4. There are no original papers in existence in connection with this alleged Trust, but I have discovered that at a Meeting of the Executive Committee, held on the 25th November 1871 "the Committee then decided that, in consideration of the Registrar's donations and subscriptions, and for other reasons, an annual prize of Rs. 100 on 'Educational Reforms' be awarded, and called 'The Leitner Prize.'" This proposal of the Executive Committee was not reported to the Senate, and was not consequently accepted or approved by the Senate. In 1880, this prize, consisting of a purse of Rs. 100, was given to Bábu Mahesh Chandra Datta, and another prize of Rs. 50 was given to Pandit Gopal Sahai. At the Inaugural Convocation on 18th November 1882, a medal costing Rs. 70 was given as the "Leitner Prize" to Munshi Nur Ahmad, as well as a prize of Rs. 30 to one Ata Muhammad. The cost of all these prizes was defrayed from the funds at credit of the Current Account.

Commissariat Notice—No. 6.

SEALED tenders for the supply of the undermentioned articles for the Mooltan Commissariat Division, which comprises the stations noted in the margin, from date of sanction to 30th June 1888, will be received by the Executive Commissariat Officer at Mooltan up to noon on the 12th July 1887, and opened by him then and there in the presence of all parties who may choose to attend.

Mooltan.
Ferozepore.

2. No tenders will be received except on forms obtainable from the Commissariat Office, Mooltan, which, as well as any information required regarding the contract, will be given on application to the Executive Commissariat Officer, Mooltan, up to 2 o'clock P.M. on the 5th July 1887.

3. Seals of tenderers (unable to write) will not be accepted; they should have their marks verified by witnesses.

4. Covers to be superscribed—"Tender for Gram, 2nd sort."

5. The tender may be in part or for the whole requirement, and the Executive Commissariat Officer reserves to himself the right to accept the tender in whole or in part; but in the event of his accepting in part only and the tenderer failing to take up the contract, the whole earnest deposit will be confiscated.

6. Tenders without earnest-money will not be attended to.

7. Samples of the articles required to be supplied are to be seen in Commissariat Godowns at Mooltan and Ferozepore, and every facility will be afforded to tenderers to see them before they tender.

8. Only one rate for the Division is to be tendered, and not a separate rate for each station.

Notifications by Chief Court, Financial Commissioner, Accountant-General, &c.

CHIEF COURT.

BOOK CIRCULAR No. VII—2449.

FROM

T. GORDON WALKER, ESQUIRE,
Registrar, Chief Court, Punjab,

To

ALL CIVIL COURTS IN THE PUNJAB.

Dated Lahore, 30th June 1887.

IN circulating the annexed directions under Section 9 of the Suits Valuation Act (VII of 1887) which have received the sanction of the Local Government, the Judges desire to point out that Part II of the Act comes into force in the Punjab on the 1st of July (Section 7), Section 32 of the Punjab Courts Act being repealed (Section 10). Book Circular No. I of 1885 is accordingly cancelled, and these directions will have effect from the date mentioned (1st July 1887).

2. The chief object of the directions is to provide some simple rules for determining the question of jurisdiction and the course of appeal in suits of the classes specified. Suits in which any question of the kinds specified comes into issue only collaterally are not affected.

3. Plaints in suits of the classes specified should be carefully scrutinized, and the directions of the Code as to authenticating amendments should be carefully observed by the Courts.

By order, &c.,

T. GORDON WALKER,
Registrar, Chief Court, Punjab.

(Translated.)

NOTIFICATION UNDER SECTION 9, ACT VII OF 1887.

WHEREAS the subject-matter of the following classes of suits does not, in the opinion of the Judges of the Chief Court, admit of being satisfactorily valued, the Chief Court, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, directs that they shall be treated for the purposes of the Court Fees Act, 1870, and of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, and the Punjab Courts Act, 1884, as if their subject-matter were of the value hereinafter stated :—

1. Suits in which the plaintiff in the plaint asks for a decree against the other party to the alleged marriage, either alone, or with other defendants, establishing, or annulling, or dissolving a marriage, or for restitution of conjugal rights, or for a decree for the recovery of a wife.

2. Suits in which the plaintiff in the plaint asks for a decree establishing a right to the custody or the guardianship of a minor, including guardianship for the purpose of marriage.

3. Suits in which the plaintiff in the plaint asks for a decree establishing or annulling an adoption, including under the expression adoption the customary appointment of an heir.

Explanations.—(1). In the foregoing rules the term "plaint" includes both an amended and an original plaint.

(2). Class 1 does not include petitions under any special Act relating to the dissolution of marriage.

(3). Class 2 does not include proceedings under Act IX of 1861 or Act XIII of 1874.

(4). A suit falling within any of the above descriptions shall not be deemed to be excluded therefrom merely because the plaint also seeks for any additional relief, which is capable of valuation.

Value.—The value of suits of these three classes shall be deemed to be—

(a) for the purposes of the Court Fees Act, Rs. 200.

(b) for the purposes of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, and the Punjab Courts Act, 1884, such sum exceeding Rs. 500 and not exceeding Rs. 1,000 as the plaintiff shall specify in the plaint.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,

(No. 3979)

Dated Lahore, 8th July 1887.

To

ALL COMMISSIONERS AND DEPUTY COMMISSIONERS IN THE PUNJAB.

Refund of income tax realized from a Missionary.

WITH reference to paragraph 1 of the Financial Commissioner's Circular No. 2 of 12th February 1887, regarding the exemption from income tax of Mission salaries and Mission property, and in continuation of Circular No. 15 of 4th April 1887, the annexed letter regarding refund of income tax paid is circulated for information and guidance.

By order, &c.,
H. C. COOKSON,
Offg. Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

(Translated.)

No. 2464, dated 22nd April 1887.

From—H. C. COOKSON, Esquire, Offg. Junior Secretary to the Financial Commissioner, Punjab,
To—The Commissioner and Superintendent, Division.

I AM directed to forward a copy of a letter received from Missionary in which he solicits that orders may be passed by the Financial Commissioner as to whether the amount which has been paid by him for the year 1886-87 on account of income tax should not be refunded to him.

I am to inform you that in the Financial Commissioner's opinion a refund of all sums paid by is clearly claimable under Government No. 3374, dated 6th December last, which exempts the salaries of Missionaries derived from Mission Funds. This letter is embodied in Financial Commissioner's Circular No. 2, dated 12th February 1887.

The Representative of His Highness the Rája of Nábha.
Frederic Larpent Esquire, Registrar.

1. The proxies received from absent Fellows of the University regarding the agenda of business at the present meeting of the Senate were laid on the table.

The proceedings noted below, which had already been circulated, were also laid on the table :—

Proceedings of Syndicate meeting,		March 7th, 1887.
Ditto	ditto	March 11th, 1887.
Ditto	ditto	March 26th, 1887.

2. The first proposal having been read—

That the Budget Estimates for the year 1887 as modified by the Syndicate be approved (Appendix I.)— the Registrar stated that the estimates had been very carefully considered by a special Sub-Committee, and the Syndicate had taken into careful consideration the report of that Sub-Committee upon the estimates.

Dr. Stulpnagel stated that he had had no previous opportunity of looking through the Budget, but that on glancing over it now he noticed that under head B. No. 5 provision had been made for the purchase of a telescope for the Government College classes. He did not know how far the Syndicate had considered this item, but he was under the impression that the Government College was already in possession of a very good instrument that had been purchased from Dr. Scriven, and, if his impression was correct, another costly instrument of the kind could scarcely be necessary.

The Vice-Chancellor explained that the matter had been very fully discussed at the meeting of the Syndicate at which he had been present, and it was on the strong recommendation of the Principal of the Government College that the acquisition of such an instrument was desirable, and would help materially in the instruction necessary in the College in higher mathematics that this proposal was agreed to. The Principal of the Government College was a member of the Sub-Committee by which the estimates had been considered, and was present at the meeting of the Syndicate at which the estimates had been passed, and at both had strongly advocated the purchase of the telescope, and two members of the Medical Faculty also thought it very desirable that the opportunity for obtaining such a valuable instrument should not be lost.

The proposition was then put from the Chair and agreed to without opposition.

3. In reading the second proposal of the Syndicate, viz.—

That the gold medal offered by the Queen-Empress and the silver medal presented by the Viceroy in connection with the Countess of Dufferin's Fund be thankfully accepted; that the rules for the award of the Medals suggested by the Central Committee of the National Association for supplying female medical aid to the women of India be approved; and that the Senate undertake the award of the medals on the conditions subjoined (vide Appendix II.)—

the Registrar stated that this proposal of the Syndicate had been well considered by the Medical Faculty, and that the Syndicate had adopted without alteration the recommendation of that Faculty. The proposal was then agreed to.

4. The third proposal was then read—

That Maulvi Abdulla be appointed Head Maulvi in the Oriental College in the place of Maulvi Faizul Hassan, deceased, on a salary of Rs. 80, rising to Rs. 120 per mensem, and that Maulvi Zaffar-ud-dín be appointed Second Maulvi on Rs. 60, rising to Rs. 70 per mensem;

That Maulvi Muhammad Husein, Azad, Shams-ul-Ulema, be appointed Assistant Superintendent of the Arabic and Persian sections on an additional allowance of Rs. 30 per mensem;

That Maulvi Muhammad Dín, M.O.L.'s pay be increased to Rs. 60 per mensem;

That Maulvi Abdul Hakim's pay be increased by Rs. 10 per mensem, that is to say, from Rs. 80 to Rs. 90 per mensem—which the Registrar explained to be merely a formal requirement necessitated by the rule which provided that all appointments in the Oriental College carrying salaries of more than Rs. 50 per mensem should receive the sanction of the Senate.

It was agreed to without discussion.

5. The fourth proposal was unanimously carried without remark.

The Syndicate having scrutinized the votes delivered at the election of Fellows, which terminated on the 24th March 1887, and having recorded the following result: —

			Votes.
F. de H. Larpent, Esquire	...	...	51
General S. Black, C.S.I.	...	...	36
T. Gordon Walker, Esquire	...	...	27
W. Coldstream, Esquire	...	...	23
Ganga Rám, C.E.	...	...	22
Lál Chand, M.A.	...	...	21
Dr. F. F. Perry ...	...	...	16
Syad Diláwar Ali Shah	...	...	12
Dr. A. Stephen ...	...	...	11 recommended that Mr. Larpent, General Black, Mr. Walker and Mr. Coldstream be accordingly elected.

6. The fifth proposal having been read—

That the Syndicate having recommended the appointment as Assistant Registrar of Bábu Chandra Náth Mittra, Bábu Jagan Náth, or Sheikh Amír Ali, B.A., one of these gentlemen be elected—the Registrar stated that he had received a letter from Sheikh Amir Ali, B.A., asking that his name might be withdrawn from the competition for the appointment.

The Vice-Chancellor stated that this proposal had been made by the Syndicate at a time when the matters connected with the leakage of the papers at the recent examinations had not come up before it. The proposal to appoint a full-time Assistant Registrar dates back to some time last year, and the reason for such an appointment was that it was felt that unless it was possible to procure the services of a full-time Registrar it was absolutely necessary to have at least a full-time Assistant Registrar. The duties of the Registrar's Office are so onerous and so extremely heavy and important that, unless an officer in whom the Syndicate had confidence was always present at the Senate Hall, it was impossible to carry on the duties satisfactorily and regularly. Inasmuch as it was not then practicable to appoint a full-time Registrar—there were difficulties both in regard to the emoluments of the office, and in regard to the means at the disposal of the University to provide the necessary funds—it was deemed advisable that, until arrangements could be made to appoint a full-time Registrar, a person should be appointed Assistant Registrar who could devote his whole time to the work. Hitherto the Registrar has only been able to devote a fraction of his time to the work: he has generally been some one in the service of Government, and, with the exception of Dr. Leitner, has been, with two short exceptions, one unconnected with the Educational Department. Mr. Larpent has devoted considerable time to his duties: he has worked earnestly and zealously, but at the same time the duties of the office are very onerous and too heavy to be satisfactorily performed by one overburdened by regular duties of an important character elsewhere. It thus may become desirable, when the report of the Sub-Committee which is enquiring into the leakage of the papers at the recent examinations is received, to reconsider the question of appointing a full-time Registrar, and with respect to that desirability it seems unadvisable for the Senate to commit itself once for all to the appointment of an Assistant Registrar, because if a full-time Registrar were appointed, there would be no necessity for the appointment of an Assistant Registrar. For these reasons he moved an amendment—

"That, pending the result of the enquiries by the Sub-Committee appointed by the Syndicate to enquire into the leakage of the papers at the recent examinations, the question of appointing a full-time Assistant Registrar be held in abeyance."

The amendment having been seconded by Mr. Mackworth Young, Bábu Protul Chandra Chatterji opposed it. He urged that the Syndicate having definitely recommended the appointment of one of three persons to be Assistant Registrar, one of those three persons should be so appointed. The question of having a full-time Registrar, or as an alternative a full-time Assistant Registrar, was decided in October last after full consideration of a report made by a special Sub-Committee, and the appointment of a full-time Assistant Registrar was deferred only out of consideration to the late Assistant Registrar, Mr. Oman, who it was thought was entitled to receive five or six months' notice of the change. The recommendations of the Syndicate upon that Committee's report were accepted by the Senate. It was then deliberately decided that the time had not arrived for the University to have a full-time Registrar, and that as an alternative a full-time Assistant Registrar should be appointed, and so long as that decision remained unrepealed, it seems that the Senate should now give effect to the proposal made by the Syndicate to carry out that decision.

After a further discussion, in which Dr. Stulpnagel, Háji Ghulám Hassan, Dr. Forman, and the Vice-Chancellor took part, the Vice-Chancellor consented to the modification of his amendment, which having been seconded by Mr. Mackworth Young was put from the chair and carried.

The amendment carried was—

"That the question of appointing a full-time permanent Assistant Registrar be held in abeyance, but that for the purpose of carrying on the current duties, a temporary Assistant Registrar be permitted on the present terms."

7. It was then moved by Bábu Protul Chandra Chatterji, M.A., B L., and seconded by Háji Ghulám Hassan, that Bábu Chandra Náth Mittra be appointed temporarily Assistant Registrar.

8. The sixth proposal was then read—

That the succession to an office under Government, which the Local Government have, by notification in the official Gazette, specified under Section 6, clause (a), of Act XIX of 1882 as qualifying for a Fellowship of a person who has been elected a Fellow under clause (c) or nominated a Fellow under clause (b) of that section, does not affect his position for the purposes of voting at the election of Fellows, or of recording his vote or proxy upon any proposal submitted to the Senate.

The Registrar explained that the proposal was designed to determine a question which had arisen at the recent election of Fellows. The question was whether a Fellow who had been appointed a Fellow under the schedule, Part II of Act XIX of 1882, or who had been appointed a Fellow under clause 6 (b), or who had been elected a Fellow under clause 6 (c), of the Act, and at the same time held an office under Government which, either by the schedule, Part I, or by the Government under clause 6 (a) of the Act, had been declared as qualifying the holder to be a Fellow was entitled to two votes at an election of Fellows or at the meetings of the Senate. Mr. D. C. J. Ibbetson had been appointed a Fellow by Part II of the Schedule to the Act, and was at the time of the recent election Deputy Commissioner of Delhi, which was an office specified in Part I of the Schedule, and had claimed to record two votes. Under the existing practice only one vote in such cases had been hitherto allowed, but, as there was no rule absolutely prohibiting a claim such as Mr. Ibbetson's, it had been deemed desirable to frame one.

Mr. Young asked if the wording of the proposition was the simplest form in which the decision could be put.

The Registrar replied that the resolution had been drafted by the Vice-Chancellor, and the wording of the Resolution followed the wording of the Act in the analogous section.

The Vice-Chancellor stated that the wording might no doubt be made clearer, but it had been drafted with reference to the wording of Section 6 of the Act, and on his suggestion, seconded by Mr. Mackworth Young, it was decided that the proposal should be adopted in the following form—

"That a person who either is deemed by the Schedule, Part II of the Act of Incorporation, to have been appointed or elected a Fellow under Section 6, clause (b) or (c), or has been actually so appointed or elected under Section 6, clause (b) or (c), and who holds an office under Government, either specified under Section 6, clause (a), or deemed by the Schedule, Part I, to have been so specified, shall not be entitled to more than a single vote on any question coming before the Syndicate or the Senate."

The meeting then separated.

SEALED tenders for the supply of the under mentioned articles at Umballa from date of commencement to 30th June 1888 will be received by the Executive Commissariat Officer at Umballa up to noon on the 16th July 1887, and opened by him then and there in the presence of all parties who may choose to attend.

2. No tenders will be received except on forms obtainable from the Commissariat Office, Umballa, which, as well as any information required regarding the contract, will be given on application to the Executive Commissariat Officer, Umballa, up to 1 o'clock P.M. on the 14th July 1887.

3. Seals of tenderers (unable to write) will not be accepted; they should have their marks verified by witnesses.

4. Covers to be superscribed—"Tender for wheat."

5. The tender may be in part or for the whole requirement, and the Executive Commissariat Officer reserves to himself the right to accept the tender in whole or in part; but in the event of his accepting in part only and the tenderer failing to take up the contract, the whole earnest deposit will be confiscated.

6. Tender for each article and description of article will be separately accepted or rejected, and separate Treasury Receipt for earnest-money will be required for each. Tenders without earnest-money will not be attended to.

7. Any octroi duty paid on the supplies will be refunded to the contractors.

8. Samples of the articles required to be supplied are to be seen at Umballa Godown, and every facility will be afforded to tenderers to see them before they tender.

9. Men suspected of having no intention of tendering may be required to produce Treasury Receipts, Government Promissory or Stock Notes for earnest-money before tender forms are issued to them.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE.

CIRCULAR No. 23 OF 1887.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,

(No. 1461.)

Dated Lahore, 18th June 1887.

To

ALL COMMISSIONERS AND DEPUTY COMMISSIONERS IN THE PUNJAB.

Salary, &c., of officers on leave in the United Kingdom exempt from income tax.

THE Government of India has ruled (No. 2101 of 28th April 1887) that allowance or salary paid in the United Kingdom to officers upon leave or duty there is not liable to tax under Act II of 1886; officers assessing income tax should be guided accordingly.

2. The Government of India has also directed (in letter No. 2478 of 12th May 1887) that, pending the issue of further orders, Foreign Consuls resident in India should be exempted from payment of Indian income tax in respect of their official salaries and fees.

3. The present opportunity is taken to republish for guidance of officers assessing the income tax an extract from Government of India letter No. 2318 of 4th May 1887 as to the review and revision of assessment lists.

By order, &c.,

R. G. THOMSON,

Senior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

(Translated.)

Extract from letter No. 2318, dated Simla, the 4th May 1887, from the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce.

It is thought probable that in the first year the list of assessees will have remained, in spite of all efforts, incomplete, and it is therefore desired that the list of the assessed should, for purposes of assessment in 1887-88, be carefully reviewed. The initial assessments (in conformity with the desire of the Government of India) were made as a rule on moderate estimates of income. It is of importance to maintain as much as possible, and for as long as possible, assessments regarding which no considerable doubt exists. But this consideration should not prevent a careful review of assessments which are believed to be doubtful in respect of the current year, as well as the revision of the lists by the addition of assesses previously omitted.

Industry for casting in plaster-of-Paris figures of typical native races.

THE annexed correspondence is reprinted and circulated for information and guidance of Deputy Commissioners.

By order, &c.,

R. G. THOMSON,

Senior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

Circular No. $\frac{6}{10-19}$ Ex., dated Simla, 10th May 1887.

From—Sir E. C. BUCK, Secretary to the Government of India, Revenue and Agricultural Department,

To—The Secretary to Government, Punjab.

I AM directed to state, for the information of the Punjab Government, that an industry for casting in plaster-of-Paris figures of typical native races was started by the Government of India in connection with the late Colonial and Indian Exhibition. This work is now being continued by the Government of Bengal under the supervision of its School of Art,

2. In order, however, to obtain the necessary garments and equipments for the figures that are cast, the Government of Bengal has asked for the assistance of Local Governments, &c., in the matter, and I am to enclose a copy of a letter* received from that Government on the subject, and to request that, with the permission of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, you will be good enough to issue such instructions as will enable the Principal of the School of Art in Calcutta to obtain, on payment, the necessary articles required for the figures representing inhabitants of different parts of India ; and also, if there is no objection, that the Principal of the School of Art may be allowed to communicate directly with local officers on the subject.

* No. 1149–145, dated 15th April 1887, and enclosures. (Not reprinted.)

No. 431, dated 20th June 1887.

From—The Junior Secretary to Government, Punjab,

To—The Secretary to the Government of India, Revenue and Agricultural Department.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your Circular No. $\frac{6}{10-19}$ Ex., dated 10th May 1887, regarding the supply of garments and equipments for plaster-of-Paris figures of typical native races to the Principal of the School of Art at Calcutta.

2. In reply I am directed to state that His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor has no objection to the Principal, School of Art, Calcutta, communicating directly with local officers in the Punjab on the subject, and that the instructions desired by the Government of India are being issued.

Instructions for avoiding the over assessment of the irrigating capacity of wells.

THE annexed extracts from the Assessment Report of parganah Indri and from the Financial Commissioner's orders thereon are circulated for the purpose of inviting the attention of officers engaged in the assessment of land revenue to the importance of avoiding any over-estimate of the irrigating capacity of wells. No rule for general observance is however prescribed as to this matter.

By order, &c.,

R. G. THOMSON,

Senior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

Extracts from Indri Parganah Assessment Report.

Correction of the irrigated areas.

90. When comparing the statistics of past and present well irrigation (see paragraph 40), I explained why the recorded cháhi area in the Bangar was so much in excess of the average of any series of years. It would be possible to allow for this by lowering the rate, but it is more satisfactory to attempt to find out what the average irrigated area really is and to take that as the assessable well area.

I have shown in paragraph 40 the average annual area per well wheel in each circle based on crop returns for three years which included two spring and one autumn harvests in which drought prevailed, one rabi and one kharif in which the rainfall was very extraordinary, and one kharif of normal character. The averages were, for the Khadir 9, for the Bangar 12, and for the Nardak 8, acres. But I do not think we need accept the bare averages as the basis of assessment. It is the crops we really assess, and the decrease of well irrigation in a good year does not mean the substitution of inferior for superior crops. The same crops are for the most part grown on the well lands, but they are not watered, and as they get less attention because the cultivator is fully occupied with his greatly expanded dry cultivation, probably the outturn is somewhat smaller than usual. In the Nardak, if the year is favourable, the rule is to raise the cotton and maize on the homestead lands without any artificial irrigation. I think that in assuming an average of irrigation per well wheel we may add to the bare averages brought out by my figures an acre in the Khadir and Bangar, and two acres in the Nardak.

I propose to take the assessable area per well wheel in the Khadir and Nardak at 10 acres, and in the Bangar at 13. According to this method of calculation, the well irrigated area to be assessed as compared with that entered in our records is as follows :—

	Khadir.	Bangar.	Nardak.	Total.
	Acres.	Acres.	Acres.	Acres.
Recorded	10,915	12,147	2,734	25,796
Assumed	11,190	9,178	2,410	22,778
Difference	+ 275	— 2,969	— 324	— 3,018

The assessable cháhi area and the corrected nahri and canal sailáb areas after making the deductions due to the shutting of the old line of the canal are shown in antique type in Statement No. I.

RULES OF THE PUNJAB PUBLIC LIBRARY.

I.—CONSTITUTION AND COMMITTEE.

1. The Committee shall consist of not less than 14 members including the President and Secretary.

2. The Deputy Commissioner of Lahore and the Director of Public Instruction, Punjab, shall be ex-officio members.

3. The Municipality of Lahore, the Punjab University, the Bishop of Lahore, and the Committee of the Lahore and Meean Meer Institute shall each nominate a member.

4. The life members shall annually elect two members to be on the Committee for one year.

5. The remaining members will be nominated by Government, who will also appoint the President.

6. The Committee shall appoint its own Secretary.

7. Standing Sub-Committees shall be appointed by the Committee to carry on the management of the different departments of the Library.

8. The Secretary shall be a member of every Sub-Committee.

9. A meeting of the Committee shall be held on the 1st Monday in every month.

Five members shall form a quorum.

10. A special meeting of the Committee may be called by the President or a Sub-Committee at a week's notice.

11. A general meeting of the life members and Committee shall be held once a year in the month of December, and at the meeting the two annual members to represent the life members shall be elected. Absent life members may vote at the election by proxy.

12. The current business of the Committee to be brought up at each monthly meeting shall include the examination of the accounts, of the suggestion books, of orders to book-sellers, of breaches of the rules, &c.

13. The funds shall be kept in the name of the Punjab Public Library by the Bank of Bengal, or as the Committee may from time to time direct.

14. All cheques shall be signed by the Secretary and a member of the Committee appointed by it for the purpose.

15. Expenditure on fixed charges, for which sanction already exists, and on contingencies up to a limit of Rs. 50 a month, may be incurred on the joint authority of the persons empowered to sign cheques. All other expenditure requires the previous sanction of the Committee.

16. A donation of money of Rs. 100 or upwards, or of books accepted by the Committee and valued by them as worth not less than Rs. 100, shall entitle the donor to the privileges of a life member.

17. Any donor of books may make it a condition of the donation that any of the books he gives shall not be lent out except to himself.

18. Life members shall be exempt from payment of deposits, subscriptions and other fees required by the rules.

II.—THE READING-ROOM.

1. The Reading-Room is open to the public free of charge.

2. Books may not be removed from the shelves by any one except the Librarian.

3. Catalogues and application forms are on the table. The Librarian will get any book for which a form is handed to him ; and books must be returned to him before leaving.

4. The Committee will exclude from the building persons who disregard any rules or who damage the property of the Library.

5. CLOSED DAYS :—Queen's Birthday, also from 1st to 7th October, and from 1st to 7th April inclusive.

6. DAILY HOURS :—In the winter 8 A.M. to noon and 3 to 8 P.M., and in the hot weather 7 to 11 A.M. and 4 to 8 P.M., and on Sunday 2 to 5 P.M.

III.—RULES FOR LENDING OUT BOOKS.

Books will be issued on the following conditions :—

1. An applicant must deposit Rs. 10 with the Secretary. The deposit will be liable to forfeit for injury or loss of a book, or for breach of any of the rules.

2. An annual subscription of Rs. 5 must be paid in advance, which may be compounded for by a donation of Rs. 25.

3. Not more than six volumes may be kept out on one subscription.

4. Residents at Lahore or Meean Meer shall return within 20 days every book so taken out. To residents at other places ten days longer will be allowed. But all books lent out must be returned by the 30th September and 31st March each year.

5. The cost of forwarding books will be recovered by sending them by Value Payable Post. Any charges due under Rules 1 and 2 may be added.

6. Books may not be transferred from one person to another.

7. The Committee will reserve from issue, under these rules, new or valuable books, at their discretion.

8. Forms of application for books can be supplied, and their use is requested, but is not obligatory.

9. Deposits under Rule 1 (if free of claims) will be returned on request to persons who have no books of the Library in their possession.

Notifications by Chief Court, Financial Commissioner, Accountant-General, &c.

CHIEF COURT.

BOOK CIRCULAR No. VIII—2666.

FROM

T. GORDON WALKER, ESQUIRE,

Registrar, Chief Court, Punjab,

To

ALL JUDICIAL OFFICERS IN THE PUNJAB, AND OTHER PERSONS CONCERNED.

Dated Lahore, 16th July 1887.

THE annexed Rule providing for the admission of the Junior Government Advocate of the Punjab as a Pleader of the 1st Grade has been approved by the Local Government, and is issued in continuation of the rules with the Court's Book Circular XVI of 1884.

By order,

T. GORDON WALKER,

Registrar.

(Translated.)

XXIV Rule for admission of Junior Government Advocate as 1st Grade Pleader.

NOTWITHSTANDING anything contained in Rules II, VII, VIII, IX, X, XI, XIII, XIV and XV, and subject to the other preceding Rules, so far as they relate to Pleaders, and to the special provisions hereinafter contained, any person who for the time being fills the office of Junior Advocate to the Government of the Punjab is hereby declared to be admissible, and shall, with the permission of the Chief Court, be admitted as a Pleader of the 1st Grade.

(a) Application to be admitted may be made by letter from the Secretary to Government, Punjab, or the Government Advocate, Punjab, or the Junior Government Advocate, Punjab, to the Registrar, Chief Court, stating the name of the person desiring to be admitted and the fact that he has been appointed (temporarily or permanently) to the office of Junior Government Advocate.

(b) The application shall be accompanied by an admission fee of Rs. 10 and the stamp paper requisite for a certificate of the kind required.

(c) The Registrar shall, under an order of the Court, grant a certificate in the special form hereunto annexed, and issue it to the person desiring to be admitted upon his signing an undertaking in writing that he will use such certificate for the purpose of practising as a Pleader in any Court or office only on behalf of the Government, or of some person on whose behalf he may be authorized by the Government or by the Financial Commissioner to practise, and only while he fills the office of Junior Government Advocate.

(d) Application to be enrolled under Section 8 of Act XVIII of 1879 by reason of the certificate granted under this Rule shall be made by petition to the Court in which the applicant desires to be enrolled. Such petition shall be accompanied by the certificate granted under this rule, and may be presented by the applicant in person, or forwarded with a covering letter to the Registrar of the Chief Court.

(e) A certificate granted to the Junior Government Advocate under this rule may be renewed upon an application by him in writing to the Registrar of the Chief Court accompanied by the certificate to be superseded and the stamp paper requisite for a new certificate. On the renewed certificate will be endorsed the memoranda of enrolment recorded on the expiring certificate, and such endorsement will be authenticated by the Registrar. The renewed certificate will be delivered or forwarded to the applicant, as he may desire, by the Registrar.

FORM OF CERTIFICATE.

PURSUANT to "The Legal Practitioners Act, 1879," I hereby certify that [Name], Junior Government Advocate, Punjab [or Officiating Junior Government Advocate, Punjab], has been duly admitted by the Chief Court of the Punjab as a Pleader of the 1st Grade and is entitled to practise as such Pleader, subject to the provisions of Section 8 of the Act above recited up to the end of the current year in the Courts and offices specified below :—

Civil Courts.

The Chief Court and all Civil Courts of inferior jurisdiction.

Criminal Courts.

The Chief Court and all Criminal Courts of inferior jurisdiction.

CIRCULAR MEMO. No. 27.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,

(No. 4418.)

Dated Lahore, 2nd August 1887.

ALL COMMISSIONERS AND DEPUTY COMMISSIONERS IN THE PUNJAB.

Monograph on brass and copper ware.

IN continuation of Circular Memo. No. 3537 of 25th May 1886, in which instructions were issued for the submission of reports on the silk industry of the Province, the following instructions are issued to District Officers for the submission of reports on brass and copper ware, which is the subject that has been selected for the monograph for the current year.

2. The reports should be submitted to Commissioners by 15th September, and the office copies sent to this office by the same date. They should contain, mutatis mutandis, information on all the points mentioned in paragraph 2 of Circular 7 of 1884. Figures as to the number of persons employed in the different branches of the art and the rate of pay earned by each class should be given. The sources of supply of the materials used, and the extent to which the province meets its own requirements, or how far it is necessary to supplement local produce by importation of foreign-made articles, should be stated. In sending up figures showing the quantity exported, imported, or home-made, the Financial Commissioner would be obliged if District Officers would state the values in rupees. In preparing former monographs some difficulty has been experienced owing to some districts giving figures in maunds, some in rupees. By giving figures by weight the quality of the workmanship is lost sight of. It will be more convenient to give, unless there is some obvious reason to the contrary, values in rupees. Some history, where possible, of the origin of the patterns used would be interesting.

3. A note by Mr. J. L. Kipling on the art side of the industry is herewith circulated. Further information will be found, as noticed by him, in paper X of the Journal of Indian Art.

4. It will be impossible in the case of the brass and copper industry to furnish specimens of the different manufactures, as was done in the case of the cotton, wool and silk monographs. But wherever it is found possible to have tolerable drawings made, they should accompany the district reports.

By order, &c.,

H. C. COOKSON,

Offg. Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

No. 366, dated 3rd June 1887.

From—J. L. KIPLING, Esquire, Principal, Mayo School of Art, Lahore,

To—The Junior Secretary to the Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

IN reply to your demi-official letter asking for suggestions as to the monograph to be prepared this year on the brass and copper ware of the Punjab, all I know of the subject is set forth in a paper published in the first number of the Journal of Indian Art.

This paper is deficient in precisely those points which enquiry by local officers would elucidate, viz., accurate enumeration of the present places of production, the prices of raw material, old and new, the sources from which they are derived, &c. At the same time it contains a general statement of the relative uses of these metals by Hindus and Mussalmáns, and might perhaps be of use as either indicating details already known or suggesting corrections and additions.

The relation of the workmen to the dealers by whom their wares are, so to speak, published, and from whom, as in other trades, advances are received which end in their practical enslavement, is a curious and important subject.

Mr. Maconachie sent up from Gurgaon in connection with the recent Indo-Colonial Exhibition some general observations by Mr. Christie on this subject, but more precise enquiry would bring out the existence of a state of things of which possibly the Government, and certainly the public, are not aware.

The regions to which the brass and copper manufactures of the Province are exported are at present vaguely spoken of. I know, for example, of no sound authority for statements that Central Asia and other regions are supplied from Amritsar. Nor is the amount of the importation of brass wares from the North-Western Provinces, fancy wares from Moradabad, sacrificial vessels from Muttra, and copper wares from Lucknow generally known.

As to processes of production, it is doubtful whether any observer, not a technical expert, could describe the processes of casting in use in a perfectly satisfactory way. I believe there are no fundamental differences between the methods of Europe and India, but, since the materials for moulding vary, and the difference in price of elaborate castings is apparently disproportionate, it would be worthwhile to ask for careful descriptions of casting processes, which should specify in all cases the materials used, such as wax, sand, clay, cowdung, &c., with such recipes for the mixtures of metal or the preparation of moulds as may be obtainable.

The proportions of metals used for kansi or phul, white brass, vary very much. Some of the Punjab metal of this kind is of excellent quality. Any notes on kansi would be useful.

I need scarcely remark that the strongly marked differences between wares for Hindu and Mussalmán uses should be kept in mind. These differences are by no means confined to material, but mark, forms and shapes. Thus a hooka with a handle like those now made at Rewári is never used by a Mussalmán.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,

Dated Lahore, the 10th August 1887.

To

ALL COMMISSIONERS AND DEPUTY COMMISSIONERS, PUNJAB.

Instructions for the systematic exhibition of Revenue Talbána Receipts.

IT has recently been noticed that the practice of showing collections on account of Revenue Talabána in the comparative statement of demand for Miscellaneous Revenue, No. XXIX, is not the same in all districts, some Deputy Commissioners showing the gross collections, while others only the surplus after deducting the pay of the process-servers.

The Financial Commissioner accordingly directs, in continuation of the instructions contained in this office Circular Memo. No. 1417 of the 24th February 1885, that the word surplus be struck out of column 3 of the comparative statement of demand for Miscellaneous Revenue, and that only gross collections may be shown in this column, in order that the figures may in all districts agree with those exhibited in Statement XII—5 of the monthly Tauzi.

R. G. THOMSON,

Senior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

Course of Study.

The Institution contains a High, Middle, Upper Primary and Lower Primary Department with two classes in each Department. The course of study leads at present to the Entrance Standard of the Punjab University. Special provision is made for imparting a good colloquial knowledge of English, and the students have the benefit of being taught from the earliest stages by men of comparatively high attainments. Arrangements will be made when necessary for extending the course of instruction to the standard of the Intermediate Examination of the Punjab University.

Vacation.

There is a vacation of two months from the 15th August to the 15th October.

Fees.

Fee for lodging and education, books and stationery, lighting, medical attendance and College servants, Rs. 50 per mensem.

The ordinary fee may, with the sanction of the Committee, be reduced by the Governor, but not below Rs. 25 per mensem.

Fees for Wards of Court are fixed under the orders of the Punjab Government.

All fees and the sums necessary for the personal expenses of pupils must be paid quarterly in advance to the Governor.

Day Students.

A limited number of day students may be admitted on payment of ordinary fees, provided satisfactory arrangements are made for their board and lodging and supervision out of College.

Scholarships.

Arrangements are in progress for the foundation of scholarships tenable by intelligent youths of good family who cannot afford to pay the fees, and two such scholarships, each sufficient to cover the cost of fees, have been already founded.

Progress Report.

A full report of the progress of each student will be submitted half-yearly by the Governor to the Committee, and a copy will be furnished to the parent or guardian by the Committee.

Copies of the Statutes containing full information regarding the rules and regulations of the Aitchison College can be had on application to the Governor.

The Indian Law Reports.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

THE "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council, appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month, at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, and comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat; the copies for subscribers registered by Messrs. Thacker, Spink & Co. are distributed by that firm; and the Madras, Bombay and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, respectively.

In supersession of previous advertisements, on and from the 1st January 1885, the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows :—

Pay and allowances of Kanúngos.

THE following alteration in Rule 96, clause 5, Fatwári and Kanúngo Rules, having been sanctioned by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, is circulated for information.

The alteration is the substitution of the words 'one year' for the words 'three years'; and the clause will now run thus :—

"In addition to the above salaries a Field Kanúngo, who has drawn a salary of Rs. 25 for one year, and holds a certificate of efficiency from the Director of Settlements, may be awarded by the Deputy Commissioner a field allowance which will not count as salary."

The effect of this change is to reduce the period during which a Field Kanúngo must have served before becoming eligible for a field allowance, from four years to two, viz., one year on Rs. 20 and one on Rs. 25 per mensem.

Resolution, Department of Finance and Commerce, No. 409, dated 19th April 1884.

RESOLUTION.—In supersession of the orders contained in the papers cited above, and with a view to reduce the work involved to local officers in reporting cases of opium-smuggling, the following tabular statement is prescribed for adoption in future:—

1	2	3	4		5	6	7
Name of district.	Name and residence of accused.	Quantity of smuggled opium seized.	Province or Foreign State or village (if known) whence the opium was brought.		Supposed destination of the opium.	Whether brought by railway or road.	Designation of convicting Magistrate; date of conviction, punishment inflicted, and rewards paid, with any remarks which the local authorities desire to offer.
			(a) As stated by accused.	(b) As shown by the evidence.

2. Petty cases of opium-smuggling in which convictions have been recorded should be reported quarterly to this Department in the form of the above statement.

3. Important cases (i.e., those in which the quantity of opium seized exceeds 40lbs. in weight, or in which any new information regarding organised and systematic smuggling is disclosed) should be submitted in the prescribed tabular form without delay, together with such special report as the circumstances may call for, for the information of the Government of India.

ORDER.—Ordered that this Resolution be communicated to the several Local Governments and Administrations for information and guidance.

Ordered also, that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Foreign Department for information.

Revenue Agents.

Paragraph 6 of Circular No. 5 of 1886 revised.

THE following revised instructions for preparation of annual list of persons entitled to act as Revenue Agents in the Punjab should be substituted for paragraph 6 of Circular No. 5 of 1886 :—

6. A list of persons entitled to act as Revenue Agents in the Punjab will be published annually as soon after the 1st of January as possible. With a view to the compilation of this list, Deputy Commissioners and Commissioners should send to this office, not later than the 15th January, extracts from their registers referred to in Rule VI. These extracts should contain transcripts of all entries relating to Revenue Agents whose enrolment was in force at any time either for the whole or any part of the previous calendar year. Columns 1, 2, 4 and 5 should be transcribed in full; of column 4 the last two entries only should be transcribed. Entries relating to Pleaders will be omitted. Reasons for non-renewal of certificate, such as death or resignation of profession, should be noted in the column of remarks. The Financial Commissioner's list will be amended in accordance with these returns, and printed copies will be distributed to all Revenue Offices in the Punjab with a supplementary list containing the names of the persons who have died or failed to renew their certificates since the last list was published. On the receipt of these lists, the names of persons who have died should be removed from any registers in which they may still be borne, and, in the case of persons who have not renewed their certificates, the fact should be noted in the various registers in which such persons are enrolled. Should any person who has been thus dealt with subsequently renew his certificate within the period of three years allowed by Rule VIII, the grant of a renewed certificate should be intimated to the various offices in which he is enrolled for the information of such offices and the offices subordinate to them, as well as to this office. If no application for a renewed certificate be made within three years, the name of the person should, at the expiration of that period, be struck off all the registers in which he is enrolled.

2. The father's name should be given in column 1 of Register of Pleaders, &c., Form 2, appended to the above Circular.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,

To

ALL COMMISSIONERS, DEPUTY COMMISSIONERS AND SETTLEMENT OFFICERS IN THE PUNJAB.

Instructions regarding the principles to be applied to cases of proposed suspensions or remissions of Land Revenue, Water-advantage Rates and Canal Rates generally.

THE Financial Commissioner desires to call the attention of all Revenue Officers to the correspondence reprinted below, which deals with the principles which should be applied to cases of proposed suspensions or remissions of Land Revenue, Water-advantage Rates and Canal Rates generally.

2. These instructions have received the approval of Government.

By order, &c.,

R. G. THOMSON,

(Translated.) Senior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

Extract paragraphs 6 to 10 from a letter No. 1736, dated 28th March 1887, from the Senior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab, to the Commissioner and Superintendent, Division.

PARA. 6. The Deputy Commissioner states that he has proposed relief only for those owners who are in impoverished circumstances, and that he has not considered the cases of rich revenue-payers, nor those cases in which the liability for the payment of the revenue has been transferred to bankers. These remarks appear to be prompted by the belief that it is the policy of Government in dealing with cases of agricultural calamity to enforce or abate the collection of the revenue rather with reference to the personal circumstances of the individual liable for that revenue than with reference to a fair and equitable review of the assets on which the claim to revenue is based.

7. Seeing that in all cases in which it is proposed to remit fixed land revenue it is necessary to inquire into the character of the harvests immediately preceding that under report, and as in many of these cases the village papers will be only an imperfect guide to such inquiries, the impoverished circumstances of the agriculturists can properly be set forth as one of the chief grounds on which remissions are proposed. Such impoverishment is usually the best and most direct evidence of the failure of those agricultural returns, the fairly regular continuance of which was assumed as the basis of the fixed assessment, and without which that assessment cannot be paid.

8. But to push the argument further in the interest of Government, and to assume that the fixed revenue can be fairly demanded in the face of all calamity and failure of assets, provided the persons liable for the revenue have at their command other resources which can be made to take the place of those agricultural profits which have ceased to exist, is a position which the Financial Commissioner believes that the Government does not desire to maintain.

9. The settlement contract should not bear a comparatively easy interpretation for the poorer of the agriculturists, and a much severer one for the richer men. The contract expressed by our fixed assessment assumes that on an average of years a given annual assessment can fairly be paid. If bad years come round, and the average profit on which the assessment was based is falsified, all revenue-payers have equitably an equal claim to relief. No doubt a certain limited distinction can properly be drawn between rich and poor agriculturists. The rich man can wait longer for his profits, and is no doubt willing to do so. But whether the agriculturist be rich or poor, the basis of the relief to be allowed is not his personal circumstances, but the extent to which unforeseen calamity has falsified the expectance on which the fixed revenue is assessed. The treatment which these cases receive at the hands of our Revenue Officers should be such as to encourage all agriculturists—equally those who depend solely on the profits of small holdings, and those who own large estates or derive part of their incomes from other sources than agriculture—to believe that in the event of recurring calamity, so serious as for the time to dry up the profits on which the fxed revenue was assessed, the current demand will not be rigidly enforced, but will be abated by suspension or remission in an equitable and considerate manner.

10. It is important to the prosperity of agriculture and to the security of a land revenue, which in the less favoured tracts of the Punjab is often paid under serious difficulties, that the wealthier members of the agricultural body should have this assurance of relief under calamity no less than the smaller landowners.

Extract paragraphs 3, 4 and 5 from a letter No. 2265, dated the 16th April 1887, from the Senior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab, to the Commissioner and Superintendent, Division.

PARA. 3. The Financial Commissioner having consulted the Chief Engineer of Irrigation on the questions thus referred, I am now directed to convey the following instructions for the guidance of yourself and the Deputy Commissioners concerned. In respect of canal water-rates, that is to say, rates assessed under the Canal Act, the principles on which the question is governed are laid down in Section 47 of the Northern India Canal and Drainage Act, and in the rules of the Irrigation Department appended to Circular No. 15 of 1886. These authorities direct that arrears of canal water-rates shall be recoverable as if they were arrears of land revenue; that when the recovery of these rates depends on a question of canal supply or of the action of the Irrigation Department, it shall be decided by the Irrigation Officers; and that in all other cases remissions shall be sanctioned, or refused on the same rules as govern remissions of land revenue. In respect of water-advantage rates, it should be borne in mind that these rates on the Bári Doáb Canal stand on an exceptional footing. They are not assessed under the Canal Act, but are fluctuating land revenue assessed under the Land Revenue Act,

4. Therefore, equally in respect of canal water-rates and in respect of water-advantage rates, the issue under consideration must be decided according to land revenue practice. And it may be thus stated; in cases in which land revenue is assessed, not by a contract for a term of years, but harvest by harvest at stated rates charged on the cultivation of each harvest; is the person liable for the land revenue entitled to a remission in the event of the crop being destroyed by calamity, over which he had no control? This question can only be answered in the affirmative. The Government has never asserted its claim to levy land revenue independently of the bad results of a given harvest, except in cases in which the person liable for the revenue holds a contract engagement fixing the revenue of the estate at a stated sum, and thereby securing to him all the profits of good years as a counter-balance to the losses of bad years. In the absence of such a contract, and where the land revenue is assessed at each harvest by stated rates on the areas for the time being actually cultivated, the Government takes both the advantage of good years and the risks of bad years.

5. It follows that the whole of the water-advantage rates and canal water-rates assessed on the crops destroyed by the hailstorm of the 6th October last should be remitted. The claim to remission is in no way affected by the circumstances, rich or poor, of the persons assessed. And all sums paid up by the landowners or irrigators on these crops under the belief that they were not entitled to a remission should be refunded.

CIRCULAR No. 30 OF 1887.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,

(No. 4698.)

Dated Lahore, 16th August 1887.

To

ALL COMMISSIONERS AND DEPUTY COMMISSIONERS IN THE PUNJAB.

Rulings and orders under the Income Tax Act, II of 1886.

IN continuation of Circular No 6 of 25th February last, the following rulings and orders of the Financial Commissioner, Local Government and Government of India, under the Income Tax Act, II of 1886, are printed for information and guidance.

By order, &c.,

(Translated.)

R. E. YOUNGHUSBAND,

Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

No. 51 C., dated 19th May 1886.

From—The Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab,
To—The Deputy Commissioner.

IN reply to your letter No. 419, dated the 11th instant, I am directed by the Financial Commissioner to point out that, as the interest on a Government Promissory Note cannot be said to be due till the date on which it is payable at the Treasury, income tax must be deducted from the whole of the half year's interest, if that date falls on or after the 1st April 1886. It is immaterial whether the period for which the interest accrued commenced before the 1st April 1886 or not.

2. In reply to the question asked in the second paragraph of your letter, I am to point out that, under the definition of income given in Section 3 (5) of the Act, all profits received in British India are taxable. The rent of a house situated in a Native State which is paid either to the owner who resides in British India, or on his account into a Bank situated in British India, is therefore income and taxable under the Act.

No. 213, dated 14th June 1886.

From—The Commissioner and Superintendent,
To—The Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

IN forwarding a copy of Deputy Commissioner, Kohát's No. 197 of the 29th ultimo, I have the honor to request a ruling regarding the liability or exemption from income tax, first, of the Rs. 1,000 yearly allowance enjoyed by Ghulám Muhammad Khán of Makhad, and second, of the salt percentages enjoyed by the Nawáb of the Teri Khatak.

No. 130 C., dated 10th July 1886.

From—The Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab,
To—The Commissioner and Superintendent, Division.

IN reply to your letter No. 213, dated the 14th ultimo, I am directed to state that the Financial Commissioner agrees with the Deputy Commissioner of Kohát that both the yearly allowance of Rs. 1,000 enjoyed by Ghulám Muhammad Khán of Makhad and the salt percentages enjoyed by the Nawáb of Teri are liable to income tax.

No. 4952, dated 14th July 1886.

From—The Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab,

To—The Commissioner and Superintendent, Deraját Division.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 594, dated the 9th ultimo, forwarding for orders a letter from the Deputy Commissioner of Muzaffargarh, enquiring whether the salaries of the members of a Hindu undivided family should be considered separately or collectively, for the purpose of assessing income tax.

2. The Financial Commissioner believes that the question is not likely to arise frequently in this Province, and he thinks that in the present case it will be sufficient to pass the following order :—If the joint family has no income independent of the salaries of its members, each member may be considered separately for the purposes of the tax. If, however, the family has some other source of income, Colonel Davies thinks that the definition of "person" in clause (7) of Section 3 of the Act should be strictly enforced, and that the salaries of the members should be considered as a part of the joint income of the family.

3. I am to return the Deputy Commissioner of Muzaffargarh's office file which has been obtained from him, and to request that it may be sent to him with a copy of this letter.

No. 2229, dated 12th August 1886.

From—The Junior Secretary to Government, Punjab,

To—The Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 563, dated the 19th of June last, on the subject of the difficulty experienced by the Deputy Commissioner of   in disposing of petitions under Section 25 of Act II of 1886 for revision of the amount of firms which have branches in districts other than those in which the head-quarters of the firms are situated.

2. In reply I am to forward, for the information of the Financial Commissioner, a copy of a letter No. 61 of the 12th of July 1886, from the Government Advocate, and to remark that the Act itself seems to provide for the difficulty stated by the Deputy Commissioner.

3. The enclosures of your letter under acknowledgment are herewith returned.

No. 61 D. A., dated 12th July 1886.

From—The Government Advocate, Punjab,

To—The Under-Secretary to Government, Punjab.

HAVING carefully considered the correspondence forwarded with your No. 1880, dated the 6th instant, I am of opinion that the point raised by the Deputy Commissioner of   is not one which, so far as I can see, creates any insuperable difficulty.

2. The object of the Income Tax Act is evidently to make a single assessment in the case of a company or firm carrying on business in more than one place, and, inasmuch as Section 14 contains the general rule that the "Collector" shall, from time to time, determine the persons chargeable under Part IV and the amount at which they shall be assessed, the word "Collector" has been so defined in the "Definition" Section (3) as to mean, in the case of a company or firm, the Collector of the District or Presidency town in which its principal place of business in British India is situate. Then, in furtherance of the same object, we find Section 47 conferring power on the Governor-General in Council and Local Governments to declare, in certain cases, which shall be deemed to be the principal place of business of a company or firm.

3. It thus being the duty of the Collector of the district in which the principal place of business is situate to make the assessment in the case of a firm having several places of business, it seems to necessarily follow that any revision of assessment under Section 25 must be made through the same authority which made the original assessment. But the Deputy Commissioner of   feels a practical difficulty in dealing with such applications where the branch firms are situate in distant parts of India, and he asks for instructions as to how he is to deal with them.

4. Now it appears to me that the Act contains ample provisions for the satisfactory disposal of the kind of applications referred to by the Deputy Commissioner. Section 28 in the first place enables the Collector to call for any evidence, at the instance of the petitioner or in order to ascertain the correctness of facts alleged by him, in the same manner or by the same compulsory means as is provided in the case of a Civil Court by the Code of Civil Procedure.

He might therefore issue a commission for the examination of witnesses whose personal attendance could not be enforced under the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code.

In the next place, Section 44 would enable the Collector to call upon any person to furnish him with such information as he deems to be necessary for the purpose of ascertaining facts relevant to the assessment or its amount. Under this section he could therefore call upon the Collector of the district where the branch firm is situate for any information which he might require in order to dispose of the application before him; and thus there would appear to be no necessity why the objector should be referred elsewhere for the purpose of prosecuting his objection, while it certainly seems desirable that the officer who makes the assessment in the first instance should also be the officer to consider and determine any objections against such assessment, and this is clearly the intention of Section 25 of the Act.

5. Under the above circumstances, it does not appear to me that a case is made out for invoking the power of the Governor-General in Council to make a general rule under Section 38, whereby objections against the assessment of branch firms would be transferred for disposal to the Collector of the district in which those branches happened to be situate.

I have also grave doubts whether, with reference to Section 25, such a general rule would be consistent with the Act.

6. In conclusion, I would venture to point out with reference to the facts mentioned in paragraph 2 of the Deputy Commissioner of letter that the provisions of Section 47 of the Income Tax Act ought not to be lost sight of. Under the last clause of that section the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab has delegated to the Financial Commissioner the power of deciding which shall be deemed to be the principal place of business of a company or firm which has several places of business in the Punjab, and the Financial Commissioner has issued instructions on the subject in paragraph 16 of his Circular No. 14 of 1886. But it will be observed that, in the case of firms which have branches in territories subject to different Local Governments, the power of declaring which shall be deemed to be the principal place of business for the purposes of the Act is reserved to the Governor-General in Council who, however, can delegate the power to any other authority. I have not been able to trace any such delegation of authority, and it seems worth considering whether some general rule as to the procedure to be adopted where a firm has branches subject to different Local Governments should not be framed under Section 38.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,—DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Dated Simla, 21st August 1886.

RESOLUTION—The Governor-General in Council is pleased to declare that the salaries of officers serving outside of British India whose services have been lent to, and whose salaries are paid by, Native States are not liable to the tax leviable under Act II of 1886.

No. 6731, dated 30th September 1886.

From—The Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab,

To—The Commissioner and Superintendent, Division.

IN reply to your letter No. 753, dated the 16th instant, I am directed by the Financial Commissioner to say that no definite rate of exchange can be fixed for assessing to income tax sums of money remitted to this country from England.

The income taxable is the actual income (in rupees) received in this country during the past year.

No. 37, dated 1st October 1886.

From—The Honorary Secretary, Punjab Masonic Institution,

To—The Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

I AM directed by the Trustees of the Punjab Masonic Institution to address you with a view to a remission of income tax claimed on the invested capital of the institution, and the favor of a refund of the "tax" already paid.

I beg to forward herewith a copy of the Bye-laws of the Punjab Masonic Institution and a copy of the last Annual Report issued, from which it will be seen that the aim and purpose of the Punjab Masonic Institution is purely one of charity, namely, the education of the children of deceased and indigent Freemasons, and the funds necessary for its maintenance are obtained from the voluntary contributions of individual members of the Masonic order.

The institution has at present the sole charge and maintenance of 25 children, nearly all of whom are orphans, and has invested in Government paper the sum of Rs. 46,000; and it is on the interest of this invested capital, hitherto utilized to meet part of the current expenses of the institution, that the income tax has been paid, and for the remission of which I am directed by the Trustees to address you. I may be permitted to point out that the desired exemption may be granted to this institution under one of the following Government orders:—

Chapter II of the Income Tax Act, clause e of paragraph 5.—"(e) Any income derived from property solely employed for religious or public charitable purposes."

Government of India Notification No. 434, dated 27th April 1886 (Gazette of India of 1st May, Part I, page 304).—"In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 6 of Act II of 1886, the Governor-General is pleased to exempt from liability to the tax payable under the said Act the incomes of Universities or other associations or bodies existing solely for educational purposes and of local authorities as defined in Section 3, clause 1, of the Act."

The favor of an early reply will greatly oblige.

No. 7008, dated 16th October 1886.

From—The Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab,

To—The Honorary Secretary, Punjab Masonic Institution.

IN reply to your letter No. 37, dated the 1st instant, I am directed by the Financial Commissioner to inform you that the proper course of the Trustees is to apply to the Deputy Commissioner under Section 25 of Act II of 1886 for the exemption of the income of the Institution from taxation, and if they are dissatisfied with the order passed by the Deputy Commissioner, they should apply to the Commissioner under Section 27.

No. 193, dated 10th January 1887.

From—The Officiating Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab,
To—The Deputy Commissioner,

IN reply to your letter No. 1447 of 3rd December, I am directed to say that it has been ascertained that there are no "shares," in the proper sense of the word, in the Capital of the North-Western Railway. They have since the purchase of the Sindh, Punjab and Delhi Railway by Government been converted into "annuities" payable in sterling in England. But if in any case an annuitant reading in India receives his annuity by remittance from England, the amount should be treated as private income under Part IV of the income Tax Act, and assessed like other income received from England or elsewhere by remittance.

From—The Under-Secretary to Government, Punjab,
To—The Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

From Patiála Motamid, No. 54, dated 15th November 1886.
From Jínd Motamid, No. 51, dated 3rd September 1886.

I AM directed by the Lieutenant-Governor to forward a copy of the letters marginally noted, in which the Motamids of the Patiála and Jínd States claim exemption from income tax in respect of the houses belonging to the rulers of those States situated in Lahore.

2. It appears to the Lieutenant-Governor that, as the houses in question are owned by the Patiála and Jínd Chiefs, but no income is derived from them while they are not occupied by the owners, Section 24 of Act II of 1886 does not authorize the levy of income tax in regard to those buildings. If the Financial Commissioner concurs in this opinion, I am to request that the local authorities may be instructed accordingly.

No. 145, dated 22nd February 1887.

From—The Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab,
To—The Secretary to Government, Punjab.

IN reply to your letter No. 84 of 14th February, I am directed to say that the Financial Commissioner concurs in the view expressed in paragraph 2, and that the Deputy Commissioner of has accordingly been instructed to exempt from income tax the houses occupied by the Motamids of the Patiála and Jínd States and any others to which this ruling may be applicable.

No. 692, dated 30th March 1887.

From—The Under-Secretary to Government, Punjab,
To—The Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 67, dated 22nd January 1887, referring for the orders of Government two questions in connection with the working of the Income Tax Act as to the liability to taxation of—

(1) clergymen of the Additional Clergy Society;

(2) the income of the Lawrence Memorial Asylum, Murree, and the salaries of the officials of this institution.

2. As to the first point referred. I am to say that the Lieutenant-Governor agrees with the Financial Commissioner that that part of the salary of clergymen of the Additional Clergy Society which is drawn from the funds of the Society is exempt under Section 5 (1) (e) of the Act on the analogy of the salaries of Missionaries which have been already exempted,—vide this office letter No. 3374, dated 6th December 1886. But the Lieutenant-Governor is of opinion that that part of the salary which is drawn (a) from Government, (b) from private subscriptions should be taxed where the total taxable income from all sources exceeds Rs. 500, and I am to request that instructions may be issued accordingly.

3. With regard to the second point, the income of the Lawrence Asylum at Murere itself is undoubtedly exempted by Government of India Circular No. 434, dated 27th April 1886, from whatever sources such income is drawn. But having regard to the fees which are required for pupils, a scale of which is given in Proceedings for May 1886, Home Department, Education, the Lieutenant-Governor thinks that the funds of the Asylum cannot be construed to be property employed solely for a public charitable purpose, and the salaries of the officials must therefore be held liable to taxation.

4. The enclosure of your letter under reply is returned herewith.

No. 2139, dated 11th April 1887.

From—The Officiating Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab,
To—The Commissioner and Superintendent,

I HAVE the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your No. 200 of the 26th March, referring for orders the question whether the income derived by from the house known as in Simla, the rent of which is received by the Simla Bank as her agents, and by them transmitted to her in England, is liable to the income tax of Rs. 15 assessed thereon by the Deputy Commissioner.

2. In reply I am to say that in the opinion of the Financial Commissioner the amount so received by the Simla Bank as agents is liable to the income tax. The rent of the house distinctly accrues and arises in British India, and is in the first instance received by the owner's agents in India, who are therefore liable to pay the tax under Section 21 of the Act. The payment of income tax in England on the amount is no ground for exemption from payment of the tax in India; as it would appear that the rent of the house has hitherto been received by the Simla Bank and not by , the Bank should be called upon to pay the money.

No. 1053, dated Lahore, 9th December 1886.

From—H. C. COOKSON, Esquire, Offg. Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab,
To—The Junior Secretary to Government, Punjab.

Commissioner's No. 3164, dated 16th October 1886, and enclosures.

I AM directed to submit in original for the orders of Government the letter from the Commissioner of Jullundur noted in the margin.

2. The case referred by him is briefly as follows. Sardárs Bikrama Singh and Suchet Singh, Ahlúwália, are living in Jullundur and are each in receipt of an allowance from the Kapurthala State, amounting to Rs. 60,000 per annum, paid to them through the Jullundur Treasury. The question arises, are they liable to be taxed on these allowances under the provisions of Act II of 1886? The circumstances under which these allowances were granted to these gentlemen are, I am to point out, fully described in pages 553 to 575 of Griffin's "Rájas of the Punjab." Under the decision of the Secretary of State, as contained in his despatch of 12th January 1869, these two younger brothers of Rája Randhír Singh of Kapurthala were to enjoy for their lives, either in money or in lands, the whole of the share of his property bequeathed to them by their father. But as they refused to become reconciled to their elder brother, the Rája, it became impossible to assign to them their share of the Kapurthala lands, and a cash allowance to the amount of their shares was therefore granted. This was fixed at Rs. 60,000 per annum for each of the Sardárs. They have since the decision resided in Jullundur, and their allowances have been paid to them through the Jullundur Treasury.

3. When the question of their liability to pay income tax on their allowances under Acts IX of 1869 and XVI of 1870 arose, it was decided by this office that they were not liable on the ground that the allowances received by them did not "accrue and arise in British India" (vide Sections 11 and 12 respectively of those Acts). Copies of the letters (as noted in the margin) in which this decision was conveyed to the Commissioner, Jullundur, are herewith forwarded.

Commissioner Jullundur's No. 182, dated 15th June 1869.
Financial Commissioner's No. 3857, dated 25th June 1869.

4. But the definition of "income" as given in clause (5) of Section 3 of Act II of 1886 is wider than that contained in the above quoted sections of the Acts of 1869 and 1870, as it includes "income received in British India," wherever the income may have arisen or accrued, and, under a strict interpretation of the present law, the allowances received by these gentlemen so long as they reside and receive the allowances in British territory as they are now doing are undoubtedly taxable. Whether under the peculiar circumstances of their case, and in consideration of the fact that they have on previous occasions been exempted from payment of the income tax, they should not now be specially exempted is a question for Government to decide. Colonel Davies is inclined to recommend that they should be so exempted.

No. 3164, dated Jullundur, 16th October 1886.

From—The Commissioner and Superintendent, Division,
To—The Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

I HAVE the honor to refer for orders of Financial Commissioner, and, if deemed necessary, for reference to the Government of India, the question raised in the annexed letter of the Deputy Commissioner, regarding the liability to income tax of the allowances paid to Sardárs Bikrama Singh and Suchet Singh by the Kapurthala State, but which are received by them in British India.

2. If the ruling of 1870 is to be followed, these gentlemen must be exempted; but it appears open to question if, under a strict reading of the Act, this is permissible.

No. 299, dated 8th October 1886.

From—The Deputy Commissioner,
To—The Commissioner and Superintendent, Division.

I HAVE the honor to request instructions regarding levy of income tax on the sums paid to Sardár Bikrama Singh, C.S.I., and Kanwar Suchet Singh, Ahlúwálias, through this office.

2. Each of these gentlemen receives Rs. 60,000 per annum from the revenues of Kapurthala, which by a political arrangement is paid over to them at Jullundur by the District Officer.

3. On the occasion of former income tax in 1870 they were exempted from the payment under orders of Financial Commissioner's No. 6609, dated 12th November 1870, copy of which is annexed.

4. I understand that the allowances are paid to them by Kapurthala State as compensation for resignation of certain territorial rights, and it appears to me that the Local Government may on political grounds think fit to grant them immunity from taxation on income which can hardly be said to accrue within British territory, although it is at present received by them there, for both reside permanently at Jullundur.

No. 6609, dated 12th November 1870.

From—The Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab,
To—The Commissioner and Superintendent, Division.

IN reply to your No. 265-2806, dated 29th October, I am directed to refer you to my No. 3851, dated 26th June 1869, in which it is explained that income accruing or arising in Kapurthala is not liable to income tax. The fact that Sardár Bikrama Singh and Kanwar Suchet Singh receive their income through the Jullundur Treasury is a mere question of remittance, and does not affect the point.

No. 182-1531, dated 15th June 1869.

From—The Commissioner and Superintendent, Division,
To—The Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

HAS the honor to forward, annexed hereto, copy of Deputy Commissioner of No. 373 of 8th current, and, with reference to the purport thereof, solicits orders as to whether a person should be taxed in respect of profits of trade carried on in a Native State not under the operation of Act IX of 1868.

No. 373, dated 8th June 1869.

From—The Deputy Commissioner,

To—The Commissioner and Superintendent, Division.

A TAHSILDAR in this district enquired how the cases of those persons were to be treated under the Income Tax Act who have income in Kapurthala or other Native States. I have instructed the Tahsíldárs that in such cases, under Section 17, Act IX of 1868, the procedure should be that, if the person liable to assessment resides in this district, his whole income, wherever it accrues, should be taxed, the Native State being asked to state what income accrues to him there ; but if he resides in a Native State, we have no concern with him or his income. Should the Rája enquire of us what his income is we will mention it ; otherwise no further notice should be taken of him.

2. I shall be glad to know if this instruction was correct.

No. 3851, dated 25th June 1869.

From—The Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab,

To—The Commissioner and Superintendent, Division.

WITH reference to your No. 1531, dated 15th June, I am directed to state that the Officiating Financial Commissioner does not agree with the instructions issued by the Deputy Commissioner of regarding the income tax assessment of persons residing in British territory and possessing property in Native States.

2. As to the place where the tax shall be collected, the Act directs that this shall as a rule be the place of residence of the party taxed.

3. But as regards the property to be taxed, the Act directs that such income only shall be assessed as accrues or arises in British India. The Native State of Kapurthala is clearly not included in the term "British India" within the meaning of the Act.

4. In the case in question therefore the persons referred to should only be taxed on the income or profits accruing in British territory, and not in that derived from Kapurthala.

5. I am to request that you will always express your own opinion in sending up references to this office.

No. 278, dated Lahore, 5th February 1887.

From—W. M. YOUNG, Esquire, Secretary to Government, Punjab,

To—The Offg. Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department.

I AM directed by the Lieutenant-Governor to submit, for the favorable consideration of the Government of India, a copy of the correspondence marginally noted, regarding the exemption of Sardár Bikrama Singh and Kanwar Suchet Singh, Ahluwália, from the payment of income tax on the annual allowances granted to them from the revenues of the Kapurthala State.

Financial Commissioner's No. 1053, dated 9th December 1886, and enclosures.

2. The facts of the case are sufficiently stated in the reference made by the Financial Commissioner, and it is unnecessary to say more than that the Sardárs reside in Jullundur, and each receives Rs. 60,000 per annum through the British treasury at that place. They are therefore liable to pay income tax under the provisions of Act II of 1886. But the reasons which induced the Sardárs to take up their abode in British territory entitle them, in His Honour's opinion, to a consideration of the question whether they may not equitably be exempted from the payment of income tax. As the Financial Commissioner has pointed out, the circumstances under which Sardár Bikrama Singh and Kanwar Suchet Singh were granted the allowances are fully detailed in Griffin's "Rajas of the Punjab." Had effect been given to the will of their father, Rája Nihál Singh of Kapurthala, the Sardárs would have been entitled to separate estates in that territory, or, in case of disagreement between them and their brother, Rája Randhír Singh, those estates would have become a part of British territory. In the former case the Sardárs would have remained residents of Kapurthala, and in the latter they would have become jágírdárs in British territory. Had either of these events happened, the British Government would not have claimed income tax, for in one case the Sardárs would have had no connection with British India, and in the other, as jágírdárs in the Punjab, their jágír incomes would be exempt from income tax under the provisions of Section 5 (1) (a) of Act II of 1886. But under the orders of Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, communicated in the Foreign Department letter No. 423, dated 25th March 1869, the will of Rája Nihál Singh was set aside, and ultimately a cash allowance of Rs. 60,000 per annum was granted to each of the Sardárs. This arrangement has been loyally accepted by both the brothers, who have proved themselves excellent citizens of Jullundur. Under all the circumstances, therefore, the Lieutenant-Governor thinks that income tax should not be levied on the annuities enjoyed by Sardár Bikrama Singh and Kanwar Suchet Singh, because they are paid from the revenues of the Kapurthala State, and it is only from special causes that the income is received in British territory.

No. 1823 I., dated 21st April 1887.

From—The Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department,

To—The Secretary to Government, Punjab.

I AM directed to reply to your letter No. 278, dated the 5th February 1887, regarding the liability to income tax under Act II of 1886 of the annual allowances paid from the revenues of the Kapurthala State to Sardár Bikrama Singh and Kanwar Suchet Singh, Ahlúwália.

2. The Government of India have fully considered the recommendation of Sir Charles Aitchison, but are unable to concur in the view that it would be inequitable on account of the origin of these allowances to tax the incomes received by the Sardárs in British India. Unless, therefore, His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor is of opinion that exemption is expedient on purely political grounds, the Governor-General in Council is not prepared to make the concession.

Endorsement by Punjab Government.

COPY of the foregoing forwarded to the Junior Secretary to the Financial Commissioner, Punjab, with reference to his letter No. 1053, dated the 9th of December 1886, with a request that the necessary action may now be taken for the levy of income tax on the sums paid to Sardárs Bikrama Singh, C.S.I., and Kanwar Suchet Singh, Ahlúwalias.

Offg. Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

No. 31, dated 16th July 1887.

From—The Superintendent of Stamps, Punjab,

To—The Secretary to the Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

I HAVE the honor to forward for a ruling by the Financial Commissioner, as a question of general applicability, a letter and enclosure in original from the Commissioner and Superintendent of Ráwalpindi Division, No. 1720, dated 15th instant, regarding the liability or otherwise to stamp duty of declarations made by soldiers who enlist under assumed names, and subsequently wish to have their true names added to the regimental record.

2. I agree with Mr. Gardiner in the opinion that such declarations clearly require a stamp of one rupee under Article III, Schedule I, of the Stamp Act, I of 1879.

3. The return of the enclosures with reply is requested.

From—The Commissioner and Superintendent, Ráwalpindi Division,

To—The Superintendent of Stamps, Punjab.

I HAVE the honor to forward in original (to be returned) a letter from the Deputy Commissioner of Ráwalpindi, No. 1673 G, dated 6th instant, enquiring whether declarations made by soldiers who enlist under assumed names, and subsequently wish to have their true names added to the regimental record, should be stamped under Article III, Schedule I, of Act I of 1879, and to request that you will favour me with your opinion thereon by an early date.

No. 1673G., dated 6th July 1887.

From—The Deputy Commissioner, Ráwalpindi,

To—The Commissioner and Superintendent, Ráwalpindi Division.

ACCORDING to the Queen's Regulations, Section XXII, paragraph 39, if a soldier who has enlisted under an assumed name requires his true name to be added to regimental records he must, at his own expense, make a statutory declaration before a Magistrate under the (English) Statutory Declarations Act, 1835. Such a declaration falls apparently under Article III, Schedule I, Act I of 1879, and should therefore be written on a stamp of one rupee, but I doubt whether this is done in practice, and I have therefore the honor to enquire whether I am to insist on the use of a stamp in such cases or not. A case of the sort is now before me awaiting your instructions on this reference.

No. 4390, dated 1st August 1887.

From—The Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab,

To—The Superintendent of Stamps, Punjab.

I AM directed to return the enclosures of your letter No. 31, dated 16th current, and to state that the Financial Commissioner agrees with you in your opinion that declarations made by soldiers who enlist under assumed names, and subsequently wish to have their true names added to the regimental record, are liable to a stamp duty of one rupee under Article III, Schedule I, of the Stamp Act, I of 1879.

CIRCULAR MEMO. No. 30 OF 1887.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,

(No. 4681.)

Dated Lahore, 13th August 1887.

To

ALL COMMISSIONERS AND DEPUTY COMMISSIONERS AND TO THE CONSERVATOR OF FORESTS IN THE PUNJAB.

Instructions for guidance of Divisional Forest Officers in the matter of correspondence.

THE following instructions are issued in continuation of Circular No. 42 of 1885.

2. Divisional Forest Officers have to correspond with the Conservator of Forests on such matters as accounts, annual reports, establishments, examinations, timber and plantation work, and other like topics. In some cases this correspondence is conducted direct, and in others through the medium of the Deputy Commissioner.

3. The latter plan causes delay and inconvenience and should now be abandoned. In future all correspondence of the nature in question should be conducted directly; but each Divisional Forest Officer will send a weekly abstract of it to the Deputy Commissioner to whom he is subordinate. If the Forest Officer's charge extends over more than one district, the abstract sent to the Deputy Commissioner of each district may be confined to the portions of the correspondence which affect that district.

4. Correspondence as to forest settlements, working plans, plans of operations, or as to questions which concern the rights of the village population over or their uses of the forest areas of a district should pass through the hands of the Deputy Commissioner.

By order, &c.,

R. G. THOMSON,

Senior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

The Indian Law Reports.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

THE "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council, appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month, at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, and comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat; the copies for subscribers registered by Messrs. Thacker, Spink & Co. are distributed by that firm; and the Madras, Bombay and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, respectively.

In supersession of previous advertisements, on and from the 1st January 1885, the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows :—

Terms of subscription, payable annually in advance.

PUNJAB AND ITS DEPENDENCIES.

LAHORE, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1887.

PART III.

Notifications by Chief Court, Financial Commissioner, Accountant-General, &c.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE.

CIRCULAR No. 26 OF 1887.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,

(No. 4511.)

Dated Lahore, 8th August 1887.

To

ALL COMMISSIONERS AND DEPUTY COMMISSIONERS
IN THE PUNJAB.

Instructions for guidance of Forest Settlement Officers in proceedings under Chapter II of the Indian Forest Act, 1878.

THE Financial Commissioner, with the sanction of the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor, issues the following instructions for the guidance of Forest Settlement Officers in proceedings under Chapter II of the Indian Forest Act, 1878.

Preliminary Proposals.

1. Proposals to constitute Reserved Forests (whether initiated by local officers or framed in consequence of instructions received from superior authority) should be submitted by Deputy Commissioners to Commissioners and should be accompanied by—

(i) a map showing the land which it is proposed to treat in this manner, and also the lands adjacent thereto;

(ii) a draft Notification under Section 4 of the Act;

(iii) a report stating the rights in the land, so far as known, the manner in which the land has hitherto been managed, and the reasons for which it is desired to convert it into a Reserved Forest, with suggestions for the appointment of a Forest Settlement Officer and other agency, if any, required for his assistance.

2. In drawing up this report the Deputy Commissioner should avail himself of the assistance of the District Forest Officer. In his absence, or for the proper treatment of cases of sufficient importance, the Conservator of Forests may be able to place a Forest Officer at the Deputy Commissioner's disposal for the purpose. No detailed enquiry into rights should be made at this stage.

3. It is of particular importance that this report, which is the first step in Forest reservation proceedings, should state clearly the purpose for which the reservation is proposed, e.g., for the better supply of the adjacent population with timber, fuel, grass, or other forest produce; to meet the demands of railways, cities, or cantonments; to protect by forest growth hill sides and prevent destructive drainage; to grow or protect a high class of timber. The manner in which the reservation is likely to affect adjacent estates or population should also be noticed. To this end the map accompanying should show not only the lands which it is proposed to reserve, but also the lands adjacent thereto, distinguishing inhabited sites, cultivation and waste. It is ordinarily difficult for an agricultural or pastoral population to modify their habits in conformity with novel demands of regulated forest management, and it is for the reporting officers to show either that the proposed reservation will not affect the conveniences of the adjacent population, or that sufficient necessity exists for restricting their conveniences.

4. The Commissioner on receipt of the Deputy Commissioner's report will forward it to the Conservator of Forests for his opinion, and after receipt of that officer's reply will submit the report to the Financial Commissioner with his recommendations.

Forest Settlement Procedure.

5. When a proposal to constitute a Reserved Forest has been notified, and the Forest Settlement Officer has entered upon his duties and has issued the proclamation required by Section 6, his most immediate duty is to ascertain whether he has at his command a sufficiently accurate map of the land to be reserved, and if he has not, then to provide one, for which purpose Section 8 of the Act furnishes him with the necessary authority. Except for special reasons, the map should not be on a smaller scale than four inches to the mile. Its outer boundaries and the boundaries of all interior holdings should be carefully attested, and be compared with the existing records available in the District Record Office.

Section 7 of the Act.

6. In the meantime all claims preferred and statements of rights of which the existence is ascertained (whether from previous records or from local inquiry) should be put up in a file, and be dealt with in the manner provided by the Act. Claims should be clearly set out, either by petition or by deposition or in both ways. If rights are believed to exist, and the right-holders do not appear, these persons should be summoned and be examined with reference to their rights. Documents relied on should be filed in original, or, if copies are filed, they should be admitted only after comparison with the originals. Where previous records are referred to, the original records should be inspected, and certified extracts should be filed. If claims or rights are disputed, suitable issues should be framed, evidence heard and findings be recorded thereon. In short, the Settlement Officer should remember that he is armed with the powers of a Civil Court, and that his decision possesses a similar finality. At the same time separate files need not ordinarily be made up for each claim. Unless difficulties arise, it will be usually sufficient to deal with all claims and rights in three files according to the classification given in the paragraph next following.

Section 8 (b) of the Act.

7. In respect of the treatment of claims attention is directed to the following instructions:—

Chapter II of the Forest Act divides the claims with which a Forest Settlement Officer has to deal into three classes, and provides a different method of treatment for each class. The three classes are—

Sections 11 to 14.

(i) claims to public or private ways or water-courses;

(ii) claims to rights of pasture or to forest produce;

(iii) claims to other rights.

Public and private ways and water-courses.

8. The Forest Settlement Officer must be careful to record all public and private ways and water-courses existing at the time of his inquiries, and in this class of claims must be included rights to use the water or wells, springs and streams situate inside the boundaries of the proposed reserve, for if the right to use such water exist it cannot be enjoyed unless a proper way of approach to the water is allowed. But though the Forest Settlement Officer is required to record all rights of this class he has no authority to expro-priate or commute them. His duty is limited to the drawing up of a clear record of them. Their future regulation is a matter for the Executive Government, under Section 24.

Rights of pasture or to forest produce.

9. The treatment of the 2nd class of claims, viz., claims to rights of pasture or to forest produce, is the most difficult part of the Settlement Officer's duty. If, after the inquiry to which reference has been made in paragraph 6 above, he rejects a claim in whole or in part, he should be careful that his order contains all the particulars required by Section 12. If he admit a claim, he should proceed to record with as much completeness as is possible all the particulars required by Section 13.

Having made this record, it remains for the Forest Settlement Officer to secure by one of the three methods laid down in Section 14 of the Act the continued exercise of the rights so admitted. He may either transfer the right to another forest tract under the conditions stated in Section 14 (a); or, under the conditions stated in Section 14 (b), he may exclude from the forest an area sufficient for the exercise of the rights established. Both of these methods possess obvious advantages, especially in the eyes of the right-holders, but it lies with the Forest Settlement Officer to take care that in resorting to them he does not burden any land with rights so extensive as to insure its ultimate deterioration. It is easy by a too ready resort to expedients of this nature to purchase the proper forest preservation of one forest area at the cost of the ultimate destruction of another forest area. The Forest Settlement Officer is under no necessity to sanction wasteful adjustments of this nature. Under Section 14 (c) he can record an order appointing the seasons at which, and the portions of forest in which, the rights shall be exercised, and he can also propose in his final report any rules which without restricting the rights admitted place appropriate safeguards on their exercise. In making arrangements of this nature, it is useful to bear in mind the necessity for providing that all areas burdened with rights shall be closed in rotation for reproduction. For instance where a right of grazing can be sufficiently provided for in a hundred acres, it is expedient, if possible, to record the right in a larger area, subject to adequate conditions for securing the closing of the whole in rotation.

All this is to be done to the best of the Forest Settlement Officer's ability, and with due regard to the successful maintenance of the forest under reservation. Primarily the Government is not interested in extinguishing rights of pasture or to forest produce. But in the last resort, and where really necessary in the interests entrusted to his charge, the Forest Settlement Officer has authority under Section 15 of the Act to expropriate these rights.

Other rights.

10. There remains the 3rd class of rights, which includes all those not mentioned above. In respect of these the Legislature leaves no option to the Forest Settlement Officer. He must either exclude from the forest the land on which these rights are claimed, or he must extinguish the rights. In this connection it should be remembered that, provided a given area of land is expressly excluded from the reserve, being clearly demarcated off, the mere fact that the reserved forest surrounds such land does not necessitate expropriation of the latter. No doubt such areas (commonly known as Chak Kharija) often create difficulties in forest management, and where this is the case, the Settlement Officer will act rightly in expropriating them. But in each instance the question is for his decision.

Financial Commissioner's Circulars No. 27, dated 29th May 1882, and No. 1, dated 6th January 1886.

11. In carrying out expropriations care should be taken to comply with the rules issued by Government for the guidance of Deputy Commissioners in their proceedings under the Land Acquisition Act of 1870. For all proposed expropriations village statements should be prepared and filed as required by No. XIX of these rules, and the award should be entered in the district register (Rule XL). If reductions in the revenue roll are necessitated by these expropriations, the Settlement Officer should prepare and forward to the Deputy Commissioner the statement prescribed by Rule XXXI, and it will usually be convenient to him to do this at the same time as he makes his award.

12. As the settlement of the reserved forest proceeds, if its boundaries have not already been permanently marked out, it is the duty of the District Forest Officer to set up permanent pillars and to test the agreement of these pillars with the final record of the Forest Settlement Officer.

Final Record and Report.

13. This final record will be prepared by the Forest Settlement Officer as soon as the decision of claims has progressed sufficiently. It should comprise for each forest separately demarcated, or where the forest tract is of great size, for each convenient section thereof, (i) map, (ii) proceeding, (iii) final notification. Instructions as to the form and contents of these documents are appended, and no other paper should be added to this file, excepting only orders subsequently issued by the Local Government under Section 21 of the Act.

2. In drawing up this report the Deputy Commissioner should avail himself of the assistance of the District Forest Officer. In his absence, or for the proper treatment of cases of sufficient importance, the Conservator of Forests may be able to place a Forest Officer at the Deputy Commissioner's disposal for the purpose. No detailed enquiry into rights should be made at this stage.

3. It is of particular importance that this report, which is the first step in Forest reservation proceedings, should state clearly the purpose for which the reservation is proposed, e.g., for the better supply of the adjacent population with timber, fuel, grass, or other forest produce; to meet the demands of railways, cities, or cantonments; to protect by forest growth hill sides and prevent destructive drainage; to grow or protect a high class of timber. The manner in which the reservation is likely to affect adjacent estates or population should also be noticed. To this end the map accompanying should show not only the lands which it is proposed to reserve, but also the lands adjacent thereto, distinguishing inhabited sites, cultivation and waste. It is ordinarily difficult for an agricultural or pastoral population to modify their habits in conformity with novel demands of regulated forest management, and it is for the reporting officers to show either that the proposed reservation will not affect the conveniences of the adjacent population, or that sufficient necessity exists for restricting their conveniences.

4. The Commissioner on receipt of the Deputy Commissioner's report will forward it to the Conservator of Forests for his opinion, and after receipt of that officer's reply will submit the report to the Financial Commissioner with his recommendations.

Forest Settlement Procedure.

5. When a proposal to constitute a Reserved Forest has been notified, and the Forest Settlement Officer has entered upon his duties and has issued the proclamation required by Section 6, his most immediate duty is to ascertain whether he has at his command a sufficiently accurate map of the land to be reserved, and if he has not, then to provide one, for which purpose Section 8 of the Act furnishes him with the necessary authority. Except for special reasons, the map should not be on a smaller scale than four inches to the mile. Its outer boundaries and the boundaries of all interior holdings should be carefully attested, and be compared with the existing records available in the District Record Office.

Section 7 of the Act.

6. In the meantime all claims preferred and statements of rights of which the existence is ascertained (whether from previous records or from local inquiry) should be put up in a file, and be dealt with in the manner provided by the Act. Claims should be clearly set out, either by petition or by deposition or in both ways. If rights are believed to exist, and the right-holders do not appear, these persons should be summoned and be examined with reference to their rights. Documents relied on should be filed in original, or, if copies are filed, they should be admitted only after comparison with the originals. Where previous records are referred to, the original records should be inspected, and certified extracts should be filed. If claims or rights are disputed, suitable issues should be framed, evidence heard and findings be recorded thereon. In short, the Settlement Officer should remember that he is armed with the powers of a Civil Court, and that his decision possesses a similar finality. At the same time separate files need not ordinarily be made up for each claim. Unless difficulties arise, it will be usually sufficient to deal with all claims and rights in three files according to the classification given in the paragraph next following.

Section 8 (b) of the Act.

7. In respect of the treatment of claims attention is directed to the following instructions :—

Chapter II of the Forest Act divides the claims with which a Forest Settlement Officer has to deal into three classes, and provides a different method of treatment for each class. The three classes are—

Sections 11 to 14.

(i) claims to public or private ways or water-courses;

(ii) claims to rights of pasture or to forest produce;

(iii) claims to other rights.

Public and private ways and water-courses.

8. The Forest Settlement Officer must be careful to record all public and private ways and water-courses existing at the time of his inquiries, and in this class of claims must be included rights to use the water or wells, springs and streams situate inside the boundaries of the proposed reserve, for if the right to use such water exist it cannot be enjoyed unless a proper way of approach to the water is allowed. But though the Forest Settlement Officer is required to record all rights of this class he has no authority to expro-

priate or commute them. His duty is limited to the drawing up of a clear record of them. Their future regulation is a matter for the Executive Government, under Section 24.

Rights of pasture or to forest produce.

9. The treatment of the 2nd class of claims, viz., claims to rights of pasture or to forest produce, is the most difficult part of the Settlement Officer's duty. If, after the inquiry to which reference has been made in paragraph 6 above, he rejects a claim in whole or in part, he should be careful that his order contains all the particulars required by Section 12. If he admit a claim, he should proceed to record with as much completeness as is possible all the particulars required by Section 13.

Having made this record, it remains for the Forest Settlement Officer to secure by one of the three methods laid down in Section 14 of the Act the continued exercise of the rights so admitted. He may either transfer the right to another forest tract under the conditions stated in Section 14 (a); or, under the conditions stated in Section 14 (b), he may exclude from the forest an area sufficient for the exercise of the rights established. Both of these methods possess obvious advantages, especially in the eyes of the right-holders, but it lies with the Forest Settlement Officer to take care that in resorting to them he does not burden any land with rights so extensive as to insure its ultimate deterioration. It is easy by a too ready resort to expedients of this nature to purchase the proper forest preservation of one forest area at the cost of the ultimate destruction of another forest area. The Forest Settlement Officer is under no necessity to sanction wasteful adjustments of this nature. Under Section 14 (c) he can record an order appointing the seasons at which, and the portions of forest in which, the rights shall be exercised, and he can also propose in his final report any rules which without restricting the rights admitted place appropriate safeguards on their exercise. In making arrangements of this nature, it is useful to bear in mind the necessity for providing that all areas burdened with rights shall be closed in rotation for reproduction. For instance where a right of grazing can be sufficiently provided for in a hundred acres, it is expedient, if possible, to record the right in a larger area, subject to adequate conditions for securing the closing of the whole in rotation.

All this is to be done to the best of the Forest Settlement Officer's ability, and with due regard to the successful maintenance of the forest under reservation. Primarily the Government is not interested in extinguishing rights of pasture or to forest produce. But in the last resort, and where really necessary in the interests entrusted to his charge, the Forest Settlement Officer has authority under Section 15 of the Act to expropriate these rights.

Other rights.

10. There remains the 3rd class of rights, which includes all those not mentioned above. In respect of these the Legislature leaves no option to the Forest Settlement Officer. He must either exclude from the forest the land on which these rights are claimed, or he must extinguish the rights. In this connection it should be remembered that, provided a given area of land is expressly excluded from the reserve, being clearly demarcated off, the mere fact that the reserved forest surrounds such land does not necessitate expropriation of the latter. No doubt such areas (commonly known as Chak Kharija) often create difficulties in forest management, and where this is the case, the Settlement Officer will act rightly in expropriating them. But in each instance the question is for his decision.

Financial Commissioner's Circulars No. 27, dated 29th May 1882, and No. 1, dated 6th January 1886.

11. In carrying out expropriations care should be taken to comply with the rules issued by Government for the guidance of Deputy Commissioners in their proceedings under the Land Acquisition Act of 1870. For all proposed expropriations village statements should be prepared and filed as required by No. XIX of these rules, and the award should be entered in the district register (Rule XL). If reductions in the revenue roll are necessitated by these expropriations, the Settlement Officer should prepare and forward to the Deputy Commissioner the statement prescribed by Rule XXXI, and it will usually be convenient to him to do this at the same time as he makes his award.

12. As the settlement of the reserved forest proceeds, if its boundaries have not already been permanently marked out, it is the duty of the District Forest Officer to set up permanent pillars and to test the agreement of these pillars with the final record of the Forest Settlement Officer.

Final Record and Report.

13. This final record will be prepared by the Forest Settlement Officer as soon as the decision of claims has progressed sufficiently. It should comprise for each forest separately demarcated, or where the forest tract is of great size, for each convenient section thereof, (i) map, (ii) proceeding, (iii) final notification. Instructions as to the form and contents of these documents are appended, and no other paper should be added to this file, excepting only orders subsequently issued by the Local Government under Section 21 of the Act.

14. All claims having been disposed of and the above record having been completed it will then only remain for the Forest Settlement Officer to move the Local Government to issue the notification contemplated by Section 19. It is necessary that the Local Government should, before taking this step, be informed of the nature of the proceedings to which its final sanction is desired. To this end the Forest Settlement Officer should draw up a brief report stating, in addition to the information required by clauses (a), (b) and (c) of Section 19 of the Act, the general result of his proceedings. This report should be written by way of continuation of the preliminary report submitted under paragraph 1 of this Circular, and need not repeat matters already sufficiently explained therein. No exact form is prescribed for the report. What is required is a brief summary of so much of the proceedings as has not already been reported, and of such a nature as to satisfy the Local Government that these proceedings can appropriately be confirmed. It should notice specially the matters referred to in paragraphs 9 and 10 above, and also the extent to which expropriations (by agreement or by award) have been resorted to, and the cost and other results of such expropriations. It should be accompanied by a Draft Notification for issue under Section 19 of the Act, by a map showing the limits of the forest as finally settled on the scale and with the other details required by paragraphs 1, 3 and 5 above, and also by an English abstract of the information given under heads V and VI of the proceeding prescribed by paragraphs 1 and 3 of Appendix I. This abstract should be drawn up with some care, for it is intended to serve as a convenient guide to the officers by whom the forest will be managed. If expropriations have been made, an abstract statement, in the form prescribed by Rule XXXI of Circular No. 27 of 1882, should also be added.

15. The report should be addressed to the Commissioner of the Division, but it should be forwarded, unless the Deputy Commissioner is himself the Forest Settlement Officer, through the Deputy Commissioner, who is required to add to it both his own opinion and that of the District Forest Officer. The Commissioner before forwarding the report to the Financial Commissioner will proceed as directed in paragraph 4 of this Circular.

16. The final record (paragraph 13) should not be forwarded to the Commissioner, but should be deposited in the District Record Office at the same time as the final report is submitted. These records will be permanently preserved.

17. The files of claims (paragraph 6) will also be deposited in the District Record Office, and Part A. of these files should also be preserved permanently.

Special Proposals.

18. The preceding instructions relate to the necessary procedure prescribed under Chapter II of the Indian Forest Act when it is proposed or resolved to constitute a reserved forest. In carrying out this procedure a Forest Settlement Officer must carefully limit himself to ascertaining, settling and recording rights actually existing and providing for their exercise and enjoyment in the manner prescribed in the Act. But much more than this is required to enable the Local Government to judge whether after the events mentioned in Section 19 of the Act have occurred it is or is not expedient to issue a notification under that section declaring the area to be a reserved forest. The result of the procedure of the Forest Act, when rights have been recorded and maintained, is to impose great restrictions on their exercise and to materially alter the previous usages of the people. To such changes, as already observed, the people are slow to accommodate themselves, and it is therefore incumbent on the Government to satisfy itself as to the probable effect which the reservation of the area and its strict management as a reserve will have upon the requirements of the neighbourhood and the habits of the people. This can best be ascertained by the Forest Settlement Officer in the course of his inquiries for the settlement of rights. If not ascertained and reported on by him, it would have to be separately enquired into and reported on by the Deputy Commissioner or other Revenue Officer, which would only cause delay and additional expense. In addition therefore to having his record of rights in strict accordance with the Act, the Forest Settlement Officer should in a separate proceeding record his opinion on the above points. If, on regarding his work from this point of view, he is of opinion that the Government ought to make certain concessions beyond what has been awarded under the strict letter of the law, it is his duty to frame recommendations accordingly and to submit them either in a special report or as an appendix to his final report required by paragraph No. 14.

19. The recommendations would usually deal with two classes of cases, viz., those arising out of (1) the use of forest produce permitted as a matter of ordinary convenience in the absence of any strict management, but not supported by any clear right established by adverse enjoyment; and (2) the prospective wants of village communities or of individuals, whether members of village communities or not.

20. As regards the 1st class it is desirable to avoid, on the one hand, embarrassment to Government by hastily granting unduly liberal concessions, which must ultimately be withdrawn in the interests of sound forest management; and, on the other hand, serious popular discontent by the harsh, illiberal, or undue restriction of usages, which contribute to the comfort and convenience of the adjacent population. The aim should usually be some executive arrangement giving no ground for any substantial grievance, and so carefully guarded as not to infringe the recognised principles of forest management, nor to suggest claims that cannot legally be sustained.

21. The cases of the 2nd class are amongst the most difficult of any which occur in the course of a forest settlement. While it has been determined that the Forest Act does not justify the Forest Settlement Officer, as such, in providing for the prospective wants of non-existing settlers or of a future and possibly more numerous generation, it is nevertheless pointed out that he might have to take into account prospective wants in particular cases, as when a claimant had established a right of such a nature that it would probably in course of time entitle him to larger benefits from a forest than he was entitled to at the time of settlement. It is to be expected that in practice many intermediate cases will arise in which the Forest Settlement Officer will rightly entertain doubts as to what should be done under the Forest Act, and what by order of Government outside the Act and by way of executive arrangement. It will be the safest plan to refer by an intermediate report for the special orders of Government (1) such doubtful cases, (2) any cases in which the results of a strict adherence to the procedure of the Forest Act would apparently conflict with some local popular custom, and (3) any cases in which claims are advanced or arrangements seem advisable not only for the present but for the prospective propulation of any village or tract.

22. On receipt from a Forest Settlement Officer of any intermediate or final report of the nature required by these instructions, the Deputy Commissioner (when not himself the Forest Settlement Officer) and the Commissioner of the Division will pay special attention to the questions how far the awards under the Act adequately provide for the reasonable requirements of the people, and what, if any, executive arrangements, beyond the scope af those awards, it would be expedient or equitable to make in order to meet those requirements.

23. The orders passed by Government on special proposals submitted under paragraphs 18 to 22 of this Circular should be briefly stated in the final record (see Appendix I), and if passed before submission of the final report should be recapitulated therein.

24. If in any case a Forest Settlement Officer in the course of his inquiries ascertains that difficulties and objections exist, which render the completion of the reservation probably undesirable, he should stay proceedings and submit a report through the Deputy Commissioner. This report will be dealt with by the Commissioner in the same manner as directed in paragraph 4 of this Circular for the original report.

Conclusion.

25. The attention of Deputy Commissioners is requested to paragraphs 3 (VII) and 4 of the appended instructions concerning the record. The duty of completing the record by the addition of a copy of the final notification will ordinarily fall to the Deputy Commissioner. And if before or about the time of issuing the final notification any instructions of the nature contemplated in paragraphs 18 to 24 have been issued by Government, which the Forest Settlement Officer has not already incorporated into head VII of the proceeding, it is the duty of the Deputy Commissioner to add them.

By order,

R. G. THOMSON,

Senior Secretary to the Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

APPENDIX I.

INSTRUCTIONS AS TO THE FORM AND CONTENTS OF FINAL RECORDS PREPARED BY FOREST SETTLEMENT OFFICERS FOR RESERVED FORESTS.

The final record shall consist of a map, a proceeding and a copy of the final Notification issued under Section 19 of the Act.

2. The map shall not usually be on a smaller scale than 4 inches to the mile. It shall show distinctly boundary pillars, permanent survey marks, and physical features so far as may be convenient. The direct distance between each pair of boundary pillars shall, wherever possible, be chained and recorded on the map. The map shall also distinguish by interior boundary lines and survey numbers—

(i). Areas surrounded by the forest, but excluded from it (Chaks Kháriji).

(ii). Areas from which rights have been expropriated or in which they have been maintained, or in which claims have been rejected in their entirety.

(iii). Public and private ways, water-courses, springs and watering places.

3. The proceeding shall contain the following information :—

(i). It shall quote the number and date of the Notification issued under Section 4 of the Act, and give the contents of the Notification, and the name of the Forest Settlement Officer appointed thereunder.

(ii). It shall give a list of all areas (Chaks Kháriji) surrounded by the forest boundaries, but excluded from the forest, thus—

No. on map.	Area.	Village to which it appertains.

(iii). It shall give an abbreviated list of all claims rejected in entirety under Sections 10 and 11 of the Forest Act, thus—

Description of right claimed.	Area in which claimed.		By whom claimed (names with description).	Short abstract of order rejecting the claim.
	No. on map.	Area.

(iv). Also a list of all rights expropriated, whether expropriated under Section 10 or Section 15, thus—

Description of right expropriated.	Area from which expropriated.		Persons expropriated (names with description).	Short abstract of award.
	No. on map.	Area.

(v). It shall describe the rights to pasturage and rights to forest produce admitted by the Forest Settlement Officer under Section 11 of the Act, and the manner in which he has under Sections 13 and 14 directed that those rights shall be hereafter exercised, recording them in a schedule in the following form :—

Names and description of persons to whom rights have been awarded.	Area in which awarded.		Nature of rights with full detail of all matters covered by Section 13 of the Act.	Orders issued under Section 14 of the Act for the future exercise of these rights.
	No. on map.	Area.

(vi). It shall describe existing rights of way public or private, and existing water-courses, also springs and watering places to which any persons have access, arranging them in a schedule, thus—

Nature of right.	Area in which exercised.		By whom or how used.
	No. on map.	Area.

and shall declare that these rights will in future be subject to regulation as provided in Section 24 of the Forest Act.

(vii). A brief resumé shall be given of any special reports submitted to Government under paragraphs 19 to 24 of this Circular, and of the orders passed thereon. This resumé shall be in sufficient detail to guide both Revenue and Forest officials and also parties interested in these reports. Copies of the reports themselves should not be given to applicants. And any notice of opinions expressed by the reporting officers, but not approved by Government, should be excluded.

4. When the final Notification issues a copy and translation thereof shall be added to the record. This copy shall be endorsed with a report stating the date on which and the villages in which a translation has been published as required by Section 20 of the Act.

5. The record shall be drawn up in the Vernacular language used in land revenue proceedings, and the survey shall be made on the land measure used in the land revenue records of the district in which the forest is situate.

(NOTE.—In the above instructions the words names with description mean name, father's name, caste or tribe and residence. If the entry is in favour of a whole village it may be so stated, names of individuals being omitted.)

CIRCULAR No. 31 OF 1887.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE :

(No. 5011.)

Dated Lahore, 31*st August* 1887.

To

ALL REVENUE OFFICERS IN THE PUNJAB.

Service rolls to be submitted with proposals for appointment as Tahsíldár, &c.

WHENEVER any proposals are submitted to the Financial Commissioners either—

(a) for the appointment of a Tahsíldár or Officiating Tahsíldár; or

(b) for the acceptance of any person as a candidate for appointment as Náib Tahsíldár, Tahsíldár or Extra Assistant Commissioner, then, if the nominee be in the service of Government, the record of services kept under Circular No. 71 of 1886 should accompany the proposal.

2. If the proposal relate to Tahsíldárships or Náib-Tahsíldárships, the record may be sent up in original. It will be returned promptly.

3. If the proposal relate to an Extra Assistant Commissionership, a copy of the record should be sent, and not the original.

CIRCULAR No. 32 OF 1887.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE :

(No. 5012.)

Dated Lahore, 31st August 1887.

To

ALL COMMISSIONERS, DEPUTY COMMISSIONERS AND SETTLEMENT OFFICERS, AND TO THE DIRECTOR OF SETTLEMENTS AND REVENUE RECORDS.

Amalgamation of the list of Tahsíldárs with that of Superintendents of Settlement.

THE Government of India having sanctioned the amalgamation of the list of Tahsíldárs with that of Superintendents of Settlement, the following instructions are issued by the Financial Commissioner for the information and guidance of all Revenue Officers.

2. The Tahsíldárs' List, which at present comprises 123 appointments, will in future comprise 145; the 22 additional appointments will be, and are hereby, given to the 22 Settlement Superintendents.

3. Every Settlement Superintendent now appointed to be a Tahsíldár will retain as Tahsíldár the same grade which he held as a Settlement Superintendent. The Tahsíldárí List will therefore in future be divided as follows:—

			No. of posts.
1st Grade on Rs. 250 per mensem	...	...	21
2nd Grade on Rs. 200 ditto	...	...	32
3rd Grade on Rs. 175 ditto	...	...	43
4th Grade on Rs. 150 ditto	...	...	49
	Total	...	145

4. Within each grade seniority will generally depend upon date of first appointment as Tahsíldár or Settlement Superintendent; but all relative seniority as existing in either of the unamalgamated lists will be preserved. A new seniority list will be published as soon as possible.

5. An officer now officiating as Settlement Superintendent in any grade is hereby appointed to officiate as Tahsíldár of the same grade.

6. A Tahsíldár doing Settlement duty may be called a Settlement Tahsíldár.

7. No Settlement Tahsíldár is entitled to registration allowance; all other Tahsíldárs, up to the limit of 123 appointments, are entitled to registration allowances as at present.

8. Settlement Tahsíldárs are entitled to travelling allowance at the rates at present sanctioned for Settlement Superintendents. Other Tahsíldárs do not receive travelling allowance.

9. The five good service allowances at present sanctioned for Settlement Superintendents will in future be given to Settlement Tahsíldárs upon the existing terms. The present incumbents of these allowances will continue to receive them.

Certificates of Posting

Are granted for unregistered articles. Fee half an anna, payable by means of a postage stamp.

Postal Acknowledgments

For the delivery of a registered letter, packet or parcel, can be obtained on payment of 1 anna in stamps in the case of registered letters and packets; and in cash in the case of parcels.

Late Letters

Will be received at the window until 15 minutes before the despatch of the mails, and must be fully prepaid by stamps, so as to include ordinary postage and late-letter fee of $1\frac{1}{2}$ anna.

Foreign Post.

The latest safe day and hour for the posting of overland letters, post-cards, newspapers, printed and commercial papers, and sample and mixed packets, is every Saturday up to 9 A.M.

For foreign parcels every Thursday up to 8 A.M.

Delivery of Letter and Parcel Mail.

The hours of delivery are dependent on the hours of arrival of the several trains. If they arrive punctually at the advertised hours, the first delivery will take place at 7 A.M., the second at 10-30 A.M. and the third at 6-40 P.M. On Sundays and holidays only one delivery is made of prepaid letters at 10-30 A.M.

Parcels are delivered at 10-30 A.M. only.

Insured articles exceeding Rs. 1,000 in value will be delivered only at the Post Office window.

Postage.

Whatever postage is marked on a letter, post-card, newspaper, packet or parcel, must be paid at once on delivery, after which any complaint of overcharge will be duly attended to.

Complaints.

In all complaints of overcharge or unnecessary delay in delivering letters, the covers bearing the Post Office stamps must be presented for inspection; and when any complaint is preferred against any postman, the number on his badge must be specified.

Registration

Makes the transmission of a letter more secure, but the Post Office is not responsible for loss unless the letter be also insured. Currency Notes or part of a Currency Note, Stamps, Cheques, and the like, must be registered. Registration fee 2 annas in stamps.

Insurance.

Registered letters and parcels can be insured without limit of value. Coin, jewels, &c., must be insured. Rates of insurance are 2 annas up to Rs. 50 of value, 4 annas up to Rs. 100, and 4 annas for every additional Rs. 100. Insurance charge payable in stamps in the case of letters and in cash in the case of parcels.

Value Payable

Parcels, registered letters and book packets can be sent value payable, the value being realized from the addressee and paid to the sender by the Post Office. Limit of value is Rs. 1,000. Value payable can also be insured.

Inland Parcels

May be sent prepaid or unpaid at sender's option. Rates of postage are 4 annas for 20 tolas, 8 annas for 40 tolas, and 4 annas for every additional 40 tolas; postage payable in cash.

Savings Bank.

Floating Deposits are received from 4 annas up to Rs. 500, and interest allowed. Printed rules obtainable at the Post Office.

Inland and Foreign Money Orders.

Remitter of a money order has nothing to do with its transmission to payee; this work is done entirely by the Post Office. When the money order is delivered, the remitter will receive an acknowledgment of its delivery. Maximum limit for a money order is Rs. 150, and the same remitter cannot obtain in one day money orders for more than Rs. 600 in the aggregate drawn on the same office or payable to the same person. Forms of money order application supplied gratis.

In the Court of Small Causes, Amritsar,

WITH POWERS UNDER CHAPTER XX, ACT XIV OF 1882.

IN THE MATTER OF DOSANDA SINGH, SON OF SARUP SINGH, OF WALLA, AMRITSAR TAHSIL, JUDGMENT-DEBTOR, PETITIONER.

Case No. 37 of 1887.

WHEREAS Dosanda Singh, of Walla, Amritsar Tahsil, petitioned this Court to be adjudicated an insolvent under the provision of Chapter XX of the Civil Procedure Code, and whereas the said Dosanda Singh has satisfied this Court that the statements made by him in his application are substantially true, and that he is not guilty of any of the disqualifications mentioned in Section 351 of the Civil Procedure Code, this Court has declared him an insolvent under the provisions of the said Section 351, and this notice is published as required by Section 351 of the Civil Procedure Code.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Court this 22nd day of August 1887.

By order,

J. LEO. PLOMER,

Clerk of the Court

[757-1.]

Commissariat Notice—No. 15.

SEALED tenders for the supply of the under-mentioned articles for the Umballa Commissariat Division, which comprises the stations noted in the margin, from 1st January 1888 to 31st December 1890, will be received by the Executive Commissariat Officer at Umballa up to noon on the 15th September 1887, and opened by him then and there in the presence of all parties who may choose to attend.

(Margin: Umballa. Jullundur. Ludhiana. Phillour.)

2. No tenders will be received except on forms obtainable from the Commissariat Office, Umballa, which, as well as any information required regarding the contract, will be given on application to the Executive Commissariat Officer, Umballa, up to 1 o'clock P.M. on the 10th September 1887.

3. Seals of tenderers (unable to write) will not be accepted, they should have their marks verified by witnesses.

4. Covers to be superscribed "Tender for Barrack Miscellanies, &c."

5. The tender may be in part or for the whole requirements and the Executive Commissariat Officer reserves to himself the right to accept the tender in whole or in part; but in the event of his accepting in part only and the tenderer failing to take up the contract, the whole earnest deposit will be confiscated.

6. Tender for each article and description of article will be separately accepted or rejected, and separate Treasury Receipt for earnest-money will be required for each. Tenders without earnest-money will not be attended to.

7. Any octroi duty paid on the supplies will be refunded to the contractors provided the supplies are declared by them as intended for the use of Government at the time of passing the Octroi barrier.

8. Samples of the articles required to be supplied are to be seen at Umballa Godown, and every facility will be afforded to tenderers to see them before they tender.

9. Only one rate for the Division is to be tendered, and not a separate rate for each station.

10. Men suspected of having no intention of tendering may be required to produce Treasury Receipts, Government Promissory or Stock Notes for earnest-money before tender forms are issued to them.

F. LARPENT,

Registrar, Punjab University.

RULES OF THE PUNJAB PUBLIC LIBRARY.

I.—CONSTITUTION AND COMMITTEE.

1. The Committee shall consist of not less than 14 members including the President and Secretary.

2. The Deputy Commissioner of Lahore and the Director of Public Instruction, Punjab, shall be ex-officio members.

3. The Municipality of Lahore, the Punjab University, the Bishop of Lahore, and the Committee of the Lahore and Meean Meer Institute shall each nominate a member.

4. The life members shall annually elect two members to be on the Committee for one year.

5. The remaining members will be nominated by Government, who will also appoint the President.

6. The Committee shall appoint its own Secretary.

7. Standing Sub-Committees shall be appointed by the Committee to carry on the management of the different departments of the Library.

8. The Secretary shall be a member of every Sub-Committee.

9. A meeting of the Committee shall be held on the 1st Monday in every month.

Five members shall form a quorum.

10. A special meeting of the Committee may be called by the President or a Sub-Committee at a week's notice.

11. A general meeting of the life members and Committee shall be held once a year in the month of December, and at the meeting the two annual members to represent the life members shall be elected. Absent life members may vote at the election by proxy.

12. The current business of the Committee to be brought up at each monthly meeting shall include the examination of the accounts, of the suggestion books, of orders to book-sellers, of breaches of the rules, &c.

13. The funds shall be kept in the name of the Punjab Public Library by the Bank of Bengal, or as the Committee may from time to time direct.

14. All cheques shall be signed by the Secretary and a member of the Committee appointed by it for the purpose.

15. Expenditure on fixed charges, for which sanction already exists, and on contingencies up to a limit of Rs. 50 a month, may be incurred on the joint authority of the persons empowered to sign cheques. All other expenditure requires the previous sanction of the Committee.

16. A donation of money of Rs. 100 or upwards, or of books accepted by the Committee and valued by them as worth not less than Rs. 100, shall entitle the donor to the privileges of a life member.

17. Any donor of books may make it a condition of the donation that any of the books he gives shall not be lent out except to himself.

18. Life members shall be exempt from payment of deposits, subscriptions and other fees required by the rules.

II.—THE READING-ROOM.

1. The Reading-Room is open to the public free of charge.

2. Books may not be removed from the shelves by any one except the Librarian.

3. Catalogues and application forms are on the table. The Librarian will get any book for which a form is handed to him ; and books must be returned to him before leaving.

4. The Committee will exclude from the building persons who disregard any rules or who damage the property of the Library.

5. CLOSED DAYS :—Queen's Birthday, also from 1st to 7th October, and from 1st to 7th April inclusive.

6. DAILY HOURS :—In the winter 8 A.M. to noon and 3 to 8 P.M., and in the hot weather 7 to 11 A.M. and 4 to 8 P.M., and on Sunday 2 to 5 P.M.

III.—RULES FOR LENDING OUT BOOKS.

Books will be issued on the following conditions :—

1. An applicant must deposit Rs. 10 with the Secretary. The deposit will be liable to forfeit for injury or loss of a book, or for breach of any of the rules.

2. An annual subscription of Rs. 5 must be paid in advance, which may be compounded for by a donation of Rs. 25.

3. Not more than six volumes may be kept out on one subscription.

4. Residents at Lahore or Meean Meer shall return within 20 days every book so taken out. To residents at other places ten days longer will be allowed. But all books lent out must be returned by the 30th September and 31st March each year.

5. The cost of forwarding books will be recovered by sending them by Value Payable Post. Any charges due under Rules 1 and 2 may be added.

6. Books may not be transferred from one person to another.

7. The Committee will reserve from issue, under these rules, new or valuable books, at their discretion.

8. Forms of application for books can be supplied, and their use is requested, but is not obligatory.

9. Deposits under Rule 1 (if free of claims) will be returned on request to persons who have no books of the Library in their possession.

1—ESPLANADE WEST, CALCUTTA :
The 4th August 1887.

[745-18.]

In the Court of the District Judge at Mooltan.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF MOOLA MAL AND TOOKA MAL, SONS OF GOBINDA MAL AND RAMA MAL, RESIDENTS OF SHUJABAD IN THE MOOLTAN DISTRICT, CASTE BABLA, TO BE DECLARED INSOLVENTS.

WHEREAS Moola Mal and Tooka Mal of Shujabad petitioned this Court to be adjudicated insolvents under the provisions of Chapter XX of the Civil Procedure Code, and whereas the said Moola Mal and Tooka Mal have satisfied this Court that the statements made in their application are substantially true, and that they are not guilty of any of the disqualifications mentioned in Section 351 of the Civil Procedure Code, this Court has declared them insolvents under the provisions of the said Section 351, and this notice is published under Section 354 of the Civil Procedure Code.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Court this 9th day of August 1887.

Notifications by Chief Court, Financial Commissioner, Accountant-General, &c.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE.

CIRCULAR No. 33 OF 1887.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE :

(No. 5045.)

Dated Lahore, 2nd September 1887.

To

ALL REVENUE OFFICERS IN THE PUNJAB.

Third sentence of paragraph 14 of Circular No. 12 of 1885 amended.

IT is requested that the sentence subjoined to this Circular may be read in place of the third sentence in paragraph 14 of Circular No. 12 of 1885 which begins with the word "Similarly."

2. The necessary correction should be made in all loose copies of the Circular and in the volume of Circulars for 1885.

By order, &c.,

R. G. THOMSON,

Senior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

(Translated.)

"Similarly the claims of Kánúngos to succeed to the appointments of District Wásil Báki Navís and District Record Keeper should be considered along with, and on the same footing as, the claims of Tahsíl Wásil Báki Navíses and Assistant Record Keepers."

CIRCULAR MEMO. No. 32 of 1887.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE:

(No. 5042.)

Dated Lahore, 2nd September 1887.

To

ALL REVENUE OFFICERS IN THE PUNJAB.

Instructions for observance in the compilation of returns of local prices of produce.

THE annexed extract from Government of India Circular No. $\frac{35 \text{ Stats.}}{14-14}$, of 6th July 1887, is circulated for the guidance of all officers who have to compile returns of the local prices of produce.

By order, &c.,

R. G. THOMSON,

Senior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

Extract para. 3 of a Circular No. $\frac{35 \text{ Stats.}}{14-14}$, dated the 6th July 1887.

From—Sir E. C. BUCK, Secretary to the Government of India, Revenue and Agrl. Dept.

To—The Secretary to Government, North-Western Provinces and Oudh.

It is observed from the explanations given by the District Officers that the procedure followed in filling this return is not uniform: sometimes the price of the article locally grown is given and sometimes that of the imported article is entered. As the object of the return is to give the value to the producer of the article grown for the market, wherever that market may be, I am to say that only the price of the produce locally grown for consumption or export, and of the ordinary kind consumed by the people, should be exhibited and not the price of the imported article.

T. C. Lewis, Esquire, M. A.
Maulavi Muhammad Husain.
W. Bell, Esquire, M. A., Secretary.
Bábu Chandra Náth Mittra, Assistant Secretary.

1. The Secretary reported that he had sent the following letter to the various Directors of Public Instruction throughout India:—

"Sir,—I have the honor to request the favour of your supplying me with (1) a complete set of the Proceedings of the Text-Book Committee of your province, and (2) a list of English and Vernacular books sanctioned by that Committee and taught in the different grades of schools, with such information as may enable me to obtain the books for the formation of the Text-Book Library of Reference in the Punjab.

"I have the honor, &c.,

W. BELL,
Secretary, Text-Book Committee."

16th December 1886.

2. Replies were submitted from the following—

(1). Secretary, Central Text-Book Committee, Calcutta. He wrote: "The work of the Text-Book Committee in Bengal is practically restricted to the rejection of definitely objectionable books. A comprehensive list of text books, fit for the Middle Scholarship Examination and for the lower classes of Middle Schools, is now under the consideration of the Committee."

The following is the list of English books:—

(3). Director of Public Instruction, Madras. He stated that there was no Text-Book Committee in the Madras Presidency.

(4). Director of Public Instruction, His Highness the Nizám's Dominions, Hyderabad. This Department has no text books of its own, but has, as a tentative measure, adopted the Punjab Series for the Urdu and Persian classes.

(5). Inspector of Schools, Coorg. There is no Text-Book Committee in this Province.

(6). Inspector of Schools, Assam. He stated that the Text-Book Committee of Assam (which has now been abolished) confined its attention to the examination of Assamese books.

(7). Director of Public Instruction, North-Western Provinces and Oudh. Forwarded the list of books sanctioned for use in the Zila Schools of those provinces. No Text-Book Committee has yet been appointed.

3. Agreed—

(a). To obtain for the Reference Library of the Committee copies of all the text books adopted in other Provinces in Urdu, Nágri, Bengali, Persian, Arabic and Sanskrit.

(b). To obtain copies of all approved English text books specially prepared for use in the province, whether by Government or by private individuals.

(c). To obtain copies of new text books, or new editions, published in England.

(d). To prepare a list of books of reference for High School Libraries. Head Masters and Managers of High Schools to be asked what books of reference (in addition to those already supplied) should be recommended for High School Libraries. Copies of the list of books suggested by them to be sent to each member for suggestions.

4. The following books were recommended for school libraries :—

(1). Johnstone's Text-Book of Geography.

(2). Hindústáni Makhzan-ul-Muháwarát, by M. Chiranji Lál of Delhi.

BUSINESS.

Reconstitution of Sub-Committees.—This had been rendered necessary by the fact that there had been several changes in the membership of the General Committee; and that, as the existing Sub-Committees were small, there was frequently some difficulty in getting together a quorum of their members.

The changes in the membership were as follow :—

Dr. Bellew, Dr. Leitner and Bábu Navína Chandra Rái had left the Province; R. Dick, Esquire, had died; and G. R. Elsmie, Esquire, had resigned, as he had no leisure for the work of the Committee.

D. Ibbetson, Esquire, and Dr. Center were also unable longer to undertake to work on the Committee. Seven new members were therefore required, three to be elected by Government in place of Messrs. Elsime, Ibbetson and Leitner, and four by the Senate of the Punjab University in place of Drs. Bellew and Center, Mr. Dick and Bábu Navína Chandra Rái.

The following letter had accordingly been addressed to the Secretary :—

From Colonel W. R. M. HOLROYD, Under-Secretary to Government, Punjab, Home (Education) Department, No. 26, dated 2nd February 1887.

"With reference to your letter No. 359, dated 6th December 1886, I am directed to inform you that His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor has been pleased to appoint the following gentlemen as members of the Text-Book Committee in place of Messrs. Elsmie, Ibbetson and Leitner :—

Dr. Tarleton Young.
Nawáb Nawázish 'Ali Khán, Kazalbásh, C.I.E.
Díwán Narendra Náth, M.A.

These gentlemen have been informed direct by this office.

"I recommended the following gentlemen for appointment by the Senate of the Punjab University, and they have been recommended, I believe, by the Syndicate. A reminder on the subject has been addressed to the Registrar :—

Mr. F. C. Channing.
Dr. Muhammad Husain Khán, Khán Bahádur.
Deputy Násir 'Ali Khán, Extra Assistant Commissioner.
Pandit Guru Prasád."

Colonel Holroyd stated that, in order still further to strengthen the Committee, it was his intention to ask Government to appoint Mr. Baden-Powell (who had previously been a valuable member of the Committee) and Revd. Mr. Allnutt as members. This would render it necessary for the Senate of the Punjab University to elect two additional members.

The Text-Book Committee will then be composed as follows :—

I.—Members appointed by Government.

Members	Authority
1. Colonel W. R. M. Holroyd, Director of Public Instruction (ex-officio President). 2. Colonel E. G. Wace. 3. Revd. C. W. Forman. 4. Mr. T. C. Lewis, M.A. 5. Mr. J. D. Staines.	Punjab Government (Home Department) Proceedings, No. 761, dated 28th February 1881, and Punjab Government, Home (Education) Department, No. 209, dated 6th June 1884.
6. The Principal, Central Training College (ex-officio Secretary). 7. The Superintendent, Educational Press (ex-officio Assistant Secretary). 8. Bhái Gurmukh Singh.	Home (Education) Department, No. 5, dated 6th February 1886, to Secretary, Text-Book Committee.
9. Pandit Bhánu Datta. 10. Dr. Tarleton Young. 11. Nawáb Nawázish 'Ali Khán, C.I.E. 12. Díwán Narendra Náth, M.A. 13. Mr. Baden-Powell. 14. Revd. Mr. Allnutt.	Home (Education) Department, No. 29, dated 2nd February 1887.

II.—Members appointed by Senate.

Members	Authority
1. The Right Revd. Dr. French. 2. Sodhi Hukm Singh. 3. Rái Báhádur Kanhya Lál. 4. Mr. J. Sime, B.A. 5. Dr. Rahím Khán, Khán Bahádur. 6. Maulavi Muhammad Husain, Azád.	Home (Education) Department, No. 209, dated 6th June 1884.
7. S. E. Wheeler, Esquire. 8. Faqír Jamál-ud-dín.	Home (Education) Department, No. dated

9. Mr. F. C. Channing.
10. Dr. Muhammad Husain Khán, Khán Bahádur.
11. Deputy Násir 'Ali Khán, E. A. C.
12. Pandit Guru Prasád.
13.
14. } Additional members to be appointed by Senate.

The work of the Sub-Committees was then distributed thus :—

SUB-COMMITTEE ON MATHEMATICAL TEXT BOOKS, &C.

Proceedings of a Meeting held in the office of the Director of Public Instruction on the 4th of March 1887.

PRESENT:

Colonel W. R. M. Holroyd.
Colonel Wace.
Dr. Tarleton Young.
Rái Bahádur Kanhya Lal.
Mr. W. Bell, Secretary.
Babu Chandra Náth Mitra, Assistant Secretary.

The following books were submitted along with reports upon them by various members:—

1. Mental Arithmetic for Indian Students.—The Secretary pointed out that Mental Arithmetic was now a compulsory subject for all students under training, and that many Head Masters complained of the want of a suitable text book. The book under consideration does not supply this want, as it is too elementary, and contains no reference to native methods of mental computation. Rái Bahádur Kanhya Lál undertook to prepare two manuals,—one for use in Primary and Middle Schools, and one for High Schools and students under training.

2. Lock's Arithmetic.—The Secretary pointed out some of the merits of this book, and that it was used by the students of the Training College as the theory of the various rules is well worked out. But the book is not specially prepared for use in India, and cannot therefore be recommended as a text book for schools.

3. Cassel's Indian Algebra.—To be sent to Mr. Lewis for opinion.

4. Muftáh-ul-Mushahat, by Muhammad Satím Ullah.—Reported on by Rái Bahádur Kanhya Lál as inferior to the text book at present in use. Rejected accordingly.

The Secretary laid on the table the opinions that had been received from Inspectors, Assistant Inspectors and Head Masters in reply to the Director's Circular No. 24, dated 10th

June 1886, in which he asked for any suggestions regarding necessary changes and improvements in the mathematical text books in present use.

These opinions may be summarized as follows :—

(a) Arithmetic.—The present text books are wanting in examples for exercise.

(b) Geometry.—Todhunter's edition of Euclid is not sufficient to fit boys for the Entrance Examinations of the Universities. Most of the Head Masters seem to discard Todhunter's Euclid and to use that by P. Ghosh instead. As, however, no text book is laid down in the Scheme of Studies, Head Masters are at liberty to adopt the manual they consider most suitable.

(c) Algebra.—Todhunter's Algebra is laid down in the Scheme of Studies, but is considered by most of the Head Masters to be wanting in sufficient difficult examples. They generally prefer Ghosh's edition of Wood's Algebra.

(d) Mensuration.—On this point there was great variety of opinion amongst the Head Masters. Most of them agree, however, that the text book for Primary Schools is too difficult, and that a translation of Todhunter's Mensuration is not well adapted for use in the schoolsl of the Province.

The question of Mensuration and Arithmetical text books for Primary Schools was taken up by the meeting. Colonel Wace referred to his former objections to the books at present in use, and pointed out that the books which he had prepared had been rejected by the Committee as too technical. He thought that books which dealt with the standards and methods of the country were urgently required and therefore proposed as follows :—

"That a Committee, consisting of Mr. E. B. Francis, C.S., Settlement Officer, Munshi Nathu Rám, Extra Assistant Settlement Officer (both now employed in the Ferozepore Settlement), along with an Educational Officer, should be appointed to prepare manuals on Arithmetic and Mensuration, taking into consideration the books both of Mr. Sime and Colonel Wace."

This recommendation was adopted.

Discussion then took place as to the manual in which decimals should be introduced. Colonel Wace thought that this subject should appear in the Arithmetic Manual, but Colonel Holroyd pointed out that it had been decided at the Education Conference to strike decimals out of the Arithmetical course for Primary Schools. It was finally recommended that decimals should not be included in either manual, except in so far as the Committee may find it necessary to do so.

It was further recommended that in dealing with the subject of interest examples should be at so much per rupee per mensem, and that the rules should be framed accordingly. The Committee was further invited to state which part of each manual should be taught in each class of the Upper Primary School, and to frame the manuals with reference to all the requirements of the Primary course, keeping specially in view the necessity for an adequate number of suitable examples.

(The subject was continued at a subsequent meeting.)

W. BELL,
Secretary.

Proceedings of a Meeting of the Sub-Committee on Urdú, held at 7-30 A.M. on 8th March 1887 at the Office of the Director of Public Instruction.

PRESENT :

Colonel W. R. M. Holroyd, Director of Public Instruction, in the Chair.
Rái Bahádur Kanhya Lál, M.I.C.E.
Khán Bahádur Dr. Muhammad Husain Khán.
Shamsul'ulama M. Muhammad Husain, Azád.
W. Bell, Esquire, Secretary.
Babu Chandra Náth Mittra, Assistant Secretary.

1. Hayát-i-Sa'di, by Maulavi Altáf Husain.—With regard to this book the Inspector of Schools, Delhi Circle, remarks that "It is the first biography in Vernacular written on the principles of Western criticism, and displays great learning and research." The Sub-Committee agree with this opinion and recommend that the book should be placed in school libraries.

2. Rahnumá-i-Warzish, by Sundar Dás.—As it has been prescribed that half an hour daily in addition to ordinary school hours be devoted to gymnastic exercises by each class, the Sub-Committee are of opinion that the book should be recommended for libraries.

3. Hindustáni Makhzan-ul-Maháwarat, by Munshi Chiranji Lál—Is considered a very useful book of reference and should be kept in the libraries of schools.

4. The Punjab Review, by Pádri Rajab Ali.—It is a journal devoted to political and social questions, and as such does not fall within the scope of the Committee. It cannot be of much use in schools.

5. The Primary Class Reader, by Muhammad Riáz-ud-dín Ahmad—Does not appear to be a suitable book. Many of the phrases and sentences are unidiomatic.

6. Sírat-ul-tá'lím.
7. Risála-i-usul, tarbi'at-wa-ta'lím.
} Cannot be recommended for introduction in any institution, though both would be useful reading to teachers.

8. Maulavi Inám' 'Ali's Makhzan-ul-Hikmat.—Cannot be used in schools, though the author deserves every encouragement in his endeavour to present the ideas of Western philosophy in native dress.

9. Third Class Primary Reader, by Muhammad Aziz-ud-din.—Is not of much use. The printing is decidedly bad.

10. Primary Grammar, by Muhammad Aziz-ud-din.—Rejected.

11. Shá'iri, by Jáfar 'Ali.—A lecture on modern Urdú poetry ; is not suitable as a text book.

12. Urdú ki Sátwín Kitáb.—Not recommended for introduction as a text book.

Proceedings of a Meeting of the English Sub-Committee, held in the Office of the Director of Public Instruction on the 9th March 1887.

PRESENT :

Colonel Holroyd.
T. C. Lewis, Esq., M.A.
W. Bell, Esq., M.A.
Bábu Chandra Náth Mittra.

The following books were laid on the table, along with reports on them by various members :—

1. Introduction to the Study of Shakespeare and Milton.—Reported on by Mr. Lewis as an excellent introduction to the study of these authors. Agreed to recommend it to the notice of the Arts Faculty.

2. Tales of Ind, by T. Rámakrishna, M.A.—Reported on by Mr. Lewis as a creditable performance, but, as a poem, full of defects. Rejected.

3. Julius Cæsar (Rivington's).—Reported on by Mr. Bell as an excellent school edition. Recommended to the notice of the Arts Faculty of the University.

4. Macbeth (Rivington's).— Ditto ditto ditto.

5 & 6. Masson's Grammars.—Reported on by Mr. Bell as probably the best English Grammars now in use in England, but not quite suitable for those learning English as a foreign language.

7. Popular Book of Synonyms (Methodist Publishing House, Lucknow).—Recommended as suitable for school libraries.

8 & 9. Gallant Sepoys and "The Victoria Cross in Afghánistán."—Reported on by Mr. Staines as unsuitable for use as text books, chiefly because they contain exaggerated descriptions of disasters attributed to the conflict of parties in England. Not recommended.

10. Gill's Spelling Book.—Rejected as useless.

11. Grimm's Tales.—Reported on by Mr. Bell as dealing with folk-lore, &c., in a way unsuited for the pupils of Indian schools.

12. Manual of English, by B. D. Gordon, Allahabad.—Reported on by Mr. Bell as being a collection of skilfully chosen examples, and as likely to be of great use to teachers in Middle Schools. Rejected by the meeting as several of the definitions and derivations are inaccurate.

13. Nelson's Primary English History.—Not required in any of the classes of the schools in this Province.

14. National Societies' Reading Sheets.—Not recommended as similar sheets are in course of preparation by the Department.

15. Nelson's Royal Star Readers.—An excellent series for English pupils, but, like all other series of Readers prepared for use in English schools, not quite suitable for Indian classes.

16. Laws of Wealth, by Horace Bell.—Recommended that it be prescribed as a Reader for the 3rd class of Middle Schools in addition to the other books already prescribed.

17. Longman's Readers.—Also an excellent series, but not suited for India.

18. Manual of English Idiomatic Phrases, by M. Hashmat 'Ali, Lucknow.—Reported on by Lála Jiya Rám as a good book, but containing phrases which have ceased to be current in ordinary English, and equivalents which are in some cases ludicrous. Rejected.

SUB-COMMITTEE ON MATHEMATICAL TEXT BOOKS, &c.

Proceedings of a Meeting held in the Office of the Director of Public Instruction on the 14th of March 1887.

PRESENT:

Colonel W. R. M. Holroyd.
Colonel Wace.
Mr. W. Bell, Secretary.
Babu Chandra Nath Mittra, Assistant Secretary.

It was resolved that in the teaching and preparation of Arithmetical, Mathematical and Scientific Text Books, English technical terms should be used in all cases beyond the Compound Rules. The Assistant Secretary undertook to prepare a complete vocabulary of these terms.

2. It was resolved that P. Ghosh's Algebra should be made alternative with Todhunter's in the Scheme of Studies. Also that sets of Ghosh's book should be procured for reference.

3. Rasála Rahnumá-i-hisáb appears to be a useful book, but the printing is indistinct; the book is, therefore, not recommended for use in the schools.

" Bhánu Datta, } Chandra Náth Mittra, Assistant Secretray.

1. Reward to Bábu Avinás Chandra Biswas for his compilation of the Nári Bodh.—As the book is not an original work, but a mere compilation (though the selections are generally good) the Sub-Committee is not prepared to recommend any reward to the author. In their opinion the insertion of the book in the list of approved text books is sufficient encouragement to the compiler.

2. Translation of a drama called Nágánand.—The language of the translation is excellent, but from the nature of the subject the work cannot be used as a text book. If placed in the library of the Hindi Schools it wood afford entertaining reading to Hindi students.

3. Bháshantar Páth Mála. }
4. Vyákaran Ratna. } Recommended for libraries.
5. Noble deeds of Women. }
6. Sahitya Sangraha. }
7. Navin Sanskrit Páthopakárak. } Made over to Pandit Guruprásad for report.
8. Bodhmaiyari. }

CHANDRA NATH MITTRA,
Assistant Secretary.

Proceedings of a Meeting of the Sub-Committee on Persian and Arabic books, held at 7 A.M., on Monday, the 23rd May 1887.

PRESENT:

Colonel W. R. M. Holroyd.
Nawáb Nawázish 'Ali Khán, C.I.E.
Shams-ul-ulama M. Muhammad Husain, Azád.
W. Bell, Esquire, Secretary.
Bábu Chandra Náth Mittra, Assistant Secretary.

1. Gulistán-i-Fazílat by Sayad Muhammad Shah of Jullundur.—The compiler has bestowed much pains in the preparation of this work, which contains model exercises on translation from Persian and parsing, with the view of affording assistance to candidates preparing for the Munshi, Munshi 'Alim and Munshi Fázil Examinations, but the answers are generally imperfect, and the translation is in some places unidiomatic. The meanings given are incorrect in some places and not full in others. The derivations of words are not given.

2. Shams-ul-tarkib, by the same author, gives the parsing of 160 verses from an Urdu poet of the name of Shahídi. The parsing is in every instance preceded by a few lines of ornate and figurative language so common among Persian writers. The parsing is generally correct, though not free from mistakes owing to the author's not comprehending the meaning.

3. Najm-ul-intikháb, by the same author.—This is an abstract of the Masdari Fayúz, which itself is incomplete with respect to rules. Hence the present work is more so, and therefore unsuited as a text book.

4. Makhzan-ul-Qawáid by Munshi Labba Rám, of the Kángra Mission School, is inferior to the books on Persian Grammar already in use in the schools. The rules are incorrectly stated. It is, therefore, not recommended for adoption.

5. Mufíd-ul-Mubtadi, by the same author, gives the rules and examples of the changes which Persian infinitives undergo in their aorist and gerund forms. It is inferior to the Safwat-ul-Masádir now in use in schools.

6. 'Umdat-ul-tawáríkh, a diary of the Court of Mahárája Ranjít Singh, by Munshi Sohan Lál, with an account of the ten Sikh Gurús, and of the rise of the Sikh misils. There is a large gap in the work; the diary for thirty-six years of the Mahárája's reign is wanting. The book can furnish materials to a historian, but is unsuitable as a text book or book of reference.

ENGLISH SUB-COMMITTEE.

Proceedings of a Meeting held in the Office of the Director, May 24th, 1887.

PRESENT:

Colonel W. R. M. Holroyd, in the Chair.
T. C. Lewis, Esquire, M. A.
J. D. Staines, Esquire.
W. Bell, Esquire, M. A.
Bábu Chandra Náth Mittra.

1. The following books were laid before the meeting :—

(a). Anglo-Nágri Dictionary (compiled by Gooni Lál, Patna).—Not recommended for use as a text book or in school libraries. The author's knowledge of English appears to be imperfect, and the spelling of Hindi words is inaccurate.

(b). "Distinguished Anglo-Indians," by Colonel W. F. B. Laurie.—Not considered suitable in any way for introduction into school libraries.

(c). Key to the Selections from Yonge's "Book of Worthies" and Palgrave's "Students' Lyrics," by Miller (Newman).—The book is likely to be useful to those who are studying the text books prescribed for the Calcutta Entrance Examination; but, as it is already well known to masters engaged in teaching these text books, the Committee decided to take no action with regard to the book.

(d). Anglo-Hindustání School Primer (Jubilee Edition).—The author's knowledge of English is imperfect, and the book itself is inaccurate and unsuitable for use in the schools of this Province.

(e). "Selections from the Mahábharáta."—The Committee are of opinion that English should be taught through the medium of standard English works, and that it is not, as a rule, advisable to teach it by means of translations from Oriental works; accordingly they recommend that this book, however valuable for its original purpose, be not adopted for schools.

(f). An English Anthology, by Dr. Bradshaw, Inspector of Schools, Madras.—Decided to send for specimen copies.

2. Preparation of an English Reader for High Schools.—The Secretary laid before the Committee the replies he had received to his letter, in which a proposal was made that Mr. Odgers, of the Government College, should be asked to undertake the preparation of an English Reader for High Schools. After some discussion it was decided to ask the Secretary to communicate with Messrs. Robertson, Bell, Staines, Carne, Forman, Allnutt, Cope, Sime and Lewis, with a view to the formation of a Sub-Committee, with Professor Robertson as President, for the purpose of compiling a Reader on the lines already laid down by the Committee. It was thought desirable that the Sub-Committee should follow the plan suggested by Mr. Allnutt in laying down the general headings under which the extracts contained in the Reader should be selected, and that different members should be requested to make selections under the various headings. These are as follow:—

(1). Historical Scenes (as in Green's Selections).
(2). Travel and Discovery.
(3). Character Painting, from lives of great men by great authors.
(4). Scientific.
(5). Extracts from great letter-writers.
(6). Easy essays on morals.
(7). Some easy extracts from humorous writers.
(8). Scenes from some great works of fiction. (Poetry should be interspersed, and should, as far as possible, bear upon the prose subjects selected.)

It would be necessary, of course, that the amount of matter to be comprised under each heading should be approximately determined beforehand. The book should be sufficiently large to afford work for two years, and it would be convenient if it were progressively arranged as regards the difficulty of the selections.

W. BELL,

Secretary.

Proceedings of a Meeting of the General Committee, held in the Office of the Director of Public Instruction, on the 25th of May 1887.

PRESENT:

Colonel W. R. M. Holroyd, in the Chair.
J. D. Staines, Esquire.
W. Bell, Esquire, M.A.
Dr. Rahím Khán, Khán Bahádur.
" Muhammad Husain Khán.
Maulavi Muhammad Husain, Azád.
Pandit Gúru Prasád.
Bábu Chandra Náth Mittra.

The work of the various Sub-Committees was laid before the meeting.

I.—ENGLISH.

1. A number of English Readers had been examined by this Sub-Committee, but were, of course, declared unsuitable for use in India. Steps had been taken, however, to arrange for the preparation of an English Reader for use in the High Schools of the Province, and the Sub-Committee's recommendation that the work should be undertaken by a number of gentlemen working in concert was considered. The General Committee was of opinion that this proposal should not be adopted, and resolved to entrust Professor Robertson with the preparation of the Reader, on the understanding that he should, from time to time, submit to the English Sub-Committee the selections he had made.

2. The following books were recommended to the notice of the Arts Faculty:—

(a). Introduction to the Study of Shakespeare and Milton.

(b). Rivington's Edition of Macbeth.

3. Of books published in India, the majority had been rejected by the Sub-Committee as containing inaccuracies. The following were adopted by the General Committee:—

(a). Popular Book of Synonyms (Methodist Publishing House, Lucknow).—To be supplied to school libraries.

(b). Laws of Wealth, by Horace Bell.—Decided that it should be prescribed as a Reader for the 3rd class of Middle Schools, in addition to the Readers already prescribed.

4. Selections from the Mahábharáta.—The General Committee adopted the recommendation of the Sub-Committee that this was not suitable for use in schools as an English Reader.

II.—MATHEMATICS, &c.

1. This Sub-Committee had devoted most of its time to the consideration of changes advisable in the Mathematical text books at present in use. The opinion of the Inspectors, Assistant Inspectors and chief Head Masters of the Province had been considered; and the recommendations made by the Sub-Committee were adopted by the General Committee with some modifications:—

(a). Algebra.—Resolved that P. Ghosh's text book be made alternative with Todhunter's.

(b). Geometry.—No special text book is fixed for the study of this subject, Masters being at liberty to adopt the manual they consider most suitable.

(c). Arithmetic and Mensuration.

(1). The General Committee adopted the proposal made by Colonel Wace:—

"That a Committee, consisting of Mr. A. B. Francis, C.S., Settlement Officer, Munshi Nathu Rám, Extra Assistant Settlement Officer (both now employed in the Ferozepore Settlement), and an Educational Officer, should be appointed to prepare manuals of Arithmetic and Mensuration for Primary Schools, taking into consideration the books both of Mr. Sime and Colonel Wace."

(2). It was decided that decimals should not be included in either manual, except in so far as the Committee may find it necessary to do so in order to make the manual of Mensuration more readily intelligible.

(3). It was decided that, in dealing with the subject of interest, examples should be at so much per rupee per mensem, and that the rules should be framed accordingly.

(4). It was decided that the Committee should be instructed to keep in view the necessity for an adequate number of examples.

(5). It was resolved that the question of preparing a text book on Mensuration for Middle Schools should be taken up as soon as the above manuals for Primary Schools had been prepared.

(6). It was resolved that English technical terms should be introduced into all Arithmetical text books in the Vernacular above the Upper Primary Standard; and that English technical terms should be introduced also into the Mensuration manual proposed for Primary Schools, except in the case of terms that are generally understood.

(7). It was decided also that a vocabulary of such terms should be prepared, and the Assistant Secretary undertook to do this.

2. The General Committee expressed its satisfaction with the offer of Rái Bahádur Kanhaiya Lál to prepare two manuals of Mental Arithmetic,—one for use in Primary and Middle Schools, and one for High Schools and students under training.

3. No Mathematical text books, worthy of adoption, had been submitted to the Sub-Committee. One, the Rasála Rahnuma-i-Hisáb, appeared to be a useful book; but the present edition is so badly printed that it could not be recommended for use.

III.—HISTORY AND GEOGRAPHY.

A meeting of this Sub-Committee had not been called, there being no work of importance to engage its attention. The Secretary reported, however, that the preparation of the series of district geographies was still being carried on by the staff of the Training College, and that others were under review.

IV.—URDU.

The Secretary reported that the Fifth Urdu Reader was nearly complete. The General Committee adopted the recommendations of the Sub-Committee with regard to the following books :—

(a). Hayát-i-Sádi, by M. Altáf Husain.—Decided that it should be placed in school libraries as being an excellent biography, written on the principles of Western criticism, and displaying great learning and research.

(b). Hindustáni Makhzan-ul-Muháwarat, by Munshi Chiranji Lál—To be placed in school libraries: an excellent book of reference.

(c). Rahnuma-i-Warzish, by Sundar Dás, Gymnastic Instructor, Central Training College.—To be placed in school libraries.

V.—PERSIAN AND ARABIC.

Six original works came before this Sub-Committee, but, as none of them had been recommended, they did not fall to be considered by the General Committee. They were :—

(a). Gulistán-i-Fazílat, by Sayad Muhammad Shah of Jullundur.
(b). Shams-ut-tarkíb, same author.
(c). Najm-ul-intikháb, same author.
(d). Makhzan-ul-Qawáid, by Munshi Labba Rám, of Kángra Mission School.
(e). Mufíd-ul-Mubtadi, same author.
(f). Umdat-ul-Tawáríkh : a Diary of the Court of Mahárája Ranjít Singh, by Munshi Sohan Lál.

VI.—HINDI AND SANSKRIT.

The recommendations of this Sub-Committee were adopted in full by the General Committee.

1. To be placed in libraries.
(a). Bhashantar Páth Mála.
(b). Vyákaran Satna.
(c). Noble Deeds of Women.
(d). Translation of a drama called Nágánand.

2. The Committee did not consider that any reward could be given to Bábu Avinás Chandra Bíswás for his compilation of the Nári Bodh.

VII.—GURMUKHI.

It was reported to the Committee that, owing to the transfer of Sodhi Hukm Singh, and the absence of Bhái Gurmukh Singh, it had been impossible to hold a meeting of this Sub-Committee.

The first 16 pages of the Punjábi Dictionary, now in course of preparation, were laid before the Committee, who considered them well got up and neatly printed. The work so far appears to have been well executed, but the Committee thinks it should be carefully examined by a Punjábi scholar; and it was resolved to request Sirdár Dharm Singh, Assistant Engineer, Lahore, to be kind enough to examine these pages, and favor the Committee with his opinion.

VIII.—TEXT BOOK LIBRARY OF REFERENCE.

The recommendations of this Sub-Committee were adopted :—

(1). To obtain for the Reference Library of the Committee copies of all the text books adopted in other Provinces in Urdú, Nágri, Bengali, Persian, Arabic and Sanskrit.

(2). To obtain copies of all approved English text books specially prepared for use in the Province, whether by Government or by private individuals.

(3). To obtain copies of new text books, or new editions, published in England.

(4). To prepare a list of books of reference for High School Libraries. The Director to be asked to issue a Circular to all Managers of High Schools requesting them to prepare lists of those books they considered necessary (in addition to those already supplied).

(5). A revised list of books to be published and furnished to Managers, attention being called to those adopted for libraries within the last two years.

(6). The following two books were recommended for libraries :—

(a). Johnstone's Text Book of Geography.
(b). Hindustáni Makhzan-ul-Muháwarat.

Proposals by Syndicate.	Proceedings of Senate.
I. That Dr. G. Thibaut be appointed, for one year, to the combined posts of Principal of the Oriental College and Registrar of the University, on a salary of Rs. 700 per mensem, with effect from the 1st August 1887.	I. On this question being put to the meeting, Mr. Cope proposed that it be postponed until it had been ascertained that there was a reasonable probability of Dr. Thibaut retaining the appointments permanently if the Senate desired him to do so. This was seconded by Dr. Rahím Khán; but on Mr. Bell pointing out that it had already been arranged that Dr. Thibaut should begin work on the 12th of August and that he (Mr. Bell) would not act beyond that date, the proposal was withdrawn. After Mr. Baden-Powell and others had spoken in favour of the Syndicate's proposal, the Chairman put it to the meeting when it was supported by a majority of those present.
II. That Dr. W. P. Dickson and Mr. T. G. Walker be appointed members of the Punjab Text-Book Committee on behalf of the University.	II. This proposal was unanimously adopted.
III. That Colonel Parry Lambert be appointed Auditor of the University Accounts for two years in accordance with Financial Rule 17.	III. Carried unanimously.
IV. That Lálás Ruchi Rám, M. A., and Gurudat Vidyarthi, M. A., be recommended to Government as candidates for the Competitive Examination for Extra Assistant Commissioners, and that Lála Harwas Rái, M. O. L., Munsiff, Bannu, be recommended for appointment as Extra Assistant Commissioner.	IV. Adopted.

Proposals by Syndicate.

V. That the Senate approve of the courses of reading in English, Arabic, Sanskrit and Persian languages for 1889, as specified in Appendix I, as an indication of the standard required.

Proposals by Syndicate.

VI. That the courses for the Intermediate, B. A. and M. A. Examinations in Mathematics, as amended by the Faculty of Arts, and recommended by the Syndicate, be approved. They are as follows :—

Amended Courses for the Intermediate, B. A., and M. A. Examinations in Mathematics.

INTERMEDIATE.

Arithmetic—The whole.

Algebra, in addition to the Entrance Course—Equations of a degree not higher than the second, involving not more than two unknown quantities : Proportion and Variation : Arithmetical, Geometrical, and Harmonical Progressions : Permutations and Combinations : the Binomial Theorem : Elementary Logarithms.

Euclid—Books I—VI, IV and XI.

Plane Trigonometry—As far as the Solution of Triangles.

Geometrical Conic Sections—The chief properties of the Parabola, Ellipse, and Hyperbola, with easy problems.

Elementary Statics—The Composition and Resolution of Forces acting in one plane at a point : the Centre of Gravity : the Mechanical powers.

BACHELOR OF ARTS.

A Course—

(1). Plane Trigonometry—To Solution and Properties of Triangles.
(2). Algebra—To Logarithms and Logarithmic series.
(3). Dynamics—As in Garnett's Treatise.
(4). Hydrostatics—The pressure of fluids ; specific gravities ; floating bodies ; density of gases as depending on pressure and temperature ; the construction and use of the more simple instruments and machines.
(5). Optics—The reflexion and refraction of light at plane and spherical surfaces, not including aberration ; the eye ; construction and use of the more simple instruments.

Proceedings of Senate.

VI. An amendment to these proposed courses was read, in which Mr. Lewis, Principal, Government College, Lahore, recommended that the courses now laid down by the Calcutta University should be adopted by the Punjab University also. Some discussion took place, and the Registrar pointed out that there was an admitted necessity for some change in the standard. The general opinion, however, was that the Senate could not undertake to decide between the rival courses, and the following proposal was carried : "That as it appears that, subsequent to the recommendations of the Syndicate, other proposals have been made, the Syndicate be asked to reconsider its recommendations with reference to these proposals."

Proposals by Syndicate.	Proceedings of Senate.
VII. That the amended courses for the Intermediate and B. A. Examinations in Philosophy be approved.	VII. These courses were adopted. They are as follows:— Amended Courses for the Intermediate and B. A. Examinations in Philosophy. INTERMEDIATE. Political Economy—As in Fawcett for Beginners or Marshall's Economics of Industry. Psychology—As in Jardine's Elements of Cognition. Logic—As in Fowler or Ray. BACHELOR OF ARTS. Psychology—As in Hamilton's Lectures, or in Sully and Bain. Moral Science—As in Calderwood's Handbook, with some knowledge of the History of Ethics as in Sidgwick. Logic—{ Deductive as in Ray. Inductive as in Fowler.
VIII. That the offer of the Punjab Science Institute of two prizes—one of the value of Rs. 30 to be given to the candidate who stands first in the B. A. Examination, and the other of Rs. 20 for the candidate who obtains the highest aggregate marks in the First Examination for Licentiate in Medicine and Surgery—be accepted with thanks on the conditions proposed by the donors.	VIII. The offer of the Punjab Science Institute was accepted with thanks.
IX. That a grant of Rs. 10 per mensem be made to the Oriental School, Tánda, in the Hoshiárpur District, with effect from the 1st April 1887. (See Syndicate Proceedings of 27th May 1887.)	IX. The Registrar pointed out that in Sir Charles Aitchison's recent review of the working of the University he had strongly condemned the payment to schools of money given for University purposes. Mr. Baden-Powell was not in favor of this view, and several members spoke of the school as a deserving one. The Syndicate's proposal was adopted.
X. That, subject to his passing the Entrance Examination in 1888, Ralia Rám be considered to have passed the recent First Examination in Civil Engineering of the University. (See Syndicate Proceedings of 27th May and 1st July 1887.)	X. This candidate stood first in the First Examination in Engineering, but it was subsequently found that he had not fulfilled the necessary condition for admission to the Examination, viz., passing the Entrance Examination. Mr. Cope, supported by Sheikh Nának Bakhsh, thought that, as the candidate had been refused admission to the examination by the Principal of the Oriental College, and had, notwithstanding this, applied for admission as a private candidate, his examination should be considered void. Rái Kanhya Lál, supported by Dr. Rahím Khán, thought that the candidate might at least be awarded a certificate of having qualified as a lower subordinate; but ultimately all these amendments were withdrawn in favour of the following, proposed by Mr. Baden-Powell and seconded by Mr. T. G. Walker: "That the proposal of the Syndicate be not taken into consideration as neither the Senate nor the Syndicate has power to dispense with a rule made under the Act." This was carried.

XI. (a) That Díwán Rámjas, C.S.I., W. Coldstream, Esq., C. J. Rodgers, Esq., Maulvi Abdul Ali, Qári, Dr. F. F. Perry and T. G. Walker, Esq., be nominated to the Oriental Faculty.

XI. (a) Each name was separately put to the meeting and adopted.

(b) That G. R. Elsmie, Esq., C. J. Rodgers, Esq., Maulvi Abdul Ali, Qári, Díwán Narendra Náth, M. A., F. DEH. Larpent, Esq., Major-General S. Black, C.S.I., T. G. Walker, Esq., and W. Coldstream, Esq., be nominated to the Arts Faculty.

(b) These names were adopted without discussion with the exception of those of Maulvi Abdul Ali, Qári, and Mr. Larpent. Regarding the former, the following proposal by Mr. Baden-Powell was adopted :—

" That, as it is believed that Maulvi Abdul Ali, Qári, is a purely Oriental Scholar, the Registrar be directed to enquire whether he is desirous of serving on the Arts Faculty."

Regarding Mr. Larpent, it was proposed by Mr. T. G. Walker, and seconded by Mr. Baden-Powell—

" That, in view of the resolution passed by the Senate on the 25th June, suspending Mr. Larpent from his office as Registrar, the question of his nomination to the Faculties be postponed.

This was carried.

(c) That C. J. Rodgers, Esq., Díwán Narendra Náth, M. A., F. DEH. Larpent, Esq., Major-General S. Black, C. S. I., W. Coldstream, Esq., Dr. F. F. Perry and Dr. Tarleton Young be nominated to the Science Faculty.

(c) These nominations were adopted with the exception of that of Mr. Larpent.

(d) That G. R. Elsmie, Esq., Díwán Rámjas, C.S.I., and T. G. Walker, Esq., be nominated to the Law Faculty.

(d) These names were adopted.

(e) That Dr. F. F. Perry and Dr. Tarleton Young be nominated to the Medical Faculty.

(e) Adopted.

It was proposed by Bábu Protúl Chandra Chatterji and seconded by Dr. Brij Lál Ghose—" That Díwán Narendra Náth, M. A., be nominated to the Oriental Faculty."

Carried.

After the disposal of the above business, Bábu P. C. Chatterji referred to the loss which the University had sustained through the recent death of Háji Ghulám Hasan, and proposed—

" That the Senate has heard with deep regret of the death of Háji Ghulám Hasan, one of its most active Fellows, whose services in the cause of education have been most distinguished ; and directs that a letter of condolence be sent to his father by the Registrar."

This was seconded by Dr. Rahím Khán, Dr. Brij Lál Ghose and Sheikh Nának Bakhsh, and unanimously adopted.

The Indian Law Reports.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

THE "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council, appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month, at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, and comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat; the copies for subscribers registered by Messrs. Thacker, Spink & Co. are distributed by that firm; and the Madras, Bombay and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, respectively.

In supersession of previous advertisements, on and from the 1st January 1885, the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows:—

The Indian Law Reports.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

THE "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council, appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month, at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, and comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat; the copies for subscribers registered by Messrs. Thacker, Spink & Co. are distributed by that firm; and the Madras, Bombay and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, respectively.

In supersession of previous advertisements, on and from the 1st January 1885, the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows:—

Terms of subscription, payable annually in advance.

RULES

For the guidance of Judging Committees of District Horse Shows.

I.—Only boná-fide horse-breeders of the districts named will be allowed to compete for the above prizes. The Judging Committee will decide as to the eligibility of competitors.

II.—A branded mare of 4 years of age, in foal or with foal at foot, the result of having been covered before 4 years of age, will not be eligible to compete.

III.—Branded mares proved to be barren, i.e., mares that have not held to Government stallions for the last two years, will not be eligible to compete.

IV.—No mares or stock will be allowed to compete as "served by Government stallions," or "got by Government stallions," unless a certificate to that effect is produced by the exhibitor. These certificates are obtainable from officers in charge of stallions.

V.—Branded fillies (class II.), if out of branded mares by Government stallions, may also compete in "class III, Fillies."

VI.—Geldings (class VI.), if out of branded mares by Government stallions, may also compete in "class V. Yearlings" (Colts) and in "class IV. Remounts," if purchased at the show for Government, Army and Police purposes.

VII.—Intending exhibitors should, on arrival at the show, apply to the Secretary of the Judging Committee for a ticket or tickets, as the case may be, stating the class in which they propose to compete.

VIII.—Each ticket will be worn by the animal, as a token of the right to compete.

IX.—When the tickets are given, the Secretary will name the date, hour, and place at the show, when and where horses should be brought for examination. A shámiána, or large tent, or shed, to afford shade to the Committee, within a temporary rail enclosure, should be erected, to allow of the members to carefully examine the stock. The public should not be permitted to enter the enclosure during the Committee's proceedings.

X.—Prizes will be awarded on the day appointed by the President of the Judging Committee.

XI.—A certificate (parwána) will be given to each winner, whether he takes his prizes in money, khillat, or medal, as he may think best.

XII.—One or more of the District Officers of each district represented, and the Assistant Superintendent, Horse-Breeding Operations, will act as Judges of the Committee.

XIII.—Discretion is to be used by the Judging Committee in awarding only a portion of prizes to any class, if the stock of that class be not considered worthy of all prizes noted; and the money not awarded may be devoted to the giving of extra prizes in other classes deemed by the Judging Committee as worthy of them, as it is the desire of Government to award the total sum granted, provided any of the classes of stock competing are in any way worthy of it.

XIV.—The system of marks will be adopted as follows:—

For Mares.		All other stock.
Soundness	25	Soundness	25
Power	25	Power	25
Quality	25	Quality	25
Produce at foot	25	Action	25
Total	100	Total	100
If no produce, the total ...	75

Marks for "action" have not been accorded to mares, as some competing may be too heavy in foal to allow of their action being shown. The Judging Committees are requested to be good enough to attach a return to their reports showing the number of the several marks allotted to winners of prizes.

NOTE.—1. To enable a horse to become eligible to compete in the "Gelding" class, both testicles must have been excised.

2. The prizes allotted to the "Gelding" class are to be invariably awarded to the best competing, irrespective of their worth in other respects. Prizes in this class to be awarded only to stock that have been castrated when in possession of their present owners, boná-fide horse-breeders, and provided the Judging Committee are satisfied the animals have been castrated with a view of competing for the prizes.

3. In the North-Western Provinces approved mares and fillies were, up to the year 1877, branded V. R.; since that time they have been branded V. I. In the Punjab approved mares and fillies were, up to the year 1885, branded B. M; since that time they have also been branded V. I. In the Bombay Presidency, Sind and Biluchistán approved mares and fillies are branded /|\. The brand will be found either on the off or near shoulder, or on the saddle place.

4. In case of remounts not being purchased for one branch of the service of the class for which prizes are offered, the prizes for that class will be added to the prizes offered for Remounts of the other branch of the service. For instance, if no remounts over 3 years of age are bought for the British service, the prizes will be added to Native Cavalry remounts over 3 years of age, and vice versâ.

NOTE.—Branded fillies (Class I. d) may also compete in "Class II. Fillies."

Rules for the guidance of Judging Committees of Metropolitan Horse Fairs.

I.—Only bonâ-fide horse-breeders and dealers will be allowed to compete for the above prizes. The stewards will decide as to the eligibility of competitors.

II.—Fillies, under 4 years of age, in foal, or with foal at foot, will not be eligible to compete.

III.—Mares proved to be barren, i.e., mares that have not held to coverings for the last two years, will not be eligible to compete.

IV.—Geldings may also compete in "Class IV. Remounts" if purchased at the fair for Government, Army and Police purposes, and in "Class V. Yearlings" (Colts).

V.—Government horses will not compete, nor will Government claim the right of purchasing any stock exhibited.

VI.—Intending exhibitors should, on arrival at the fair, apply to the Secretary of the Judging Committee for a ticket or tickets, as the case may be, stating the class in which they propose to compete.

VII.—Each ticket will be worn by the animal as a token of the right to compete, and of the seller's right to the prize, if sale is effected before the awards are made. By careful attention to this rule the owners will be secured against losing the chance of a prize.

VIII.—When the tickets are given, the Secretary will name the date, hour and place at the fair when and where horses should be brought for examination. A shamiána, or large tent, or shed, to afford shade to the Committee, within a temporary rail enclosure, should be erected to allow of the members to carefully examine the stock. The public should not be permitted to enter the enclosure during the Committee's proceedings.

IX.—Prizes will be awarded the day before the bathing day, where one is appointed.

X.—A certificate (parwána) will be given to each winner, whether he takes his prizes in money, khillat, or medal, as he may think best.

XI.—Honorary certificates will be awarded to exhibitors who are not bonâ-fide horse-breeders and dealers, and who may show superior animals. On the certificate may be noted the prize and money value that would have been awarded to the animal had the owner been a bonâ-fide horse-breeder or dealer.

XII.—A Committee of experienced officers, appointed by the Local Government, will act as Judges. The Assistant Superintendent, Horse Breeding Operations, will attend the Committee as member and Veterinary Adviser. In his unavoidable absence the services of a Veterinary Officer will be provided under the orders of the Government of India.

XIII.—Discretion is to be used by the Judging Committee in awarding only a portion of prizes to any class if the stock of that class be not considered worthy of all prizes noted; and the money not awarded may be devoted to the giving of extra prizes in other classes deemed, by the Judging Committee, as worthy of them, as it is the desire of Government to award the total sum granted, provided any of the classes of stock competing are in any way worthy of it.

F. LARPENT,

Registrar, Punjab University.

RULES OF THE PUNJAB PUBLIC LIBRARY.

I.—CONSTITUTION AND COMMITTEE.

1. The Committee shall consist of not less than 14 members including the President and Secretary.

2. The Deputy Commissioner of Lahore and the Director of Public Instruction, Punjab, shall be ex-officio members.

3. The Municipality of Lahore, the Punjab University, the Bishop of Lahore, and the Committee of the Lahore and Meean Meer Institute shall each nominate a member.

4. The life members shall annually elect two members to be on the Committee for one year.

5. The remaining members will be nominated by Government, who will also appoint the President.

6. The Committee shall appoint its own Secretary.

7. Standing Sub-Committees shall be appointed by the Committee to carry on the management of the different departments of the Library.

8. The Secretary shall be a member of every Sub-Committee.

9. A meeting of the Committee shall be held on the 1st Monday in every month.

Five members shall form a quorum.

10. A special meeting of the Committee may be called by the President or a Sub-Committee at a week's notice.

11. A general meeting of the life members and Committee shall be held once a year in the month of December, and at the meeting the two annual members to represent the life members shall be elected. Absent life members may vote at the election by proxy.

12. The current business of the Committee to be brought up at each monthly meeting shall include the examination of the accounts, of the suggestion books, of orders to book-sellers, of breaches of the rules, &c.

13. The funds shall be kept in the name of the Punjab Public Library by the Bank of Bengal, or as the Committee may from time to time direct.

14. All cheques shall be signed by the Secretary and a member of the Committee appointed by it for the purpose.

15. Expenditure on fixed charges, for which sanction already exists, and on contingencies up to a limit of Rs. 50 a month, may be incurred on the joint authority of the persons empowered to sign cheques. All other expenditure requires the previous sanction of the Committee.

16. A donation of money of Rs. 100 or upwards, or of books accepted by the Committee and valued by them as worth not less than Rs. 100, shall entitle the donor to the privileges of a life member.

17. Any donor of books may make it a condition of the donation that any of the books he gives shall not be lent out except to himself.

18. Life members shall be exempt from payment of deposits, subscriptions and other fees required by the rules.

II.—THE READING-ROOM.

1. The Reading-Room is open to the public free of charge.

2. Books may not be removed from the shelves by any one except the Librarian.

3. Catalogues and application forms are on the table. The Librarian will get any book for which a form is handed to him; and books must be returned to him before leaving.

4. The Committee will exclude from the building persons who disregard any rules or who damage the property of the Library.

5. CLOSED DAYS:—Queen's Birthday, also from 1st to 7th October, and from 1st to 7th April inclusive.

6. DAILY HOURS:—In the winter 8 A.M. to noon and 3 to 8 P.M., and in the hot weather 7 to 11 A.M. and 4 to 8 P.M., and on Sunday 2 to 5 P.M.

III.—RULES FOR LENDING OUT BOOKS.

Books will be issued on the following conditions:—

1. An applicant must deposit Rs. 10 with the Secretary. The deposit will be liable to forfeit for injury or loss of a book, or for breach of any of the rules.

2. An annual subscription of Rs. 5 must be paid in advance, which may be compounded for by a donation of Rs. 25.

3. Not more than six volumes may be kept out on one subscription.

4. Residents at Lahore or Meean Meer shall return within 20 days every book so taken out. To residents at other places ten days longer will be allowed. But all books lent out must be returned by the 30th September and 31st March each year.

5. The cost of forwarding books will be recovered by sending them by Value Payable Post. Any charges due under Rules 1 and 2 may be added.

6. Books may not be transferred from one person to another.

7. The Committee will reserve from issue, under these rules, new or valuable books, at their discretion.

8. Forms of application for books can be supplied, and their use is requested, but is not obligatory.

9. Deposits under Rule 1 (if free of claims) will be returned on request to persons who have no books of the Library in their possession.

The Indian Law Reports.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

THE "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council, appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month, at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, and comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat: the copies for subscribers registered by Messrs. Thacker, Spink & Co. are distributed by that firm; and the Madras, Bombay and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, respectively.

In supersession of previous advertisements, on and from the 1st January 1885, the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows :—

Terms of subscription, payable annually in advance.

Certificates of Posting

Are granted for unregistered articles. Fee half an anna, payable by means of a postage stamp.

Postal Acknowledgments

For the delivery of a registered letter, packet or parcel, can be obtained on payment of 1 anna in stamps in the case of registered letters and packets; and in cash in the case of parcels.

Late Letters

Will be received at the window until 15 minutes before the despatch of the mails, and must be fully prepaid by stamps, so as to include ordinary postage and late-letter fee of half an anna.

Foreign Post.

The latest safe day and hour for the posting of overland letters, post-cards, newspapers, printed and commercial papers, and sample and mixed packets, is every Tuesday up to 9 A.M.

For foreign parcels every Saturday up to 8 A.M.

Delivery of Letter and Parcel Mail.

The hours of delivery are dependent on the hours of arrival of the several trains. If they arrive punctually at the advertised hours, the first delivery will take place at 7 A.M., the second at 10-30 A.M., the third at 12 noon, and the fourth at 6-30 P.M. On Sundays and holidays only one delivery is made of prepaid letters at 10-30 A.M.

Parcels are delivered at 10-30 A.M. only.

Insured articles exceeding Rs. 1,000 in value will be delivered only at the Post Office window.

Postage.

Whatever postage is marked on a letter, post-card, newspaper, packet or parcel, must be paid at once on delivery, after which any complaint of overcharge will be duly attended to.

Complaints.

In all complaints of overcharge or unnecessary delay in delivering letters, the covers bearing the Post Office stamps must be presented for inspection; and when any complaint is preferred against any postman, the number on his badge must be specified.

Registration

Makes the transmission of a letter more secure, but the Post Office is not responsible for loss unless the letter be also insured. Currency Notes or part of a Currency Note, Stamps, Cheques, and the like, must be registered. Registration fee 2 annas in stamps.

Insurance.

Registered letters and parcels can be insured without limit of value. Coin, jewels, &c., must be insured. Rates of insurance are 2 annas up to Rs. 50 of value, 4 annas up to Rs. 100, and 4 annas for every additional Rs. 100. Insurance charge payable in stamps in the case of letters and in cash in the case of parcels.

Value Payable

Parcels, registered letters and book packets can be sent value payable, the value being realized from the addressee and paid to the sender by the Post Office. Limit of value is Rs. 1,000. Value payable can also be insured.

Inland Parcels

May be sent prepaid or unpaid at sender's option. Rates of postage are 4 annas for 20 tolas, 8 annas for 40 tolas, and 4 annas for every additional 40 tolas; postage payable in cash.

Savings Bank.

Floating Deposits are received from 4 annas up to Rs. 500, and interest allowed. Printed rules obtainable at the Post Office.

Inland and Foreign Money Orders.

Remitter of a money order has nothing to do with its transmission to payee; this work is done entirely by the Post Office. When the money order is delivered, the remitter will receive an acknowledgment of its delivery. Maximum limit for a money order is Rs. 150, and the same remitter cannot obtain in one day money orders for more than Rs. 600 in the aggregate drawn on the same office or payable to the same person. Forms of money order application supplied gratis.

The Indian Law Reports.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

THE "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council, appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month, at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, and comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat: the copies for subscribers registered by Messrs. Thacker, Spink & Co. are distributed by that firm; and the Madras, Bombay and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, respectively.

In supersession of previous advertisements, on and from the 1st January 1885, the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows:—

Terms of subscription, payable annually in advance.

RULES

For the guidance of Judging Committees of District Horse Shows.

I.—Only boná-fide horse-breeders of the districts named will be allowed to compete for the above prizes. The Judging Committee will decide as to the eligibility of competitors.

II.—A branded mare of 4 years of age, in foal or with foal at foot, the result of having been covered before 4 years of age, will not be eligible to compete.

III.—Branded mares proved to be barren, i.e., mares that have not held to Government stallions for the last two years, will not be eligible to compete.

IV.—No mares or stock will be allowed to compete as "served by Government stallions," or "got by Government stallions," unless a certificate to that effect is produced by the exhibitor. These certificates are obtainable from officers in charge of stallions.

V.—Branded fillies (class II.), if out of branded mares by Government stallions, may also compete in "class III, Fillies."

VI.—Geldings (class VI.), if out of branded mares by Government stallions, may also compete in "class V. Yearlings" (Colts) and in "class IV. Remounts," if purchased at the show for Government, Army and Police purposes.

VII.—Intending exhibitors should, on arrival at the show, apply to the Secretary of the Judging Committee for a ticket or tickets, as the case may be, stating the class in which they propose to compete.

VIII.—Each ticket will be worn by the animal, as a token of the right to compete.

IX.—When the tickets are given, the Secretary will name the date, hour, and place at the show, when and where horses should be brought for examination. A shámiána, or large tent, or shed, to afford shade to the Committee, within a temporary rail enclosure, should be erected, to allow of the members to carefully examine the stock. The public should not be permitted to enter the enclosure during the Committee's proceedings.

X.—Prizes will be awarded on the day appointed by the President of the Judging Committee.

XI.—A certificate (parwána) will be given to each winner, whether he takes his prizes in money, khillat, or medal, as he may think best.

XII.—One or more of the District Officers of each district represented, and the Assistant Superintendent, Horse-Breeding Operations, will act as Judges of the Committee.

XIII.—Discretion is to be used by the Judging Committee in awarding only a portion of prizes to any class, if the stock of that class be not considered worthy of all prizes noted; and the money not awarded may be devoted to the giving of extra prizes in other classes deemed by the Judging Committee as worthy of them, as it is the desire of Government to award the total sum granted, provided any of the classes of stock competing are in any way worthy of it.

XIV.—The system of marks will be adopted as follows:—

For Mares.		All other stock.
Soundness	25	Soundness	25
Power	25	Power	25
Quality	25	Quality	25
Produce at foot	25	Action	25
Total	100	Total ...	100
If no produce, the total ...	75

Marks for "action" have not been accorded to mares, as some competing may be too heavy in foal to allow of their action being shown. The Judging Committees are requested to be good enough to attach a return to their reports showing the number of the several marks allotted to winners of prizes.

NOTE.—1. To enable a horse to become eligible to compete in the "Gelding" class, both testicles must have been excised.

2. The prizes allotted to the "Gelding" class are to be invariably awarded to the best competing, irrespective of their worth in other respects. Prizes in this class to be awarded only to stock that have been castrated when in possession of their present owners, boná-fide horse-breeders, and provided the Judging Committee are satisfied the animals have been castrated with a view of competing for the prizes.

3. In the North-Western Provinces approved mares and fillies were, up to the year 1877, branded V. R.; since that time they have been branded V. I. In the Punjab approved mares and fillies were, up to the year 1885, branded B. M.; since that time they have also been branded V. I. In the Bombay Presidency, Sind and Biluchistán approved mares and fillies are branded . The brand will be found either on the off or near shoulder, or on the saddle place.

4. In case of remounts not being purchased for one branch of the service of the class for which prizes are offered, the prizes for that class will be added to the prizes offered for Remounts of the other branch of the service. For instance, if no remounts over 3 years of age are bought for the British service, the prizes will be added to Native Cavalry remounts over 3 years of age, and vice versá.

Rules for the guidance of Judging Committees of Metropolitan Horse Fairs.

I.—Only bonâ-fide horse-breeders and dealers will be allowed to compete for the above prizes. The stewards will decide as to the eligibility of competitors.

II.—Fillies, under 4 years of age, in foal, or with foal at foot, will not be eligible to compete.

III.—Mares proved to be barren, i.e., mares that have not held to coverings for the last two years, will not be eligible to compete.

IV.—Geldings may also compete in "Class IV. Remounts" if purchased at the fair for Government, Army and Police purposes, and in "Class V. Yearlings" (Colts).

V.—Government horses will not compete, nor will Government claim the right of purchasing any stock exhibited.

VI.—Intending exhibitors should, on arrival at the fair, apply to the Secretary of the Judging Committee for a ticket or tickets, as the case may be, stating the class in which they propose to compete.

VII.—Each ticket will be worn by the animal as a token of the right to compete, and of the seller's right to the prize, if sale is effected before the awards are made. By careful attention to this rule the owners will be secured against losing the chance of a prize.

VIII.—When the tickets are given, the Secretary will name the date, hour and place at the fair when and where horses should be brought for examination. A shamiána, or large tent, or shed, to afford shade to the Committee, within a temporary rail enclosure, should be erected to allow of the members to carefully examine the stock. The public should not be permitted to enter the enclosure during the Committee's proceedings.

IX.—Prizes will be awarded the day before the bathing day, where one is appointed.

X.—A certificate (parwána) will be given to each winner, whether he takes his prizes in money, khillat, or medal, as he may think best.

XI.—Honorary certificates will be awarded to exhibitors who are not bonâ-fide horse-breeders and dealers, and who may show superior animals. On the certificate may be noted the prize and money value that would have been awarded to the animal had the owner been a bonâ-fide horse-breeder or dealer.

XII.—A Committee of experienced officers, appointed by the Local Government, will act as Judges. The Assistant Superintendent, Horse Breeding Operations, will attend the Committee as member and Veterinary Adviser. In his unavoidable absence the services of a Veterinary Officer will be provided under the orders of the Government of India.

XIII.—Discretion is to be used by the Judging Committee in awarding only a portion of prizes to any class if the stock of that class be not considered worthy of all prizes noted; and the money not awarded may be devoted to the giving of extra prizes in other classes deemed, by the Judging Committee, as worthy of them, as it is the desire of Government to award the total sum granted, provided any of the classes of stock competing are in any way worthy of it.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE.

CIRCULAR No. 38 OF 1887.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,

(No. 5804.)

Dated Lahore, the 17th October 1887.

To

ALL COMMISSIONERS AND DEPUTY COMMISSIONERS IN THE PUNJAB.

Repayment of instalments of takkavi advances.

IT appears from the district annual revenue reports that in some of the districts of the province instalments of takkavi advances have not been repaid in consequence of a long continuance of drought and a succession of bad seasons.

2. The Financial Commissioner invites the attention of all Commissioners and Deputy Commissioners to Rule 14 of the Rules under the Land Improvement Loans Act, published with this office Circular No. 11 of 1887, and requests that formal orders of suspension may be recorded in all cases in which a Deputy Commissioner may think it necessary to postpone the realization of instalments under the terms of the rule.

Interest on investments held by band funds liable to income tax.

PUBLISHES for information and guidance the following ruling of the Government of India in regard to the liability to income tax of the interest on investments held by the band fund of a regiment.

By order, &c.,

D. C. JOHNSTONE,

(Translated.) Offg. Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

No. 1665 B., dated 11th July 1887.

From—The Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department,

To—The Secretary to Government, Punjab.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 1011, dated the 7th May 1887, forwarding copy of correspondence relating to the exemption from income tax of the interest on Government securities belonging to the band fund of a regiment.

2. In reply, I am to say, for the information of the Lieutenant-Governor, that as subscriptions on account of band funds are compulsory deductions from an officer's salary, income tax is not levied thereon, on the principle that a person should not be taxed in respect of income which he does not receive. But as the interest on the investment of accumulations of such deductions is presumably spent on the amusement of the subscribers, and is thus employed for their benefit, it cannot be held to be exempt from taxation.

CIRCULAR No. 40 OF 1887.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,

(No. 5806.)

Dated Lahore, 17th October 1887.

To

ALL REVENUE OFFICERS, PUNJAB.

Weekly Telegraphic Crop and Health Reports. Consolidated instructions regarding contents of—

UNDER recent orders of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor (Junior Secretary to Punjab Government's No. 196 S. of 22nd August 1887), the work of publishing the Weekly Telegraphic Crop and Health Reports has been transferred from the Secretariat Office to that of the Director of Settlements and Revenue Records.

The existing orders regarding the preparation of these Reports are contained in the Government of India's Resolution No. 5—95-113, dated Simla, 8th August 1879, circulated with the Punjab Government's endorsement No. 977 of 25th August 1879, Circular 8 No. 119 from the Secretary to Government, Punjab, dated 7th April 1885, and the Junior Secretary to Punjab Government's No. 9 of 13th January 1887.

The Financial Commissioner now issues the following consolidated instructions regarding the contents of these Reports. No alterations are made in the mode and date of submission :—

Rain.—In addition to the rainfall at the Sadr note whether the rainfall in the district is similar in amount or not.

Health.—Report briefly the health of the people.

Prices.—In ordinary times briefly indicate the condition of prices, e. g., 'Falling,' 'Fluctuating,' 'Stationary,' 'Rising.' Abnormal variations should be specially noticed. In seasons of great scarcity or famine the price of one staple article of food should be given.

Harvest prospects.—What is wanted is a statement of the character of the agricultural operations in progress so as to inform Government of the favourable or unfavourable nature of current prospects. State what the prospects are, and if necessary the causes. Note any agricultural operations and the harvest or crop to which they belong. 'Sowings in progress' does not afford much useful information. The crop being sown should be stated. Two examples of the class of Report required are given :—

(a). Kharíf prospects generally good. Crops injured by excessive rain in parts. Kharíf weedings and Rabi ploughings in progress.

(b). Kharíf prospects fair. Rain in Bar deficient and grass scarce; more rain wanted. Rabi ploughings on sailáb lands commenced.

In a Province where agriculture is carried on under such varied conditions as in the Punjab no universal form of Report can be prescribed. What is required each week is a brief, concise note as to the condition of the crops and the agricultural look-out, similar to the monthly Report, but more condensed. The Weekly Reports have of late been somewhat too brief.

Certificates of Posting

Are granted for unregistered articles. Fee half an anna, payable by means of a postage stamp.

Postal Acknowledgments

For the delivery of a registered letter, packet or parcel, can be obtained on payment of 1 anna in stamps in the case of registered letters and packets; and in cash in the case of parcels.

Late Letters

Will be received at the window until 15 minutes before the despatch of the mails, and must be fully prepaid by stamps, so as to include ordinary postage and late-letter fee of half an anna.

Foreign Post.

The latest safe day and hour for the posting of overland letters, post-cards, newspapers, printed and commercial papers, and sample and mixed packets, is every Tuesday up to 9 A.M.

For foreign parcels every Saturday up to 8 A.M.

Delivery of Letter and Parcel Mail.

The hours of delivery are dependent on the hours of arrival of the several trains. If they arrive punctually at the advertised hours, the first delivery will take place at 7 A.M., the second at 10-30 A.M., the third at 12 noon, and the fourth at 6-30 P.M. On Sundays and holidays only one delivery is made of prepaid letters at 10-30 A.M.

Parcels are delivered at 10-30 A.M. only.

Insured articles exceeding Rs. 1,000 in value will be delivered only at the Post Office window.

Postage.

Whatever postage is marked on a letter, post-card, newspaper, packet or parcel, must be paid at once on delivery, after which any complaint of overcharge will be duly attended to.

Complaints.

In all complaints of overcharge or unnecessary delay in delivering letters, the covers bearing the Post Office stamps must be presented for inspection; and when any complaint is preferred against any postman, the number on his badge must be specified.

Registration

Makes the transmission of a letter more secure, but the Post Office is not responsible for loss unless the letter be also insured. Currency Notes or part of a Currency Note, Stamps, Cheques, and the like, must be registered. Registration fee 2 annas in stamps.

Insurance.

Registered letters and parcels can be insured without limit of value. Coin, jewels, &c., must be insured. Rates of insurance are 2 annas up to Rs. 50 of value, 4 annas up to Rs. 100, and 4 annas for every additional Rs. 100. Insurance charge payable in stamps in the case of letters and in cash in the case of parcels.

Value Payable

Parcels, registered letters and book packets can be sent value payable, the value being realized from the addressee and paid to the sender by the Post Office. Limit of value is Rs. 1,000. Value payable can also be insured.

Inland Parcels

May be sent prepaid or unpaid at sender's option. Rates of postage are 4 annas for 20 tolas, 8 annas for 40 tolas, and 4 annas for every additional 40 tolas; postage payable in cash.

Savings Bank.

Floating Deposits are received from 4 annas up to Rs. 500, and interest allowed. Printed rules obtainable at the Post Office.

Inland and Foreign Money Orders.

Remitter of a money order has nothing to do with its transmission to payee; this work is done entirely by the Post Office. When the money order is delivered, the remitter will receive an acknowledgment of its delivery. Maximum limit for a money order is Rs. 150, and the same remitter cannot obtain in one day money orders for more than Rs. 600 in the aggregate drawn on the same office or payable to the same person. Forms of money order application supplied gratis.

The Indian Law Reports.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

THE "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council, appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month, at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, and comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat; the copies for subscribers registered by Messrs. Thacker, Spink & Co. are distributed by that firm; and the Madras, Bombay and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, respectively.

In supersession of previous advertisements, on and from the 1st January 1885, the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows :—

RULES

For the guidance of Judging Committees of District Horse Shows.

I.—Only boná-fide horse-breeders of the districts named will be allowed to compete for the above prizes. The Judging Committee will decide as to the eligibility of competitors.

II.—A branded mare of 4 years of age, in foal or with foal at foot, the result of having been covered before 4 years of age, will not be eligible to compete.

III.—Branded mares proved to be barren, i.e., mares that have not held to Government stallions for the last two years, will not be eligible to compete.

IV.—No mares or stock will be allowed to compete as "served by Government stallions," or "got by Government stallions," unless a certificate to that effect is produced by the exhibitor. These certificates are obtainable from officers in charge of stallions.

V.—Branded fillies (class II.), if out of branded mares by Government stallions, may also compete in "class III, Fillies."

VI.—Geldings (class VI.), if out of branded mares by Government stallions, may also compete in "class V. Yearlings" (Colts) and in "class IV. Remounts," if purchased at the show for Government, Army and Police purposes.

VII.—Intending exhibitors should, on arrival at the show, apply to the Secretary of the Judging Committee for a ticket or tickets, as the case may be, stating the class in which they propose to compete.

VIII.—Each ticket will be worn by the animal, as a token of the right to compete.

IX.—When the tickets are given, the Secretary will name the date, hour, and place at the show, when and where horses should be brought for examination. A shámiána, or large tent, or shed, to afford shade to the Committee, within a temporary rail enclosure, should be erected, to allow of the members to carefully examine the stock. The public should not be permitted to enter the enclosure during the Committee's proceedings.

X.—Prizes will be awarded on the day appointed by the President of the Judging Committee.

XI.—A certificate (parwána) will be given to each winner, whether he takes his prizes in money, khillat, or medal, as he may think best.

XII.—One or more of the District Officers of each district represented, and the Assistant Superintendent, Horse-Breeding Operations, will act as Judges of the Committee.

XIII.—Discretion is to be used by the Judging Committee in awarding only a portion of prizes to any class, if the stock of that class be not considered worthy of all prizes noted; and the money not awarded may be devoted to the giving of extra prizes in other classes deemed by the Judging Committee as worthy of them, as it is the desire of Government to award the total sum granted, provided any of the classes of stock competing are in any way worthy of it.

XIV.—The system of marks will be adopted as follows:—

For Mares.		All other stock.
Soundness	25	Soundness	25
Power	25	Power	25
Quality	25	Quality	25
Produce at foot	25	Action	25
Total	100	Total ...	100
If no produce, the total ...	75

Marks for "action" have not been accorded to mares, as some competing may be too heavy in foal to allow of their action being shown. The Judging Committees are requested to be good enough to attach a return to their reports showing the number of the several marks allotted to winners of prizes.

NOTE.—1. To enable a horse to become eligible to compete in the "Gelding" class, both testicles must have been excised.

2. The prizes allotted to the "Gelding" class are to be invariably awarded to the best competing, irrespective of their worth in other respects. Prizes in this class to be awarded only to stock that have been castrated when in possession of their present owners, boná-fide horse-breeders, and provided the Judging Committee are satisfied the animals have been castrated with a view of competing for the prizes.

3. In the North-Western Provinces approved mares and fillies were, up to the year 1877, branded V. R.; since that time they have been branded V. I. In the Punjab approved mares and fillies were, up to the year 1885, branded B. M; since that time they have also been branded V. I. In the Bombay Presidency, Sind and Biluchistán approved mares and fillies are branded  The brand will be found either on the off or near shoulder, or on the saddle place.

4. In case of remounts not being purchased for one branch of the service of the class for which prizes are offered, the prizes for that class will be added to the prizes offered for Remounts of the other branch of the service. For instance, if no remounts over 3 years of age are bought for the British service, the prizes will be added to Native Cavalry remounts over 3 years of age, and vice versâ.

NOTE.—Branded fillies (Class I, d) may also compete in "Class II, Fillies,"

Rules for the guidance of Judging Committees of Metropolitan Horse Fairs.

I.—Only boná-fide horse-breeders and dealers will be allowed to compete for the above prizes. The stewards will decide as to the eligibility of competitors.

II.—Fillies, under 4 years of age, in foal, or with foal at foot, will not be eligible to compete.

III.—Mares proved to be barren, i.e., mares that have not held to coverings for the last two years, will not be eligible to compete.

IV.—Geldings may also compete in "Class IV. Remounts" if purchased at the fair for Government, Army and Police purposes, and in "Class V. Yearlings" (Colts).

V.—Government horses will not compete, nor will Government claim the right of purchasing any stock exhibited.

VI.—Intending exhibitors should, on arrival at the fair, apply to the Secretary of the Judging Committee for a ticket or tickets, as the case may be, stating the class in which they propose to compete.

VII.—Each ticket will be worn by the animal as a token of the right to compete, and of the seller's right to the prize, if sale is effected before the awards are made. By careful attention to this rule the owners will be secured against losing the chance of a prize.

VIII.—When the tickets are given, the Secretary will name the date, hour and place at the fair when and where horses should be brought for examination. A shamiána, or large tent, or shed, to afford shade to the Committee, within a temporary rail enclosure, should be erected to allow of the members to carefully examine the stock. The public should not be permitted to enter the enclosure during the Committee's proceedings.

IX.—Prizes will be awarded the day before the bathing day, where one is appointed.

X.—A certificate (parwána) will be given to each winner, whether he takes his prizes in money, khillat, or medal, as he may think best.

XI.—Honorary certificates will be awarded to exhibitors who are not boná-fide horse-breeders and dealers, and who may show superior animals. On the certificate may be noted the prize and money value that would have been awarded to the animal had the owner been a boná-fide horse-breeder or dealer.

XII.—A Committee of experienced officers, appointed by the Local Government, will act as Judges. The Assistant Superintendent, Horse Breeding Operations, will attend the Committee as member, and Veterinary Adviser. In his unavoidable absence the services of a Veterinary Officer will be provided under the orders of the Government of India.

XIII.—Discretion is to be used by the Judging Committee in awarding only a portion of prizes to any class if the stock of that class be not considered worthy of all prizes noted; and the money not awarded may be devoted to the giving of extra prizes in other classes deemed, by the Judging Committee, as worthy of them, as it is the desire of Government to award the total sum granted, provided any of the classes of stock competing are in any way worthy of it.

XIV.—The system of marks will be adopted as follows :—

For Mares.		All other stock.
Soundness	25	Soundness	25
Power	25	Power	25
Quality	25	Quality	25
Produce at foot	25	Action	25
Total ...	100	Total	100
If no produce, the total	75

Marks for "action" have not been accorded to mares, as some competing may be too heavy in foal to allow of their action being shown. The Judging Committees are requested to be good enough to attach a return to their reports showing the number of the several marks allotted to winners of prizes.

NOTE.—1. To enable a horse to become eligible to compete in the "Gelding" class, both testicles must have been excised.

2. The prizes allotted to the "Gelding" class are to be invariably awarded to the best competing, irrespective of their worth in other respects. Prizes in this class to be awarded only to stock that have been castrated when in possession of their present owners, boná-fide horse-breeders, and provided the Judging Committee are satisfied the animals have been castrated with a view of competing for the prizes.

3. In the North-Western Provinces, approved mares and fillies were up to the year 1877 branded V. R.; since that time they have been branded V. I. In the Punjab approved mares and fillies were up to the year 1885 branded B. M.; since that time they have also been branded V. I. In the Bombay Presidency, Sind and Bilúchistán approved mares and fillies are branded . The brand will be found either on the off or near shoulder, or on the saddle place.

4. In case of remounts not being purchased for one branch of the service of the class for which prizes are offered, the prizes for that class will be added to the prizes offered for remounts of the other branch of the service. For instance :—If no remounts over three years of age are bought for the British Service, the prizes will be added to Native Cavalry remounts over three years of age and vice versâ.

Notice.

THE annual fair at Pushkar or Pokhar near Ajmere is fixed to begin on 27th October, and the public are warned that it may be necessary to prohibit this fair in consequence of Cholera now prevalent in the Ajmere District and surrounding Native States.

Last year, when the fair was held in November and Rajputana generally had been free from Cholera during the year, this disease broke out at Pushkar during the fair and carried off a large number of persons. This year Cholera has been in the Province and the Ajmere District since June, and lately there have been cases near Pushkar.

Moreover there has been a scarcity of water in the District and the sacred bathing tank at Pushkar is lower than it has been for many years past. The wells there are also very badly off for water.

It is advisable therefore that persons who contemplate coming to the fair next month should abandon such intention.

G. H. TREVOR, LIEUT.-COL.,
COMMISSIONER,

The Indian Law Reports.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

THE "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council, appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month, at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, and comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat; the copies for subscribers registered by Messrs. Thacker, Spink & Co. are distributed by that firm; and the Madras, Bombay and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, respectively.

In supersession of previous advertisements, on and from the 1st January 1885, the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows:—

Terms of subscription, payable annually in advance.

Commissariat Notice—No. 26.

SEALED tenders for the supply to the Western Circle of locally-manufactured Carbolic Powder, from date of commencement to 31st March 1893, at the Commissariat Store Godown, Fort Lahore, in quantities noted in the memorandum at foot, will be received by the Commissariat Store Officer at Lahore up to noon on the 15th November 1887, and then and there opened in the presence of all parties who may choose to attend.

2. No tenders will be received except on forms obtainable from the Commissariat Store Office at Lahore, which, as well as information required regarding the contract, will be given on application to the Commissariat Store Officer, Lahore, up to 4 o'clock P.M. on the 12th November 1887. No addition or alteration must be made in tender form.

3. Seals of tenderers (unable to write) will not be accepted; they should have their marks verified by witnesses.

4. Covers to be superscribed—"Tender for the supply of locally-manufactured Carbolic Powder."

5. The tender may be in part or for the whole requirement, but the terms of contract must be as noted above, and the rate an average for the whole period. The Commissary-General will also have the power to accept a tender in whole or in part, or to reject a tender without assigning any cause for so doing; but in the event of tender being accepted in part only and the tenderer failing to take up contract, the whole earnest-money deposited will be confiscated.

6. Each tender must be accompanied as earnest-money by Government Promissory Notes duly endorsed to the Commissariat Store Officer, or Stock Note, or Bank of Bengal or Treasury Receipt.*

* The receipt may be for currency notes or cash for Rs. 40.

Tender without earnest-money will not be attended to.

7. Earnest-money will be confiscated if the tenderer withdraws from his tender.

2. The Deputy Commissioner of Lahore and the Director of Public Instruction, Punjab, shall be ex-officio members.

3. The Municipality of Lahore, the Punjab University, the Bishop of Lahore, and the Committee of the Lahore and Meean Meer Institute shall each nominate a member.

4. The life members shall annually elect two members to be on the Committee for one year.

5. The remaining members will be nominated by Government, who will also appoint the President.

6. The Committee shall appoint its own Secretary.

7. Standing Sub-Committees shall be appointed by the Committee to carry on the management of the different departments of the Library.

8. The Secretary shall be a member of every Sub-Committee.

9. A meeting of the Committee shall be held on the 1st Monday in every month.

Five members shall form a quorum.

10. A special meeting of the Committee may be called by the President or a Sub-Committee at a week's notice.

11. A general meeting of the life members and Committee shall be held once a year in the month of December, and at the meeting the two annual members to represent the life members shall be elected. Absent life members may vote at the election by proxy.

12. The current business of the Committee to be brought up at each monthly meeting shall include the examination of the accounts, of the suggestion books, of orders to book-sellers, of breaches of the rules, &c.

13. The funds shall be kept in the name of the Punjab Public Library by the Bank of Bengal, or as the Committee may from time to time direct.

14. All cheques shall be signed by the Secretary and a member of the Committee appointed by it for the purpose.

15. Expenditure on fixed charges, for which sanction already exists, and on contingencies up to a limit of Rs. 50 a month, may be incurred on the joint authority of the persons empowered to sign cheques. All other expenditure requires the previous sanction of the Committee.

16. A donation of money of Rs. 100 or upwards, or of books accepted by the Committee and valued by them as worth not less than Rs. 100, shall entitle the donor to the privileges of a life member.

17. Any donor of books may make it a condition of the donation that any of the books he gives shall not be lent out except to himself.

18. Life members shall be exempt from payment of deposits, subscriptions and other fees required by the rules.

II.—THE READING-ROOM.

1. The Reading-Room is open to the public free of charge.

2. Books may not be removed from the shelves by any one except the Librarian.

3. Catalogues and application forms are on the table. The Librarian will get any book for which a form is handed to him; and books must be returned to him before leaving.

4. The Committee will exclude from the building persons who disregard any rules or who damage the property of the Library.

5. CLOSED DAYS:—Queen's Birthday, also from 1st to 7th October, and from 1st to 7th April inclusive.

6. DAILY HOURS:—In the winter 8 A.M. to noon and 3 to 8 P.M., and in the hot weather 7 to 11 A.M. and 4 to 8 P.M., and on Sunday 2 to 5 P.M.

III.—RULES FOR LENDING OUT BOOKS.

Books will be issued on the following conditions:—

1. An applicant must deposit Rs. 10 with the Secretary. The deposit will be liable to forfeit for injury or loss of a book, or for breach of any of the rules.

2. An annual subscription of Rs. 5 must be paid in advance, which may be compounded for by a donation of Rs. 25.

3. Not more than six volumes may be kept out on one subscription.

4. Residents at Lahore or Meean Meer shall return within 20 days every book so taken out. To residents at other places ten days longer will be allowed. But all books lent out must be returned by the 30th September and 31st March each year.

5. The cost of forwarding books will be recovered by sending them by Value Payable Post. Any charges due under Rules 1 and 2 may be added.

6. Books may not be transferred from one person to another.

7. The Committee will reserve from issue, under these rules, new or valuable books, at their discretion.

8. Forms of application for books can be supplied, and their use is requested, but is not obligatory.

9. Deposits under Rule 1 (if free of claims) will be returned on request to persons who have no books of the Library in their possession.

Admission to the College

Relatives of Ruling Chiefs and youths of good family between the ages of eight and eighteen are eligible for admission to the College.

Course of Study.

The Institution contains a High, Middle, Upper Primary and Lower Primary Department, with two classes in each Department. The course of study leads at present to the Entrance Standard of the Punjab University. Special provision is made for imparting a good colloquial knowledge of English, and the students have the benefit of being taught from the earliest stages by men of comparatively high attainments. Arrangements will be made when necessary for extending the course of instruction to the standard of the Intermediate Examination of the Punjab University.

Vacation.

There is a vacation of two months from the 15th August to the 15th October.

Fees.

Fee for lodging and education, books and stationery, lighting, medical attendance and College servants, Rs. 50 per mensem.

The ordinary fee may, with the sanction of the Committee, be reduced by the Governor, but not below Rs. 25 per mensem.

Fees for Wards of Court are fixed under the orders of the Punjab Government.

All fees and the sums necessary for the personal expenses of pupils must be paid quarterly in advance to the Governor.

Day Students.

A limited number of day students may be admitted on payment of ordinary fees, provided satisfactory arrangements are made for their board and lodging and supervision out of College.

Scholarships.

Arrangements are in progress for the foundation of scholarships tenable by intelligent youths of good family who cannot afford to pay the fees, and two such scholarships, each sufficient to cover the cost of fees, have been already founded.

Progress Report.

A full report of the progress of each student will be submitted half-yearly by the Governor to the Committee, and a copy will be furnished to the parent or guardian by the Committee.

Copies of the Statutes containing full information regarding the rules and regulations of the Aitchison College can be had on application to the Governor.

S. BLACK, MAJOR-GENERAL,

Governor of the Aitchison College.

The Indian Law Reports.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

THE "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council, appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month, at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, and comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat; the copies for subscribers registered by Messrs. Thacker, Spink & Co. are distributed by that firm; and the Madras, Bombay and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, respectively.

In supersession of previous advertisements, on and from the 1st January 1885, the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows:—

Terms of subscription, payable annually in advance.

LAHORE, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1887.

PART III.

Notifications by Chief Court, Financial Commissioner, Accountant-General, &c.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE.

CIRCULAR No. 41 OF 1887.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE:

Dated Lahore, the 7th November 1887.

To

ALL REVENUE OFFICERS IN THE PUNJAB.

Date on which the Punjab Tenancy and Land Revenue Acts will come into force.

BY the Notifications of the Punjab Government, Nos. 726 and 727, dated 1st instant, the 1st November 1887 has been appointed as the date on which the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887, and the Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887, shall come into force. The Financial Commissioners do not doubt that these important Acts will receive the careful study of all Revenue Officers; but there are a few matters to which, with the sanction of the Local Government, special attention is invited.

TENANCY ACT.

Cf. Sections 37 and 38 of the Northern India Canal and Drainage Act, 1873; and the proviso to the 4th definition in Section 3 of the Punjab District Boards Act, 1883.

2. In applying the provisions of Section 5 (1) of the Tenancy Act and of its chapter on Rent, attention should be paid to the definitions of Rent and Land Revenue enacted in Section 4 of the Act. Under these definitions Rent includes service, and Land Revenue includes any rate imposed in respect of the increased value of land due to irrigation, that is to say, the rates commonly known as owner's rate or water-advantage rate. And by Section 3 of the Act those sections of the Canal Act are repealed which in some instances have enabled tenants paying at revenue rates to escape liability for water-advantage rates or owner's rates on land irrigated by a canal.

3. It is not the wish of the Government that any inquiries should be at present made with the object of ascertaining the number of tenants who will be benefited by the changes in the definition of rights of occupancy introduced by Section 5 of the Act.

4. Particular attention is invited to Section 25 of the Act, which gives to a Revenue Court hearing a suit for the enhancement or reduction of rent discretion to decide within the limits fixed by the Act the amount to which the rent should be enhanced or reduced. In exercising this discretion a Revenue Court should, among other matters, take into consideration the circumstances of the tract in which the suit arises and the rates of rent or málikána previously paid. For example, in some parts of the Delhi Division tenants with rights of occupancy have hitherto paid little in excess of the Government's current demand for land revenue and rates; while in the Lahore Division comparatively high rates of málikána have been common. It is not proposed at present to lay down any precise rules for the guidance of courts in deciding these cases; but this much may be said that, while the claim of the land-owners to an increased rate of profit should be fairly satisfied, severe enhancements much exceeding in their results the standard of rents commonly paid by other tenants with a similar right of occupancy in the neighbourhood should be avoided.

5. It is not proposed at present to take advantage of the provisions of Section 106 (1 b) to issue rules for the guidance of Revenue Officers in their proceedings under Section 27 of the Act. When it is necessary to distribute Land Revenue over lands held by tenants, Revenue Officers will as heretofore proceed in the same way and be guided by the same regard to generally accepted usage and to the wishes of the parties as is usual when distributing Land Revenue over the holdings of land-owners. On the one hand it is desirable that the method of distribution adopted should be in agreement with previous usage and have the consent of the parties concerned therein; and on the other hand where disputes arise, they should be decided on their merits without too rigid adherence to previous practice, if that practice has become unsuitable owing to altered circumstances.

6. Attention is requested to the provision in Section 29, under which a court cannot grant a remission of rent unless the sanction of the Collector to the remission is previously obtained. It will be for the court to forward its record in such cases to the Collector, explaining the grounds on which the remission is proposed. And the Collector in granting or refusing sanction should be guided generally by the same principles as govern remissions of Land Revenue. If the rent is a full cash rent varying in amount according to the results of the harvest, a remission for calamity should be readily allowed. If it is a fixed rent of such a nature as to secure the tenant a large profit in a good year, remissions should not be allowed except on account of specially severe losses, or when a succession of bad harvests occur.

7. On the subject of ejectment the most important innovations are as follows :—

(i) The date by which the notice must be served is earlier than has hitherto been appointed for this purpose; — Section 45 (2) of the Act.

(ii) If the notice is not contested, the Revenue Officer has authority to determine any compensation due to the tenant; — Section 71.

(iii) If the notice is contested, and the suit fails, the decree must direct the ejectment of the tenant, thereby avoiding all necessity for issue of a second notice ;

Section 45 (6).

(iv) A court hearing a suit relating to ejectment is bound to invite a tenant to state his claim to compensation ; and if ejectment is decreed, then to deal finally with that claim ;

Section 70.

(v) If ejectment is decreed and the decree bears date later than the 15th June, execution need not necessarily be delayed till the 1st of May following ; but the court may, if it think proper, direct earlier execution, as may be fair in the circumstances of each case.

Section 47.

The word year in sub-section 2 of Section 45 relates to the agricultural year, as defined in definition 17 of Section 4.

8. Attention is also invited to the effect of clauses (d) and (i) of sub-section 1 of Section 76, read with sub-section 2 of the same section. Under these clauses, if a tenant on whom a notice of ejectment has been served neither files a suit to contest his liability for ejectment nor claims compensation, an Assistant Collector of the 2nd Grade, other than a Náib-Tahsíldár, can complete the ejectment. But if the tenant claims compensation, the case must be disposed of by an officer of not lower rank than an Assistant Collector, 1st Grade. There will be no objection to the reference of such compensation claims to the Tahsíldár for inquiry and report ; nor to the actual ejectment being completed by him under the instructions of an Assistant Collector of the 1st Grade.

9. The provisions of Section 49 on the subject of an ejected tenant's claim to growing crops differ materially from those of the existing law ; and will, it is believed, secure fair treatment equally of the claims of the tenant and of the landlord. Some illustrations of the provisions of this section may conveniently be given here :—

(a). A tenant is served with a notice on the 1st of November, when he has not yet harvested his crop of maize. He may harvest it undisturbed, and may follow it with any crops which will probably be off the ground by the end of the agricultural year (15th June) ; and if the rent for which the tenant is already liable covers these crops, it would not be fair to charge him at the time of his actual ejectment with additional rent under sub-section 2 (a) of this section.

(b). Another tenant similarly served with notice, and having part of his land under sugar-cane, clears that crop by February, and then sows at once another crop of a kind which cannot be harvested in the agricultural year then current. This would clearly be an attempt by the tenant to evade ejectment and to extend his tenancy into another agricultural year. On the landlord's application the Court or Revenue Officer should either charge the tenant an additional rent for the new crop ; or, subject to the payment of a fair sum down by the landlord on account of the growing crop, eject the tenant as provided in sub-section (2).

(c). A tenant, who cultivates eight acres, is served with notice of ejectment on 15th November, and filing a suit to contest it goes on with his husbandry as before. On 1st August the suit is decided against him and immediate ejectment is ordered. He has on the tenancy three acres of chari and five more acres thoroughly prepared by repeated ploughings for rabi sowings. The court executing the decree would ordinarily allow the tenant to reap the three acres of chari before the decree is enforced respecting the land on which that crop is growing. But of the other five acres prepared for rabi sowing the court would give the landlord possession as soon as he paid the cash sum fixed as the remuneration due to the outgoing tenant for his work in preparing the land for the rabi sowing.

Section 52 of Tenancy Act.

10. No advantage has yet been taken of the power given equally in the previous Tenancy Act, and in the new Tenancy Act, to vary the dates prescribed in the Act in respect of notices and times of relinquishment and eviction. And experience has shown that it is convenient to adhere to the same dates in the Province at large. But there will be no objection to considering special proposals in respect of any mountain tract, where different dates may be required by the special circumstances of the local agriculture.

Section 61.

11. Applications by landlords to make improvements on the holdings of tenants with rights of occupancy will probably be infrequent for some time to come. But the powers given to landlords in this respect are new; and the Financial Commissioners therefore invite attention to the following remarks made by Colonel Wace on this subject in the Legislative Council:--

In connection with this provision I desire to point out that, if such improvements are classed from the point of view of the tenant, they may be divided into works which will increase the produce of his land without imposing on him the necessity of altering in any material degree his previous standard of husbandry and expenditure, and works which will not yield any favourable result unless they are supplemented by a very considerable increased expenditure on the part of the tenant. Of the first of these two classes a canal distributary which supplies flow irrigation is the most obvious example; and though by existing usage a landlord may not be entitled to make an improvement of this kind on the holding of a tenant with a right of occupancy, it is not likely that such a tenant, if he himself lacked the means or opportunity to make the improvement, would, except for some plain and special reason, object to its execution by the landlord. Of the second class a well may be taken as an instance. Personally I have felt great hesitation as to the introduction into this Bill of words which will enable a landlord to impose on a tenant the very heavy expenditure necessary to successful well-irrigation in the Punjab. And I have reason for saying that this hesitation will be shared by those of our Revenue Officers who have given much attention to the conditions of this form of irrigation. My objections have been met by the clause which provides for the control of this power by rules adapted to local requirements and to the merits of each class of improvements. And I trust that, by the aid of these rules and by the exercise of due discretion on the part of our Revenue Officers in dealing with such applications as landlords may make to them, we may avoid imposing on a tenant in any case an improvement which, though it may fall technically within the definition laid down in the Bill, would require of him a husbandry and expenditure beyond a fair estimate of his capacity to undertake.

If applications by landlords under Section 71 become numerous in any district, the fact should be brought to the notice of the Financial Commissioners in order that suitable rules for dealing with them may be framed.

Sections 69 and 72.

12. In dealing with the claims of tenants without right of occupancy for compensation on disturbance, the Financial Commissioners trust that Revenue Officers and Courts will bear in mind that the scale of compensation stated in Section 69 is a maximum scale; and that the sum to be actually awarded in each case is to be determined according to the merits of the case.

13. Revenue Courts, which have occasion to make any such reference to the Chief Court as is provided for in Section 100, if of lower grade than the Court of a Commissioner, should not address the Chief Court direct, but should refer the case through the Commissioner.

LAND REVENUE ACT.

Sections 16 and 39 of Act XXXIII of 1871, and Section 31 of Land Revenue Act, 1887.

14. Hitherto no special evidential value has been attached by the law to entries in a Patwári's records except when they were prepared under the supervision of a Settlement Officer. Under the new Act the same presumption of truth will attach to these records, whether prepared under the supervision of a Settlement establishment or without that supervision. This change in the law has been made in compliance with the declared policy of the Government of India; and with the object of avoiding in future periodical revisions of the village records by an expensive Settlement establishment. And as there is now in every district an efficient Káúngo establishment, and one or more Revenue Officers of a superior class whose time is specially devoted to the supervision of the village papers and Land Revenue Administration, the Financial Commissioners trust that the higher standard of accuracy in annual records contemplated by the new law will year by year be increasingly secured.

15. In the chapter on Assessments the only important addition to the existing law is Section 56, which provides for the distribution of the assessment of an estate over the holdings comprised therein. The provisions of the section are in accordance with existing practice; and it is not intended to introduce into the rules to be prepared under this section any changes in that practice.

16. Similarly, the chapters (VI and VII) on Collection of Land Revenue, though written in greater detail than the corresponding portions of the Act hitherto in force, contain no provisions involving any material change in the existing administrative system; and the rules to be made under these chapters will as far as possible continue the orders now current.

17. The chapter (VIII) on Surveys and Boundaries contains no provisions very different from those which have hitherto necessarily been acted on by Revenue Officers.

18. The chapter (IX) on Partition will, it is hoped, place this class of revenue cases on a more satisfactory footing than has existed hitherto. Henceforward there will be no separate procedure for perfect and imperfect partitions. All such proceedings will follow the same course. But if it is desired to constitute lands separated off by partition proceedings into a new estate, the sanction of the Financial Commissioner must as heretofore be obtained.

Section 110 (1).

19. Very particular attention is requested to the provisions of Sections 111 and 112, which lay down the circumstances under which an application for partition may be made, and the restrictions and limitations which apply to such applications. Further, Revenue Officers should bear in mind that the discretion to disallow partitions vested in them by Section 115 should not be exercised arbitrarily, but ordinarily on the grounds set forth in Sections 111 and 112.

20. Section 117 gives to Revenue Officers hearing a claim for partition a discretional authority, either to decide any disputed questions of title which may be raised by the claim, or to reject the application for partition until such time as the question of title has been decided by a competent court. Some instructions appear to be called for as to the manner in which this discretion should be exercised. The cases which will involve action under this section may be divided broadly into two classes,—first, those cases in which an applicant believing that the partition procedure would give him an advantage over the opposite party has chosen that procedure in order to evade direct resort to the Civil Courts in respect of a question of title, which he knew would be disputed; and secondly, those cases in which the applicant is acting in a straightforward manner, that is to say, in which a partition is really desired by him and is the principal matter in which he requires official assistance. In the class of cases first mentioned, the Revenue Officer should decline to grant the application for partition, and leave the applicant to pursue the matter in the Civil Court or not as he may choose in his own interest. In the latter class of cases the Financial Commissioners consider that a Revenue Officer should exercise the full jurisdiction vested in him by the law, and should refrain from putting the parties to the trouble of separate proceedings in a Civil Court.

21. By Section 123 it is not intended that in every case in which a partition has been effected without the assistance of a Revenue Officer an application must be made to a Revenue Officer under this section before the results can be entered in the annual record. If a partition has been completed and acted on, and there is no dispute on the subject, it can be brought to record in the manner provided in Section 34 of the Act. But there are not infrequent cases in which, after a partition has been made and acted on by agreement, one of the parties to the partition refuses to consent to its entry in the annual record, or in which a co-sharer attempts to treat a temporary arrangement for the cultivation of the joint holding as if it were a final partition. If when inquiring into a case of this nature in proceedings under Section 34 of the Act, a Revenue Officer finds that the facts are such as to require detailed investigation, he should leave it to the party who desires that the partition be affirmed to make the formal application contemplated by Section 123.

22. It will be observed that by Section 142, in any case in which land revenue due to an assignee thereof is attached, it thereon becomes the duty of the land-owner or village headman from whom the revenue is due to pay it to the Collector. Under the previous section, all such orders will issue through the Collector, who will therefore be able to give to the Tahsíldár the necessary orders for the collection of the attached revenue.

RELATING TO BOTH ACTS.

23. In respect of proceedings pending on the 1st November 1887, when these two Acts come into force, attention is invited to Section 6 of the General Clauses Act, I of 1868. All such proceedings are governed by the Acts which have been repealed and not by the new Acts.

24. It is not at present contemplated to frame any rules under Sections 88 and 93 of the Tenancy Act for regulating the procedure of Revenue Courts. But rules under Section 85 of the Tenancy Act and under Section 17 of the Land Revenue Act, relating to the procedure of Revenue Officers, will shortly be framed.

25. On the matters dealt with in sub-section 1 of Section 106 of the Tenancy Act, and in sub-section 1 of Section 155 of the Land Revenue Act, other than those referred to in clauses "a," "b" and "g" of those sub-sections, rules will shortly be issued.

26. Attention is invited to the altered nomenclature of Revenue Officers below the class of Commissioners, introduced by Section 6 of the Land

Revenue Act and by Section 75 of the Tenancy Act. The titles hitherto in use, and those which should hereafter be used in their stead in all proceedings under the new Acts, are shown in the following table :—

HITHERTO IN USE.		TO BE USED HEREAFTER.
Reference to cancelled enactment.	Title.	Title.	Reference to new enactment.
Section 2 of Act XXXIII of 1871.	Deputy Commissioner.	Collector of the District.	Section 6 of Land Revenue Act, 1887.

Section 51 of Punjab Courts Act, 1884.	Assistant Commissioner with the powers of a Deputy Commissioner.	Assistant Collector, 1st Grade, with special powers.	Tenancy Act, 1887, Section 77, sub-section 4 (b).
Chapter I of Act XXXIII of 1871; and Section 46 of Punjab Courts Act, 1884.	Assistant Commissioner or Extra Assistant Commissioner.	Assistant Collector, 1st or 2nd Grade (as the case may be).	Land Revenue Act, 1887, Section 6; and Tenancy Act, 1887, Section 75.
Ditto ...	Tahsíldár ...	Tahsíldár ...	Ditto.
		Náib-Tahsíldár ...	Ditto.

27. The translations both of the Tenancy Act and of the Land Revenue Act have been very carefully prepared under the personal supervision of the Financial Commissioners. And the phraseology used in the translation should be adhered to in all Urdu proceedings held under these Acts.

The Indian Law Reports.

PUBLISHED UNDER AUTHORITY.

THE "Indian Law Reports," published under the authority of the Governor-General in Council, appear in monthly parts, published as soon as possible after the first of each month, at Calcutta, Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, and comprise four series,—one for the Calcutta High Court, a second for the Madras High Court, a third for the Bombay High Court, and a fourth for the Allahabad High Court. The cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from each High Court are reported in the series for that High Court. Cases heard by the Privy Council on appeal from Provinces in India not subject to any High Court are reported in the Calcutta Series.

The Calcutta Series is distributed by the Bengal Secretariat; the copies for subscribers registered by Messrs. Thacker, Spink & Co. are distributed by that firm; and the Madras, Bombay and Allahabad Series are distributed direct from Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, respectively.

In supersession of previous advertisements, on and from the 1st January 1885, the terms of subscription and sale will be as follows :—

Terms of subscription, payable annually in advance.

Commissariat Notice—No. 26.

SEALED tenders for the supply to the Western Circle of locally-manufactured Carbolic Powder, from date of commencement to 31st March 1893, at the Commissariat Store Godown, Fort, Lahore, in quantities noted in the memorandum at foot, will be received by the Commissariat Store Officer at Lahore up to noon on the 15th November 1887, and then and there opened in the presence of all parties who may choose to attend.

2. No tenders will be received except on forms obtainable from the Commissariat Store Office at Lahore, which, as well as information required regarding the contract, will be given on application to the Commissariat Store Officer, Lahore, up to 4 o'clock P.M. on the 12th November 1887. No addition or alteration must be made in tender form.

3. Seals of tenderers (unable to write) will not be accepted; they should have their marks verified by witnesses.

4. Covers to be superscribed—"Tender for the supply of locally-manufactured Carbolic Powder."

5. The tender may be in part or for the whole requirement, but the terms of contract must be as noted above, and the rate an average for the whole period. The Commissary-General will also have the power to accept a tender in whole or in part, or to reject a tender without assigning any cause for so doing; but in the event of tender being accepted in part only and the tenderer failing to take up contract, the whole earnest-money deposited will be confiscated.

6. Each tender must be accompanied as earnest-money by Government Promissory Notes duly endorsed to the Commissariat Store Officer, or Stock Note, or Bank of Bengal or Treasury Receipt.*

* The receipt may be for currency notes or cash for Rs. 40.

Tender without earnest-money will not be attended to.

7. Earnest-money will be confiscated if the tenderer withdraws from his tender.

Whatever postage is marked on a letter, post-card, newspaper, packet or parcel, must be paid at once on delivery, after which any complaint of overcharge will be duly attended to.

Complaints.

In all complaints of overcharge or unnecessary delay in delivering letters, the covers bearing the Post Office stamps must be presented for inspection; and when any complaint is preferred against any postman, the number on his badge must be specified.

Registration

Makes the transmission of a letter more secure, but the Post Office is not responsible for loss unless the letter be also insured. Currency Notes or part of a Currency Note, Stamps, Cheques, and the like, must be registered. Registration fee 2 annas in stamps.

Insurance.

Registered letters and parcels can be insured without limit of value. Coin, jewels, &c., must be insured. Rates of insurance are 2 annas up to Rs. 50 of value, 4 annas up to Rs. 100, and 4 annas for every additional Rs. 100. Insurance charge payable in stamps in the case of letters and in cash in the case of parcels.

Value Payable

Parcels, registered letters and book packets can be sent value payable, the value being realized from the addressee and paid to the sender by the Post Office. Limit of value is Rs. 1,000. Value payable can also be insured.

Inland Parcels

May be sent prepaid or unpaid at sender's option. Rates of postage are 4 annas for 20 tolas, 8 annas for 40 tolas, and 4 annas for every additional 40 tolas; postage payable in cash.

Savings Bank.

Floating Deposits are received from 4 annas up to Rs. 500, and interest allowed. Printed rules obtainable at the Post Office.

Inland and Foreign Money Orders.

Remitter of a money order has nothing to do with its transmission to payee; this work is done entirely by the Post Office. When the money order is delivered, the remitter will receive an acknowledgment of its delivery. Maximum limit for a money order is Rs. 150, and the same remitter cannot obtain in one day money orders for more than Rs. 600 in the aggregate drawn on the same office or payable to the same person. Forms of money order application supplied gratis.

British Postal Orders.

British Postal Orders for fixed sums from 1*s.* to £1 available for sale to the public.

Full particulars obtainable at the Post Office.

Stock Notes.

Stock Notes of the following values:—

Rs. 12-8-0, 25-0-0, 50-0-0 and 100-0-0 can be purchased at the Post Office.

Postal Books for sale.

Indian Postal Guide, price	... 4 annas

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE.

CIRCULAR No. 42 OF 1887.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,

(No. 6481.)

Dated Lahore, 21st November 1887.

To

ALL COMMISSIONERS AND DEPUTY COMMISSIONERS IN THE PUNJAB.

Acquisition.

Compensation for land acquired for public purposes.

DOUBTS having arisen as to the interpretation of certain portions of Government of India Resolution No. 1580 of 29th June 1886, Department of Finance and Commerce, published with Financial Commissioner's Circular No. 67 of 1886, attention is requested to the ruling of the Punjab Government contained in the correspondence printed below.

By order, &c.,
D. C. JOHNSTONE,
Offg. Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

(Translated.)

Extract from a letter No. 7413 I., dated the 19th July 1887, from the Examiner, Public Works Accounts, Punjab, to the Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

PARA. 1. In reply to your No. 4103, dated 13th July 1887, I have the honor to point out that the object of the reference made in my No. 6481 I., dated 27th June 1887, was to obtain an authoritative ruling on the following points :—

(I).—Whether under the orders contained in Government of India, Financial Department, Resolution No. 1580, dated 29th June 1886, it is necessary that the officer who takes up land for public purposes, whether he is employed as a special Land Acquisition Officer or not, should himself make all the payments to land-owners, as would seem to be implied by the wording of paragraphs 6, 12 and 14 of the Resolution;

(II).—Whether in making payments on account of land the Form B can be used in vernacular altogether, or whether it is intended by the note on the form that the English form is, in all cases, to be used, but that the payee's acknowledgment can be taken on it in vernacular when he is unable to write in English. * * * * *

Extract from a letter No. 596-4458, dated the 5th August 1887, from the Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab, to the Junior Secretary to Government, Punjab.

Examiner of Public Works Accounts' No. 6481, dated 27th June 1887, in original.
Copy of this office No. 4103, dated 13th July 1887.
Examiner of Public Works Accounts' No. 7413, dated 19th July 1887.

I AM directed to forward the correspondence marginally noted, and to request that an authoritative ruling may be obtained on the points raised by the Examiner of Public Works Accounts, Punjab. * * * * *

Extract from a letter No. 623, dated the 12th September 1887, from the Under-Secretary to Government, Punjab, Revenue Department, to the Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

PARA. 1. I am desired to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 596, dated 5th of August 1887. * * * *

2. In reply I am to say that the Lieutenant-Governor is of opinion that, while the Land Acquisition Officer or Collector, as the case may be, is responsible for the preparation of the prescribed forms, the collection of vouchers and their transmission to the proper account officer, and should, when practicable, endeavour to make the payments of compensation himself, and on the spot, there is no objection to payments being made through Tahsíldárs to the persons receiving where this will save these persons unnecessary journeys to head-quarters or the officer's camp. In the latter case the officer, when he is a special officer, and not the Collector, must arrange to place the Tahsíldár in funds to make the payments.

3. As regards the second point upon which a reference has been made by the Examiner of Accounts, I am to say that in His Honor's opinion where the payee does not know English and the officer making the payment does, the body of the receipt should be in English, but it may be signed in the vernacular of the payee, or in Urdu, and attested by his mark. Where neither the payee nor the officer knows English, the whole receipt may be in the vernacular.

NOTIFICATIONS.

The 17th November 1887.

No. 153.—Furlough.—Pír Usmán Khán, Tahsíldár of the Sadr Tahsíl, Jhang District, is granted one year's furlough, with effect from 16th December 1887, or such subsequent date as he may avail himself of the same.

No. 154.—Appointment.—Ishar Singh, Náib-Tahsíldár of the Chunian Tahsíl in the Lahore District, is appointed to Officiate as Tahsíldár of the Sadr Tahsíl in the Jhang District, vice Pir Usmán Khán, Tahsíldár, granted one year's furlough.

PUNJAB PUBLIC LIBRARY.

A MEETING of the Committee of the Punjab Public Library was held at the Library on Saturday, November 19th, 1887.

The following members were present:—

Colonel E. G. Wace, President, in the Chair.
Dr. T. E. B. Brown.
Bábu Partul Chandra Chatterji, M. A., B. L.
Dr. Brij Lál Ghose.
Mr. T. C. Lewis, M. A., Secretary.

1. The accounts for July, August, September and October were examined and passed.

2. An increase of Rs. 10 to the salary of Lála Kirpa Rám, the Librarian, was voted; and it was resolved that the question of any further increase to his pay should be considered after two years. An extra Re. 1 per mensem was ordered to be given to the chaprasi who is in charge of the lamps and lighting of the Library.

3. Read an application from Pandit Jwála Datt Parshád, Life Member of the Punjab Public Library, to nominate another person as life member in consideration of his own donations of books exceeding Rs. 200 value, in according to his estimate.

Resolved that the Pandit be informed that Committee has no power under the present rules to accede to his request.

4. A gift of books from Mr. Coldstream, C. S., was accepted, and the thanks of the Committee were ordered to be conveyed to him.

5. Resolved that, when books are presented with the object of entitling the donor to Life Membership, those only will be accepted which are not already in the Library.

6. Read a letter from Colonel Millett, with the proposal that the Committee should take charge of some of his books, with a view to making them available to the public, but that he should retain his proprietary right to them.

Resolved that the Committee cannot incur the responsibility of the safe custody of books offered on these conditions, and that Colonel Millett be referred to Rule 17 of the Constitution and Committee of the Library, where the only condition that can be made by a donor of books is indicated.

7. Resolved that the General Meeting of the Life Members and Committee shall be held on Tuesday, December 13th, at 6 P. M., in the Library. (At this meeting two members of Committee, to represent the Life Members, will be elected. The present representative members are Bábu Partul Chandra Chatterji and Sheikh Nának Bakhsh, who are eligible for re-election.)

8. Resolved that Government be asked to nominate Mr. Channing, C. S., Divisional Judge of Lahore, as a Member of the Punjab Public Library Committee.

9. Resolved that the Senate of the Punjab University be asked to nominate a member of Committee in succession to Dr. Stulpnagel, who has vacated his membership on going on furlough.

10. The following private donations were announced and accepted with the thanks of the Committee:—

F. LARPENT,

Registrar, Punjab University.

RULES OF THE PUNJAB PUBLIC LIBRARY.

I.—CONSTITUTION AND COMMITTEE.

1. The Committee shall consist of not less than 14 members including the President and Secretary.

2. The Deputy Commissioner of Lahore and the Director of Public Instruction, Punjab, shall be ex-officio members.

3. The Municipality of Lahore, the Punjab University, the Bishop of Lahore, and the Committee of the Lahore and Meean Meer Institute shall each nominate a member.

4. The life members shall annually elect two members to be on the Committee for one year.

5. The remaining members will be nominated by Government, who will also appoint the President.

6. The Committee shall appoint its own Secretary.

7. Standing Sub-Committees shall be appointed by the Committee to carry on the management of the different departments of the Library.

8. The Secretary shall be a member of every Sub-Committee.

9. A meeting of the Committee shall be held on the 1st Monday in every month.

Five members shall form a quorum.

10. A special meeting of the Committee may be called by the President or a Sub-Committee at a week's notice.

11. A general meeting of the life members and Committee shall be held once a year in the month of December, and at the meeting the two annual members to represent the life members shall be elected. Absent life members may vote at the election by proxy.

12. The current business of the Committee to be brought up at each monthly meeting shall include the examination of the accounts, of the suggestion books, of orders to book-sellers, of breaches of the rules, &c.

13. The funds shall be kept in the name of the Punjab Public Library by the Bank of Bengal, or as the Committee may from time to time direct.

14. All cheques shall be signed by the Secretary and a member of the Committee appointed by it for the purpose.

15. Expenditure on fixed charges, for which sanction already exists, and on contingencies up to a limit of Rs. 50 a month, may be incurred on the joint authority of the persons empowered to sign cheques. All other expenditure requires the previous sanction of the Committee.

16. A donation of money of Rs. 100 or upwards, or of books accepted by the Committee and valued by them as worth not less than Rs. 100, shall entitle the donor to the privileges of a life member.

17. Any donor of books may make it a condition of the donation that any of the books he gives shall not be lent out except to himself.

18. Life members shall be exempt from payment of deposits, subscriptions and other fees required by the rules.

II.—THE READING-ROOM.

1. The Reading-Room is open to the public free of charge.

2. Books may not be removed from the shelves by any one except the Librarian.

3. Catalogues and application forms are on the table. The Librarian will get any book for which a form is handed to him; and books must be returned to him before leaving.

4. The Committee will exclude from the building persons who disregard any rules or who damage the property of the Library.

5. CLOSED DAYS:—Queen's Birthday, also from 1st to 7th October, and from 1st to 7th April inclusive.

6. DAILY HOURS:—In the winter 8 A.M. to noon and 3 to 8 P.M., and in the hot weather 7 to 11 A.M. and 4 to 8 P.M., and on Sunday 2 to 5 P.M.

III.—RULES FOR LENDING OUT BOOKS.

Books will be issued on the following conditions:—

1. An applicant must deposit Rs. 10 with the Secretary. The deposit will be liable to forfeit for injury or loss of a book, or for breach of any of the rules.

2. An annual subscription of Rs. 5 must be paid in advance, which may be compounded for by a donation of Rs. 25.

3. Not more than six volumes may be kept out on one subscription.

4. Residents at Lahore or Meean Meer shall return within 20 days every book so taken out. To residents at other places ten days longer will be allowed. But all books lent out must be returned by the 30th September and 31st March each year.

5. The cost of forwarding books will be recovered by sending them by Value Payable Post. Any charges due under Rules 1 and 2 may be added.

6. Books may not be transferred from one person to another.

7. The Committee will reserve from issue, under these rules, new or valuable books, at their discretion.

8. Forms of application for books can be supplied, and their use is requested, but is not obligatory.

9. Deposits under Rule 1 (if free of claims) will be returned on request to persons who have no books of the Library in their possession.

Admission to the College.

Relatives of Ruling Chiefs and youths of good family between the ages of eight and eighteen are eligible for admission to the College.

Course of Study.

The Institution contains a High, Middle, Upper Primary and Lower Primary Department, with two classes in each Department. The course of study leads at present to the Entrance Standard of the Punjab University. Special provision is made for imparting a good colloquial knowledge of English, and the students have the benefit of being taught from the earliest stages by men of comparatively high attainments. Arrangements will be made when necessary for extending the course of instruction to the standard of the Intermediate Examination of the Punjab University.

Fee for lodging and education, books and stationery, lighting, medical attendance and College servants, Rs. 50 per mensem.

The ordinary fee may, with the sanction of the Committee, be reduced by the Governor, but not below Rs. 25 per mensem.

Fees for Wards of Court are fixed under the orders of the Punjab Government.

All fees and the sums necessary for the personal expenses of pupils must be paid quarterly in advance to the Governor.

Day Students.

A limited number of day students may be admitted on payment of ordinary fees, provided satisfactory arrangements are made for their board and lodging and supervision out of College.

Scholarships.

Arrangements are in progress for the foundation of scholarships tenable by intelligent youths of good family who cannot afford to pay the fees, and two such scholarships, each sufficient to cover the cost of fees, have been already founded.

Progress Report.

A full report of the progress of each student will be submitted half-yearly by the Governor to the Committee, and a copy will be furnished to the parent or guardian by the Committee.

Copies of the Statutes containing full information regarding the rules and regulations of the Aitchison College can be had on application to the Governor.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE.

CIRCULAR No. 43 OF 1887.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE :

Dated Lahore, 5th December 1887.

To

ALL COMMISSIONERS AND DEPUTY COMMISSIONERS IN THE PUNJAB.

Attention drawn to the rules for the supervision and control of Excise Revenue.

RULE 1 of the Rules for the supervision and control of the Excise Revenue appended to Book Circular No. VI of 1874 requires the preparation and submission to the Deputy Commissioner of each district of a monthly statement of collections on account of licenses for retail sale of spirits and fermented liquors.

2. Recent correspondence has shown that in some districts, at all events, the preparation of these statements is regarded as a mere matter of routine, that the facts brought to light by them are not realized by the Deputy Commissioner, and that they are sometimes of little practical use in ensuring the prompt realization of balances.

3. The Financial Commissioner desires to draw the attention of all Deputy Commissioners to the usefulness of these statements as a means of supervising collections and preventing the accumulation of balances, and directs the preparation of similar monthly statements of income from licenses for the sale of opium and intoxicating drugs.

By order, &c.,

IN continuation of Circular No. 48 of 1885, and Circular Memos. Nos. 7862 of 24th November 1886 a 657 of 28th January 1886, the Financial Commissioner directs that t the form of Statement No. V, appended to Circular No. 48 of 18 the following form be substituted. This form should be used for t first quarter (ending 31st December 1887) of the current agricultural year and until further orders. The o additions are those contained in stages 10 and 15.

2 Forms will be supplied by the Director of Settlements and Revenue Records.

3 The Financial Commissioner invites attention to the last entry in this return, showing the number estates in which the annual records and the mutation work of Tahsíldárs and Náib-Tahsíldárs has been tested the Collector and his Assistants. It is of the greatest importance that this testing of the village record work the superior officers should be systematically carried out. Many of the Tahsíldárs and Náib-Tahsíldárs have lit previous experience, and all of them need guidance. And it is only by the continuous attention of the supervisi officers that a sound system of record can be established.

INSTRUCTIONS.

(1). This statement should be sent separately from the other quarterly returns, bearing a despatch number and date, but with no covering docket. It should be forwarded by the Commissioner to the Director of Settlements and Revenue Records, not to the Senior Secretary to the Financial Commissioner.

(2). All remarks relating to the statement, both of the Deputy Commissioner (or Settlement Officer) and of the Commissioner, should be written on the face of the statement, and if necessary continued on the reverse.

(3). In stages 4 to 9, enter the number of estates in which mutations have been attested (whether in whole or part) in black ink, and the total number of mutations attested in red ink under each entry.

(4). Stage 10.—At the end of each quarter the Patwári will report the number of mutations written up in the mutation registers of the estates in his circle, but not attested by the Tahsíldár, Náib-Tahsíldár, &c. All that has to be done is to add up these unattested mutations for each estate.

(5). Stage 11.—Only those estates will be entered which have been entirely remeasured on the prescribed system.

(6). In the quarter ending 30th June it should be expressly stated in the remarks whether all the extra rabi abstracts have been filed or not, as the number of these will usually be less than the whole number of estates.

(7). Entries 15 to 18 are required only when this work is going on.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE.

CIRCULAR No. 44 OF 1887.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,

(No. 6841.)

Dated Lahore, 8th December 1887.

To

ALL COMMISSIONERS AND DEPUTY COMMISSIONERS IN THE PUNJAB.

Rules for examination of Tahsíldárs and Naib-Tahsíldárs in Pashtu.

WITH the approval of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, the Financial Commissioner is pleased to prescribe the following rules for the examination in the Pashtu language of Tahsíldárs and Naib-Tahsíldárs serving in certain Frontier districts. These rules are supplementary to those published with Punjab Government Gazette Notification No. 814, dated the 12th August 1885.

Supplementary rules for the examination of Tahsíldárs and Naib-Tahsíldárs in Pashtu.

1. All Tahsíldárs, and Naib-Tahsíldárs, not being by birth or education natives of districts in which Pashtu is commonly spoken, who may be serving in the districts of Hazára, Pesháwar, Kohát and Bannu, are required to pass the examination prescribed by Rule XII of the rules published with Punjab Government Gazette Notification No. 814, dated 12th August 1885.

2. The time within which officers mentioned in Rule 1 will be required to pass the examination shall be two years from the date of their appointment to the post of Tahsíldár or Naib-Tahsíldár in one of the districts named, but may be extended in special cases to three years.

3. Failing to pass the examination within the prescribed time, the officers mentioned in Rule 1 may, if Tahsíldárs, be reduced in their grade or to a lower grade, and, if Naib-Tahsíldárs, be reduced to an inferior appointment; or, whether Tahsíldárs or Naib-Tahsíldárs, be otherwise dealt with as the Financial Commissioner may direct.

4. Superintendents of the Vernacular Branch and Head Clerks of the English Branch of a Deputy Commissioner's office in the districts of Hazára, Pesháwar, Kohát, Bannu, and Dera Ismail Khan will be permitted to present themselves for the examination mentioned in Rule XII, but they will not be allowed any reward for passing the examination.

By order, &c.,

D. C. JOHNSTONE,

(Translated.) Offg. Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

CIRCULAR No. 45 OF 1887.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,

(No. 6909.) Dated Lahore, 12th December 1887.

To

ALL REVENUE OFFICERS IN THE PUNJAB.

Section 56 of the Patwári Rules and Circular 36 of 1886 cancelled.

THE Financial Commissioner invites attention to the repeal of Section 21 of the Punjab Laws Act, 1872, by Section 2 of Punjab Land Revenue Act of 1887. Pursuant to this repeal, Section 56 of the Patwári Rules and Circular 36 of 1886 are hereby cancelled.

2. It is no longer incumbent on Courts to furnish to the Collector copies of decrees relating to land. Such mutations as result from those decrees will be dealt with in the manner prescribed by Sections 34 and 35 of the Punjab Land Revenue Act of 1887.

By order, &c.,

R. E. YOUNGHUSBAND,

(Translated.) Offg. Senior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

CIRCULAR MEMO. No. 36 OF 1887.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,

(No. 6910.) Dated Lahore, 12th December 1887.

To

ALL COMMISSIONERS AND DEPUTY COMMISSIONERS IN THE PUNJAB.

Acquisition.

Cancellation of Circular Memo. No. 3245, dated 11th April 1883.

THIS office Circular Memo. No. 3245, dated 11th April 1883, requiring the addition of a column headed "Boundaries" to the form of Notification for acquisition of land for a public purpose, under Section 6 of Act X of 1870, is cancelled.

By order, &c.,

D. C. JOHNSTONE,

Offg. Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

CIRCULAR MEMO. No. 37 OF 1887.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,

(No. 6941.) Dated Lahore, 13th December 1887.

To

ALL COMMISSIONERS AND DEPUTY COMMISSIONERS IN THE PUNJAB.

Applications for sale of land should be submitted in new form.

FROM the files of leases relating to sale of land in execution of decrees which have lately come up for sanction the Financial Commissioner has observed that some District Officers submit applications for sale of land in the old form, appending thereto the forms prescribed by Chief Court Circular No. VI of 21st May last, in vernacular only, and in many cases these forms are not even signed. Other officers submit both the old and new forms, but record their recommendations in the old form.

2. It is requested that in future the forms prescribed by the Circular quoted above should alone be used for applications for sale of land. They should be prepared in English, and the recommendations of the officer concerned should be recorded below statement No. 3 or on the succeeding pages thereof, as required by the note printed at the foot of the statement.

By order, &c.,

D. C. JOHNSTONE,

Offg. Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

2.—ADMISSION TO THE COLLEGE.

1. Candidates are not ordinarily admitted below the age of 16 and above the age of 20; but—

   (a) Students who have passed the Intermediate Examination in Arts in the Punjab University or the First Arts in one of the other Indian Universities are admitted up to the age of 23.

   (b) Female students are admitted up to the age of 30.

2. Applications for admission must be made to the Principal on or before the 26th April, and must be accompanied by the following certificates:—

   (a) Certificate of having passed the Entrance Examination of the Punjab University, taking English and Urdu as two of the subjects, or the Entrance Examination of one of the other Indian Universities, taking Urdu or Persian as one of the subjects.

   This certificate is not obligatory in the case of female candidates.

   (b) Certificate of respectability signed by an officer of Government not below the rank of Tahsíldár serving in the district in which the candidate ordinarily resides, or by some other authority satisfactory to the Principal.

3. Female candidates who are unable to produce the certificate mentioned in rule 2 (a) must pass in examination conducted under the direction of the Principal in English, reading and writing from dictation, and in colloquial Urdu.

4. A fee at the rate of Rs. 2 per mensem will be levied from each student, but the Principal may admit students at half-rates on the score of poverty up to a limit of five per cent. on the total number on the rolls of the College, and may excuse all fees on the same grounds up to a limit of another five per cent. on the same total.

3.—EXAMINATIONS.

1. Examinations are of three kinds: Weekly Examinations, Sessional Examinations and University Examinations.

2. Weekly Examinations are held after every five lectures by each Professor on the subjects of the five preceding lectures. They are oral, and marks are given at each examination from 0 to 4.

3. Sessional Examinations are held at the end of each summer and winter session in the first, second and fourth years, and summer of the third and fifth years, in the subjects lectured on during the preceding session.

These examinations are written, and each Professor examines in his own subject.

Marks are awarded so as, with the Weekly Examinations, to make in—

(b) each other subject 300 marks.

4. University Examinations are two in number—(a) the first examination; and (b) the final examination.

These examinations are both written and oral, and are conducted by Examiners unconnected with the College, and appointed by the Senate of the Punjab University.

For particulars as to these examinations the Registrar of the Punjab University should be consulted.

5. The first University Examination is held at the end of the winter session of the third year.

Students who fail in two or more subjects are not allowed to begin the fourth year's course of studies till they pass in all the subjects.

Students who fail in only one subject are allowed to begin the fourth year's course but must pass in that subject before beginning the fifth year's course.

6. The final University Examination is held at the end of the winter session of the fifth year.

4.—COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIPS.

1. College Scholarships are classed as—

(a) Entrance Scholarships, or those tenable during the first year;

(b) Junior Scholarships, or those tenable during the second, third and fourth years;

(c) Senior Scholarships, or those tenable during the fifth year.

2. Entrance Scholarships are 6 in number, and of the value of Rs. 12 per month each. They are awarded on the results of the Arts Examinations of the Punjab and Calcutta Universities as shown in the class lists, that is to say, students who have passed a higher examination in Arts are preferred to those who have passed a lower examination, and among students who have passed the same examination in Arts preference is given to those who stand highest on the list.

3. Junior Scholarships are 18 in number, and of the value of Rs. 14 per month each. They are tenable by students of the second, third and fourth years, and are awarded according to the aggregate marks obtained in all the examinations of the year immediately preceding.

4. Senior Scholarships are 6 in number, and of the value of Rs. 18 per month each. They are awarded according to the aggregate marks obtained in all the examinations of the fourth year.

5. A deduction of Rs. 2 a month will be made from each of the above scholarships when held by a student who in the University Entrance Examination was classed lower than the 1st Division, and who has not subsequently passed a higher examination in Arts. In case of such students the value of the scholarships after the deduction above referred to will be Rs. 10, Rs. 12 and Rs. 16 respectively.

6. An addition will be made to each of the above scholarships on the following scale when held by a student who in the University Arts Examination was classed in the 1st Division of the Intermediate or First Arts Examination or who has passed higher Examinations:—

ARTS EXAMINATION PASSED.		Addition to Scholarships.
		Rs.
Bachelor Degree	First Division	14
	Lower "	8
Intermediate or First Arts	First Division	4
	Lower "	Nil.

7. According, therefore, to the University Arts Examinations passed by students the scale of scholarships will be the following :—

SCHOLARSHIPS OBTAINABLE.	IF STUDENT HAS PASSED UNIVERSITY ARTS.
	Entrance Examination.		Intermediate or First Arts Examination.		Bachelor Degree.
	Lower Division.	1st Division.	Lower Division.	1st Division.	Lower Division.	1st Division.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Entrance Scholarships	10	12	12	16	20	26
Junior "	12	14	14	18	22	28
Senior "	16	18	18	22	26	32

8. College Scholarships are held subject to the rules contained in Chapter VII of the Education Code relating to Public Scholarships so far as such rules are applicable. For the purposes of these rules the Principal of the College shall exercise the powers of the Director of Public Instruction.

9. Students not ordinarily resident in the Punjab are not eligible for College Scholarships.

10. Applications for Entrance Scholarships must be made to the Principal on or before the 26th April.

11. The Punjab Government gives annually five appointments of Assistant Surgeon to the five best students of the year who pass the Final Examination, provided they are pronounced physically fit for the service.

5.—GREY-BAHAWALPUR SCHOLARSHIPS.

1. In the year 1879, a sum of Rs. 10,000 was presented to the College by His Highness the Nawáb of Baháwalpur, in honor of Colonel L. J. H. Grey, C.S.I. The interest of this fund, as far as it will go, is devoted annually to scholarships awarded in the same way and held under the same conditions as College Scholarships.

2. These scholarships are tenable primarily in the College, but if not taken up in the College, the Principal may allot them to the school.

3. They are open, in the first instance, to students in the College, or pupils in the School, as the case may be, who are residents of the Baháwalpur State. But if there are no fit students or pupils from the Baháwalpur State, residents of the Punjab may receive the scholarships.

4. Holders of these Scholarships must sign an agreement, a copy of which can be obtained from the Principal.

6.—SCHOLARSHIPS FOR FEMALE STUDENTS.

1. In addition to the College Scholarships, six Scholarships of the same value and under the same conditions will be given to female students who pass the Entrance or Higher Examination in Arts in any Indian University.

2. Female students who have not passed the Entrance Examination of an Indian University will receive stipends of the same value and under the same conditions as female pupils in the School.

7.—NORTH WESTERN PROVINCES STIPENDS.

1. Two stipends, each of the value of Rs. 15 a month, tenable in the College, are given by the Government of the North-Western Provinces to students belonging to the North-Western Provinces and Oudh.

2. Candidates for these stipends must send in their names, on or before the 1st of April, to the Inspector-General of Civil Hospitals, North-Western Provinces and Oudh, at Lucknow, and their applications must be accompanied by the following papers :—

(a) Certificate of having passed the Entrance Examination or First Arts Examination of the Calcutta University, taking Urdu or Persian as one of the subjects, or the Entrance Examination or First Arts Examination of the Punjab University, taking English and Urdu as two of the subjects.

(b) The usual certificate of fitness for the service.

(c) A certificate of character from the Principal of the College in which the candidate was educated.

(d) A descriptive roll in the accompanying form :—

Descriptive Roll of a Candidate desirous of being admitted into the Lahore Medical College.

NAME.	AGE.			Caste.	Father's name and occupation.	Residence.	Where educated.	Place of birth.	Passed University Examination in English in Division.	Second language.	REMARKS.
	Years.	Months.	Days.

To be signed by a person of well-known respectability.

3. The Government of North-Western Provinces gives annually one appointment of Assistant Surgeon to the best student of the year from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh who passes the Final Examination, provided he is pronounced to be physically fit for service.

4. Candidates who have passed the First Arts Examination of the Calcutta University, or of the Punjab University, will have preference over those who have only passed the Entrance Examination, and the former will be admitted into the Lahore College up to the age of 23 years instead of the limit of 20 years fixed for the latter.

8.—LOCAL STIPENDS.

1. Local stipends of varying value, tenable in the College, are paid through the Principal from the District Funds of the districts noted in the margin.

Lahore.
Jullundur.
Amritsar.
Patiála.

2. Holders of these stipends are allowed to compete for College Scholarships and appointments at the prescribed examinations.

3. Holders of these Scholarships are required to sign an agreement, a copy of which may be obtained from the Principal.

Dr. Brij Lál Ghose, Rai Bahádar.

Bábu Pratul Chandra Chatterji, M.A., B.L.

T. C. Lewis, Esquire, M.A., Secretary.

1. The monthly accounts for November were examined and passed.

2. The Secretary was directed to make the most advantageous arrangements for the supply of brass strips for the almirahs; an offer having been made to supply them of the same quality as those now in use, at 6 annas a foot, instead of 7 annas, the price now paid.

3. Resolved that spare or duplicate works be disposed of, if possible, by sale to other Institutions or to private individuals; if a book cannot fetch any price, it is to be placed at the disposal of any other Institution where it may possibly be of any use; books not capable of being disposed of in either of these ways may be sold as waste paper.

4. List of books presented to the Public Vernacular Library established by Maulvi Muhammad Hosein Azád, near the Delhi Gate of the city, was approved by the Committee.

5. Resolved that Mr. S. E. Wheeler be requested to purchase in London for the Library any books not already in the Library that he thinks may be useful, if he has an opportunity of purchasing them cheaply, up to a limit of £10 per annum.

6. Resolved that all books ordered from England be sent out bound.

7. The incorporation of Resolution 5 of November 19th, 1887 (vide Proceedings of Committee, November 19th, 1887) in the Rules was ordered by the Committee.

8. Read a letter from Lieutenant C. Archer with regard to the loss of books returned by him to the Library through the Post, in which he asks whether the Committee wish the books to be replaced or will accept a money payment in their stead.

Resolved that Lieutenant Archer be asked to replace the missing books.

9. The Committee was of opinion that books returned to the Library from out-stations should be insured and transmitted by Post, and that if not so insured any loss should be at the cost of the person returning them.

10. The offer of Pandit Jwála Datt Parshád to lend certain valuable books to the Library on condition that they are not taken out except by himself was considered, and it was resolved that the offer should only be accepted if the books were kept in the Library at the owner's risk, and if he supplied a separate catalogue with the books.

11. Resolved that the foregoing resolution be communicated to Colonel Millett with reference to his offer laid before the meeting of November 19th, 1887 (Resolution No. 6), and that it be made generally applicable to similar offers in future.

12. Private donation :—

Pandit Jwála Datt Parshád, Goswámi, one book.

13. New life member :—

The Hon'ble J. B. Lyall, C.S., Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab and its Dependencies.

14. New subscribers :—

Colonel J. E. Waller.

Colonel E. Sartorius.

Surgeon-Major J. W. Johnston, M.D.

THE annual general meeting of the Life Members and Committee was held at the Punjab Public Library at 6 P.M. on 13th December 1887.

PRESENT :—

Rája Harbans Singh (in the Chair).

Rái Bahádar Kanhya Lál, M.I.C.E.

BOOK CIRCULAR No. X—4070.

FROM

T. GORDON WALKER, ESQUIRE,

Registrar, Chief Court, Punjab,

To

ALL CRIMINAL COURTS IN THE PUNJAB.

Dated Lahore, 23rd November 1887.

THE attention of all Criminal Courts concerned is directed (a) to the annexed Notification publishing rules under Section 549, Criminal Procedure Code, respecting the delivery to the Military authorities of persons charged with offences under Section 41 of the Army Act, 1881, for which they are liable to be tried by court-martial; and (b) to the Government of India letter No. 1693, dated 24th October 1887, in which it is pointed out that the rules are not applicable to persons subject to the Indian Articles of War.

By order, &c.,

(Translated.)

T. GORDON WALKER,

Registrar.

(a). Notification, Government of India, Home Department, No. 1222, dated 27th July 1887.

THE following rules have been made by the Governor-General in Council, under Section 549 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, respecting the delivery to the Military authorities of persons charged with offences under Section 41 of the Army Act, 1881, for which they are liable to be tried by court-martial held under that Act :—

I. (1). When a person subject to Military law is accused of an offence for which he is liable under the Army Act, 1881, Section 41, to be tried by a court-martial, a Magistrate shall not proceed to try him, or to issue an order for his trial by jury, or to hold an inquiry into the case as a case triable by the Court of Session or the High Court, unless he is moved to do so by the Military authorities, or is of opinion, for reasons to be recorded in writing, that he ought so to proceed without being moved thereto by those authorities.

(2). When the Magistrate is of opinion that he ought so to proceed without being moved thereto by the Military authorities, he shall give notice of his intention to do so to an officer to whose command the accused person is subject, and shall not, till the expiration of fifteen days from the date of the service of the notice on the officer—

(a) in a summons case, acquit or convict the accused under Section 243, Section 245, Section 247, or Section 248 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, or hear him in his defence under Section 244 of the Code; or,

(b) in a warrant case, frame a charge against the accused under Section 254 of the Code; or

(c) issue an order for the trial of the accused by a jury under Section 451A., sub-section (2), of the Code; or

(d) make an order committing the accused for trial by the Court of Session or the High Court under Section 213 or Section 214 of the Code.

(3). If within the fifteen days, or at any time thereafter before the Magistrate has done or made an act or order specified in clause (2), sub-clause (a), sub-clause (b), sub-clause (c), or sub-clause (d) of this rule, an officer to whose command the accused is subject notifies to the Magistrate that, in the opinion of the Military authorities, the accused should be tried by a court-martial, the Magistrate shall stay the proceedings before himself, and if the accused is in his power, deliver him, together with the statement mentioned in Section 549 of the Code, to the authority prescribed in that section.

II. If, after a Magistrate has been moved by the Military authorities to proceed against a person subject to Military law for an offence for which that person is liable, under the Army Act, 1881, Section 41, to be tried by court-martial, an officer to whose command the person is subject notifies to the Magistrate that, in the opinion of the Military authorities, the accused should be tried by a court-martial, the Magistrate, if he has not, before receiving the notice, done or made an act or order specified in clause (2), sub-clause (a), sub-clause (b), sub-clause (c), or sub-clause (d) of rule 1, shall stay the proceedings before himself, and if the accused is in his power, deliver him, together with the statement mentioned in Section 549 of the Code, to the authority prescribed in that section.

III. If a person who has been delivered by a Magistrate to a Commanding Officer, under rule 1, clause (3), or under rule II, for the purpose of being tried by court-martial, is not brought to trial before a court-martial for the offence of which he is accused or effectual proceedings have not been taken, or have not been ordered to be taken against him, the Magistrate shall report the circumstance—

(a) in cases occurring within the territories administered by the Governor of Fort St. George in Council or by the Governor of Bombay in Council, for the information and orders of the Governor in Council of Fort St. George or of Bombay, as the case may be; and

(b) in other cases, through the Local Government, for the information and orders of the Governor-General in Council.

(b). Copy of a letter No. 1693, dated 24th October 1887, from the Offg. Under-Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, to the Secretary to Government, Punjab.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 240, dated the 8th ultimo, enquiring whether the rules, promulgated by Home Department Notification No. 1222, dated the 27th July last, respecting the delivery to the Military authorities of persons charged with offences under Section 41 of the Army Act, 1881, for which they are liable to be tried by court-martial, are intended to apply to the Native as well as to the British Army.

2. In reply I am to say that the rules in question are applicable only to persons who are subject to the Army Act, 1881, and not to persons subject to the Indian Articles of War, Act V of 1869.

BOOK CIRCULAR No. XI—4080.

FROM

T. GORDON WALKER, ESQUIRE,
Registrar, Chief Court, Punjab,

To

ALL JUDICIAL OFFICERS IN THE PUNJAB AND OTHER PERSONS CONCERNED.

Dated Lahore, 24th November 1887.

As the meaning of the concluding portion of Book Circular No. XII—2128, dated the 29th June 1885, which is embodied in paragraph 16 of Judicial Circular No. CXVII, appears open to doubt, the Judges of the Chief Court have been pleased to substitute for the last paragraph of the Circular the following paragraph :—

"With reference to paragraph 13 of Book Circular XVI of 1884, notice is hereby given that in future the power of exemption reserved by this Court will ordinarily be confined to granting exemption from attendance at the Law Lectures; and, save in very exceptional cases, no exemption will be granted from any examination prescribed as a preliminary or final test for admission to any examination in Law held under the Rules of the Punjab University as for the time being approved by the Court."

The second sentence of paragraph 16 of Judicial Circular No. CXVII should be considered as amended accordingly.

By order, &c.,
T. GORDON WALKER,
Registrar.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE.

CIRCULAR MEMO. No. 38 OF 1887.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,

(No. 6973.)

Dated Lahore, 14th December 1887.

To

ALL COMMISSIONERS IN THE PUNJAB.

Report called for in regard to certain unpassed Náib-Tahsíldárs.

IT having been brought to notice that there are about 15 Náib-Tahsíldárs who have not passed the Tahsíldárs' Examination, but who are nevertheless retained in office contrary to the rule laid down in paragraph 7 of Appendix II of Directions to Collectors, the Financial Commissioners, with the sanction of Government, request Commissioners to submit a report on the case of each of these unpassed Náib-Tahsíldárs.

2. The Financial Commissioners are prepared to treat the case of each of these unpassed officers according to its merits. In the case of a Náib-Tahsíldár of long standing and approved merit, a recommendation may be made for his exemption from examination. In the case of junior and less efficient Náib-Tahsíldárs, the passing of the usual examination will be insisted on, and sufficient time will be allowed for the purpose; but failing success in the examination the Náib-Tahsíldár will be removed to another post, or be otherwise dealt with, as the case may require.

3. Each case should be reported on separately with a view to the issue of orders by the Financial Commissioner of the nature above contemplated. The report should be accompanied by the Náib-Tahsíldár's record of services written up to date.

4. In the case of future appointments to the post of Náib-Tahsíldár it should be clearly understood that no departure from the provisions of paragraph 7 of Appendix II of the Directions to Collectors and of Circular 12 of 1886 can be permitted.

By order, &c.,
D. C. JOHNSTONE,
Offg. Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

2.—ADMISSION TO THE COLLEGE.

1. Candidates are not ordinarily admitted below the age of 16 and above the age of 20; but—

(a). Students who have passed the Intermediate Examination in Arts in the Punjab University or the First Arts in one of the other Indian Universities are admitted up to the age of 23.

(b). Female students are admitted up to the age of 30.

2. Applications for admission must be made to the Principal on or before the 26th April, and must be accompanied by the following certificates:—

(a). Certificate of having passed the Entrance Examination of the Punjab University, taking English and Urdu as two of the subjects, or the Entrance Examination of one of the other Indian Universities, taking Urdu or Persian as one of the subjects.

This certificate is not obligatory in the case of female candidates.

(b). Certificate of respectability, signed by an officer of Government, not below the rank of Tahsíldár, serving in the district in which the candidate ordinarily resides, or by some other authority satisfactory to the Principal.

3. Female candidates who are unable to produce the certificate mentioned in rule 2 (a) must pass in examination conducted under the direction of the Principal in English, reading and writing from dictation, and in colloquial Urdu.

4. A fee at the rate of Rs. 2 per mensem will be levied from each student, but the Principal may admit students at half-rates on the score of poverty up to a limit of five per cent. on the total number on the rolls of the College, and may excuse all fees on the same grounds up to a limit of another five per cent. on the same total.

3.—EXAMINATIONS.

1. Examinations are of three kinds:—Weekly Examinations, Sessional Examinations, and University Examinations.

2. Weekly Examinations are held after every five lectures by each Professor on the subjects of the five preceding lectures. They are oral, and marks are given at each examination from 0 to 4.

3. Sessional Examinations are held at the end of each summer and winter session in the first, second and fourth years, and summer of the third and fifth years, in the subjects lectured on during the preceding session.

These examinations are written, and each Professor examines in his own subject.

Marks are awarded so as, with the Weekly Examinations, to make in—

(a). Botany, Pathology, Hygiene, Comparative Anatomy, and Diseases of Women and Children, 150 marks each;

(b). each other subject, 300 marks.

4. University Examinations are two in number—(a) the first examination, and (b) the final examination.

These examinations are both written and oral, and are conducted by Examiners unconnected with the College, and appointed by the Senate of the Punjab University.

For particulars as to these examinations the Registrar of the Punjab University should be consulted.

5. The first University Examination is held at the end of the winter session of the third year.

Students who fail in two or more subjects are not allowed to begin the fourth year's course of studies till they pass in all the subjects.

Students who fail in only one subject are allowed to begin the fourth year's course, but must pass in that subject before beginning the fifth year's course.

6. The final University Examination is held at the end of the winter session of the fifth year.

4.—COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIPS.

1. College Scholarships are classed as—

(a). Entrance Scholarships, or those tenable during the first year;

(b). Junior Scholarships, or those tenable during the second, third and fourth years;

(c). Senior Scholarships, or those tenable during the fifth year.

2. Entrance Scholarships are 6 in number, and of the value of Rs. 12 per month each. They are awarded on the results of the Arts Examinations of the Punjab and Calcutta Universities as shown in the class lists, that is to say, students who have passed a higher examination in Arts are preferred to those who have passed a lower examination, and among students who have passed the same examination in Arts preference is given to those who stand highest on the list.

3. Junior Scholarships are 18 in number, and of the value of Rs. 14 per month each. They are tenable by students of the second, third and fourth years, and are awarded according to the aggregate marks obtained in all the examinations of the year immediately preceding.

4. Senior Scholarships are 6 in number, and of the value of Rs. 18 per month each. They are awarded according to the aggregate marks obtained in all the examinations of the fourth year.

5. A deduction of Rs. 2 a month will be made from each of the above scholarships when held by a student who in the University Entrance Examination was classed lower than the 1st Division, and who has not subsequently passed a higher examination in Arts. In case of such students the value of the scholarships after the deduction above referred to will be Rs. 10, Rs. 12 and Rs. 16 respectively.

6. An addition will be made to each of the above scholarships on the following scale when held by a student who in the University Arts Examination was classed in the 1st Division of the Intermediate or First Arts Examination, or who has passed higher Examinations:—

Arts Examination Passed.		Addition to Scholarships.
		Rs.
Bachelor Degree ...	First Division	14
	Lower „	8
Intermediate or First Arts ...	First Division	4
	Lower „	Nil.

7. According, therefore, to the University Arts Examinations passed by students the scale of scholarships will be the following:—

Scholarships obtainable.	If student has passed University Arts.
	Entrance Examination.		Intermediate or First Arts Examination		Bachelor Degree.
	Lower Division.	1st Division.	Lower Division.	1st Division.	Lower Division.	1st Division.

Junior „	12	14	14	18	22	28
Senior „	16	18	18	22	26	32

8. College Scholarships are held subject to the rules contained in Chapter VII of the Education Code relating to Public Scholarships, so far as such rules are applicable. For the purposes of these rules the Principal of the College shall exercise the powers of the Director of Public Instruction.

9. Students not ordinarily resident in the Punjab are not eligible for College Scholarships.

10. Applications for Entrance Scholarships must be made to the Principal on or before the 26th April.

11. The Punjab Government gives annually five appointments of Assistant Surgeon to the five best students of the year who pass the Final Examination, provided they are pronounced physically fit for the service.

5.—Grey-Bahawalpur Scholarships.

1. In the year 1879 a sum of Rs. 10,000 was presented to the College by His Highness the Nawáb of Baháwalpur, in honor of Colonel L. J. H. Grey, C.S.I. The interest of this fund, as far as it will go, is devoted annually to scholarships awarded in the same way and held under the same conditions as College Scholarships.

2. These scholarships are tenable primarily in the College, but if not taken up in the College, the Principal may allot them to the School.

3. They are open, in the first instance, to students in the College, or pupils in the School, as the case may be, who are residents of the Bahâwalpur State. But if there are no fit students or pupils from the Bahâwalpur State, residents of the Punjab may receive the scholarships.

4. Holders of these Scholarships must sign an agreement, a copy of which can be obtained from the Principal.

6.—SCHOLARSHIPS FOR FEMALE STUDENTS.

1. In addition to the College Scholarships, six Scholarships of the same value and under the same conditions will be given to female students who pass the Entrance or Higher Examination in Arts in any Indian University.

2. Female students who have not passed the Entrance Examination of an Indian University will receive stipends of the same value and under the same conditions as female pupils in the School.

7.—NORTH-WESTERN PROVINCES STIPENDS.

1. Two stipends, each of the value of Rs. 15 a month, tenable in the College, are given by the Government of the North-Western Provinces to students belonging to the North-Western Provinces and Oudh.

2. Candidates for these stipends must send in their names, on or before the 1st of April, to the Inspector-General of Civil Hospitals, North-Western Provinces and Oudh, at Lucknow, and their applications must be accompanied by the following papers :—

(a). Certificate of having passed the Entrance Examination or First Arts Examination of the Calcutta University, taking Urdu or Persian as one of the subjects, or the Entrance Examination or First Arts Examination of the Punjab University, taking English and Urdu as two of the subjects.

Insured articles exceeding Rs. 1,000 in value will be delivered only at the Post Office window.

Postage.

Whatever postage is marked on a letter, post-card, newspaper, packet or parcel, must be paid at once on delivery, after which any complaint of overcharge will be duly attended to.

Complaints.

In all complaints of overcharge or unnecessary delay in delivering letters, the covers bearing the Post Office stamps must be presented for inspection; and when any complaint is preferred against any postman, the number on his badge must be specified.

Registration

Makes the transmission of a letter more secure, but the Post Office is not responsible for loss unless the letter be also insured. Currency Notes or part of a Currency Note, Stamps, Cheques, and the like, must be registered. Registration fee 2 annas in stamps.

Insurance.

Registered letters and parcels can be insured without limit of value. Coin, jewels, &c., must be insured. Rates of insurance are 2 annas up to Rs. 50 of value, 4 annas up to Rs. 100, and 4 annas for every additional Rs. 100. Insurance charge payable in stamps in the case of letters and in cash in the case of parcels.

Value Payable

Parcels, registered letters and book packets can be sent value payable, the value being realized from the addressee and paid to the sender by the Post Office. Limit of value is Rs. 1,000. Value payable can also be insured.

Inland Parcels

May be sent prepaid or unpaid at sender's option. Rates of postage are 4 annas for 20 tolas, 8 annas for 40 tolas, and 4 annas for every additional 40 tolas; postage payable in cash.

Savings Bank.

Floating Deposits are received from 4 annas up to Rs. 500, and interest allowed. Printed rules obtainable at the Post Office.

Inland and Foreign Money Orders.

Remitter of a money order has nothing to do with its transmission to payee; this work is done entirely by the Post Office. When the money order is delivered, the remitter will receive an acknowledgment of its delivery. Maximum limit for a money order is Rs. 150, and the same remitter cannot obtain in one day money orders for more than Rs. 600 in the aggregate drawn on the same office or payable to the same person. FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE.

CIRCULAR MEMO. No. 39 OF 1887.

FINANCIAL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE :

(No. 7109.)

Dated Lahore, 22nd December 1887.

To

ALL REVENUE OFFICERS IN THE PUNJAB.

Acquisition of landed property by Government servants.

UNDER instructions from Government the Financial Commissioners draw special attention to the orders relating to the possession or acquisition of land by Revenue Officers which are quoted in paragraph 19 of Appendix B of Circular 71 of 1886. These orders apply to all Revenue Officers down to and including Náib-Tahsíldárs, and are appended to this Circular for convenience of reference.

2. The Financial Commissioners also take this opportunity of pointing out the importance of keeping up correct to date the information relating to land held by certain other classes of Revenue officials, for which provision is made in paragraph 2 of the same Circular and in Part II of the character book therein prescribed

3. They further desire Commissioners to ascertain during their inspections that the provisions of paragraph 12 of the Patwári rules relating to the tenure of land by Patwárís are acted up to.

4. Commissioners are also requested to see that the reports required by paragraph 5 of the Government of India's orders of the 13th May 1885 hereto appended are, in the case of Extra Assistant Commissioners and accepted candidates for that post duly furnished to this office for submission to Government.

5. This office Circular No. 28 of 16th August 1887 is hereby cancelled.

By order, &c.,

D. C. JOHNSTONE,

Offg. Junior Secretary to Financial Commissioner, Punjab.

No. 21-801, dated Simla, the 13th May 1885.

From—A. MACKENZIE, Esquire, C S., Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department,

To—The Secretary to Government, Punjab.

IN the course of correspondence with a Local Government, it has been brought to the notice of the Government of India that some misapprehension exists as to the precise scope and proper interpretation of the standing orders which regulate the connection of public servants with land-holding and commercial speculation in India. The Governor-General in Council accordingly considers it desirable, in continuation of Home Department Resolution Nos. 5—224-246, dated 20th February 1884, to frame, for facility of reference on the part of Local Governments and Administrations and Officers serving under them, a brief summary of the existing rules, and of the more important interpretations which have been placed upon certain of them by the Government of India with the approval of Her Majesty's Secretary of State.

Acquisition and possession of landed property intended to be applied to agricultural purposes.

2. Covenanted Civil Servants, Military Officers in Civil employ, and all persons holding Civil offices ordinarily held by covenanted or commissioned officers of the two classes above mentioned are prohibited from acquiring or holding land within the Province in which they are employed or with the administration of which they are concerned, whether that connection be permanent or temporary.* This prohibition does not extend to land occupied merely by buildings for residence and their usual appurtenances.

* To Secretary of State, No. 40, dated 16th June 1873; from Secretary of State, No. 99, dated 26th August 1873 (embodied in Home Department Resolution No. 13-467, dated 13th February 1874).

3. Natives of India appointed under the Statutory Rules are permitted to hold any lands actually in their possession when they enter the service of Government, or which may come into their possession thereafter by inheritance, gift† or devise, provided that full information in respect of such lands is given to the Local Government, which will consider in each case whether the fact of an officer holding any particular lands need be a bar to his employment in the district where these are situated. No fresh purchase of land is, however, allowed on the part of a Statutory Civil Servant without the previous sanction of the Local Government under which he is serving.‡

† i. e., bonâ fide gifts from relatives or near friends.

‡ Home Department Resolution Nos. 11—426-37, dated 17th March 1882; and Circular letter Nos. 26—1095-1104, dated 21st July 1882.
(Despatch from Secretary of State, No. 68, dated 8th June 1882).

4. Uncovenanted officers exercising independent judicial or revenue functions, whether of European, Eurasian or Native descent, are not debarred from acquiring or possessing landed property in British India for agricultural purposes, provided that they must not hold landed property in the districts in which they are employed. Although uncovenanted officers are not precluded from holding land, it is inexpedient that appointments which necessarily confer a considerable amount of power and influence on their occupants, such as those of Munsiff, Deputy Collector, and Tahsíldár, should be filled by persons holding landed property within their jurisdiction.§

§ Despatch from Secretary of State, No. 22, dated 10th August 1861.

5. Officers of all classes (including candidates for office) must be required to make a declaration of the fact of their being in possession of, or of their having acquired, landed property, stating the district within which it is situated, with such other particulars as may be considered necessary, of which registers should be kept by the Local Governments concerned.‖

‖ Despatch from Secretary of State, No. 22, dated 10th August 1861.

6. It is incumbent on the several Local Governments to take care that no officer who may be in possession of landed property in British India or elsewhere, to whatever branch of the service he may belong, shall apply any portion of the time and attention which ought to be devoted to his public duties, whether Civil or Military, to the management of that property, and that longer or more frequent leaves of absence are not permitted on that account.*

* Idem.

Acquisition and possession of landed property in Native States for any purpose.

7. Civil servants and Military officers in the actual service of the Crown in India are prohibited from holding lands in a Native State for any purpose whatever. This prohibition does not extend to land occupied merely by buildings for residence and their usual appurtenances.

Investments other than those in land for the profits of cultivation.

8. With regard to investments other than those in land for the profits of cultivation, officers of every rank and class in the public service are expected to abstain from any investment (though of itself unobjectionable) which interests them privately in affairs or undertakings of the kind with which their public duty is connected.† Subject to this general proviso, there is no objection to Government ‡ servants holding shares in mining or other companies (including agricultural companies) having for their object the development of the resources of the country, provided that they must not take part in the management of any such company, and that they must not be employed in the districts where the operations§ of the company with which they may be connected are carried on. ‖ This latter prohibition must be held to apply sometimes with less, sometimes with greater, force to certain officers connected with the central administrations, uch as Members of the Local Government, Members of the Board of Revenue and their Secretaries; and to indicate the necessity of great circumspection on the part of such officers as to the undertakings with which they become connected in any part of the province in which they are employed.¶

† Paragraph 6 of Despatch from the Government of India to Secretary of State, No. 40, dated 16th June 1873; Despatch from Secretary of State. No. 99, dated 26th August 1873; and Home Department Resolution No. 13-467, dated 13th February 1874.

‡ The Secretary of State has held (a) that the standing orders as to the connection of Government officers with trading companies apply only to gazetted officers of the Covenanted and Uncovenanted Services, and do not apply in the case of clerks and other ministerial officers in Government employ, with regard to whom the supervision of heads of departments should suffice as a check.

§ N.B.—The right of officers, Civil and Military, to hold shares in agricultural companies operating in Native States, is regulated by the same rules as apply to their holding shares in similar companies within British territory.

Despatch from Secretary of State, No. 22, dated the 25th November 1862, paragraph 5.

¶ To Madras Government, No. 1086, dated 10th July 1884.

9. In the matter of taking part in the management of a company, it has been decided that the prohibition was not intended to apply to the participation of Government Officers in the direction of those companies only which are designed to develop the resources of the country, but also to preclude such officers from taking part in the direction of such institutions as banks.†† It has also been held that the prohibition against officers taking part in the management of a company applies‡‡ to public servants on leave equally with those in active service, but that it does not extend§§ to officers who, with the consent of the Government of India, take service under Railway Companies working under concessions from Government, nor does it apply to the management‖‖ of associations which are established bonâ fide for the purpose of mutual supply and not of trade and trade profit (provided in this latter case that the interests of Government do not suffer by the double employment of the officer concerned). Although the prohibition against taking part in the "management" of a company cannot, taken literally, be held to debar an officer from taking part as a promoter or as one of the applicants for registration in the Memorandum of Association, the Governor-General in Council has held that the danger against which the prohibition was aimed, namely, that of official influence being abused or official trust betrayed, is, under such circumstances, not much less than if the officer took part in the management after the company has been started. Government servants are therefore distinctly forbidden to take any part in the promotion or registration of companies.

 Despatch from Secretary of State, No. 73, dated 19th July 1883, paragraph 4.

†† Paragraph 4 of Despatch from Secretary of State, No. 73, dated the 19th July 1883.

‡‡ From Secretary of State, No. 99, dated 7th September 1882.

§§ Resolution of the Public Works Department, Nos. 1650-1672 G., dated 14th December 1882.

Speculation generally.

10. It is a standing order that servants of Government are required to abstain from speculative investments, but no literal definition has been laid down as to the stage at which, or circumstances under which, the holding of land or other valuable property becomes speculative. It is obviously speculative to secure a grant of land supposed to be auriferous with the object of disposing of it hereafter to companies. Habitual speculation by officials has been always held to be an evil; and the Government has reserved ¶¶ to itself full power to deal stringently with the practice whenever it appears to prevail. The general distinction which exists between permanent and speculative investments is sufficiently described in the extract given in the margin from Home Department letter to the Government of Bengal, No. 1495, dated 10th April 1873.

Despatch from Secretary of State, No. 99, dated 26th August 1873.

 The Government of India consider that there exists an essential difference between permanent and speculative investments; that the distinction is one of motive, and that the frequency of a man's purchases and sales may be, and usually is, very good evidence of his motive in effecting them. If an officer habitually buys and sells securities of a value notoriously fluctuating, it is clear that he is addicted to speculation, and he thereby undoubtedly lays himself open to the disapproval of Government, which can be expressed in various ways, and in a degree proportionate to the nature of the dereliction. If he engages in such pursuits to an extent which attracts public notice, and unfavourable remark, so that his integrity or his application to his public duties is discussed and doubted, then he has given rise to a scandal with which the Government will have to deal.

11. The foregoing paragraphs contain a brief summary of the more important orders which have been issued from time to time on the subjects under notice, and the Governor-General in Council trusts that they will serve as a useful guide to Local Governments and Administrations and to Officers serving under them. It should, however, be understood that this summary merely embraces the more important orders, and does not profess to be exhaustive.

No. 18, dated India Office, London, 28th July 1887.

From—Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India,

To—His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor in Council, Fort St. George.

* * * * * * *

2. In the ninth paragraph of his minute, * * * raises a question of some importance regarding the interpretation of the orders of the Government prohibiting members of the Civil Service from acquiring or holding lands for agricultural purposes.—the question, namely, whether * * * * "the interest in land intended to be prohibited is not a mere personal or individual interest, but extends to the acquisition of land for any relative, more particularly sons."

3. It is perhaps not quite clear in what sense the words "for any relative" in the above paragraph were intended to be used. But, taking them in what appears to me to be their ordinary meaning, I am of opinion that the orders of Government do prohibit the acquisition or holding of land for agricultural purposes by a Covenanted Civil Servant for a son or other relative; but that they do not prohibit the acquisition or holding of land for such purposes by a son or other relative, even although the land be acquired with money furnished by the Civil Servant, provided that the money was given as an absolute gift, and that the Civil Servant has boná fide no interest whatever, legal or equitable, in the land or its produce.

2.—ADMISSION TO THE COLLEGE.

1. Candidates are not ordinarily admitted below the age of 16 and above the age of 20; but—

(a) Students who have passed the Intermediate Examination in Arts in the Punjab University or the First Arts in one of the other Indian Universities are admitted up to the age of 23.

(b) Female students are admitted up to the age of 30.

2. Applications for admission must be made to the Principal on or before the 26th April, and must be accompanied by the following certificates :—

(a) Certificate of having passed the Entrance Examination of the Punjab University, taking English and Urdu as two of the subjects, or the Entrance Examination of one of the other Indian Universities, taking Urdu or Persian as one of the subjects.

This certificate is not obligatory in the case of female candidates.

(b) Certificate of respectability, signed by an officer of Government, not below the rank of Tahsíldár, serving in the district in which the candidate ordinarily resides, or by some other authority satisfactory to the Principal.

3. Female candidates who are unable to produce the certificate mentioned in rule 2 (a) must pass an examination conducted under the direction of the Principal in English, reading and writing from dictation, and in colloquial Urdu.

4. A fee at the rate of Rs. 2 per mensem will be levied from each student, but the Principal may admit students at half-rates on the score of poverty up to a limit of five per cent. on the total number on the rolls of the College, and may excuse all fees on the same grounds up to a limit of another five per cent. on the same total.

3.—EXAMINATIONS.

1. Examinations are of three kinds:—Weekly Examinations, Sessional Examinations, and University Examinations.

2. Weekly Examinations are held after every five lectures by each Professor on the subjects of the five preceding lectures. They are oral, and marks are given at each examination from 0 to 4.

3. Sessional Examinations are held at the end of each summer and winter session in the first, second and fourth years, and summer of the third and fifth years, in the subjects lectured on during the preceding session.

These examinations are written, and each Professor examines in his own subject.

Marks are awarded so as, with the Weekly Examinations, to make in—

(a) Botany, Pathology, Hygiene, Comparative Anatomy, and Diseases of Women and Children, 150 marks each ;

(b) each other subject, 300 marks.

4. University Examinations are two in number—(a) the first examination, and (b) the final examination.

These examinations are both written and oral, and are conducted by Examiners unconnected with the College, and appointed by the Senate of the Punjab University.

For particulars as to these examinations the Registrar of the Punjab University should be consulted.

5. The first University Examination is held at the end of the winter session of the third year.

Students who fail in two or more subjects are not allowed to begin the fourth year's course of studies till they pass in all the subjects.

Students who fail in only one subject are allowed to begin the fourth year's course but must pass in that subject before beginning the fifth year's course.

6. The final University Examination is held at the end of the winter session of the fifth year.

4.—COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIPS.

1. College Scholarships are classed as—

(a) Entrance Scholarships, or those tenable during the first year ;

(b) Junior Scholarships, or those tenable during the second, third and fourth years ;

(c) Senior Scholarships, or those tenable during the fifth year.

2. Entrance Scholarships are 6 in number, and of the value of Rs. 12 per month each. They are awarded on the results of the Arts Examinations of the Punjab and Calcutta Universities as shown in the class lists, that is to say, students who have passed a higher examination in Arts are preferred to those who have passed a lower examination, and among students who have passed the same examination in Arts preference is given to those who stand highest on the list.

3. Junior Scholarships are 18 in number, and of the value of Rs. 14 per month each. They are tenable by students of the second, third and fourth years, and are awarded according to the aggregate marks obtained in all the examinations of the year immediately preceding.

4. Senior Scholarships are 6 in number, and of the value of Rs. 18 per month each. They are awarded according to the aggregate marks obtained in all the examinations of the fourth year.

5. A deduction of Rs. 2 a month will be made from each of the above scholarships when held by a student who in the University Entrance Examination was classed lower than the 1st Division, and who has not subsequently passed a higher examination in Arts. In case of such students the value of the scholarships after the deduction above referred to will be Rs. 10, Rs, 12 and Rs. 16 respectively.

6. An addition will be made to each of the above scholarships on the following scale when held by a student who in the University Arts Examination was classed in the 1st Division of the Intermediate or First Arts Examination, or who has passed higher Examinations :—

Arts Examination Passed.		Addition to Scholarships.
		Rs.
Bachelor Degree ...	First Division	14
	Lower "	8
Intermediate or First Arts ...	First Division	4
	Lower "	Nil.

7. According, therefore, to the University Arts Examinations passed by students the scale of scholarships will be the following :—

Scholarships obtainable.	If Student has passed University Arts.
	Entrance Examination.		Intermediate or First Arts Examination.		Bachelor Degree.
	Lower Division.	1st Division.	Lower Division.	1st Division.	Lower Division.	1st Division.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Entrance Scholarships	10	12	12	16	20	26
Junior "	12	14	14	18	22	28
Senior "	16	18	18	22	26	32

8. College Scholarships are held subject to the rules contained in Chapter VII of the Education Code relating to Public Scholarships, so far as such rules are applicable. For the purposes of these rules the Principal of the College shall exercise the powers of the Director of Public Instruction.

9. Students not ordinarily resident in the Punjab are not eligible for College Scholarships.

10. Applications for Entrance Scholarships must be made to the Principal on or before the 26th April.

11. The Punjab Government gives annually five appointments of Assistant Surgeon to the five best students of the year who pass the Final Examination, provided they are pronounced physically fit for the service.

5.—Grey-Bahawalpur Scholarships.

1. In the year 1879 a sum of Rs. 10,000 was presented to the College by His Highness the Nawáb of Baháwalpur, in honor of Colonel L. J. H. Grey, C.S.I. The interest of this fund, as far as it will go, is devoted annually to scholarships awarded in the same way and held under the same conditions as College Scholarships.

2. These scholarships are tenable primarily in the College, but if not taken up in the College, the Principal may allot them to the School.

3. They are open, in the first instance, to students in the College, or pupils in the School, as the case may be, who are residents of the Baháwalpur State. But if there are no fit students or pupils from the Baháwalpur State, residents of the Punjab may receive the scholarships.

4. Holders of these Scholarships must sign an agreement, a copy of which can be obtained from the Principal.

6.—SCHOLARSHIPS FOR FEMALE STUDENTS.

1. In addition to the College Scholarships, six Scholarships of the same value and under the same conditions will be given to female students who pass the Entrance or Higher Examination in Arts in any Indian University.

2. Female students who have not passed the Entrance Examination of an Indian University will receive stipends of the same value and under the same conditions as female pupils in the School.

7.—NORTH-WESTERN PROVINCES STIPENDS.

1. Two stipends, each of the value of Rs. 15 a month, tenable in the College, are given by the Government of the North-Western Provinces to students belonging to the North-Western Provinces and Oudh.

2. Candidates for these stipends must send in their names, on or before the 1st of April, to the Inspector-General of Civil Hospitals, North-Western Provinces and Oudh, at Lucknow, and their applications must be accompanied by the following papers :—

(a) Certificate of having passed the Entrance Examination or First Arts Examination of the Calcutta University, taking Urdu or Persian as one of the subjects, or the Entrance Examination or First Arts Examination of the Punjab University, taking English and Urdu as two of the subjects.

(b) The usual certificate of fitness for the service.

(c) A certificate of character from the Principal of the College in which the candidate was educated.

(d) A descriptive roll in the accompanying form :—

Descriptive Roll of a Candidate desirous of being admitted into the Lahore Medical College.

NAME.	AGE.			Caste.	Father's name and occupation.	Residence.	Where educated.	Place of birth.	Passed University Examination in English in Division.	Second language.	REMARKS.
	Years	Months.	Days.

To be signed by a person of well-known respectability.

3. The Government of North-Western Provinces gives annually one appointment of Assistant Surgeon to the best student of the year from the North-Western Provinces and Oudh who passes the Final Examination, provided he is pronounced to be physically fit or service.

4. Candidates who have passed the First Arts Examination of the Calcutta University, or of the Punjab University, will have preference over those who have only passed the Entrance Examination, and the former will be admitted into the Lahore College up to the age of 23 years instead of the limit of 20 years fixed for the latter.

8.—LOCAL STIPENDS.

1. Local stipends of varying value, tenable in the College, are paid through the Principal from the District Funds of the districts noted in the margin.

Lahore.
Jullundur.
Amritsar.
Patiála.

2. Holders of these stipends are allowed to compete for College Scholarships and appointments at the prescribed examinations.

3. Holders of these Scholarships are required to sign an agreement, a copy of which may be obtained from the Principal.

Making of rules and issue of orders between passing and commencement of Act.

4. Where, by an Act to which this Part applies and which is not to come into force immediately on the passing thereof, a power is conferred on the Governor General in Council or on a Local Government or a High Court to make rules, or to issue orders with respect to the application of the Act, or with respect to the establishment of any Court or office or the appointment of any Judge or officer thereunder, or with respect to the person by whom, or the time when, or the place where, or the manner in which, or the fees for which, anything is to be done under the Act, the power may be exercised at any time after the passing of the Act, but rules or orders so made or issued shall not take effect till the commencement of the Act.

Powers to be exerciseable by the Government from time to time.

5. Any power conferred on the Governor General in Council or on a Local Government by an Act to which this Part applies may be exercised from time to time as occasion requires.

Provisions applicable to making of rules after previous publication.

6. Where, by an Act to which this Part applies, a power to make rules is expressed to be given subject to the condition of the rules being made after previous publication, the following provisions shall apply, namely:—

(1) The authority having power to make the rules shall, before making them, publish a draft of the proposed rules for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby.

(2) The publication shall be made in such manner as that authority deems to be sufficient, or, if the condition with respect to previous publication so requires, in such manner as the Governor General in Council or the Local Government prescribes.

(3) There shall be published with the draft a notice specifying a date at or after which the draft will be taken into consideration.

(4) The authority having power to make the rules, and, where the rules are to be made with the sanction, approval or concurrence of another authority, that authority also, shall consider any objection or suggestion which may be received by the authority having power to make the rules from any person with respect to the draft before the date so specified.

(5) The publication in an official Gazette of a rule purporting to have been made in exercise of a power to make rules after previous publication shall be conclusive proof that the rule has been duly made.

Computation of time.

7. (1) Where a limited time from any date or from the happening of any event is appointed or allowed, by an Act to which this Part applies, for the doing of any act or the taking of any proceeding in a Court or office, and the last day of the limited time is a day on which the Court or office is closed, then the act or proceeding shall be considered as done or taken in due time if it is done or taken on the next day afterwards on which the Court or office is open.

(2) Where, by an Act to which this Part applies, any act or proceeding is directed or allowed to be done or taken in a Court or office on a certain day, then, if the Court or office is closed on that day, the act or proceeding shall be considered as done or taken in due time if it is done or taken on the next day afterwards on which the Court or office is open.

(3) This section does not apply to any act or proceeding to which the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, applies. XV of Provisions as to offences under more than one enactment.

8. Where an act or omission constitutes an offence under two or more enactments of which either or any is an Act to which this Part applies, the offender shall be liable to be prosecuted and punished under either or any of those enactments, but shall not be liable to be punished twice for the same offence.

PART II.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS.

Amendment of section 3 (1), Act I, 1868.

Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill for further shortening the language used in Acts of the Governor-General in Council, and for other purposes, was presented to the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 7th January, 1887.:—

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

WE, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill for further shortening the language used in Acts of the Governor General in Council, and for other purposes, was referred, have considered the Bill and the papers noted on the margin, and have now the honour to submit this our Report.

From Secretary to Chief Commissioner, Assam, No. 2153, dated 7th October, 1886 [Paper No. 1].
From Secretary to Chief Commissioner, Coorg, No. 1904—3946, dated 22nd October, 1886 [Paper No. 2].
From Chief Commissioner, Ajmere-Merwára, No. 1242—690-II, dated 29th October, 1886 [Paper No. 3].
From Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, No. 2936, dated 30th October, 1886, and enclosures [Papers No. 4].
From Under Secretary to Chief Commissioner, Central Provinces, No. 5127—303, dated 11th November, 1886 [Paper No. 5].
From Secretary to Government, North-Western Provinces and Oudh, No. 867—VII-347, dated 16th November, 1886, and enclosures [Papers No. 6].
From Secretary for Berar to Resident, Hyderabad, No. 428G., dated 17th November, 1886 [Paper No. 7].
From Chief Secretary to Government, Bengal, No. 3519J., dated 1st December, 1886, and enclosures [Papers No. 8].
From Secretary to Chief Commissioner, Burma, No. 79—28L., dated 3rd December, 1886 [Paper No. 9].
From Registrar, High Court, Calcutta, No. 2734, dated 8th December, 1886 [Paper No. 10].
From Acting Under Secretary to Government, Bombay, No. 7190, dated 10th December, 1886, and enclosures [Papers No. 11].

2. We have removed the definition of "soldier" from section 3 of the Bill and struck out section 10 which was consequential on that definition. It appears to us that the substance of the definition and section will be more appropriately inserted in the Cantonments Bill, which is now under the consideration of the Government, than in this Bill, which is to be of general application.

The 4th January, 1887.

S. HARVEY JAMES,
Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Act of the Governor-General of India in Council received the assent of His Excellency the Governor-General on the 14th January, 1887, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. II OF 1887.

An Act to amend the Sea Customs Act, 1878, the Excise Act, 1881, and the Indian Tariff Act, 1882.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Sea Customs Act, 1878, the Excise Act, 1881, and the Indian Tariff Act, 1882;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Sea Customs Act, 1878.

Amendment of section 144.

1. (1) In clause (b) of the second paragraph of section 144 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878, there shall be inserted after the word "unless" the word "either", and after the word "destination" the following, namely :—

"or the delivery of the spirit into a warehouse appointed in this behalf by the Local Government having authority at that port".

(2) In the third paragraph of the same section of the same Act the following shall be substituted for the word "paid", namely :—

"so paid or the spirit so delivered."

Amendment of section 146.

2. In section 146 of the same Act, for the word "shall" in each of the two places where that word occurs, the word "may" shall be substituted.

Amendment of section 148.

3. (1) To section 148 of the same Act the following words shall be prefixed, namely :—

"Notwithstanding anything in the Indian Tariff Act, 1882,".

(2) To the same section of the same Act the following shall be added, namely :—

"Provided that the Local Government may authorise the import of such spirit without the payment of that duty at the port of importation when the spirit is to be delivered into a warehouse appointed by the Local Government in this behalf, and the excise-duty thereon is to be paid on the removal of the spirit from a warehouse so appointed."

Amendment of section 151.

4. (1) To section 151 of the same Act the following words shall be prefixed, namely :—

"Notwithstanding anything in the Indian Tariff Act, 1882,". XI of 1882.

(2) After the same section of the same Act the following shall be added, namely :—

"Provided that the Local Government may authorise the import of such spirit without the payment of the differential duty at the port of importation when the spirit is to be delivered into a warehouse appointed by the Local Government in this behalf, and the differential duty is to be paid on the removal of the spirit from a warehouse so appointed."

Excise Act, 1881.

New section substituted for section 23.

5. For section 23 of the Excise Act, 1881, the following shall be substituted, namely :— XXII of 1881.

Spirit and fermented liquor from foreign territory subject to duty.

"23. (1) A person shall not bring into any territory to which this Act extends any spirit manufactured at any place in India beyond the limits of British India, until he has obtained a pass therefor from such officer as the Local Government from time to time appoints in this behalf, and has paid in respect thereof—

"(a) if the Local Government has fixed a duty under clause (a) of section 7 for like spirit manufactured in the part of the territory into which the spirit is to be brought, that duty, or

"(b) if the Local Government has not fixed a duty under that clause for like spirit manufactured in that part, a duty at such rate as the Local Government from time to time prescribes in this behalf, not exceeding the highest rate leviable, under the law for the time being in force, on spirit imported into British India by sea.

"(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) with respect to spirit shall apply to fermented liquor

also, with this modification that the duty to be paid in respect of the liquor shall be the duty leviable on like liquor under the Indian Tariff
XI of 1882. Act, 1882.

"(3) If any question arises as to the duty to be charged on any spirit or fermented liquor under this section, the decision of the Local Government thereon shall be final."

Amendment of section 36.

6. (1) In clause (c) of section 36 of the same Act the words "or fermented liquor" shall be inserted after the words "any spirit".

(2) In the last paragraph of the same section of the same Act the words "or fermented liquor" shall be inserted between the words "the spirit" and the words "together with".

Indian Tariff Act, 1882.

Repeal of portion of preamble.

XI of 1882. 7. In the preamble to the Indian Tariff Act, 1882, the words "and for fixing a maximum duty of excise on spirit manufactured in British India" are repealed.

Addition to section 7.

8. To section 7 of the same Act the following shall be added, namely:—

"Nothing in this section applies to spirit which is exported under bond for excise-duty from one customs-port to another customs-port under the provisions of Chapter XIV of the Sea VIII of 1878. Customs Act, 1878."

Amendment of Second Schedule.

9. In No. 2 of the Second Schedule to the same Act—

(a) "Rs. 5" shall be substituted for "Rs. 4" in the fifth column as the rate of duty to be levied and collected per Imperial Gallon or six quart bottles of "Liqueurs"; and

(b) for the following, namely:—

No.	Names of Articles.	Per	Tariff valuation.	Rate of duty.
*	*	*	*	*
	Spirit when so used in a proportion of twenty per cent. and upwards.	Impl. Gallon or six quart bottles of the strength of London proof.	...	Rs. 4, and the duty to be increased in proportion as the strength of the spirit exceeds London proof.
	Spirit, perfumed, in wood, or in bottles containing more than four ounces.	Ditto .	...
	Spirit, other sorts.	Ditto .	...

there shall be substituted the following, namely:—

No.	Names of Articles.	Per	Tariff valuation.	Rate of duty.
*	*	*	*	*
*	Spirit when so used in a proportion of twenty per cent. and upwards.	Impl. Gallon or six quart bottles of the strength of London proof.	...	Rs. 5, and the duty to be increased or reduced in proportion as the strength of the spirit exceeds or is less than London proof.
	Spirit, perfumed, in wood or in bottles.	Impl. Gallon or six quart bottles.	...	Rs. 7-8.
	Spirit, other sorts.	Impl. Gallon or six quart bottles of the strength of London proof.	...	Rs. 5, and the duty to be increased or reduced in proportion as the strength of the spirit exceeds or is less than London proof.

S. HARVEY JAMES,
Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Act of the Governor-General of India in Council received the assent of His Excellency the Governor General on the 14th January, 1887, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT NO. III OF 1887.

An Act to amend the Indian Evidence Act, 1872.

WHEREAS it is expedient that Revenue-officers should not be compelled to say whence they obtain information with respect to offences against the public revenue ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

New section substituted for section 125 of the Evidence Act.

1. The following section shall be substituted for section 125 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, namely :— I of 1872.

Information as to commission of offences.

"125. No Magistrate or Police-officer shall be compelled to say whence he got any information as to the commission of any offence, and no Revenue-officer shall be compelled to say whence he got any information as to the commission of any offence against the public revenue.

"Explanation.—'Revenue-officer' in this section means any officer employed in or about the business of any branch of the public revenue."

S. HARVEY JAMES,

Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to amend the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, was presented to the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 7th January, 1887 :—

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

WE, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to amend the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, was referred, have considered the Bill and the papers noted on the margin, and have now the honour to submit this our Report.

From Mr. Venkatrao Ramaji Gutikar, Pleader, District Court, Belgaum [Paper No. 1].
From Registrar, High Court, Calcutta, No. 2269, dated 14th September, 1886 [Paper No. 2].

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Act of the Governor General of India in Council received the assent of His Excellency the Governor General on the 11th February, 1887, and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT NO. VI OF 1887.

An Act to amend the Indian Companies Act, 1882.

I of 1882. WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Indian Companies Act, 1882, in manner hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1882. 1. After section 200 of the Indian Companies Act, 1882, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

Insertion of new section after section 200.

"200A. (1) In the distribution of the assets of any company being wound up under this Act, there shall be paid in priority to all other debts—

Priority of debts.

"(a) all revenue, taxes, cesses and rates, whether payable to Her Majesty or to a local authority, due from the company at the date of the commencement of the winding-up, and having become due and payable within the twelve months next before that date;

"(b) all wages or salary of any clerk or servant in respect of services rendered to the company within the two months next before the commencement of the winding-up, not exceeding one thousand rupees for each clerk or servant; and

"(c) all wages of any labourer or workman, not exceeding five hundred rupees for each, whether payable for time or piece-work, in respect of services rendered to the company within the two months next before the commencement of the winding-up.

"(2) The foregoing debts shall rank equally among themselves, and shall be paid in full, unless the assets of the company are insufficient to meet them, in which case they shall abate in equal proportions among themselves.

"(3) Subject to the retention of such sums as may be necessary for the cost of administration or otherwise, the liquidator or official liquidator shall discharge the foregoing debts forthwith, so far as the assets of the company are and will be sufficient to meet them, as and when the assets come into the hands of the liquidator or official liquidator."

2. Having regard to the priority which it is proposed by the Indian Bankruptcy Bill to give in express terms to fiscal debts due from a bankrupt to the Crown, we deem it desirable to give priority in similar terms to like debts due to the Crown from a Company which is being wound up. This saving may not be absolutely necessary in the case of debts due to the Crown (L. R. 9 Ch. D. 469 and 5 Bom. H. C. R. 23); but it is proposed, as in the Bankruptcy Bill, to give to rates and taxes payable to local authorities the same priority as to Crown debts, and in the case of some at least of those rates and taxes an express declaration of their priority will be necessary.

3. The salaries of clerks and servants being paid monthly in this country, we consider it will be sufficient to give priority to those salaries for the same time, namely, two months, as priority is given to wages of labourers and workmen by the Companies Act, 1883 (46 & 47 Vic., c. 28). But we agree with the Bengal Chamber of Commerce, the Calcutta Trades Association and other authorities that in this country it is proper to give priority to the salary of a clerk or servant for a larger sum than in England, and we have proposed to raise to Rs. 1,000 the limit up to which the salary of a clerk or servant is to have priority.

As regards the priority to be given to the wages of labourers and workmen, we propose to follow the Companies Act, 1883, in limiting it to wages in respect of services rendered during the two months before the commencement of the winding up.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Act of the Governor General of India in Council received the assent of His Excellency the Governor General on the 11th February, 1887, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT NO. VII OF 1887.

An Act to prescribe the mode of valuing certain suits for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts with respect thereto.

WHEREAS it is expedient to prescribe the mode of valuing certain suits for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts with respect thereto; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Title.

1. This Act may be called the Suits Valuation Act, 1887.

PART I.

SUITS RELATING TO LAND.

Extent and commencement of Part I.

2. This Part shall extend to such local areas, and come into force therein on such dates, as the Governor General in Council, by notification in the Gazette of India, directs.

Power for Local Government to make rules determining value of land for jurisdictional purposes.

3. (1) The Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, make rules for determining the value of land for purposes of jurisdiction in the suits mentioned in the Court-fees Act, 1870, section 7, paragraphs v and vi, and paragraph x, clause (d). VII of 1870.

(2) The rules may determine the value of any class of land, or of any interest in land, in the whole or any part of a local area, and may prescribe different values for different places within the same local area.

Valuation of relief in certain suits relating to land not to exceed the value of the land.

4. Where a suit mentioned in the Court-fees Act, 1870, section 7, paragraph iv, or Schedule II, article 17, relates to land or an interest in land of which the value has been determined by rules under the last foregoing section, the amount at which for purposes of jurisdiction the relief sought in the suit is valued shall not exceed the value of the land or interest as determined by those rules. VII of 1870.

Making and enforcement of rules.

5. (1) The Local Government shall, before making rules under section 3, consult the High Court with respect thereto.

(2) A rule under that section shall not take effect till the expiration of one month after the rule has been published in the local official Gazette.

Repeal of section 14 of the Madras Civil Courts Act, 1873.

6. On and from the date on which rules under section 3 take effect in any part of the territories under the administration of the Governor of Fort Saint George in Council to which the Madras Civil Courts Act, 1873, extends, section 14 of that Act shall be repealed as regards that part of those territories. III of 1873.

PART II.

OTHER SUITS.

Extent and commencement of Part II.

7. This Part extends to the whole of British India, and shall come into force on the first day of July, 1887.

Court-fee value and jurisdictional value to be the same in certain suits.

8. Where in suits other than those referred to in the Court-fees Act, 1870, section 7, paragraphs v, vi and ix, and paragraph x, clause (d), court-fees are payable ad valorem under the Court-fees Act, 1870, the value as determinable for the computation of court-fees and the value for purposes of jurisdiction shall be the same. VII of 1870.

Determination of value of certain suits by High Court.

9. When the subject-matter of suits of any class, other than suits mentioned in the Court-fees Act, 1870, section 7, paragraphs v and vi, and paragraph x, clause (d), is such that in the opinion of the High Court it does not admit of being satisfactorily valued, the High Court may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, direct that suits of that class shall, for the purposes of the Court-fees Act, 1870, and of this Act and any other enactment for the time being in force, be treated as if their subject-matter were of such value as the High Court thinks fit to specify in this behalf. VII of 1870.

Repeal.

10. Section 32 of the Punjab Courts Act, 1884, is hereby repealed. XVIII of 1884.

PART III.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS.

Procedure where objection is taken on appeal or revision that a suit or appeal was not properly valued for jurisdictional purposes.

11. (1) Notwithstanding anything in section 578 of the Code of Civil Procedure, an objection that by reason of the over-valuation or under-valuation of a suit or appeal a Court of first instance or lower appellate Court which had not jurisdiction with respect to the XIV of 1882.

suit or appeal exercised jurisdiction with respect thereto shall not be entertained by an appellate Court unless—

(a) the objection was taken in the Court of first instance at or before the hearing at which issues were first framed and recorded, or in the lower appellate Court in the memorandum of appeal to that Court, or

(b) the appellate Court is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, that the suit or appeal was over-valued or under-valued, and that the over-valuation or under-valuation thereof has prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit or appeal on its merits.

(2) If the objection was taken in the manner mentioned in clause (a) of sub-section (1), but the appellate Court is not satisfied as to both the matters mentioned in clause (b) of that sub-section and has before it the materials necessary for the determination of the other grounds of appeal to itself, it shall dispose of the appeal as if there had been no defect of jurisdiction in the Court of first instance or lower appellate Court.

(3) If the objection was taken in that manner and the appellate Court is satisfied as to both those matters and has not those materials before it, it shall proceed to deal with the appeal under the rules applicable to the Court with respect to the hearing of appeals; but if it remands the suit or appeal, or frames and refers issues for trial, or requires additional evidence to be taken, it shall direct its order to a Court competent to entertain the suit or appeal.

(4) The provisions of this section with respect to an appellate Court shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to a Court exercising revisional jurisdiction under section 622 of the Code of Civil Procedure or other enactment for the time being in force.

(5) This section extends to the whole of British India, and shall come into force on the first day of July, 1887.

Proceedings pending at commencement of Part I or Part II.

12. Nothing in Part I or Part II shall be construed to affect the jurisdiction of any Court—

(a) with respect to any suit instituted before rules under Part I applicable to the valuation of the suit take effect, or Part II has come into force, as the case may be, or (b) with respect to any appeal arising out of any such suit.

S. HARVEY JAMES,

Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to prescribe the mode of valuing certain suits for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts with respect thereto was presented to the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 28th January, 1887:—

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

WE, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to prescribe the mode of valuing certain suits for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts with respect thereto was referred, have considered the Bill and the papers noted on the margin, and have now the honour to submit this our Report.

From Secretary to Government, Punjab, No. 1259, dated 20th December, 1886, and enclosures [Papers No. 11].
From Registrar, High Court, Calcutta, No. 18, dated 5th January, 1887 [Paper No. 12.]

2. We have divided the Bill into three Parts, of which Part I deals with suits relating to land and Part II with other suits, Part III containing supplemental provisions.

Part I is to be brought into force by notification of the Governor General in Council, and it is proposed that Part II and the material portion of Part III come into force on the first day of July next.

3. We have excepted from the operation of section 8 (section 4 of the Bill as introduced) the suits to which paragraph ix of section 7 of the Court-fees Act relates. In a suit for foreclosure or sale the principal and interest due under the mortgage-deed represent the value of the suit for purposes of jurisdiction, while the value for the computation of court-fees is the principal only.

4. We have added to the Bill a section in the terms of section 32 of the Punjab Courts Act, 1884, and have proposed to repeal that section of that Act.

5. We have so amended section 11 (section 5 of the Bill as introduced) as to give the appellate Court a discretion as to proceeding with an appeal in a suit which was instituted in a Court without jurisdiction as regards the value, and we have made the provisions of the section applicable to an appellate Court apply also to a Court exercising revisional jurisdiction.

*IF we are to have an Act like this (the Bombay authorities do not see the necessity for one, and I entirely agree in their views), it should be either simultaneous with or follow the amending Court-fees Act; because the object of the Act is "to prescribe a simple mode of valuing suits," and that will depend on the rules laid down. These rules cannot be laid down now, because it is said we have no data for framing them, and they will take a long time to collect. If so, there can be no harm, it seems to me, in postponing the passing of the Act until we get all the materials before us. At present we are merely doing some administrative work; the real legislative work will be done by one of the executive departments. To such a procedure I am opposed on principle.

In other respects I agree with my colleagues.

PART IV.

Acts of the Governor General's Council assented to by the Governor General.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Act of the Governor General of India in Council received the assent of His Excellency the Governor General on the 24th February, 1887, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT NO. IX OF 1887.

THE PROVINCIAL SMALL CAUSE COURTS ACT, 1887.

CONTENTS.

The Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887.

(Chapter I.—Preliminary.—Sections 1-4. Chapter II.—Constitution of Courts of Small Causes.—Sections 5-8.)

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to Courts of Small Causes established beyond the Presidency-towns.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to Courts of Small Causes established beyond the local limits for the time being of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Courts of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal and at Madras and Bombay; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India; and

(3) It shall come into force on the first day of July, 1887.

Repeal.

2. (1) The enactments specified in the first schedule are repealed to the extent mentioned in the third column thereof.

(2) But all Courts constituted, limits fixed, places appointed, appointments, declarations and rules made, jurisdiction and powers conferred, forms prescribed, directions given and notifications published under Act No. XI of 1865 (an Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to Courts of Small Causes beyond the local limits of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Courts of Judicature), or under any enactment repealed by that Act, shall, so far as may be, be deemed to have been respectively constituted, fixed, appointed, made, conferred, prescribed, given and published under this Act.

(3) Any enactment or document referring to Act No. XI of 1865 or to any enactment thereby repealed shall, so far as may be, be construed to refer to this Act or to the corresponding portion thereof

Savings.

3. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to affect—

(a) any proceedings before or after decree in any suit instituted before the commencement of this Act; or

(b) the jurisdiction of a Magistrate under any law for the time being in force with respect to debts or other claims of a civil nature, or of Village Munsifs or Village Pancháyats under the provisions of the Madras Code, or of Village Munsifs under the Dekkhan Agriculturists' Relief Act, 1879; or XVII of 187

(c) any local law or any special law other than the Code of Civil Procedure. XIV of 1882

Definition.

4. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context, "Court of Small Causes" means a Court of Small Causes constituted under this Act, and includes any person exercising jurisdiction under this Act in any such Court.

CHAPTER II.

CONSTITUTION OF COURTS OF SMALL CAUSES.

Establishment of Courts of Small Causes.

5. (1) The Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, may, by order in writing, establish a Court of Small Causes at any place within the territories under its administration beyond the local limits for the time being of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of a High Court of Judcature established in a Presidency-town.

(2) The local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court of Small Causes shall be such as the Local Government may define, and the Court may be held at such place or places within those limits as the Local Government may appoint.

Judge.

6. (1) When a Court of Small Causes has been established, the Local Government shall, by order in writing, appoint a Judge of the Court.

(2) The Judge may be the Judge of one Court of Small Causes or of two or more such Courts, as the Local Government directs.

Appointment of times of sitting in certain circumstances.

7. (1) A Judge who is the Judge of two or more such Courts may, with the sanction of the District Court, fix the times at which he will sit in each of the Courts of which he is Judge.

(2) Notice of the times shall be published in such manner as the High Court from time to time directs.

Additional Judge.

8. (1) The Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, may, by order in writing, appoint an Additional Judge of a Court of Small Causes or of two or more such Courts.

(2) The Additional Judge shall discharge such of the functions of the Judge of the Court or Courts as the Judge may assign to him, and in the discharge of those functions shall exercise the same powers as the Judge.

(3) The Judge may withdraw from the Additional Judge any business pending before him.

The Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887.

(Chapter II.—Constitution of Courts of Small Causes.—Sections 9-14. Chapter III.—Jurisdiction of Courts of Small Causes.—Sections 15-16.)

(4) When the Judge is absent, the Additional Judge may discharge all or any of the functions of the Judge.

Suspension and removal of Judges.

9. A Judge or Additional Judge of a Court of Small Causes may be suspended or removed from office by the Local Government.

Power to require two Judges to sit as a bench.

10. The Local Government, after consultation with the High Court, may, by order in writing, direct that two Judges of Courts of Small Causes, or a Judge and an Additional Judge of a Court of Small Causes, shall sit together for the trial of such class or classes of suits or applications cognizable by a Court of Small Causes as may be described in the order.

Decision in case heard by a bench.

11. (1) If two Judges, or a Judge and an Additional Judge, sitting together under the last foregoing section differ as to a question of law or usage having the force of law, or in construing a document the construction of which may affect the merits, they shall draw up and refer, for the decision of the High Court, a statement of the facts of the case and of the point on which they differ in opinion, and the provisions of Chapter XLVI of the Code of Civil Procedure shall apply to the reference.

XIV of 1882.

(2) If they differ on any matter other than a matter specified in sub-section (1), the opinion of the Judge who is senior in respect of date of appointment as Judge of a Court of Small Causes, or, if one of them is an Additional Judge, then the opinion of the Judge sitting with him, shall prevail.

(3) For the purposes of sub-section (2), a Judge permanently appointed shall be deemed to be senior to an officiating Judge.

Registrar.

12. (1) The Local Government may appoint to a Court of Small Causes an officer to be called the Registrar of the Court.

(2) Where a Registrar is appointed, he shall be the chief ministerial officer of the Court.

(3) The Local Government may, by order in writing, confer upon a Registrar, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, the jurisdiction of a Judge of a Court of Small Causes for the trial of suits of which the value does not exceed twenty rupees.

(4) The Registrar shall try such suits cognizable by him as the Judge may, by general or special order, direct.

(5) A Registrar may be suspended or removed from office by the Local Government.

Other ministerial officers.

13. Subject to any enactment for the time being in force and to any orders made by the Local Government in this behalf, the law or practice for the time being applicable to the appointment, punishment and transfer of ministerial officers of a Civil Court of the lowest grade competent to try an original suit of the value of five thousand rupees in that portion of the territories administered by the Local Government in which a Court of Small Causes is established shall, so far as it can be made applicable, apply to the appointment, punishment and transfer of ministerial officers of the Court of Small Causes other than the Registrar, if any, of that Court.

Duties of ministerial officers.

14. (1) The ministerial officers of a Court of Small Causes shall, in addition to any duties mentioned in this Act, or in any other enactment for the time being in force, as duties which are or may be imposed on any of them, discharge such duties of a ministerial nature as the Judge directs.

(2) The High Court may make rules consistent with this Act, and with any other enactment for the time being in force, conferring and imposing on the ministerial officers of a Court of Small Causes such powers and duties as it thinks fit, and regulating the mode in which powers and duties so conferred and imposed are to be exercised and performed.

CHAPTER III.

JURISDICTION OF COURTS OF SMALL CAUSES.

Cognizance of suits by Courts of Small Causes.

15. (1) A Court of Small Causes shall not take cognizance of the suits specified in the second schedule as suits excepted from the cognizance of a Court of Small Causes.

(2) Subject to the exceptions specified in that schedule and to the provisions of any enactment for the time being in force, all suits of a civil nature of which the value does not exceed five hundred rupees shall be cognizable by a Court of Small Causes.

(3) Subject as aforesaid, the Local Government may, by order in writing, direct that all suits of a civil nature of which the value does not exceed one thousand rupees shall be cognizable by a Court of Small Causes mentioned in the order.

Exclusive jurisdiction of Courts of Small Causes.

16. Save as expressly provided by this Act or by any other enactment for the time being in force, a suit cognizable by a Court of Small Causes shall not be tried by any other Court having jurisdiction within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court of Small Causes by which the suit is triable.

The Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887.

(Chapter IV.—Practice and Procedure.—Sections 17-22.)

CHAPTER IV.

PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE.

Application of the Code of Civil Procedure. f 1882.

17. (1) The procedure prescribed in the chapters and sections of the Code of Civil Procedure specified in the second schedule to that Code, as amended by this Act, shall, so far as those chapters and sections are applicable, be the procedure followed in a Court of Small Causes in all suits cognizable by it and in all proceedings arising out of such suits:

Provided that an applicant for an order to set aside a decree passed ex parte or for a review of judgment shall, at the time of presenting his application, either deposit in the Court the amount due from him under the decree or in pursuance of the judgment, or give security to the satisfaction of the Court for the performance of the decree or compliance with the judgment, as the Court may direct.

(2) Where a person has become liable as surety under the proviso to sub-section (1), the security may be realized in manner provided by section 253 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Trial of suits by Registrar.

18. (1) Suits cognizable by the Registrar under section 12, sub-sections (3) and (4), shall be tried by him, and decrees passed therein shall be executed by him, in like manner in all respects as the Judge might try the suits, and execute the decrees, respectively.

(2) The Judge may transfer to his own file, or to that of the Additional Judge if an Additional Judge has been appointed, any suit or other proceeding pending on the file of the Registrar.

Admission, return and rejection of plaints by Registrar.

19. (1) When the Judge of a Court of Small Causes is absent, and an Additional Judge has not been appointed or, having been appointed, is also absent, the Registrar may admit a plaint, or return or reject a plaint for any reason for which the Judge might return or reject it.

(2) The Judge may, of his own motion or on the application of a party, return or reject a plaint which has been admitted by the Registrar, or admit a plaint which has been returned or rejected by him:

Provided that, where a party applies for the return or rejection or the admission of a plaint under this sub-section, and his application is not made at the first sitting of the Judge after the day on which the Registrar admitted, or returned or rejected, the plaint, the Judge shall dismiss the application unless the applicant satisfies him that there was sufficient cause for not making the application at that sitting.

Passing of decrees by Registrar on confession.

20. (1) If, before the date appointed for the hearing of a suit, the defendant or his agent duly authorised in that behalf appears before the Registrar and admits the plaintiff's claim, the Registrar may, if the Judge is absent, and an Additional Judge has not been appointed or, having been appointed, is also absent, pass against the defendant, upon the admission, a decree which shall have the same effect as a decree passed by the Judge.

(2) Where a decree has been passed by the Registrar under sub-section (1), the Judge may grant an application for review of judgment, and re-hear the suit, on the same conditions, on the same grounds and in the same manner as if the decree had been passed by himself.

Execution of decrees by Registrar.

21. (1) If the Judge is absent, and an Additional Judge has not been appointed or, having been appointed, is also absent, the Registrar may, subject to any instructions which he may have received from the Judge or, with respect to decrees or orders made by an Additional Judge, from the Additional Judge, make any orders in respect of applications for the execution of decrees and orders made by the Court of which he is Registrar, or sent to that Court for execution, which the Judge might make under this Act.

(2) The Judge, in the case of any decree or order with respect to the execution of which the Registrar has made an order under sub-section (1), or the Additional Judge, in the case of any such decree or order which has been made by himself and with respect to which proceedings have not been taken by the Judge under this sub-section, may, of his own motion, or on application made by a party within fifteen days from the date of the order of the Registrar or of the execution of any process issued in pursuance of that order, reverse or modify the order.

(3) The period of fifteen days mentioned in sub-section (2) shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, as though the application of the party were an application for review of judgment. XV of 1877

Adjournment of cases by chief ministerial officer.

22. When the Judge of a Court of Small Causes is absent and an Additional Judge has not been appointed or, having been appointed, is also absent, the Registrar or other chief ministerial officer of the Court may exercise from time to time the power which the Court possesses of adjourning the hearing of any suit or other proceeding, and fix a day for the further hearing thereof.

The Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887.

(Chapter IV.—Practice and Procedure.—Sections 23-27. Chapter V.—Supplemental Provisions.—Sections 28-31.)

Return of plaints in suits involving questions of title.

23. (1) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing portion of this Act, when the right of a plaintiff and the relief claimed by him in a Court of Small Causes depend upon the proof or disproof of a title to immoveable property or other title which such a Court cannot finally determine, the Court may at any stage of the proceedings return the plaint to be presented to a Court having jurisdiction to determine the title.

(2) When a Court returns a plaint under sub-section (1), it shall comply with the provisions of the second paragraph of section 57 of the Code of Civil Procedure and make such order with respect to costs as it deems just, and the Court shall, for the purposes of the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, be deemed to have been unable to entertain the suit by reason of a cause of a nature like to that of defect of jurisdiction.

IV of 1882. XV of 1877.

Appeals from certain orders of Courts of Small Causes. IV of 1882.

24. Where an order specified in section 588, clause (29), of the Code of Civil Procedure is made by a Court of Small Causes, an appeal therefrom shall lie to the District Court.

Revision of decrees and orders of Courts of Small Causes.

25. The High Court, for the purpose of satisfying itself that a decree or order made in any case decided by a Court of Small Causes was according to law, may call for the case and pass such order with respect thereto as it thinks fit.

Amendment of the second schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure. IV of 1882.

26. In the second schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure—

(a) for "CHAPTER VIII.—Section 111, Set-off" the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"CHAPTER VIII.—Of Written Statements and Set-off";

(b) the following shall be inserted between the portion of the schedule referring to CHAPTER XV and that referring to CHAPTER XVII, namely:—

"CHAPTER XVI.—Of Affidavits";

(c) in the particulars against CHAPTER XIX, for "275 to 280 (both inclusive), 283" the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"275 to 283 (both inclusive)";

(d) for "CHAPTER XLVII.—Of Review of Judgment" the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"CHAPTER XLVII.—Of Review of Judgment, sections 623, 626 and 630"; and

(e) for "CHAPTER XLIX.—Miscellaneous, sections 640 to 647 (both inclusive), sections 649 to 652 (both inclusive)" the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"CHAPTER XLIX.—Miscellaneous."

Finality of decrees and orders.

27. Save as provided by this Act a decree or order made under the foregoing provisions of this Act by a Court of Small Causes shall be final.

CHAPTER V.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS.

Subordination of Courts of Small Causes.

28. (1) A Court of Small Causes shall be subject to the administrative control of the District Court and to the superintendence of the High Court, and shall—

(a) keep such registers, books and accounts as the High Court from time to time prescribes, and

(b) comply with such requisitions as may be made by the District Court, the High Court or the Local Government for records, returns and statements in such form and manner as the authority making the requisition directs.

(2) The relation of the District Court to a Court of Small Causes, with respect to administrative control, shall be the same as that of the District Court to a Civil Court of the lowest grade competent to try an original suit of the value of five thousand rupees in that portion of the territories administered by the Local Government in which the Court of Small Causes is established.

Seal.

29. A Court of Small Causes shall use a seal of such form and dimensions as are prescribed by the Local Government.

Abolition of Courts of Small Causes.

30. The Local Government may, by order in writing, abolish a Court of Small Causes.

Saving of power to appoint Judge of Court of Small Causes to other office.

31. (1) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent the Local Government from appointing a person who is a Judge or Additional Judge of a Court of Small Causes to be also a Judge of any other Civil Court or to be a Magistrate of any class or to hold any other public office.

(2) When a Judge or Additional Judge is so appointed, the ministerial officers of his Court shall, subject to any rules which the Local Government may make in this behalf, be deemed to be ministerial officers appointed to aid him in the discharge of the duties of the other office.

The Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887.

(Chapter V.—Supplemental Provisions.—Sections 32-37. The First Schedule.—Enactments repealed.)

Application of Act to Courts invested with jurisdiction of Court of Small Causes.

32. (1) So much of Chapters III and IV as relates to—

(a) the nature of the suits cognizable by Courts of Small Causes,

(b) the exclusion of the jurisdiction of other Courts in those suits,

(c) the practice and procedure of Courts of Small Causes,

(d) appeal from certain orders of those Courts and revision of cases decided by them, and

(e) the finality of their decrees and orders subject to such appeal and revision as are provided by this Act, applies to Courts invested by or under any enactment for the time being in force with the jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes so far as regards the exercise of that jurisdiction by those Courts.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) with respect to Courts invested with the jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes applies to suits instituted or proceedings commenced in those Courts before the date on which they were invested with that jurisdiction.

Application of Act and Code to Court so invested as to two Courts.

33. A Court invested with the jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes, with respect to the exercise of that jurisdiction, and the same Court, with respect to the exercise of its jurisdiction in suits of a civil nature which are not cognizable by a Court of Small Causes, shall, for the purposes of this Act and the Code of Civil Procedure, be deemed to be different Courts. XIV of 1882.

Modification of Code as so applied.

34. Notwithstanding anything in the last two foregoing sections,—

(a) when, in exercise of the jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes, a Court invested with that jurisdiction sends a decree for execution to itself as a Court having jurisdiction in suits of a civil nature which are not cognizable by a Court of Small Causes, or the documents mentioned in section 224 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall not be sent with the decree unless in any case the Court, by order in writing, requires them to be sent. XIV of 1882.

(b) when a Court, in the exercise of its jurisdiction in suits of a civil nature which are not cognizable by a Court of Small Causes, sends a decree for execution to itself as a Court invested with the jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes,—

Continuance of proceedings of abolished Courts.

35. (1) Where a Court of Small Causes, or a Court invested with the jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes, has from any cause ceased to have jurisdiction with respect to any case, any proceeding in relation to the case, whether before or after decree, which, if the Court had not ceased to have jurisdiction, might have been had therein, may be had in the Court which, if the suit out of which the proceeding has arisen were about to be instituted, would have jurisdiction to try the suit.

(2) Nothing in this section applies to cases for which special provision is made in the Code of Civil Procedure, as extended to Courts of Small Causes, or in any other enactment for the time being in force. XIV of 18[illegible]

Amendment of Indian Limitation Act.

36. In the third division of the second schedule to the Indian Limitation Act, 1877,— XV of 18[illegible]

(a) after No. 160 the following shall be inserted, namely:—

"160A. For a review of judgment by a Provincial Court of Small Causes, or by a Court invested with the jurisdiction of a Provincial Court of Small Causes when exercising that jurisdiction.	Ditto.	The date of the decree or order."

and (b) in No. 173, the words, figures and letter "No. 160 A and" shall be inserted before the word and figures "No. 162."

Publication of certain orders.

37. All orders required by this Act to be made in writing by the Local Government shall be published in the official Gazette.

From Secretary to Government, Punjab, No. 888, dated 26th August, 1886, and enclosures [Papers No. 20].

2. Section 1.—We consider that this measure should extend to the whole of British India, including the Scheduled Districts. We have, therefore, removed the words which excepted the Scheduled Districts from the operation of the proposed Act.

3. Section 2.—We have provided for the continuance of Courts established, and orders made, under the enactments repealed by Act XI of 1865.

4. Section 3.—We have provided that the Act is not to affect any proceedings before or after decree in any suit instituted before the commencement of the Act, and we have removed from the section the reference to Act III of 1859, that Act being about to be repealed by the Council of the Governor General. The reference to the Army Act of 1881 will be covered by the saving of special laws which we have proposed to add to the section.

5. Section 4.—Several of the definitions have, since the Bill was introduced, been enacted in the General Clauses Act, 1887. As section 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure extends to Courts of Small Causes, the definition of "District" and "District Court" seem to us to be superfluous.

6. Section 5.—We have transferred to this section the substance of section 28.

7. Section 7.—We have provided that the fixing of times of sitting by a Judge of more than one Court of Small Causes shall be subject to the sanction of the District Court.

8. Section 9 (section 10 of Bill as revised by us).—We have provided for orders under this section being made after consultation with the High Court.

9. Section 11 (section 12 of Bill as revised).—We have proposed that the Registrar of a Court of Small Causes shall be appointed, not by the Judge of the Court, but, as under Act XI of 1865, by the Local Government.

10. Sections 12 and 13 (section 13 of Bill as revised).—It is proposed to make the establishment of a Court of Small Causes part of the Civil Court Ministerial Service of the district in which the Court is situate.

11. Section 14.—We have so amended this section as to leave unfettered the discretion of High Courts as to the powers and duties which may by rules under the section be conferred and imposed on ministerial officers of Courts of Small Causes.

12. Section 16.—We have proposed to omit this section on the ground of its being not more necessary in the case of Courts of Small Causes than in that of other Courts.

13. Section 19 (section 17 of Bill as revised).—We have met the objections to proviso (a) by enabling the Court to take security for the performance of the decree instead of requiring the deposit of the amount of the decree, by omitting from the second schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure the dilatory sections of Chapter XLVII, and by extending the time within which an application may be made for a review of judgment.

Proviso (b) has been transferred to the Bill to amend the Code of Civil Procedure which is now pending before the Council of the Governor General.

14. Section 20.—We have given effect to the opinion, which is very generally expressed, that the whole of Chapter VIII of the Code should extend to Courts of Small Causes.

15. Section 21.—Seeing that sections 223 and 228 of the Code extend to Courts of Small Causes, this section seems to us to be unnecessary. We have therefore removed it from the Bill.

16. Section 23 (section 19 of Bill as revised).—We have acted on a suggestion that some discretion should be given to the Judge as to the admission or dismissal of an application which is made under this section subsequently to the first sitting of the Judge after the plaint was admitted, or returned or rejected, by the Registrar.

17. Section 22 of Bill as revised.—This section has been suggested to us by the Judge of the Courts of Small Causes at Surat and Broach.

18. Section 23 of Bill as revised.—This section is based on suggestions made by several Judges of experience in different parts of the country.

19. Section 24 of Bill as revised.—This section supplements the defective expression of section 589 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

20. Section 25 of Bill as revised.—The opinion appears to be universal that the ruling of the Privy Council in Amir Hassan Khan versus Sheo Baksh Singh (I. L. R. 11 Cal. 6) has rendered it absolutely necessary to extend the jurisdiction which the High Courts possess over the judicial proceedings of Courts of Small Causes and of other Courts invested with their powers. It is of course desirable that nothing should be done to encourage needless resort to the High Court, but, as the Hon'ble the Chief Justice and Judges of the High Court at Fort William have observed, this consideration should be one rather for the High Court than to be used to remove an important branch of the lower judicature from all control and so to deprive it of the advantage of a subordinate relation to that authority which exists for the express purpose of guiding the inferior tribunals by its exposition of the law.

21. Section 26 of Bill as revised.—The only part of this section which calls for notice here is that which applies Chapter XVI of the Code of Civil Procedure to Courts of Small Causes. That Chapter does apply to Presidency Courts and the balance of opinion is strongly in favour of making it applicable to Provincial Courts of Small Causes also.

22. Section 29 (section 28 of Bill as revised.)—We have added a sub-section descriptive of the nature of the administrative control to be vested in the District Court.

23. Section 32 (section 31 of Bill as revised.)—We have so expressed this section as to make it clear that the Local Government may appoint a Judge of a Court of Small Causes to be a Registrar under the Indian Registration Act, 1877, or to hold any other public office.

24. Section 33, sub-section (1) (section 32, sub-section (1), of Bill as revised).—We have added words supplementary to section 25 of the Bill as revised, and a sub-section for the purpose of solving a question which has frequently been raised.

25. Section 34 of Bill as revised.—This section is suggested by the case reported at I. L. R. 9 Bom. 237.

26. Section 35 of Bill as revised.—This section has been suggested by the opinions on the Bill, and follows a section inserted for the same purpose in the Bengal Civil Courts Bill now pending before the Council of the Governor General.

27. The First Schedule.—We have, we believe, completed the list of necessary repeals.

28. The Second Schedule.—By our amendments of this schedule we have placed the following suits within the cognizance of Provincial Courts of Small Causes, namely:—

(a) suits against local authorities, including municipalities;
(b) suits for recovery of rent of agricultural land in certain circumstances;
(c) suits for enforcement of lien on moveable property, and by pawnors for the redemption or recovery of pledges; and (d) suits under section 283 and section 332 of the Code of Civil Procedure:

and we have excluded from the cognizance of those Courts the following suits, namely:—

(a) suits to recover from a person to whom compensation has been paid under the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, the whole or any part of the compensation;
(b) suits relating to trusts;
(c) suits for property which a plaintiff has conveyed while insane;
(d) suits on judgments;
(e) suits to compel refund of assets improperly distributed under section 295 of the Code of Civil Procedure;
(f) suits for the winding-up of the business of a partnership after its dissolution;
(g) suits for surplus collections of mortgaged property or for profits of immoveable property wrongfully received;

(h) suits for loss occasioned by the death of a person caused by actionable wrong;
(i) suits for compensation for certain torts;
(j) suits for dower;
(k) suits for custody of minors;
(l) suits for shares in perquisites of hereditary offices and in offerings at shrines; and
(m) suits by one of several joint mortgagors of immoveable property for contribution in respect of money paid for the redemption of the mortgaged property.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Act of the Governor General of India in Council received the assent of His Excellency the Governor General on the 24th February, 1887, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT NO. X OF 1887.

THE NATIVE PASSENGER SHIPS ACT, 1887.

CONTENTS.

The Native Passenger Ships Act, 1887.

(Chapter I.—Preliminary.—Sections 1-5. Chapter II.—Rules for all Voyages.—Section 6.)

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to Native Passenger Ships.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to Native Passenger Ships; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Title.

1. This Act may be called the Native Passenger Ships Act, 1887.

Extent and application.

2. (1) It extends to the whole of British India, and applies—

(a) to all subjects of Her Majesty within the dominions of Princes and States in India in alliance with Her Majesty;

(b) to all native Indian subjects of Her Majesty without and beyond British India; and,

(c) subject to the exceptions mentioned in sub-section (2), to ships carrying as passengers more than thirty natives of Asia or Africa.

(2) But it does not apply—

(i) to any ship-of-war, troopship, transport or other ship belonging to the Royal Navy or Her Majesty's Indian Marine Service, or

(ii) to any other ship for the time being in the service of Her Majesty, or

(iii) to any ship-of-war belonging to any Foreign Prince or State, or

(iv) to any steam-ship not carrying as passengers more than sixty natives of Asia or Africa, or

(v) to any ship not intended to carry natives of Asia or Africa as passengers to or from any port in British India.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in sub-sections (1) and (2), the Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, declare all or any of the provisions of this Act to apply to sailing-ships, or any class of sailing-ships, carrying as passengers more than fifteen natives of Asia or Africa, and to steam-ships, or any class of steam-ships, carrying as passengers more than thirty such natives.

Commencement.

3. This Act shall come into force on such day as the Governor General in Council, by notification in the Gazette of India, appoints.

Repeal.

4. (1) On and from that day the enactments mentioned in the schedule shall be repealed to the extent specified in the third column thereof.

(2) But all ports, places and officers appointed, rules, declarations and exemptions made, bonds executed, directions given and certificates granted under any of those enactments shall, so far as may be, be deemed to be respectively appointed, made, executed, given and granted under this Act; and

(3) Any enactment or document referring to any enactment hereby repealed shall be construed to refer to this Act or to the corresponding portion thereof.

Definitions.

5. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) "ship" means a ship to which this Act applies:

(2) "passenger" means a passenger by a ship who is a native of Asia or Africa of the age of twelve years or upwards and is not on the articles of the ship as one of the crew; but it does not include either a passenger in attendance on a person who is not a native of Asia or Africa, or a child under one year of age; and, in the computation of passengers for any of the purposes of this Act, two persons of the age of one year or upwards and under the age of twelve years shall be reckoned as one passenger:

(3) "long voyage" means, subject to the provisions of this Act, any voyage during which the ship performing it will in ordinary circumstances be one hundred and twenty hours or upwards continuously out of port:

(4) "short voyage" means, subject to the provisions of this Act, any voyage during which the ship performing it will not in ordinary circumstances be one hundred and twenty hours continuously out of port:

(5) "voyage", when used without the prefix "long" or "short", means the whole distance between the ship's port or place of departure and her final port or place of arrival:

(6) "Chief Customs-officer" means the chief executive officer of sea-customs in any port or place to which this Act applies: and

(7) "Magistrate" means a person exercising powers not inferior to those of a Magistrate of the second class.

CHAPTER II.

RULES FOR ALL VOYAGES.

Ships to sail only from places appointed by the Government.

6. (1) A ship carrying passengers shall not depart or proceed from, or discharge passengers at, any port or place within British

The Native Passenger Ships Act, 1887.

(Chapter II.—Rules for all Voyages.—Sections 7-11.)

India other than a port or place appointed in this behalf by the Local Government.

(2) After a ship has departed or proceeded on a voyage from a port or place so appointed, a person shall not be received on board as a passenger except at some other port or place so appointed.

Notice to be given of day of sailing.

7. (1) The master, owner or agent of a ship so departing or proceeding shall give notice to an officer appointed in this behalf by the Local Government that the ship is to carry passengers, and of her destination, and of the proposed time of sailing.

(2) The notice shall be given not less than twenty-four hours before that time.

Power to enter on and inspect ship.

8. After receiving the notice, the officer aforesaid or a person authorized by him shall be at liberty at all times to enter on the ship and inspect her and her fittings and the provisions and stores in her.

Ship not to sail without two certificates.

9. (1) A ship intended to carry passengers shall not commence a voyage from a port or place appointed under this Act, unless the master holds two certificates to the effect mentioned in the two next following sections.

(2) The officer whose duty it is to grant a port-clearance for the ship shall not grant it unless the master holds those certificates.

Contents of certificate A.

10. The first of the certificates (hereinafter called "certificate A") shall state that the ship is seaworthy and properly equipped, fitted and ventilated, and the number of passengers which she is capable of carrying.

Contents of certificate B.

11. The second of the certificates (hereinafter called "certificate B") shall state—

(a) the voyage which the ship is to make, and the intermediate ports, if any, at which she is to touch;

(b) that she has the proper complement of officers and seamen;

(c) that food, fuel and pure water over and above what is necessary for the crew, and the other things, if any, prescribed for the ship by the rules under this Act, have been placed on board, of the quality prescribed by the rules, properly packed, and sufficient to supply the passengers on board during the voyage which the ship is to make (including such detention in quarantine as may be probable) according to the scale for the time being prescribed by those rules;

(d) that the master holds certificate A;

(e) if the ship is to make a short voyage in a season of foul weather, and to carry upper-deck passengers, that she is furnished with substantial bulwarks and a double awning or with other sufficient protection against the weather;

(f) if she is to carry passengers to any port in the Red Sea, that she is propelled principally by steam, and, if she is to carry more than one hundred passengers to any such port, that she has on board a medical officer licensed in accordance with the rules under this Act; and

(g) such other particulars, if any, as may be prescribed by those rules.

Grant of certificates.

12. The person by whom certificate A and certificate B are to be granted shall be the officer appointed under section 7.

Substitute for certificate A.

13. Where the master of a ship produces to that officer either of the following certificates, namely,—

(a) a valid certificate granted by the Board of Trade or by a British Colonial Government, or

(b) a certificate granted under the authority of a British Indian Government, on a date not more than one year before the proposed day of sailing, and in force and applicable to the voyage on which the ship is to proceed or the service on which she is about to be employed, the officer may, if the particulars required by section 10 are certified thereby, take the certificate as evidence of those particulars, and it shall then be deemed to be a certificate A for the purposes of this Act.

Survey of ship.

14. (1) After receiving the notice required by section 7, the officer appointed under that section may, if he thinks fit, cause the ship to be surveyed at the expense of the master or owner by competent surveyors, who shall report to him whether the ship is, in their opinion, seaworthy and properly equipped, fitted and ventilated for the voyage which she is to make:

Provided that he shall not cause a ship holding a certificate mentioned in section 13, clause (a) or clause (b), to be surveyed unless, by reason of the ship having met with damage or having undergone alterations, or on other reasonable ground, he considers it likely that she may be found unseaworthy or not properly equipped, fitted or ventilated for the voyage.

(2) If the officer causes a survey to be made of a ship holding any such certificate, and the surveyors report that the ship is seaworthy and properly equipped, fitted and ventilated for the voyage, and that there was no reasonable ground why the officer should have thought it likely that she would be found unseaworthy, or not properly equipped, fitted or ventilated

The Native Passenger Ships Act, 1887.

(Chapter II.—Rules for all Voyages.—Sections 15-17. Chapter III.—Rules for Short Voyages.—Sections 18-20. Chapter IV.—Rules for Long Voyages.—Section 21.)

for the voyage, the expense of the survey shall be paid by the Local Government.

Discretion as to grant of certificate.

15. (1) The officer authorized to grant a certificate under this Act in respect of a ship shall not grant it unless he is satisfied that she has not on board any cargo likely from its quality, quantity or mode of stowage to prejudice the health or safety of the passengers.

(2) But save as aforesaid, and subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), it shall be in the discretion of the officer to grant or withhold the certificate.

(3) In the exercise of that discretion that officer shall be subject to the control of the Local Government, and of any intermediate authority which that Government appoints in this behalf.

Copy of certificates to be exhibited.

16. The master or owner shall post up in a conspicuous part of the ship, so as to be visible to persons on board thereof, a copy of each of the certificates granted under this Act in respect of the ship, and shall keep those copies so posted up throughout the voyage.

Supply by passengers of their own food.

17. If an officer appointed in this behalf by the Local Government is satisfied that a passenger has brought on board a ship for his own use food of the quality and in the quantity for the time being prescribed by the rules under this Act, the requirements of this Act respecting the supply of food for passengers shall not apply so far as regards the supply of food for that passenger.

CHAPTER III.

RULES FOR SHORT VOYAGES.

Space to be available for passengers.

18. (1) For seasons of fair weather, a ship performing a short voyage shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, contain in the between-decks at least six superficial feet and thirty-six cubic feet of space available for every between-decks passenger, and on the upper-deck at least four superficial feet available for each such passenger and six superficial feet available for each upper-deck passenger.

(2) For seasons of foul weather, a ship propelled by sails and performing a short voyage shall, subject as aforesaid, contain in the between-decks at least twelve superficial feet and seventy-two cubic feet of space available for every between-decks passenger, and on the upper-deck at least four superficial feet available for each such passenger and twelve superficial feet available for each upper-deck passenger.

(3) For seasons of foul weather, a ship propelled by steam, or partly by steam and partly by sails, and performing a short voyage, shall, subject as aforesaid, contain in the between-decks at least nine superficial feet and fifty-four cubic feet of space available for every between-decks passenger, and on the upper-deck at least four superficial feet available for each such passenger and nine superficial feet available for each upper-deck passenger.

(4) But in seasons of foul weather a ship shall not carry upper-deck passengers unless she is furnished with substantial bulwarks and a double awning or with other sufficient protection against the weather.

Ship taking additional passengers at intermediate place.

19. If a ship performing a short voyage takes additional passengers on board at an intermediate port or place, the master shall obtain from the officer appointed at that port or place under section 7 a supplementary certificate stating—

(a) the number of passengers so taken on board, and

(b) that food, fuel and pure water over and above what is necessary for the crew, and the other things, if any, prescribed for the ship by the rules under this Act, have been placed on board, of the quality prescribed by the rules, properly packed, and sufficient to supply the passengers on board during the voyage which the ship is to make (including such detention in quarantine as may be probable) according to the scale for the time being prescribed by those rules:

Provided that, if the certificate B held by the master of the ship states that food, fuel and pure water over and above what is necessary for the crew, and the other things, if any, prescribed for her by the rules under this Act, have been placed on board, of the quality prescribed by the rules, properly packed, and sufficient to supply the full number of passengers which she is capable of carrying, the master shall not be bound to obtain any such supplementary certificate.

Deaths on voyage.

20. When the ship reaches her final port or place of arrival, the master shall notify to such officer as the Governor General in Council appoints in this behalf the date and supposed cause of death of every passenger dying on the voyage.

CHAPTER IV.

RULES FOR LONG VOYAGES.

Space to be available for passengers.

21. (1) A ship propelled by sails and performing a long voyage shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, contain in the between-decks at least twelve

The Native Passenger Ships Act, 1887.

(Chapter IV.—Rules for Long Voyages.—Sections 22-30.)

superficial feet and seventy-two cubic feet of space available for every passenger.

(2) A ship propelled by steam, or partly by steam and partly by sails, and performing a long voyage, shall, subject as aforesaid, contain in the between-decks at least nine superficial feet and fifty-four cubic feet of space available for every passenger.

Statements concerning passengers.

22. The master of a ship departing or proceeding on a long voyage from any port or place in British India shall sign two statements, specifying the number and the respective sexes of all the passengers, and the number of the crew, and shall deliver them to the officer appointed under section 7, who shall thereupon, after having first satisfied himself that the numbers are correct, countersign and return to the master one of the statements.

Deaths on voyage.

23. The master shall note in writing on the statement returned to him, and on any additional statement to be made under the next following section, the date and supposed cause of death of any passenger who may die on the voyage, and shall, when the ship arrives at her port or place of destination or at any port or place at which it may be intended to land passengers, and, before any passengers leave the ship, produce the statement, with any additions thereto made, to a person lawfully exercising consular authority on behalf of Her Majesty at the port or place or to the Chief Customs-officer thereat or the officer (if any) appointed there under section 7.

Ship taking additional passengers at intermediate place.

24. (1) In either of the following cases, namely,—

(a) if after the ship has departed or proceeded on a long voyage any additional passengers are taken on board at a port or place within British India appointed under this Act for the embarkation of passengers, or

(b) if the ship upon her voyage touches or arrives at any such port or place, having previously received on board additional passengers at any place beyond British India, the master shall obtain a fresh certificate to the effect of certificate B from the officer appointed at that port or place under section 7, and shall make additional statements specifying the number and the respective sexes of all the additional passengers.

(2) All the foregoing provisions of this Act with respect to certificate B and statements concerning passengers shall be applicable to any certificate granted or statement made under this section.

Certain ships to be propelled by steam.

25. A ship carrying passengers from or to any port in British India to or from any port in the Red Sea shall be propelled principally by steam.

Certain ships to carry medical officer.

26. A ship carrying more than one hundred passengers from or to any port in British India to or from any port in the Red Sea shall have on board a medical officer licensed in accordance with the rules under this Act.

Ships carrying passengers to or from port in Red Sea to touch at Aden.

27. A ship carrying passengers from or to any port in British India other than Aden to or from any port in the Red Sea shall touch at Aden, and shall not leave that port without having obtained from the proper authority a clean bill of health.

Bill of health at Aden.

28. The authority at Aden empowered to grant the bill of health shall refuse to grant it if the ship has on board a greater number of passengers than the number allowed for the ship by or under this Act, and may refuse to grant it if the requirements of any rule under this Act are not complied with on board the ship.

Bond where ship clears for port in Red Sea.

29. In the case of a ship carrying passengers from any port in British India other than Aden to any port in the Red Sea, the officer whose duty it is to grant a port-clearance for the ship shall not grant the clearance unless and until the master, owner or agent of the ship and two sureties resident in British India have executed in favour of the Secretary of State for India in Council a joint and several bond, for the sum of five thousand rupees, conditioned—

(a) that the ship shall touch at Aden on the outward voyage and there obtain a clean bill of health, and shall do the same on the homeward voyage if the ship continues to carry more than sixty passengers, and

(b) that the master and medical officer (if any) of the ship shall comply with, on the outward voyage, and also on the homeward voyage if the ship continues to carry more than sixty passengers, the provisions of this Act and of such rules relating to ships carrying passengers between ports in British India and ports in the Red Sea as the Governor General in Council may make under this Act.

Power for Local Government to direct medical inspection of passengers.

30. (1) The Local Government may direct that no passenger shall be received on board any ship or any ship of a specified class carrying passengers from any port in British India to any port in the Red Sea unless and until the passenger has been inspected, at such time and place, and in such manner, as the Local Government may fix in this behalf, by a medical officer to be appointed by that Government for the purpose.

The Native Passenger Ships Act, 1887.

(Chapter V.—Penalties.—Sections 31-38.)

(2) If in the opinion of the officer making an inspection under this section a passenger is suffering from any dangerously infectious or contagious disease, the passenger shall not be permitted to embark.

CHAPTER V.

PENALTIES.

Penalty for ship unlawfully departing or receiving passengers on board.

31. If a ship departs or proceeds on a voyage from, or discharges passengers at, any port or place within British India in contravention of the provisions of section 6, sub-section (1), or section 9, or if a person is received as a passenger on board a ship in contravention of the provisions of section 6, sub-section (2), the master or owner shall, for every passenger carried in the ship, or for every passenger so discharged or received on board, be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or with both, and the ship, if found within two years in any port or place within British India, may be seized and detained by a Chief Customs-officer until the penalties incurred under this Act by her master or owner have been adjudicated, and the payment of the fines imposed on him under this Act, with all costs, has been enforced, under the provisions of this Act:

Provided that the aggregate term of imprisonment awarded under this section shall not exceed one year.

Penalty for opposing entry on or inspection of ships.

32. If a person impedes or refuses to allow the entry or inspection authorized by or under this Act, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for each offence, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with both.

Penalty for not exhibiting copy of certificates.

33. If a master or owner without reasonable excuse, the burden of proving which shall lie upon him, fails to comply with the requirements of section 16 with respect to the posting of copies of certificates, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or with both.

Penalty for not complying with requirements as to statements concerning passengers and certain other matters.

34. If a master fails to comply with any of the requirements of section 22 or section 23, as to the statements concerning passengers, or wilfully makes any false entry or note in or on any such statement, or without reasonable excuse, the burden of proving which shall lie upon him, fails to obtain any such supplementary certificate as is mentioned in section 19, or to report deaths as required by section 20, or to obtain any such fresh certificate, or to make any such statement of the number of additional passengers, as is mentioned in section 24, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for every such offence, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with both.

Penalty for fraudulent alteration in ship after certificate obtained.

35. If a master, after having obtained any of the certificates mentioned in section 9, section 19 or section 24, fraudulently does or suffers to be done anything whereby the certificate becomes inapplicable to the altered state of the ship, her passengers or other matters to which the certificate relates, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with both.

Penalty for failing to supply passengers with prescribed provisions.

36. If a master without reasonable excuse, the burden of proving which shall lie upon him, omits to supply to any passenger the allowance of food, fuel and water prescribed by the rules under this Act, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every passenger who has sustained detriment by the omission.

Penalty for having excessive number of passengers on board.

37. (1) If a ship carrying passengers to or from any port or place in British India has on board a number of passengers which is greater than the number allowed for the ship by or under this Act, the master and owner shall, for every passenger over and above that number, be each punished with fine which may extend to twenty rupees, and the master shall further be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to one week in respect of each such passenger:

Provided that the aggregate term of imprisonment awarded under this section shall not exceed six months.

(2) Any officer authorized in this behalf by the Local Government may cause all passengers over and above the number allowed by or under this Act to disembark and may forward them to any port at which they may have contracted to land, and recover the cost of so forwarding them from the master or owner of the ship as if the cost were a fine imposed under this Act, and a certificate under the hand of that officer shall be conclusive proof of the amount of the cost aforesaid.

Penalty for bringing passengers from foreign port in excess of authorized number.

38. If a ship carrying passengers from any port or place beyond British India to any port or place in British India has on board a number of passengers greater either than the number allowed for the ship by or under this Act or than the number allowed by the license or certificate, if any, granted

The Native Passenger Ships Act, 1887.

(Chapter V.—Penalties.—Sections 39-50.)

in respect of the ship at her port or place of departure, the master and owner shall, for every passenger in excess of that number, be each punished with fine which may extend to twenty rupees.

Penalty for landing passenger at a place other than that at which he has contracted to land.

39. If the master of a ship lands any passenger at any port or place other than the port or place at which the passenger may have contracted to land, unless with his previous consent, or unless the landing is made necessary by perils of the sea or other unavoidable accident, the master shall, for every such offence, be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or with both.

Penalty for making voyage in contravention of contract with passengers.

40. If a ship, otherwise than by reason of perils of the sea or other unavoidable accident, touches at any port or place in contravention of any express or implied contract or engagement with the passengers with respect to the voyage which the ship was to make and the time which that voyage was to occupy, whether the contract or engagement was made by public advertisement or otherwise, the master and owner shall each be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with both.

Penalty on master and owner of certain ships not propelled by steam.

41. If a ship carrying passengers from or to any port in British India to or from any port in the Red Sea is not propelled principally by steam as required by section 25, the master and owner shall each be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with imprisonment which may extend to three months, or with both.

Penalty on master of certain ships sailing without medical officer.

42. If a ship carrying more than one hundred passengers from or to any port in British India to or from any port in the Red Sea has not on board a medical officer as required by section 26, the master of the ship shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with both.

Penalty for not obtaining bill of health at Aden.

43. If in the case of a ship to which section 27 applies the master without reasonable excuse, the burden of proving which shall lie upon him, fails to touch at Aden, or leaves that port without having obtained a bill of health under that section, he shall, for every such offence, be punished with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with both.

Penalty on master or medical officer of certain ships disobeying rules.

44. If in the case of any such ship as is referred to in the last foregoing section the master or the medical officer, if any, of the ship without reasonable excuse, the burden of proving which shall lie upon him, breaks, or omits or neglects to obey, any rule under this Act applicable to the ship, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with both.

Penalty on master receiving passenger in contravention of section 30.

45. If the master of a ship to which a direction under section 30 applies knowingly receives on board the ship any person in contravention of that section, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees for each person so received, or with imprisonment which may extend to three months, or with both.

Procedure.

Adjudication of offences, and levy of fine by distress on ship.

46. (1) Offences against this Act shall be punishable by a Magistrate.

(2) If the person on whom a fine is imposed under this Act is the master or owner of a ship, and the fine is not paid at the time and in the manner prescribed by the order of payment, the Magistrate may, in addition to the ordinary means prescribed by law for enforcing payment, direct by warrant the amount remaining unpaid to be levied by distress and sale of the ship, her tackle, furniture and apparel.

Jurisdiction.

47. For the purpose of the adjudication of penalties under this Act, every offence against its provisions shall be deemed to have been committed within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Magistrate of the place where the offender is found.

Authority to institute proceedings for penalties.

48. The penalties to which masters and owners of ships are made liable by this Act shall be enforced only on information laid at the instance of officers appointed to grant certificates under this Act, or, at any port or place where there is no such officer, at the instance of the Chief Customs-officer.

Application of fines.

49. A Magistrate imposing a fine under this Act may, if he thinks fit, direct the whole or any part thereof to be applied in compensating any person for any detriment which he may have sustained by the act or default in respect of which the fine is imposed, or in or towards payment of the expenses of the prosecution.

Depositions of absent witnesses.

50. (1) Whenever in the course of any legal proceeding under this Act the testimony of a witness is required in relation to the subject-matter of the proceeding, any deposition which he may have previously made in relation to the same subject-matter before any Justice or Magistrate in Her Majesty's dominions (including all parts of India other than those subject to the same Local Government as the port or place where the proceeding is instituted), or before any British consular officer elsewhere, shall be admissible in evidence on proof that the witness cannot be found within the jurisdiction of the Court in which the proceeding is instituted :

(Chapter VI.—Supplemental Provisions.—Sections 51-53.)

Provided that the deposition shall not be admissible unless—

(a) it is authenticated by the signature of the Justice, Magistrate or consular officer;

(b) it was made in the presence of the person accused; and

(c) the fact that it was so made is certified by the Justice, Magistrate or consular officer.

(2) It shall not be necessary in any case to prove the signature or official character of the person appearing to have signed any such deposition; and in any criminal proceeding such certificate as aforesaid shall, unless the contrary is proved, be sufficient evidence of the accused having been present in manner thereby certified.

CHAPTER VI.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS.

Information to be sent to ports of embarkation and discharge.

51. (1) The Chief Customs-officer, or other officer, if any, appointed by the Local Government in this behalf, at any port or place within British India at which a ship carrying passengers touches or arrives, shall, with advertence to the provisions of this Act, send any particulars which he may deem important respecting the ship, and the passengers carried therein, to the officer at the port or place from which the ship commenced her voyage, and to the officer at any other port or place within British India where the passengers or any of them embarked or are to be discharged.

(2) The Chief Customs-officer, or other officer, if any, appointed by the Local Government in this behalf, at any port or place in British India at which a ship to which this Act applies touches or arrives, may enter on the ship and inspect her in order to ascertain whether the provisions of this Act as to the number of passengers and other matters have been complied with.

Report of Consul.

52. In any proceeding for the adjudication of any penalty incurred under this Act any document purporting to be a report of such particulars as are referred to in sub-section (1) of the last foregoing section, or a copy of the proceedings of any Court of Justice duly authenticated, and also any like document purporting to be made and signed by any person lawfully exercising consular authority on behalf of Her Majesty in any foreign port, shall be received in evidence, if it appears to have been officially transmitted to any officer at or near the place where the proceeding under this Act is had.

Power for Governor General in Council and Local Government to make rules.

53. (1) The Governor General in Council may make rules consistent with this Act to regulate, in the case of any ship or class of ships, all or any of the following matters :—

(a) the scale on which food, fuel and water are to be supplied to the passengers or to any class or classes of passengers, and the quality of the food, fuel and water;

(b) the medical stores and other appliances and fittings to be provided on board for maintaining health, cleanliness and decency;

(c) the licensing and appointment of medical officers in cases where they are required by this Act to be carried;

(d) the boats, anchors and cables to be provided on board;

(e) the instruments for purposes of navigation to be supplied;

(f) the apparatus for the purpose of extinguishing fires on board and the precautions to be taken to prevent such fires;

(g) the provision of appliances for saving life and of means for making signals of distress, and the supply of lights inextinguishable in water and fitted for attachment to life-buoys;

(h) the functions of the master, medical officer (if any) and other officers of the ship during the voyage;

(i) the access of between-decks passengers to the upper deck; and

(j) generally, to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) The Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, make rules consistent with this Act to regulate, in the case of any ship or class of ships,—

(a) the local limits within which, and the time and mode at and in which, passengers are to be embarked or discharged at any port or place appointed under this Act in that behalf; and

(b) the time within which the ship or any ship of the class is to depart or proceed on her voyage after commencing to take passengers on board.

(3) In making a rule under this section the authority making it may direct that a breach of it shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, and when the breach is a continuing breach with a further fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day after the first during which the breach continues.

(4) The power to make rules under this section is subject to the condition of the rules being made after previous publication.

Appointment of officers.

54. The Local Government shall appoint such persons as it thinks fit to exercise and perform the powers and duties which are conferred and imposed by this Act or may be conferred and imposed thereunder.

Power to declare what shall be deemed "seasons of fair weather" and "long voyages".

55. The Governor General in Council may declare, by notification in the Gazette of India, what shall be deemed to be, for the purposes of this Act, "seasons of fair weather" and "seasons of foul weather", and, for sailing-ships and steam-ships respectively, a "long voyage" and a "short voyage".

Power to prescribe space to be available for passengers.

56. The Governor General in Council may by order prescribe in the case of any ship or class of ships and for all or any voyages the number of superficial or of cubic feet of space to be available for passengers; and the order shall be alternative to, or override, as the Governor General in Council may direct, the provisions of sections 18 and 21 so far as they apply to that ship or class of ships.

Power to exempt ship from provisions of Act.

57. (1) The Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, may, subject to such conditions as it thinks fit, exempt any ship or class of ships from any provision of this Act.

(2) In imposing a condition under this section the Local Government may direct that a breach of it shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, and when the breach is a continuing breach with a further fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day after the first during which the breach continues.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to consolidate and amend the law relating to Native Passenger Ships, was presented to the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 11th February, 1887:—

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

WE, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to consolidate and amend the law relating to Native Passenger Ships was referred, have considered the Bill and the papers noted on the margin, and have now the honour to submit this our Report.

From Secretary for Berar to Resident, Hyderabad, No. 326, dated 13th September, 1886 [Paper No 1].
From Officiating Secretary to Chief Commissioner, Central Provinces, No. 4310—253, dated 22nd September, 1886 [Paper No. 2].
From Secretary to Chief Commissioner, Assam, No. 2039, dated 24th September, 1886 [Paper No. 3].
From Secretary to Government, Punjab, No. 1036, dated 22nd October, 1886 [Paper No. 4].
From Chief Commissioner, Ajmere-Merwára, No. 1225—690-II., dated 23rd October, 1886 [Paper No. 5].
From Secretary to Chief Commissioner, Coorg, No. 1903—3936, dated 22nd October, 1886 [Paper No. 6]
From Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, No. 2880, dated 25th October, 1886, and enclosures [Papers No. 7].
From Secretary to Chief Commissioner, Burma, No. 27—51 M. S., dated 2nd November, 1886 [Paper No. 8].
From Under Secretary to Government, North-Western Provinces and Oudh, No 860—VII-342, dated 12th November, 1886 [Paper No. 9].
From Acting Secretary to Government, Bombay, No. 3980, dated 15th November, 1886, and enclosures [Papers No. 10].
From Registrar, High Court, Calcutta, No. 2607, dated 24th November, 1886 [Paper No. 11].
Endorsement by Government, Madras, No. 3000, dated 10th November, 1886, and enclosure [Papers No. 12].
From Officiating Secretary to Government, Bengal, No. 3264, dated 10th December, 1886, and enclosures [Papers No. 13].

2. Section 2.—We have described more particularly the ships belonging to or in the service of Her Majesty to which the Act is not to apply, and we have omitted as redundant the clause in sub-section (2) declaring the Act not to apply to sailing-ships carrying not more than thirty passengers.

3. Section 5.—We have re-cast the definition of "passenger", and so amended that of "voyage" as to render unnecessary the Illustration to the definition of "short voyage' We have also modified, but not materially altered, the definitions of "Chief Customs-officer" and "Magistrate".

4. Section 30, sub-section (1).—We have inserted the words "and in such manner" with the object of enabling Local Governments to issue suitable instructions with respect to the medical inspection of women embarking on passenger-ships.

5. Chapter V.—On the suggestion of the Solicitor to the Government of Bombay, we have thrown on the accused the burden of proving that certain infractions of the Act were unintentional or inevitable.

From section 38 (section 37 of Bill as revised by us) we have removed certain words which had reference to the frame of the Native Passenger Ships Act of 1870 rather than of the Act of 1876 or of the Bill.

By the same section we have empowered local authorities to forward passengers landed from an overcrowded ship to any port at which they had contracted to land, whether that port is within or beyond the limits of British India.

6. Section 51.—We have required information respecting the state of passenger-ships to be sent not only to ports of departure but also to ports of destination.

7. Section 53.—We have specially provided in sub-section (1) that the Governor General in Council may make rules to regulate the supply of appliances for saving life, and in sub-section (2) that rules under that sub-section are to be made with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council. In the latter sub-section we have further provided that rules may be made as to the time within which ships are to depart or proceed on their voyages after commencing to take passengers on board.

8. Section 56 (formerly section 57).—We have provided that orders made by the Governor General in Council under this section may be alternative to, or override, the provisions of sections 18 and 21.

9. Section 57 (formerly section 58).—We have added a sub-section providing for the enforcement of the conditions subject to which ships may be exempted from any of the provisions of the Act.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Act of the Governor General of India in Council received the assent of His Excellency the Governor General on the 25th February, 1887, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT NO. XI OF 1887.

An Act to provide for the regulation of traffic on the Sindh-Pishin Section of the North-Western Railway.

IV of 1879. WHEREAS it is inexpedient that the Indian Railway Act, 1879, so far as it applies to that part of the Sindh-Pishin section of the North-Western Railway which lies beyond the Province of Sindh, should apply thereto in its entirety; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Sindh-Pishin Railway Act, 1887.

(2) It shall extend to all persons for whom the Governor General in Council has power to make laws and regulations at meetings for that purpose; and

(3) It shall come into force at once.

Definition.

2. In the following sections of this Act, "railway" means that part of the Sindh-Pishin section of the North-Western Railway which, whether completed at the commencement of this Act or not, lies beyond the Province of Sindh.

Application of Railway Act.

3. (1) Unless and until extended under this section, no portion of the Indian Railway Act, 1879, shall apply to any part of the railway. IV of 1879.

(2) The Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, extend to the railway or any part thereof such portions of that Act as he thinks fit.

(3) In extending any portion of that Act to the railway or any part thereof the Governor General in Council may extend it subject to such modifications as he thinks fit.

Carriage of passengers and property permissive only.

4. (1) No person shall be entitled, as of right, to be carried on the railway or to have property carried thereon;

(2) But the carriage of passengers and property on the railway shall be permitted subject to such conditions and restrictions as the Governor General in Council may prescribe.

Exemption of the Government from liability for injury or loss.

5. Where any person or property is permitted to be carried on the railway, the Government shall not be responsible for any injury which may happen to the person, or for any loss or damage which may occur in respect of the property, unless the injury happens, or the loss or damage occurs, on a part of the railway with respect to which the Governor General in Council has, by notification in the Gazette of India, announced that the Government accepts responsibility, to such extent as may be described in the notification, for injury happening, or loss or damage occurring, thereon.

S. HARVEY JAMES,

Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE Sindh-Pishin section of the North-Western Railway has been constructed for strategic purposes, and must be at times exclusively, and always preferentially, appropriated to the conveyance of troops, followers and military material and stores. Moreover, from the nature of the country through which the railway passes, some portions of the line are such as to render the risk of accident necessarily greater for a time at least than on ordinary railways.

In these circumstances it is proposed to enact that only such provisions of the Indian Railway Act, 1879, shall extend to this line as the Governor General in Council may consider it desirable to apply thereto. The Government does not propose to open the line generally for the conveyance of passengers and goods under ordinary conditions, but reserves the right to limit its responsibility for injury to the person, or loss of or damage to property, on certain portions of the line, which, as already remarked, was primarily designed for other purposes. Precedent for limiting the extent of the pecuniary responsibility of proprietors of railways for injury to the person is to be found in the Massachusetts Statutes of 1840 and in the New York Laws of 1847, and in regard to goods in the special contract permitted by the Indian Railway Act, 1879. But even if such precedents did not exist the circumstances of the case are such as to require legislation.

As a considerable part of the line lies in the territory of the Khán of Kalat and the proposed Act will not, as an Act of the Council of the Governor General for making Laws and Regulations, apply to the subjects of the Khán in that territory, it is proposed, by executive order made in exercise of the jurisdiction conferred by treaty on the Governor General in Council, to notify hereafter the substance of the proposed Act to be in force on the portion of the line which lies within Kalat.

The 24th February, 1887. T. C. HOPE.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the tenancy of land in the Punjab; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.

(2) It extends to the whole of the territories (including the pargana of Spiti) for the time being administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab, except the Hazára district; and

(3) It shall come into force on such day as the Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, may by notification appoint in this behalf.

Power to make rules in anticipation of commencement.

2. Any power conferred by this Act on the Financial Commissioner to make rules, and on the Local Government to sanction them, may be exercised at any time after the passing of this Act, but a rule so made shall not take effect till the commencement of this Act.

Repeal.

3. The enactments mentioned in the schedule are repealed to the extent specified in the third column thereof.

Definitions.

4. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

(d) the zaildári and village-officers' cesses ; and
(e) sums payable on account of village-expenses :

(12) "village-cess" includes any cess, contribution or due which is customarily leviable within an estate and is neither a payment for the use of private property or for personal service nor imposed by or under any enactment for the time being in force :

(13) "village-officer" means a chief-headman, headman or patwári :

(14) "Revenue-officer" or "Revenue Court", in any provision of this Act, means a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court having authority under this Act to discharge the functions of a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court, as the case may be, under that provision :

(15) "jágírdár" includes any person, other than a village-servant, to whom the land-revenue of any land has been assigned in whole or in part by the Government or by an officer of the Government :

(16) "legal practitioner" means any legal practitioner within the meaning of the Legal Practitioners Act, 1879, except a mukhtár : [III 1879.]

(17) "agricultural year" means the year commencing on the sixteenth day of June, or on such other date as the Local Government may by notification appoint for any local area :

(18) "notification" means a notification published by authority of the Local Government in the official Gazette : and

(19) "improvement" means, with reference to a tenancy, any work which is suitable to the tenancy and consistent with the conditions on which it is held, by which the value of the tenancy has been and continues to be increased, and which, if not executed on the tenancy, is either executed directly for its benefit, or is, after execution, made directly beneficial to it ;

Explanation I.—It includes, among other things,—

(a) the construction of wells and other works for the storage or supply of water for agricultural purposes ;
(b) the construction of works for drainage and for protection against floods ;
(c) the planting of trees, the reclaiming, enclosing, levelling and terracing of land for agricultural purposes and other works of a like nature ;
(d) the erection of buildings required for the more convenient or profitable cultivation of a tenancy ; and
(e) the renewal or re-construction of any of the foregoing works, or such alterations therein, or additions thereto, as are not of the nature of mere repairs and as durably increase their value ;

But it does not include such clearances, embankments, levellings, enclosures, temporary wells and water-channels as are made by tenants in the ordinary course of cultivation and without any special expenditure, or any other benefit accruing to land from the ordinary operations of husbandry ;

Explanation II.—A work which benefits several tenancies may be deemed to be, with respect to each of them, an improvement ;

Explanation III.—A work executed by a tenant is not an improvement if it substantially diminishes the value of any other part of his landlord's property.

CHAPTER II.

RIGHT OF OCCUPANCY.

Tenants having right of occupancy.

5. (1) A tenant—

(a) who at the commencement of this Act has for more than two generations in the male line of descent through a grandfather or grand-uncle and for a period of not less than twenty years been occupying land paying no rent therefor beyond the amount of the land-revenue thereof and the rates and cesses for the time being chargeable thereon, or
(b) who having owned land, and having ceased to be landowner thereof otherwise than by forfeiture to the Government or than by any voluntary act, has, since he ceased to be landowner, continuously occupied the land, or
(c) who, in a village or estate in which he settled along with, or was settled by, the founder thereof as a cultivator therein, occupied land on the twenty-first day of October, 1868, and has continuously occupied the land since that date, or
(d) who, being jágírdár of the estate or any part of the estate in which the land occupied by him is situate, has continuously occupied the land for not less than twenty years, or, having been such jágírdár, occupied the land while he was jágírdár and

The Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.
(Chapter II.—Right of Occupancy.—Sections 6-11. Chapter III.—Rent.—Sections 12-13.)

has continuously occupied it for not less than twenty years, has a right of occupancy in the land so occupied, unless, in the case of a tenant belonging to the class specified in clause (c), the landlord proves that the tenant was settled on land previously cleared and brought under cultivation by, or at the expense of, the founder.

(2) If a tenant proves that he has continuously occupied land for thirty years and paid no rent therefor beyond the amount of the land-revenue thereof and the rates and cesses for the time being chargeable thereon, it may be presumed that he has fulfilled the conditions of clause (a) of sub-section (1).

(3) The words in that clause denoting natural relationship denote also relationship by adoption, including therein the customary appointment of an heir, and relationship by the usage of a religious community.

Right of occupancy of other tenants recorded as having the right before passing of Punjab Tenancy Act, 1868.

XXVIII of 1868.

6. A tenant recorded in a record-of-rights sanctioned by the Local Government before the twenty-first day of October, 1868, as a tenant having a right of occupancy in land which he has continuously occupied from the time of the preparation of that record, shall be deemed to have a right of occupancy in that land unless the contrary has been established by a decree of a competent Court in a suit instituted before the passing of this Act.

Right of occupancy in land taken in exchange.

7. If the tenant has voluntarily exchanged the land, or any portion of the land, formerly occupied by him for other land belonging to the same landlord, the land taken in exchange shall be held to be subject to the same right of occupancy as that to which the land given in exchange would have been subject if the exchange had not taken place.

Establishment of right of occupancy on grounds other than those expressly stated in Act.

8. Nothing in the foregoing sections of this Chapter shall preclude any person from establishing a right of occupancy on any ground other than the grounds specified in those sections.

Right of occupancy not to be acquired by mere lapse of time.

9. No tenant shall acquire a right of occupancy by mere lapse of time.

Right of occupancy not to be acquired by joint owner in land held in joint ownership.

10. In the absence of a custom to the contrary no one of several joint owners of land shall acquire a right of occupancy under this Chapter in land jointly owned by them.

Continuance of existing occupancy-rights.

11. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing sections of this Chapter, a tenant who immediately before the commencement of this Act has a right of occupancy in any land under an enactment specified in any line of the first column of the following table shall, when this Act comes into force, be held to have, for all the purposes of this Act, a right of occupancy in that land under the enactment specified in the same line of the second column of the table:—

CHAPTER III.

RENT.

Rents generally.

Respective rights of landlord and tenant to produce.

12. (1) The rent for the time being payable in respect of a tenancy shall be the first charge on the produce thereof.

(2) A tenant shall be entitled to tend, cut and harvest the produce of his tenancy in due course of husbandry without any interference on the part of his landlord.

(3) Except where rent is taken by division of the produce, the tenant shall be entitled to the exclusive possession of the produce.

(4) Where rent is taken by division of the produce—

(a) the tenant shall be entitled to the exclusive possession of the whole produce until it is divided ;

(b) the landlord shall be entitled to be present at, and take part in, the division of the produce ; and

(c) when the produce has been divided, the landlord shall be entitled to the possession of his share thereof.

Commutation and alteration of rent.

13. (1) Where rent is taken by any of the following methods, namely :—

(a) by division or appraisement of the produce,

(b) by rates fixed with reference to the nature of the crops grown,

(c) by a rate on a recognised measure of area,

(d) by a rent in gross on the tenancy, or

(e) partly by one of the methods specified in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of this sub-section and partly by another or others of them,

one of those methods shall not be commuted in whole or in part into another without the consent of both landlord and tenant.

(2) In the absence of a contract or a decree or order of competent authority to the contrary, a tenant whose rent is taken by any of the methods specified in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of sub-section (1), or by the method specified in clause (d) of

The Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.
(Chapter III.—Rent.—Sections 14-22.)

that sub-section, shall not be liable to pay for a tenancy rent at any higher rate, or of a higher amount, as the case may be, than the rate or amount payable in respect of the tenancy for the preceding agricultural year.

Payments for land occupied without consent of landlord.

14. Any person in possession of land occupied without the consent of the landlord shall be liable to pay for the use or occupation of that land at the rate of rent payable in the preceding agricultural year, or, if rent was not payable in that year, at such rate as the Court may determine to be fair and equitable.

Collection of rents of undivided property.

15. When two or more persons are landords of a tenant in respect of the same tenancy, the tenant shall not be bound to pay part of the rent of his tenancy to one of those persons and part to another.

Produce-rents.

Presumption with respect to produce removed before division or appraisement.

16. Where rent is taken by division or appraisement of the produce, if the tenant removes any portion of the produce at such a time or in such a manner as to prevent the due division or appraisement thereof, or deals therewith in a manner contrary to established usage, the produce may be deemed to have been as full as the fullest crop of the same description on similar land in the neighbourhood for that harvest.

Appointment of referee for division or appraisement.

17. If either the landlord or the tenant neglects to attend, either personally or by agent, at the proper time for making the division or appraisement of the produce, or if there is a dispute about the division or appraisement, a Revenue-officer may, on the application of either party, appoint such person as he thinks fit to be a referee to divide or appraise the produce.

Appointment of assessors and procedure of referee.

18. (1) When a Revenue-officer appoints a referee under the last foregoing section, he may, in his discretion, give him instructions with respect to the association with himself of any other persons as assessors, the number, qualifications and selection of those assessors, and the procedure to be followed in making the division or appraisement.

(2) The referee so appointed shall make the division or appraisement in accordance with any instructions which he may have received from the Revenue-officer under the last foregoing sub-section.

(3) Before making the division or appraisement the referee shall give notice to the landlord and the tenant of the time and place at which the division or appraisement will be made, but, if either the landlord or the tenant fails to attend either personally or by agent, the referee may proceed ex parte.

(4) For the purpose of making the division or appraisement, the referee, with his assessors, if any, may enter upon any land on which or into any building in which the produce is.

Procedure after division or appraisement.

19. (1) The result of the division or appraisement shall be recorded and signed by the referee, and the record shall be submitted to the Revenue-officer.

(2) The Revenue-officer shall consider the record, and, after such further inquiry, if any, as he may deem necessary, shall make an order either confirming or varying the division or appraisement.

(3) The Revenue-officer shall also make such order as to the costs of the reference as he thinks fit.

(4) The costs may include the remuneration of the referee and of the assessors, if any, and may be levied from the applicant before the appointment of the referee subject to adjustment at the close of the proceedings.

Enhancement of produce-rents of occupancy-tenants.

20. Where the rent of a tenant having a right of occupancy in any land is a share of the produce, or of the appraised value thereof, with or without an addition in money, or is paid according to rates fixed with reference to the nature of the crops grown, or is a rent in gross payable in kind, the tenant shall be entitled to occupy the land at that rent:

Provided that, when the land or any part thereof previously not irrigated or flooded becomes irrigated or flooded, the rent payable in respect of the land or part may, subject to the provisions of this Act, be enhanced to the share or rates, or with reference to the rent in gross, as the case may be, paid by tenants, having a similar right of occupancy, for irrigated or flooded land of a similar description and with similar advantages.

Reduction of rents referred to in the last foregoing section.

21. When the land, or any part of the land, held by a tenant having a right of occupancy to whom the last foregoing section applies ceases to be irrigated or flooded, the rent payable in respect of the land or part may be reduced to the share or rates, or with reference to the rent in gross, as the case may be, paid by tenants, having a similar right of occupancy, for unirrigated or unflooded land of a similar description and with similar advantages.

Cash-rents paid by Tenants having Right of Occupancy.

Enhancement of cash-rents of occupancy-tenants.

22. (1) Where a tenant having a right of occupancy pays his rent entirely by a cash-rate on a recognised measure of area or by a cash-rent in gross on his tenancy, the rent may be enhanced on the ground that, after deduction therefrom of the land-revenue of, and the rates and cesses chargeable on, the tenancy, it is—

(a) if the tenant belongs to the class specified in clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 5, less than two annas per rupee of the amount of the land-revenue;

(b) if he belongs to any of the classes specified in clauses (b), (c) and (d) of that sub-section, less than six annas per rupee of the amount of the land-revenue;

(c) if he belongs to the class specified in section 6, or if his right of occupancy is established under section 8 and his rent is not regulated by contract, less than twelve annas per rupee of the amount of the land-revenue.

(2) In a case to which sub-section (1) applies, the rent may be enhanced to an amount not exceeding two, six or twelve annas per rupee

The Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.
(Chapter III.—Rent.—Sections 23-28.)

of the amount of the land-revenue, as the case may be, in addition to the amount of the land-revenue of the tenancy and the rates and cesses chargeable thereon.

Reduction of rents referred to in the last foregoing section.

23. The rent payable by a tenant to whom the last foregoing section applies may be reduced on the ground that the productive powers of his tenancy have been decreased by a cause beyond his control.

General Provisions relating to Suits for Enhancement or Reduction of Rent.

Enhancement and reduction of rent by suit.

24. (1) A Revenue Court, on the suit of either landlord or tenant, may, subject to the provisions of this and other sections of this Act, enhance or reduce the rent of any tenant having a right of occupancy.

(2) Where a decree for the enhancement of the rent of such a tenant has been passed under the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1868, a suit for a further enhancement of his rent shall not lie till the expiration of five years from the date of the decree, unless in the meantime the local area in which the land comprised in the decree is situate has been generally re-assessed and the revenue payable in respect of that land has been increased. [XVIII of 1868.]

(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), a suit instituted for the enhancement of the rent of a tenant having a right of occupancy shall not be entertained in either of the following cases, namely:—

(a) if within the ten years next preceding its institution his rent has been commuted under section 13 or enhanced under this section,

(b) if within that period a decree has been passed under this Act dismissing on the merits a suit for the enhancement of his rent, unless the land or some part of the land comprised in his tenancy, not having been irrigated or flooded at the time of such commutation, enhancement or decree, has become irrigated or flooded.

Discretion as to extent of enhancement or reduction.

25. In enhancing or reducing the rent of any land under the foregoing provisions of this Chapter, the Court shall, within the limits prescribed by those provisions, enhance or reduce the rent to such an amount as it considers fair and equitable, but shall not in any case fix the rent at a sum less than the amount of the land-revenue of the land and the rates and cesses chargeable thereon.

Time for enhancement or reduction to take effect.

26. (1) Unless the Court decreeing an enhancement of rent otherwise directs, the enhancement shall take effect from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the decree.

(2) A Court decreeing a reduction of rent shall specify in the decree the date on and from which the reduction is to take effect.

Adjustment of Rents expressed in terms of the Land-revenue.

Adjustment of rents expressed in terms of the land-revenue.

27. (1) Where the rent of a tenancy is the whole or a share of the land-revenue thereof, with or without an addition in money, kind or service, and the land-revenue of the holding in which the tenancy is situate is altered, a Revenue-officer having authority under section 56 of the Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887, to determine the land-revenue payable in respect of the several holdings comprised in the estate in which the tenancy is situate shall determine also the amount of the land-revenue of the tenancy, or the proportionate share thereof, payable by the tenant as rent. [XVII of 1887.]

(2) Where an addition referred to in sub-section (1) is a percentage fixed with reference to the land-revenue of the tenancy, or the whole or a share of the rates and cesses chargeable thereon, or both, the Revenue-officer shall in like manner from time to time alter the amount of the addition in proportion to any alteration of such land-revenue or rates and cesses.

(3) The sum or sums determined under the foregoing sub-sections, together with any addition previously payable other than the additions referred to in sub-section (2), shall be the rent payable in respect of the tenancy until there is again an alteration of the land-revenue thereof or of the rates and cesses chargeable thereon or until the rent is enhanced by a suit under this Act.

(4) An alteration of rent under this section shall not be deemed an enhancement or reduction of rent within the meaning of this Act.

Alteration of Rent on Alteration of Area.

Alteration of rent on alteration of area.

28. (1) Every tenant shall—

(a) be liable to pay additional rent for all land proved to be in excess of the area for which rent has been previously paid by him, unless it is proved that the excess is due to the addition to his tenancy of land which, having previously belonged to the tenancy, was lost by diluvion or otherwise without any reduction of the rent being made; and

(b) be entitled to an abatement of rent in respect of any deficiency proved to exist in the area of his tenancy as compared with the area for which rent has been previously paid by him, unless it is proved that the deficiency is due to the loss of land which was added to the area of the tenancy by alluvion or otherwise, and that an addition has not been made to the rent in respect of the addition to the area.

(2) In determining the area for which rent has been previously paid, the Court shall have regard to the following, among other matters, namely:—

(a) the origin and conditions of the tenant's occupancy, for instance, whether the rent was a rent in gross for the entire tenancy;

(b) whether the tenant has been allowed to hold additional land in consideration of an addition to his total rent or otherwise with the knowledge and consent of the landlord; and

(c) the length of time during which there has been no dispute as to rent or area.

(3) In adding to or abating rent under this section, the Court shall add to or abate the rent to such an amount as it deems to be fair and equitable, and shall specify in its decree the date on and from which the addition or abatement is to take effect.

The Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.
(Chapter III.—Rent.—Sections 29-34.)

(4) An addition to or abatement of rent under this section shall not be deemed an enhancement or reduction of rent within the meaning of this Act.

Remission.

Remission of rent by Courts decreeing arrears.

29. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing sections of this Chapter, if it appears to a Court making a decree for an arrear of rent that the area of a tenancy has been so diminished by diluvion or otherwise, or that the produce thereof has been so diminished by drought, hail, deposit of sand or other like calamity, that the full amount of rent payable by the tenant cannot be equitably decreed, the Court may, with the previous sanction of the Collector, allow such remission from the rent payable by the tenant as may appear to it to be just.

Remission and suspension of rent consequent on like treatment of land-revenue.

30. (1) Whenever from any cause the payment of the whole or any part of the land-revenue payable in respect of any land is remitted or suspended, a Revenue-officer may, by order, remit or suspend, as the case may be, the payment of the rent of that land to an amount which may bear the same proportion to the whole of the rent payable in respect of the land as the land-revenue of which the payment has been remitted or suspended bears to the whole of the land-revenue payable in respect of the land.

(2) An order passed under sub-section (1) shall not be liable to be contested by suit in any Court.

(3) A suit shall not lie for the recovery of any rent of which the payment has been remitted, or, during the period of suspension, of any rent of which the payment has been suspended.

(4) Where the payment of rent has been suspended, the period during which the suspension has continued shall be excluded in the computation of the period of limitation prescribed for a suit for the recovery of the rent.

(5) If the landlord collects any rent of which the payment has been remitted, or before the expiration of the period of suspension collects any rent of which the payment has been suspended, the whole of the land-revenue remitted or suspended in his favour shall become immediately payable by him.

(6) The provisions of this section relating to the remission and suspension of the payment of rent may be applied, so far as they can be made applicable, to land of which the land-revenue has been released, compounded for or redeemed, in any case in which, if the land-revenue in respect of the land had not been released, compounded for or redeemed, the whole or any part of it might, in the opinion of the Revenue-officer, be remitted or suspended under the rules for the time being in force for regulating the remission and suspension of land-revenue.

Deposits.

Power to deposit rent in certain cases with Revenue-officer.

31. In either of the following cases, namely :—

(a) when a landlord refuses to receive, or grant a receipt for, any rent payable in money when tendered to him by a tenant,

(b) when a tenant is in doubt as to the person entitled to receive rent payable in money,

the tenant may apply to a Revenue-officer for leave to deposit the rent in his office, and the Revenue officer shall receive the deposit if, after examining the applicant, he is satisfied that there is sufficient ground for the application and if the applicant pays the fee, if any, chargeable for the issue of the notice next hereinafter referred to.

Effect of depositing rent.

32. (1) When a deposit has been so received, it shall be deemed to be a payment made by the tenant to his landlord in respect of rent due.

(2) The Revenue-officer receiving the deposit shall give notice of the receipt thereof to every person who he has reason to believe claims or is entitled to the deposit, and may pay the amount thereof to any person appearing to him to be entitled thereto, or may, if he thinks fit, retain the deposit pending the decision of a competent Court as to the person so entitled.

(3) No suit or other proceeding shall be instituted against the Secretary of State for India in Council, or against any officer of the Government, in respect of anything done by a Revenue-officer under this section, but nothing in this sub-section shall prevent any person entitled to receive the amount of any such deposit from recovering it from a person to whom it has been paid by a Revenue-officer.

Recovery of Rent from attached Produce.

Recovery of rent from attached produce.

33. (1) If an order is made by any Court for the attachment of the produce of a tenancy or of any part of a tenancy, the landlord may apply to the Revenue-officer by whom the attachment is to be or has been made to sell the produce and pay to him out of the proceeds of the sale thereof the amount or value of—

(a) any rent which has fallen due to him in respect of the tenancy within the year immediately preceding the application, and

(b) the rent which will be falling due after the harvesting of the produce and is chargeable against it.

(2) The Revenue-officer shall give the person at whose instance the attachment was made an opportunity of showing cause why the application of the landlord should not be granted, and, if he finds the landlord's claim to the whole or any part of the rent to be proved, he shall cause the produce or such portion thereof as he may deem necessary to be sold, and shall apply the proceeds of the sale in the first instance to satisfy the claim.

(3) The finding of the Revenue-officer under sub-section (2) shall have the force of a decree in a suit between the landlord and the tenant.

Leases for Period exceeding Term of Assessment of Land-revenue.

Treatment of leases for period exceeding or equal to term of assessment of land-revenue.

34. (1) Where a lease has been granted, or an agreement has been entered into, by a landowner in respect of any land assessed to land-revenue, fixing for a period exceeding the term for which the land-revenue has been assessed the rent or other sum payable in respect of the land under the lease or

The Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.
(Chapter III.—Rent.—Section 34. Chapter IV.—Relinquishment, Abandonment and Ejectment.—Sections 35-44.)

agreement, and that term has expired, the lease or agreement shall be voidable—

(a) at the option of the landowner if the land-revenue of the land has been enhanced and the person to whom the lease has been granted or with whom the agreement has been entered into refuses to pay such rent or other sum as a Revenue Court, on the suit of the landowner, determines to be fair and equitable; and where the relation of landlord and tenant exists between the grantor and grantee of the lease, or between the persons who entered into the agreement—

(b) at the option of the tenant if the land-revenue of the land has been reduced and the landlord refuses to accept such rent as a Revenue Court, on the suit of the tenant, determines to be fair and equitable.

(2) Any agreement relative to the occupation, rent, profits or produce of any land which has been entered into for the term of the currency of an assessment shall, unless a contrary intention clearly appears in the agreement or the agreement is terminated by consent of parties or course of law, continue in force until a revised assessment takes effect.

CHAPTER IV.

RELINQUISHMENT, ABANDONMENT AND EJECTMENT

Relinquishment.

Relinquishment by tenant for a fixed term.

35. A tenant holding for a fixed term under a contract or a decree or order of competent authority may relinquish his tenancy without notice, at the end of that term.

Relinquishment by any other tenant.

36. (1) Any other tenant may relinquish his tenancy by giving verbally or in writing to his landlord, or to his landlord's agent, on or before the fifteenth day of January in any year, notice of his intention to relinquish the tenancy at the end of the agricultural year then current.

(2) The tenant may, instead of, or in addition to, giving the notice in the manner mentioned in sub-section (1), apply to a Revenue-officer on or before the date aforesaid to cause the notice to be served on the landlord, and the Revenue-officer, on receiving the cost of service from the tenant, shall cause the notice to be served as soon as may be.

(3) If the tenant does not give notice in the manner prescribed in this section, he shall be liable to pay the rent of his tenancy for any part of the ensuing agricultural year during which the tenancy is not let by the landlord to some other person or is not cultivated by the landlord himself.

Relinquishment of part only of a tenancy.

37. A tenant cannot, without the consent of his landlord, relinquish a part only of his tenancy.

Abandonment.

Abandonment of tenancy by occupancy-tenant.

38. If a tenant having a right of occupancy fails for more than one year without sufficient cause to cultivate his tenancy, either by himself or some other person, and to arrange for payment of the rent thereof as it falls due, the right of occupancy shall be extinguished from the end of that year.

Ejectment.

LIABILITY TO EJECTMENT.

Grounds of ejectment of occupancy-tenant.

39. A tenant having a right of occupancy shall be liable to be ejected from his tenancy on any of the following grounds, namely:—

(a) that he has used the land comprised in the tenancy in a manner which renders it unfit for the purposes for which he held it;

(b) where rent is payable in kind, that he has without sufficient cause failed to cultivate that land in the manner or to the extent customary in the locality in which the land is situate;

(c) that a decree for an arrear of rent in respect of the tenancy has been passed against him and remains unsatisfied.

Grounds of ejectment of tenant for a fixed term.

40. A tenant not having a right of occupancy, but holding for a fixed term under a contract or a decree or order of competent authority, shall be liable to be ejected from his tenancy at the expiration of that term, and, on any of the following grounds, before the expiration thereof, namely:—

(a) that he has used the land comprised in the tenancy in a manner which renders it unfit for the purposes for which he held it;

(b) where rent is payable in kind, that he has without sufficient cause failed to cultivate that land in the manner or to the extent customary in the locality in which the land is situate;

(c) on any ground which would justify ejectment under the contract, decree or order.

Ejectment of tenant from year to year.

41. A tenant who has not a right of occupancy, and does not hold for a fixed term under a contract or a decree or order of competent authority, may be ejected at the end of any agricultural year.

PROCEDURE ON EJECTMENT.

Restriction on ejectment.

42. A tenant shall not be ejected otherwise than in execution of a decree for ejectment except in the following cases, namely:—

(a) when a decree for an arrear of rent in respect of his tenancy has been passed against him and remains unsatisfied;

(b) when the tenant has not a right of occupancy, and does not hold for a fixed term under a contract or a decree or order of competent authority.

Application to Revenue-officer for ejectment.

43. In any such case as is mentioned in clause (a) or clause (b) of the last foregoing section, the landlord may apply to a Revenue-officer for the ejectment of the tenant in the case mentioned in the former clause or for the service on the tenant of a notice of ejectment in the case mentioned in the latter clause.

Ejectment for failure to satisfy decree for arrear of rent.

44. (1) On receiving the application in any such case as is mentioned in clause (a) of section 42 the Revenue-officer shall, after such inquiry with respect to the existence of the arrear as he deems necessary, cause a notice to be served on the tenant, stating the date of the decree and the amount due thereunder, and informing him that if he does not pay that amount

The Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.
(Chapter IV.—Relinquishment, Abandonment and Ejectment.—Sections 45-50.)

to the Revenue-officer within fifteen days from receipt of the notice he will be ejected from the land.

(2) If the amount is not so paid, the Revenue-officer shall, subject to the provisions of this Act with respect to the payment of compensation, order the ejectment of the tenant unless good cause is shown to the contrary.

Ejectment of tenant from year to year by notice.

45. (1) On receiving the application of the landlord in any such case as is mentioned in clause (b) of section 42, the Revenue-officer shall, if the application is in order and not open to objection on the face of it, cause a notice of ejectment to be served on the tenant.

(2) A notice under sub-section (1) shall not be served after the fifteenth day of November in any year.

(3) The notice shall specify the name of the landlord on whose application it is issued, and describe the land to which it relates, and shall inform the tenant that he must vacate the land before the first day of May next following, or that, if he intends to contest his liability to ejectment, he must institute a suit for that purpose in a Revenue Court within two months from the date of the service of the notice.

(4) The notice shall also inform the tenant that if he does not intend to contest his liability to be ejected and he has any claim for compensation on ejectment he should, within two months from the date of the service of the notice, prefer his claim to the Revenue-officer having authority under the next following sub-section to order his ejectment in the circumstances described in that sub-section.

(5) If within two months from the date of the service of the notice the tenant does not institute a suit to contest his liability to be ejected, a Revenue-officer, on the application of the landlord, shall, subject to the provisions of this Act with respect to the payment of compensation, order the ejectment of the tenant:

Provided that the Revenue-officer shall not make the order until he is satisfied that the notice was duly served on the tenant.

(6) If within those two months the tenant institutes a suit to contest his liability to be ejected and fails in the suit, the Court by which the suit is determined shall by its decree direct the ejectment of the tenant.

Power to make rules.

46. The Financial Commissioner may make rules prescribing—

(a) the form and language of applications and notices under the two last foregoing sections; and

(b) the manner in which those applications and notices are to be signed and attested.

GENERAL PROVISIONS RESPECTING EJECTMENT.

Time for ejectment.

47. A decree or order for the ejectment of a tenant shall not be executed at any other time than between the first day of May and the fifteenth day of June (both days inclusive), unless the Court making the decree or, where the order is made under section 44, the officer making the order otherwise directs.

Relief against forfeiture.

48. (1) If in a suit for the ejectment of a tenant on either of the grounds mentioned in clauses (a) and (b) of section 39 or of section 40 it appears to the Court that the injury caused by the act or omission on which the suit is based is capable of being remedied, or that an award of compensation will be sufficient satisfaction to the landlord therefor, the Court may, instead of making a decree for the ejectment of the tenant, order him to remedy the injury within a period to be fixed in the order, or order him to pay into Court, within such a period, such compensation as the Court thinks fit.

(2) The Court may from time to time, for special reasons, extend a period fixed by it under sub-section (1).

(3) If within the period, or extended period, as the case may be, fixed by the Court under this section, the injury is remedied or the compensation is paid, a decree for the ejectment of the tenant shall not be made.

Rights of ejected tenants in respect of crops and land prepared for sowing.

49. (1) Where at the time of the proposed ejectment of a tenant from any land his uncut or ungathered crops are standing on any part thereof, he shall not be ejected from that part until the crops have ripened and he has been allowed a reasonable time to harvest them.

(2) The Court or Revenue-officer decreeing or ordering the ejectment of the tenant may, on the application of the landlord, determine any dispute arising in consequence of the provisions of sub-section (1) between the landlord and the tenant or between the landlord and any person entitled to harvest the crops of the tenant, and may in its or his discretion—

(a) direct that the tenant pay for the longer occupation of the land secured to him under sub-section (1) such rent as may be fair and equitable, or

(b) determine the value of the tenant's uncut and ungathered crops, and, on payment thereof by the landlord to the Court or Revenue-officer, forthwith eject the tenant.

(3) When a tenant for whose ejectment proceedings have been taken has, conformably with local usage, prepared for sowing any land comprised in his tenancy, but has not sown or planted crops on that land, he shall be entitled to receive from the landlord before ejectment a fair equivalent in money for the labour and capital expended by him in so preparing the land, and the Court or Revenue-officer before which or whom the proceedings are pending shall, on the application of the tenant, determine the sum payable to the tenant under this sub-section and stay his ejectment until that sum has been paid to him.

RELIEF FOR WRONGFUL DISPOSSESSION.

Relief for wrongful dispossession or ejectment.

50. In either of the following cases, namely :—

(a) if a tenant has been dispossessed without his consent of his tenancy or any part thereof otherwise than in execution of a decree or than in pursuance of an order under section 44 or section 45,

(b) if a tenant who, not having instituted a suit under section 45, has been ejected

The Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.
(Chapter IV.—Relinquishment, Abandonment and Ejectment.—Sections 51-52. Chapter V.—Alienation of, and Succession to, Right of Occupancy.—Sections 53-58.)

from his tenancy or any part thereof in pursuance of an order under that section denies his liability to be ejected, the tenant may, within one year from the date of his dispossession or ejectment, institute a suit for recovery of possession or occupancy, or for compensation, or for both.

Bar of relief by suit under section 9, Act I, 1877.

51. Possession of a tenancy or of any land comprised in a tenancy shall not be recoverable under section 9 of the Specific Relief Act, 1877, by a tenant dispossessed thereof. I of 1877.

Power to vary Dates prescribed by this Chapter.

Power for Local Government to fix dates for certain purposes.

52. (1) The Local Government may, for all or any of the territories under its administration, by notification fix for the purposes of sections 36, 45 and 47, or of any of those sections, any other dates instead of those specified therein.

(2) A notification under this section shall not take effect till after the expiration of six months from the date of the publication thereof.

CHAPTER V.

ALIENATION OF, AND SUCCESSION TO, RIGHT OF OCCUPANCY.

Alienation.

Private transfer of right of occupancy under section 5 by tenant.

53. (1) A tenant having a right of occupancy under section 5 may transfer that right by sale, gift or mortgage, subject to the conditions mentioned in this section.

(2) If he intends to transfer the right by sale, gift, mortgage by conditional sale or usufructuary mortgage, he shall cause notice of his intention to be served on his landlord through a Revenue-officer, and shall defer proceeding with the transfer for a period of one month from the date on which the notice is served.

(3) Within that period of one month the landlord may claim to purchase the right at such value as a Revenue-officer may, on application made to him in this behalf, fix.

(4) When the application to the Revenue-officer is to fix the value of a right of occupancy which is already mortgaged, he shall fix the value of the right as if it were not mortgaged.

(5) The landlord shall be deemed to have purchased the right if he pays the value to the Revenue-officer within such time as that officer appoints.

(6) On the value being so paid, the right of occupancy shall be extinct, and the Revenue-officer shall, on the application of the landlord, put the landlord in possession of the tenancy.

(7) If the right of occupancy was already mortgaged, the tenancy shall pass to the landlord unincumbered by the mortgage, but the mortgage-debt shall be a charge on the purchase-money.

(8) If there is no such charge as aforesaid, the Revenue-officer shall, subject to any directions which he may receive from any Court, pay the purchase-money to the tenant.

(9) If there is such a charge, the Revenue-officer shall, subject as aforesaid, either apply in discharge of the mortgage-debt so much of the purchase-money as is required for that purpose and pay the balance, if any, to the tenant, or retain the purchase-money pending the decision of a Civil Court as to the person or persons entitled thereto.

(10) Where there are several landlords of a tenancy, any one of them may be deemed to be the landlord for the purposes of this section.

(11) No suit or other proceeding shall be instituted against the Secretary of State for India in Council, or against any officer of the Government, in respect of anything done by a Revenue-officer under the two last foregoing sub-sections, but nothing in this sub-section shall prevent any person entitled to receive the whole or any part of the purchase-money from recovering it from a person to whom it has been paid by a Revenue-officer.

Procedure on foreclosure of mortgage of right of occupancy under section 5.

54. Where a mortgagee of a right of occupancy under section 5 proposes to foreclose his mortgage, or otherwise enforce his lien on the land subject to the right, the provisions of the last foregoing section shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply as if the mortgagee were the tenant.

Sale of right of occupancy under section 5 in execution of decree.

55. (1) A right of occupancy under section 5 may be sold in execution of a decree or order of a Court;

(2) But notice of an intended sale of any such right shall be given by the Court to the landlord, and, if at any time before the close of the day on which the sale takes place the landlord pays to the Court or to the officer conducting the sale a deposit of twenty-five per centum on the highest bid made at the sale, he shall be declared to be the purchaser instead of the person who made that bid.

Transfer of right of occupancy under any other section than section 5.

56. A right of occupancy under any other section than section 5 shall not be attached or sold in execution of a decree or order of any Court or, without the previous consent in writing of the landlord, be transferred by private contract.

Rights and liabilities of transferee of right of occupancy.

57. When a right of occupancy has been transferred by sale, gift or usufructuary mortgage to a person other than the landlord, that person shall, in respect of the land in which the right subsists, have the same rights, and be subject to the same liabilities, as the tenant to whom before the transfer the right belonged had and was subject to.

Subletting.

58. (1) A tenant having a right of occupancy in land may, subject to the provisions of this Act and to the conditions of any written contract between him and his landlord, sublet the land or any part thereof for any term not exceeding seven years.

(2) A person to whom land is sublet by a tenant having a right of occupancy therein shall, in respect of that land, and so far as regards the landlord, be, jointly with the tenant, subject to all the liabilities of the tenant under this Act.

The Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.
(Chapter V.—Alienation of, and Succession to, Right of Occupancy.—Sections 59-60. Chapter VI.—Improvements and Compensation.—Sections 61-67.)

Succession.

Succession to right of occupancy.

59. (1) When a tenant having a right of occupancy in any land dies, the right shall devolve—

(a) on his male lineal descendants, if any, in the male line of descent, and,

(b) failing such descendants, on his widow, if any, until she dies or re-marries or abandons the land or is under the provisions of this Act ejected therefrom, and,

(c) failing such descendants and widow, or, if the deceased tenant left a widow, then when her interest terminates under clause (b) of this sub-section, on his male collateral relatives in the male line of descent from the common ancestor of the deceased tenant and those relatives :

Provided, with respect to clause (c) of this sub-section, that the common ancestor occupied the land.

(2) As among descendants and collateral relatives claiming under sub-section (1), the right shall, subject to the provisions of that sub-section, devolve as if it were land left by the deceased in the village in which the land subject to the right is situate.

(3) When the widow of a deceased tenant succeeds to a right of occupancy, she shall not transfer the right by sale, gift or mortgage, or by sub-lease for a term exceeding one year.

(4) If the deceased tenant has left no such persons as are mentioned in sub-section (1) on whom his right of occupancy may devolve under that sub-section, the right shall be extinguished.

Irregular Transfers.

Irregular transfer of right of occupancy.

60. Any transfer made of a right of occupancy in contravention of the foregoing provisions of this Chapter shall be voidable at the instance of the landlord.

CHAPTER VI.

IMPROVEMENTS AND COMPENSATION.

Improvements by Landlords.

Improvements by landlords on tenancies of occupancy-tenants.

61. (1) Without the previous permission of the Collector a landlord shall not make an improvement on the tenancy of a tenant having a right of occupancy.

(2) If a landlord desires to make such an improvement he may apply to the Collector for permission to make it, and the Collector shall, before making an order on the application, hear the objection, if any, of the tenant.

(3) In making an order on an application under sub-section (2) the Collector shall be guided by such rules, if any, as the Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, make in this behalf.

Enhancement of rent in consideration of an improvement made by a landlord on the tenancy of an occupancy-tenant.

62. (1) When a landlord has, with the permission mentioned in the last foregoing section, made an improvement on the tenancy of a tenant having a right of occupancy, he may apply to the Collector for an enhancement of the rent of the tenant ...

(2) If the tenant is a tenant to whom section 20 applies, the Collector shall enhance his rent to the share or rates, or with reference to the rent in gross, as the case may be, paid by tenants, having a similar right of occupancy, for land of a similar description and with similar advantages.

(3) If the tenant is a tenant to whom section 22 applies, the Collector shall enhance his rent to such amount as the tenant would be liable to pay under that section if the land-revenue were re-assessed.

(4) When the improvement ceases to exist, the Collector may, on the application of the tenant, reduce the tenant's rent,—

(a) in the case of a tenant to whom sub-section (2) applies, to the share or rates, or with reference to the rent in gross, as the case may be, paid by tenants, having a similar right of occupancy, for land of a similar description and with similar advantages, and

(b) in the case of a tenant to whom sub-section (3) applies, to such an amount as the tenant would be liable to pay if the land-revenue were re-assessed.

(5) Sections 25 and 26 shall be construed as applying to an application under this section, and a suit shall not lie in any Court for any purpose for which an application might be made under this section.

Improvements by Tenants.

Title of occupancy-tenant to make improvements.

63. A tenant having a right of occupancy is entitled to make improvements on his tenancy.

Title of tenants not having right of occupancy to make improvements.

64. (1) A tenant not having a right of occupancy may make improvements on his tenancy with the assent of his landlord.

(2) If at any time the question arises whether or not the landlord assented to the making of an improvement by a tenant not having a right of occupancy, the assent may be inferred from circumstances.

Improvements made before commencement of this Act.

65. Improvements made by a tenant before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been made in accordance with this Act, unless in the case of a tenant not having a right of occupancy it is shown that the improvement was made in contravention of a written agreement between him and his landlord.

Improvements begun in anticipation of ejectment.

66. A tenant ejected in execution of a decree, or in pursuance of a notice of ejectment, shall not be entitled to compensation for any improvement begun by him after the institution of the suit, or service of the notice, which resulted in his ejectment.

Tender of lease for twenty years to tenant to be a bar to right to compensation.

67. If a landlord tenders to a tenant a lease of his tenancy for a term of not less than twenty years from the date of the tender at the rent then paid by the tenant, or at such other rent as may be agreed on, the tender, if accepted by the tenant, shall bar any claim by him to compensation in respect of improvements previ-

The Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.
(Chapter VI.—Improvements and Compensation.—Sections 68-74. Chapter VII.—Jurisdiction and Procedure.—Section 75.)

Liability to pay compensation for improvements to tenant on ejectment or on enhancement of his rent.

68. Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Chapter, a tenant who has made an improvement on his tenancy in accordance with this Act shall not be ejected, and the rent payable by him shall not be enhanced, until he has received compensation for the improvement.

Compensation for Disturbance of Clearing Tenants.

Compensation for disturbance of clearing tenants.

69. (1) A tenant who has cleared and brought under cultivation waste-land in which he has not a right of occupancy shall, if ejected from that land, be entitled to receive from the landlord as compensation for disturbance, in addition to any compensation for improvements, a sum to be determined by a Revenue Court or Revenue-officer in accordance with the merits of the case, but not exceeding five years' rent of the land:

Provided that a tenant who is a joint owner of land to which this section applies shall not be entitled to compensation for disturbance on ejectment from the land or any part thereof.

(2) If rent has been paid for the land by division or appraisement of the produce, or by rates fixed with reference to the nature of the crops grown, or if no rent, or no rent other than the land-revenue of the land and the rates and cesses chargeable thereon, has been paid therefor, the compensation may be computed as if double the amount of the land-revenue of the land were the annual rent thereof.

Procedure in determining Compensation.

Determination of compensation by Revenue Courts.

70. (1) In every suit by a tenant to contest his liability to ejectment or by a landlord to eject a tenant or to enhance his rent, the Court shall direct the tenant to file a statement of his claim, if any, to compensation for improvements or for disturbance and of the grounds thereof.

(2) If the Court decrees the ejectment of the tenant or the enhancement of his rent, it shall determine the amount of compensation, if any, due to the tenant, and shall stay execution of the decree until the landlord pays into Court that amount less any arrears of rent or costs proved to the satisfaction of the Court to be due to him from the tenant.

Determination of compensation by Revenue-officers.

71. In either of the following cases, namely:—

(a) when a notice has been served on a tenant under section 44,

(b) when a notice of ejectment has been served on a tenant under section 45 and the tenant has not instituted a suit to contest his liability to be ejected, the tenant may apply to the Revenue-officer having authority to order his ejectment under section 44 or section 45, as the case may be, to determine the amount of compensation due to him for improvements or for disturbance, or for both, and the Revenue-officer shall determine the amount, if any, accordingly and stay the ejectment of the tenant until the landlord pays to the Revenue-officer the amount so determined less any arrears of rent or costs proved to the satisfaction of the Revenue-officer to be due to the landlord from the tenant.

Matters to be regarded in assessment of compensation for improvements.

72. In estimating the compensation to be awarded under this Chapter to a tenant for an improvement, the Court or Revenue-officer shall have regard to—

(a) the amount by which the value or the produce of the tenancy, or the value of that produce, is increased by the improvement;

(b) the condition of the improvement and the probable duration of its effects;

(c) the labour and capital required for the making of such an improvement;

(d) any reduction or remission of rent or other advantage allowed to the tenant by the landlord in consideration of the improvement; and

(e) in the case of a reclamation, or of the conversion of unirrigated into irrigated land, the length of time during which the tenant has had the benefit of the improvement.

Form of compensation.

73. (1) The compensation shall be made by payment in money, unless the parties agree that it be made in whole or in part by the grant of a beneficial lease of land or in some other way.

(2) If the parties so agree, the Court or Revenue-officer shall make an order accordingly.

Relief in case of Ejectment before Determination of Compensation.

Relief in case of ejectment before determination of compensation.

74. (1) If from any cause the amount of compensation payable to a tenant—

(a) under this Chapter for improvements or disturbance; or

(b) under section 49 for the value of uncut or ungathered crops or the preparation of land for sowing,

has not been determined before the tenant is ejected, the ejectment shall not be invalidated by reason of the omission, but the Court or Revenue-officer which decreed or who ordered the ejectment may, on application made by the tenant within one year from the date of the ejectment, correct the omission by making in favour of the tenant an order for the payment to him by the landlord of such compensation as the Court or officer may determine the tenant to be entitled to.

(2) An order made under sub-section (1) may be executed in the same manner as a decree for money may be executed by a Revenue Court.

CHAPTER VII.

JURISDICTION AND PROCEDURE.

Jurisdiction.

Revenue-officers.

75. (1) There shall be the same classes of Revenue-officers under this Act as under the Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887, and, in the absence of any order of the Local Government to the contrary, a Revenue-officer of any class having jurisdiction within any local limits under that Act shall be a Revenue-officer of the same class having jurisdiction within the same local limits under this Act.

The Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.
(Chapter VII.—Jurisdiction and Procedure.—Sections 76-77.)

(2) The expressions "Collector" and "Financial Commissioner" have the same meaning in this Act as in the Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.

Applications and proceedings cognizable by Revenue-officers.

76. (1) The following applications and proceedings shall be disposed of by Revenue-officers as such, and no Court shall take cognizance of any dispute or matter with respect to which any such application or proceeding might be made or had:—

FIRST GROUP.

(a) proceedings under section 27 for the adjustment of rents expressed in terms of the land-revenue;

(b) proceedings relating to the remission and suspension of rent under section 30;

(c) applications under section 43 for the ejectment of a tenant against whom a decree for an arrear of rent in respect of his tenancy has been passed and remains unsatisfied:

(d) applications under section 45, sub-section (5), for the ejectment of a tenant on whom a notice of ejectment has been served and who has not instituted a suit to contest his liability to be ejected but has claimed compensation under section 71;

(e) applications under section 53 or section 54 for the fixing of the value of a right of occupancy;

(f) applications under section 53 or section 54 by landlords for possession of land the right of occupancy in which has become extinct;

(g) proceedings under Chapter VI with respect to the award of compensation for improvements or disturbance;

SECOND GROUP.

(h) applications under section 17 with respect to the division or appraisement of produce;

(i) applications under section 45, sub-section (5), for the ejectment of a tenant on whom a notice of ejectment has been served and who has not instituted a suit to contest his liability to be ejected and has not claimed compensation under section 71;

(j) applications for the determination—

(i) under section 49 of the rent payable for land occupied by crops uncut or ungathered at the time of an order being made for the ejectment of a tenant, or

(ii) under section 49 or section 74 of the value of such crops or of the sum payable to the tenant for labour and capital expended by him in preparing land for sowing;

THIRD GROUP.

(k) applications under section 31 by tenants to deposit rent;

(l) applications under section 36 for service of notice of relinquishment;

(m) applications under section 43 for service of notice of ejectment;

(n) applications under section 53 or section 54 for service of notice of intended transfer or of intended foreclosure or other enforcement of lien.

(2) Except as otherwise provided by any rule made by the Financial Commissioner in this behalf,—

(a) a Collector or an Assistant Collector of the first grade may dispose of any of the applications and proceedings mentioned in sub-section (1);

(b) an Assistant Collector of the second grade, not being a Naib-tahsildár, may dispose of any of the applications mentioned in the second and third groups of that sub-section; and

(c) a Naib-tahsildár, when invested with the powers of an Assistant Collector of the second grade, may dispose of any of the applications mentioned in the third group of that sub-section.

Revenue Courts and suits cognizable by them.

77. (1) When a Revenue-officer is exercising jurisdiction with respect to any such suit as is described in sub-section (3), or with respect to an appeal or other proceeding arising out of any such suit, he shall be called a Revenue Court.

(2) There shall be the same classes of Revenue Courts as of Revenue-officers under this Act, and, in the absence of any order of the Local Government to the contrary, a Revenue-officer of any class having jurisdiction within any local limits under this Act shall be a Revenue Court of the same class having jurisdiction within the same local limits.

(3) The following suits shall be instituted in and heard and determined by Revenue Courts, and no other Court shall take cognizance of any dispute or matter with respect to which any such suit might be instituted:—

FIRST GROUP.

(a) suits between landlord and tenant for enhancement or reduction of rent under section 24;

(b) suits between landlord and tenant for addition to or abatement of rent under section 28 or for commutation of rent;

(c) suits under section 34 for the determination of rent or other sum on the expiration of the term of an assessment of land-revenue;

SECOND GROUP.

(d) suits by a tenant to establish a claim to a right of occupancy, or by a landlord to prove that a tenant has not such a right;

(e) suits by a landlord to eject a tenant;

(f) suits by a tenant under section 45 to contest liability to ejectment, when notice of ejectment has been served;

(g) suits by a tenant under section 50 for recovery of possession or occupancy, or for compensation, or for both;

(h) suits by a landlord to set aside a transfer made of a right of occupancy, or to dispossess a person to whom such a transfer has been made, or for both purposes;

(i) any other suit between landlord and tenant arising out of the lease or conditions on which a tenancy is held;

The Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.
(Chapter VII.—Jurisdiction and Procedure.—Sections 78-82.)

(j) suits for sums payable on account of village-cesses or village-expenses;

(k) suits by a co-sharer in an estate or holding for a share of the profits thereof or for a settlement of accounts;

(l) suits for the recovery of over-payments of rent or land-revenue or of any other demand for which a suit lies in a Revenue Court under this sub-section;

(m) suits relating to the emoluments of kánúngos, zaildárs, inámdárs or village-officers;

THIRD GROUP.

(n) suits by a landlord for arrears of rent or the money-equivalent of rent, or for sums recoverable under section 14;

(o) suits by a landowner to recover moneys claimed as due for the enjoyment of rights in or over land or in water, including rights of irrigation, rights over fisheries, rights of pasturage and forest-rights;

(p) suits for sums payable on account of land-revenue or of any other demand recoverable as an arrear of land-revenue under any enactment for the time being in force, and by a superior landowner for other sums due to him as such.

(4) Except as otherwise provided by any rule made by the Financial Commissioner in this behalf,—

(a) a Collector may hear and determine any of the suits mentioned in sub-section (3);

(b) an Assistant Collector of the first grade may hear and determine any of the suits mentioned in the second and third groups of that sub-section, and, if he has by name been specially empowered in this behalf by the Local Government, any of the suits mentioned in the first group; and

(c) an Assistant Collector of the second grade may hear and determine any of the suits mentioned in the third group.

Administrative Control.

Superintendence and control of Revenue-officers and Revenue Courts.

78. (1) The general superintendence and control over all other Revenue-officers and Revenue Courts shall be vested in, and all such officers and Courts shall be subordinate to, the Financial Commissioner.

(2) Subject to the general superintendence and control of the Financial Commissioner, a Commissioner shall control all other Revenue-officers and Revenue Courts in his division.

(3) Subject as aforesaid and to the control of the Commissioner, a Collector shall control all other Revenue-officers and Revenue Courts in his district.

Power to distribute business and withdraw and transfer cases.

79. (1) The Financial Commissioner or a Commissioner or Collector may by written order distribute, in such manner as he thinks fit, any business cognizable by any Revenue-officer or Revenue Court under his control.

(2) The Financial Commissioner or a Commissioner or Collector may withdraw any case pending before any Revenue-officer or Revenue Court under his control, and either dispose of it himself, or by written order refer it for disposal to any other Revenue-officer or Revenue Court under his control.

(3) An order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall not empower any Revenue-officer or Revenue Court to exercise any powers or deal with any business which he or it would not be competent to exercise or deal with within the local limits of his or its own jurisdiction.

Appeal, Review and Revision.

Appeals.

80. Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules thereunder, an appeal shall lie from an original or appellate order or decree made under this Act by a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court, as follows, namely:—

(a) to the Collector when the order or decree is made by an Assistant Collector of either grade;

(b) to the Commissioner when the order or decree is made by a Collector;

(c) to the Financial Commissioner when the order or decree is made by a Commissioner:

Provided that—

(i) an appeal from an order or decree made by an Assistant Collector of the first grade specially empowered by name in that behalf by the Local Government in a suit mentioned in the first group of sub-section (3) of section 77 shall lie to the Commissioner and not to the Collector;

(ii) when an original order or decree is confirmed on first appeal, a further appeal shall not lie;

(iii) when any such order or decree is modified or reversed on appeal by the Collector, the order or decree made by the Commissioner on further appeal, if any, to him shall be final.

Limitation for appeals.

81. The period of limitation for an appeal under the last foregoing section shall run from the date of the order or decree appealed against, and shall be as follows, that is to say:—

(a) when the appeal lies to the Collector—thirty days;

(b) when the appeal lies to the Commissioner—sixty days;

(c) when the appeal lies to the Financial Commissioner—ninety days.

Review by Revenue-officers.

82. (1) A Revenue-officer, as such, may either of his own motion or on the application of any party interested, review, and on so reviewing modify, reverse or confirm any order passed by himself or by any of his predecessors in office:

Provided as follows:—

(a) when a Commissioner or Collector thinks it necessary to review any order which he has not himself passed, and when a Revenue-officer of a class below that of Collector proposes to review any order whether passed by himself or by any of his predecessors in office, he shall first obtain the sanction of the Revenue-officer to whose control he is immediately subject;

The Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.
(Chapter VII.—Jurisdiction and Procedure.—Sections 83-88.)

(b) an application for review of an order shall not be entertained unless it is made within ninety days from the passing of the order, or unless the applicant satisfies the Revenue-officer that he had sufficient cause for not making the application within that period ;

(c) an order shall not be modified or reversed unless reasonable notice has been given to the parties affected thereby to appear and be heard in support of the order;

(d) an order against which an appeal has been preferred shall not be reviewed.

(2) For the purposes of this section the Collector shall be deemed to be the successor in office of any Revenue-officer of a lower class who has left the district or has ceased to exercise powers as a Revenue-officer, and to whom there is no successor in office.

(3) An appeal shall not lie from an order refusing to review, or confirming on review, a previous order.

Computation of periods limited for appeals and applications for review.

83. In the computation of the period for an appeal from, or an application for the review of, an order under this Act, the limitation therefor shall be governed by the Indian Limitation Act, 1877. XV of 1877.

Power to call for, examine and revise proceedings of Revenue-officers and Revenue Courts.

84. (1) The Financial Commissioner may at any time call for the record of any case pending before, or disposed of by, any Revenue-officer or Revenue Court subordinate to him.

(2) A Commissioner or Collector may call for the record of any case pending before, or disposed of by, any Revenue-officer or Revenue Court under his control.

(3) If in any case in which a Commissioner or Collector has called for a record he is of opinion that the proceedings taken or the order or decree made should be modified or reversed, he shall submit the record with his opinion on the case for the orders of the Financial Commissioner.

(4) If, after examining a record called for by himself under sub-section (1) or submitted to him under sub-section (3), the Financial Commissioner is of opinion that it is inexpedient to interfere with the proceedings or the order or decree, he shall pass an order accordingly.

(5) If, after examining the record, the Financial Commissioner is of opinion that it is expedient to interfere with the proceedings or the order or decree on any ground on which the Chief Court in the exercise of its revisional jurisdiction may under the law for the time being in force interfere with the proceedings or an order or decree of a Civil Court, he shall fix a day for hearing the case, and may, on that or any subsequent day to which he may adjourn the hearing or which he may appoint in this behalf, pass such order as he thinks fit in the case.

(6) Except when the Financial Commissioner fixes under sub-section (5) a day for hearing the case, no party has any right to be heard before the Financial Commissioner when exercising his powers under this section.

Procedure.

Procedure of Revenue-officers.

85. (1) The Local Government may make rules consistent with this Act for regulating the procedure of Revenue-officers under this Act in cases in which a procedure is not prescribed by this Act.

(2) The rules may provide, among other matters, for the mode of enforcing orders of ejectment from, and delivery of possession of, immoveable property, and rules providing for those matters may confer on a Revenue-officer all or any of the powers in regard to contempts, resistance and the like which a Civil Court may exercise in the execution of a decree whereby it has adjudged ejectment from, or delivery of possession of, such property.

(3) The rules may also provide for the mode of executing orders as to costs, and may adapt to proceedings under this Act all or any of the provisions of the Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887, with respect to arbitration. XVII of 1887.

(4) Subject to the rules under this section, a Revenue-officer may refer any case which he is empowered to dispose of under this Act to another Revenue-officer for investigation and report, and may decide the case upon the report.

Persons by whom appearances may be made before Revenue-officers as such and not as Revenue Courts.

86. (1) Appearances before a Revenue-officer as such, and applications to and acts to be done before him, under this Act may be made or done—

(a) by the parties themselves, or

(b) by their recognized agents or a legal practitioner:

Provided that the employment of a recognized agent or legal practitioner shall not excuse the personal attendance of a party to any proceeding in any case in which personal attendance is specially required by an order of the officer.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), recognized agents shall be such persons as the Local Government may by notification declare in this behalf.

(3) The fees of a legal practitioner shall not be allowed as costs in any proceeding before a Revenue-officer under this Act, unless that officer considers, for reasons to be recorded by him in writing, that the fees should be allowed.

Costs.

87. (1) A Revenue-officer may give and apportion the costs of any proceeding under this Act in any manner he thinks fit ;

(2) But if he orders that the costs of any such proceeding shall not follow the event, he shall record his reasons for the order.

Procedure of Revenue Courts.

88. (1) The Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, make rules consistent with this Act for regulating the procedure of Revenue Courts in matters under this Act for which a procedure is not prescribed thereby, and may by any such rule direct that any provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure shall apply, with or without modification, to all or any classes of cases before those Courts. XIV of 1882.

(2) Until rules are made under sub-section (1), and subject to those rules when made and to the provisions of this Act,—

(a) the Code of Civil Procedure shall, so far as it is applicable, apply to all proceedings in Revenue Courts whether before or after decree; and

The Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.
(Chapter VII.—Jurisdiction and Procedure.—Sections 89-96.)

(b) the Financial Commissioner shall, in respect of those proceedings, be deemed to be the High Court within the meaning of that Code, and shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, exercise, as regards the Courts under his control, all the powers of a High Court under the Code.

Power of Revenue-officer or Revenue Court to summon persons.

89. (1) A Revenue-officer or Revenue Court may summon any person whose attendance he or it considers necessary for the purpose of any application, suit or other business before him or it as a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court.

(2) A person so summoned shall be bound to appear at the time and place mentioned in the summons in person or, if the summons so allows, by his recognized agent or a legal practitioner.

(3) The person attending in obedience to the summons shall be bound to state the truth upon any matter respecting which he is examined or makes statements, and to produce such documents and other things relating to any such matter as the Revenue-officer or Revenue Court may require.

Mode of service of summons.

90. (1) A summons issued by a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court shall, if practicable, be served (a) personally on the person to whom it is addressed, or failing him on (b) his recognised agent or (c) an adult male member of his family who is residing with him.

(2) If service cannot be so made, or if acceptance of service so made is refused, the summons may be served by posting a copy thereof at the usual or last known place of residence of the person to whom it is addressed, or, if that person does not reside in the district in which the Revenue-officer is employed or the Revenue Court is held, and the case to which the summons relates has reference to land in that district, then by posting a copy of the summons on some conspicuous place in or near the estate wherein the land is situate.

(3) If the summons relates to a case in which persons having the same interest are so numerous that personal service on all of them is not reasonably practicable, it may, if the Revenue-officer or Revenue Court so directs, be served by delivery of a copy thereof to such of those persons as the officer or Court nominates in this behalf and by proclamation of the contents thereof for the information of the other persons interested.

(4) A summons may, if the Revenue-officer or Revenue Court so directs, be served on the person named therein, either in addition to, or in substitution for, any other mode of service, by forwarding the summons by post in a letter addressed to the person and registered under Part III of the IV of 1866. Indian Post Office Act, 1866.

(5) When a summons is so forwarded in a letter and it is proved that the letter was properly addressed and duly posted and registered, the officer or Court may presume that the summons was served at the time when the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

Mode of service of notice, order or proclamation or copy thereof.

91. A notice, order or proclamation, or copy of any such document, issued by a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court for service on any person shall be served in the manner provided in the last foregoing section for the service of a summons.

Mode of making proclamation.

92. When a proclamation relating to any land is issued by a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court, it shall, in addition to any other mode of publication which may be prescribed by any enactment for the time being in force, be made by beat of drum or other customary method, and by the posting of a copy thereof on a conspicuous place in or near the land to which it relates.

Joinder of tenants as parties to proceedings relating to rent.

93. (1) Any number of tenants cultivating in the same estate may, in the discretion of the Revenue-officer or Revenue Court and subject to any rules which the Local Government may make in this behalf, be made parties to any proceeding under Chapter III;

(2) But a decree or order shall not be made in any such proceeding unless the Revenue-officer or Revenue Court is satisfied that all the parties thereto have had an opportunity of appearing and being heard.

(3) A decree or order made in any such proceeding shall specify the extent to which each of the tenants is affected thereby.

Exception of suits under this Act from operation of certain enactments.

94. Nothing in section 424 of the Code of XIV of 1882.
Civil Procedure, or in section 36 of the Punjab Municipal Act, 1884, shall be XIII of 1884.
construed to apply to a suit of a class mentioned in section 77 of this Act.

Payment into Court of money admitted to be due to third person.

95. (1) When a defendant admits that money is due from him on account of rent, but pleads that it is due not to the plaintiff but to a third person, the Court shall, except for special reasons to be recorded by it, refuse to take cognizance of the plea unless the defendant pays into Court the amount so admitted to be due.

(2) Where such a payment is made the Court shall forthwith cause notice of the payment to be served on the third person.

(3) Unless the third person within three months from the receipt of the notice institutes a suit against the plaintiff and therein obtains an order restraining payment of the money, it shall be paid to the plaintiff on his application to the Court therefor.

(4) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of any person to recover from the plaintiff money paid to him under sub-section (3).

(5) When a defendant pays money into Court under this section, the Court shall give the defendant a receipt, and the receipt so given shall operate as an acquittance in the same manner and to the same extent as if it had been given by the plaintiff or the third person, as the case may be.

Execution of decrees for arrears of rent.

96. A Court passing a decree for an arrear of rent may, on the oral application of the decreeholder, order execution thereof against the moveable property of the tenant, and against any uncut or ungathered crops on the tenancy in respect of which the arrear is decreed,

The Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.
(Chapter VII.—Jurisdiction and Procedure.—Sections 97-105.)

Prohibition of imprisonment of tenants in execution of decrees for arrears of rent.

97. A tenant shall not during the continuance of his occupancy be liable to imprisonment on the application of his landlord in execution of a decree for an arrear of rent.

Power to refer party to Civil Court.

98. (1) If, in any proceeding pending before a Revenue Court exercising original, appellate or revisional jurisdiction, it appears to the Court that any question in issue is more proper for decision by a Civil Court, the Revenue Court may, with the previous sanction of the Court, if any, to the control of which it is immediately subject, require, by order in writing, any party to the proceeding to institute, within such time as it may fix in this behalf, a suit in the Civil Court for the purpose of obtaining a decision on the question, and, if he fails to comply with the requisition, may decide the question as it thinks fit.

(2) If the party institutes the suit in compliance with the requisition, the Revenue Court shall dispose of the proceeding pending before it in accordance with the final decision of the Civil Court of first instance or appeal, as the case may be.

Power to refer to Chief Court questions as to jurisdiction.

99. (1) If the presiding officer of a Civil or Revenue Court in which a suit has been instituted doubts whether he is precluded from taking cognizance of the suit, he may refer the matter through the Divisional Judge or Commissioner, or, if he is a Divisional Judge or Commissioner, directly to the Chief Court.

(2) On any such reference being made, the Chief Court may order the presiding officer either to proceed with the suit or to return the plaint for presentation in such other Court as it may in its order declare to be competent to take cognizance of the suit.

(3) The order of the Chief Court on any such reference shall be conclusive as against persons who are not parties to the suit as well as against persons who are parties thereto.

Power of Chief Court to validate proceedings had under mistake as to jurisdiction.

100. (1) In either of the following cases, namely:—

(a) if it appears to a Civil Court that a Court under its control has determined a suit of a class mentioned in section 77 which under the provisions of that section should have been heard and determined by a Revenue Court, or

(b) if it appears to a Revenue Court that a Court under its control has determined a suit which should have been heard by a Civil Court, the Civil Court or Revenue Court, as the case may be, shall submit the record of the suit to the Chief Court.

(2) If on perusal of the record it appears to the Chief Court that the suit was so determined in good faith, and that the parties have not been prejudiced by the mistake as to jurisdiction, the Chief Court may order that the decree be registered in the Court which had jurisdiction.

(3) If it appears to the Chief Court, otherwise than on submission of a record under sub-section (1), that a Civil Court under its control has determined a suit of a class mentioned in section 77 which under the provisions of that section should have been heard and determined by a Revenue Court, the Chief Court may pass any order which it might have passed if the record had been submitted to it under that sub-section.

(4) With respect to any proceeding subsequent to decree, the Chief Court may make such order for its registration in a Revenue Court or Civil Court as in the circumstances appears to be just and proper.

(5) An order of the Chief Court under this section shall be conclusive as against persons who were not parties to the suit or proceeding as well as against persons who were parties thereto, and the decree or proceeding to which the order relates shall have effect as if it had been made or had by the Court in which the order has required it to be registered.

(6) The provisions of this section shall apply to any suit instituted on or after the first day of November, 1884, and to proceedings arising out of any such suit.

Miscellaneous.

Place of sitting.

101. (1) An Assistant Collector may exercise his powers under this Act at any place within the limits of the district in which he is employed.

(2) Any other Revenue-officer or Revenue Court may only exercise his or its powers under this Act within the local limits of his or its jurisdiction.

Holidays.

102. (1) The Financial Commissioner, with the approval of the Local Government, shall publish in the local official Gazette before the commencement of each calendar year a list of days to be observed in that year as holidays by all or any Revenue-officers and Revenue Courts.

(2) A proceeding had before a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court on a day specified in the list as a day to be observed by the officer or Court as a holiday shall not be invalid by reason only of its having been had on that day.

Discharge of duties of Collector dying or being disabled.

103. When a Collector dies or is disabled from performing his duties, the officer who succeeds temporarily to the chief executive administration of the district under any orders which may be generally or specially issued by the Local Government in this behalf shall be deemed to be a Collector under this Act.

Retention of powers by Revenue-officers on transfer.

104. When a Revenue-officer of any class who, either as such or as a Revenue Court, has under the foregoing provisions of this Act any powers to be exercised in any local area is transferred from that local area to another as a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court of the same or a higher class, he shall continue to exercise those powers in that other local area, unless the Local Government otherwise directs or has otherwise directed.

Conferment of powers of Revenue officer or Revenue Court.

105. (1) The Local Government may by notification confer on any person—

(a) all or any of the powers of a Financial Commissioner, Commissioner or Collector under this Act, or

The Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.

(Chapter VII.—Jurisdiction and Procedure.—Sections 106-108. Chapter VIII. —Effect of this Act on Records-of-rights and Agreements.—Sections 109-110.)

(b) all or any of the powers with which an Assistant Collector of either grade is, or may be, invested thereunder, and may by notification withdraw any powers so conferred.

(2) A person on whom powers are conferred under sub-section (1) shall exercise those powers within such local limits and in such classes of cases as the Local Government may direct, and, except as otherwise directed by the Local Government, shall for all purposes connected with the exercise thereof be deemed a Financial Commissioner, Commissioner, Collector or Assistant Collector, as the case may be.

(3) Before conferring powers on the Judge of a Civil Court under sub-section (1), the Local Government shall consult the Chief Court.

(4) If any of the powers of a Collector under section 78, section 79, section 80 or section 82 are conferred on an Assistant Collector, they shall, unless the Local Government by special order otherwise directs, be exercised by him subject to the control of the Collector.

Power for Financial Commissioner to make rules.

106. (1) The Financial Commissioner may, in addition to the other rules which may be made by him under this Act, make rules, consistent with this Act and any other enactment for the time being in force,—

(a) determining, notwithstanding anything in any record-of-rights, the number and amount of the instalments and the times by and at which rent is to be paid;

(b) for the guidance of Revenue-officers in determining, for the purposes of this Act, the amount of the land-revenue of any land;

(c) prescribing, for all or any of the territories to which this Act extends, the periods during which, in proceedings held under this Act, a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court is not, except for reasons of urgency to be recorded, to issue any process of arrest against a tenant or against a landowner who cultivates his own land;

(d) regulating the procedure in cases where persons are entitled to inspect records of Revenue-offices or Revenue Courts, or to obtain copies of the same, and prescribing the fees payable for searches and copies;

(e) prescribing forms for such books, entries, statistics and accounts as the Financial Commissioner thinks necessary to be kept, made or compiled in Revenue-offices or Revenue Courts or submitted to any authority;

(f) declaring what shall be the language of any of those offices and Courts, and determining in what cases persons practising in those offices and Courts shall be permitted to address the presiding officers thereof in English; and

(g) generally for the guidance of Revenue-officers and other persons in matters connected with the enforcement of this Act.

(2) Until rules are made under clause (a) of sub-section (1), rent shall be payable by the instalments and at the times by and at which it is now payable.

(3) Rules made by the Financial Commissioner under this or any other section of this Act shall not take effect until they have been sanctioned by the Local Government.

Rules to be made after previous publication.

107. The power to make any rules under this Act is subject to the control of the Governor General in Council, and to the condition of the rules being made after previous publication.

Powers exerciseable by Financial Commissioner from time to time.

108. All powers conferred by this Act on the Financial Commissioner may be exercised from time to time as occasion requires.

CHAPTER VIII.

EFFECT OF THIS ACT ON RECORDS-OF-RIGHTS AND AGREEMENTS.

Nullity of certain entries in records-of-rights.

109. An entry in any record-of-rights providing—

(a) that a landlord may prevent a tenant from making, or eject him for making, such improvements on his tenancy as he is entitled to make under this Act, or

(b) that a tenant ejected from his tenancy shall not be entitled to compensation for improvements or for disturbance in any case in which he would under this Act be entitled to compensation therefor, or

(c) that a landlord may eject a tenant otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act, shall be void to that extent.

Nullity of certain agreements contrary to the Act.

110. (1) Nothing in any agreement made between a landlord and a tenant after the passing of this Act shall—

(a) override any of the provisions of this Act with respect to the acquisition of a right of occupancy, or the reduction, remission or suspension of rent, or the enhancement of the rent of a tenant having a right of occupancy under section 5 or section 6, or

(b) take away or limit the right of a tenant as determined by this Act to make improvements and claim compensation therefor, or, where compensation for disturbance can be claimed under this Act, to claim such compensation, or

(c) entitle a landlord to eject a tenant otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) Nothing in clause (a) of sub-section (1) shall apply to an agreement by which a tenant binds himself to pay an enhanced rent in consideration of an improvement which has been, or is to be, made in respect of his tenancy by, or at the expense of, his landlord, and to the benefit of which the tenant is not otherwise entitled.

The Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.
(Chapter VIII.—Effect of this Act on Records-of-rights and Agreements.—Sections 111-112. The Schedule.—Enactments repealed.)

Saving of other agreements when in writing.

111. Save as expressly provided in this Act, nothing in this Act shall affect the operation of any agreement between a landlord and a tenant, when the agreement either is in writing or has been recorded in a record-of-rights before the passing of the Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887, or been entered by order of a Revenue-officer in a record-of-rights or annual record under the provisions of that Act.

Effect of certain entries made in records-of-rights before November, 1871.

112. An entry made with respect to any of the following matters before the eighteenth day of November, 1871, and attested by the proper officer, in the record of a regular settlement sanctioned by the Local Government, namely :—

(a) the enhancement or abatement of the rent of a tenant having a right of occupancy, or the commutation of rent in kind into rent in money or of rent in money into rent in kind, or the taking of rent in kind by division or appraisement of the produce or other procedure of a like nature, or

(b) the letting or under-letting of land in which there is a right of occupancy by the tenant having that right, or the alienation of or succession to land in which such a right subsists, shall be deemed to be an agreement within the meaning of the last foregoing section.

S. HARVEY JAMES,
Secretary to the Government of India.

The following further Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to amend the law relating to the Tenancy of Land in the Punjab was presented to the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 7th September, 1887:

WE, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to amend the Law relating to the Tenancy of Land in the Punjab was re-committed, have re-considered the Bill and have now the honour to submit this further Report. The alterations which we have made are indicated in italics in the revised Bill annexed to this Report.

2. We have converted the provisions of the Bill relating to the operation of records-of-rights and agreements into a separate Chapter at the end of the Bill. In re-arranging those provisions we have in some respects followed more closely the language of the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1868.

3. The addition which we have made to the definition of "land" in section 4 has reference to water-mills, which in some cases would not be covered by the word "buildings". We have also brought the definition of "land-revenue" more nearly into accord with the definition of that term in the Land-revenue Bill.

4. On the suggestion of the Hon'ble Nawáb Nawazish Ali Khan, we have proposed that, where a right of occupancy under clause (c) of section 5 of the Act of 1868 does not already exist at the time when the Act of 1887 comes into force, it shall not be acquired under section 5 of the latter Act if the landlord can prove that the tenant was settled on land previously cleared and brought under cultivation by or at the expense of the person by whom he was settled thereon.

5. On the suggestion of the same gentleman we have provided in sections 13, 20, 21 and 62 for the case, which occasionally occurs in the Punjab, of rents in gross being payable in kind.

6. In section 24 we have provided for rent being enhanced at any time on the extension of irrigation to land previously dry.

7. In section 27 we have provided for the case of an alteration of rates and cesses as well as of land-revenue.

8. In section 60 we have proposed that an irregular transfer of a right of occupancy be only voidable at the instance of the landlord instead of being absolutely void.

9. We have made section 71 applicable not only to a tenant from year to year on whom a notice has been served under section 45, but also to any tenant on whom a notice has been served under section 44.

10. In section 84 we have proposed to make the revisional powers of the Financial Commissioner over the proceedings of Revenue Courts and Revenue-officers co-extensive with those for the time being exerciseable by the Chief Court over the proceedings of Civil Courts.

11. The other amendments are not such as to call for remark.

12. The Bill (No. II) and Report were published in English in the Gazette of India of the 30th July, 1887, and in the Punjab Government Gazette of the 4th August, 1887, and are to be published in Urdu in the Punjab Urdu Gazette of the 8th instant.

13. The Bill has not, in our opinion, been so altered as to require re-publication, and we recommend that it be passed as amended by us.

THE SCHEDULE.—ENACTMENTS REPEALED.

An Act to amend and declare the Land-revenue Law of the Punjab.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend and declare the law in force in the Punjab with respect to the making and maintenance of records-of-rights in land, the assessment and collection of land-revenue, and other matters relating to land and the liabilities incident thereto; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called, the Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.

(2) It extends to the territories for the time being administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab, including the pargana of Spiti, but not so as to affect, otherwise than as expressly provided by this Act, any Regulation in force under the provisions of the Statute 33 Victoria, chapter 3, section 1, in any portion of those territories; and

(3) It shall come into force on such day as the Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, may by notification appoint in this behalf.

(4) Any power conferred by this Act on the Financial Commissioner to make rules, and on the Local Government to sanction them, may be

The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter I.—Preliminary.—Sections 2-5.)

exercised at any time after the passing of this Act, but a rule so made shall not take effect till the commencement of this Act.

Repeal.

2. (1) The enactments mentioned in the schedule are repealed to the extent specified in the third column thereof.

(2) But all rules, appointments, assessments and transfers made, notifications and proclamations issued, authorities and powers conferred, farms and leases granted, records-of-rights and other records framed, revised or confirmed, rights acquired, liabilities incurred, times and places appointed and other things done under any of the repealed enactments shall, so far as may be, be deemed to have been respectively made, issued, conferred, granted, framed, revised, confirmed, acquired, incurred, appointed and done under this Act.

(3) Any enactment or document referring to any enactment hereby repealed shall be construed as referring to this Act.

Definitions.

3. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) "estate" means any area—

(a) for which a separate record-of-rights has been made; or

(b) which has been separately assessed to land-revenue, or would have been so assessed if the land-revenue had not been released, compounded for or redeemed; or

(c) which the Local Government may, by general rule or special order, declare to be an estate:

(2) "landowner" does not include a tenant or an assignee of land-revenue, but does include a person to whom a holding has been transferred, or an estate or holding has been let in farm, under this Act for the recovery of an arrear of land-revenue or of a sum recoverable as such an arrear, and every other person not hereinbefore in this clause mentioned who is in possession of an estate or any share or portion thereof, or in the enjoyment of any part of the profits of an estate:

(3) "holding" means a share or portion of an estate held by one landowner or jointly by two or more landowners:

(4) "rent", "tenant", "landlord" and "tenancy" have the meanings respectively assigned to those words in the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887: I of 1887.

(5) "pay", with its grammatical variations and cognate expressions, includes, when used with reference to rent, "deliver" and "render", with their grammatical variations and cognate expressions:

(6) "land-revenue" includes assigned land-revenue and any sum payable in respect of land, by way of quit-rent or of commutation for service, to the Government or to a person to whom the Government has assigned the right to receive the payment:

(7) "arrear of land-revenue" means land-revenue which remains unpaid after the date on which it becomes payable:

(8) "defaulter" means a person liable for an arrear of land-revenue, and includes a person who is responsible as surety for the payment of the arrear:

(9) "rates and cesses" means rates and cesses which are primarily payable by landowners, and includes—

(a) the local rate, if any, payable under the Punjab Local Rates Act, 1878; V of 1878.

(b) the local rate, if any, payable under the Punjab District Boards Act, 1883, and any fee leviable under section 33 of that Act from landowners for the use of or benefits derived from such works as are referred to in section 20, clauses (i) and (j), of that Act; XX of 1883.

(c) any annual rate chargeable on owners of lands under section 59 of the Northern India Canal and Drainage Act, 1873; VIII of 1873.

(d) the zaildári and village-officers' cesses; and

(e) sums payable on account of village-expenses:

(10) "village-cess" includes any cess, contribution or due which is customarily leviable within an estate and is neither a payment for the use of private property or for personal service nor imposed by or under any enactment for the time being in force:

(11) "village-officer" means a chief-headman, headman or patwári:

(12) "Revenue-officer", in any provision of this Act, means a Revenue-officer having authority under this Act to discharge the functions of a Revenue-officer under that provision:

(13) "legal practitioner" means any legal practitioner within the meaning of the Legal Practitioners Act, 1879, except a mukhtár: XVIII of 1879.

(14) "agricultural year" means the year commencing on the sixteenth day of June, or on such other date as the Local Government may by notification appoint for any local area:

(15) "notification" means a notification published by authority of the Local Government in the official Gazette:

(16) "incumbrance" means a charge upon or claim against land arising out of a private grant or contract: and (17) "survey-mark" includes boundary-mark.

Exclusion of certain land from operation of Act.

4. (1) Except so far as may be necessary for the record, recovery and administration of village-cesses, nothing in this Act applies to land which is occupied as the site of a town or village and is not assessed to land-revenue.

(2) A Revenue-officer may define for the purposes of this Act the limits of any such land.

Power to vary limits and alter number of tahsils, districts and divisions.

5. The Local Government may by notification vary the limits of the tahsils, districts and divisions into which the territories administered by it are divided, and may by notification alter the number of those tahsils and, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, the number of those districts and divisions.

The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter II.—Revenue-officers,—Sections 6-12.)

CHAPTER II.

REVENUE-OFFICERS.

Classes and Powers.

Classes of Revenue-officers.

6. (1) There shall be the following classes of Revenue-officers, namely:—

(a) the Financial Commissioner;

(b) the Commissioner;

(c) the Collector;

(d) the Assistant Collector of the first grade; and

(e) the Assistant Collector of the second grade.

(2) The Deputy Commissioner of a district shall be the Collector thereof.

(3) The Local Government may appoint any Assistant Commissioner, Extra Assistant Commissioner or Tahsildár to be an Assistant Collector of the first or of the second grade, as it thinks fit, and any Naib-tahsildár to be an Assistant Collector of the second grade.

(4) Appointments under sub-section (2) shall be by notification, and may be of a person specially by name or by virtue of his office or of more persons than one by any description sufficient for their identification.

(5) Subject to the provisions of this Act the jurisdiction of the Financial Commissioner extends to the whole of the territories for the time being administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab, and of Commissioners and of Collectors and Assistant Collectors to the divisions and districts respectively in which they are for the time being employed.

Financial Commissioner.

7. (1) There shall be one or more Financial Commissioners, who shall be appointed, and may be removed, by the Local Government with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council.

(2) Where more Financial Commissioners than one have been appointed, the Local Government may make rules as to the distribution among them of business under this or any other Act, and by those rules require any case or class or classes of cases to be considered and disposed of by the Financial Commissioners collectively.

(3) When there is a difference of opinion among the Financial Commissioners as to any decree or order to be made in a case which they are required by rules under the last foregoing sub-section to consider and dispose of collectively, the following rules shall apply, namely:—

(a) where the case is an appeal or a case on review or revision, it shall be decided in accordance with the opinion of the majority of the Financial Commissioners, or, if there is no such majority which concurs in a decision modifying or reversing the decree or order under appeal, review or revision, that decree or order shall be affirmed: and

(b) where the case is not an appeal or a case on review or revision, the matter respecting which there is the difference of opinion shall be referred to the Local Government for decision, and the decision of that Government with respect thereto shall be final.

(4) The expression "Financial Commissioner" in this or any other Act shall, when there are more Financial Commissioners than one, be construed as meaning one or more of the Financial Commissioners as the rules for the time being in force under sub-section (2) may require.

(5) The second Financial Commissioner appointed under section 52 of the Punjab Courts Act, 1884, shall be deemed to have had jurisdiction on and after the first day of November, 1884, to make any decree or order or dispose of any other business which might have been made or disposed of by the other Financial Commissioner. XVIII of 1884.

Appointment of Commissioners, and of Deputy, Assistant and Extra Assistant Commissioners.

8. Commissioners, Deputy Commissioners, Assistant Commissioners and Extra Assistant Commissioners shall be appointed and may be removed by the Local Government.

Appointment of Tahsildárs and Naib-tahsildárs.

9. The Local Government shall fix the number of Tahsildárs and Naib-tahsildárs to be appointed, and the Financial Commissioner may make rules for their appointment and removal.

Powers of Revenue-officers.

10. Except where the class of the Revenue-officer by whom any function is to be discharged is specified in this Act, the Local Government may by notification determine the functions to be discharged under this Act by any class of Revenue-officers.

Administrative Control.

Superintendence and control of Revenue-officers.

11. (1) The Financial Commissioner shall be subject to the control of the Local Government.

(2) The general superintendence and control over all other Revenue-officers shall be vested in, and all such officers shall be subordinate to, the Financial Commissioner.

(3) Subject to the general superintendence and control of the Financial Commissioner, a Commissioner shall control all other Revenue-officers in his division.

(4) Subject as aforesaid and to the control of the Commissioner, a Collector shall control all other Revenue-officers in his district.

Power to distribute business and withdraw and transfer cases.

12. (1) The Financial Commissioner or a Commissioner or Collector may by written order distribute, in such manner as he thinks fit, any business cognizable by any Revenue-officer under his control.

(2) The Financial Commissioner or a Commissioner or Collector may withdraw any case pending before any Revenue-officer under his control, and either dispose of it himself, or by written order refer it for disposal to any other Revenue-officer under his control.

(3) An order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall not empower any officer to exercise any powers or deal with any business which he would not be competent to exercise or deal with within the local limits of his own jurisdiction.

The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter II.—Revenue-officers.—Sections 13-18.)

Appeal, Review and Revision.

Appeals.

13. Save as otherwise provided by this Act, an appeal shall lie from an original or appellate order of a Revenue-officer as follows, namely :—

(a) to the Collector when the order is made by an Assistant Collector of either grade;

(b) to the Commissioner when the order is made by a Collector;

(c) to the Financial Commissioner when the order is made by a Commissioner:

Provided that—

(i) when an original order is confirmed on first appeal, a further appeal shall not lie;

(ii) when any such order is modified or reversed on appeal by the Collector, the order made by the Commissioner on further appeal, if any, to him shall be final.

Limitation for appeals.

14. Save as otherwise provided by this Act, the period of limitation for an appeal under the last foregoing section shall run from the date of the order appealed against, and shall be as follows, that is to say :—

(a) when the appeal lies to the Collector—thirty days;

(b) when the appeal lies to the Commissioner—sixty days;

(c) when the appeal lies to the Financial Commissioner—ninety days.

Review by Revenue-officers.

15. (1) A Revenue-officer may, either of his own motion or on the application of any party interested, review, and on so reviewing modify, reverse or confirm, any order passed by himself or by any of his predecessors in office:

Provided as follows:

(a) when a Commissioner or Collector thinks it necessary to review any order which he has not himself passed, and when a Revenue-officer of a class below that of Collector proposes to review any order, whether passed by himself or by any of his predecessors in office, he shall first obtain the sanction of the Revenue-officer to whose control he is immediately subject;

(b) an application for review of an order shall not be entertained unless it is made within ninety days from the passing of the order, or unless the applicant satisfies the Revenue-officer that he had sufficient cause for not making the application within that period;

(c) an order shall not be modified or reversed unless reasonable notice has been given to the parties affected thereby to appear and be heard in support of the order;

(d) an order against which an appeal has been preferred shall not be reviewed.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the Collector shall be deemed to be the successor in office of any Revenue-officer of a lower class who has left the district or has ceased to exercise powers as a Revenue-officer, and to whom there is no successor in office.

(3) An appeal shall not lie from an order refusing to review or confirming on review a previous order.

Power to call for, examine and revise proceedings of Revenue-officers.

16. (1) The Financial Commissioner may at any time call for the record of any case pending before, or disposed of by, any Revenue-officer subordinate to him.

(2) A Commissioner or Collector may call for the record of any case pending before, or disposed of by, any Revenue-officer under his control.

(3) If in any case in which a Commissioner or Collector has called for a record he is of opinion that the proceedings taken or order made should be modified or reversed, he shall report the case with his opinion thereon for the orders of the Financial Commissioner.

(4) The Financial Commissioner may in any case called for by himself under sub-section (1) or reported to him under sub-section (3) pass such order as he thinks fit:

Provided that he shall not under this section pass an order reversing or modifying any proceeding or order of a subordinate Revenue-officer and affecting any question of right between private persons without giving those persons an opportunity of being heard.

Procedure.

Power to make rules as to procedure.

17. (1) The Local Government may make rules consistent with this Act for regulating the procedure of Revenue-officers under this Act in cases in which a procedure is not prescribed by this Act.

(2) The rules may provide, among other matters, for the mode of enforcing orders of ejectment from, and delivery of possession of, immoveable property, and rules providing for those matters may confer on a Revenue-officer all or any of the powers in regard to contempts, resistance and the like which a Civil Court may exercise in the execution of a decree whereby it has adjudged ejectment from, or delivery of possession of, such property.

(3) Subject to the rules under this section, a Revenue-officer may refer any case which he is empowered to dispose of under this Act to another Revenue-officer for investigation and report, and may decide the case upon the report.

Persons by whom appearances and applications may be made before and to Revenue-officers.

18. (1) Appearances before a Revenue-officer, and applications to and acts to be done before him, under this Act may be made or done—

(a) by the parties themselves, or

(b) by their recognized agents or a legal practitioner:

Provided that the employment of a recognized agent or legal practitioner shall not excuse the personal attendance of a party to any proceeding in any case in which personal attendance is specially required by an order of the officer.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), recognized agents shall be such persons as the Local Government may by notification declare in this behalf.

(3) The fees of a legal practitioner shall not be allowed as costs in any proceeding before a Revenue-officer under this Act unless that officer considers, for reasons to be recorded by him in writing, that the fees should be allowed.

The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter II.—Revenue-officers.—Sections 19-27. Chapter III.—Kánúngos, Zaildárs, Inámdárs and Village-officers.—Section 28.)

Power of Revenue-officer to summon persons.

19. (1) A Revenue-officer may summon any person whose attendance he considers necessary for the purpose of any business before him as a Revenue-officer.

(2) A person so summoned shall be bound to appear at the time and place mentioned in the summons in person or, if the summons so allows, by his recognized agent or a legal practitioner.

(3) The person attending in obedience to the summons shall be bound to state the truth upon any matter respecting which he is examined or makes statements, and to produce such documents and other things relating to any such matter as the Revenue-officer may require.

Mode of service of summons.

20. (1) A summons issued by a Revenue-officer shall, if practicable, be served (a) personally on the person to whom it is addressed, or failing him on (b) his recognized agent or (c) an adult male member of his family usually residing with him.

(2) If service cannot be so made, or if acceptance of service so made is refused, the summons may be served by posting a copy thereof at the usual or last known place of residence of the person to whom it is addressed, or, if that person does not reside in the district in which the Revenue-officer is employed and the case to which the summons relates has reference to land in that district, then by posting a copy of the summons on some conspicuous place in or near the estate wherein the land is situate.

(3) If the summons relates to a case in which persons having the same interest are so numerous that personal service on all of them is not reasonably practicable, it may, if the Revenue-officer so directs, be served by delivery of a copy thereof to such of those persons as the Revenue-officer nominates in this behalf and by proclamation of the contents thereof for the information of the other persons interested.

(4) A summons may, if the Revenue-officer so directs, be served on the person named therein, either in addition to, or in substitution for, any other mode of service, by forwarding the summons by post in a letter addressed to the person and registered under Part III of the Indian Post Office Act, 1866. [...of 1866.]

(5) When a summons is so forwarded in a letter and it is proved that the letter was properly addressed and duly posted and registered, the Revenue-officer may presume that the summons was served at the time when the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

Mode of service of notice, order or proclamation or copy thereof.

21. A notice, order or proclamation, or copy of any such document, issued by a Revenue-officer for service on any person shall be served in the manner provided in the last foregoing section for the service of a summons.

Mode of making proclamation.

22. When a proclamation relating to any land is issued by a Revenue-officer, it shall, in addition to any other mode of publication which may be prescribed in any provision of this Act, be made by beat of drum or other customary method, and by the posting of a copy thereof on a conspicuous place in or near the land to which it relates.

Supplemental Provisions.

Place of sitting.

23. (1) An Assistant Collector may exercise his powers under this Act at any place within the limits of the district in which he is employed.

(2) Any other Revenue-officer may only exercise his powers under this Act within the local limits of his jurisdiction.

Holidays.

24. (1) The Financial Commissioner, with the approval of the Local Government, shall publish in the local official Gazette before the commencement of each calendar year a list of days to be observed in that year as holidays by all or any Revenue-officers.

(2) A proceeding had before a Revenue-officer on a day specified in the list as a day to be observed by him as a holiday shall not be invalid by reason only of its having been had on that day.

Discharge of duties of Collector dying or being disabled.

25. When a Collector dies or is disabled from performing his duties, the officer who succeeds temporarily to the chief executive administration of the district under any orders which may be generally or specially issued by the Local Government in this behalf shall be deemed to be a Collector under this Act.

Retention of powers by Revenue-officers on transfer.

26. When a Revenue-officer of any class who has been invested under the foregoing provisions of this Act with any powers to be exercised in any local area is transferred from that local area to another as a Revenue-officer of the same or a higher class, he shall continue to exercise those powers in that other local area unless the Local Government otherwise directs or has otherwise directed.

Conferment of powers of Revenue-officer.

27. (1) The Local Government may by notification confer on any person—

(a) all or any of the powers of a Financial Commissioner, Commissioner or Collector under this Act, or

(b) all or any of the powers with which an Assistant Collector may be invested thereunder, and may by notification withdraw any powers so conferred.

(2) A person on whom powers are conferred under sub-section (1) shall exercise those powers within such local limits and in such classes of cases as the Local Government may direct, and, except as otherwise directed by the Local Government, shall for all purposes connected with the exercise thereof be deemed to be a Financial Commissioner, Commissioner, Collector or Assistant Collector, as the case may be.

(3) If any of the powers of a Collector under this Act are conferred on an Assistant Collector, they shall, unless the Local Government by special order otherwise directs, be exercised by him subject to the control of the Collector.

CHAPTER III.

KÁNÚNGOS, ZAILDÁRS, INÁMDÁRS AND VILLAGE-OFFICERS.

Rules respecting kánúngos, zaildárs, inámdárs and village-officers.

28. (1) The Financial Commissioner may make rules to regulate the appointment, duties, emoluments, punishment, suspension and removal of kánúngos, zaildárs, inámdárs

The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter III.—Kánúngos, Zaildárs, Inámdárs and Village-officers.—Sections 29-30. Chapter IV.—Records.—Sections 31-34.)

(2) Rules under sub-section (1) may direct that the emoluments of a zaildár, inámdár or village-officer shall be such a percentage payable out of the land-revenue as may be prescribed by the rules, and that, where the land-revenue has been released, compounded for or redeemed, the percentage shall be a charge payable by the person who would be liable for the land-revenue if it had not been released, compounded for or redeemed.

Village-officers' cess.

29. (1) The Local Government may by notification impose on any estate, or on all or any estates in any local area, a cess, to be called the village-officers' cess, at a rate not exceeding one anna for every rupee of the annual value, for remunerating village-officers and for defraying other expenditure directly connected with the supervision of those officers or with the performance of their duties.

(2) "Annual value" in the last foregoing sub-section has the meaning assigned to that expression in the Punjab District Boards Act, 1883. XX of 1883.

(3) The Financial Commissioner may make rules for the collection, control and expenditure of the village-officers' cess.

(4) All cesses now levied in any local area for the purposes mentioned in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to have been lawfully imposed and shall, until the village-officers' cess is imposed in that local area under that sub-section, be deemed to be lawfully leviable and, for the purposes of this section, to be that cess.

Restriction on attachment or assignment of remuneration of kánúngos, zaildárs, inámdárs and village-officers.

30. (1) The emoluments of a kánúngo, zaildár, inámdár or village-officer shall not be liable to attachment in execution of a decree or order of any Civil or Revenue Court.

(2) An assignment of, or charge on, or an agreement to assign or charge, any such emoluments shall be void unless it is authorised by rules made by the Financial Commissioner in this behalf.

CHAPTER IV.

RECORDS.

Records-of-rights and Annual Records.

Record-of-rights and documents included therein.

31. (1) Save as otherwise provided by this Chapter, there shall be a record-of-rights for each estate.

(2) The record-of-rights for an estate shall include the following documents, namely :—

(a) statements showing, so far as may be practicable,—

(i) the persons who are landowners, tenants or assignees of land-revenue in the estate, or who are entitled to receive any of the rents, profits or produce of the estate or to occupy land therein;

(ii) the nature and extent of the interests of those persons, and the conditions and liabilities attaching thereto; and

(iii) the rent, land-revenue, rates, cesses or other payments due from and to each of those persons and to the Government;

(b) a statement of customs respecting rights and liabilities in the estate;

(c) a map of the estate; and

(d) such other documents as the Financial Commissioner may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, prescribe.

Making or special revision of record-of-rights.

32. (1) When it appears to the Local Government that a record-of-rights for an estate does not exist, or that the existing record-of-rights for an estate requires special revision, the Local Government may by notification direct that a record-of-rights be made or that the record-of-rights be specially revised, as the case may be.

(2) The notification may direct that records-of-rights shall be made or specially revised for all or any estates in any local area.

(3) A record-of-rights made or specially revised for an estate under this section shall be deemed to be the record-of-rights for the estate, but shall not affect any presumption in favour of the Government which has already arisen from any previous record-of-rights.

Annual record.

33. (1) The Collector shall cause to be prepared by the patwári of each estate yearly, or at such other intervals as the Financial Commissioner may prescribe, an edition of the record-of-rights amended in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

(2) This edition of the record-of-rights shall be called the annual record for the estate, and shall comprise the statements mentioned in sub-section (2), clause (a), of section 31 and such other documents, if any, as the Financial Commissioner may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, prescribe.

(3) For the purposes of the preparation of the annual record, the Collector shall cause to be kept up by the patwári of each estate a register of mutations and such other registers as the Financial Commissioner may prescribe.

Procedure for making Records.

Making of that part of the annual record which relates to landowners, assignees of revenue and occupancy-tenants.

34. (1) Any person acquiring, by inheritance, purchase, mortgage, gift or otherwise, any right in an estate as a landowner, assignee of land-revenue or tenant having a right of occupancy, shall report his acquisition of the right to the patwári of the estate.

(2) If the person acquiring the right is a minor or otherwise disqualified, his guardian or other person having charge of his property shall make the report to the patwári.

(3) The patwári shall enter in his register of mutations every report made to him under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), and shall also make an entry therein respecting the acquisition of any such right as aforesaid which he has reason to believe to have taken place and of which a report should have been made to him under one or other of those sub-sections and has not been so made.

(4) A Revenue-officer shall from time to time inquire into the correctness of all entries in the

The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter IV.—Records.—Sections 35-43.)

register of mutations and into all such acquisitions as aforesaid coming to his knowledge of which, under the foregoing sub-sections, report should have been made to the patwári and entry made in that register, and shall in each case make such order as he thinks fit with respect to the entry in the annual record of the right acquired.

(5) Such an entry shall be made by the insertion in that record of a description of the right acquired and by the omission from that record of any entry in any record previously prepared which by reason of the acquisition has ceased to be correct.

Making of that part of the annual record which relates to other persons.

35. The acquisition of any interest in land other than a right referred to in sub-section (1) of the last foregoing section shall,—

(a) if it is undisputed, be recorded by the patwári in such manner as the Financial Commissioner may by rules in this behalf prescribe; and,

(b) if it is disputed, be entered by the patwári in the register of mutations and dealt with in the manner prescribed in sub-sections (4) and (5) of the last foregoing section.

Determination of disputes.

36. (1) If during the making, revision or preparation of any record or in the course of any inquiry under this Chapter a dispute arises as to any matter of which an entry is to be made in a record or in a register of mutations, a Revenue-officer may of his own motion, or on the application of any party interested, but subject to the provisions of the next following section, and after such inquiry as he thinks fit, determine the entry to be made as to that matter.

(2) If in any such dispute the Revenue-officer is unable to satisfy himself as to which of the parties thereto is in possession of any property to which the dispute relates, he shall ascertain by summary inquiry who is the person best entitled to the property, and shall by order direct that that person be put in possession thereof, and that an entry in accordance with that order be made in the record or register.

(3) A direction of a Revenue-officer under sub-section (2) shall be subject to any decree or order which may be subsequently passed by any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Restrictions on variation of entries in records.

37. Entries in records-of-rights or in annual records, except entries made in annual records by patwáris under clause (a) of section 35 with respect to undisputed acquisitions of interests referred to in that section, shall not be varied in subsequent records otherwise than by—

(a) making entries in accordance with facts proved or admitted to have occurred;

(b) making such entries as are agreed to by all the parties interested therein or are supported by a decree or order binding on those parties;

(c) making new maps where it is necessary to make them.

Mutation-fees.

38. (1) The Local Government may fix a scale of fees for all or any classes of entries in any record or register under this Chapter and for copies of any

(2) A fee in respect of an entry shall be payable by the person in whose favour the entry is made.

Penalty for neglect to report acquisition of any right referred to in section 34.

39. Any person neglecting to make the report required by section 34 within three months from the date of his acquisition of a right referred to in that section shall be liable, at the discretion of the Collector, to a fine not exceeding five times the amount of the fee which would have been payable according to the scale fixed under the last foregoing section if the acquisition of the right had been reported immediately after its accrual.

Obligation to furnish information necessary for the preparation of records.

40. Any person whose rights, interests or liabilities are required to be entered in any record under this Chapter shall be bound to furnish, on the requisition of any Revenue-officer or village-officer engaged in compiling the record, all information necessary for the correct compilation thereof.

Rights of the Government and presumptions with respect thereto and to other matters.

Rights of the Government in mines and minerals.

41. All mines of metal and coal, and all earth-oil and gold-washings, shall be deemed to be the property of the Government, and the Government shall have all powers necessary for the proper enjoyment of its right thereto.

Presumption as to ownership of forests, quarries and waste-lands.

42. (1) When in any record-of-rights completed before the eighteenth day of November, 1871, it is not expressly provided that any forest, quarry, unclaimed, unoccupied, deserted or waste land, spontaneous produce or other accessory interest in land belongs to the landowners, it shall be presumed to belong to the Government.

(2) When in any record-of-rights completed after that date it is not expressly provided that any forest or quarry or any such land or interest belongs to the Government, it shall be presumed to belong to the landowners.

(3) The presumption created by sub-section (1) may be rebutted by showing—

(a) from the record or report made by the assessing officer at the time of assessment, or

(b) if the record or report is silent, then from a comparison between the assessment of villages in which there existed, and the assessment of villages of similar character in which there did not exist, any forest or quarry, or any such land or interest, that the forest, quarry, land or interest was taken into account in the assessment of the land-revenue.

(4) Until the presumption is so rebutted, the forest, quarry, land or interest shall be held to belong to the Government.

Compensation for infringement of rights of third parties in exercise of a right of the Government.

43. (1) Whenever, in the exercise of any right of the Government referred to in either of the two last foregoing sections, the rights of any person are infringed by the occupation

The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter IV.—Records.—Sections 44-47. Chapter V.—Assessment.—Sections 48-55.)

Government shall pay, or cause to be paid, to that person compensation for the infringement.

(2) The compensation shall be determined as nearly as may be in accordance with the provi-
1870. sions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870.

Presumption in favour of entries in records-of-rights and annual records.

44. An entry made in a record-of-rights in accordance with the law for the time being in force, or in an annual record in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter and the rules thereunder, shall be presumed to be true until the contrary is proved or a new entry is lawfully substituted therefor.

Suit for declaratory decree by person aggrieved by an entry in a record.

45. If any person considers himself aggrieved as to any right of which he is in possession by an entry in a record-of-rights or in an annual record, he may institute a suit for a declaration of his right under Chapter VI of 1877. the Specific Relief Act, 1877.

Supplemental Provisions.

Power to make rules respecting records and other matters connected therewith.

46. The Financial Commissioner may make rules—

(a) prescribing the language in which records and registers under this Chapter are to be made;

(b) prescribing the form of those records and registers, and the manner in which they are to be prepared, signed and attested;

(c) for the survey of land so far as may be necessary for the preparation and correction of those records and registers;

(d) for the conduct of inquiries by Revenue-officers under this Chapter; and

(e) generally for the guidance of Revenue-officers and village-officers in matters pertaining to records and registers mentioned or referred to in this Chapter.

Records-of-rights and annual records for groups of estates.

47. (1) The Financial Commissioner may direct that a record-of-rights be made for any group of neighbouring estates instead of separately for each of the estates.

(2) The provisions of this Chapter with respect to a record-of-rights and annual record for an estate shall then, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to a record-of-rights and annual record for a group of estates.

CHAPTER V.

ASSESSMENT.

Assessment of land-revenue.

48. (1) All land, to whatever purpose applied and wherever situate, is liable to the payment of land-revenue to the Government, except such land as has been wholly exempted from that liability by special contract with the Government or by the provisions of any law for the time being in force.

(2) Land-revenue may be assessed in cash or in kind, or partly in cash and partly in kind, as the Local Government may direct.

(3) Land may be assessed to land-revenue notwithstanding that that revenue, by reason of its having been assigned, released, compounded for or redeemed is not payable to the Government.

General Assessments.

Notification of intended re-assessment and instructions as to principles of assessment.

49. (1) A general re-assessment of the land-revenue of a district or tahsil shall not be undertaken without the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council and notification of that sanction.

(2) In granting the sanction the Governor General in Council may prescribe such principles of assessment and give such other instructions as he thinks fit.

Mode of determining assessment.

50 (1) The assessment shall be made by a Revenue-officer.

(2) Before making it that officer shall report his proposed method of assessment for the sanction of the Financial Commissioner in such form as the Financial Commissioner, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, may prescribe.

Announcement of assessment.

51. (1) When the Revenue-officer has obtained the sanction of the Financial Commissioner to his proposed method of assessment, he shall make an order determining the assessment proper for each estate and announce it in such manner as the Local Government may prescribe.

(2) At the time of announcing the assessment he shall also declare the date from which it is to take effect, and, subject to the other provisions of this Act, it shall take effect accordingly.

Application for re-consideration of assessment.

52. (1) The landowner may, within thirty days from the date of the announcement of the assessment, present a petition to the Revenue-officer for a re-consideration of the amount, form or conditions of the assessment.

(2) Where the land-revenue is assigned, the assignee thereof may within thirty days from that date present a like petition to the Revenue-officer.

(3) The order passed by the Revenue-officer on the petition shall set forth his reasons for granting or refusing it.

Confirmation and duration of assessment.

53. (1) An assessment of the land-revenue of a district or tahsil shall not be considered final until it has been confirmed by the Local Government.

(2) At any time before an assessment is so confirmed the Commissioner or Financial Commissioner may modify the assessment of any estate in the district or tahsil.

(3) The Local Government shall, when confirming an assessment under sub-section (1), fix the period for which the assessment is to be in force.

Assessment to remain in force till new assessment takes effect.

54. Notwithstanding the expiration of the period fixed for the continuance of an assessment under sub-section (3) of the last foregoing section, the assessment shall remain in force till a new assessment takes effect.

Refusal to be liable for assessment and consequences thereof.

55. (1) At any time within ninety days from the date of the announcement of an assessment the landowner or, where there are more landowners than one, any of them who would be individually or collectively liable for more than half the sum assessed may give notice to

The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter V.—Assessment.—Sections 56-60.)
(Chapter VI.—Collection of Land-revenue.—Section 61.)

the Revenue-officer of refusal to be liable for the assessment.

(2) When the Revenue-officer receives a notice under sub-section (1), the Collector may take possession of the estate and deal with it, as nearly as may be, as if the annulment of the assessment thereof had been ordered as a process for the recovery of an arrear of land-revenue due thereon.

(3) While the estate is in the possession of the Collector, the landowner or landowners shall be entitled to receive from the Government an allowance, to be fixed by the Financial Commissioner, which shall not be less than five or more than ten per cent. of the net income realized by the Government from the estate.

Distribution of the assessment of an estate over the holdings comprised therein.

56. (1) If the assessment announced under section 51 is in whole or in part a fixed assessment of an estate for a term of years, the Revenue-officer shall, before the date on which the first instalment thereof becomes payable, make an order distributing it over the several holdings comprised in the estate and make and publish a record of the distribution.

(2) The Collector may for sufficient reason make an order revising that record at any time while the assessment continues to be in force, and publish the record so revised.

(3) If the assessment announced under section 51 is in the form of rates chargeable according to the results of each year or harvest, a Revenue-officer shall from year to year or from harvest to harvest, as the conditions of the assessment may require, make and publish, not later than one month before the first instalment of the land-revenue falls due, a record of the amount payable in respect of each holding.

(4) The Financial Commissioner may make rules for the guidance of Revenue-officers in making, publishing and revising records under this section.

Application for amendment of the distribution of an assessment.

57. (1) Any person affected by a record made under sub-section (1) or sub-section (3) of the last foregoing section, or by the revision of a record under sub-section (2) of that section, may, within thirty days from the date of the publication of the record, present a petition to the Revenue-officer for a re-consideration of the record so far as it affects him.

(2) The order passed by the Revenue-officer on the petition shall set forth his reasons for granting or refusing it.

Appeals from orders under sections 52 and 57.

58. An appeal from an order under the last foregoing section or section 52 shall lie to the Commissioner, and from the appellate order of the Commissioner to the Financial Commissioner.

Special Assessments.

Special assessments.

59. (1) Special assessments may be made by Revenue-officers in the following cases, namely :—

(a) when estates are formed under the next following section ;

(b) when land-revenue which h[illegible]

(c) when waste-lands are sold, leased or granted by the Government ;

(d) when the assessment of any land has been annulled or the landowner has refused to be liable therefor, and the term for which the land was to be managed by the Collector or his agent or let in farm has expired ;

(e) when assessments of land-revenue require revision in consequence of the action of water or sand or of calamity of season or from any other cause ;

(f) when revenue due to the Government on account of pasture or other natural products of land, or on account of mills, fisheries or natural products of water, or on account of other rights described in section 41 or section 42, has not been included in an assessment made under the foregoing provisions of this Chapter.

(2) The Financial Commissioner may make rules for the guidance of Revenue-officers in making special assessments, and may confirm such assessments.

(3) The foregoing provisions of this Chapter with respect to general assessments shall, subject to such modifications thereof as the Financial Commissioner may prescribe by rules under the last foregoing sub-section, regulate the procedure of Revenue-officers making special assessments.

Formation of waste-land into separate estates.

60. (1) When, in the opinion of the Collector or of an officer making a general re-assessment of land-revenue under the foregoing provisions of this Chapter, the waste-land belonging to or adjoining an estate is so extensive as to exceed the requirements of the owners of the estate with reference to pasturage or other useful purpose, the Collector or officer may at any time, with the previous sanction of the Financial Commissioner, make a separate assessment of the waste-land which he considers to be so in excess, and offer that land at that assessment, for such term and on such conditions as he thinks fit, to the owners of the estate to which it belongs, and, if they refuse the offer, to the owners of any estate which the land adjoins, and, if they also refuse the offer, to any other person.

(2) When the owners of the estate to which the waste-land belongs refuse the offer, the Collector shall assign to them an annual allowance not less than five and not more than ten per cent. of the net income realized by the Government from the land.

CHAPTER VI.

COLLECTION OF LAND-REVENUE.

Security for payment of land-revenue.

61. (1) In the case of every estate, the entire estate and the landowner or, if there are more than one, the landowners jointly and severally shall be liable for the land-revenue for the time being assessed on the estate :

Provided that—

(a) the Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, may by notification declare that for the time being assessed on the estate except that part which is payable in respect of the holding ; and

(Chapter VI.—Collection of Land-revenue.—Sections 62-71.)

(b) when there are superior and inferior landowners in the same estate, the Financial Commissioner may by rule, or by special order in each case, determine whether the superior or inferior landowners shall be liable for the land-revenue, or whether both shall be so liable, and, if so, in what proportions.

(2) A notification under proviso (a) to sub-section (1) may have reference to any single estate or to any class of estates or estates generally in any local area.

Further security for payment of land-revenue.

62. (1) The land-revenue for the time being assessed on an estate or payable in respect of a holding shall be the first charge upon the rents, profits and produce thereof.

(2) Without the previous consent of the Collector, the rents, profits or produce of an estate or holding shall not be liable to be taken in execution of a decree or order of any Court until the land-revenue chargeable against the rents, profits or produce, and any arrear of land-revenue due in respect of the estate or holding, have been paid.

Orders to regulate payment of land-revenue.

63. (1) Notwithstanding anything in any record-of-rights, the Financial Commissioner may fix the number and amount of the instalments, and the times, places and manner, by, at and in which land-revenue is to be paid.

(2) Until the Financial Commissioner otherwise directs, land-revenue shall be payable by the instalments, at the times and places and in the manner, by, at and in which it is payable at the commencement of this Act.

Rules to regulate collection, remission and suspension of land-revenue.

64. (1) The Financial Commissioner may make rules consistent with this Act to regulate the collection, remission and suspension of land-revenue, and may by those rules determine the circumstances and terms in and on which assigned land-revenue may be collected by the assignee.

(2) Where land-revenue due to an assignee is collected by a Revenue-officer, there shall be deducted from the sum collected such a percentage on account of the cost of collection as the Financial Commissioner may by rule in this behalf prescribe.

(3) A suit for an arrear of assigned land-revenue shall not be entertained unless there is annexed to the plaint at the time of the presentation thereof a document under the hand of the Collector specially authorising the institution of the suit.

Costs recoverable as part of arrear.

65. The costs of any process issued under this Chapter shall be recoverable as part of the arrear of land-revenue in respect of which the process was issued.

Certified account to be evidence as to arrear.

66. A statement of account certified by a Revenue-officer shall be conclusive proof of the existence of an arrear of land-revenue, of its amount and of the person who is the defaulter.

Processes for recovery of arrears.

67. Subject to the other provisions of this Act, an arrear of land-revenue may be recovered by any one or more of the following processes, namely :—

(a) by service of a writ of demand on the defaulter ;

(b) by arrest and detention of his person ;

(c) by distress and sale of his moveable property and uncut or ungathered crops ;

(d) by transfer of the holding in respect of which the arrear is due ;

(e) by attachment of the estate or holding in respect of which the arrear is due ;

(f) by annulment of the assessment of that estate or holding ;

(g) by sale of that estate or holding ;

(h) by proceedings against other immoveable property of the defaulter.

Writ of demand

68. A writ of demand may be issued by a Revenue-officer on or after the day following that on which an arrear of land-revenue accrues.

Arrest and detention of defaulter

69. (1) At any time after an arrear of land-revenue has accrued a Revenue-officer may issue a warrant directing an officer named therein to arrest the defaulter and bring him before the Revenue-officer.

(2) When the defaulter is brought before the Revenue-officer, the Revenue-officer may cause him to be taken before the Collector, or may keep him under personal restraint for a period not exceeding ten days and then, if the arrear is still unpaid, cause him to be taken before the Collector.

(3) When the defaulter is brought before the Collector, the Collector may issue an order to the officer in charge of the civil jail of the district, directing him to confine the defaulter in the jail for such period, not exceeding one month from the date of the order, as the Collector thinks fit.

(4) The process of arrest and detention shall not be executed against a defaulter who is a female, a minor, a lunatic or an idiot.

Distress and sale of moveable property and crops.

70. (1) At any time after an arrear of land-revenue has accrued, the moveable property and uncut or ungathered crops of the defaulter may be distrained and sold by order of a Revenue-officer.

(2) The distress and sale shall be conducted, as nearly as may be, in accordance with the law for the time being in force for the attachment and sale of moveable property under the decree of a Revenue Court constituted under the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887 :

Provided that, in addition to the particulars exempted by that law from liability to sale, so much of the produce of the land of the defaulter as the Collector thinks necessary for seed-grain and for the subsistence, until the harvest next following, of the defaulter and his family, and of any cattle exempted by that law, shall be exempted from sale under this section.

Transfer of holding.

71. (1) At any time after an arrear of land-revenue has accrued on a holding, the Collector may transfer the holding to any person being a land-owner of the estate in which the holding is

The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter VI.—Collection of Land-revenue.—Sections 72-74.)

situate and not being a defaulter in respect of his own holding, on condition of his paying the arrear before being put in possession of the holding, and on such further conditions as the Collector may see fit to prescribe.

(2) The transfer may, as the Collector thinks fit, be either till the end of the agricultural year in which the defaulter pays to the transferee the amount of the arrear which the transferee paid before being put in possession of the holding, or for a term not exceeding fifteen years from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the transfer.

(3) The Collector shall report to the Financial Commissioner any transfer made by him under this section, and the Financial Commissioner may set aside the transfer or alter the conditions thereof, or pass such other order as he thinks fit.

(4) A transfer under this section shall not affect the joint and several liability of the land-owners of the estate in which it is enforced.

(5) In respect of all rights and liabilities arising under this Act the person to whom the holding is transferred shall, subject to the conditions of the transfer, stand in the same position as that in which the defaulter would have stood if the holding had not been transferred.

(6) When the transfer was for a term, the holding shall, on the expiration of the term, be restored by the Collector to the defaulter free of any claim on the part of the Government or the transferee for any arrear of land-revenue or rates and cesses due in respect thereof.

Attachment of estate or holding.

72. (1) At any time after an arrear of land-revenue has accrued, the Collector may cause the estate or holding in respect of which the arrear is due to be attached and taken under his own management or that of an agent appointed by him for that purpose.

(2) The Collector or the agent shall be bound by all the engagements which existed between the defaulter and his tenants, if any, and shall be entitled to manage the land and to receive all rents and profits accruing therefrom to the exclusion of the defaulter until the arrear has been satisfied, or until the Collector restores the land to the defaulter.

(3) All surplus profits of the land attached beyond the cost of attachment and management and the amount necessary to meet the current demand for land-revenue and rates and cesses shall be applied in discharge of the arrear.

(4) Land shall not be attached for the same arrear for a longer term than five years from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the attachment, but, if the arrear is sooner discharged, the land shall be released and the surplus receipts, if any, made over to the landowner.

Annulment of assessment of estate or holding.

73. (1) When an arrear of land-revenue has been due for a longer period than one month, and the foregoing processes are not deemed sufficient for the recovery thereof, the Financial Commissioner may, in addition to or instead of all or any of those processes, order the existing assessment of the estate or holding in respect of which the arrear is due to be annulled.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not be put in force for the recovery of an arrear of land-revenue which has accrued on land—

(a) while under attachment under the last foregoing section, or

(b) while under the charge of the Court of Wards.

(3) When the assessment of any land has been annulled, the Collector may, with the previous sanction of the Financial Commissioner, either manage the land himself or through an agent, or let it in farm to any person willing to accept the farm, for such term and on such conditions as may be sanctioned by the Financial Commissioner:

Provided that the term for which land may be so managed or farmed shall not be longer than fifteen years from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the annulment.

(4) At some time before the expiration of that term the Collector shall determine the assessment to be paid in respect of the estate or holding for the remainder of the term of the current assessment of the district or tahsil, and, when that assessment has been sanctioned by the Financial Commissioner, shall announce it to the landowner.

(5) The landowner may give notice to the Collector of refusal to be liable for the assessment within thirty days from the date on which the assessment was announced to him.

(6) If notice is so given, the Collector may, with the previous sanction of the Financial Commissioner, take the estate or holding under direct management or farm it for the remainder of the term of the current assessment of the district or tahsil, or for any period within that term which the Financial Commissioner may fix.

(7) When the assessment of a holding is annulled, the joint responsibility of the other landowners of the estate for the land-revenue of that holding becoming due after the annulment shall be in abeyance until a new assessment takes effect.

(8) The Financial Commissioner may direct that any contract made by the defaulter, or by any person through whom the defaulter claims, with respect to any land comprised in an estate or holding of which the assessment has been annulled shall not be binding on the Collector or his agent or farmer during the period for which the estate or holding remains under the management of the Collector or his agent or is let in farm.

Proclamation of attachment or annulment of assessment, and consequences of the proclamation.

74. (1) When any land is attached under section 72, or when the assessment of any land has been annulled under the last foregoing section, the Collector shall make proclamation thereof.

(2) No payment made by any person to the defaulter before the making of the proclamation on account of rent or any other asset in anticipation of the usual time for the payment shall, without the special sanction of the Collector, be credited to that person or relieve him from liability to make the payment to the Collector or his agent or farmer.

The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter VI.—Collection of Land-revenue.—Sections 75-79.)

(3) No payment made after the making of the proclamation on account of rent or any other asset of the estate or holding to any person other than the Collector or his agent or farmer shall be credited to the person making the payment or relieve him from liability to make the payment to the Collector or his agent or farmer.

Sale of estate or holding.

75. When an arrear of land-revenue has accrued and the foregoing processes are not deemed sufficient for the recovery thereof, the Collector, with the previous sanction of the Financial Commissioner, may, in addition to, or instead of, all or any of those processes, and subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, sell the estate or holding in respect of which the arrear is due:

Provided that land shall not be sold for the recovery of—

(a) any arrear which has accrued while the land was under the charge of the Court of Wards, or was so circumstanced that the Court of Wards might have exercised jurisdiction over it under the provisions of section 35 of the Punjab Laws Act, 1872, clause (a), (b), (c) or (d); or

[I]V of 1872.

(b) any arrear which has accrued while the land was under attachment under section 72 of this Act; or

(c) any arrear which has accrued while the land was held under direct management by the Collector or in farm by any other person, under section 73, after either an annulment of assessment or a refusal to be liable therefor.

Effect of sale on incumbrances.

76. (1) Land sold under the last foregoing section shall be sold free of all incumbrances; and all grants and contracts previously made by any person other than the purchaser in respect of the land shall become void as against the purchaser at the sale.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall affect—

(a) a tenant's right of occupancy, unless the right was created by the defaulter himself, or

(b) any lease at a fair rent, temporary or perpetual, for the erection of a dwelling-house or manufactory, or for a mine, garden, tank, canal, place of worship or burial-ground, so long as the land continues to be used for the purpose specified in the lease, or

(c) any incumbrance, grant, contract or right of occupancy specially saved by order of the Financial Commissioner and proclaimed as hereinafter provided.

Proceedings against other immoveable property of defaulter.

77. (1) If the arrear cannot be recovered by any of the processes hereinbefore provided, or if the Financial Commissioner considers the enforcement of any of those processes to be inexpedient, the Collector may, where the defaulter owns any other estate or holding, or any other immoveable property, proceed under the provisions of this Act against that property as if it were the land in respect of which the arrear is due:

Provided that no interests save those of the defaulter alone shall be so proceeded against, and no incumbrances created, grants made or contracts entered into by him in good faith shall be rendered invalid by reason only of his interests being proceeded against.

(2) When the Collector determines to proceed under this section against immoveable property other than the land in respect of which the arrear is due, he shall issue a proclamation prohibiting the transfer or charging of the property.

(3) The Collector may at any time by order in writing withdraw the proclamation, and it shall be deemed to be withdrawn when either the arrear has been paid or the interests of the defaulter in the property have been sold for the recovery of the arrear.

(4) Any private alienation of the property, or of any interest of the defaulter therein, whether by sale, gift, mortgage or otherwise, made after the issue of the proclamation and before the withdrawal thereof shall be void.

(5) In proceeding against property under this section the Collector shall follow, as nearly as the nature of the property will admit, the procedure prescribed for the enforcement of process against land on which an arrear of land-revenue is due.

Remedies open to person denying his liability for an arrear.

78. (1) Notwithstanding anything in section 66, when proceedings are taken under this Act for the recovery of an arrear, the person against whom the proceedings are taken may, if he denies his liability for the arrear or any part thereof and pays the same under protest made in writing at the time of payment and signed by him or his agent, institute a suit in a Civil Court for the recovery of the amount so paid.

(2) A suit under sub-section (1) must be instituted in a Court having jurisdiction in the place where the office of the Collector of the district in which the arrear or some part thereof accrued is situate.

Procedure in Sales.

Proclamation of sale.

79. (1) On the receipt of the sanction of the Financial Commissioner to the sale of any immoveable property, the Collector shall issue a proclamation of the intended sale, specifying—

(a) the date, time and place of the sale;

(b) the property to be sold, and, if it is an estate or holding, the land-revenue assessed thereon or payable in respect thereof;

(c) if the property is to be sold for the recovery of an arrear due in respect thereof, the incumbrances, grants, contracts and rights of occupancy, if any, specially saved by order of the Financial Commissioner under section 76, sub-section (2), clause (c);

(d) if the property is to be sold otherwise than for the recovery of an arrear due in respect thereof, any incumbrance, grant or contract to which the property is known to be liable; and

(e) the amount for the recovery of which the sale is ordered.

(2) The proclamation shall also state that any person intending to claim a right of pre-emption must, on pain of forfeiting the right, give notice of his intention to the Collector on an office-day before that fixed for the sale.

(3) The place of sale specified under clause (a) of sub-section (1) must be either the office of the

The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter VI.—Collection of Land-revenue.—Sections 80-94.)

Collector or some place appointed by the Collector in this behalf and situate in or near the property to be sold.

Indemnity to Revenue-officer with respect to contents of proclamation.

80. A Revenue-officer shall not be answerable for any error, mis-statement or omission in any proclamation under the last foregoing section, unless the same has been committed or made dishonestly.

Publication of proclamation.

81. (1) A copy of the proclamation shall be served on the defaulter and be posted in a conspicuous part of the office of the Tahsildár of the tahsil in which the property to be sold is situate.

(2) After a copy of the proclamation has been served on the defaulter and posted in the office of the Tahsildár, a copy thereof shall be posted in the office of the Collector.

(3) The proclamation shall be further published in manner prescribed in section 22 and in such other manner as the Collector thinks expedient.

Time and conduct of sale.

82. (1) The sale shall not take place on a Sunday or other holiday, or till after the expiration of at least thirty days from the date on which the copy of the proclamation was posted in the office of the Collector.

(2) The sale shall be by public auction, and shall be conducted either by the Collector in person or by a Revenue-officer specially appointed by him in this behalf.

Power to postpone sale.

83. The Collector may from time to time postpone the sale.

Stay of sale.

84. If at any time before the bidding at the auction is completed the defaulter pays the arrear in respect of which the property has been proclaimed for sale, together with the costs incurred for the recovery thereof, to the officer conducting the sale, or proves to the satisfaction of that officer that he has already paid the same either at the place and in the manner prescribed under section 63 or into the Government treasury, the sale shall be stayed.

Payment of deposit by highest bidder.

85. When the highest bid at the auction has been ascertained, the person who made that bid shall, on the requisition of the officer conducting the sale, pay to that officer a deposit of twenty-five per centum on the amount of his bid, and shall, on payment thereof, be declared to be the purchaser subject to the provisions of this Chapter with respect to the exercise of any right of pre-emption.

Consequences of failure to pay deposit.

86. If the person who made the highest bid fails to pay the deposit as required by the last foregoing section, the property shall forthwith be put up again and sold, and all expenses attending the first sale, and the deficiency of price, if any, which may happen on the re-sale, may be recovered from him by the Collector as if the same were an arrear of land-revenue.

Exercise of right of pre-emption.

87. (1) At any time before the close of the day on which the sale takes place any person who has given notice of his intention to claim a right of pre-emption under section 79, sub-section (2) may, on payment to the officer conducting the sale of a deposit of twenty-five per centum on the highest bid made at the sale, claim to take the property at that bid.

(2) If the right is not disputed, he shall be declared to be the purchaser.

(3) If the right is disputed, the Collector shall inquire into and decide the dispute and declare the purchaser, and his decision and declaration shall be final.

Time for payment in full.

88. The full amount of the purchase-money shall be paid by the purchaser before the close of the fifteenth day from that on which the purchaser was declared.

Procedure in default of payment.

89. In default of payment of the full amount of the purchase-money within the period mentioned in the last foregoing section, the deposit referred to in section 85 or section 87, as the case may be, shall, after defraying the expenses of the sale, be forfeited to the Government and may, if the Collector, with the previous sanction of the Commissioner, so directs, be applied in reduction of the arrear, and the property shall be re-sold, and the defaulting purchaser shall have no claim to the property or to any part of the sum for which it may subsequently be sold.

Report of sale to Commissioner.

90. Every sale of immoveable property under this Chapter shall be reported by the Collector to the Commissioner.

Application to set aside sale.

91. (1) At any time within thirty days from the date of the sale, application may be made to the Commissioner to set aside the sale on the ground of some material irregularity or mistake in publishing or conducting it;

(2) But a sale shall not be set aside on that ground unless the applicant proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that he has sustained substantial injury by reason of the irregularity or mistake.

Order confirming or setting aside sale.

92. (1) After the expiration of thirty days from the date of the sale, if such application as is mentioned in the last foregoing section has not been made, or if such application has been made and rejected, the Commissioner shall make an order confirming the sale, and, if such application has been made and allowed, the Commissioner shall make an order setting aside the sale.

(2) An order made under this section shall be final.

Refund of purchase-money on setting aside of sale.

93. Whenever the sale of any property is set aside, the purchaser shall be entitled to receive back his purchase-money.

Proclamation after postponement or on re-sale.

94. A sale made after a postponement under section 83, and a re-sale consequent on a purchaser's default under section 89 or on the setting aside of a sale under section 92, shall be made after the issue of a fresh proclamation in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for the sale.

The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter VI.—Collection of Land-revenue.—Sections 95-96.
Chapter VII.—Recovery of other Demands by Revenue-officers.—Sections 97-99.
Chapter VIII.—Surveys and Boundaries.—Sections 100-101.)

On confirmation of sale, possession and certificate to be granted to purchaser.

95. (1) After a sale has been confirmed in manner aforesaid, the Collector shall put the person declared to be the purchaser into possession of the property sold, and shall grant him a certificate to the effect that he has purchased that property.

(2) The certificate shall state whether or not the property was sold for the recovery of an arrear due in respect thereof, and, if it was so sold, shall set forth the incumbrances, grants, contracts and rights of occupancy, if any, specified in the proclamation of the sale as specially saved by order of the Financial Commissioner under section 76, sub-section (2), clause (c).

(3) The certificate shall be deemed to be a valid transfer of the property but need not be registered as a conveyance.

(4) Any suit brought in any Court against the certified purchaser on the ground that the purchase was made on behalf of a person other than the certified purchaser shall be dismissed with costs.

(5) The certified purchaser of any immoveable property shall be entitled to all rents and profits falling due in respect of the property after the date of the confirmation of the sale and be liable for all instalments of land-revenue and rates and cesses falling due in respect thereof after that date.

Proceeds of sale.

96. (1) When a sale of immoveable property under this Chapter has been confirmed, the proceeds of the sale shall be applied in the first place to the payment of any arrears, including costs incurred for the recovery thereof, due to the Government from the defaulter at the date of the confirmation of the sale, whether the arrears are of land-revenue, or of sums recoverable as arrears of land-revenue, and the surplus, if any, shall be paid to the person whose property has been sold, or, if the property sold was owned by more than one person, then to the owners either collectively or according to the amount of their recorded interests, as the Collector thinks fit.

(2) The surplus shall not, except under an order of a Court, be paid to any creditor of a person whose property has been sold.

(3) If the proceeds of the sale fall short of such arrears as are referred to in sub-section (1), the balance remaining due from the defaulter may be recovered from him by further proceedings under this Chapter or by any other means authorised by law.

CHAPTER VII.

RECOVERY OF OTHER DEMANDS BY REVENUE-OFFICERS.

Recovery of certain arrears through Revenue-officer instead of by suit.

97. When a village-officer required by rules under section 28 to collect any land-revenue or sum recoverable as an arrear of land-revenue satisfies a Revenue-officer that the revenue or sum has fallen due and has not been paid to him, the Revenue-officer may, subject to any rules which the Financial Commissioner may make in this behalf, recover it as if it were an arrear of land-revenue.

Other sums recoverable as arrears of land-revenue.

98. In addition to any sums recoverable as arrears of land-revenue under this Act or any other enactment for the time being in force, the following sums may be so recovered, namely :—

(a) fees, fines, costs and other charges, including the village-officers' cess, payable under this Act;

(b) revenue due to the Government on account of pasture or other natural products of land, or on account of mills, fisheries or natural products of water, or on account of other rights described in section 41 or section 42, in cases in which the revenue so due has not been included in the assessment of an estate;

(c) fees payable to district boards or local boards under section 33 of the Punjab District Boards Act, 1883, for the use of or benefits derived from such works as are referred to in section 20, clauses (i) and (j), of that Act ; XX of 1883.

(d) sums leviable by or under the authority of the Government as water-rates, or on account of the maintenance or management of canals, embankments or other irrigation-works, not being sums recoverable as arrears of land-revenue under any enactment for the time being in force; and

(e) sums payable to the Government by a person who is surety for the payment of any of the foregoing sums or of any other sum recoverable as an arrear of land-revenue.

Application of Chapter VI to sums recoverable under this Chapter.

99. (1) The provisions of Chapter VI shall, with respect to any sum mentioned or referred to in this Chapter, apply, so far as they can be made applicable, as if the sum were an arrear of land-revenue and the person from whom, either as principal or as surety, it is due were a defaulter in respect of such an arrear.

(2) Unless any such sum is declared by any enactment for the time being in force to be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land-revenue due in respect of the land charged therewith, the provisions of section 77 shall apply under sub-section (1) to the recovery thereof.

CHAPTER VIII.

SURVEYS AND BOUNDARIES.

Power of Financial Commissioner to make rules for demarcation of boundaries and erection of survey-marks.

100. (1) The Financial Commissioner may make rules as to the manner in which the boundaries of all or any estates in any local area are to be demarcated and as to the survey-marks to be erected within those estates.

(2) Rules under this section may prescribe, among other matters, the form of survey-marks and the material to be used in their construction.

Power of Revenue-officers to define boundaries.

101. (1) A Revenue-officer may, for the purpose of framing any record or making any assessment under this Act, or on the application of any person interested, define the

The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter VIII.—Surveys and Boundaries.—Sections 102-109. Chapter IX.—Partition.—Sections 110-111.)

limits of any estate, or of any holding, field or other portion of an estate, and may, for the purpose of indicating those limits, require survey-marks to be erected or repaired.

(2) In defining the limits of any land under sub-section (1), the Revenue-officer may cause survey-marks to be erected on any boundary already determined by, or by order of, any Court, Revenue-officer or Forest-settlement-officer, or restore any survey-mark already set up by, or by order of, any Court or any such officer.

Cost of erection and repair of survey-marks.

102. Subject to any rules which the Financial Commissioner may make in this behalf, survey-marks shall be erected and kept in repair by or at the cost of the persons interested in the land for the indication of the limits of which they are required :

Provided that the Local Government may in any case direct that the cost of erection shall be borne by the Government or be paid out of the proceeds of the village-officers' cess.

Recovery of cost incurred by the Government.

103. (1) If the persons interested in the land fail to erect or repair a survey-mark within thirty days from the date of their being required by a Revenue-officer to do so, the Revenue-officer may cause it to be erected or repaired.

(2) Where the Revenue-officer causes a survey-mark to be erected or repaired, he shall, subject to any rules or direction under the last foregoing section, apportion the cost among the persons interested in the land in such manner as he deems just, and certify the same to the Collector.

(3) The Collector may recover the cost as if it were an arrear of land-revenue.

Power of Revenue-officers to enter on land for purposes of survey and demarcation.

104. Any Revenue-officer, and any person acting under the orders of a Revenue-officer, may, in the discharge of any duty under this Act, enter upon and survey land and erect survey-marks thereon and demarcate the boundaries thereof, and do all other acts necessary for the proper performance of that duty.

Surveys for purpose of preparation of records.

105. (1) When any land is being surveyed in pursuance of rules under section 46, clause (c), any Revenue-officer directing the survey may, by notice or proclamation, require all persons having rights or interests in the land to indicate, within a specified time, by temporary marks of a kind to be described in the notice or proclamation, the limits of those rights or interests.

(2) If a person to whom the notice or proclamation is addressed fails to comply with the requisition, he shall be liable at the discretion of the Revenue-officer to fine which may extend to ten rupees.

Provision of flagholders and chainmen for those surveys.

106. (1) For the purposes of the survey of any land in pursuance of rules under section 46, clause (c), the landowners shall be bound to provide fit persons to act as flagholders and chainmen.

(2) If the landowners fail to provide such persons or to provide them in sufficient number, such other persons as a Revenue-officer considers necessary may be employed and the cost of employing them recovered from the landowners as if it were an arrear of land-revenue.

Professional surveys.

107. (1) If it is necessary to make a survey by other agency than that of Revenue-officers or village-officers, the Local Government may publish a notification stating—

(a) the local area to be surveyed and the nature of the survey ;

(b) the names or official designations of the officers by whom the survey is to be made ; and

(c) the kind of survey-marks to be erected by those officers.

(2) From the date of the notification the officers specified therein, and the persons acting under their orders, shall have for the purposes of the survey the powers conferred on Revenue-officers by section 104.

Penalty for destruction, injury or removal of survey-marks.

108. (1) If any person wilfully destroys or injures or without lawful authority removes a survey-mark lawfully erected, he may be ordered by a Revenue-officer to pay such fine not exceeding fifty rupees for each mark so destroyed, injured or removed as may, in the opinion of the Revenue-officer, be necessary to defray the expense of restoring the same and of rewarding the person, if any, who gave information of the destruction, injury or removal.

(2) The imposition of a fine under this section shall not bar a prosecution under section 434 of the Indian Penal Code. XLV of 1860.

Report of destruction or removal of or injury to survey-marks.

109. Every village-officer of an estate shall be legally bound to furnish a Revenue-officer with information respecting the destruction or removal of, or any injury done to, any survey-mark lawfully erected in the estate.

CHAPTER IX.

PARTITION.

Effect of partitions of estates and tenancies on joint liability for revenue and rent.

110. (1) A partition of land, either under this Chapter or otherwise, shall not, without the express consent of the Financial Commissioner, affect the joint liability of the land or of the landowners thereof for the revenue payable in respect of the land, or operate to create a new estate, and, if any conditions are attached to that consent, those conditions shall be binding on the parties to the partition.

(2) A partition of a tenancy shall not, without the express consent of the landlord, affect the joint liability of the co-sharers therein for the payment of the rent thereof.

Application for partition.

111. Any joint owner of land, or any joint tenant of a tenancy in which a right of occupancy subsists, may apply to a Revenue-officer for partition of his share in the land or tenancy, as the case may be, if—

(a) at the date of the application the share is recorded under Chapter IV as belonging to him, or

(b) his right to the share has been established by a decree which is still subsisting at that date, or

The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter IX.—Partition.—Sections 112-118.)

(c) a written acknowledgment of that right has been executed by all persons interested in the admission or denial thereof.

Restrictions and limitations on partition.

112. Notwithstanding anything in the last foregoing section—

(1) places of worship and burial-grounds held in common before partition shall continue to be so held after partition, unless the parties otherwise agree among themselves and record their agreement and file it with the Revenue-officer;

(2) partition of any of the following properties, namely:—

(a) any embankment, watercourse, well or tank, and any land on which the supply of water to any such work may depend,

(b) any grazing-ground, and

(c) any land which is occupied as the site of a town or village and is assessed to land-revenue,

may be refused if in the opinion of the Revenue-officer the partition of such property is likely to cause inconvenience to the co-sharers or other persons directly or indirectly interested therein or to diminish the utility thereof to those persons;

(3) the fact that a partition on the application of a joint owner of land would render necessary the severance into two or more parts of the land comprised in the tenancy of a tenant having a right of occupancy may, unless the tenant assents to the severance, be a sufficient reason for the disallowance of the partition in so far as it would affect that tenancy; and

(4) the fact that the landlord objects to the partition of a tenancy may be sufficient reason for the absolute disallowance of the partition thereof.

Notice of application for partition.

113. The Revenue-officer, on receiving the application under section 111, shall, if it is in order and not open to objection on the face of it, fix a day for the hearing thereof, and—

(a) cause notice of the application and of the day so fixed to be served on such of the recorded co-sharers as have not joined in the application, and, if the share of which partition is applied for is a share in a tenancy, on the landlord also; and

(b) if he thinks fit, cause the notice to be served on, or proclaimed for the information of, any other persons whom he may deem to be directly or indirectly interested in the application.

Addition of parties to application.

114. On the day fixed for the hearing, or on any day to which the hearing may be adjourned, the Revenue-officer shall ascertain whether any of the other co-sharers desire the partition of their shares also, and, if any of them so desire, he shall add them as applicants for partition.

Absolute disallowance of partition.

115. After examining such of the co-sharers and other persons as may be present on that day, the Revenue-officer may, if he is of opinion that there is good and sufficient cause why partition should be absolutely disallowed, refuse the application, recording the grounds of his refusal.

Procedure on admission of application.

116. If the Revenue-officer does not refuse the application under the last foregoing section, he shall ascertain the questions, if any, in dispute between any of the persons interested, distinguishing between—

(a) questions as to title in the property of which partition is sought; and

(b) questions as to the property to be divided, or the mode of making the partition.

Disposal of questions as to title in property to be divided.

117. (1) When there is a question as to title in any of the property of which partition is sought, the Revenue-officer may decline to grant the application for partition until the question has been determined by a competent Court, or he may himself proceed to determine the question as though he were such a Court.

(2) Where the Revenue-officer himself proceeds to determine the question, the following rules shall apply, namely:—

(a) If the question is one over which a Revenue Court has jurisdiction, the Revenue-officer shall proceed as a Revenue Court under the provisions of the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.

(b) If the question is one over which a Civil Court has jurisdiction, the procedure of the Revenue-officer shall be that applicable to the trial of an original suit by a Civil Court, and he shall record a judgment and decree containing the particulars required by the Code of Civil Procedure to be specified therein. XIV of 1882.

(c) An appeal shall lie from the decree of the Revenue-officer under clause (b) as though that decree were a decree of a District Judge in an original suit.

(d) Upon such an appeal being made, the Divisional Court or Chief Court, as the case may be, may issue an injunction to the Revenue-officer requiring him to stay proceedings pending the disposal of the appeal.

(e) From the appellate decree of a Divisional Court upon such an appeal a further appeal shall lie to the Chief Court if such a further appeal is allowed by the law for the time being in force.

Disposal of other questions.

118. (1) When there is a question as to the property to be divided, or the mode of making a partition, the Revenue-officer shall, after such inquiry as he deems necessary, record an order stating his decision on the question and his reasons for the decision.

(2) An appeal may be preferred to the Commissioner from an order under sub-section (1) within fifteen days from the date thereof, and, when such an appeal is preferred and the institution thereof has been certified to the Revenue-officer by the Commissioner, the Revenue-officer shall stay proceedings pending the disposal of the appeal.

The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter IX.—Partition.—Sections 119-126. Chapter X.—Arbitration.—Sections 127-128.)

(3) If an applicant for partition is dissatisfied with an original or appellate order under this section, and applies for permission to withdraw from the proceedings in so far as they relate to the partition of his share, he shall be permitted to withdraw therefrom on such terms as the Revenue-officer thinks fit.

(4) When an applicant withdraws under the last foregoing sub-section, the Revenue-officer may, where the other applicants, if any, desire the continuance of the proceedings, continue them in so far as they relate to the partition of the shares of those other applicants.

Administration of property excluded from partition.

119. When any such property as is referred to in section 112, clause (2), is excluded from partition, the Revenue-officer may determine the extent and manner to and in which the co-sharers and other persons interested therein may make use thereof, and the proportion in which expenditure incurred thereon and profits derived therefrom, respectively, are to be borne by and divided among those persons or any of them.

Distribution of revenue and rent after partition.

120. (1) The amount of revenue to be paid in respect of each of the holdings into which land has been divided on a partition, and the amount of rent to be paid in respect of each of the portions into which a tenancy has been so divided, shall be determined by the Revenue-officer making the partition.

(2) The determination of the Revenue-officer as to the revenue to be paid in respect of each holding shall, where the estate in which the holding is situate is subject to a fixed assessment, be deemed to be an order under section 56, sub-section (1).

(3) Where new estates have been created at a partition and the land-revenue has been fraudulently or erroneously distributed among them, the Local Government may, within twelve years from the time of discovery of the fraud or error, order a new distribution of the land-revenue among the several estates, on an estimate of the assets of each estate at the time of the partition, to be made conformably to the best evidence and information procurable respecting the same.

Instrument of partition.

121. When a partition is completed, the Revenue-officer shall cause an instrument of partition to be prepared, and the date on which the partition is to take effect to be recorded therein.

Delivery of possession of property allotted on partition.

122. An owner or tenant to whom any land or portion of a tenancy, as the case may be, is allotted in proceedings for partition shall be entitled to possession thereof as against the other parties to the proceedings and their legal representatives, and a Revenue-officer shall, on application made to him for the purpose by any such owner or tenant at any time within three years from the date recorded in the instrument of partition under the last foregoing section, give effect to that instrument so far as it concerns the applicant as if it were a decree for immoveable property.

Affirmation of partitions privately effected.

123. (1) In any case in which a partition has been made without the intervention of a Revenue-officer, to a Revenue officer for an order affirming the partition.

(2) On receiving the application, the Revenue-officer shall inquire into the case, and, if he finds that the partition has in fact been made, he may make an order affirming it and proceed under sections 119, 120, 121 and 122, or any of those sections, as circumstances may require, in the same manner as if the partition had been made on an application to himself under this Chapter.

Power to make rules as to costs of partitions.

124. The Financial Commissioner may make rules for determining the costs of partitions under this Chapter and the mode in which such costs are to be apportioned.

Re-distribution of land according to custom.

125. When by established custom any land in an estate is subject to periodical re-distribution a Revenue-officer may, on the application of any of the landowners, enforce the re-distribution according to the custom, and for this purpose may exercise all or any of the powers of a Revenue-officer in proceedings for partition.

Officers who may be empowered to act under this Chapter.

126. The Revenue officer by whom proceedings may be taken under this Chapter shall be a Revenue-officer of a class not below that of Assistant Collector of the first grade.

CHAPTER X.

ARBITRATION.

Power to refer to arbitration.

127. (1) Any Revenue-officer may, with the consent of the parties, refer to arbitration any dispute arising before him in any matter under this Act.

(2) A Collector or an Assistant Collector of the first grade may, without the consent of the parties, refer to arbitration any dispute before him with respect to—

(a) any matter of which an entry is to be made in any record or register under Chapter IV;

(b) any matter relating to the distribution of an assessment under section 56;

(c) the limits of any estate or of any holding, field or other portion of an estate; or

(d) the property to be divided at a partition or the mode of making a partition.

Order of reference and contents thereof.

128. (1) In referring a dispute to arbitration a Revenue-officer shall make an order of reference, and specify therein the precise matter submitted to arbitration, the number of arbitrators which each party to the dispute is to nominate, the period within which arbitrators are to be nominated, and the period within which the award is to be delivered.

(2) The number of arbitrators which each party may nominate must be the same and must not exceed two.

(3) If from any cause arbitrators are not nominated, or an award is not delivered, within the period fixed therefor in the order of reference, the Revenue-officer may from time to time enlarge

The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter X.—Arbitration.—Sections 129-135. Chapter XI.—Special Jurisdiction with respect to Land.—Sections 136-137.)

Nomination of arbitrators.

129. (1) When an order of reference has been made, the parties may each nominate the number of arbitrators specified in the order, and the Revenue-officer shall nominate one other arbitrator.

(2) The Revenue-officer may, for reasons to be recorded by him, make an order disallowing any nomination made by either party and requiring the party to make another nomination within a time to be specified in the order.

(3) An order under the last foregoing sub-section shall be final.

Substitution of arbitrators by parties.

130. If an arbitrator nominated by a party dies, desires to be discharged or refuses or becomes incapable to act, the party may nominate another person in his stead.

Nomination and substitution of arbitrators by Revenue-officers.

131. In any of the following cases, namely :—

(a) if either of the parties fails to nominate an arbitrator under sub-section (1) of section 129 within the period fixed in the order of reference, or

(b) if the nomination of an arbitrator has been disallowed under sub-section (2) of section 129, and another arbitrator is not nominated within the time specified in the order under that sub-section or, having been so nominated, his nomination is also disallowed, or

(c) if a party entitled to nominate an arbitrator in the place of another arbitrator under section 130 fails to nominate him within one week from the date of the communication to him of a notice requiring him to make the nomination, or

(d) if an arbitrator nominated by the Revenue-officer dies, desires to be discharged, or refuses or becomes incapable to act,

the Revenue-officer may nominate a person as arbitrator.

Process for appearance before arbitrators.

132. (1) The Revenue-officer shall, on the application of the arbitrators, issue the same processes to the parties and witnesses whom the arbitrators desire to examine as he may issue in any proceeding under this Act before himself.

(2) Any such party or witness shall be bound to appear before the arbitrators in obedience to a process issued under sub-section (1), either in person or by agent, as the arbitrators may require.

(3) The person attending in obedience to the process shall be bound to state the truth upon any matter respecting which he is examined or makes statements, and to produce such documents and other things relating to any such matter as may be specified in the process.

Award of arbitrators and presentation thereof.

133. (1) The arbitrators shall make an award in writing under their hands concerning the matters referred to them for arbitration, and state therein their reasons therefor, and any arbitrator dissenting from the award made by a majority of the arbitrators shall state the grounds of his dissent.

(2) The arbitrators shall present the award to the Revenue-officer in person unless that officer permits them to present it by agent.

Procedure on presentation of award.

134. (1) When the award has been received, the Revenue-officer shall, if the parties are present, consider forthwith any objections which they may have to make thereto, and, if they are not present, fix a date for the consideration thereof.

(2) Where a date has been fixed for the consideration of an award, the Revenue-officer shall on that date, or on any subsequent date to which an adjournment may be made, hear any objections which the parties may have to make to the award.

(3) The Revenue-officer may also, if he thinks fit, question the arbitrators as to the grounds of their award.

Effect of award.

135. (1) The Revenue-officer may accept, modify or reject the award, recording his reasons for doing so in his decision respecting the dispute which was referred to arbitration.

(2) An appeal shall lie from the decision as if arbitrators had not been appointed.

CHAPTER XI.

SPECIAL JURISDICTION WITH RESPECT TO LAND.

Power to invest officers making records-of-rights or general re-assessments with powers of Civil Courts.

136. (1) The Local Government may, by order published in the official Gazette, invest any Revenue-officer making or specially revising records-of-rights in any local area in pursuance of a notification under section 32 or making a general re-assessment of land-revenue in any local area in pursuance of a notification under section 49, or any Revenue-officer to whose control that officer is subject, with all or any of the powers of any Court constituted under the Punjab Courts Act, 1884, for the purpose of trying all or any XVIII of specified classes of suits or appeals relating to land 1884. arising in the local area.

(2) The Local Government may cancel an order under sub-section (1) wholly or in part.

(3) While an order or any part of an order under that sub-section continues in force, the powers conferred thereby shall be exercised by the officer invested therewith and not otherwise.

(4) Any cases pending before that officer under the order or a subsisting part of the order at the time of the cancellation thereof may be disposed of by him as if the order or that part of it continued in force, unless the Local Government directs, as it is hereby empowered to do, that those cases shall be transferred for disposal to the Courts by which they would have been disposed of if the order had not been published.

Control over such officers and appeals from and revision of their decrees and orders.

137. (1) The Local Government may by notification direct that the provisions of this Act with respect to the superintendence and control over Revenue-officers shall, subject to any modification of those provisions which the Local Government thinks fit, apply to any Revenue-officer, except the Financial Commissioner, who has been invested with the powers of a Civil Court of any of the classes specified in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) of section 17 of the Punjab Courts Act, 1884, and XVI that appeals shall lie from his decrees and orders 1884.

The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter XII.—Supplemental Provisions.—Sections 138-145.)

to, and his decrees and orders be subject to revision by, a Revenue-officer invested under the last foregoing section with the powers of a Court which would be competent under the Punjab Courts Act, 1884, to hear appeals from, or revise, such decrees and orders if they had been made by a Court with the powers of which the Revenue-officer who made them has been invested.

(2) In the absence of any such notification, a Revenue-officer invested under the last foregoing section with the powers of any such Civil Court as aforesaid shall, with respect to the exercise of those powers, be deemed to be such a Civil Court for the purposes of the Punjab Courts Act, 1884.

CHAPTER XII.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS.

Revenue Deposits.

Power to deposit certain sums other than rent.

138. (1) In either of the following cases, namely :—

(a) when a headman or other landowner, or an assignee of land-revenue, to whom any sum other than rent is payable on account of a liability under this Act refuses to receive the sum from, or to grant a receipt therefor to, the person by whom it is payable,

(b) when the person by whom any such sum is payable is in doubt as to the headman or other landowner, or the assignee of land-revenue, entitled to receive it,

that person may apply to a Revenue-officer for leave to deposit the sum in his office, and the Revenue-officer shall receive the deposit if, after examining the applicant, he is satisfied that there is sufficient ground for the application and if the applicant pays the fee, if any, which may be chargeable on any notice to be issued of the receipt thereof.

(2) When a deposit has been so received, the liability of the depositor to the headman or other landowner, or the assignee of land-revenue, for the amount thereof shall be discharged.

Procedure in case of deposit on account of a payment due to Government.

139. If the deposit purports to be made on account of any payment due to the Government, it may be credited accordingly.

Procedure in case of other deposits.

140. (1) A Revenue-officer receiving a deposit purporting to be made on any other account shall give notice of the receipt thereof to every person who he has reason to believe claims or is entitled to the deposit, and may pay the amount thereof to any person appearing to him to be entitled to the same, or may, if he thinks fit, retain the deposit pending the decision of a Civil Court as to the person so entitled.

(2) No suit or other proceeding shall be instituted against the Secretary of State for India in Council, or against any officer of the Government, in respect of anything done by a Revenue-officer [un]der this section, but nothing in this sub-section [shall] prevent any person entitled to receive the [amount] of any such deposit from recovering it from [the person t]o whom it has been paid by a Revenue-

Execution of Orders of Civil and Criminal Courts by Revenue-officers.

Orders of Civil and Criminal Courts for execution of processes against land or the produce thereof to be addressed to a Revenue-officer.

141. Orders issued by any Civil or Criminal Court for the attachment, sale or delivery of any land or interest in land, or for the attachment or sale of the produce of any land, shall be addressed to the Collector or such Revenue-officer as the Collector may appoint in this behalf, and be executed by the Collector or that officer in accordance with the provisions of the law applicable to the Court issuing the orders and with any rules consistent therewith made by the Financial Commissioner with the concurrence of the Chief Court and the previous sanction of the Local Government.

Attachment of assigned land-revenue.

142. (1) Notwithstanding anything in any other enactment for the time being in force, an order issued by any Court for the attachment of assigned land-revenue shall require the person by whom the revenue is payable to pay it to the Collector, and the Collector to hold it subject to the further orders of the Court.

(2) A payment to the Collector under sub-section (1) shall be an effectual discharge to the person making it.

Preservation of attached Produce.

Preservation of attached produce.

143. (1) The attachment of the produce of any land in pursuance of an order of any Court or other authority shall not prevent the person to whom the produce belongs from reaping, gathering or storing it or doing any other act necessary for its preservation.

(2) The attaching officer shall do or cause to be done all acts necessary for the preservation of the produce if the person to whom it belongs fails to do so.

(3) When sale of produce follows on its attachment, the purchaser shall be entitled, by himself or by any person appointed by him in this behalf, to enter on the place where the produce is and do all that is necessary for the purpose of preserving and removing it.

Division of Produce.

Division of produce.

144. In either of the following cases, namely :—

(a) where land-revenue is paid by division or appraisement of the produce,

(b) where a superior and an inferior landowner, or two or more shareholders in a holding or tenancy, are jointly interested in any produce, and either or any of the landowners or tenants, as the case may be, desires the assistance of a Revenue-officer for the purpose of dividing or appraising the produce, the provisions of the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887, with respect to the division or appraisement of produce shall apply so far as they can be made applicable. XVI of 1887.

Miscellaneous.

Village-cesses.

145. (1) At any of the following times, namely :—

(a) when a record-of-rights is being made or specially revised for an estate,

The Punjab Land-Revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter XII.—Supplemental Provisions.—Sections 146-154.)

(b) when the local area in which an estate is situate is being generally re-assessed and before the assessment has been confirmed,

(c) at any other time on an order made with respect to any estate by the Local Government with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, a Revenue-officer shall prepare a list of village-cesses, if any, levied in the estate which have been generally or specially approved by the Local Government, or the title to which has before the passing of this Act been judicially established.

(2) When a list has been prepared for an estate under sub-section (1), a village-cess not comprised therein shall not be recoverable by suit in any Court.

(3) The Local Government may impose on the collection of any village-cess comprised in the list such conditions as to police or other establishments connected with the village, market or fair in or on account of which the cess is levied, as it thinks fit.

(4) The Governor General in Council may, on a reference from the Local Government, declare whether any cess, contribution or due levied in an estate is or is not a village-cess.

(5) A declaration of the Governor-General in Council under the last foregoing sub-section shall be conclusive, and shall not be liable to be questioned in any Court.

Superior landowners' dues.

146. Where a superior landowner is entitled to receive in respect of any land from an inferior landowner dues in kind or in cash of fluctuating quantity or amount, the Collector may—

(a) on the application of both landowners, or,

(b) with the previous sanction of the Local Government, on the application of either of them, commute those dues into a fixed percentage of the land-revenue payable by the inferior landowner in respect of the land.

Substitution of service for payment of land-revenue.

147. (1) The Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, authorize the remission of land-revenue in whole or in part in consideration of the person liable therefor undertaking to render in lieu thereof such public service as may be specified in an agreement to be approved by the Local Government and executed by that person.

(2) The Local Government may, with the like sanction, cancel any remission authorized, and agreement made, under sub-section (1).

(3) If a landowner bound by an agreement under that sub-section to render public service in lieu of paying land-revenue fails to render the service to the satisfaction of the Collector, the Collector may determine the portion of the land-revenue remitted which is represented by the service in respect of which the landowner is in default, and, with the previous sanction of the Financial Commissioner, recover that portion as if it were an arrear of land-revenue due in respect of the land for the land-revenue whereof the service was substituted.

Recovery of cost of assessing assigned land-revenue.

148. (1) When land of which the land-revenue has been assigned in whole or in part is re-assessed, the assignee shall be liable to pay such a share of the cost of making the re-assessment as the Financial Commissioner may determine to be just.

(2) That share may be recovered by the Collector by deduction of the amount thereof from the land-revenue due to the assignee.

Penalty for failure to attend within limits of estate in obedience to order of Revenue-officer.

149. If a person required by a summons, notice, order or proclamation proceeding from a Revenue-officer to attend at a certain time and place within the limits of the estate in which he ordinarily resides, or in which he holds or cultivates land, fails to comply with the requisition, he shall be liable at the discretion of the Revenue-officer to fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

Prevention of encroachment on common lands.

150. (1) Where land which has been reserved for the common purposes of the co-sharers therein has been encroached on by any co-sharer, a Revenue-officer may, on the application of any other co-sharer, eject the encroaching co-sharer from the land and, by order proclaimed in manner mentioned in section 22, forbid repetition of the encroachment.

(2) The proceedings of the Revenue-officer under sub-section (1) shall be subject to any decree or order which may be subsequently passed by any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Papers kept by village-officers to be deemed public documents.

151. (1) Any record or paper which a village-officer is required by law or by any rule under this Act to prepare or keep shall be deemed to be the property of the Government.

(2) A village-officer shall, with respect to any such record or paper in his custody, be deemed for the purposes of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, to be a public officer having the custody of a public document which any person has a right to inspect. I of 1872.

Costs.

152. (1) A Revenue-officer may give and apportion the costs of any proceeding under this Act in any manner he thinks fit;

(2) But if he orders that the costs of any such proceeding shall not follow the event, he shall record his reasons for the order.

Computation of periods limited for appeals and applications for review.

153. In the computation of the period for an appeal from, or an application for the review of, an order under this Act the limitation therefor shall be governed by the Indian Limitation Act, 1877. XV of 1877.

Restriction on Revenue-officers bidding at auctions or trading.

154. (1) A Revenue-officer, or a person employed in a revenue-office, shall not—

(a) purchase or bid for, either in person or by agent, in his own name or in that of another, or jointly or in shares with others, any property which any Revenue-officer or Revenue Court in the district in which he is employed has ordered to be sold, or,

The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter XII.—Supplemental Provisions.—Sections 155-158.)

(b) in contravention of any rules made by the Local Government in this behalf, engage in trade in that district.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to preclude any person from becoming a member of a company incorporated under the Indian Companies Act, 1882, or other law. VI of 1882.

Power to make rules.

155. (1) The Financial Commissioner may, in addition to the other rules which may be made by him under this Act, make rules consistent with this Act and any other enactment for the time being in force—

(a) fixing the number and amount of the instalments, and the times and places and the manner, by, at and in which any sum other than rent or land-revenue which is payable under this Act or of which a record has been made thereunder is to be paid;

(b) fixing the dates on which profits are to be divisible by headmen or other persons by whom they are realized on behalf of co-sharers;

(c) prescribing the fees to be charged for the service and execution of processes issued by Revenue-officers and Revenue Courts, the mode in which those fees are to be collected, the number of persons to be employed in the service and execution of those processes, and the remuneration and duties of those persons;

(d) regulating the procedure in cases where persons are entitled to inspect records of revenue-offices, or records or papers in the custody of village-officers, or to obtain copies of the same, and prescribing the fees payable for searches and copies;

(e) prescribing forms for such books, entries, statistics and accounts as the Financial Commissioner thinks necessary to be kept, made or compiled in revenue-offices or submitted to any authority;

(f) declaring what shall be the language of any of those offices, and determining in what cases persons practising in those offices shall be permitted to address the presiding officers thereof in English; and

(g) generally for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) Until rules are made under clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section (1) the sums therein referred to shall be payable by the instalments, at the times and places, and in the manner by, at and in which they are now payable.

(3) Rules made by the Financial Commissioner under this or any other section of this Act shall not take effect until they have been sanctioned by the Local Government, and rules under clause (c) of sub-section (1) shall not take effect until they have also been confirmed by the Governor-General in Council.

Rules to be made after previous publication.

156. The power to make any rules under this Act is subject to the control of the Governor-General in Council, and to the condition of the rules being made after previous publication.

Powers exerciseable by the Financial Commissioner from time to time.

157. All powers conferred by this Act on the Financial Commissioner may be exercised from time to time as occasion requires.

Exclusion of Jurisdiction of Civil Courts.

Exclusion of jurisdiction of Civil Courts in matters within the jurisdiction of Revenue-officers.

158. Except as otherwise provided by this Act—

(1) a Civil Court shall not have jurisdiction in any matter which the Local Government or a Revenue-officer is empowered by this Act to dispose of, or take cognizance of the manner in which the Local Government or any Revenue-officer exercises any powers vested in it or him by or under this Act; and in particular—

(2) a Civil Court shall not exercise jurisdiction over any of the following matters, namely:—

(i) any question as to the limits of any land which has been defined by a Revenue-officer as land to which this Act does or does not apply;

(ii) any claim to compel the performance of any duties imposed by this Act or any other enactment for the time being in force on any Revenue-officer, as such;

(iii) any claim to the office of kánúngo, zaildár, inámdár or village-officer, or in respect of any injury caused by exclusion from such office, or to compel the performance of the duties or a division of the emoluments thereof;

(iv) any notification directing the making or revision of a record-of-rights;

(v) the framing of a record-of-rights or annual record, or the preparation, signing or attestation of any of the documents included in such a record;

(vi) the correction of any entry in a record-of-rights, annual record or register of mutations;

(vii) any notification of the undertaking of the general re-assessment of a district or tahsil having been sanctioned by the Governor-General in Council;

(viii) the claim of any person to be liable for an assessment of land-revenue or of any other revenue assessed under this Act;

(ix) the amount of land-revenue to be assessed on any estate or to be paid in respect of any holding under this Act;

(x) the amount of, or the liability of any person to pay, any other revenue to be assessed under this Act, or any cess, charge or rate to be assessed on an estate or holding under this Act or any other enactment for the time being in force;

(xi) any claim relating to the allowance to be received by a landowner who has given notice of his refusal to be liable for an assessment, or any claim connected with, or arising out of, any proceedings taken in consequence of the refusal of any person to be liable for an assessment under this Act;

(xii) the formation of an estate out of waste-land;

(xiii) any claim to hold free of revenue any land, mills, fisheries or natural products of land or water;

The Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.
(Chapter XII.—Supplemental Provisions.—Section 158.)
(The Schedule.—Enactments repealed.)

(xiv) any claim connected with, or arising out of, the collection by the Government, or the enforcement by the Government of any process for the recovery, of land-revenue or any sum recoverable as an arrear of land-revenue;

(xv) any claim to set aside, on any ground other than fraud, a sale for the recovery of an arrear of land-revenue or any sum recoverable as an arrear of land-revenue;

(xvi) the amount of, or the liability of any person to pay, any fees, fines, costs or other charges imposed under this Act;

(xvii) any claim for partition of an estate, holding or tenancy, or any question connected with, or arising out of, proceedings for partition, not being a question as to title in any of the property of which partition is sought;

(xviii) any question as to the allotment of land on the partition of an estate, holding or tenancy, or as to the distribution of land subject by established custom to periodical re-distribution, or as to the distribution of land-revenue on the partition of an estate or holding or on a periodical re-distribution of land, or as to the distribution of rent on the partition of a tenancy;

(xix) any claim to set aside or disturb a division or appraisement of produce confirmed or varied by a Revenue-officer under this Act;

(xx) any question relating to the preparation of a list of village-cesses or the imposition by the Local Government of conditions on the collection of such cesses;

(xxi) any proceeding under this Act for the commutation of the dues of a superior land-owner;

(xxii) any claim arising out of the enforcement of an agreement to render public service in lieu of paying land-revenue; or

(xxiii) any claim arising out of the liability of an assignee of land-revenue to pay a share of the cost of collecting or re-assessing such revenue, or arising out of the liability of an assignee to pay out of assigned land-revenue, or of a person who would be liable for land-revenue if it had not been released, compounded for or redeemed to pay on the land-revenue for which he would but for such release, composition or redemption be liable, such a percentage for the remuneration of a zaildár, inámdár or village-officer as may be prescribed by rules for the time being in force under this Act.

The following further Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to amend and declare the Land-revenue Law of the Punjab was presented to the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 7th September, 1887:

WE, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to amend and declare the Land-revenue Law of the Punjab was re-committed, have re-considered the Bill, and have now the honour to submit this further Report. The alterations which we have made are indicated in italics in the revised Bill annexed to this Report.

2. Having regard to the close connection between the subject-matter of this Bill and that of the Punjab Tenancy Bill, we consider it advisable to assign to the words "rent", "tenant", "landlord" and "tenancy" in this Bill the meanings which they respectively have in the other Bill.

3. We have inserted in the proviso to section 16 words which bring the proviso substantially into accord with sub-sections (5) and (6) of section 84 of the Tenancy Bill as amended by us.

4. In section 117, sub-section (2), we have provided for the determination, by the Revenue-officer as a Revenue Court, of certain questions within the jurisdiction of a Revenue Court which may arise in proceedings for the partition of a tenancy in which a right of occupancy subsists.

5. To section 150 we have added a sub-section to the effect that the proceedings of a Revenue-officer for the prevention of encroachment on common lands are to be subject to any decree or order which may be subsequently passed by any Court of competent jurisdiction.

6. In section 158 we have inserted a clause specially excluding from the jurisdiction of Civil Courts questions relating to village-cesses.

7. The other amendments are not such as to call for remark.

8. The Bill (No. II) and Report were published in English in the Gazette of India of the 30th July, 1887, and in the Punjab Government Gazette of the 4th August, 1887, and are to be published in Urdu in the Punjab Urdu Gazette of the 8th instant.

9. The Bill has not, in our opinion, been so altered as to require re-publication, and we recommend that it be passed as amended by us.

PART IV.

Acts of the Governor General's Council assented to by the Governor General.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Act of the Governor-General of India in Council received the assent of His Excellency the Governor-General on the 21st October, 1887, and is hereby promulgated for general information:

ACT NO. XX OF 1887.

An Act for the Protection of Wild Birds and Game.

WHEREAS municipal authorities in different parts of British India have from time to time made rules for the protection of birds and other game;

And whereas it is expedient that Local Governments and cantonment-authorities as well as municipal authorities should be empowered to make such rules;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Wild Birds Protection Act, 1887.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India; and

(3) It shall come into force at once.

Definitions.

2. In this Act—

(1) "municipal authority" means the corporation, commissioner, committee, board, council or person having authority over a municipality under any enactment for the time being in force:

(2) "cantonment-authority" means a cantonment-committee or, in the case of a cantonment for which such a committee has not been constituted, the commanding officer of the cantonment: and

(3) "wild bird" includes a peacock and every bird of game.

Power to make rules.

3. (1) The Local Government with respect to any municipality or cantonment within the territories under its administration, or the municipal authority or cantonment-authority of any municipality or cantonment, may from time to time make rules—

(a) defining the expression "wild bird" for the purposes of this Act in its application to the municipality or cantonment;

(b) defining for those purposes the breeding season of any kind of wild bird; and

(c) prohibiting, subject to such exceptions and conditions as may be prescribed by the rules, the possession or sale during its breeding season within the municipality or cantonment of any kind of wild bird recently killed or taken, or the importation into the municipality or cantonment of the plumage of any kind of wild bird during such season.

(2) The authority making a rule under clause (c) of sub-section (1) may direct that a breach of it shall be punishable with fine which may extend, in the case of a first offence, to five rupees for every wild bird in respect of which or of the plumage whereof the breach of the rule has been committed, and, in the case of a subsequent offence, to ten rupees in respect of every such bird or plumage.

(3) A Court convicting any person of a breach of any such rule may order the confiscation of any wild bird or plumage in respect of which the breach was committed.

(4) The power to make rules under this section is subject to the condition of the rules being made after previous publication and, in the case of rules made by a municipal authority or cantonment-authority, to the further condition of the rules being confirmed by the Local Government before they are published in the official Gazette under clause (5) of section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1887. I of 1887.

4. The Local Government, of its own motion or on the application of any municipal authority or cantonment-authority, may, by notification in the official Gazette, declare the provisions of the last foregoing section with respect to wild birds to apply to any animals of game other than birds, and thereupon those provisions shall apply to such animals and their furs in like manner as they apply to wild birds and their plumage.

Power to apply Act to any animals of game.

J. M. MACPHERSON,

Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill for the Protection of Wild Birds and Game was presented to the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 6th October, 1887:

WE, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill for the Protection of Game was referred, have considered the Bill and the papers noted in the margin, and have now the honour to submit this our Report.

Memorandum by Mr. P. R. Desai, Pleader, District Court, Tanna, dated 25th June, 1887 [Paper No. 1].

From Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, No. 1709, dated 3rd August, 1887, and enclosures [Papers No. 11].
From Secretary to Chief Commissioner, Burma, No. 343—18 L., dated 16th August, 1887 [Paper No. 12].
From Secretary to Chief Commissioner, Assam, No. 1851, dated 7th September, 1887, and enclosures [Papers No. 13].
From Secretary to Government, Punjab, No. 246 S., dated 8th September, 1887, and enclosures [Papers No. 14].

2. We propose that the title of the proposed Act be the Wild Birds Protection Act, but we have empowered Local Governments to apply its provisions to animals of game other than birds.

3. We have proposed that an enhanced penalty may be imposed on any second or subsequent conviction for a breach of rules under the Act, and that any animal in respect of which a breach of those rules has been committed may be confiscated.

4. We have also required proposed rules to be published before they are made.

Bills introduced into the Council of the Governor General for making Laws and Regulations, or published under Rule 22.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

[Second Publication.]

The following Bill was introduced into the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 17th December, 1886:—

NO. 27 OF 1886.

A Bill to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882; It is hereby enacted as follows:— .

Amendment of section 4.

1. In the definition of "Officer in charge of a Police-station" in section 4, clause (o), of the said Code there shall be substituted for the word "therefrom" the words "from the station-house", and for the words "present at the Police-station" the words "present at the station-house".

Amendment of section 312.

2. In section 312 of the said Code the word "four" shall be substituted for the word "two".

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The primary object of this Bill is to amend section 312 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882, the Hon'ble the Chief Justice and Judges of the High Court at Fort William having represented that, as the law at present stands, owing to the numerous absences from Calcutta of gentlemen whose names are on the special jury list, and to the necessity of excusing special jurors from attendance on sufficient grounds, it is found necessary to summon the same gentlemen very frequently, to their manifest inconvenience and to serious interference with their business avocations.

2. A Bill to amend the Code having thus become necessary, the opportunity has been taken to cure a defect which has been noticed by the Government of Bombay in the definition of the expression "Officer in charge of a Police-station."

Bills introduced into the Council of the Governor General for making Laws and Regulations, or published under Rule 22.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced into the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 7th January, 1887:—

No. I OF 1887.

THE INVENTIONS AND DESIGNS BILL, 1887.

CONTENTS.

PART II.

DESIGNS.

The Inventions and Designs Bill.

(Part I.—Inventions.—Sections 1-5.)

A Bill to consolidate and amend the law relating to the Protection of Inventions and Designs.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to the protection of inventions and designs; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Inventions and Designs Act, 1887.

(2) It shall extend to the whole of British India; and

(3) It shall come into force on the first day of January, 1888.

Repeal.

2. (1) The enactments described in the first schedule are hereby repealed to the extent specified in the third column thereof.

(2) But this repeal of enactments shall not affect any exclusive privilege acquired, or any conditions or restrictions imposed with respect to any such privilege, or any right or liability accrued or incurred, under any of those enactments before the commencement of this Act, or any relief in respect of any such privilege, right or liability. [&47 Vic., c. 57, s. 113.] [R. 9 App. 1589.]

(3) Any enactment or document referring to any enactment hereby repealed shall be construed to refer to this Act or to the corresponding portion thereof.

Division of Act into Parts.

3. The remainder of this Act is divided into Parts, as follows:—

PART I.—INVENTIONS.

PART II.—DESIGNS.

PART I.

INVENTIONS.

Definitions.

4. In this Part, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) "invention" includes an improvement [Act XV, 1859, s. 38.]

(2) "inventor" does not include the importer into British India of a new invention unless he is the actual inventor: [Act XV, 1859, s. 17.]

(3) "applicant" means a person who has applied under this Part for leave to file a specification of an invention, whether he has filed the specification or not: [New.]

(4) "assign" includes a grantee of the exclusive privilege of making, selling or using an invention, or of authorising others so to do, during the term for which the privilege is to continue or may be extended, or for any shorter term: [Act XV, 1859, s. 38.]

(5) "inventor," "actual inventor" and "applicant" include the executors, administrators or assigns of an inventor, actual inventor and applicant, as the case may be: [Act XV, 1859, s. 38.]

(6) "manufacture" includes any art, process or manner of producing, preparing or making an article, and also any article prepared or produced by manufacture: [Act XV, 1859, s. 38.]

(7) "write" includes print, lithograph, photograph, engrave, and every other mode in which words or figures can be expressed on paper or on any substance: [Act X, 1882, s. 4.]

(8) "Secretary" means a Secretary to the Government of India appointed by the Governor General in Council to discharge the functions of the Secretary under this Act, and includes any under-secretary or assistant-secretary to the Government of India to the extent to which he may be authorised by general or special order of the Governor General in Council to discharge any of those functions: [Act XV, 1859, s. 38.]

(9) "District Court" has the meaning assigned to that expression by the Code of Civil Procedure: and [New.] XIV of 1882.

(10) "High Court" has the meaning assigned to that expression by the Code of Criminal Procedure in reference to proceedings against European British subjects. [New.] X of 1882.

Application for leave to file specification.

5. (1) The inventor of a new manufacture, whether he is a British subject or not, may apply to the Governor General in Council for leave to file a specification thereof. [Act XV, 1859, ss. 1 & 18.]

(2) The application must be in writing signed by the applicant and in the form or to the effect of the second schedule if the inventor has not obtained a patent in the United Kingdom, and in the form or to the effect of the third schedule if he has obtained a patent in the United Kingdom. [Act XV, 1859, ss. 1 & 20.]

(3) It must state the name, occupation and address of the applicant, and, where a patent has been obtained in the United Kingdom, the date of the patent and the date of the actual sealing thereof, and must describe with reasonable precision and detail the nature of the invention, and be supplemented by such further particulars relating to the invention, and by such drawings or models illustrative thereof, as the Governor General in Council may see fit to require from the applicant. [Act XV, 1859, ss. 1 & 20.] [46 & 47 Vic., c. 57, s. 5.]

(4) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to preclude an inventor who has applied for a patent in the United Kingdom from applying, while his application for the patent is still pend- [New.]

ing, for leave to file a specification under this Part.

[Act XV, 1859 s. 2.] Order to file specification. 6. (1) Upon an application under the last foregoing section the Governor General in Council may, after such inquiry as he thinks fit, make an order authorising the applicant to file a specification of the invention.

[Act XV, 1859, s. 3.] (2) Before making an order under sub-section (1), the Governor General in Council may direct that the application be referred for enquiry and report to any person whom he thinks fit.

(3) If that person makes the enquiry and report, he shall receive such fee for his services as the Governor General in Council, after considering the report, may determine.

(4) The fee shall be paid by the applicant, who shall, before the application is sent for enquiry and report to the person appointed under sub-section (2), deposit, in such place and within such time as the Governor General in Council may by rule or otherwise prescribe, such sum as will, in the opinion of the Governor General in Council, be sufficient to cover the amount of the fee.

(5) If the sum is not deposited in the place and within the time prescribed, the application may be rejected.

(6) If the fee as determined by the Governor General in Council exceeds the sum so deposited, an order shall not be made under sub-section (1) until the applicant has paid the balance of the fee.

(7) If the sum deposited exceeds the fee so determined, the excess shall be refunded to the applicant.

[46 & 47 Vic., c. 57, s. 13.] Applications in respect of contemporaneous inventions. 7. (1) If two or more inventors apply on the same day for leave to file specifications of inventions which appear to the Governor General in Council to be identical or so similar as to be practically identical, the Governor General in Council may, in his discretion, authorise both or all the applicants, subject to the other provisions of this Part, to file specifications of their respective inventions.

(2) If they apply on different days for leave to file specifications of such inventions as aforesaid, the applicant who applied on the first of the different days shall be deemed to have a preferential claim to an order authorising the filing of his specification.

[Act XV, 1859, s. 4.] Acquisition and continuance of exclusive privilege. 8. (1) If within six months from the date of an order under section 6, sub-section (1), or within such further time, not exceeding three months, as the Governor General in Council, in his discretion, may, on cause shown to his satisfaction and on payment of the fee prescribed in that behalf in the fourth schedule, see fit to allow, the applicant causes a specification of his invention to be filed in manner by this Part required, and the fee prescribed in the fourth schedule in respect of the filing of the specification to be paid, the applicant shall, subject to the other provisions of this Part, be entitled to the exclusive privilege of making, selling and using the invention in British India, and of authorising others so to do, for a term of fourteen years from the date of the filing of the specification.

(2) But an exclusive privilege in respect of an invention of a new manufacture shall, notwithstanding anything in sub-section (1), cease if the inventor fails to pay, within the time limited in that behalf by the fourth schedule, any fee prescribed in that schedule in respect of the continuance of the privilege. [46 & 47 Vic., c. 57, s. 17.]

(3) If, nevertheless, in any case, by accident, mistake or inadvertence, an inventor fails to pay any such fee within the time so limited, he may apply to the Governor General in Council for an enlargement of the time for making the payment.

(4) Thereupon the Governor General in Council may enlarge the time accordingly, on payment of the fee prescribed in that behalf in the fourth schedule and subject to the following conditions, namely:—

(a) the time for making a payment shall not in any case be enlarged for more than three months; and

(b) if any suit is instituted in respect of an infringement of the exclusive privilege committed after a failure to make a payment within the time limited for the making thereof and before the enlargement of that time, the Court disposing of the suit may, if it thinks fit, refuse to award or give any damages in respect of the infringement.

Form and contents of specification. 9. A specification of an invention filed under this Part must be in writing signed by the applicant, and must particularly describe and ascertain the nature of the invention and in what manner it is to be performed. [Act XV, 1859, s. 6.]

Mode of filing application and specification. 10. Every application for leave to file a specification, and every specification filed under this Part, must be left with, or sent by post to, the Secretary, and the date of the delivery or receipt thereof shall be endorsed thereon and recorded in his office. [Act XV, 1859, s. 7.]

Delivery and distribution of copies of specification. 11. (1) At the time of delivering or sending the specification for the purpose of its being filed, the applicant shall cause to be [Act XV, 1859, s. 10.]

(Part I.—Inventions.—Sections 12-17.)

delivered or sent to the Secretary three copies thereof, of which—

(a) one shall be sent to and filed by the Government of Fort St. George;

(b) one shall be sent to and filed by the Government of Bombay; and

(c) one shall be retained by the Secretary.

(2) The copies of the specification which are sent under sub-section (1) to the Governments of Fort St. George and Bombay shall be open to the inspection of any person at all reasonable times at places to be appointed by those Governments.

[Act XV, 1859, s. 11.]

Register of inventions.

12. (1) A book, to be called the register of inventions, shall be kept in the office of the Secretary wherein shall be entered and recorded every application for leave to file a specification, every order made on any such application, every specification filed and every proceeding relating to the invention therein mentioned.

(2) Every specification shall be numbered according to the order in which it is entered in the register of inventions, and a reference shall be made in that register, in the margin of the entry of each specification, to every order relating to the invention and to every application, memorandum or amended specification which may be filed under this Part.

[Act XV, 1859, s. 35.]

Address-book.

13. (1) Another book, to be called the address-book, shall be kept in the office of the Secretary wherein any person filing a specification under this Part, or any person in whom an exclusive privilege acquired under this Part, or any share or interest therein, may become vested, may from time to time cause to be stated some place in British India where notice of any rule or proceeding relating to the exclusive privilege may be served on him.

(2) A reference to each entry in the address-book shall be made in the register of inventions in the margin of the entry of the specification in that register.

[Act XV, 1859, s. 12.]

Provisions with respect to the register and book.

14. (1) An entry in the register of inventions or address-book shall, for the purposes of the law of evidence for the time being in force, be deemed to be a public document, and the register and book, or copies thereof, shall be open to the inspection of any person at all reasonable times at the office of the Secretary.

[46 & 47 Vic., c. 57, s. 114.]

(2) The books kept under section 11 and section 35 of Act No. XV of 1859 (an Act for granting exclusive Privileges to Inventors) shall be deemed to be parts of the register of inventions and address-book respectively.

[Act XV, 1859, s. 4, and 46 & 47 Vic., c. 57, s. 25.]

Extension of exclusive privilege.

15. (1) The inventor of a new manufacture may, at any time not more than one year and not less than six months before the time limited for the expiration of an exclusive privilege acquired under section 8, apply to the Governor General in Council for an extension of the privilege for a further term.

(2) When an application is made under sub-section (1), the Governor General in Council may, if he thinks fit, refer it to a High Court for report.

(3) The Court to which the petition is referred shall, in making its report, have regard to the nature and merits of the invention in relation to the public, to the profits made by the inventor as such, and to all the circumstances of the case.

(4) The procedure on the reference shall be such as the Court thinks fit.

(5) If the Governor General in Council is of opinion, or, where a reference has been made under sub-section (2), if the Court reports, that the inventor has been inadequately remunerated by his exclusive privilege, the Governor General in Council may, on payment of the fee prescribed in that behalf in the fourth schedule, make an order extending the term of the privilege for a further term not exceeding seven or, in exceptional cases, fourteen years from the expiration of the first term of fourteen years.

[Act XV, 1859, s. 5.]

Imposition of conditions with respect to exclusive privilege.

16. An order under section 6, sub-section (1), authorizing the filing of a specification, or under section 15, sub-section (5), extending the term of an exclusive privilege, may be made subject to such conditions as the Governor General in Council thinks expedient.

[46 & 47 Vic., c. 57, s. 27.]

Exclusive privilege to bind the Government.

17. (1) Subject to any conditions imposed under the last foregoing section—

(a) with respect to the filing, by a person employed in the service of Her Majesty in India, of the specification of a manufacture invented by him in the course of his employment, or

(b) with respect to the extension, in favour of any person, of the term of an exclusive privilege, an exclusive privilege acquired under this Part shall have to all intents the like effect as against Her Majesty as it has against a subject.

(2) But the officers or authorities administering any department of the service of Her Majesty may, by themselves, their agents, contractors or others, at any time after the delivery or receipt of the application for leave to file the specification of an invention, use the invention for the services of the Government on terms to be before or after the use thereof agreed on, with the approval of the Governor General in

The Inventions and Designs Bill.

(Part I.—Inventions.—Sections 18-24)

Council, between those officers or authorities and the inventor, or, in default of such agreement, on such terms as may be settled by the Governor General in Council.

Application for leave to file memorandum or amended specification.

18. (1) If, after the filing of the specification, the applicant has reason to believe that through mistake or inadvertence he has erroneously made any mis-statement in his application or specification, or included therein something which at the date of the delivery or receipt of his application was not new or whereof he was not the inventor, or that the specification is in any particular defective or insufficient, he may apply to the Governor General in Council for leave to file a memorandum pointing out the error, defect or insufficiency, and disclaiming any part of the alleged invention, or, in case of any defect or insufficiency of the specification, asking for leave to file an amended specification.

(2) The application must be in writing signed by the applicant, and must state how the error, defect or insufficiency occurred and that it was not fraudulently intended.

(3) Upon the application the Governor General in Council may make an order allowing the memorandum or amended specification to be filed.

(4) The provisions of sections 11, 12 and 14 with respect to specifications shall be applicable to the applications, orders, memoranda and amended specifications referred to in this section.

Effect of amended specification.

[...4.] 19. An amended specification filed under the last foregoing section shall, except as to any suit or proceeding relating to the exclusive privilege which may be pending at the time of the filing of the amended specification, have the same effect as if it had been the specification first filed:

Provided that nothing in an amended specification shall be construed to extend or enlarge an exclusive privilege before acquired.

Bar to exclusive privilege in certain cases.

[...5.] 20. A person shall not be entitled to an exclusive privilege under this Part—

(a) if the invention is of no utility, or

(b) if the invention, at the date of the delivery or receipt of the application for leave to file the specification, was not a new invention within the meaning of this Part, or

(c) if the applicant is not the inventor thereof, or

(d) if the specification filed or the amended specification, if any, does not particularly describe and ascertain the nature of the invention and in what manner it is to be performed, or (e) if the original or any subsequent application relating to the invention or the original or any amended specification contains a wilful or fraudulent misstatement.

Novelty of invention dependent on public use or knowledge thereof before application to file specification.

21. An invention shall be deemed a new invention within the meaning of this Part if it has not, before the date of the delivery or receipt of the application for leave to file the specification, been publicly used in any part of British India or of the United Kingdom, or been made publicly known in any part of British India or of the United Kingdom by means of a written publication. [Act XV, 1859, s. 19.]

Effect of public use or knowledge of invention in fraud of inventor.

22. The public use or knowledge of an invention before the date of the delivery or receipt of the application for leave to file a specification shall not be deemed a public use or knowledge within the meaning of this Part if the knowledge has been obtained surreptitiously or in fraud of the inventor or has been communicated to the public in fraud of the inventor or in breach of confidence: [Act XV, 1859, s. 19.]

Provided that the inventor has not acquiesced in the public use of his invention, and that, within six months after the commencement of that use, he applies for leave to file a specification.

Effect of public use of invention by inventor for purpose of experiment or trial.

23. The use of an invention in public by the inventor thereof, or by his servants or agents, or by any other person by his license in writing, for a period not exceeding one year immediately preceding the date of the delivery or receipt of his application for leave to file a specification, shall not be deemed a public use thereof within the meaning of this Part. [Act XV, 1859, s. 19.]

Effect of public use or knowledge of patented invention between application for patent and application to file specification.

24. If an inventor who has obtained a patent for his invention in the United Kingdom causes an application for leave to file a specification of the invention under this Part to be delivered or received by the Secretary within twelve months from the date of the actual sealing of the patent, the invention shall be deemed a new invention within the meaning of this Part if it was not publicly used or known in any part of British India at or before the date of the application for the patent, notwithstanding that it may have been publicly used or known in some part of British India or of the United Kingdom before the date of the delivery or receipt of the application under this Part for leave to file the specification. The Inventions and Designs Bill.

(Part I.—Inventions.—Sections 25-30.)

[New. cf 46 & 47 Vic., c. 57, ss. 103 and 104.]

Effect of like public use or knowledge of unpatented invention.

25. If an inventor applies for leave to file a specification under this Part while his application for a patent is pending in the United Kingdom, and the interval between the date of his application for the patent and the date of the delivery or receipt of his application under this Part does not exceed twelve months, the invention shall not be deemed to have been publicly used, or made publicly known, within the meaning of this Part, by reason only of the invention having been used, or a description thereof having been published, in any part of British India or of the United Kingdom during the interval.

[46 & 47 Vic., c. 57, s. 39, and Act XVI of 1883.]

Effect of public use or knowledge of invention after admission to an exhibition.

26. If an inventor, being the exhibitor of his invention at an industrial or international exhibition, certified as such by the Governor General in Council, causes an application for leave to file a specification of the invention to be delivered to or received by the Secretary within six months from the date of the admission of the invention into that exhibition, the invention shall not be deemed to have been publicly used, or made publicly known, within the meaning of this Part, by reason only of the invention having at any time after its admission into the exhibition been publicly used or made publicly known.

[Act XV, 1859, s. 16.]

Cessation of exclusive privilege by order of the Government.

27. (1) An exclusive privilege acquired under this Part shall cease if the Governor General in Council declares the privilege, or the mode in which it is exercised, to be mischievous to the State, or generally prejudicial to the public.

(2) It shall also cease if a breach of any condition on which the applicant was authorised to file a specification, or on which the term of the exclusive privilege was extended, is proved to the satisfaction of a High Court, and if the Governor General in Council thereupon declares the privilege to have ceased.

[Act XV, 1859, s. 20.]

Cessation of exclusive privilege on revocation of patent.

28. An exclusive privilege acquired under this Part in respect of an invention for which a patent has been obtained in the United Kingdom shall cease if the patent for the invention is revoked.

[Act XV, 1859, s. 22.]

Suit for infringement of exclusive privilege.

29. (1) An inventor may institute a suit in the District Court against any person who, during the continuance of an exclusive privilege acquired by him under this Part in respect of an invention, makes, sells or uses the invention without his license, or counterfeits or imitates it.

[Act XV, 1859, s. 23.]

(2) The suit shall not be defended upon the ground of any defect or insufficiency of the specification of the invention, or upon the ground that the original or any subsequent application relating to the invention, or the original or any amended specification, contains a wilful or fraudulent mis-statement, or upon the ground that the invention is of no utility:

(3) Nor shall it be defended upon the ground that the plaintiff was not the inventor unless the defendant shows that he himself is the actual inventor or has obtained from the actual inventor a right to make, sell or use the invention, or to counterfeit or imitate it, as the case may be:

(4) Nor shall it be defended upon the ground that the invention was not new unless the defendant, or some person through whom he claims, has, before the date of the delivery or receipt of the application for leave to file the specification, publicly or actually used in some part of British India or of the United Kingdom the invention or that part of it with respect to which the exclusive privilege is alleged to have been infringed.

Application to declare exclusive privilege in respect of an invention not to have been acquired.

30. Any person may apply to a High Court for a rule to show cause why the Court should not declare that an exclusive privilege in respect of an invention to be specified in the rule has not been acquired under this Part by reason of all or any of the objections following (to be specified in the rule), that is to say:— [Act XV, 1859, s. 24.]

(a) that the invention is of no utility, or

(b) that the invention was not, at the date of the delivery or receipt of the application for leave to file the specification, a new invention within the meaning of this Part, or

(c) that the applicant was not the inventor thereof, or

(d) that the specification or the amended specification, if any, does not particularly describe and ascertain the nature of the invention, or in what manner it is to be performed, or

(e) that the applicant has knowingly or fraudulently included in the application or specification or amended specification, as part of his invention, something which was not new or whereof he was not the inventor, or

(f) that the original or any subsequent application relating to the invention, or the specification or amended specification, contains a wilful or fraudulent mis-statement, or

(g) that some part of the invention, or the manner in which that part is to be performed, as described in the specification or amended specification, is not thereby sufficiently described and ascertained, and that this insufficiency was fraudulent and is injurious to the public.

(Part I.—Inventions.—Sections 31-35.)

[Act XV, 1859, s. 25.]

Like application as to part of an invention.

31. Any person may apply to a High Court for a rule to show cause why the Court should not declare that an exclusive privilege in respect of any part of an invention to be specified in the rule has not been acquired under this Part, by reason of all or any of the objections following (to be specified in the rule), that is to say:—

(a) that that part of the invention is wholly distinct from the other part thereof and is of no utility, or

(b) that that part of the invention was not, at the date of the delivery or receipt of the application for leave to file the specification, a new invention within the meaning of this Part, or

(c) that the applicant was not the inventor of that part of the invention, or

(d) that that part of the invention, and the manner in which it is to be performed, are not sufficiently described and ascertained in the specification or the amended specification, if any, and that this insufficiency is injurious to the public.

[Act XV, 1859, s. 26.]

Application on breach of condition.

32. (1) Any person authorised by the Governor General in Council in this behalf may apply to a High Court for a rule to show cause why the question of the breach of any condition on which the leave to file a specification has been granted, or any other question of fact on which the cessation of an exclusive privilege under section 27 may, in the judgment of the Governor General in Council, depend, should not be tried in the form of an issue directed by the Court.

(2) If the rule is made absolute, the Court, unless the breach or other matter of fact is admitted, may direct the issue to be tried and certify the result of the trial to the Governor General in Council.

[Act XV, 1859, s. 27.]

Notice of proceedings to persons interested.

33. (1) Notice of any rule obtained or proceeding taken under either of the last three foregoing sections shall be served on all persons appearing from the address-book to be proprietors of the exclusive privilege, or to have shares or interests therein, and it shall not be necessary to serve the notice on any other persons.

[Act XV, 1859, s. 35.]

(2) The notice shall be deemed to be sufficiently served if a copy thereof is left at the place for the time being stated in the address-book, by delivering the copy to any person resident at or in charge of the place, or, if there is no person resident at or in charge of the place, or if the place is not within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, by causing the notice to be sent to the place by post by a registered letter directed to the person to whom the notice is addressed.

[Act XV, 1859,

Framing issue for trial before other Court.

34. (1) The High Court may, if it thinks fit, direct an issue for the trial, before itself or any other High Court, or any District Court, of any question of fact arising upon an application under section 30, section 31 or section 32, and the issue shall be tried accordingly.

(2) If the issue is directed to another Court, the finding shall be certified by that Court to the Court directing the issue.

(3) If the issue is directed to a District Court, the finding of that Court shall not be subject to appeal, but the evidence taken upon the trial shall be recorded, and a copy thereof, certified by the Judge of the Court, shall be transmitted, together with any remarks which he may think fit to make thereon, to the High Court, and the High Court may thereupon either act upon the finding of the District Court or direct a new trial as it thinks fit.

[Act XV, 1859,

Order on application.

35. (1) If it appears to the High Court at the hearing of an application under section 30 or section 31 that, by reason of any of the objections specified in the rule, the exclusive privilege in the invention or in any part thereof has not been acquired, the Court shall make an order accordingly, and thereupon the applicant shall, so long as the order continues in force, cease to be entitled to the exclusive privilege.

[Act XV, 1859,

(2) If it appears to the High Court, at the hearing of any such application as last aforesaid, that the applicant has, in the description of his invention in the application for leave to file the specification, or in the specification or amended specification, if any, included something which at the date of the delivery or receipt of the application for leave to file the specification was not new or whereof he was not the inventor, or that the specification is in any particular defective or insufficient, but that the error, defect or insufficiency was not fraudulently intended, the Court may adjudge the exclusive privilege to have been acquired and to be valid, save as to the part thereof affected by the error, defect or insufficiency: or

(3) If it appears to the High Court that the error, defect or insufficiency can be amended without injury to the public, the Court may adjudge the exclusive privilege in respect of the whole of the invention to be valid, and may, upon such terms as it thinks reasonable, order the specification to be amended in any particular in which it is erroneous, defective or insufficient, and thereupon the applicant shall, within a time to be limited by the Court for the purpose, file a specification amended according to the order:

Provided that nothing in the amended specification shall be construed to extend or enlarge the exclusive privilege before acquired.

[XV, s. 31.] (4) An exclusive privilege in respect of an invention shall not be defeated upon the ground that the application for leave to file the specification of the invention contains a mis-statement, unless the mis-statement was wilful or fraudulent.

[XV, s. 34.] 36. (1) In a suit for the infringement of an exclusive privilege acquired under this Part the plaintiff shall deliver with his plaint particulars of the breaches complained of in the suit, and the defendant shall deliver a written statement of the particulars of the grounds, if any, upon which he means to contend that the plaintiff is not entitled to an exclusive privilege in respect of the invention.

Delivery of particulars.

(2) In like manner, upon an application to a High Court under section 30, section 31 or section 32, the person making the application shall deliver particulars of the objections or grounds on which he means to rely.

(3) At the hearing of any such suit or application, or at the trial of any issue arising out of any such application, evidence shall not be allowed to be given in support of any alleged infringement or of any objection or ground impeaching the validity of the exclusive privilege which is not contained in the particulars delivered under this section.

(4) If it is alleged that the invention was publicly used or known before the date of the delivery or receipt of the application for leave to file the specification, the places where and the manner in which the invention was so publicly used or known shall be stated in the particulars.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing portion of this section, the Court in which the suit or application is pending, or an issue arising out of the application is being tried, may allow the plaintiff or defendant respectively to amend the particulars delivered under this section upon such terms as it thinks fit.

[Act XV, 1859, s. 33.] 37. If, in a suit instituted in the District Court within two years from the date of the delivery or receipt of an application for leave to file a specification, the actual inventor proves to the satisfaction of the Court that the applicant was not the actual inventor, and that at the time of the application for leave to file the specification he knew or had reason to believe that the knowledge of the invention was obtained by himself or by some other person surreptitiously or in fraud of the actual inventor, or by means of a communication made in confidence by the actual inventor to him or to any person through whom he derived the knowledge, the Court may make a decree declaring an exclusive privilege in respect of the invention to be vested, subject to the other provisions of this Part, in the actual inventor for a term of fourteen years from the date of the filing of the specification, and requiring the applicant to account for and pay over to the actual inventor the profits derived by him from the invention.

Title of actual inventor to exclusive privilege in case of fraud.

38. A Court making a decree in a suit under section 29 or section 37, or an order on an application under section 30, section 31 or section 32, shall send a copy of the decree or order, as the case may be, to the Secretary, who shall cause an entry thereof to be made in the register of inventions and against any entry in the address-book affected thereby. [New.]

Transmission of copies of decrees and orders to Secretary.

Registration of cessation of exclusive privilege.

39. In the following cases, namely— [Act XV, 1859, s. 32.]

(a) when an exclusive privilege acquired under this Part has ceased under section 8 by reason of a fee in respect of the continuance of the privilege not having been paid within the time limited by the fourth schedule for the payment thereof, and the period within which an order might have been made for enlarging the time for the making of the payment has expired;

(b) when an exclusive privilege acquired under this Part has been declared by the Governor General in Council under section 27 to have ceased;

(c) when an exclusive privilege acquired under this Part has ceased under section 28 by reason of the revocation of a patent;

(d) when the whole or any part of an exclusive privilege acquired under this Part has ceased under section 35 in consequence of an order under that section;

(e) when an exclusive privilege has been declared by a decree to have vested in an actual inventor under section 37;

(f) when an exclusive privilege acquired under this Part has ceased by reason of the expiration of the term for which it was acquired;

the Secretary shall cause an entry with respect to the cessation or vesting of the exclusive privilege to be made in the register of inventions, and a reference to that entry to be made in the margin of the entry of the specification in that register.

[46 & 47 Vic., c. 57, s. 90.] Rectification of register of inventions or address-book.

40. (1) If any person is aggrieved by an entry in the register of inventions or address-book, or by the omission of an entry therefrom, and a proceeding is not provided in the foregoing portion of this Part whereby the register or book may be rectified, he may apply to a High Court for an order for the rectification of the register or book, and the Court may make such order on the application as it thinks fit.

(2) A copy of the order shall be forwarded by the Court to the Secretary, who shall cause an entry thereof to be made in the register of inventions and against any entry in the address-book affected thereby.

(3) When the Secretary is a party to an application under this section, the costs of another party thereto shall not be adjudged to be payable by the Secretary.

[Act X, 1865, s. 241.] Power to High Court to stay proceedings on or dismiss certain applications.

41. A High Court to which an application has been made under section 30, section 31, section 32 or section 40 may stay proceedings on, or dismiss, the application if in its opinion the application would be disposed of more justly or conveniently by another High Court.

[46 & 47 Vic., c. 57, s. 22.] Power for Governor General in Council to require grant of licenses.

42. If on the petition of any person interested it is proved to the Governor General in Council that, by reason of an inventor who has acquired an exclusive privilege under this Part failing to grant licenses on reasonable terms,—

(a) the exclusive privilege is not being worked in British India, or

(b) the reasonable requirements of the public with respect to the invention cannot be supplied, or

(c) any person is prevented from working or using to the best advantage an invention of which he is possessed, the Governor General in Council may order the inventor to grant, or may himself on behalf of the inventor grant, licenses on such terms as to the amount of royalties, security for payment, or otherwise, as the Governor General in Council, having regard to the nature of the invention and the circumstances of the case, may deem just.

[Act XV, 1859, s. 1.] Agents.

43. If an applicant is absent from British India, an application for leave to file a specification, memorandum or amended specification may, instead of being signed by the applicant under section 5, section 9 or section 18, as the case may be, be signed on behalf of the applicant by an agent in British India authorised by him in writing in that behalf.

Verification of applications.

44. (1) An application under this Part for leave to file a specification, memorandum or amended specification must be verified by the person making the application.

(2) If that person is absent from British India, the application may be verified by the agent who signs the application on his behalf.

(3) The verification must be signed by the person making it, and must be to the effect that the facts stated in the application are true to his knowledge, except as to matters stated on information and belief, and that as to those matters he believes them to be true.

Fees.

45. (1) There shall be paid in respect of the several proceedings specified in the fourth schedule the fees in that schedule prescribed.

(2) The Governor General in Council may, if he thinks fit, reduce any of those fees and revoke or vary the reduction.

(3) The fees payable under this section shall be collected by means of stamps or otherwise as the Governor General in Council directs.

(4) A proceeding in respect of which a fee is payable under the fourth schedule shall be of no effect unless the fee has been paid.

Rules and forms.

46. (1) The Governor General in Council may make such rules and prescribe such forms as he thinks necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Part, and may alter or amend either of the forms in the second and third schedules.

(2) Rules under this section may provide, among other matters, for the printing of specifications, memoranda and amended specifications, and for the distribution or sale of printed copies thereof.

PART II.

DESIGNS.

Definitions.

47. In this Part, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) "design" means some peculiar shape, configuration or form given to an article, or arrangement of lines or the like used on or with an article, but not the article itself:

(2) "copyright" means the exclusive right to apply a design to an article:

(3) the author of any new and original design shall be considered the "proprietor" thereof,

The Inventions and Designs Bill.

(Part II.—Designs.—Sections 48-56.)

unless he executed the work on behalf of another person for a good or valuable consideration, in which case that person shall be considered the "proprietor," and every person acquiring for a good or valuable consideration a new and original design, or the right to apply the same to an article, either exclusively of any other person or otherwise, and also every person on whom the property in the design or the right to the application thereof shall devolve, shall be considered the "proprietor" of the design in the respect in which the same may have been so acquired, and to that extent, but not otherwise :

(4) "Secretary," "District Court" and "High Court" have the same meanings as in Part I.

Application for order for registration of design.

Vic., 47 48. (1) Any person claiming to be the proprietor of any new and original design not previously published in British India may apply to the Governor General in Council for an order for the registration of the design.

(2) The application must contain a statement of the nature of the design, and be accompanied by not fewer than three copies of drawings, photographs or tracings of the design, and must be left with, or sent by post to, the Secretary.

(3) The date of the delivery or receipt of the application in the office of the Secretary shall be endorsed thereon and recorded in that office.

Registration in register of designs.

V, . 2.] 49. (1) Upon the application the Governor General in Council may, after such inquiry as he thinks fit, make an order authorizing the registration of the design.

(2) When an order has been made under sub-section (1), the Secretary shall cause the design to be registered in a book to be kept by him for the purpose and to be called the register of designs.

(3) The date of registration shall be recorded in the register.

Acquisition of copyright.

7 Vic., . 50, ct XIII, . 3.] 50. When a design is registered, the proprietor of the design shall, subject to the other provisions of this Part, have copyright in the design during five years from the date of registration.

Marking registered designs.

47 Vic., s. 51.] 51. (1) Before delivery on sale of any article to which a registered design has been applied, the proprietor of the design shall cause the article to be marked with the word "registered" either in full or in an abbreviated form.

(2) If he fails to cause the article to be so marked, the copyright in the design shall cease unless the proprietor shows that he took all proper steps to ensure the marking of the article.

Effect of exhibiting unregistered designs at exhibitions.

52. If the proprietor of a design exhibited at an industrial or international exhibition, certified as such by the Governor General in Council, causes an application for an order for the registration of the design to be delivered to or received by the Secretary within six months from the date of the admission of the design into that exhibition, the design shall not be deemed not to be new or original within the meaning of section 48 by reason only of the design having been exhibited at the exhibition. [46 & 47 Vic., c. 57, s. 57.]

Suit for infringement of copyright.

53. (1) The proprietor of a registered design may institute a suit in the District Court for the recovery of any damages arising from the application of the design, or of any fraudulent or obvious imitation thereof, for the purpose of sale by any person to any article, or from the publication, sale or exposure for sale by any person of any article to which the design, or any fraudulent or obvious imitation thereof, has been applied, that person knowing or having reason to believe that the proprietor had not given his consent to such application. [46 & 47 Vic. c. 57, s. 59.]

(2) When the Court makes a decree in a suit under this section, it shall send a copy of the decree to the Secretary, who shall cause an entry thereof to be made in the register of designs.

Mutation of names in register of designs.

54. Any person in whom the copyright in a design, or any share or interest therein, has become vested may apply to the Secretary for the entry of his name in the register of designs as proprietor of the copyright, or of a share or interest therein, and the Secretary may, if he sees fit, cause the entry to be made. [Act XV, 1859, s. 36.]

Registration of cessation of copyright.

55. (1) When, from the expiration of the term of a copyright or from any other cause, the copyright in a design has ceased, the Secretary shall cause an entry with respect to the cessation of the right to be made in the register of designs. [New]

Rectification of register of designs.

56. (1) A High Court may, on the application of any person aggrieved by an entry in the register of designs, or by the omission of an entry therefrom, make such order for the rectification of the register as it thinks fit. [46 & 47 Vic., c. 57, s. 90.]

(2) An order under sub-section (1) may declare copyright in a design not to have been acquired.

(3) A copy of the order shall be forwarded by the Court to the Secretary, who shall cause an entry thereof to be made in the register of designs.

(4) When the Secretary is a party to an application under this section, the costs of another party thereto shall not be adjudged to be payable by the Secretary.

[Act X, 1865, s. 241.] 57. A High Court to which an application has been made under the last foregoing section may stay proceedings on, or dismiss, the application if, in its opinion, the application would be disposed of more justly or conveniently by another High Court.

Power to High Court to stay proceedings on or dismiss application for rectification of register.

[46 & 47 Vic., c. 57, s. 52.] 58. An entry in the register of designs shall, for the purposes of the law of evidence for the time being in force, be deemed to be a public document, and the register or a copy thereof shall be open to the inspection of any person at all reasonable times.

Provisions with respect to register of designs.

[46 & 47 Vic., c. 57, s. 56.] 59. (1) There shall be paid in respect of the several proceedings specified in the fifth schedule the fees in that schedule prescribed.

Fees.

(2) The Governor General in Council may, if he thinks fit, reduce any of those fees and revoke or vary the reduction.

(3) The fees payable under this section shall be collected by means of stamps or otherwise as the Governor General in Council may direct.

(4) A proceeding in respect of which a fee is payable under the fifth schedule shall be of no effect unless the fee has been paid.

[46 & 47 Vic., c. 57, s. 117.] 60. The Governor General in Council may make such rules and prescribe such forms as he thinks necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Part.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE Act for granting exclusive Privileges to Inventors in India, No. XV of 1859, was framed by Sir Barnes Peacock and Sir James Colvile, who, when the question of providing protection for inventors came under consideration in the years 1856-59, had to create both a substantive law and a law of procedure. Instead of following the English law, they took a different course. As regards the substantive law, while following for the most part the main lines of the English law, they did not hesitate to introduce important variations where they thought it desirable to do so. As regards the procedure for obtaining an exclusive privilege, it was altogether different from the English procedure. On petition and leave given to file a specification, and on the specification being filed within the prescribed period, the exclusive privilege sprang into existence by mere operation of law, provided, of course, that the claim was well founded in substance—a matter of which the claimant, as in England, took the risk. The procedure was thus of the simplest description.

During the period, exceeding a quarter of a century, for which the Act of 1859 has been in operation, it has worked on the whole satisfactorily. Difficulties have, however, from time to time arisen, and the increasing resort to the Act has of late brought them into greater prominence; and though these difficulties are not of such a kind as to require, in the opinion of the Government of India, any alteration which would affect the main principles of the Act, still their removal is very desirable. It has been decided, therefore, after communication with the Secretary of State and the Board of Trade, to introduce this Bill and to incorporate in it certain provisions suggested by the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks Act, 1883 (46 & 47 Vic., c. 57, as amended by 48 & 49 Vic., c. 63).

2. The following are the provisions of the Bill which seem to call for remark:—

(1) Section 3.—The Bill is divided into two Parts, the one relating to Inventions and the other to Designs. The former Part reproduces the Act of 1859 with certain modifications: the latter Part is an adaptation of the essential provisions of Part III of the English Act of 1883.

(2) Section 4, clause (8).—The constitution of an Inventions Office under the superintendence of the Secretary to the Government of India in the Revenue and Agricultural Department, and the transfer to him of the functions exercised under Act XV of 1859 by the Secretary to the Government of India in the Home Department, have been under the consideration of the Government.

(3) Section 4, clause (10).—It is proposed to confer the jurisdiction of a High Court under the Bill on the High Courts at Fort William, Madras, Bombay and Allahabad, the Chief Court of the Panjáb and the Recorder of Rangoon.

(4) Section 5, sub-section (3).—The petition for leave to file a specification of an invention, presented under section 1 of the Act of 1859, not infrequently furnishes only a vague description of the invention which it is sought to protect, and, when a fuller and clearer description is called for, it is at times only supplied under protest. If such particulars as section 5, sub-section (3), of the Bill is intended to enable the Governor General in Council to call for are not forthcoming, the purposes of section 3 of the Act respecting references to experts may be defeated. In authorising drawings to be called for, the Bill follows 46 & 47 Vic., c. 57, section 5, sub-section (3).

(5) Section 5, sub-section (4), and section 25.—A question has recently arisen as to whether a person is precluded under the existing law from proceeding to acquire concurrently a patent under the English Act and an exclusive privilege under the Indian Act; and it has been held, on the advice of the Hon'ble the Advocate General of Bengal, that he is not so precluded provided he can truly state at the time of applying for leave to file his specification in India that his invention is not publicly used or known in the United Kingdom. It is proposed therefore to provide in the Bill, on the analogy of the provisions of sections 103 and 104 of the English Act, that if an inventor applies for leave to file a specification in India within one year from the date of his application for a patent in England, his invention shall not be deemed to have been publicly used or made publicly known within the meaning of the Indian Act by reason only of the invention having been used, or a description thereof having been published, in any part of India or of the United Kingdom during the interval between his application for the patent and his application for leave to file the specification.

(6) Section 6.—It is proposed by this section to make it clear that the nature and extent of the enquiry into the merits of an application are matters in the discretion of the Governor General in Council. Successive Advocates General have advised that the existing law imposes upon the Government the duty of making enquiry to an extent which must at times seriously delay the progress of an application without producing any commensurate advantage.

It is proposed to leave to the Government, instead of to the High Court, the settlement of the fee to be paid to an expert to whom an application is referred for inquiry and report.

(7) Section 7.—This section provides for the case of concurrent applications in respect of contemporaneous inventions, and follows generally the rule obtaining in England (In re Dering, 13 Ch. D. 393).

(8) Section 8, sub-section (1).—Cases of hardship have occurred owing to there being no provision for extending the period of six months within which section 4 of the Act of 1859 requires a specification to be filed after an order authorising the filing of it has been made. It is proposed therefore, to empower the Governor General in Council, on cause shown to his satisfaction, to extend the period from six to nine months.

(9) Section 8, sub-sections (2), (3) and (4).—These sub-sections follow section 17, sub-sections (2), (3) and (4), of the English Act of 1883, and are rendered necessary by the change to be presently noticed which it is proposed to make in the system of levying fees.

(10) Section 11.—It does not seem necessary to have copies of specifications filed in the offices of the Secretaries to the Governments of Bengal and the North-Western Provinces. The office of the Secretaries to the Government of Bengal is in Calcutta, where specifications are open to inspection at the office of the Home Department of the Government of India. As regards the North-Western Provinces, communication is much easier now than in 1859, and inconvenience has not, it is believed, been found to result from the law not requiring copies to be sent to and filed by the Secretary to the Government of the Panjáb.

(11) Section 15.—This section is based on section 25 of the English Act, and empowers the Governor General in Council to refer to the High Court for report an application for an extension of the term of an exclusive privilege. Following the English Act, it also makes an extension of the term for so long a period as fourteen years permissible in exceptional cases only.

(12) Section 17.—This section follows section 27 of the English Act in making an exclusive privilege have the same effect against the Crown as it has against a subject. But it authorises officers of the Crown to use the invention for the services of the Crown on terms to be before or after the use thereof agreed on with the approval of the Governor General in Council or, in default of agreement, on terms to be settled by the Governor General in Council.

As regards the attaching of conditions to an order authorising the filing of a specification by a public servant, it seems to be fair and just to adopt such reasonable precautions as will prevent him from using to the prejudice of the Government experience acquired in the course of his employment.

(13) Section 24.—Under section 13 of the English Act of 1883, patents must be dated and sealed as of the day of the application, and under sections 8, 9 and 12 of that Act as amended by 48 & 49 Vic., c. 63, a period of nineteen months, or even a longer period, may elapse between the application for, and the sealing of, the patent. If, therefore, section 20 of the Indian Act of 1859, which limits to twelve months from the date of the patent the time for applying to the Governor General in Council for leave to file a specification of an invention patented in England, is literally construed, it may have the effect of precluding an inventor from securing an exclusive privilege in India. In order to avert the injustice or disappointment which may thus be the result of working section 20 of the Indian Act in connection with the English Act, it is proposed to permit the holder of a patent obtained in England to apply to the Governor General in Council within twelve months from the date on which the patent was actually sealed. The date of actual sealing stated in the application can be verified by reference to the Official Journal of the Patent Office.

(14) Section 26.—This section covers the Protection of Inventions Act, XVI of 1883, which is scheduled for repeal. But it is proposed to protect inventions not from the date of the opening of an exhibition but from the date of their admission into the exhibition. The English Act is about to be amended in this respect.

(15) Section 28.—It is proposed, on the advice of the Board of Trade, to abolish the rule of section 20 of the Act of 1859, that, where a patent for an invention has been obtained in the United Kingdom, an exclusive privilege in respect of the invention in India is not to extend beyond the term granted by the patent.

(16) Section 42.—This section reproduces the substance of section 22 of the English Act, and provides for the grant of compulsory licenses where an inventor who has acquired an exclusive privilege does not make his invention accessible.

(17) Section 45.—This section and the fourth schedule are based on section 24 and the second schedule of the English Act, and on the first schedule to the Patent Rules, 1883, made by the Board of Trade under the Act. Light fees are proposed to be levied in respect of applications for leave to file specifications and in respect of the filing of specifications, and increasingly heavy fees periodically in respect of the continuance of an exclusive privilege. Under section 8 of the Bill an exclusive privilege will cease if any fee in respect of its continuance is not paid within the time limited for the payment.

(18) Part II of the Bill, relating to Designs, is, as already stated, a mere adaptation of Part III of the English Act of 1883. It extends from three to five years the period during which copyright in a design is to continue.

The 7th January, 1887.

ANDREW R. SCOBLE.

S. HARVEY JAMES,
Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to amend the Indian Companies Act, 1882, was presented to the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 7th January, 1887:—

WE, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to amend the Indian Companies Act, 1882, was referred, have considered the Bill and the papers noted on the margin, and have now the honour to submit this our Report.

From Secretary to Chief Commissioner, Assam, No. 1657, dated 14th August, 1886 [Paper No. 1].
From Registrar, High Court, Calcutta, No. 2097, dated 25th August, 1886 [Paper No. 2].
From Secretary for Berar to Resident, Hyderabad, No. 290 G., dated 25th August, 1886 [Paper No. 3].
From Under Secretary to Chief Commissioner, Central Provinces, No. 3980—233, dated 31st August, 1886 [Paper No. 4].
From Secretary to Chief Commissioner, Burma, No. 810—22 L., dated 31st August, 1886 [Paper No. 5].
From Chief Commissioner, Ajmere-Merwára, No. 1055—690-II, dated 14th September, 1886 [Paper No. 6].
From Secretary to Chief Commissioner, Coorg, No. 1670—3256, dated 14th September, 1886 [Paper No. 7].
From Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, No. 2546, dated 23rd September, 1886, and enclosures [Papers No. 8].
From Secretary to Government, North-Western Provinces and Oudh, No. 767—VII—328-10, dated 2nd October, 1886 [Paper No. 9].
From Acting Under Secretary to Government, Bombay, No. 5813, dated 11th October, 1886, and enclosures [Papers No. 10].
Endorsement by Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, No. 2863, dated 23rd October, 1886, and enclosures [Papers No. 11].
From Chief Secretary to Government, Bengal, No. 3322 J., dated 19th November, 1886, and enclosures [Papers No. 12].

2. Having regard to the priority which it is proposed by the Indian Bankruptcy Bill to give in express terms to fiscal debts due from a bankrupt to the Crown, we deem it desirable to give priority in similar terms to like debts due to the Crown from a Company which is being wound up. This saving may not be absolutely necessary in the case of debts due to the Crown (L. R. 9 Ch. D. 469 and 5 Bom. H. C. R. 23); but it is proposed, as in the Bankruptcy Bill, to give to rates and taxes payable to local authorities the same priority as to Crown debts, and in the case of some at least of those rates and taxes an express declaration of their priority will be necessary.

3. The salaries of clerks and servants being paid monthly in this country, we consider it will be sufficient to give priority to those salaries for the same time, namely, two months, as priority is given to wages of labourers and workmen by the Companies Act, 1883 (46 & 47 Vic., c. 28). But we agree with the Bengal Chamber of Commerce, the Calcutta Trades Association and other authorities that in this country it is proper to give priority to the salary of a clerk or servant for a larger sum than in England, and we have proposed to raise to Rs. 1,000 the limit up to which the salary of a clerk or servant is to have priority.

As regards the priority to be given to the wages of labourers and workmen, we propose to follow the Companies Act, 1883, in limiting it to wages in respect of services rendered during the two months before the commencement of the winding up.

A Bill to amend the Indian Companies Act, 1882.

[...f 1882.] WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Indian Companies Act, 1882, in manner hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

[...f 1882.] 1. After section 200 of the Indian Companies Act, 1882, the following section shall be inserted, namely :—

Insertion of new section after section 200.

[... & 47 Vic., ..., s. 4.] "200A. (1) In the distribution of the assets of any company being wound up under this Act, there shall be paid in priority to all other debts—

Priority of debts.

[...ian Bankruptcy Bill, s. ..., sub-section (1), cls. (b) and ... 55 Law Rep. Q. B. ...] "(a) all revenue, taxes, cesses and rates, whether payable to Her Majesty or to a local authority, due from the company at the date of the commencement of the winding-up, and having become due and payable within the twelve months next before that date;

"(b) all wages or salary of any clerk or servant in respect of services rendered to the company within the two months next before the commencement of the winding-up, not exceeding one thousand rupees for each clerk or servant; and

"(c) all wages of any labourer or workman, not exceeding five hundred rupees for each, whether payable for time or piece-work, in respect of services rendered to the company within the two months next before the commencement of the winding-up.

"(2) The foregoing debts shall rank equally among themselves, and shall be paid in full, unless the assets of the company are insufficient to meet them, in which case they shall abate in equal proportions among themselves.

"(3) Subject to the retention of such sums as may be necessary for the cost of administration or otherwise, the liquidator or official liquidator shall discharge the foregoing debts forthwith, so far as the assets of the company are and will be sufficient to meet them, as and when the assets come into the hands of the liquidator or official liquidator." Bills introduced into the Council of the Governor General for making Laws and Regulations, or published under Rule 22.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced into the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 25th May, 1887:

NO. 5 OF 1887.

A Bill to amend the Indian Stamp Act, 1879.

I of 1879. WHEREAS it is expedient to amend certain provisions of the Indian Stamp Act, 1879, relating to policies of insurance;

It is hereby enacted as follows:

Amendment of definition of "policy of insurance".

1. For clause (15) of section 3 of that Act the following shall be substituted, namely:

"Policy of insurance."

"(15) 'Policy of insurance' means any instrument by which one person, in consideration of a premium, engages to indemnify another against loss, damage or liability arising from an unknown or contingent event, and it includes any writing evidencing the renewal of any such instrument for the purpose of keeping the engagement in force:

"It includes a life-policy."

New article substituted for article 49 of Schedule I.

2. For article 49 of the first schedule to that Act the following shall be substituted, namely:

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

IN the Resolution of the Department of Finance and Commerce, No. 1046, dated the 5th March, 1886, published in the Gazette of India of 6th March, 1886, opinion was invited on certain proposals of the Government of Bengal for the reduction of the stamp-duty payable on policies of fire-insurance for short terms.

Those proposals having been generally accepted as fair and equitable, this Bill has been prepared for the purpose of giving effect to them.

2. One Insurance Company, while recommending the reduction of stamp-duty on annual fire-policies, proposes to solve the difficulty of levying duty on renewals of fire-policies for short terms by prohibiting such renewals altogether, and asserts that this course would be productive of no inconvenience to the public, and of no appreciable inconvenience to Insurance Companies. The Government of India is not prepared to adopt this proposal unless it is assured by the almost unanimous opinion of those engaged in fire-insurance business that the prohibition of renewals would not lead to inconvenience. If such an assurance is forthcoming, it will be considered by the Select Committee to which this Bill is to be referred.

3. It is proposed so to amend the definition of "policy of insurance" as to make section 65 of the Indian Stamp Act, 1879, clearly applicable as well to contracts of renewal or continuance of insurance as to original policies.

4. Insurance Companies are invited to state, in their opinions on the Bill, the mode which will be most convenient to them of paying stamp-duty on renewals of policies of insurance.

The 25th May, 1887.

A. COLVIN.

S. HARVEY JAMES,
Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.

Sections 22 and 27 of the Bill as revised by us will effect the object intended to be attained by those sections of the Canal and Drainage Act.

7. Section 2, sub-section (2).—We have removed this sub-section, which would have applied the provisions of the proposed Act to all pending proceedings. We are of opinion that section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1868, sufficiently provides for such proceedings.

8. Section 3 of Bill as revised.—This section follows generally the provisions of section 2 of the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1868 (as amended by section 21 of the Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1871), section 4 of the Oudh Rent Act, 1886, and section 29 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885. In drafting it we have carefully considered the suggestions of the Chief Court and of the Lahore Committee.

9. Section 3 (section 4 of Bill as revised).—We have, on the suggestion of the Lahore Committee, so expressed the definition of "land" as to exclude land occupied as sites of buildings in towns or villages.

Among "improvements" we have classed the planting of trees, and we have set forth in detail some of the ordinary operations of husbandry which are not to be deemed to be improvements.

10. Section 4, sub-section (1), clause (a) (section 5, sub-section (1), clause (a), of Bill as revised).—The corresponding clause of the Act of 1868 has in many cases been construed as giving a right of occupancy to any tenant who, with his predecessors, whether in the direct or indirect line, has held for three generations. We think this construction should be confirmed, and have so drafted the clause as to secure to tenants who have fulfilled its conditions before the commencement of the proposed Act the same rights as are secured to tenants who had fulfilled the conditions of the clause before the passing of the Act of 1868. We have, however, required the occupancy under the clause to have lasted for not less than twenty years.

We have added a sub-section enlarging, in accordance with the construction applied by the Courts to section 3 of the Act of 1868, the interpretation of terms denoting relationship which are used in this clause.

11. Section 4, sub-section (1), clause (c) (section 5, sub-section (1), clause (c), of Bill as revised).—We have so modified the expression of this clause as to make it clear that the right of occupancy acquired under it is confined to land occupied by the tenant in 1868 and continuously since that date. This modification follows the Civil Judgment of the Chief Court, No. 94 of 1880.

12. Section 4, sub-sections (2) and (3) (section 5, sub-section (2), of Bill as revised).—We have omitted sub-section (3), and, objection having been taken to the absolute presumption proposed to be created in favour of the tenant by sub-section (2), we have so modified that sub-section as only to permit, instead of requiring, Revenue Courts to presume in favour of the tenant.

13. Section 9 (section 10 of Bill as revised).—We have, on the suggestion of the Chief Court, so expressed this section as to confine its operation to claims arising under Chapter II of the Bill.

14. Sections 10, 11 and 12.—We have omitted these sections. By the Bill as revised, rents are, save as provided by section 27 and section 62 of that Bill, to be enhanced or reduced by Revenue Courts according to the ordinary procedure applicable to those Courts or the special procedure authorised by section 93, and, save as provided by section 3, sub-section (1), clause (a), rents are to be commuted only by private contract between landlord and tenant. Special provision regarding the conversion of cash-rents in gross is not required, because the ascertainment of the component parts of such a rent would be a necessary operation in the enhancement or reduction of the rent of a tenant.

15. Section 14 of Bill as revised.—This section follows section 127 of the Oudh Rent Act, 1886.

16. Section 15 of Bill as revised.—We are advised that such a saving with respect to local custom and special contract as is contained in section 106 of the North-Western Provinces Rent Act, 1881, is unnecessary for the Punjab.

17. Section 15 (section 22 of Bill as revised).—We have revised this section with reference to the following extract from the report of the Lahore Committee, in which the Local Government expressed its concurrence:—

"In the opinions submitted by selected officers there is evidence of a strong and general feeling, not only among the landlords of the Province but also among the officers themselves, that the maximum rates fixed in section 15 (1) as those above which the rent of the various classes of tenants cannot be enhanced are too low. With regard to the highest class of tenants, those belonging to the class specified in section 4 (1) (a), we cannot agree in this opinion. The high status of tenants of this class was well described in the debate on Act XXVIII of 1868 by the Hon'ble Mr. (now Sir John) Strachey, who pointed out that they had been to all intents and purposes proprietors, and saw no reason why they should not have been considered under-proprietors as they would have been in Oudh, with complete rights of property in their holdings. Considering that tenants of this class have held their land for three generations on terms of almost absolute equality with the landowners, and without paying any real rent at all, we cannot agree that the maximum rate proposed for enhancement of rent should be raised in their case, and we recommend that it should be left at two annas per rupee of the land-revenue as in the Bill. In view, however, of the greatly inferior position of tenants of the remaining classes, and of the generally expressed opinion that the limit placed on enhancement of rent is in their case too low, we recommend that the maximum be raised in the case of tenants belonging to any of the classes specified in clauses (b), (c) and (d) of sub-section (1) of section 4 to six annas per rupee, and in the case of tenants of other classes to twelve annas per rupee, of the amount of the land-revenue."

18. Section 17 (section 23 of Bill as revised).—We have omitted the greater part of this section. We agree with the Lahore Committee in considering that such interference with decrees as was contemplated by the fourth clause of sub-section (1) should be left to the discretion of the Courts themselves.

19. Section 25 (section 49 of Bill as revised).—In drafting this section we have had regard to the provisions of section 156 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885.

20. Section 24 of Bill as revised.—Following the law in force in the North-Western Provinces and the Central Provinces, we have provided that an interval of ten years is to elapse between successive suits for enhancement.

21. Section 25 of Bill as revised.—We have, on the recommendation of the Lahore Committee, inserted this section for the purpose of shewing clearly that, subject to the provisions of the Act, it is within the discretion of the Court, in dealing with claims for enhancement or reduction of rent, to fix the rent at such amount as it considers fair and equitable.

22. Section 27 of Bill as revised.—We have inserted this section in order to make it clear that, where the rent of a tenant is fixed in terms of the land-revenue, a Revenue-officer is to have the same power to alter that rent as if he were dealing with land-revenue payable by a land-owner.

23. Section 28 of Bill as revised.—Under the existing law claims to alter rent on the ground of alteration of area are treated as if they were claims for enhancement or reduction of rent. This course does not appear to us to be convenient, and we have therefore dealt with the subject separately, following the precedent of section 52 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885.

24. Sections 31 and 32 of Bill as revised.—We consider that the provisions respecting deposit of rent will be placed more appropriately here than in the Land-revenue Bill.

25. Section 33 of Bill as revised.—This section, which follows section 22 of the Central Provinces Tenancy Act, 1883, takes the place of section 108 of the Land-revenue Bill.

26. Section 34 of Bill as revised.—This section, which was section 138 of the Land-revenue Bill, has been modified in deference to the following remarks of the Lahore Committee :—

"We desire to point out that, owing to the limited meaning which the word 'rent' bears in this Act, it appears necessary to add after the words 'rent of' in section 138 (1) the words 'or other sum payable in respect of.' For example, a landowner might agree to alienate to another person, temporarily or permanently, a sub-proprietary tenure in a part of his holding on an annual payment of a sum calculated at 1¼ times the existing assessment. At a subsequent revision of assessment the revenue payable on the land might be so enhanced as to exceed the lump sum to which the landowner would by his agreement be entitled. It will be necessary to give the landowner in a case of this nature the option of re-opening his agreement to the extent necessitated by the enhancement of revenue, but owing to the limited meaning of the words 'rent' and 'tenant' the section as now drafted does not give him this option."

27. Section 38 of Bill as revised.—We have, on the recommendation of the Lahore Committee, inserted this section for the purpose of declaring what constitutes such an abandonment of his holding by an occupancy-tenant as will determine his right of occupancy.

28. Sections 24-30 (39-48 of Bill as revised).—We have re-cast the provisions of the Bill respecting ejectment, adhering in some respects more closely to the provisions of the existing law of the Punjab and adding to it some provisions of the Oudh Rent Act, 1886.

29. Sections 31 and 32 (sections 50 and 51 of Bill as revised).—We have suggested one year as the period within which a suit may be instituted by a tenant for the recovery of land of which he has been wrongfully dispossessed, and, in view of the provision now made for such suits, we think it will be convenient to debar tenants from proceeding under section 9 of the Specific Relief Act, 1877.

In making section 50 of the Bill as revised applicable to tenants ejected under section 29 (section 45 of Bill as revised) we have restored the second paragraph of section 26 of the Act of 1868.

30. Section 33.—We have omitted this section on the recommendation of the Lahore Committee.

31. Section 34 (section 53 of Bill as revised).—We have made this section apply, as section 34 of the Act of 1868 applies, only to those tenants who have a right of occupancy claimable under section 5.

In section 56 of the Bill as revised we have made provision with respect to the title of other occupancy-tenants to transfer their rights.

32. Sections 53 and 54 of Bill as revised.—We have, on the recommendation of the Lahore Committee, secured to the landlord the privilege of pre-emption in case of sale of a right of occupancy under section 5 in execution of a decree or order, and required a mortgagee of any such right to give notice to the landlord of an intention to foreclose.

33. Section 35, sub-section (2) (section 58 of Bill as revised).—We have restored the provisions of sections 32 and 33 of the Act of 1868 with respect to sub-letting by occupancy-tenants, providing, however, that the term of a sub-lease is not to exceed seven years.

34. Section 37 (section 59 of Bill as revised).—We have restored the provisions of section 36 of the Act of 1868, providing, however, in accordance with the custom of the Province, that, failing male lineal descendants in the male line of descent, the widow, if any, of the deceased tenant shall succeed, for her lifetime or till the occurrence of one or other of certain specified events, to the right of occupancy in preference to his collateral relatives.

35. By sections 61 and 62 of Bill as revised we have provided for the power of the landlord to make an improvement on the tenancy of a tenant having a right of occupancy and to procure the enhancement of the tenant's rent to an appropriate extent in consideration of the improvement. In order that this power may not be exercised to the prejudice of tenants, we have also provided that the permission of the Collector shall be necessary to the making of an improvement by a landlord and that such permission shall be granted in accordance with rules to be made by the Local Government with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council.

36. Section 43 (section 72 of Bill as revised).—We have assimilated the terms of this section to those of section 27 of the Oudh Rent Act, 1886.

37. Section 46.—This section has become sub-section (2) of section 3 of the Bill as revised.

38. Section 47 (section 69 of Bill as revised).—We concur with the Lahore Committee in considering that land held with a right of occupancy should, as being already sufficiently protected by the Bill, be excluded from the operation of this section.

We have retained five years' rent as the maximum limit of compensation under the section, but, seeing that there are many circumstances besides the duration of the tenant's occupation which must be considered, we have left it to the Revenue-officer to assess the compensation within that limit according to the merits of each case.

For the proviso in the original Bill we have substituted a proviso to the effect that a tenant who is a joint owner of land to which the section applies shall not be entitled to compensation under the section for ejectment from any part of the land.

39. Chapter VII of Bill as revised.—This Chapter re-produces the greater part of Chapter V of the Punjab Courts Act, 1884, and some of the provisions of Chapter II of the Land-revenue Bill as introduced.

40. Among the provisions of the Chapter which seem to call for remark are the following :—

(a) Section 86.—We have removed the restrictions on the appearance of legal practitioners before Revenue-officers as such. As regards Revenue Courts, the position of legal practitioners remains as it is under the existing law.

(b) Section 93.—This section follows section 75 of the North-Western Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1873.

(c) Section 94.—This section provides that nothing in section 424 or section 433 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or in section 36 of the Punjab Municipal Act, 1884, is to be construed as applying to a suit cognizable by a Revenue Court.

(d) Section 95.—This section re-produces sections 149 and 152 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885.

(e) Section 97.—This section is new and prohibits the imprisonment of a tenant in execution of a decree for an arrear of rent during the continuance of his occupancy.

(f) Section 99.—This section follows section 205 of the North-Western Provinces Rent Act, 1881.

(g) Section 100.—This section, which was section 11 of the Land-revenue Bill as introduced, has been amended in accordance with suggestions made by the Chief Court.

(h) Section 106.—By this section we have proposed to empower the Financial Commissioner to make rules for determining the number and amount of the instalments, and the times, by and at which rent is to be paid, and to prescribe the periods during which, in proceedings held under the proposed Act, a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court is not, except for reasons of urgency to be recorded, to issue any process of arrest against a tenant or against a landowner who cultivates his own land.

THE SCHEDULE.—ENACTMENTS REPEALED.

The Punjab Tenancy Bill.
(Chapter I.—Preliminary.—Sections 1-4.)

A Bill to amend the Law relating to the Tenancy of Land in the Punjab.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the tenancy of land in the Punjab; It is hereby enacted as follows:

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887.

(2) It extends to the whole of the territories (including the pargana of Spiti) for the time being administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab, except the Hazára district; and

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, may by notification appoint in this behalf.

(4) Any power conferred by this Act on the Financial Commissioner to make rules, and on the Local Government to sanction them, may be exercised at any time after the passing of this Act, but a rule so made shall not take effect till the commencement of this Act.

Repeal.

2. The enactments mentioned in the schedule are repealed to the extent specified in the third column thereof.

Operation of records-of-rights and future contracts.

3. (1) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to affect the operation of any entry made with respect to any of the following matters before the eighteenth day of November, 1871, and attested by the proper officer, in the record of a regular settlement sanctioned by the Local Government, namely:

(a) the enhancement or abatement of the rent of a tenant having a right of occupancy, or the commutation of rent in kind into rent in money or of rent in money into rent in kind, or the taking of rent in kind by division or appraisement of the produce or other procedure of a like nature, or

(b) the letting or under-letting of land in which there is a right of occupancy by the tenant having that right, or the alienation of or succession to land in which such a right subsists, and every such entry with respect to any such matter shall be deemed to be an agreement between the landlord and the tenant.

(2) An entry in any record-of-rights providing—

(a) that a landlord may prevent a tenant from making, or eject him for making, such improvements on his tenancy as he is entitled to make under this Act, or

(b) that a tenant ejected from his tenancy shall not be entitled to compensation for improvements or for disturbance in any case in which he would under this Act be entitled to compensation therefor, or

(c) that a landlord may eject a tenant otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act, shall be void.

(3) Nothing in any contract made between a landlord and a tenant after the passing of this Act shall—

(a) override any of the provisions of this Act with respect to the acquisition of a right of occupancy, or the reduction, remission or suspension of rent, or the enhancement of the rent of a tenant having a right of occupancy under section 5, section 6 or section 7, or

(b) take away or limit the right of a tenant, as determined by this Act, to make improvements and claim compensation therefor, or, where compensation for disturbance can be claimed under this Act, to claim such compensation, or

(c) entitle a landlord to eject a tenant otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(4) Nothing in clause (a) of the last foregoing sub-section shall apply to a contract by which a tenant binds himself to pay an enhanced rent in consideration of an improvement which has been or is to be made in respect of his tenancy by, or at the expense of, his landlord, and to the benefit of which the tenant is not otherwise entitled.

Definitions.

4. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) "land" means land which is not occupied as the site of any building in a town or village and is occupied or has been let for agricultural purposes or for purposes subservient to agriculture, or for pasture, and includes the sites of buildings on such land:

(2) "pay", with its grammatical variations and cognate expressions, includes, when used with reference to rent, "deliver" and "render", with their grammatical variations and cognate expressions:

(3) "tenant" means a person who holds land under another person, and is, or but for a special contract would be, liable to pay rent for that land to that other person; but it does not include—

(a) an inferior landowner, or

(b) a mortgagee of the rights of a landowner, or

(c) a person to whom a holding has been transferred, or an estate or holding has been let in farm, under the Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887, for the recovery of an arrear of land-revenue or of a sum recoverable as such an arrear, or

(d) a person who takes from the Government a lease of unoccupied land for the purpose of subletting it:

(4) "landlord" means a person under whom a tenant holds land, and to whom the tenant is, or but for a special contract would be, liable to pay rent for that land:

(5) "tenant" and "landlord" include the predecessors and successors in interest of a tenant and landlord respectively:

(6) "rent" means whatever is payable to a landlord in money, kind or service by a tenant on account of the use or occupation of land held by him:

(7) "arrear of rent" means rent which remains unpaid after the date on which it becomes payable:

The Punjab Tenancy Bill.
(Chapter II.—Right of Occupancy.—Section 5.)

(8) "tenancy" means a parcel of land held by a tenant of a landlord under one lease or one set of conditions:

(9) "estate" means any area—

(a) for which a separate record-of-rights has been made; or

(b) which has been separately assessed to land-revenue, or would have been so assessed if the land-revenue had not been released, compounded for or redeemed; or

(c) which the Local Government may, by general rule or special order, declare to be an estate:

(10) "landowner" does not include a tenant or an assignee of land-revenue, but does include a person to whom a holding has been transferred, or an estate or holding has been let in farm, under the Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887, for the recovery of an arrear of land-revenue or of a sum recoverable as such an arrear, and every other person not hereinbefore in this clause mentioned who is in possession of an estate or any share or portion thereof, or in the enjoyment of any part of the profits of an estate:

(11) "holding" means a share or portion of an estate held by one landowner or jointly by two or more landowners:

(12) "village-officer" means a chief-headman, headman or patwári:

(13) "land-revenue" means land-revenue assessed under any law for the time being in force or assessable under the Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887, and includes any rate imposed in respect of the increased value of land due to irrigation:

(14) "rates and cesses" means rates and cesses which are primarily payable by landowners, and includes—

V of 1878. (a) the local rate, if any, payable under the Punjab Local Rates Act, 1878;

XX of 1883. (b) the local rate, if any, payable under the Punjab District Boards Act, 1883, and any fee leviable under section 33 of that Act from landowners for the use of or benefits derived from such works as are referred to in section 20, clauses (i) and (j), of that Act;

VIII of 1873. (c) any annual rate chargeable on owners of lands under section 59 of the Northern India Canal and Drainage Act, 1873;

(d) the zaildári and village-officers' cesses; and

(e) sums payable on account of village-expenses;

(15) "village-cess" includes any cess, contribution or due which is customarily leviable within an estate and is neither a payment for the use of private property or for personal service nor imposed by or under any enactment for the time being in force:

(16) "Revenue-officer" or "Revenue Court," in any provision of this Act, means a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court having authority under this Act to discharge the functions of a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court, as the case may be, under that provision:

(17) "agricultural year" means the year commencing on the sixteenth day of June, or on such other date as the Local Government may by notification appoint for any local area:

(18) "improvement" means, with reference to a tenancy, any work which is suitable to the tenancy and consistent with the conditions on which it is held, by which the value of the tenancy has been and continues to be increased, and which, if not executed on the tenancy, is either executed directly for its benefit, or is, after execution, made directly beneficial to it;

Explanation I.—It includes, among other things,—

(a) the construction of wells and other works for the storage or supply of water for agricultural purposes;

(b) the construction of works for drainage and for protection against floods;

(c) the planting of trees, the reclaiming, enclosing, levelling and terracing of land for agricultural purposes and other works of a like nature;

(d) the erection of buildings required for the more convenient or profitable cultivation of a tenancy; and

(e) the renewal or re-construction of any of the foregoing works, or such alterations therein, or additions thereto, as are not of the nature of mere repairs and as durably increase their value;

But it does not include such clearances, embankments, levellings, enclosures, temporary wells and water-channels as are made by tenants in the ordinary course of cultivation and without any special expenditure, or any other benefit accruing to land from the ordinary operations of husbandry;

Explanation II.—A work which benefits several tenancies may be deemed to be, with respect to each of them, an improvement;

Explanation III.—A work executed by a tenant is not an improvement if it substantially diminishes the value of any other part of his landlord's property:

(19) "jágírdár" includes any person, other than a village-servant, to whom the land-revenue of any land has been assigned in whole or in part by the Government or by an officer of the Government:

(20) "legal practitioner" means any legal practitioner within the meaning of the Legal Practitioners Act, 1879, except a mukhtár: and XVIII of 1879.

(21) "notification" means a notification published by authority of the Local Government in the official Gazette.

CHAPTER II.

RIGHT OF OCCUPANCY.

Tenants having right of occupancy. 5. (1) A tenant—

(a) who has before the commencement of this Act occupied land for more than two generations in the male line of descent through a grandfather or grand-uncle and for a period of not less than twenty years and paid no rent in respect of the land beyond the amount of the land-revenue thereof and the rates and cesses for the time being chargeable thereon, or

(b) who having owned land, and having ceased to be landowner thereof otherwise than by forfeiture to the Government or than by any voluntary act, has, since he ceased to be landowner, continuously occupied the land, or

The Punjab Tenancy Bill.
(Chapter II.—Right of Occupancy.—Sections 6-11. Chapter III.—Rent.—Sections 12-15.)

(c) who, in a village or estate in which he settled along with, or was settled by, the founders thereof, occupied land on the twenty-first day of October, 1868, and has continuously occupied the land since that date, or

(d) who is or has been jágírdár of the estate or any part of the estate in which the land occupied by him is situate, and who,—

(i) being such jágírdár, has continuously occupied the land for not less than twenty years, or

(ii) having been such jágírdár, occupied the land while he was jágírdár and has continuously occupied it for not less than twenty years, shall be deemed to have a right of occupancy in the land so occupied.

(2) If a tenant proves that he has continuously occupied land for thirty years and paid no rent therefor beyond the amount of the land-revenue thereof and the rates and cesses for the time being chargeable thereon, it may be presumed that he has fulfilled the conditions of clause (a) of sub-section (1).

(3) The words in that clause denoting natural relations include relations by adoption or by customary appointment of an heir or by the usage of a religious community.

Right of occupancy of other tenants recorded as having the right before passing of Punjab Tenancy Act, 1868.

6. A tenant recorded in a record-of-rights sanctioned by the Local Government before the twenty-first day of October, 1868, as a tenant having a right of occupancy in land which he has continuously occupied from the time of the preparation of that record, shall be deemed to have a right of occupancy in that land unless the contrary has been established by a decree of a competent Court before the passing of this Act.

Right of occupancy in land taken in exchange.

7. If the tenant has voluntarily exchanged the land, or any portion of the land, formerly occupied by him, for other land belonging to the same landlord, the land taken in exchange shall, for the purposes of this Act, be held to be subject to the same right of occupancy as that to which the land given in exchange would have been subject if the exchange had not taken place.

Establishment of right of occupancy on grounds other than those expressly stated in Act.

8. Nothing in the foregoing sections of this Chapter shall preclude any person from establishing a right of occupancy on any ground other than the grounds specified in those sections.

Right of occupancy not to be acquired by mere lapse of time.

9. No tenant shall acquire a right of occupancy by mere lapse of time.

Right of occupancy not to be acquired by joint owner in land held in joint ownership.

10. In the absence of a custom to the contrary no one of several joint owners of land shall acquire a right of occupancy under this Chapter in land jointly owned by them.

Continuance of existing occupancy-rights.

11. Every tenant who immediately before the commencement of this Act has a right of occupancy in any land shall, when this Act comes into force, have a right of occupancy in that land.

CHAPTER III.

RENT.

Rents generally.

Respective rights of landlord and tenant to produce.

12. (1) The rent for the time being payable in respect of a tenancy shall be the first charge on the produce thereof.

(2) A tenant shall be entitled to tend, cut and harvest the produce of his tenancy in due course of husbandry without any interference on the part of his landlord.

(3) Except where rent is taken by division of the produce, the tenant shall be entitled to the exclusive possession of the produce.

(4) Where rent is taken by division of the produce—

(a) the tenant shall be entitled to the exclusive possession of the whole produce until it is divided;

(b) the landlord shall be entitled to be present at, and take part in, the division of the produce; and

(c) when the produce has been divided, the landlord shall be entitled to the possession of his share thereof.

Commutation and alteration of rent.

13. (1) Where rent is taken by any of the following methods, namely:—

(a) by division or appraisement of the produce,

(b) by cash-rates fixed with reference to the nature of the crops grown,

(c) by a cash-rate on a recognised measure of area,

(d) by a cash-rent in gross on the tenancy, or

(e) partly by one of the methods specified in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of this sub-section and partly by another or others of them,

one of those methods shall not be commuted in whole or in part into another without the consent of both landlord and tenant.

(2) In the absence of a decree or order or a valid contract to the contrary, a tenant whose rent is taken by any of the methods specified in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of sub-section (1), or by the method specified in clause (d) of that sub-section, shall not be liable to pay for a tenancy rent at any higher rate, or of a higher amount, as the case may be, than the rate or amount payable in respect of the tenancy for the preceding agricultural year.

Rent payable for land occupied without consent of landlord.

14. Any person in possession of land occupied without the consent of the landlord shall be liable for the rent of that land at the rate payable in the preceding agricultural year, or, if rent was not payable in that year, at such rate as the Court may determine to be fair and equitable.

Collection of rents of undivided property.

15. When two or more persons are landlords of a tenant in respect of the same tenancy—

(a) the tenant shall not be bound to pay part of the rent of his tenancy to one of those persons and part to another; and

The Punjab Tenancy Bill.
(Chapter III.—Rent.—Sections 16-24.)

(b) no one of those persons shall be entitled to sue the tenant separately under this Act unless he is authorised to receive from the tenant the whole of the rent payable by him in respect of the tenancy.

Produce-rents.

Presumption with respect to produce removed before division or appraisement.

16. Where rent is taken by division or appraisement of the produce, if the tenant removes any portion of the produce at such a time or in such a manner as to prevent the due division or appraisement thereof, or deals therewith in a manner contrary to established usage, the produce shall be deemed to have been as full as the fullest crop of the same description on similar land in the neighbourhood for that harvest.

Appointment of referee for division or appraisement.

17. If either the landlord or the tenant neglects to attend, either personally or by agent, at the proper time for making the division or appraisement of the produce, or if there is a dispute about the division or appraisement, a Revenue-officer may, on the application of either party, appoint such person as he thinks fit to be a referee to divide or appraise the produce.

Appointment of assessors and procedure of referee.

18. (1) When a Revenue-officer appoints a referee under the last foregoing section, he may, in his discretion, give him instructions with respect to the association with himself of any other persons as assessors, the number, qualifications and selection of those assessors, and the procedure to be followed in making the division or appraisement.

(2) The referee so appointed shall make the division or appraisement in accordance with any instructions which he may have received from the Revenue-officer under the last foregoing sub-section.

(3) Before making the division or appraisement the referee shall give notice to the landlord and tenant of the time and place at which the division or appraisement will be made, but, if either the landlord or the tenant fails to attend either personally or by agent, the referee may proceed ex parte.

(4) For the purpose of making the division or appraisement, the referee, with his assessors, if any, may enter upon any land on which or into any building in which the produce is.

Procedure after division or appraisement.

19. (1) The result of the division or appraisement shall be recorded and signed by the referee, and the record shall be submitted to the Revenue-officer.

(2) The Revenue-officer shall consider the record, and, after such further inquiry, if any, as he may deem necessary, shall make an order either confirming or varying the division or appraisement.

(3) The rent shall be payable in accordance with that order.

(4) The Revenue-officer shall also make such order as to the costs of the reference as he thinks fit.

(5) The costs may include the remuneration of the referee and of the assessors, if any, and may be levied from the applicant before the appointment of the referee subject to adjustment at the close of the proceedings.

Enhancement of produce-rents of occupancy-tenants.

20. Where the rent of a tenant having a right of occupancy in any land is a share of the produce, or of the appraised value thereof, with or without an addition in money, or is paid according to cash-rates fixed with reference to the nature of the crops grown, the tenant shall be entitled to occupy the land at the share or rates hitherto paid by him:

Provided that, when the land or any part thereof previously not irrigated or flooded becomes irrigated or flooded, the share or rates payable in respect of the land or part may, subject to the provisions of this Act, be enhanced to the share or rates paid by tenants, having a similar right of occupancy, for irrigated or flooded land of a similar description and with similar advantages.

Reduction of rents referred to in the last foregoing section.

21. When the land, or any part of the land, held by a tenant having a right of occupancy to whom the last foregoing section applies ceases to be irrigated or flooded, the share or rates payable in respect of the land or part may be reduced to the share or rates paid by tenants, having a similar right of occupancy, for unirrigated or unflooded land of a similar description and with similar advantages.

Cash-rents paid by Tenants having Right of Occupancy.

Enhancement of cash-rents of occupancy-tenants.

22. (1) Where a tenant having a right of occupancy pays his rent entirely by a cash-rate on a recognised measure of area or by a cash-rent in gross on his tenancy, the rent may be enhanced on the ground that, after deduction therefrom of the land-revenue of, and the rates and cesses chargeable on, the tenancy, it is—

(a) if the tenant belongs to the class specified in clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 5, less than two annas per rupee of the amount of the land-revenue;

(b) if he belongs to any of the classes specified in clauses (b), (c) and (d) of that sub-section, less than six annas per rupee of the amount of the land-revenue;

(c) if he belongs to the class specified in section 6, or if his right of occupancy is established under section 8 and his rent is not regulated by contract, less than twelve annas per rupee of the amount of the land-revenue.

(2) In a case to which sub-section (1) applies, the rent may be enhanced to an amount not exceeding two, six or twelve annas per rupee of the amount of the land-revenue, as the case may be, in addition to the amount of the land-revenue of the tenancy and the rates and cesses chargeable thereon.

Reduction of rents referred to in the last foregoing section.

23. The rent payable by a tenant to whom the last foregoing section applies may be reduced on the ground that the productive powers of his tenancy have been decreased by a cause beyond his control.

General Provisions relating to Suits for Enhancement or Reduction of Rent.

Enhancement and reduction of rent by suit.

24. (1) A Revenue Court, on the suit of either landlord or tenant, may, subject to the provisions of this and other sections of this

The Punjab Tenancy Bill.
(Chapter III.—Rent.—Sections 25-30.)

Act, enhance or reduce the rent of any tenant having a right of occupancy.

(2) Where a decree for the enhancement of the rent of such a tenant has been passed under the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1868, a suit for a further enhancement of his rent shall not lie till the expiration of five years from the date of the decree, unless in the meantime the local area in which the land comprised in the decree is situate has been generally re-assessed and the revenue payable in respect of that land has been increased.

VIII of s.

(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), a suit instituted for the enhancement of the rent of a tenant having a right of occupancy shall not be entertained if within the ten years next preceding its institution his rent has been commuted under section 13 or enhanced under this section, or a decree has been passed under this Act dismissing on the merits a suit for the enhancement of his rent.

Discretion as to extent of enhancement or reduction.

25. In enhancing or reducing the rent of any land under the foregoing provisions of this Chapter, the Court shall, within the limits prescribed by those provisions, enhance or reduce the rent to such an amount as it considers fair and equitable, but shall not in any case fix a rent less than the amount of the land-revenue of the land and the rates and cesses chargeable thereon.

Time for enhancement or reduction to take effect.

26. (1) Unless the Court decreeing an enhancement of rent otherwise directs, the enhancement shall take effect from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the decree.

(2) A Court decreeing a reduction of rent shall specify in the decree the date on and from which the reduction is to take effect.

Adjustment of Rents expressed in terms of the Land-revenue.

Adjustment of rents expressed in terms of the land-revenue.

27. (1) Where the rent of a tenancy is the whole or a share of the land-revenue thereof, with or without an addition in money, kind or service, and the land-revenue of the tenancy is altered, a Revenue-officer having authority under section 56 of the Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887, to determine the land-revenue payable in respect of the several holdings comprised in the estate in which the tenancy is situate shall determine also the amount of the land-revenue of the tenancy, or the proportionate share thereof, payable by the tenant as rent.

(2) In any case in which an addition referred to in sub-section (1) is the whole or a share of the rates and cesses chargeable on the tenancy, or a percentage fixed with reference to the land-revenue, or both, the Revenue-officer shall, after determining the land-revenue of the tenancy or the share thereof under that sub-section, alter the amount of the addition in proportion to the alteration of the land-revenue.

(3) The sum or sums determined under the foregoing sub-sections, together with any addition previously payable other than that referred to in sub-section (2), shall be the rent payable in respect of the tenancy until there is again an alteration of the land-revenue thereof or until the rent is enhanced by a suit under this Act.

(4) An alteration of rent under this section shall not be deemed an enhancement or reduction of rent within the meaning of this Act.

Alteration of Rent on Alteration of Area.

Alteration of rent on alteration of area.

28. (1) Every tenant shall—

(a) be liable to pay additional rent for all land proved to be in excess of the area for which rent has been previously paid by him, unless it is proved that the excess is due to the addition to his tenancy of land which, having previously belonged to the tenancy, was lost by diluvion or otherwise without any reduction of the rent being made; and

(b) be entitled to an abatement of rent in respect of any deficiency proved to exist in the area of his tenancy as compared with the area for which rent has been previously paid by him, unless it is proved that the deficiency is due to the loss of land which was added to the area of the tenancy by alluvion or otherwise, and that an addition has not been made to the rent in respect of the addition to the area.

(2) In determining the area for which rent has been previously paid, the Court shall have regard to the following among other matters, namely:

(a) the origin and conditions of the tenant's occupancy, for instance, whether the rent was a rent in gross for the entire tenancy;

(b) whether the tenant has been allowed to hold additional land in consideration of an addition to his total rent or otherwise with the knowledge and consent of the landlord; and

(c) the length of time during which there has been no dispute as to rent or area.

(3) In adding to or abating rent under this section, the Court shall add to or abate the rent to such an amount as it deems to be fair and equitable, and shall specify in its decree the date on and from which the addition or abatement is to take effect.

(4) An addition to or abatement of rent under this section shall not be deemed an enhancement or reduction of rent within the meaning of this Act.

Remission.

Remission of rent by Courts decreeing arrears.

29. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing sections of this Chapter, if it appears to a Court making a decree for an arrear of rent that the area of a tenancy has been so diminished by diluvion or otherwise, or that the produce thereof has been so diminished by drought, hail, deposit of sand or other like calamity, that the full amount of rent payable by the tenant cannot be equitably decreed, the Court may, with the previous sanction of the Collector, allow such remission from the rent payable by the tenant as may appear to it to be just.

Remission and suspension of rent consequent on like treatment of land-revenue.

30. (1) Whenever from any cause the payment of the whole or any part of the land-revenue payable in respect of any land is remitted or suspended, a Revenue-officer may, by order, remit or suspend,

The Punjab Tenancy Bill.
(Chapter III.—Rent.—Sections 31-34.)

as the case may be, the payment of the rent of that land to an amount which may bear the same proportion to the whole of the rent payable in respect of the land as the land-revenue of which the payment has been remitted or suspended bears to the whole of the land-revenue payable in respect of the land.

(2) An order passed under sub-section (1) shall not be liable to be contested by suit in any Court.

(3) A suit shall not lie for the recovery of any rent of which the payment has been remitted, or, during the period of suspension, of any rent of which the payment has been suspended.

(4) Where the payment of rent has been suspended, the period during which the suspension has continued shall be excluded in the computation of the period of limitation prescribed for a suit for the recovery of the rent.

(5) If the landlord collects any rent of which the payment has been remitted, or before the expiration of the period of suspension collects any rent of which the payment has been suspended, the whole of the land-revenue remitted or suspended in his favour shall become immediately payable by him.

(6) The provisions of this section relating to the remission and suspension of the payment of rent may be applied, so far as they can be made applicable, to land of which the land-revenue has been released, compounded for or redeemed, in any case in which, if the land-revenue in respect of the land had not been released, compounded for or redeemed, the whole or any part of it might, in the opinion of the Revenue-officer, be remitted or suspended under the rules for the time being in force for regulating the remission and suspension of land-revenue.

Deposits.

Power to deposit rent in certain cases with Revenue-officer.

31. In either of the following cases, namely :

(a) when a landlord refuses to receive, or grant a receipt for, any rent payable in money when tendered to him by a tenant,

(b) when a tenant is in doubt as to the person entitled to receive rent payable in money,

the tenant may apply to a Revenue-officer for leave to deposit the rent in his office, and the Revenue-officer shall receive the deposit if, after examining the applicant, he is satisfied that there is sufficient ground for the application and if the applicant pays the fee, if any, chargeable for the issue of the notice next hereinafter referred to.

Effect of depositing rent.

32. (1) When a deposit has been so received, it shall be deemed to be a payment made by the tenant to his landlord in respect of rent due.

(2) The Revenue-officer receiving the deposit shall give notice of the receipt thereof to every person who he has reason to believe claims or is entitled to the deposit, and may pay the amount thereof to any person appearing to him to be entitled thereto, or may, if he thinks fit, retain the deposit pending the decision of a Civil Court as to the person so entitled.

(3) No suit or other proceeding shall be instituted against the Secretary of State for India in Council, or against any officer of the Government, in respect of anything done by a Revenue-officer under this section, but nothing in this sub-section shall prevent any person entitled to receive the amount of any such deposit from recovering it from a person to whom it has been paid by a Revenue-officer.

Recovery of Rent from attached Produce.

Recovery of rent from attached produce.

33. (1) If an order is made by any Court for the attachment of the produce of a tenancy or of any part of a tenancy, the landlord may apply to the Revenue-officer by whom the attachment is to be or has been made to sell the produce and pay to him out of the proceeds of the sale thereof the amount or value of—

(a) any rent which has fallen due to him in respect of the tenancy within the year immediately preceding the application, and

(b) the rent which will be falling due after the harvesting of the produce and is chargeable against it.

(2) The Revenue-officer shall give the person at whose instance the attachment was made an opportunity of showing cause why the application of the landlord should not be granted, and, if he finds the landlord's claim to the whole or any part of the rent to be proved, he shall cause the produce or such portion thereof as he may deem necessary to be sold, and shall apply the proceeds of the sale in the first instance to satisfy the claim.

(3) The finding of the Revenue-officer under sub-section (2) shall have the force of a decree in a suit between the landlord and the tenant.

Leases for period exceeding term of assessment of land-revenue.

Treatment of leases for period exceeding or equal to term of assessment of land-revenue.

34. (1) Where a lease has been granted, or an agreement has been entered into, by a landowner in respect of any land assessed to land-revenue, fixing for a period exceeding the term for which the land-revenue has been assessed the rent or other sum payable in respect of the land under the lease or agreement, and that term has expired, the lease or agreement shall be voidable—

(a) at the option of the landowner if the land-revenue of the land has been enhanced and the person to whom the lease has been granted or with whom the agreement has been entered into refuses to pay such rent or other sum as a Revenue Court, on the suit of the landowner, determines to be fair and equitable ; and where the relation of landlord and tenant exists between the grantor and grantee of the lease, or between the persons who entered into the agreement—

(b) at the option of the tenant if the land-revenue of the land has been reduced and the landlord refuses to accept such rent as a Revenue Court, on the suit of the tenant, determines to be fair and equitable.

(2) Any contract or agreement relative to the occupation, rent, profits or produce of any land which has been entered into for the term of the currency of an assessment shall, unless a contrary intention clearly appears in the contract or agreement or the contract or agreement is terminated by consent of parties or course of law, continue in force until a revised assessment takes effect.

The Punjab Tenancy Bill.

(Chapter IV.—Relinquishment, Abandonment and Ejectment.—Sections 35-45.)

CHAPTER IV.

RELINQUISHMENT, ABANDONMENT AND EJECTMENT.

Relinquishment.

Relinquishment by tenant for a fixed term.

35. A tenant holding for a fixed term under a decree or contract may relinquish his tenancy without notice at the end of that term.

Relinquishment by any other tenant.

36. (1) Any other tenant may relinquish his tenancy by giving verbally or in writing to his landlord, or to his landlord's agent, on or before the fifteenth day of January in any year, notice of his intention to relinquish the tenancy at the end of the agricultural year then current.

(2) The tenant may, instead of, or in addition to, giving the notice in the manner mentioned in sub-section (1), apply to a Revenue-officer on or before the date aforesaid to cause the notice to be served on the landlord, and the Revenue-officer, on receiving the cost of service from the tenant, shall cause the notice to be served as soon as may be.

(3) If the tenant does not give notice in the manner prescribed in this section, he shall be liable to pay the rent of his tenancy for any part of the ensuing agricultural year during which the tenancy is not let by the landlord to some other person or is not cultivated by the landlord himself.

Relinquishment of part only of a tenancy.

37. A tenant cannot, without the consent of his landlord, relinquish a part only of his tenancy.

Abandonment.

Abandonment of tenancy by occupancy-tenant.

38. If a tenant having a right of occupancy in land leaves the land for insufficient cause for more than one year without making arrangements for its cultivation or for the payment of the rent thereof, he shall be deemed to have forfeited his right of occupancy in the land.

Ejectment.

LIABILITY TO EJECTMENT.

Grounds of ejectment of occupancy-tenant.

39. A tenant having a right of occupancy shall be liable to be ejected from his tenancy on any of the following grounds, namely:

(a) that he has used the land comprised in the tenancy in a manner which renders it unfit for the purposes for which he held it;

(b) where rent is payable in kind, that he has without sufficient cause failed to cultivate that land in the manner or to the extent customary in the locality in which the land is situate;

(c) that a decree for an arrear of rent in respect of the tenancy has been passed against him and remains unsatisfied.

Grounds of ejectment of tenant for a fixed term.

40. A tenant not having a right of occupancy, but holding for a fixed term under a decree or contract, shall be liable to be ejected from his tenancy at the expiration of that term, and, on any of the following grounds, before the expiration thereof, namely:

(a) that he has used the land comprised in the tenancy in a manner which renders it unfit for the purposes for which he held it;

(b) where rent is payable in kind, that he has without sufficient cause failed to cultivate that land in the manner or to the extent customary in the locality in which the land is situate;

(c) on any ground which would justify ejectment under the decree or contract.

Ejectment of tenant from year to year.

41. A tenant who has not a right of occupancy, and does not hold for a fixed term under a decree or contract, may be ejected at the end of any agricultural year.

PROCEDURE ON EJECTMENT.

Restriction on ejectment.

42. A tenant shall not be ejected otherwise than in execution of a decree for ejectment except in the following cases, namely:

(a) when a decree for an arrear of rent in respect of his tenancy has been passed against him and remains unsatisfied;

(b) when the tenant has not a right of occupancy, and does not hold for a fixed term under a decree or contract.

Application to Revenue-officer for ejectment.

43. In any such case as is mentioned in clause (a) or clause (b) of the last foregoing section, the landlord may apply to a Revenue-officer for the ejectment of the tenant in the case mentioned in the former clause, or for the service on the tenant of a notice of ejectment in the case mentioned in the latter clause.

Ejectment for failure to satisfy decree for arrear of rent.

44. (1) On receiving the application in any such case as is mentioned in the former of those clauses the Revenue-officer shall, after such inquiry with respect to the existence of the arrear as he deems necessary, cause a notice to be served on the tenant, stating the date of the decree and the amount due thereunder, and informing him that if he does not pay that amount to the Revenue-officer within fifteen days from receipt of the notice he will be ejected from the land.

(2) If the amount is not so paid, the Revenue-officer shall, subject to the provisions of this Act with respect to the payment of compensation, order the ejectment of the tenant unless good cause is shown to the contrary.

Ejectment of tenant from year to year by notice.

45. (1) On receiving the application of the landlord in any such case as is mentioned in clause (b) of section 42, the Revenue-officer shall, if the application is in order and not open to objection on the face of it, cause a notice of ejectment to be served on the tenant.

(2) A notice under sub-section (1) shall not be served after the fifteenth day of November in any year.

(3) The notice shall specify the name of the landlord on whose application it is issued, and shall describe the land to which it relates, and shall inform the tenant that he must vacate the land on or before the first day of May next following, or that, if he intends to contest his liability to ejectment, he must institute a suit for that purpose in a Revenue Court within two months from the date of the service of the notice.

5 d.

The Punjab Tenancy Bill.

(Chapter IV.—Relinquishment, Abandonment and Ejectment.—Sections 46-52.)

(4) The notice shall also inform the tenant that if he does not intend to contest his liability to be ejected and he has any claim for compensation on ejectment he should, within two months from the date of the service of the notice, prefer his claim to the Revenue-officer having authority under the next following sub-section to order his ejectment in the circumstances described in that sub-section.

(5) If within two months from the date of the service of the notice the tenant does not institute a suit to contest his liability to be ejected, a Revenue-officer, on the application of the landlord, shall, subject to the provisions of this Act with respect to the payment of compensation, order the ejectment of the tenant:

Provided that the Revenue-officer shall not make the order until he is satisfied that the notice was duly served on the tenant.

(6) If within those two months the tenant institutes a suit to contest his liability to be ejected and fails in the suit, the Court by which the suit is determined shall by its decree direct the ejectment of the tenant.

Power to make rules.

46. The Financial Commissioner may make rules prescribing—

(a) the form and language of applications and notices under the two last foregoing sections; and

(b) the manner in which those applications and notices are to be signed and attested.

GENERAL PROVISIONS RESPECTING EJECTMENT.

Time for ejectment.

47. A decree or order for the ejectment of a tenant shall not be executed at any other time than between the first day of May and the fifteenth day of June (both days inclusive), unless the Court making the decree or, where the order is made under section 44, the officer making the order otherwise directs.

Relief against forfeiture.

48. (1) If in a suit for the ejectment of a tenant on either of the grounds mentioned in clauses (a) and (b) of section 39 or section 40 it appears to the Court that the injury caused by the act or omission on which the suit is based is capable of being remedied, or that an award of compensation will be sufficient satisfaction to the landlord therefor, the Court may, instead of making a decree for the ejectment of the tenant, order him to remedy the injury within a period to be fixed in the order, or order him to pay into Court, within such a period, such compensation as the Court thinks fit.

(2) The Court may from time to time, for special reasons, extend a period fixed by it under sub-section (1).

(3) If within the period, or extended period, as the case may be, fixed by the Court under this section, the injury is remedied or the compensation is paid, a decree for the ejectment of the tenant shall not be made.

Rights of ejected tenants in respect of crops and land prepared for sowing.

49. (1) Where at the time of the proposed ejectment of a tenant from any land his uncut or ungathered crops are standing on any part thereof, he shall not be ejected from that part until the crops have ripened and he has been allowed a reasonable time to harvest them.

(2) The Court or Revenue-officer decreeing or ordering the ejectment of the tenant may, on the application of the landlord, determine any dispute arising in consequence of the provisions of sub-section (1) between the landlord and the tenant or between the landlord and any person entitled to harvest the crops of the tenant, and may in its or his discretion—

(a) direct that the tenant pay for the longer occupation of the land secured to him under sub-section (1) such rent as may be fair and equitable, or

(b) determine the value of the tenant's uncut and ungathered crops, and, on payment thereof by the landlord to the Court or Revenue-officer, forthwith eject the tenant.

(3) When a tenant for whose ejectment proceedings have been taken has, conformably with local usage, prepared for sowing any land comprised in his tenancy, but has not sown or planted crops on that land, he shall be entitled to receive from the landlord before ejectment a fair equivalent in money for the labour and capital expended by him in so preparing the land, and the Court or Revenue-officer before which or whom the proceedings are pending shall, on the application of the tenant, determine the sum payable to the tenant under this sub-section and stay his ejectment until that sum has been paid to him.

RELIEF FOR WRONGFUL DISPOSSESSION.

Relief for wrongful dispossession or ejectment.

50. In either of the following cases, namely:

(a) if a tenant has been dispossessed without his consent of his tenancy or any part thereof otherwise than in execution of a decree or than in pursuance of an order under section 44 or section 45,

(b) if a tenant who, not having instituted a suit under section 45, has been ejected from his tenancy or any part thereof in pursuance of an order under that section denies his liability to be ejected,

the tenant may, within one year from the date of his dispossession or ejectment, institute a suit for recovery of possession or occupancy, or for compensation, or for both.

Bar of relief by suit under section 9, Act I, 1877.

51. Possession of a tenancy or of any land comprised in a tenancy shall not be recoverable under section 9 of the Specific Relief Act, 1877, by a tenant dispossessed thereof. I of 1877.

Power to vary Dates prescribed by this Chapter.

Power for Local Government to fix dates for certain purposes.

52. (1) The Local Government may, for all or any of the territories under its administration, by notification fix for the purposes of sections 36, 45 and 47, or of any of those sections, any other dates than those specified therein.

(2) A notification under this section shall not take effect till after the expiration of six months from the date of the publication thereof.

The Punjab Tenancy Bill.
(Chapter V.—Alienation of, and Succession to, Right of Occupancy.—Sections 53-59.)

CHAPTER V.

ALIENATION OF, AND SUCCESSION TO, RIGHT OF OCCUPANCY.

Alienation.

Private transfer of right of occupancy under section 5 by tenant.

53. (1) A tenant having a right of occupancy under section 5 may transfer that right by sale, gift or mortgage, subject to the conditions mentioned in this section.

(2) If he intends to transfer the right by sale, gift, mortgage by conditional sale or usufructuary mortgage, he shall cause notice of his intention to be served on his landlord through a Revenue-officer, and shall defer proceeding with the transfer for a period of one month from the date on which the notice is served.

(3) Within that period of one month the landlord may claim to purchase the right at such value as a Revenue-officer may, on application made to him in this behalf, fix.

(4) When the application to the Revenue-officer is to fix the value of a right of occupancy which is already mortgaged, he shall fix the value of the right as if it were not mortgaged.

(5) The landlord shall be deemed to have purchased the right if he pays the value to the Revenue-officer within such time as that officer appoints.

(6) On the value being so paid, the Revenue-officer shall, on the application of the landlord, put the landlord in possession of the right so purchased.

(7) If the right of occupancy was already mortgaged, it shall pass to the landlord unincumbered by the mortgage, but the mortgage-debt shall be a charge on the purchase-money.

(8) If there is no such charge as aforesaid, the Revenue-officer shall, subject to any directions which he may receive from any Court, pay the purchase-money to the tenant.

(9) If there is such a charge, the Revenue-officer shall, subject as aforesaid, either apply in discharge of the mortgage-debt so much of the purchase-money as is required for that purpose and pay the balance, if any, to the tenant, or retain the purchase-money pending the decision of a Civil Court as to the person or persons entitled thereto.

(10) No suit or other proceeding shall be instituted against the Secretary of State for India in Council, or against any officer of the Government, in respect of anything done by a Revenue-officer under the two last foregoing sub-sections, but nothing in this sub-section shall prevent any person entitled to receive the whole or any part of the purchase-money from recovering it from a person to whom it has been paid by a Revenue-officer.

Procedure on foreclosure of mortgage of right of occupancy under section 5.

54. Where a mortgagee of a right of occupancy under section 5 proposes to foreclose his mortgage, the provisions of the last foregoing section shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply as if the mortgagee were the tenant.

Sale of right of occupancy under section 5 in execution of decree.

55. (1) A right of occupancy under section 5 may be sold in execution of a decree or order of a Court;

(2) But notice of an intended sale of any such right shall be given by the Court to the landlord, and, if at any time before the close of the day on which the sale takes place the landlord pays to the Court or to the officer conducting the sale a deposit of twenty-five per centum on the highest bid made at the sale, he shall be declared to be the purchaser instead of the person who made that bid.

Transfer of right of occupancy under any other section than section 5.

56. A right of occupancy under any other section than section 5 shall not be attached or sold in execution of a decree or order of any Court or, without the previous consent in writing of the landlord, be transferred by private contract.

Rights and liabilities of transferee of right of occupancy.

57. When a right of occupancy has been transferred by sale, gift or usufructuary mortgage to a person other than the landlord, that person shall, in respect of the land in which the right subsists, have the same rights, and be subject to the same liabilities, as the tenant to whom before the transfer the right belonged had and was subject to.

Subletting.

58. (1) A tenant having a right of occupancy in land may, subject to the provisions of this Act and to the conditions of any written contract between him and his landlord, sublet the land or any part thereof for any term not exceeding seven years.

(2) A person to whom land is sublet by a tenant having a right of occupancy therein shall, in respect of that land, and so far as regards the landlord, be, jointly with the tenant, subject to all the liabilities of the tenant under this Act.

Succession.

Succession to right of occupancy.

59. (1) When a tenant having a right of occupancy in any land dies, the right shall devolve—

(a) on his male lineal descendants, if any, in the male line of descent, and

(b) failing such descendants, on his widow, if any, until she dies or re-marries, or abandons the land or is under the provisions of this Act ejected therefrom, and

(c) failing such descendants and widow, or, if the deceased tenant left a widow, then when her interest terminates under clause (b) of this sub-section, on his male collateral relatives in the male line of descent from the common ancestor of the deceased tenant and those relatives :

Provided, with respect to clause (c) of this sub-section, that the common ancestor occupied the land.

(2) As among descendants and collateral relatives claiming under sub-section (1), the right shall, subject to the provisions of that sub-section, devolve as if it were land left by the deceased in the village in which the land subject to the right is situate.

(3) When the widow of a deceased tenant succeeds to a right of occupancy, she shall not transfer the right by sale, gift or mortgage, or by sub-lease for a term exceeding one year.

(4) If the deceased tenant has left no such persons as are mentioned in sub-section (1) on whom his right of occupancy may devolve under that sub-section, the right shall lapse to the landlord.

The Punjab Tenancy Bill.

(Chapter V.—Alienation of, and Succession to, Right of Occupancy.—Section 60. Chapter VI.—Improvements and Compensation.—Sections 61-70.)

Nullity of Irregular Transfers.

Nullity of irregular transfer of right of occupancy.

60. Any transfer made of a right of occupancy in contravention of the foregoing provisions of this Chapter shall be void.

CHAPTER VI.

IMPROVEMENTS AND COMPENSATION.

Improvements by Landlords.

Improvements by landlords on tenancies of occupancy-tenants.

61. (1) Without the previous permission of the Collector a landlord shall not make an improvement on the tenancy of a tenant having a right of occupancy.

(2) If a landlord desires to make such an improvement he may apply to the Collector for permission to make it, and the Collector shall, before making an order on the application, hear the objections, if any, of the tenant.

(3) In making an order on an application under sub-section (1) the Collector shall be guided by such rules, if any, as the Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, make in this behalf.

Enhancement of rent in consideration of an improvement made by a landlord on the tenancy of an occupancy-tenant.

62. (1) When a landlord has, under the provisions of the last foregoing section, made an improvement on the tenancy of a tenant having a right of occupancy, he may apply to the Collector for an enhancement of the rent of the tenant.

(2) If the tenant is a tenant to whom section 20 applies, the Collector shall enhance his rent to the share or rates paid by tenants, having a similar right of occupancy, for land of a similar description and with similar advantages.

(3) If the tenant is a tenant to whom section 22 applies, the Collector shall enhance his rent to such amount as the tenant would be liable to pay under that section if the land-revenue were re-assessed.

(4) When the improvement ceases to exist, the Collector may, on the application of the tenant, reduce the tenant's rent—

(a) in the case of a tenant to whom sub-section (2) applies, to the share or rates paid by tenants, having a similar right of occupancy, for land of a similar description and with similar advantages, and

(b) in the case of a tenant to whom sub-section (3) applies, to such an amount as the tenant would be liable to pay if the land-revenue were re-assessed.

(5) Section 25 shall be construed as applying to an application under this section, and a suit shall not lie in any Court for any purpose for which an application might be made under this section.

Improvements by Tenants.

Title of occupancy-tenant to make improvements.

63. A tenant having a right of occupancy is entitled to make improvements on his tenancy.

Title of tenants not having right of occupancy to make improvements.

64. (1) A tenant not having a right of occupancy may make improvements on his tenancy with the assent of his landlord.

(2) If at any time the question arises whether or not the landlord assented to the making of an improvement by a tenant not having a right of occupancy, the assent may be inferred from circumstances.

Improvements made before commencement of this Act.

65. Improvements made by a tenant before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been made in accordance with this Act, unless in the case of a tenant not having a right of occupancy it is shown that the improvement was made in contravention of a written agreement between him and his landlord.

Improvements made in anticipation of ejectment.

66. A tenant ejected in execution of a decree, or in pursuance of a notice of ejectment, shall not be entitled to compensation for any improvement made by him after the institution of the suit, or service of the notice, which resulted in his ejectment.

Tender of lease for twenty years to tenant to be a bar to right to compensation.

67. If a landlord tenders to a tenant a lease of his tenancy for a term of not less than twenty years from the date of the tender at the rent then paid by the tenant, or at such other rent as may be agreed on, the tender, if accepted by the tenant, shall bar any claim by him to compensation in respect of improvements previously made on the tenancy.

Liability to pay compensation for improvements to tenant on ejectment or on enhancement of his rent.

68. Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Chapter, a tenant who has made an improvement on his tenancy in accordance with this Act shall not be ejected, and the rent payable by him shall not be enhanced, until he has received compensation for the improvement.

Compensation for Disturbance of Clearing Tenants.

Compensation for disturbance of clearing tenants.

69. (1) Any tenant who has cleared and brought under cultivation waste-land in which he has not a right of occupancy shall, if ejected from that land, be entitled to receive from the landlord as compensation for disturbance, in addition to any compensation for improvements, a sum to be determined by a Revenue-officer in accordance with the merits of the case, but not exceeding five years' rent of the land:

Provided that a tenant who is a joint owner of land to which this section applies shall not be entitled to compensation for disturbance on ejectment from the land or any part thereof.

(2) If rent has been paid for the land by division or appraisement of the produce, or by cash-rates fixed with reference to the nature of the crops grown, or if no rent, or no rent other than the land-revenue of the land and the rates and cesses chargeable thereon has been paid therefor, the compensation may be computed as if double the amount of the land-revenue of the land were the annual rent thereof.

Procedure in determining Compensation.

Determination of compensation by Revenue Courts.

70. (1) In every suit by a tenant to contest his liability to ejectment or by a landlord to eject a tenant or to enhance his rent, the Court shall direct

The Punjab Tenancy Bill.
(Chapter VI.—Improvements and Compensation.—Sections 71-74. Chapter VII.—Jurisdiction and Procedure.—Sections 75-76.)

the tenant to file a statement of his claim, if any, to compensation for improvements or for disturbance and of the grounds thereof.

(2) If the Court decrees the ejectment of the tenant or the enhancement of his rent, it shall determine the amount of compensation, if any, due to the tenant, and shall stay execution of the decree until the landlord pays into Court that amount less any arrears of rent or costs proved to the satisfaction of the Court to be due to him from the tenant.

Determination of compensation by Revenue-officers.

71. A tenant on whom a notice of ejectment has been served may, if he has not instituted a suit to contest his liability to be ejected, apply to the Revenue-officer who issued the notice to determine the amount of compensation due to him for improvements or for disturbance, or for both, and the Revenue-officer shall determine the amount, if any, accordingly and stay the ejectment of the tenant until the landlord pays to the Revenue-officer the amount so determined less any arrears of rent or costs proved to the satisfaction of the Revenue-officer to be due to the landlord from the tenant.

Matters to be regarded in assessment of compensation for improvements.

72. In estimating the compensation to be awarded under this Chapter to a tenant for an improvement, the Court or Revenue-officer shall have regard to—

(a) the amount by which the value or the produce of the tenancy, or the value of that produce, is increased by the improvement;

(b) the condition of the improvement and the probable duration of its effects;

(c) the labour and capital required for the making of such an improvement;

(d) any reduction or remission of rent or other advantage allowed to the tenant by the landlord in consideration of the improvement; and

(e) in the case of a reclamation, or of the conversion of unirrigated into irrigated land, the length of time during which the tenant has had the benefit of the improvement.

Form of compensation.

73. (1) The compensation shall be made by payment in money, unless the parties agree that it be made in whole or in part by the grant of a beneficial lease of land or in some other way.

(2) If the parties so agree, the Court or Revenue-officer shall make an order accordingly.

Relief in case of Ejectment before Determination of Compensation.

Relief in case of ejectment before determination of compensation.

74. (1) If from any cause the amount of compensation payable to a tenant—

(a) under this Chapter for improvements or disturbance; or

(b) under section 49 for the value of uncut or ungathered crops or the preparation of land for sowing,

has not been determined before the tenant is ejected, the ejectment shall not be invalidated by reason of the omission, but the Court or Revenue-officer which decreed or who ordered the ejectment may, on application made by the tenant within one year from the date of the ejectment, correct the omission by making in favour of the tenant an order for the payment to him by the landlord of such compensation as the Court or officer may determine the tenant to be entitled to.

(2) An order made under sub-section (1) may be executed in the same manner as a decree for money may be executed by a Revenue Court.

CHAPTER VII.

JURISDICTION AND PROCEDURE.

Jurisdiction.

Revenue-officers.

75. (1) There shall be the same classes of Revenue-officers under this Act as under the Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887, and, in the absence of any order of the Local Government to the contrary, a Revenue-officer of any class having jurisdiction within any local limits under that Act shall be a Revenue-officer of the same class having jurisdiction within the same local limits under this Act.

(2) The expressions "Collector" and "Financial Commissioner" have the same meaning in this Act as in the Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.

Applications and proceedings cognizable by Revenue-officers.

76. (1) The following applications and proceedings shall be disposed of by Revenue-officers as such, and no Court shall take cognizance of any dispute or matter with respect to which any such application or proceeding might be made or had:

FIRST GROUP.

(a) proceedings under section 27 for the adjustment of rents expressed in terms of the land-revenue;

(b) proceedings relating to the remission and suspension of rent under section 30;

(c) applications under section 43 for the ejectment of a tenant against whom a decree for an arrear of rent in respect of his tenancy has been passed and remains unsatisfied:

(d) applications under section 45, sub-section (5), for the ejectment of a tenant on whom a notice of ejectment has been served and who has not instituted a suit to contest his liability to be ejected and has claimed compensation under section 71;

(e) applications under section 53 or section 54 for the fixing of the value of a right of occupancy;

(f) applications under section 53 or section 54 by landlords for possession of land subject to a right of occupancy sought to be transferred or foreclosed;

(g) proceedings under Chapter VI with respect to the award of compensation for improvements or disturbance;

SECOND GROUP.

(h) applications under section 17 with respect to the division or appraisement of produce;

The Punjab Tenancy Bill.

(Chapter VII.—Jurisdiction and Procedure.—Sections 77-78.)

(i) applications under section 45, sub-section (5), for the ejectment of a tenant on whom a notice of ejectment has been served and who has not instituted a suit to contest his liability to be ejected and has not claimed compensation under section 71;

(j) applications for the determination—

(i) under section 49 of the rent payable for land occupied by crops uncut or ungathered at the time of an order being made for the ejectment of a tenant, or

(ii) under section 49 or section 74 of the value of such crops or of the sum payable to the tenant for labour and capital expended by him in preparing land for sowing;

THIRD GROUP.

(k) applications under section 31 by tenants to deposit rent;

(l) applications under section 36 for service of notice of relinquishment;

(m) applications under section 43 for service of notice of ejectment;

(n) applications under section 53 or section 54 for service of notice of intended transfer or foreclosure.

(2) Except as otherwise provided by any rule made by the Financial Commissioner in this behalf,—

(a) a Collector or an Assistant Collector of the first grade may dispose of any of the applications and proceedings mentioned in sub-section (1);

(b) an Assistant Collector of the second grade, not being a Naib-tahsildár, may dispose of any of the applications mentioned in the second and third groups of that sub-section; and

(c) a Naib-tahsildár, when invested with the powers of an Assistant Collector of the second grade, may dispose of any of the applications mentioned in the third group of that sub-section.

Revenue Courts and suits cognizable by them.

77. (1) When a Revenue-officer is exercising jurisdiction with respect to any such suit as is described in sub-section (3), or with respect to an appeal or other proceeding arising out of any such suit, he shall be called a Revenue Court.

(2) There shall be the same classes of Revenue Courts as of Revenue-officers under this Act, and, in the absence of any order of the Local Government to the contrary, a Revenue-officer of any class having jurisdiction within any local limits under this Act shall be a Revenue Court of the same class having jurisdiction within the same local limits.

(3) The following suits shall be instituted in and heard and determined by Revenue Courts, and no other Court shall take cognizance of any dispute or matter with respect to which any such suit might be instituted:—

FIRST GROUP.

(a) suits for enhancement or reduction of rent under section 24;

(b) suits for addition to or abatement of rent under section 28 or for commutation of rent;

(c) suits under section 34 for the determination of rent or other sum on the expiration of the term of an assessment of land-revenue;

SECOND GROUP.

(d) suits to establish a claim to a right of occupancy, or to prove that a tenant has not such a right;

(e) suits under Chapter IV for the ejectment of a tenant having a right of occupancy, or holding for a fixed term under a decree or contract;

(f) suits under section 45 to contest liability to ejectment when notice of ejectment has been served;

(g) suits under section 50 for recovery of possession or occupancy, or for compensation, or for both;

(h) suits to set aside a transfer made of a right of occupancy in contravention of the provisions of this Act, or to dispossess a person to whom such a transfer has been made, or for both purposes;

(i) suits for sums payable on account of village-cesses or village-expenses or for a share of the emoluments of a village-officer;

(j) suits by co-sharers in an estate or holding for a share of the profits thereof or for a settlement of accounts;

(k) suits for the recovery of over-payments of rent or land-revenue or of any other demand for the recovery of an arrear of which a suit lies in a Revenue Court under this sub-section;

THIRD GROUP.

(l) suits for arrears of rent, or the money equivalent of rent, or for payments claimed on account of rights in or over land or in water, including rights of irrigation, rights over fisheries, rights of pasturage and forest-rights;

(m) suits for sums payable on account of land-revenue or of any other demand recoverable as an arrear of land-revenue under any enactment for the time being in force, and by superior landowners for other sums due to them as such.

(4) Except as otherwise provided by any rule made by the Financial Commissioner in this behalf,—

(a) a Collector may hear and determine any of the suits mentioned in sub-section (3);

(b) an Assistant Collector of the first grade may hear and determine any of the suits mentioned in the second and third groups of that sub-section, and, if he has by name been specially empowered in this behalf by the Local Government, any of the suits mentioned in the first group; and

(c) an Assistant Collector of the second grade may hear and determine any of the suits mentioned in the third group.

Administrative Control.

Superintendence and control of Revenue-officers and Revenue Courts.

78. (1) The general superintendence and control over all other Revenue-officers and Revenue Courts shall be vested in, and all such officers and Courts

The Punjab Tenancy Bill.
(Chapter VII.—Jurisdiction and Procedure.—Sections 79-84.)

shall be subordinate to, the Financial Commissioner.

(2) Subject to the general superintendence and control of the Financial Commissioner, a Commissioner shall control all other Revenue-officers and Revenue Courts in his division.

(3) Subject as aforesaid and to the control of the Commissioner, a Collector shall control all other Revenue-officers and Revenue Courts in his district.

Power to distribute business and withdraw and transfer cases.

79. (1) The Financial Commissioner or a Commissioner or Collector may by written order distribute, in such manner as he thinks fit, any business cognizable by any Revenue-officer or Revenue Court under his control.

(2) The Financial Commissioner or a Commissioner or Collector may withdraw any case pending before any Revenue-officer or Revenue Court under his control, and either dispose of it himself, or by written order refer it for disposal to any other Revenue-officer or Revenue Court under his control.

(3) An order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall not empower any Revenue-officer or Revenue Court to exercise any powers or deal with any business which he or it would not be competent to exercise or deal with within the local limits of his or its own jurisdiction.

Appeal, Review and Revision.

Appeals.

80. An appeal shall lie from an original or appellate order or decree made under this Act by a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court, as follows, namely:

(a) to the Collector when the order or decree is made by an Assistant Collector of either grade;

(b) to the Commissioner when the order or decree is made by a Collector;

(c) to the Financial Commissioner when the order or decree is made by a Commissioner:

Provided that—

(i) an appeal from a decree or order made by an Assistant Collector of the first grade specially empowered by name in that behalf by the Local Government in a suit mentioned in the first group of sub-section (3) of section 77 shall lie to the Commissioner and not to the Collector;

(ii) when an original order or decree is confirmed on first appeal, a further appeal shall not lie;

(iii) when any such order or decree is modified or reversed on appeal by the Collector, the order or decree made by the Commissioner on further appeal to him shall be final.

Limitation for appeals.

81. The period of limitation for an appeal under the last foregoing section shall run from the date of the order or decree appealed against, and shall be as follows, that is to say:

(a) when the appeal lies to the Collector—thirty days;

(b) when the appeal lies to the Commissioner—sixty days;

(c) when the appeal lies to the Financial Commissioner—ninety days.

Review by Revenue-officers.

82. (1) A Revenue-officer, as such, may either of his own motion or on the application of any party interested, review, and on so reviewing modify, reverse or confirm any order passed by himself or by any of his predecessors in office:

Provided as follows:

(a) when a Commissioner or Collector thinks it necessary to review any order which he has not himself passed, and when a Revenue-officer of a class below that of Collector proposes to review any order whether passed by himself or by any of his predecessors in office, he shall first obtain the sanction of the Revenue-officer to whose control he is immediately subject;

(b) an application for review of an order shall not be entertained unless it is made within ninety days from the passing of the order, or unless the applicant satisfies the Revenue-officer that he had sufficient cause for not making the application within that period;

(c) an order shall not be modified or reversed unless reasonable notice has been given to the parties affected thereby to appear and be heard in support of the order;

(d) an order against which an appeal has been preferred shall not be reviewed.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the Collector shall be deemed to be the successor in office of any Revenue-officer of a lower class who has left the district or has ceased to exercise powers as a Revenue-officer, and to whom there is no successor in office.

(3) An appeal shall not lie from an order refusing to review, or confirming on review, a previous order.

Computation of periods limited for appeals and applications for review.

83. In the computation of the period for an appeal from, or an application for the review of, an order under this Act, the limitation therefor shall be governed by the Indian Limitation Act, 1877. XV of 1877.

Power to call for, examine and revise proceedings of Revenue-officers and Revenue Courts.

84. (1) The Financial Commissioner may at any time call for the record of any case pending before, or disposed of by, any Revenue-officer or Revenue Court subordinate to him.

(2) A Commissioner or Collector may call for the record of any case pending before, or disposed of by, any Revenue-officer or Revenue Court under his control.

(3) If in any case in which a Commissioner or Collector has called for a record he is of opinion that the proceedings taken or the order or decree made should be modified or reversed, he shall report the case, with his opinion thereon, for the orders of the Financial Commissioner.

(4) The Financial Commissioner may in any case called for by himself under sub-section (1) or reported to him under sub-section (3) pass such order as he thinks fit:

Provided that he shall not under this section—

(a) modify or reverse an order or decree without giving the parties affected thereby an opportunity of being heard, or

The Punjab Tenancy Bill.
(Chapter VII.—Jurisdiction and Procedure.—Sections 85-90.)

(b) modify or reverse a decree or order of a Revenue Court, unless that Court appears to him to have exercised a jurisdiction not vested in it by law, or to have failed to exercise a jurisdiction so vested, or not to have acted in the exercise of its jurisdiction according to law.

Procedure.

Procedure of Revenue-officers.

85. (1) The Local Government may make rules consistent with this Act for regulating the procedure of Revenue-officers under this Act in cases in which a procedure is not prescribed by this Act.

(2) The rules may provide, among other matters, for the mode of enforcing orders of ejectment from, and delivery of possession of, immoveable property, and rules providing for those matters may confer on a Revenue-officer all or any of the powers in regard to contempts, resistance and the like which a Civil Court may exercise in the execution of a decree whereby it has adjudged ejectment from, or delivery of possession of, such property.

(3) The rules may also provide for the mode of executing orders as to costs, and may adapt to proceedings under this Act all or any of the provisions of the Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887, with respect to arbitration.

Persons by whom appearances may be made before Revenue-officers as such and not as Revenue Courts.

86. (1) Appearances before a Revenue-officer as such, and applications to and acts to be done before him, under this Act may be made or done—

(a) by the parties themselves, or

(b) by their recognized agents or a legal practitioner:

Provided that the employment of a recognized agent or legal practitioner shall not excuse the personal attendance of a party to any proceeding in any case in which personal attendance is specially required by an order of the officer.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), recognized agents shall be such persons as the Local Government may by notification declare in this behalf.

(3) The fees of a legal practitioner shall not be allowed as costs in any proceeding before the Revenue-officer under this Act, unless that officer considers, for reasons to be recorded by him in writing, that the fees should be allowed.

Costs.

87. (1) A Revenue-officer may give and apportion the costs of any proceeding under this Act in any manner he thinks fit;

(2) But if he orders that the costs of any such proceeding shall not follow the event, he shall record his reasons for the order.

Procedure of Revenue Courts.

88. (1) The Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, make rules consistent with this Act for regulating the procedure of Revenue Courts in matters under this Act for which a procedure is not prescribed thereby, and may by any such rule direct that any provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure shall apply, with or without modification, to all or any classes of cases before those Courts. XIV of 1882.

(2) Until rules are made under sub-section (1), and subject to those rules when made and to the provisions of this Act,—

(a) the Code of Civil Procedure shall, so far as it is applicable, apply to all proceedings in Revenue Courts whether before or after decree; and

(b) the Financial Commissioner shall, in respect of those proceedings, be deemed to be the High Court within the meaning of that Code, and shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, exercise, as regards the Courts under his control, all the powers of a High Court under the Code.

Power of Revenue-officer or Revenue Court to summon persons.

89. (1) A Revenue-officer or Revenue Court may summon any person whose attendance he or it considers necessary for the purpose of any application, suit or other business before him or it as a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court.

(2) A person so summoned shall be bound to appear at the time and place mentioned in the summons in person or, if the summons so allows, by his recognized agent or a legal practitioner.

(3) The person attending in obedience to the summons shall state the truth upon any matter respecting which he is examined or makes statements, and produce such documents and other things relating to any such matter as the Revenue-officer or Revenue Court may require.

Mode of service of summons.

90. (1) A summons issued by a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court shall, if practicable, be served (a) personally on the person to whom it is addressed, or failing him on (b) his recognised agent, or (c) an adult male member of his family usually residing with him.

(2) If service cannot be so made, or if acceptance of service so made is refused, the summons may be served by posting a copy thereof at the usual or last known place of residence of the person to whom it is addressed, or, if that person does not reside in the district in which the Revenue-officer is employed or the Revenue Court is held, and the case to which the summons relates has reference to land in that district, then by posting a copy of the summons on some conspicuous place in or near the estate wherein the land is situate.

(3) If the summons relates to a case in which persons having the same interest are so numerous that personal service on all of them is not reasonably practicable, it may, if the Revenue-officer or Revenue Court so directs, be served by delivery of a copy thereof to such of those persons as the officer or Court nominates in this behalf and by proclamation of the contents thereof for the information of the other persons interested.

(4) A summons may, if the Revenue-officer or Revenue Court so directs, be served on the person named therein, either in addition to, or in substitution for, any other mode of service, by forwarding the summons by post in a letter addressed to the person and registered under Part III of the Indian Post Office Act, 1866. XIV

(5) When a summons is so forwarded in a letter and it is proved that the letter was properly addressed and duly posted and registered, the officer or Court may presume that it was served

The Punjab Tenancy Bill.
(Chapter VII.—Jurisdiction and Procedure.—Sections 91-100.)

at the time when the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

Mode of service of notice or order.

91. A notice, order or proclamation, or copy of any such document, issued by a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court for service on any person shall be served in the manner provided in the last foregoing section for the service of a summons.

Mode of making proclamation.

92. When a proclamation relating to any land is issued by a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court, it shall, in addition to any other mode of publication which may be prescribed by any enactment for the time being in force, be made by beat of drum or other customary method, and by the posting of a copy thereof on a conspicuous place in or near the land to which it relates.

Joinder of tenants as parties to proceedings relating to rent.

93. (1) Any number of tenants cultivating in the same estate may, in the discretion of the Revenue-officer or Revenue Court and subject to any rules which the Local Government may make in this behalf, be made parties to any proceeding under Chapter III;

(2) But a decree or order shall not be made in any such proceeding unless the Revenue-officer or Revenue Court is satisfied that all the parties thereto have had an opportunity of appearing and being heard.

(3) A decree or order made in any such proceeding shall specify the extent to which each of the tenants is affected thereby.

Exception of suits under this Act from operation of certain enactments.

94. Nothing in section 424 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or in the first or second paragraph of section 433 of that Code, or in section 36 of the Punjab Municipal Act, 1884, shall be construed to apply to a suit of a class mentioned in section 77 of this Act.

XIV of 1882.
XIII of 1884.

Payment into Court of money admitted to be due to third person.

95. (1) When a defendant admits that money is due from him on account of rent, but pleads that it is due not to the plaintiff but to a third person, the Court shall, except for special reasons to be recorded by it, refuse to take cognizance of the plea unless the defendant pays into Court the amount so admitted to be due.

(2) Where such a payment is made, the Court shall forthwith cause notice of the payment to be served on the third person.

(3) Unless the third person within three months from the receipt of the notice institutes a suit against the plaintiff and therein obtains an order restraining payment of the money, it shall be paid to the plaintiff on his application to the Court therefor.

(4) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of any person to recover from the plaintiff money paid to him under sub-section (3).

(5) When a defendant pays money into Court under this section, the Court shall give the defendant a receipt, and the receipt so given shall operate as an acquittance in the same manner and to the same extent as if it had been given by the plaintiff or the third person, as the case may be.

Execution of decrees for arrears of rent.

96. A Court passing a decree for an arrear of rent may, on the oral application of the decreeholder, order execution thereof against the moveable property of the tenant, and against any uncut or ungathered crops on the tenancy in respect of which the arrear is decreed.

Prohibition of imprisonment of tenants in execution of decrees for arrears of rent.

97. (1) A tenant shall not during the continuance of his occupancy be liable to imprisonment on the application of his landlord in execution of a decree for an arrear of rent.

Power to refer party to Civil Court.

98. (1) If, in any proceeding pending before a Revenue Court exercising original, appellate or revisional jurisdiction, it appears to the Court that any question in issue is more proper for decision by a Civil Court, the Revenue Court may, with the previous sanction of the Court, if any, to the control of which it is immediately subject, by order in writing, require any party to the proceeding to institute, within such time as it may fix in this behalf, a suit in the Civil Court with a view to obtaining a decision on the question, and, if he fails to comply with the requisition, may decide the question as it thinks fit.

(2) If the party institutes the suit in compliance with the requisition, the Revenue Court shall dispose of the proceeding pending before it in accordance with the final decision of the Civil Court of first instance or appeal, as the case may be.

Power to refer to Chief Court questions as to jurisdiction.

99. (1) If the presiding officer of a Civil or Revenue Court in which a suit has been instituted doubts whether he is precluded by this Act from taking cognizance of the suit, he may refer the matter through the Divisional Judge or Commissioner, or, if he is a Divisional Judge or Commissioner, directly to the Chief Court.

(2) On any such reference being made, the Chief Court may order the presiding officer either to proceed with the suit or to return the plaint for presentation in such other Court as it may in its order declare to be competent to take cognizance of the suit.

(3) The order of the Chief Court on any such reference shall be conclusive as against persons who are not parties to the suit as well as against persons who are parties thereto.

Power of Chief Court to validate proceedings had under mistake as to jurisdiction.

100. (1) In either of the following cases, namely:

(a) if it appears to a Civil Court that a Court under its control has determined a suit of a class mentioned in section 77 which under the provisions of that section should have been heard and determined by a Revenue Court, or

(b) if it appears to a Revenue Court that a Court under its control has determined a suit which should have been heard by a Civil Court, the Civil Court or Revenue Court, as the case may be, shall submit the record of the suit to the Chief Court.

The Punjab Tenancy Bill.

(Chapter VII.—Jurisdiction and Procedure.—Sections 101-106.)

(2) If on perusal of the record it appears to the Chief Court that the suit was so determined in good faith, and that the parties have not been prejudiced by the mistake as to jurisdiction, the Chief Court may order that the decree be registered in the Court which had jurisdiction.

(3) If it appears to the Chief Court, otherwise than on submission of a record under sub-section (1), that a Civil Court under its control has determined a suit of a class mentioned in section 77 which under the provisions of that section should have been heard and determined by a Revenue Court, the Chief Court may pass any order which it might have passed if the record had been submitted to it under that sub-section.

(4) With respect to any proceeding subsequent to decree, the Chief Court may make such order for its registration in a Revenue Court or Civil Court as in the circumstances appears to be just and proper.

(5) An order of the Chief Court under this section shall be conclusive as against persons who were not parties to the suit or proceeding as well as against persons who were parties thereto, and the decree or proceeding to which the order relates shall have effect as if it had been made or had by the Court in which the order has required it to be registered.

(6) The provisions of this section shall apply to any suit instituted on or after the first day of November, 1884, and to proceedings arising out of any such suit.

Miscellaneous.

Place of sitting.

101. (1) An Assistant Collector may exercise his powers under this Act at any place within the limits of the district in which he is employed.

(2) Any other Revenue officer or Revenue Court may only exercise his or its powers under this Act within the local limits of his or its jurisdiction.

Holidays.

102. (1) The Financial Commissioner, with the approval of the Local Government, shall publish in the local official Gazette before the commencement of each calendar year a list of days to be observed in that year as holidays by all or any Revenue-officers and Revenue Courts.

(2) A proceeding had before a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court on a day specified in the list as a day to be observed by the officer or Court as a holiday shall not be invalid by reason only of its having been had on that day.

Discharge of duties of Collector dying or being disabled.

103. When a Collector dies or is disabled from performing his duties, the officer who succeeds temporarily to the chief executive administration of the district under any orders which may be generally or specially issued by the Local Government in this behalf shall be deemed to be a Collector under this Act.

Retention of powers by Revenue-officers on transfer.

104. When a Revenue-officer of any class who, either as such or as a Revenue Court, has under the foregoing provisions of this Act any powers to be exercised in any local area, is transferred from that local area to another as a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court of the same or a higher class, he shall continue to exercise those powers in that other local area, unless the Local Government otherwise directs or has otherwise directed.

Conferment of powers of Revenue officer or Revenue Court.

105. (1) The Local Government may confer on any person—

(a) all or any of the powers of a Financial Commissioner, Commissioner or Collector under the provisions of this Act, or

(b) all or any of the powers with which an Assistant Collector of either grade is, or may be, invested under those provisions, and may withdraw any powers so conferred.

(2) A person on whom powers are conferred under sub-section (1) shall exercise those powers within such local limits and in such classes of cases as the Local Government may direct, and, except as otherwise directed by the Local Government, shall for all purposes connected with the exercise thereof be deemed a Financial Commissioner, Commissioner, Collector or Assistant Collector, as the case may be.

(3) Before conferring powers on the Judge of a Civil Court under sub-section (1), the Local Government shall consult the Chief Court.

(4) If any of the powers of a Collector under section 78, section 79, section 80 or section 82 are conferred on an Assistant Collector, they shall, unless the Local Government by special order otherwise directs, be exercised by him subject to the control of the Collector.

Power for Financial Commissioner to make rules.

106. (1) The Financial Commissioner, may, in addition to the other rules which may be made by him under this Act, make rules, consistent with this Act and any other enactment for the time being in force,—

(a) determining, notwithstanding anything in any record-of-rights, the number and amount of the instalments, and the times, by and at which rent is to be paid;

(b) for the guidance of Revenue-officers in determining, for the purposes of this Act, the amount of the land-revenue of any land;

(c) prescribing, for all or any of the territories to which this Act extends, the periods during which, in proceedings held under this Act, a Revenue-officer or Revenue Court is not, except for reasons of urgency to be recorded, to issue any process of arrest against a tenant or against a landowner who cultivates his own land;

(d) regulating the procedure in cases where persons are entitled to inspect records of Revenue-offices or Revenue Courts, or to obtain copies of the same, and prescribing the fees payable for searches and copies;

(e) prescribing forms for such books, entries, statistics and accounts as the Financial Commissioner thinks necessary to be kept, made or compiled in Revenue-offices or Revenue Courts or submitted to any authority;

The Punjab Tenancy Bill.
(Chapter VII.—Jurisdiction and Procedure.—Sections 107-108. The Schedule.)

(f) declaring what shall be the language of any of those offices and Courts, and determining in what cases persons practising in those offices and Courts shall be permitted to address the presiding officers thereof in English; and

(g) generally for the guidance of Revenue-officers and other persons in matters connected with the enforcement of this Act.

(2) Until rules are made under clause (a) of sub-section (1), rent shall be payable by the instalments and at the times by and at which it is now payable.

(3) Rules made by the Financial Commissioner under this or any other section of this Act shall not take effect until they have been sanctioned by the Local Government.

Rules to be made after previous publication.

107. The power to make any rules under this Act is subject to the control of the Governor-General in Council, and to the condition of the rules being made after previous publication.

Powers exerciseable by Financial Commissioner from time to time.

108. All powers conferred by this Act on the Financial Commissioner may be exercised from time to time as occasion requires.

S. HARVEY JAMES,
Offg. Secretary to the Government of India.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to amend and declare the Land-revenue Law of the Punjab was presented to the Council of the Governor-General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 27th July, 1887:

WE, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to amend and declare the Land-revenue Law of the Punjab was referred, have considered the Bill and the papers noted on the margin, and have now the honour to submit this our Report, with the Bill as revised by us annexed thereto.

From the Government of the Punjab, No. 45, dated 25th February, 1887, and fifty-three enclosures.

2. In January last the Government of the Punjab appointed a Committee under the presidency of Colonel Sir William Davies to sit at Lahore and report on the Bill with reference to the opinions which had been submitted to that Government. This Committee, which we will hereafter refer to as the Lahore Committee, submitted a report which has been most useful to us in revising the Bill. Having preliminarily considered the Bill in Calcutta with Sir William Davies, we had the Bill as amended by us there re-printed, and we have now considered and revised this re-print in Simla with the Hon'ble Colonel Wace, who succeeded Sir William Davies in May last as Senior Financial Commissioner of the Punjab and has since been in charge of the Bill.

3. Where sections or Chapters are cited in italics at the commencement of any of the following paragraphs, they are, where the contrary is not stated, the sections and Chapters of the Bill as introduced.

4. Section 1, sub-section (4).—This sub-section has been shortened with reference to section 4 of the General Clauses Act, 1887.

5. Section 2, sub-section (3).—We have left pending proceedings to the operation of section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1868.

6. Section 3.—We have, on the suggestion of the Lahore Committee, substituted a separate section (section 4 of the Bill as revised) for the definition of "land".

The report of that Committee has also suggested to us a revised definition of "village-cess", and we have set forth at length definitions of certain expressions occurring in the Tenancy Bill.

7. Chapter II.—We have transferred to the Tenancy Bill the provisions relating to the discharge by Revenue-officers and Revenue Courts of their functions under that Bill.

We have also, with the concurrence of the Local Government, adopted for the sake of convenience the expressions "Collector" and "Assistant Collector" instead of "Deputy Commissioner" and "subordinate Revenue-officer", and provided that Revenue-officers subordinate to the Collector shall be graded in two classes only.

In incorporating in the Bill the provisions of the Punjab Courts Act, 1884, relating to the appointment of a second Financial Commissioner we have revised those provisions on the lines of those sections of the North-Western Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1873, which relate to the Board of Revenue.

8. Section 19 (section 13 of Bill as revised).—As regards appeals, we have provided, at the suggestion of the Lahore Committee, that when an original order is modified or reversed on appeal by the Collector the order made by the Commissioner on further appeal to him shall be final.

We have excepted appeals under sections 58 and 118 of the Bill as revised from the operation of the general rule respecting the course of appeal.

9. Section 23 (section 20 of Bill as revised).—We have adapted the provisions of the Bill as introduced, respecting the service of processes through the post, to those of section 148 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885.

We have also, on the analogy of section 30 of the Code of Civil Procedure, made special provision for cases in which the persons to be summoned are so numerous that personal service on all of them is not reasonably practicable.

10. Section 26 (section 18 of Bill as revised).—We have struck out the words which made appearances of legal practitioners dependent on the permission of Revenue-officers. There appears to us to be nothing in existing practice which cannot be adequately provided for by rules under section 17 of the Bill as revised.

11. Chapter III.—At the suggestion of the Lahore Committee, we have proposed to empower the Financial Commissioner to make rules to regulate the appointment, punishment, duties and emoluments of inámdárs, who in some districts of the Punjab hold a position similar to that of zaildárs.

The addition to section 35 (section 28 of the Bill as revised) renders unnecessary the retention of section 137 of the Bill as introduced.

We have added kánúngos to the classes to whom section 37 (section 30 of the Bill as revised) is to apply, and have proposed that any assignment of his emoluments by a person to whom the section applies shall be subject to rules to be made by the Financial Commissioner in this behalf. A village-headman is, in special circumstances, allowed to perform his duties by deputy, and the deputy in such a case usually receives part of the emoluments of the headman.

12. Chapter IV.—In revising this Chapter it has been our object to continue, with as little alteration as possible, the provisions of the existing law. But we have so far altered those provisions as to give to all village-records the special evidential value which has hitherto been attached to a settlement-record only. The principal alterations will be found in sections 33 and 44 of the Bill as revised.

13. Section 41 (section 32 of Bill as revised).—In connection with this section and section 58 (section 49 of the Bill as revised) we have proposed to transfer Chapter VI of the Punjab Courts Act, 1884, to this Bill as Chapter XI.

14. Section 44 (section 44 of Bill as revised).—We have added after this section a section (section 45 of the Bill as revised) re-producing the substance of section 20 of the Punjab Land-revenue Act of 1871.

15. Section 48 (section 145 of Bill as revised.)—We have made this section follow more closely the terms of section 66 of the North-Western Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1873, as amended by section 8 of the North-Western Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1879, providing, however, for the record not only of village-cesses which have been specially or generally approved by the Local Government but also, as suggested by the Chief Court, of those cesses the title to which has, before the passing of the proposed Act, been judicially established.

16. Section 50 (Chapter IX of Bill as revised).—We have substituted for this section a separate chapter on Partition and have incorporated in it most of the rules now in force in the Punjab and some of the provisions of the North-Western Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1873. We have also, at the suggestion of the Lahore Committee, proposed to insert a section (section 150 of the Bill as revised) designed for the protection from encroachment of land which has been reserved for the common purposes of co-sharers.

17. Section 135.—This section has become section 40 of the Bill as revised.

18. Section 55.—We have, at the suggestion of the Lahore Committee, expressly provided in section 147 of the Bill as revised for agreements substituting service for payment of land-revenue, and for the enforcement of those agreements. In some parts of the Punjab, and especially in districts lying along the frontier, a portion of the land-revenue is remitted on condition of the landowner rendering public service.

We have further in section 48 of the Bill as revised expressly declared all land to be liable to be assessed to land-revenue, following in this respect the provisions of sections 45 and 100 of the Bombay Land-revenue Code, 1879.

19. Sections 56 and 57 (sections 61 and 62 of Bill as revised).—We have transferred these sections to the Chapter relating to collection of land-revenue. But we have omitted sub-section (3) of section 57 empowering the Deputy Commissioner to prevent the removal of produce, such a power appearing to us to be rendered unnecessary by the other provisions of the Bill.

20. Section 62 (section 53 of Bill as revised).—We have incorporated in this section that portion of section 92 of the North-Western Provinces Land-revenue Act, 1873, which relates to the fixing of the period for which an assessment is to have effect.

21. After section 63 we have inserted a section (section 54 of the Bill as revised) in the terms of section 38 of the Punjab Land-revenue Act of 1871.

22. Section 65 (section 56 of Bill as revised).—We have provided in this section for fluctuating as well as fixed assessments, and required an assessment to be distributed before any instalment of it becomes payable.

23. Section 67 (section 146 of Bill as revised).—We consider that fluctuating dues payable by an inferior to a superior landowner should ordinarily be liable to commutation only on the application of both the landowners.

24. Section 68 (section 60 of Bill as revised).—We have proposed to restore the language of section 27 of the Punjab Land-revenue Act of 1871.

25. Section 73.—This section, which would have authorised the levy of interest on arrears of land-revenue, has met with much adverse criticism, and we have omitted it.

26. Section 93.—We have omitted this section as asserting without sufficient necessity a principle which would possibly operate harshly in case of communities jointly responsible for an assessment.

27. Section 105 (section 96 of Bill as revised).—We have made it clear that a sale discharges an arrear only to the extent of the proceeds of the sale, and that any balance of the arrear may be recovered from the defaulter either by further proceedings under Chapter VI of the Bill or by such other lawful means as the Collector thinks fit.

28. Section 107 (section 98 of Bill as revised).—We have removed clause (d), because sums due from an agent of the Collector would be recoverable as an arrear of land-revenue under Act XII of 1850.

As regards clause (e) (clause (c) in Bill as revised), we have proposed that only those fees be recoverable as arrears of land-revenue which are payable for the use of or benefits derived from works constructed by district boards or local boards for agricultural purposes.

5 g

At the suggestion of the Lahore Committee, we have added a clause applying the provisions of the section to sums payable to the Government by a person who is surety for the payment of any sum recoverable as an arrear of land-revenue.

29. Section 108.—For this section we have substituted section 33 of the revised Tenancy Bill.

30. Chapter VIII.—We have, at the suggestion of the Lahore Committee and with the concurrence of the Local Government, omitted the Chapter regarding village waste-lands.

31. Chapter IX (Chapter VIII of Bill as revised).—We have added to this Chapter a section (section 109) suggested by section 123 of the Bombay Land-revenue Code, 1879, imposing on village-officers the duty of reporting to a Revenue-officer the destruction, injury or removal of survey-marks erected in their villages.

32. We have inserted as Chapter X of the Bill as revised the rules which have long been in force in the Punjab respecting references to arbitration in matters relating to the revenue, and, as already stated, we have re-produced in Chapter XI the substance of Chapter VI of the Punjab Courts Act, 1884.

33. Sections 123-125.—We have transferred to the Tenancy Bill so much of these sections as relates to the deposit of rent.

34. Sections 126 and 127 (section 141 of Bill as revised).—At the suggestion of the Lahore Committee, we have required the rules of the Financial Commissioner to be made with the concurrence of the Chief Court.

35. Section 129, sub-section (1) (section 155, sub-section (1), of Bill as revised).—The statement of the matters respecting which rules may be made under this sub-section in such detail as they are stated in clauses (f) and (g) appears to us to be undesirable as being likely to lead to a narrower construction than is intended being placed on the last clause of the sub-section.

We have proposed by clause (c) of the sub-section to confer on the Financial Commissioner the power to make rules respecting the service and execution of processes issued by Revenue Courts which is at present vested in the Chief Court under section 20 of the Court-fees Act, 1870.

36. Section 131.—The substance of this section has, with reference to section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1887, been incorporated in section 156 of the Bill as revised.

37. Section 133.—It appears to us that this section will find a more appropriate place in some law of general application than in this Bill.

38. Section 136 (section 149 of Bill as revised).—We have proposed to give power to compel the attendance of a person within the limits of an estate in which he holds or cultivates land, even though he does not reside there.

39. Section 138.—This section has, in a slightly modified form, become section 34 of the revised Tenancy Bill.

40. We have added to the Bill as revised the following among other sections, namely:—

(a) section 99, respecting the application of Chapter VI to the collection of sums recoverable as arrears of land-revenue;

(b) section 142, respecting the attachment of assigned land-revenue;

(c) section 143 (section 127, sub-section (2), of Bill as introduced), respecting the preservation of attached produce;

(d) section 148, respecting the recovery of the cost of assessing assigned land-revenue;

(e) section 152, respecting the award of costs by Revenue-officers; and

(f) section 153 (section 20, sub-section (2), of Bill as introduced), respecting the computation of periods for appeals and applications for review of judgment.

41. The publication ordered by the Council has been made as follows:—

THE SCHEDULE.—ENACTMENTS REPEALED.

A Bill to amend and declare the Land-revenue Law of the Punjab.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend and declare the law in force in the Punjab with respect to the making and maintenance of records-of-rights in land, the assessment and collection of land-revenue, and other matters relating to land and the liabilities incident thereto; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Punjab Land-revenue Act, 1887.

(2) It extends to the territories for the time being administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab, including the pargana of Spiti, but not so as to affect, otherwise than as expressly provided by this Act, any Regulation in force under the provisions of the Statute 33 Victoria, chapter 3, section 1, in any portion of those territories; and

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, may by notification appoint in this behalf.

(4) Any power conferred by this Act on the Financial Commissioner to make rules, and on the Local Government to sanction them, may be exercised at any time after the passing of this Act, but a rule so made shall not take effect till the commencement of this Act.

Repeal.

2. (1) The enactments mentioned in the schedule are repealed to the extent specified in the third column thereof.

(2) But all rules, appointments, assessments and transfers made, notifications and proclamations issued, authorities and powers conferred, farms and leases granted, records-of-rights and other records framed, revised or confirmed, rights acquired, liabilities incurred, times and places appointed and other things done under any of the repealed enactments shall, so far as may be, be deemed to have been respectively made, issued, conferred, granted, framed, revised, confirmed, acquired, incurred, appointed and done under this Act.

(3) Any enactment or document referring to any enactment hereby repealed shall be construed as referring to this Act.

Definitions.

3. In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) "estate" means any area—

(a) for which a separate record-of-rights has been made; or

(b) which has been separately assessed to land-revenue, or would have been so assessed if the land-revenue had not been released, compounded for or redeemed; or

(c) which the Local Government may, by general rule or special order, declare to be an estate:

(2) "holding" means a share or portion of an estate held by one landowner or jointly by two or more landowners:

(3) "pay", with its grammatical variations and cognate expressions, includes, when used with reference to rent, "deliver" and "render", with their grammatical variations and cognate expressions:

The Punjab Land-revenue Bill.
(Chapter I.—Preliminary.—Sections 4-5. Chapter II.—Revenue-officers.—Section 6.)

(4) "tenant" means a person who holds land under another person, and is, or but for a special contract would be, liable to pay rent for that land to that other person, but it does not include—

(a) an inferior landowner, or

(b) a mortgagee of the rights of a landowner, or

(c) a person to whom a holding has been transferred, or an estate or holding has been let in farm, under this Act for the recovery of an arrear of land-revenue or of a sum recoverable as such an arrear, or

(d) a person who takes from the Government a lease of unoccupied land for the purpose of sub-letting it:

(5) "landlord" means a person under whom a tenant holds land, and to whom the tenant is, or but for a special contract would be, liable to pay rent for that land:

(6) "rent" means whatever is payable in money, kind or service by a tenant on account of the use or occupation of land held by him:

(7) "tenancy" means a parcel of land held by a tenant under one lease or one set of conditions:

(8) "landowner" does not include a tenant or an assignee of land-revenue, but does include a person to whom a holding has been transferred, or an estate or holding has been let in farm, under this Act for the recovery of an arrear of land-revenue or of a sum recoverable as such an arrear, and every other person not hereinbefore in this clause mentioned who is in possession of an estate or any share or portion thereof, or in the enjoyment of any part of the profits of an estate:

(9) "land-revenue" includes assigned land-revenue and sums payable in respect of land, by way of quit-rent or of commutation for service, to the Government or to a person to whom the Government has assigned the right to receive the payment:

(10) "arrear of land-revenue" means land-revenue which remains unpaid after the date on which it becomes payable:

(11) "rates and cesses" means rates and cesses which are primarily payable by landowners, and includes—

V of 1878. (a) the local rate, if any, payable under the Punjab Local Rates Act, 1878;

XX of 1883. (b) the local rate, if any, payable under the Punjab District Boards Act, 1883, and any fee leviable under section 33 of that Act from landowners for the use of or benefits derived from such works as are referred to in section 20, clauses (i) and (j), of that Act;

VIII of 1873. (c) any annual rate chargeable on owners of lands under section 59 of the Northern India Canal and Drainage Act, 1873;

(d) the zaildári and village-officers' cesses; and

(e) sums payable on account of village-expenses:

(12) "defaulter" means a person liable for an arrear of land-revenue, and includes a person who is responsible as surety for the payment of the arrear:

(13) "village-officer" means a chief-headman, headman or patwári:

(14) "village-cess" includes any cess, contribution or due which is customarily leviable within an estate and is neither a payment for the use of private property or for personal service nor imposed by or under any enactment for the time being in force:

(15) "Revenue-officer", in any provision of this Act, means a Revenue-officer having authority under this Act to discharge the functions of a Revenue-officer under that provision:

(16) "agricultural year" means the year commencing on the sixteenth day of June, or on such other date as the Local Government may by notification appoint for any local area:

(17) "incumbrance" means a charge upon or claim against land arising out of a private grant or contract:

(18) "legal practitioner" means any legal practitioner within the meaning of the Legal Practitioners Act, 1879, except a mukhtár: XVI 1879

(19) "survey-mark" includes boundary-mark: and

(20) "notification" means a notification published by authority of the Local Government in the official Gazette.

Exclusion of certain land from operation of Act.

4. (1) Except so far as may be necessary for the record, recovery and administration of village-cesses, nothing in this Act applies to land which is occupied as the site of a town or village and is not assessed to land-revenue.

(2) A Revenue-officer may define for the purposes of this Act the limits of any such land.

Power to vary limits and alter number of tahsils, districts and divisions.

5. The Local Government may vary the limits of the tahsils, districts and divisions into which the territories administered by it are divided, and may alter the number of those tahsils and, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, the number of those districts and divisions.

CHAPTER II.

REVENUE-OFFICERS.

Classes and Powers.

Classes of Revenue-officers.

6. (1) There shall be the following classes of Revenue-officers, namely:—

(a) the Financial Commissioner;

(b) the Commissioner;

(c) the Deputy Commissioner, hereinafter referred to as the Collector;

(d) the Assistant Collector of the first grade; and

(e) the Assistant Collector of the second grade.

(2) The Local Government may appoint any Assistant Commissioner, Extra Assistant Commissioner or Tahsildár to be an Assistant Collector of the first or of the second grade, as it thinks fit, and any Naib-tahsildár to be an Assistant Collector of the second grade.

(3) Appointments under sub-section (2) shall be by notification, and may be of a person specially by name or by virtue of his office or of more persons than one by any description sufficient for their identification.

The Punjab Land-revenue Bill.
(Chapter II.—Revenue-officers.—Sections 7-14.)

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Act the jurisdiction of the Financial Commissioner extends to the whole of the territories for the time being administered by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab, and of Commissioners and of Collectors and Assistant Collectors to the divisions and districts respectively in which they are for the time being employed.

Financial Commissioner.

7. (1) There shall be one or more Financial Commissioners, who shall be appointed, and may be removed, by the Local Government with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council.

(2) Where more Financial Commissioners than one have been appointed, the Local Government may make rules as to the distribution among them of business under this or any other Act, and by those rules require any case or class or classes of cases to be considered and disposed of by the Financial Commissioners collectively.

(3) When there is a difference of opinion among the Financial Commissioners as to any decree or order to be made in a case which they are required by rules under the last foregoing sub-section to consider and dispose of collectively, the following rules shall apply, namely :—

(a) where the case is an appeal or a case on review or revision, it shall be decided in accordance with the opinion of the majority of the Financial Commissioners, or, if there is no such majority which concurs in a decision modifying or reversing the decree or order under appeal, review or revision, that decree or order shall be affirmed : and

(b) where the case is not an appeal or a case on review or revision, the matter respecting which there is the difference of opinion shall be referred to the Local Government for decision, and the decision of that Government with respect thereto shall be final.

(4) The expression "Financial Commissioner" in this or any other Act shall, when there are more Financial Commissioners than one, be construed as meaning one or more of the Financial Commissioners as the rules for the time being in force under sub-section (2) may require.

(5) The second Financial Commissioner appointed under section 52 of the Punjab Courts Act, 1884, shall be deemed to have had jurisdic-of tion on and after the first day of November, 1884, to make any decree or order or dispose of any other business which might have been made or disposed of by the other Financial Commissioner.

Appointment of Commissioners, and of Deputy, Assistant and Extra Assistant Commissioners.

8. Commissioners, Deputy Commissioners, Assistant Commissioners and Extra Assistant Commissioners shall be appointed and may be removed by the Local Government.

Appointment of Tahsildárs and Naib-tahsildárs.

9. The Local Government shall fix the number of Tahsildárs and Naib-tahsildárs to be appointed, and the Financial Commissioner may make rules for their appointment and removal.

Powers of Revenue-officers.

10. Except where the class of the Revenue-officer by whom any function is to be discharged is specified in this Act, the Local Government may by notification determine the functions to be discharged under this Act by any class of Revenue-officers.

Administrative Control.

Superintendence and control of Revenue-officers.

11. (1) The Financial Commissioner shall be subject to the control of the Local Government.

(2) The general superintendence and control over all other Revenue-officers shall be vested in, and all such officers shall be subordinate to, the Financial Commissioner.

(3) Subject to the general superintendence and control of the Financial Commissioner, a Commissioner shall control all other Revenue-officers in his division.

(4) Subject as aforesaid and to the control of the Commissioner, a Collector shall control all other Revenue-officers in his district.

Power to distribute business and withdraw and transfer cases.

12. (1) The Financial Commissioner or a Commissioner or Collector may by written order distribute, in such manner as he thinks fit, any business cognizable by any Revenue-officer under his control.

(2) The Financial Commissioner or a Commissioner or Collector may withdraw any case pending before any Revenue-officer under his control, and either dispose of it himself, or by written order refer it for disposal to any other Revenue-officer under his control.

(3) An order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall not empower any officer to exercise any powers or deal with any business which he would not be competent to exercise or deal with within the local limits of his own jurisdiction.

Appeal, Review and Revision.

Appeals.

13. Save as otherwise provided by this Act, an appeal shall lie from an original or appellate order of a Revenue-officer as follows, namely :—

(a) to the Collector when the order is made by an Assistant Collector of either grade;

(b) to the Commissioner when the order is made by a Collector;

(c) to the Financial Commissioner when the order is made by a Commissioner :

Provided that—

(i) when an original order is confirmed on first appeal, a further appeal shall not lie;

(ii) when any such order is modified or reversed on appeal by the Collector, the order made by the Commissioner on further appeal, if any, to him shall be final.

Limitation for appeals.

14. Save as otherwise provided by this Act, the period of limitation for an appeal under the last foregoing section shall run from the date of the order appealed against, and shall be as follows, that is to say :—

(a) when the appeal lies to the Collector—thirty days;

The Punjab Land-revenue Bill.
(Chapter II.—Revenue-officers.—Sections 15-20.)

(b) when the appeal lies to the Commissioner—sixty days;

(c) when the appeal lies to the Financial Commissioner—ninety days.

Review by Revenue-officers.

15. (1) A Revenue-officer may, either of his own motion or on the application of any party interested, review, and on so reviewing modify, reverse or confirm, any order passed by himself or by any of his predecessors in office:

Provided as follows:—

(a) when a Commissioner or Collector thinks it necessary to review any order which he has not himself passed, and when a Revenue-officer of a class below that of Collector proposes to review any order, whether passed by himself or by any of his predecessors in office, he shall first obtain the sanction of the Revenue-officer to whose control he is immediately subject;

(b) an application for review of an order shall not be entertained unless it is made within ninety days from the passing of the order, or unless the applicant satisfies the Revenue-officer that he had sufficient cause for not making the application within that period;

(c) an order shall not be modified or reversed unless reasonable notice has been given to the parties affected thereby to appear and be heard in support of the order;

(d) an order against which an appeal has been preferred shall not be reviewed.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the Collector shall be deemed to be the successor in office of any Revenue-officer of a lower class who has left the district or has ceased to exercise powers as a Revenue-officer, and to whom there is no successor in office.

(3) An appeal shall not lie from an order refusing to review or confirming on review a previous order.

Power to call for, examine and revise proceedings of Revenue-officers.

16. (1) The Financial Commissioner may at any time call for the record of any case pending before, or disposed of by, any Revenue-officer subordinate to him.

(2) A Commissioner or Collector may call for the record of any case pending before, or disposed of by, any Revenue-officer under his control.

(3) If in any case in which a Commissioner or Collector has called for a record he is of opinion that the proceedings taken or order made should be modified or reversed, he shall report the case with his opinion thereon for the orders of the Financial Commissioner.

(4) The Financial Commissioner may in any case called for by himself under sub-section (1) or reported to him under sub-section (3) pass such order as he thinks fit:

Provided that he shall not under this section pass an order affecting any question of right between private persons without giving those persons an opportunity of being heard.

Procedure.

Power to make rules as to procedure.

17. (1) The Local Government may make rules consistent with this Act for regulating the procedure of Revenue-officers under this Act in cases in which a procedure is not prescribed by this Act.

(2) The rules may provide, among other matters, for the mode of enforcing orders of ejectment from, and delivery of possession of, immoveable property, and rules providing for those matters may confer on a Revenue-officer all or any of the powers in regard to contempts, resistance and the like which a Civil Court may exercise in the execution of a decree whereby it has adjudged ejectment from, or delivery of possession of, such property.

(3) Subject to the rules under this section, a Revenue-officer may refer any case which he is empowered to dispose of under this Act to another Revenue-officer for investigation and report, and may decide the case upon the report.

Persons by whom appearances and applications may be made before and to Revenue-officers.

18. (1) Appearances before a Revenue-officer, and applications to and acts to be done before him, under this Act may be made or done—

(a) by the parties themselves, or

(b) by their recognized agents or a legal practitioner:

Provided that the employment of a recognized agent or legal practitioner shall not excuse the personal attendance of a party to any proceeding in any case in which personal attendance is specially required by an order of the officer.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), recognized agents shall be such persons as the Local Government may by notification declare in this behalf.

(3) The fees of a legal practitioner shall not be allowed as costs in any proceeding before a Revenue-officer under this Act unless that officer considers, for reasons to be recorded by him in writing, that the fees should be allowed.

Power of Revenue-officer to summon persons.

19. (1) A Revenue-officer may summon any person whose attendance he considers necessary for the purpose of any business before him as a Revenue-officer.

(2) A person so summoned shall be bound to appear at the time and place mentioned in the summons in person or, if the summons so allows, by his recognized agent or a legal practitioner.

(3) The person attending in obedience to the summons shall state the truth upon any matter respecting which he is examined or makes statements, and produce such documents and other things relating to any such matter as the Revenue-officer may require.

Mode of service of summons.

20. (1) A summons issued by a Revenue-officer shall, if practicable, be served (a) personally on the person to whom it is addressed, or failing him on (b) his recognized agent or (c) an adult male member of his family usually residing with him.

(2) If service cannot be so made, or if acceptance of service so made is refused, the summons may be served by posting a copy thereof at the usual or last known place of residence of the person to whom it is addressed, or, if that person does not reside in the district in which the Revenue-officer is employed and the case to which the summons relates has reference to land in that district, then by posting a copy of the summons

The Punjab Land-revenue Bill.
(Chapter II.—Revenue-officers.—Sections 21-27. Chapter III.—Kánúngos, Zaildárs, Inámdárs and Village-officers.—Sections 28-29.)

on some conspicuous place in or near the estate wherein the land is situate.

(3) If the summons relates to a case in which persons having the same interest are so numerous that personal service on all of them is not reasonably practicable, it may, if the Revenue-officer so directs, be served by delivery of a copy thereof to such of those persons as the Revenue-officer nominates in this behalf and by proclamation of the contents thereof for the information of the other persons interested.

(4) A summons may, if the Revenue-officer so directs, be served on the person named therein, either in addition to, or in substitution for, any other mode of service, by forwarding the summons by post in a letter addressed to the person and registered under Part III of the Indian Post Office Act, 1866. [of 1866.]

(5) When a summons is so forwarded in a letter and it is proved that the letter was properly addressed and duly posted and registered, the Revenue-officer may presume that the summons was served at the time when the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

Mode of service of notice, order or proclamation or copy thereof.

21. A notice, order or proclamation, or copy of any such document, issued by a Revenue-officer for service on any person shall be served in the manner provided in the last foregoing section for the service of a summons.

Mode of making proclamation.

22. When a proclamation relating to any land is issued by a Revenue-officer, it shall, in addition to any other mode of publication which may be prescribed in any provision of this Act, be made by beat of drum or other customary method, and by the posting of a copy thereof on a conspicuous place in or near the land to which it relates.

Supplemental Provisions.

Place of sitting.

23. (1) An Assistant Collector may exercise his powers under this Act at any place within the limits of the district in which he is employed.

(2) Any other Revenue-officer may only exercise his powers under this Act within the local limits of his jurisdiction.

Holidays.

24. (1) The Financial Commissioner, with the approval of the Local Government, shall publish in the local official Gazette before the commencement of each calendar year a list of days to be observed in that year as holidays by all or any Revenue-officers.

(2) A proceeding had before a Revenue-officer on a day specified in the list as a day to be observed by him as a holiday shall not be invalid by reason only of its having been had on that day.

Discharge of duties of Collector dying or being disabled.

25. When a Collector dies or is disabled from performing his duties, the officer who succeeds temporarily to the chief executive administration of the district under any orders which may be generally or specially issued by the Local Government in this behalf shall be deemed to be a Collector under this Act.

Retention of powers by Revenue-officers on transfer.

26. When a Revenue-officer of any class who has been invested under the foregoing provisions of this Act with any powers to be is transferred from that local area to another as a Revenue-officer of the same or a higher class, he shall continue to exercise those powers in that other local area unless the Local Government otherwise directs or has otherwise directed.

Conferment of powers of Revenue-officer.

27. (1) The Local Government may confer on any person—

(a) all or any of the powers of a Financial Commissioner, Commissioner or Collector under this Act, or

(b) all or any of the powers with which an Assistant Collector may be invested thereunder, and may withdraw any powers so conferred.

(2) Any person on whom powers are conferred under this section shall exercise those powers within such local limits and in such classes of cases as the Local Government may direct, and, except as otherwise directed by the Local Government, shall for all purposes connected with the exercise thereof be deemed to be a Financial Commissioner, Commissioner, Collector or Assistant Collector, as the case may be.

(3) If any of the powers of a Collector under this Act are conferred on an Assistant Collector, they shall, unless the Local Government by special order otherwise directs, be exercised by him subject to the control of the Collector.

CHAPTER III.

KÁNÚNGOS, ZAILDÁRS, INÁMDÁRS AND VILLAGE-OFFICERS.

Rules respecting kánúngos, zaildárs, inámdárs and village-officers.

28. (1) The Financial Commissioner may make rules to regulate the appointment, duties, emoluments, punishment, suspension and removal of kánúngos, zaildárs, inámdárs and village-officers.

(2) Rules under sub-section (1) may direct that the emoluments of a zaildár, inámdár or village-officer shall be such a percentage payable out of the land-revenue as may be prescribed by the rules, and that, where the land-revenue has been released, compounded for or redeemed, the percentage shall be a charge payable by the person who would be liable for the land-revenue if it had not been released, compounded for or redeemed.

Village-officers' cess.

29. (1) The Local Government may by notification impose on any estate, or on all or any estates in any local area, a cess, to be called the village-officers' cess, at a rate not exceeding one anna for every rupee of the annual value, for remunerating village-officers and for defraying other expenditure directly connected with the supervision of those officers or with the performance of their duties.

(2) "Annual value" in the last foregoing sub-section has the meaning assigned to that expression in the Punjab District Boards Act, 1883. [XX of 18..]

(3) The Financial Commissioner may make rules for the collection, control and expenditure of the village-officers' cess.

(4) All cesses now levied in any local area for the purposes mentioned in ...

The Punjab Land-revenue Bill.
(Chapter III.—Kánúngos, Zaildárs, Inámdárs and Village-officers.—Section 30. Chapter IV.—Records.—Sections 31-36.)

until the village-officers' cess is imposed in that local area under that sub-section, be deemed to be lawfully leviable and, for the purposes of this section, to be that cess.

Restriction on attachment or assignment of remuneration of kanúngos, zaildárs, inámdárs and village-officers.

30. (1) The emoluments of a kanúngo, zaildár, inámdár or village-officer shall not be liable to attachment in execution of a decree or order of any Civil or Revenue Court.

(2) An assignment of, or charge on, or an agreement to assign or charge, any such emoluments shall be void unless it is authorised by rules made by the Financial Commissioner in this behalf.

CHAPTER IV.

RECORDS.

Records-of-rights and Annual Records.

Record-of-rights and documents included therein.

31. (1) Save as otherwise provided by this Chapter, there shall be a record-of-rights for each estate.

(2) The record-of-rights for an estate shall include the following documents, namely:—

(a) statements showing, so far as may be practicable,—

(i) the persons who are landowners, tenants or assignees of land-revenue in the estate, or who are entitled to receive any of the rents, profits or produce of the estate;

(ii) the nature and extent of the interests of those persons, and the conditions and liabilities attaching thereto; and

(iii) the rent, land-revenue, rates, cesses or other payments due from and to each of these persons and to the Government;

(b) a statement of customs respecting rights and liabilities in the estate;

(c) a map of the estate; and

(d) such other documents as the Financial Commissioner may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, prescribe.

Making or special revision of record-of-rights.

32. (1) When it appears to the Local Government that a record-of-rights for an estate does not exist, or that the existing record-of-rights for an estate requires special revision, the Local Government may by notification direct that a record-of-rights be made or that the record-of-rights be specially revised, as the case may be.

(2) The notification may direct that records-of-rights shall be made or specially revised for all or any estates in any local area.

(3) A record-of-rights made or specially revised for an estate under this section shall be deemed to be the record-of-rights for the estate, but shall not affect any presumption in favour of the Government which has already arisen from any previous record-of-rights.

Annual record.

33. (1) The Collector shall cause to be prepared by the patwári of each estate yearly, or at such other intervals as the Financial Commissioner may prescribe, an edition of the record-of-rights amended in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

(2) This edition of the record-of-rights shall be called the annual record for the estate, and shall comprise the statements mentioned in sub-section (2), clause (a), of section 31 and such other documents, if any, as the Financial Commissioner may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, prescribe.

(3) For the purposes of the preparation of the annual record, the Collector shall cause to be kept up by the patwári of each estate a register of mutations and such other registers as the Financial Commissioner may prescribe.

Procedure for making Records.

Making of that part of the annual record which relates to landowners, assignees of revenue and occupancy-tenants.

34. (1) Any person acquiring, by inheritance, purchase, mortgage, gift or otherwise, any right in an estate as a landowner, assignee of land-revenue or tenant having a right of occupancy, shall report his acquisition of the right to the patwári of the estate.

(2) If the person acquiring the right is a minor or otherwise disqualified, his guardian or other person having charge of his property shall make the report to the patwári.

(3) The patwári shall enter in his register of mutations every report made to him under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), and shall also make an entry therein respecting the acquisition of any such right as aforesaid which he has reason to believe to have taken place and of which a report should have been made to him under one or other of those sub-sections and has not been so made.

(4) A Revenue-officer shall from time to time inquire into the correctness of all entries in the register of mutations and into all such acquisitions as aforesaid coming to his knowledge of which, under the foregoing sub-sections, report should have been made to the patwári and entry made in that register, and shall in each case make such order as he thinks fit with respect to the entry in the annual record of the right acquired.

(5) Such an entry shall be made by the insertion in that record of a description of the right acquired and by the omission from that record of any entry in any record previously prepared which by reason of the acquisition has ceased to be correct.

Making of that part of the annual record which relates to other persons.

35. The acquisition of any interest in land other than a right referred to in sub-section (1) of the last foregoing section shall,—

(a) if it is undisputed, be recorded by the patwári in such manner as the Financial Commissioner may by rules in this behalf prescribe; and,

(b) if it is disputed, be entered by the patwári in the register of mutations and dealt with in the manner prescribed in sub-sections (4) and (5) of the last foregoing section.

Determination of disputes.

36. (1) If during the making, revision or preparation of any record or in the course of any

The Punjab Land-revenue Bill.
(Chapter IV.—Records.—Sections 37-46.)

inquiry under this Chapter a dispute arises as to any matter of which an entry is to be made in a record or in a register of mutations, a Revenue-officer may of his own motion, or on the application of any party interested, but subject to the provisions of the next following section, and after such inquiry as he thinks fit, determine the entry to be made as to that matter.

(2) If in any such dispute the Revenue-officer is unable to satisfy himself as to which of the parties thereto is in possession of any property to which the dispute relates, he shall ascertain by summary inquiry who is the person best entitled to the property, and shall by order direct that that person be put in possession thereof, and that an entry in accordance with that order be made in the record or register.

(3) A direction of a Revenue-officer under sub-section (2) shall be subject to any decree or order which may be subsequently passed by any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Restrictions on variation of entries in records.

37. Entries in records-of-rights or in annual records, except entries made in annual records by patwáris under clause (a) of section 35 with respect to undisputed acquisitions of interests referred to in that section, shall not be varied in subsequent records otherwise than by—

(a) making entries in accordance with facts proved or admitted to have occurred;

(b) making such entries as are agreed to by all the parties interested therein or are supported by a decree or order binding on those parties;

(c) making new maps where it is necessary to make them.

Mutation-fees.

38. (1) The Local Government may fix a scale of fees for all or any classes of entries in any record or register under this Chapter and for copies of any such entries.

(2) A fee in respect of an entry shall be payable by the person in whose favour the entry is made.

Penalty for neglect to report acquisition of any right referred to in section 34.

39. Any person neglecting to make the report required by section 34 within three months from the date of his acquisition of a right referred to in that section shall be liable, at the discretion of the Collector, to a fine not exceeding five times the amount of the fee which would have been payable according to the scale fixed under the last foregoing section if the acquisition of the right had been reported immediately after its accrual.

Obligation to furnish information necessary for the preparation of records.

40. Any person whose rights, interests or liabilities are required to be entered in any record under this Chapter shall be bound to furnish, on the requisition of any Revenue-officer or village-officer engaged in compiling the record, all information necessary for the correct compilation thereof.

Rights of the Government and presumptions with respect thereto and to other matters.

Rights of the Government in mines and minerals.

41. All mines of metal and coal, and all earth-oil and gold-washings, shall be ... Government shall have all powers necessary for the proper enjoyment of its right thereto.

Presumption as to ownership of forests, quarries and waste-lands.

42. (1) When in any record-of-rights completed before the eighteenth day of November, 1871, it is not expressly provided that any forest, quarry, unclaimed, unoccupied, deserted or waste land, spontaneous produce or other accessory interest in land belongs to the landowners, it shall be presumed to belong to the Government.

(2) When in any record-of-rights completed after that date it is not expressly provided that any forest or quarry or any such land or interest belongs to the Government, it shall be presumed to belong to the landowners.

(3) The presumption created by sub-section (1) may be rebutted by showing—

(a) from the record or report made by the assessing officer at the time of assessment, or

(b) if the record or report is silent, then from a comparison between the assessment of villages in which there existed, and the assessment of villages of similar character in which there did not exist, any forest or quarry, or any such land or interest, that the forest, quarry, land or interest was taken into account in the assessment of the land-revenue.

(4) Until the presumption is so rebutted, the forest, quarry, land or interest shall be held to belong to the Government.

Compensation for infringement of rights of third parties in exercise of a right of the Government.

43. (1) Whenever, in the exercise of any right of the Government referred to in either of the two last foregoing sections, the rights of any person are infringed by the occupation or disturbance of the surface of any land, the Government shall pay, or cause to be paid, to that person compensation for the infringement.

(2) The compensation shall be determined as nearly as may be in accordance with the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870. X of 187[0]

Presumption in favour of entries in records-of-rights and annual records.

44. An entry made in a record-of-rights in accordance with the law for the time being in force, or in an annual record in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter and the rules thereunder, shall be presumed to be true until the contrary is proved or a new entry is lawfully substituted therefor.

Suit for declaratory decree by person aggrieved by an entry in a record.

45. If any person considers himself aggrieved as to any right of which he is in possession by an entry in a record-of-rights or in an annual record, he may institute a suit for a declaration of his right under Chapter VI of the Specific Relief Act, 1877. I of 187[7]

Supplemental Provisions.

Power to make rules respecting records and other matters connected therewith.

46. The Financial Commissioner may make rules—

(a) prescribing the ...

The Punjab Land-revenue Bill.
(Chapter IV.—Records.—Section 47. Chapter V.—Assessment.—Sections 48-56.)

(b) prescribing the form of those records and registers, and the manner in which they are to be prepared, signed and attested;

(c) for the survey of land so far as may be necessary for the preparation and correction of those records and registers;

(d) for the conduct of inquiries by Revenue-officers under this Chapter; and

(e) generally for the guidance of Revenue-officers and village officers in matters pertaining to records and registers mentioned or referred to in this Chapter.

Records-of-rights and annual records for groups of estates.

47. (1) The Financial Commissioner may direct that a record-of-rights be made for any group of neighbouring estates instead of separately for each of the estates.

(2) The provisions of this Chapter with respect to a record-of-rights and annual record for an estate shall then, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to a record-of-rights and annual record for a group of estates.

CHAPTER V.

ASSESSMENT.

Assessment of land-revenue.

48. (1) All land, to whatever purpose applied and wherever situate, is liable to the payment of land-revenue to the Government, except such land as has been wholly exempted from that liability by special contract with the Government or by the provisions of any law for the time being in force.

(2) Land-revenue may be assessed in cash or in kind, or partly in cash and partly in kind, as the Local Government may direct.

(3) Land may be assessed to land-revenue notwithstanding that that revenue, by reason of its having been assigned, released, compounded for or redeemed is not payable to the Government.

General Assessments.

Notification of intended re-assessment and instructions as to principles of assessment.

49. (1) A general re-assessment of the land-revenue of a district or tahsil shall not be undertaken without the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council and notification of that sanction.

(2) In granting the sanction the Governor-General in Council may prescribe such principles of assessment and give such other instructions as he thinks fit.

Mode of determining assessment.

50 (1) The assessment shall be made by a Revenue-officer.

(2) Before making it that officer shall report his proposed method of assessment for the sanction of the Financial Commissioner in such form as the Financial Commissioner, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, may prescribe.

Announcement of assessment

51. (1) When the Revenue-officer has obtained the sanction of the Financial Commissioner to his proposed method of assessment, he shall make an orer determining the assessment proper for each estate and announce it in such manner as the Local Government may prescribe.

(2) At the time of announcing the assessment he shall also declare the date from which it is to take effect, and, subject to the other provisions of this Act, it shall take effect accordingly.

Application for re-consideration of assessment.

52. (1) The landowner may, within thirty days from the date of the announcement of the assessment, present a petition to the Revenue-officer for a re-consideration of the amount, form or conditions of the assessment.

(2) Where the land-revenue is assigned, the assignee thereof may within thirty days from that date present a like petition to the Revenue-officer.

(3) The order passed by the Revenue-officer on the petition shall set forth his reasons for granting or refusing it.

Confirmation and duration of assessment.

53. (1) An assessment of the land-revenue of a district or tahsil shall not be considered final until it has been confirmed by the Local Government.

(2) At any time before an assessment is so confirmed the Commissioner or Financial Commissioner may modify the assessment of any estate in the district or tahsil.

(3) The Local Government shall, when confirming an assessment under sub-section (1), fix the period for which the assessment is to be in force.

Assessment to remain in force till new assessment takes effect.

54. Notwithstanding the expiration of the period fixed for the continuance of an assessment under sub-section (3) of the last foregoing section, the assessment shall remain in force till a new assessment takes effect.

Refusal to be liable for assessment and consequences thereof.

55. (1) At any time within ninety days from the date of the announcement of an assessment the landowner or, where there are more landowners than one, any of them who would be individually or collectively liable for more than half the sum assessed may give notice to the Revenue-officer of refusal to be liable for the assessment.

(2) When the Revenue-officer receives a notice under sub-section (1), the Collector may take possession of the estate and deal with it, as nearly as may be, as if the annulment of the assessment thereof had been ordered as a process for the recovery of an arrear of land-revenue due thereon.

(3) While the estate is in the possession of the Collector, the landowner or landowners shall be entitled to receive from the Government an allowance, to be fixed by the Financial Commissioner, which shall not be less than five or more than ten per cent. of the net income realized by the Government from the estate.

Distribution of the assessment of an estate over the holdings comprised therein.

56. (1) If the assessment announced under section 51 is in whole or in part a fixed assessment of an estate for a term of years, the Revenue-officer shall, before the date on which the first instalment thereof becomes payable, make an order distributing it over the several holdings comprised in the estate and make and publish a record of the distribution.

The Punjab Land-revenue Bill.
(Chapter V.—Assessment.—Sections 57-60. Chapter VI.—Collection of Land-revenue.—Sections 61-62.)

(2) The Collector may for sufficient reason make an order revising that record at any time while the assessment continues to be in force, and publish the record so revised.

(3) If the assessment announced under section 51 is in the form of rates chargeable according to the results of each year or harvest, a Revenue-officer shall from year to year or from harvest to harvest, as the conditions of the assessment may require, make and publish, not later than one month before the first instalment of the land-revenue falls due, a record of the amount payable in respect of each holding.

(4) The Financial Commissioner may make rules for the guidance of Revenue-officers in making, publishing and revising records under this section.

Application for amendment of the distribution of an assessment.

57. (1) Any person affected by a record made under sub-section (1) or sub-section (3) of the last foregoing section or by the revision of a record under sub-section (2) of that section, may, within thirty days from the date of the publication of the record, present a petition to the Revenue-officer for a re-consideration of the record so far as it affects him.

(2) The order passed by the Revenue-officer on the petition shall set forth his reasons for granting or refusing it.

Appeals from orders under sections 52 and 57.

58. An appeal from an order under the last foregoing section or section 52 shall lie to the Commissioner, and from the appellate order of the Commissioner to the Financial Commissioner.

Special Assessments.

Special assessments.

59. (1) Special assessments may be made by Revenue-officers in the following cases, namely :

(a) when estates are formed under the next following section ;

(b) when land-revenue which has been released or assigned is resumed ;

(c) when waste-lands are sold, leased or granted by the Government;

(d) when the assessment of any land has been annulled or the landowner has refused to be liable therefor, and the term for which the land was to be managed by the Collector or his agent or let in farm has expired ;

(e) when assessments of land-revenue require revision in consequence of the action of water or sand or of calamity of season or from any other cause ;

(f) when revenue due to the Government on account of pasture or other natural products of land, or on account of mills, fisheries or natural products of water, or on account of other rights described in section 41 or section 42, has not been included in an assessment made under the foregoing provisions of this Chapter.

(2) The Financial Commissioner may make rules for the guidance of Revenue-officers in making special assessments, and may confirm such assessments.

(3) The foregoing provisions of this Chapter with respect to ... shall, subject to such modifications thereof as the Financial Commissioner may prescribe by rules under the last foregoing sub-section, regulate the procedure of Revenue-officers making special assessments.

Formation of waste-land into separate estates.

60. (1) When, in the opinion of the Collector or of an officer making a general re-assessment of land-revenue under the foregoing provisions of this Chapter, the waste-land belonging to or adjoining an estate is so extensive as to exceed the requirements of the owners of the estate with reference to pasturage or other useful purpose, the Collector or officer may at any time, with the previous sanction of the Financial Commissioner, make a separate assessment of the waste-land which he considers to be so in excess, and offer that land at that assessment, for such term and on such conditions as he thinks fit, to the owners of the estate to which it belongs, and, if they refuse the offer, to the owners of any estate which the land adjoins, and, if they also refuse the offer, to any other person.

(2) When the owners of the estate to which the waste-land belongs refuse the offer, the Collector shall assign to them an annual allowance not less than five and not more than ten per cent. of the net income realized by the Government from the land.

CHAPTER VI.

COLLECTION OF LAND-REVENUE.

Security for payment of land-revenue.

61. (1) In the case of every estate, the entire estate and the landowner or, if there are more than one, the landowners jointly and severally shall be liable for the land-revenue for the time being assessed on the estate :

Provided that—

(a) the Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, may by notification declare that in any estate a holding or its owner shall not be liable for any part of the land-revenue for the time being assessed on the estate except that part which is payable in respect of the holding ; and

(b) when there are superior and inferior landowners in the same estate, the Financial Commissioner may by rule, or by special order in each case, determine whether the superior or inferior landowners shall be liable for the land-revenue, or whether both shall be so liable, and, if so, in what proportions.

(2) A notification under proviso (a) to sub-section (1) may have reference to any single estate or to any class of estates or estates generally in any local area.

Further security for payment of land-revenue.

62. (1) The land-revenue for the time being assessed on an estate or payable in respect of a holding shall be the first charge upon the rents, profits and produce thereof.

(2) Without the previous consent of the Collector, the rents, profits or produce of an estate or holding shall not be liable to be taken in execution of a decree or order of any Court until the land-revenue chargeable against the rents, profits or produce, and any arrear of land-revenue due in respect of the estate or holding, have been

The Punjab Land-revenue Bill.
(Chapter VI.—Collection of Land-revenue.—Sections 63-71.)

63. (1) Notwithstanding anything in any record-of-rights, the Financial Commissioner may fix the number and amount of the instalments, and the times, places and manner, by, at and in which land-revenue is to be paid.

Orders to regulate payment of land-revenue.

(2) Until the Financial Commissioner otherwise directs, land-revenue shall be payable by the instalments, at the times and places and in the manner, by, at and in which it is payable at the commencement of this Act.

64. (1) The Financial Commissioner may make rules consistent with this Act to regulate the collection, remission and suspension of land-revenue, and may by those rules determine the circumstances and terms in and on which assigned land-revenue may be collected by the assignee.

Rules to regulate collection, remission and suspension of land-revenue.

(2) Where land-revenue due to an assignee is collected by a Revenue-officer, there shall be deducted from the sum collected such a percentage on account of the cost of collection as the Financial Commissioner may by rule in this behalf prescribe.

(3) A suit for an arrear of assigned land-revenue shall not be entertained unless there is annexed to the plaint at the time of the presentation thereof a document under the hand of the Collector specially authorising the institution of the suit.

65. The costs of any process issued under this Chapter shall be recoverable as part of the arrear of land-revenue in respect of which the process was issued.

Costs recoverable as part of arrear.

66. A statement of account certified by a Revenue-officer shall be conclusive proof of the existence of an arrear of land-revenue, of its amount and of the person who is the defaulter.

Certified account to be evidence as to arrear.

67. Subject to the other provisions of this Act, an arrear of land-revenue may be recovered by any one or more of the following processes, namely :

Processes for recovery of arrears.

(a) by service of a writ of demand on the defaulter ;

(b) by arrest and detention of his person ;

(c) by distress and sale of his moveable property and uncut or ungathered crops ;

(d) by transfer of the holding in respect of which the arrear is due ;

(e) by attachment of the estate or holding in respect of which the arrear is due ;

(f) by annulment of the assessment of that estate or holding ;

(g) by sale of that estate or holding ;

(h) by proceedings against other immoveable property of the defaulter.

68. A writ of demand may be issued by a Revenue-officer on or after the day following that on which an arrear of land-revenue accrues.

Writ of demand.

69. (1) At any time after an arrear of land-revenue has accrued a Revenue-officer may issue a warrant directing an officer named therein to arrest the defaulter and bring him before the Revenue-officer.

Arrest and detention of defaulter.

(2) When the defaulter is brought before the Revenue-officer, the Revenue-officer may cause him to be taken before the Collector, or may keep him under personal restraint for a period not exceeding ten days and then, if the arrear is still unpaid, cause him to be taken before the Collector.

(3) When the defaulter is brought before the Collector, the Collector may issue an order to the officer in charge of the civil jail of the district, directing him to confine the defaulter in the jail for such period, not exceeding one month from the date of the order, as the Collector thinks fit.

(4) The process of arrest and detention shall not be executed against a defaulter who is a female, a minor, a lunatic or an idiot.

70. (1) At any time after an arrear of land-revenue has accrued, the moveable property and uncut or ungathered crops of the defaulter may be distrained and sold by order of a Revenue-officer.

Distress and sale of moveable property and crops.

(2) The distress and sale shall be conducted, as nearly as may be, in accordance with the law for the time being in force for the attachment and sale of moveable property under the decree of a Revenue Court constituted under the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887 :

Provided that, in addition to the particulars exempted by that law from liability to sale, so much of the produce of the land of the defaulter as the Collector thinks necessary for seed-grain and for the subsistence, until the harvest next following, of the defaulter and his family, and of any cattle exempted by that law, shall be exempted from sale under this section.

71. (1) At any time after an arrear of land-revenue has accrued on a holding, the Collector may transfer the holding to any person being a landowner of the estate in which the holding is situate and not being a defaulter in respect of his own holding, on condition of his paying the arrear before being put in possession of the holding, and on such further conditions as the Collector may see fit to prescribe.

Transfer of holding.

(2) The transfer may, as the Collector thinks fit, be either till the end of the agricultural year in which the defaulter pays to the transferee the amount of the arrear which the transferee paid before being put in possession of the holding, or for a term not exceeding fifteen years from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the transfer.

(3) The Collector shall report to the Financial Commissioner any transfer made by him under this section, and the Financial Commissioner may set aside the transfer or alter the conditions thereof, or pass such other order as he thinks fit.

(4) A transfer under this section shall not affect the joint and several liability of the landowners of the estate in which it is enforced.

(5) In respect of all rights and liabilities arising under this Act the person to whom the holding is transferred shall, subject to the conditions of the transfer, stand in the same position as that in which the defaulter would have stood if the holding had not been transferred.

(6) When the transfer was for a term, the holding shall, on the expiration of the term, be restored by the Collector to the defaulter free of

The Punjab Land-revenue Bill.
(Chapter VI.—Collection of Land-revenue.—Sections 72-75.)

any claim on the part of the Government or the transferee for any arrear of land-revenue or rates and cesses due in respect thereof.

Attachment of estate or holding.

72. (1) At any time after an arrear of land-revenue has accrued, the Collector may cause the estate or holding in respect of which the arrear is due to be attached and taken under his own management or that of an agent appointed by him for that purpose.

(2) The Collector or the agent shall be bound by all the engagements which existed between the defaulter and his tenants, if any, and shall be entitled to manage the land and to receive all rents and profits accruing therefrom to the exclusion of the defaulter until the arrear has been satisfied, or until the Collector restores the land to the defaulter.

(3) All surplus profits of the land attached beyond the cost of attachment and management and the amount necessary to meet the current demand for land-revenue and rates and cesses shall be applied in discharge of the arrear.

(4) Land shall not be attached for the same arrear for a longer term than five years from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the attachment, but, if the arrear is sooner discharged, the land shall be released and the surplus receipts, if any, made over to the landowner.

Annulment of assessment of estate or holding.

73. (1) When an arrear of land-revenue has been due for a longer period than one month, and the foregoing processes are not deemed sufficient for the recovery thereof, the Financial Commissioner may, in addition to or instead of all or any of those processes, order the existing assessment of the estate or holding in respect of which the arrear is due to be annulled.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not be put in force for the recovery of an arrear of land-revenue which has accrued on land—

(a) while under attachment under the last foregoing section, or

(b) while under the charge of the Court of Wards.

(3) When the assessment of any land has been annulled, the Collector may, with the previous sanction of the Financial Commissioner, either manage the land himself or through an agent, or let it in farm to any person willing to accept the farm, for such term and on such conditions as may be sanctioned by the Financial Commissioner:

Provided that the term for which land may be so managed or farmed shall not be longer than fifteen years from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the annulment.

(4) At some time before the expiration of that term the Collector shall assess the estate or holding at such sum as the Financial Commissioner approves for the remainder of the term of the current assessment of the district or tahsil, and shall announce the assessment to the landowner.

(5) The landowner may give notice to the Collector of refusal to be liable for the assessment within thirty days from the date on which the assessment was announced to him.

(6) If notice is so given, the Collector may, with the previous sanction of the Financial Commissioner, take the estate or holding under direct management or farm it for the remainder of the term of the current assessment of the district or tahsil, or for any period within that term which the Financial Commissioner may fix.

(7) When the assessment of a holding is annulled, the joint responsibility of the other landowners of the estate for the land-revenue of that holding becoming due after the annulment shall be in abeyance until a new assessment takes effect.

(8) The Financial Commissioner may direct that any contract made by the defaulter, or by any person through whom the defaulter claims, with respect to any land comprised in an estate or holding of which the assessment has been annulled shall not be binding on the Collector or his agent or farmer during the period for which the estate or holding remains under the management of the Collector or his agent or is let in farm.

Proclamation of attachment or annulment of assessment, and consequences of the proclamation.

74. (1) When any land is attached under section 72, or when the assessment of any land has been annulled under the last foregoing section, the Collector shall make proclamation thereof.

(2) No payment made by any person to the defaulter before the making of the proclamation on account of rent or any other asset in anticipation of the usual time for the payment shall, without the special sanction of the Collector, be credited to that person or relieve him from liability to make the payment to the Collector or his agent or farmer.

(3) No payment made after the making of the proclamation on account of rent or any other asset of the estate or holding to any person other than the Collector or his agent or farmer shall be credited to the person making the payment or relieve him from liability to make the payment to the Collector or his agent or farmer.

Sale of estate or holding.

75. When an arrear of land-revenue has accrued and the foregoing processes are not deemed sufficient for the recovery thereof, the Collector, with the previous sanction of the Financial Commissioner, may, in addition to, or instead of, all or any of those processes, and subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, sell the estate or holding in respect of which the arrear is due:

Provided that land shall not be sold for the recovery of—

(a) any arrear which has accrued while the land was under the charge of the Court of Wards, or was so circumstanced that the Court of Wards might have exercised jurisdiction over it under the provisions of section 35 of the Punjab Laws Act, 1872, clause (a), (b), (c) or (d); or IV of 18

(b) any arrear which has accrued while the land was under attachment under section 72 of this Act; or

(c) any arrear which has accrued while the land was held under direct management by the Collector or in farm by any other person, under section 73, after either an annulment of assessment or a refusal to be liable therefor.

The Punjab Land-revenue Bill.
(Chapter VI.—Collection of Land-revenue.—Sections 76-82.)

76. (1) Land sold under the last foregoing section shall be sold free of all incumbrances; and all grants and contracts previously made by any person other than the purchaser in respect of the land shall become void as against the purchaser at the sale.

Effect of sale on incumbrances.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall affect—

(a) a tenant's right of occupancy, unless the right was created by the defaulter himself, or

(b) any lease at a fair rent, temporary or perpetual, for the erection of a dwelling-house or manufactory, or for a mine, garden, tank, canal, place of worship or burial-ground, so long as the land continues to be used for the purpose specified in the lease, or

(c) any incumbrance, grant, contract or right of occupancy specially saved by order of the Financial Commissioner and proclaimed as hereinafter provided.

77. (1) If the arrear cannot be recovered by any of the processes hereinbefore provided, or if the Financial Commissioner considers the enforcement of any of those processes to be inexpedient, the Collector may, where the defaulter owns any other estate or holding, or any share in any other estate or holding, or any other immoveable property, proceed under the provisions of this Act against that property as if it were the land in respect of which the arrear is due:

Proceedings against other immoveable property of defaulter.

Provided that no interests save those of the defaulter alone shall be so proceeded against, and no incumbrances created, grants made or contracts entered into by him in good faith shall be rendered invalid by reason only of his interests being proceeded against.

(2) When the Collector determines to proceed under this section against immoveable property other than the land in respect of which the arrear is due, he shall issue a proclamation prohibiting the transfer or charging of the property.

(3) The Collector may at any time by order in writing withdraw the proclamation, and it shall be deemed to be withdrawn when either the arrear has been paid or the interests of the defaulter in the property have been sold for the recovery of the arrear.

(4) Any private alienation of the property, or of any interest of the defaulter therein, whether by sale, gift, mortgage or otherwise, made after the issue of the proclamation and before the withdrawal thereof shall be void.

(5) In proceeding against property under this section the Collector shall follow, as nearly as the nature of the property will admit, the procedure prescribed for the enforcement of process against land on which an arrear of land-revenue is due.

78. (1) Notwithstanding anything in section 66, when proceedings are taken under this Act for the recovery of an arrear, the person against whom the proceedings are taken may, if he denies his liability for the arrear or any part thereof and pays the same under protest made in writing at the time of payment and signed by him or his agent, institute a suit in a Civil Court for the recovery of the amount so paid.

Remedies open to person denying his liability for an arrear.

(2) A suit under sub-section (1) must be instituted in a Court having jurisdiction in the place where the office of the Collector of the district in which the arrear or some part thereof accrued is situate.

Procedure in Sales.

79. (1) On the receipt of the sanction of the Financial Commissioner to the sale of any immoveable property, the Collector shall issue a proclamation of the intended sale, specifying—

Proclamation of sale.

(a) the date, time and place of the sale;

(b) the property to be sold, and, if it is an estate or holding, the land-revenue assessed thereon or payable in respect thereof;

(c) if the property is to be sold for the recovery of an arrear due in respect thereof, the incumbrances, grants, contracts and rights of occupancy, if any, specially saved by order of the Financial Commissioner under section 76, sub-section (2), clause (c);

(d) if the property is to be sold otherwise than for the recovery of an arrear due in respect thereof, any incumbrance, grant or contract to which the property is known to be liable; and

(e) the amount for the recovery of which the sale is ordered.

(2) The proclamation shall also state that any person intending to claim a right of pre-emption must, on pain of forfeiting the right, give notice of his intention to the Collector on an office-day before that fixed for the sale.

(3) The place of sale specified under clause (a) of sub-section (1) must be either the office of the Collector or some place appointed by the Collector in this behalf and situate in or near the property to be sold.

80. A Revenue-officer shall not be answerable for any error, mis-statement or omission in any proclamation under the last foregoing section, unless the same has been committed or made dishonestly.

Indemnity to Revenue-officer with respect to contents of proclamation.

81. (1) A copy of the proclamation shall be served on the defaulter and be posted in a conspicuous part of the office of the Tahsildár of the tahsil in which the property to be sold is situate.

Publication of proclamation.

(2) After a copy of the proclamation has been served on the defaulter and posted in the office of the Tahsildár, a copy thereof shall be posted in the office of the Collector.

(3) The proclamation shall be further published in manner prescribed in section 22 and in such other manner as the Collector thinks expedient.

82. (1) The sale shall not take place on a Sunday or other holiday, or till after the expiration of at least thirty days from the date on which the copy of the proclamation was posted in the office of the Collector.

Time and conduct of sale.

(2) The sale shall be by public auction, and shall be conducted either by the Collector in person or by a Revenue-officer specially appointed by him in this behalf.

The Punjab Land-revenue Bill.

(Chapter VI.—Collection of Land-revenue.—Sections 83-96.)

Power to postpone sale.

83. The Collector may from time to time postpone the sale.

Stay of sale.

84. If at any time before the bidding at the auction is completed the defaulter pays the arrear in respect of which the land has been proclaimed for sale, together with the costs incurred for the recovery thereof, to the officer conducting the sale, or proves to the satisfaction of that officer that he has already paid the same either at the place and in the manner prescribed under section 63 or into the Government treasury, the sale shall be stayed.

Payment of deposit by highest bidder.

85. When the highest bid at the auction has been ascertained, the person who made that bid shall, on the requisition of the officer conducting the sale, pay to that officer a deposit of twenty-five per centum on the amount of his bid, and shall, on payment thereof, be declared to be the purchaser subject to the provisions of this Chapter with respect to the exercise of any right of pre-emption.

Consequences of failure to pay deposit.

86. If the person who made the highest bid fails to pay the deposit as required by the last foregoing section, the property shall forthwith be put up again and sold, and all expenses attending the first sale, and the deficiency of price, if any, which may happen on the re-sale, may be recovered from him by the Collector as if the same were an arrear of land-revenue.

Exercise of right of pre-emption.

87. (1) At any time before the close of the day on which the sale takes place any person who has given notice of his intention to claim a right of pre-emption under section 79, sub-section (2), may, on payment to the officer conducting the sale of a deposit of twenty-five per centum on the highest bid made at the sale, claim to take the property at that bid.

(2) If the right is not disputed, he shall be declared to be the purchaser.

(3) If the right is disputed, the Collector shall inquire into and decide the dispute and declare the purchaser, and his decision and declaration shall be final.

Time for payment in full.

88. The full amount of the purchase-money shall be paid by the purchaser before the close of the fifteenth day from that on which the purchaser was declared.

Procedure in default of payment.

89. In default of payment of the full amount of the purchase-money within the period mentioned in the last foregoing section, the deposit referred to in section 85 or section 87, as the case may be, shall, after defraying the expenses of the sale, be forfeited to the Government and may, if the Collector, with the previous sanction of the Commissioner, so directs, be applied in reduction of the arrear, and the property shall be re-sold, and the defaulting purchaser shall have no claim to the property or to any part of the sum for which it may subsequently be sold.

Report of sale to Commissioner.

90. Every sale of immoveable property under this Chapter shall be reported by the Collector to the Commissioner.

Application to set aside sale.

91. (1) At any time within thirty days from the date of the sale, application may be made to the Commissioner to set aside the sale on the ground of some material irregularity or mistake in publishing or conducting it;

(2) But a sale shall not be set aside on that ground unless the applicant proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that he has sustained substantial injury by reason of the irregularity or mistake.

Order confirming or setting aside sale.

92. (1) After the expiration of thirty days from the date of the sale, if such application as is mentioned in the last foregoing section has not been made, or if such application has been made and rejected, the Commissioner shall make an order confirming the sale, and, if such application has been made and allowed, the Commissioner shall make an order setting aside the sale.

(2) An order made under this section shall be final.

Refund of purchase-money on setting aside of sale.

93. Whenever the sale of any property is set aside, the purchaser shall be entitled to receive back his purchase-money.

Proclamation after postponement or on re-sale.

94. A sale made after a postponement under section 83, and a re-sale consequent on a purchaser's default under section 89 or on the setting aside of a sale under section 92, shall be made after the issue of a fresh proclamation in the manner thereinbefore prescribed for the sale.

On confirmation of sale, possession and certificate to be granted to purchaser.

95. (1) After a sale has been confirmed in manner aforesaid, the Collector shall put the person declared to be the purchaser into possession of the property sold, and shall grant him a certificate to the effect that he has purchased that property.

(2) The certificate shall state whether or not the property was sold for the recovery of an arrear due in respect thereof, and, if it was so sold, shall set forth the incumbrances, grants, contracts and rights of occupancy, if any, specified in the proclamation of the sale as specially saved by order of the Financial Commissioner under section 76, sub-section (2), clause (c).

(3) The certificate shall be deemed to be a valid transfer of the property but need not be registered as a conveyance.

(4) Any suit brought in any Court against the certified purchaser on the ground that the purchase was made on behalf of a person other than the certified purchaser shall be dismissed with costs.

(5) The certified purchaser of any immoveable property shall be entitled to all rents and profits falling due in respect of the property after the date of the confirmation of the sale and be liable for all instalments of land-revenue and rates and cesses falling due in respect thereof after that date.

Proceeds of sale.

96 (1) When a sale of immoveable property under this Chapter has been confirmed, the proceeds of the sale shall be applied in the first place to the payment of any arrears, including costs incurred for the recovery th[...]

from the defaulter at the date of the confirmation of the sale, whether the arrears are of land-revenue, or of sums recoverable as arrears of land-revenue, and the surplus, if any, shall be paid to the person whose property has been sold, or, if the property sold was owned by more than one landowner, then to the landowners either collectively or according to the amount of their recorded interests, as the Collector thinks fit.

(2) The surplus shall not, except under an order of a Court, be paid to any creditor of a person whose property has been sold.

(3) If the proceeds of the sale fall short of such arrears as are referred to in sub-section (1), the balance remaining due from the defaulter may be recovered from him by further proceedings under this Chapter or by any other means authorised by law.

CHAPTER VII.

RECOVERY OF OTHER DEMANDS BY REVENUE-OFFICERS.

Recovery of certain arrears through Revenue officer instead of by suit.

97. When a village-officer required by rules under section 28 to collect any land-revenue or sum recoverable as an arrear of land-revenue satisfies a Revenue-officer that the revenue or sum has fallen due and has not been paid to him, the Revenue-officer may, subject to any rules which the Financial Commissioner may make in this behalf, recover it as if it were an arrear of land-revenue.

Other sums recoverable as arrears of land-revenue.

98. In addition to any sums recoverable as arrears of land-revenue under this Act or any other enactment for the time being in force, the following sums may be so recovered, namely:

(a) fees, fines, costs and other charges, including the village-officers' cess, payable under this Act;

(b) revenue due to the Government on account of pasture or other natural products of land, or on account of mills, fisheries or natural products of water, or on account of other rights described in section 41 or section 42, in cases in which the revenue so due has not been included in the assessment of an estate;

(c) fees payable to district boards or local boards under section 33 of the Punjab District Boards Act, 1883, for the use of or benefits derived from such works as are referred to in section 20, clauses (i) and (j), of that Act;

XX of 1883.

(d) sums leviable by or under the authority of the Government as wate[r-ra]tes, or on account of the maintenan[ce o]r management of canals, embankm[ents] or other irrigation-works, not bei[ng] sums recoverable as arrears of land-revenue under any enactment for the time being in force; and

(e) sums payable to the Government by a person who is surety for the payment of any of the foregoing sums or of any other sum recoverable as an arrear of land-revenue.

Application of Chapter VI to sums recoverable under this Chapter.

99. (1) The provisions of Chapter VI shall, with respect to any sum mentioned or referred to in this Chapter, apply, so far as they can be made applicable, as if the sum were an arrear of land-revenue and the person from whom, either as principal or as surety, it is due were a defaulter in respect of such an arrear.

(2) Unless any such sum is declared by any enactment for the time being in force to be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land-revenue due in respect of the land charged therewith, the provisions of section 77 shall apply under sub-section (1) to the recovery thereof.

CHAPTER VIII.

SURVEYS AND BOUNDARIES.

Power of Financial Commissioner to make rules for demarcation of boundaries and erection of survey-marks.

100. (1) The Financial Commissioner may make rules as to the manner in which the boundaries of all or any estates in any local area are to be demarcated and as to the survey-marks to be erected within those estates.

(2) Rules under this section may prescribe among other matters, the form of survey-marks and the material to be used in their construction.

Power of Revenue-officers to define boundaries.

101. (1) A Revenue officer may, for the purpose of framing any record or making any assessment under this Act, or on the application of any person interested, define the limits of any estate, or of any holding, field or other portion of an estate, and may, for the purpose of indicating those limits, require survey-marks to be erected or repaired.

(2) In defining the limits of any land under sub-section (1), the Revenue-officer may cause survey-marks to be erected on any boundary already determined by or by order of any Court, Revenue-officer or Forest-settlement-officer, or restore any survey-mark already set up by, or by order of, any Court or any such officer.

Cost of erection and repair of survey-marks.

102. Subject to any rules which the Financial Commissioner may make in this behalf, survey-marks shall be erected and kept in repair by or at the cost of the persons interested in the land for the indication of the limits of which they are required:

Provided that the Local Government may in any case direct that the cost of erection shall be borne by the Government or be paid out of the proceeds of the village-officers' cess.

Recovery of cost incurred by the Government.

103. (1) If the persons interested in the land fail to erect or repair a survey-mark within thirty days from the date of their being required by a Revenue-officer to do so, the Revenue-officer may cause it to be erected or repaired.

(2) Where the Revenue-officer causes a survey-mark to be erected or repaired, he shall, subject to any rules under the last foregoing section, apportion the cost among the persons interested in the land in such manner as he deems just, and certify the same to the Collector.

(3) The Collector may recover the cost as if it were an arrear of land-revenue.

The Punjab Land-revenue Bill.

(Chapter VIII.—Surveys and Boundaries.—Sections 104-109. Chapter IX.—Partition.—Sections 110-112.)

Power of Revenue-officers to enter on land for purposes of survey and demarcation.

104. Any Revenue-officer, and any person acting under the orders of a Revenue-officer, may, in the discharge of any duty under this Act, enter upon and survey land and erect survey-marks thereon and demarcate the boundaries thereof, and do all other acts necessary for the proper performance of that duty.

Surveys for purpose of preparation of records.

105. (1) When any land is being surveyed in pursuance of rules under section 46, clause (c), any Revenue-officer directing the survey may, by notice or proclamation, require all persons having rights or interests in the land to indicate, within a specified time, by temporary marks of a kind to be described in the notice or proclamation, the limits of those rights or interests.

(2) If a person to whom the notice or proclamation is addressed fails to comply with the requisition, he shall be liable at the discretion of the Revenue-officer to fine which may extend to ten rupees.

Provision of flagholders and chainmen for those surveys.

106. (1) For the purposes of the survey of any land in pursuance of rules under section 46, clause (c), the landowners shall be bound to provide fit persons to act as flagholders and chainmen.

(2) If the landowners fail to provide such persons or to provide them in sufficient number, such other persons as a Revenue-officer considers necessary may be employed and the cost of employing them recovered from the landowners as if it were an arrear of land-revenue.

Professional surveys.

107. (1) If it is necessary to make a survey by other agency than that of Revenue-officers or village-officers, the Local Government may publish a notification stating—

(a) the local area to be surveyed and the nature of the survey ;

(b) the names or official designations of the officers by whom the survey is to be made ; and

(c) the kind of survey-marks to be erected by those officers.

(2) From the date of the notification the officers specified therein, and the persons acting under their orders, shall have for the purposes of the survey the powers conferred on Revenue-officers by section 104.

Penalty for destruction, injury or removal of survey-marks.

108. (1) If any person wilfully destroys or injures or without lawful authority removes a survey-mark lawfully erected, he may be ordered by a Revenue-officer to pay such fine not exceeding fifty rupees for each mark so destroyed, injured or removed as may, in the opinion of the Revenue-officer, be necessary to defray the expense of restoring the same and of rewarding the person, if any, who gave information of the destruction, injury or removal.

(2) The imposition of a fine under this section shall not bar a prosecution under section 434 of the Indian Penal Code.

of 1860,

Report of destruction, injury or removal of survey-marks.

109. Every village-officer of an estate shall be legally bound to furnish a Revenue-officer with information respecting the destruction or removal of, or any injury done to, any survey-mark lawfully erected in the estate.

CHAPTER IX.

PARTITION.

Effect of partitions of estates and tenancies on joint liability for revenue and rent.

110. (1) A partition of land, either under this Chapter or otherwise, shall not, without the express consent of the Financial Commissioner, affect the joint liability of the land or of the landowners thereof for the revenue payable in respect of the land, or operate to create new estate, and, if any conditions are attached to that consent, those conditions shall be binding on the parties to the partition.

(2) A partition of a tenancy shall not, without the express consent of the landlord, affect the joint liability of the co-sharers therein for the payment of the rent thereof.

Application for partition.

111. Any joint owner of land, or any joint tenant of a tenancy in which a right of occupancy subsists, may apply to a Revenue-officer for partition of his share in the land or tenancy, as the case may be, if—

(a) at the date of the application the share is recorded under Chapter IV as belonging to him, or

(b) his right to the share has been established by a decree which is still subsisting at that date, or

(c) a written acknowledgment of that right has been executed by all persons interested in the admission or denial thereof.

Restrictions and limitations on partition.

112. Notwithstanding anything in the last foregoing section—

(1) places of worship and burial-grounds held in common before partition shall continue to be so held after partition, unless the owners otherwise agree among themselves and record their agreement and file it with the Revenue-officer ;

(2) partition of any of the following properties, namely :

(a) any embankment, watercourse, well or tank, and any land on which the supply of water to any such work may depend,

(b) any grazing-ground, and

(c) any land which is occupied as the site of a town or village and is assessed to land-revenue,

may be refused if in the opinion of the Revenue-officer the partition of such property is likely to cause inconvenience to the co-sharers or other persons directly or indirectly interested therein or to diminish the utility thereof to those persons ;

(3) the fact that a partition on the application of a joint owner of land would render necessary the severance into two or more parts of the land comprised in the

The Punjab Land-revenue Bill.
(Chapter IX.—Partition.—Sections 113-120.)

tenancy of a tenant having a right of occupancy may, unless the tenant assents to the severance, be a sufficient reason for the disallowance of the partition in so far as it would affect that tenancy; and

(4) the fact that the landlord objects to the partition of a tenancy may be sufficient reason for the absolute disallowance of the partition.

Notice of application for partition.

113. The Revenue-officer, on receiving the application under section 111, shall, if it is in order and not open to objection on the face of it, fix a day for the hearing thereof, and—

(a) cause notice of the application and of the day so fixed to be served on such of the recorded co-sharers as have not joined in the application, and, if the share of which partition is applied for is a share in a tenancy, on the landlord also; and

(b) if he thinks fit, cause the notice to be served on, or proclaimed for the information of, any other persons whom he may deem to be directly or indirectly interested in the application.

Addition of parties to application.

114. On the day fixed for the hearing, or on any day to which the hearing may be adjourned, the Revenue-officer shall ascertain whether any of the other co-sharers desire the partition of their shares also, and, if any of them so desire, he shall add them as applicants for partition.

Absolute disallowance of partition.

115. After examining such of the co-sharers and other persons as may be present on that day, the Revenue-officer may, if he is of opinion that there is good and sufficient cause why partition should be absolutely disallowed, refuse the application, recording the grounds of his refusal.

Procedure on admission of application.

116. (1) If the Revenue-officer does not refuse the application under the last foregoing section, he shall ascertain the questions, if any, in dispute between any of the persons interested, distinguishing between—

(a) questions as to title in the property of which partition is sought; and

(b) questions as to the property to be divided, or the mode of making the partition.

Disposal of questions as to title in property to be divided.

117. (1) When there is a question as to title in any of the property of which partition is sought, the Revenue-officer may decline to grant the application for partition until the question has been determined by a competent Court, or he may himself proceed to determine the question as though he were such a Court.

(2) In the latter case his procedure shall be that applicable to the trial of an original suit by a Civil Court, and he shall record a judgment and decree containing the particulars required
[X]IV of 1882. by the Code of Civil Procedure to be specified therein.

(3) An appeal shall lie from the decree of the Revenue-officer in such a case as though that decree were a decree of a District Judge in an original suit.

(4) Upon such an appeal being made, the Divisional Court or Chief Court, as the case may be, may issue an injunction to the Revenue-officer requiring him to stay proceedings pending the disposal of the appeal.

(5) From the appellate decree of a Divisional Court upon such an appeal a further appeal shall lie to the Chief Court if such a further appeal is allowed by the law for the time being in force.

Disposal of other questions.

118. (1) When there is a question as to the property to be divided, or the mode of making a partition, the Revenue-officer shall, after such inquiry as he deems necessary, record an order stating his decision on the question and his reasons for the decision.

(2) An appeal may be preferred to the Commissioner from an order under sub-section (1) within fifteen days from the date thereof, and, when such an appeal is preferred and the institution thereof has been certified to the Revenue-officer by the Commissioner, the Revenue-officer shall stay proceedings pending the disposal of the appeal.

(3) If an applicant for partition is dissatisfied with an original or appellate order under this section, and applies for permission to withdraw from the proceedings in so far as they relate to the partition of his share, he shall be permitted to withdraw therefrom on such terms as the Revenue-officer thinks fit.

(4) When an applicant withdraws under the last foregoing sub-section, the Revenue-officer may, where the other applicants, if any, desire the continuance of the proceedings, continue them in so far as they relate to the partition of the shares of those other applicants.

Administration of property excluded from partition.

119. When any such property as is referred to in section 112, clause (2), is excluded from partition, the Revenue-officer may determine the extent and manner to and in which the co-sharers and other persons interested therein may make use thereof, and the proportion in which expenditure incurred thereon and profits derived therefrom, respectively, are to be borne by and divided among those persons or any of them.

Distribution of revenue and rent after partition.

120. (1) The amount of revenue to be paid in respect of each of the holdings into which land has been divided on a partition, and the amount of rent to be paid in respect of each of the portions into which a tenancy has been so divided, shall be determined by the Revenue-officer making the partition.

(2) The determination of the Revenue-officer as to the revenue to be paid in respect of each holding shall, where the estate in which the holding is situate is subject to a fixed assessment, be deemed to be an order under section 56, sub-section (1).

(3) Where new estates have been created at a partition and the land-revenue has been fraudulently or erroneously distributed among them, the Local Government may, within twelve years from the time of discovery of the fraud or error, order a new distribution of the land-revenue among the several estates, on an estimate of the assets of

The Punjab Land-revenue Bill.
(Chapter IX.—Partition.—Sections 121-126. Chapter X.—Arbitration.—Sections 127-132.)

each estate at the time of the partition, to be made conformably to the best evidence and information procurable respecting the same.

Instrument of partition.

121. When a partition is completed, the Revenue-officer shall cause an instrument of partition to be prepared, and the date on which the partition is to take effect to be recorded therein.

Delivery of possession of property allotted on partition.

122. An owner or tenant to whom any land or portion of a tenancy, as the case may be, is allotted in proceedings for partition shall be entitled to possession thereof as against the other parties to the proceedings and their legal representatives, and a Revenue-officer shall, on application made to him for the purpose by any such owner or tenant at any time within three years from the date recorded in the instrument of partition under the last foregoing section, give effect to that instrument so far as it concerns the applicant as if it were a decree for immoveable property.

Affirmation of partitions privately effected.

123. (1) In any case in which a partition has been made without the intervention of a Revenue-officer, any party thereto may apply to a Revenue officer for an order affirming the partition.

(2) On receiving the application, the Revenue-officer shall inquire into the case, and, if he finds that the partition has in fact been made, he may affirm it and proceed under sections 119, 120 121 and 122, or any of those sections, as circumstances may require, in the same manner as if the partition had been made on an application to himself under this Chapter.

Power to make rules as to costs of partitions.

124. The Financial Commissioner may make rules for determining the costs of partitions under this Chapter and the mode in which such costs are to be apportioned.

Re-distribution of land according to custom.

125. When by established custom any land in an estate is subject to periodical re-distribution, a Revenue-officer may, on the application of any of the landowners, enforce the re-distribution according to the custom, and for this purpose may exercise all or any of the powers of a Revenue-officer in proceedings for partition.

Officers who may be empowered to act under this Chapter.

126. The Revenue officer by whom proceedings may be taken under this Chapter shall be a Revenue-officer of a class not below that of Assistant Collector of the first grade.

CHAPTER X.

ARBITRATION.

Power to refer to arbitration.

127. (1) Any Revenue-officer may, with the consent of the parties, refer to arbitration any dispute arising before him in any matter under this Act.

(2) A Collector or an Assistant Collector of the first grade may, without the consent of the parties, refer to arbitration any dispute before him with respect to—

(a) any matter of which an entry is to be made in any record or register under Chapter IV;

(b) any matter relating to the distribution of an assessment under section 56;

(c) the limits of any estate or of any holding, field or other portion of an estate; or

(d) the property to be divided at a partition or the mode of making a partition.

Order of reference and contents thereof.

128. (1) In referring a dispute to arbitration a Revenue-officer shall make an order of reference, and specify therein the precise matter submitted to arbitration, the number of arbitrators which each party to the dispute is to nominate, the period within which arbitrators are to be nominated, and the period within which the award is to be delivered.

(2) The number of arbitrators which each party may nominate must be the same and must not exceed two.

(3) If from any cause arbitrators are not nominated, or an award is not delivered, within the period fixed therefor in the order of reference, the Revenue-officer may from time to time enlarge that period, or may cancel the order of reference.

Nomination of arbitrators.

129. (1) When an order of reference has been made, the parties may each nominate the number of arbitrators specified in the order, and the Revenue-officer shall nominate one other arbitrator.

(2) The Revenue-officer may, for reasons to be recorded by him, make an order disallowing any nomination made by either party and requiring the party to make another nomination within a time to be specified in the order.

(3) An order under the last foregoing sub-section shall be final.

Substitution of arbitrators by parties.

130. If an arbitrator nominated by a party dies, desires to be discharged or refuses or becomes incapable to act, the party may nominate another person in his stead.

Nomination and substitution of arbitrators by Revenue-officers.

131. In any of the following cases, namely:

(a) if either of the parties fails to nominate an arbitrator under sub section (1) of section 129 within the period fixed in the order of reference, or

(b) if the nomination of an arbitrator has been disallowed under sub-section (2) of section 129, and another arbitrator is not nominated within the time specified in the order under that sub-section or, having been so nominated, his nomination is also disallowed, or

(c) if a party entitled to nominate an arbitrator in the place of another arbitrator under section 130 fails to nominate him within one week from the date of the communication to him of a notice requiring him to make the nomination, or

(d) if an arbitrator nominated by the Revenue-officer dies, desires to be discharged, or refuses or becomes incapable to act,

the Revenue-officer may nominate a person as arbitrator.

Process for appearance before arbitrators.

132. (1) The Revenue-officer shall, on the application of the arbitrators, issue the same processes to the parties and witnesses

The Punjab Land-revenue Bill.
(Chapter X.—Arbitration.—Sections 133-135.
Chapter XI.—Special Jurisdiction with respect to Land.—Sections 136-137. Chapter XII.—Supplemental Provisions.—Section 138.)

whom the arbitrators desire to examine as he may issue in any proceeding under this Act before himself.

(2) Any such party or witness shall be bound to appear before the arbitrators in obedience to a process issued under sub-section (1), either in person or by agent, as the arbitrators may require.

(3) The person attending in obedience to the process shall state the truth upon any matter respecting which he is examined or makes statements, and produce such documents and other things relating to any such matter as may be specified in the process.

Award of arbitrators and presentation thereof.

133. (1) The arbitrators shall make an award in writing under their hands concerning the matters referred to them for arbitration, and state therein their reasons therefor, and any arbitrator dissenting from the award made by a majority of the arbitrators shall state the grounds of his dissent.

(2) The arbitrators shall present the award to the Revenue-officer in person unless that officer permits them to present it by agent.

Procedure on presentation of award.

134. When the award has been received, the Revenue-officer shall, if the parties are present, consider forthwith any objections which they may have to make thereto, and, if they are not present, fix a date for the consideration thereof.

(2) Where a date has been fixed for the consideration of an award, the Revenue-officer shall on that date, or on any subsequent date to which an adjournment may be made, hear any objections which the parties may have to make to the award.

(3) The Revenue-officer may also, if he thinks fit, question the arbitrators as to the grounds of their award.

Effect of award.

135. (1) The Revenue-officer may accept, modify or reject the award, recording his reasons for doing so in his decision respecting the dispute which was referred to arbitration.

(2) An appeal shall lie from the decision as if arbitrators had not been appointed.

CHAPTER XI.

SPECIAL JURISDICTION WITH RESPECT TO LAND.

Power to invest officers making records-of-rights or general re-assessments with powers of Civil Courts.

136. (1) The Local Government may, by order published in the official Gazette, invest any Revenue-officer making or specially revising records-of-rights in any local area in pursuance of a notification under section 32 or making a general re-assessment of land-revenue in any local area in pursuance of a notification under section 49, or any Revenue-officer to whose control that officer is subject, with all or any of the powers of any Court constituted under the Punjab Courts Act, 1884, for the purpose of trying all or any specified classes of suits or appeals relating to land arising in the local area.

XVIII of 1884.

(2) The Local Government may cancel an order under sub-section (1) wholly or in part.

(3) While an order or any part of an order under that sub-section continues in force, the powers conferred thereby shall be exercised by the officer invested therewith and not otherwise.

(4) Any cases pending before that officer under the order or a subsisting part of the order at the time of the cancellation thereof may be disposed of by him as if the order or that part of it continued in force, unless the Local Government directs, as it is hereby empowered to do, that those cases shall be transferred for disposal to the Courts by which they would have been disposed of if the order had not been published.

Control over such officers and appeals from and revision of their decrees and orders.

137. (1) The Local Government may by notification direct that the provisions of this Act with respect to the superintendence and control over Revenue-officers shall, subject to any modification of those provisions which the Local Government thinks fit, apply to any Revenue-officer, except the Financial Commissioner, who has been invested with the powers of a Civil Court of any of the classes specified in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) of section 17 of the Punjab Courts Act, 1884, and that appeals shall lie from his decrees and orders to, and his decrees and orders be subject to revision by, a Revenue-officer invested under the last foregoing section with the powers of a Court which would be competent under the Punjab Courts Act, 1884, to hear appeals from, or revise, such decrees and orders if they had been made by a Court with the powers of which the Revenue-officer who made them has been invested.

XVIII of 1884.

(2) In the absence of any such notification, a Revenue-officer invested under the last foregoing section with the powers of any such Civil Court as aforesaid shall, with respect to the exercise of those powers, be deemed to be such a Civil Court for the purposes of the Punjab Courts Act, 1884.

CHAPTER XII.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS.

Revenue Deposits.

Power to deposit certain sums other than rent.

138. (1) In either of the following cases, namely:

(a) when a headman or other landowner, or an assignee of land-revenue, to whom any sum other than rent is payable on account of a liability under this Act refuses to receive the sum from, or to grant a receipt therefor to, the person by whom it is payable,

(b) when the person by whom any such sum is payable is in doubt as to the headman or other landowner, or the assignee of land-revenue, entitled to receive it,

that person may apply to a Revenue-officer for leave to deposit the sum in his office, and the Revenue-officer shall receive the deposit if, after examining the applicant, he is satisfied that there is sufficient ground for the application and if the applicant pays the fee, if any, which may be chargeable on any notice to be issued of the receipt thereof.

(2) When a deposit has been so received, the liability of the depositor to the headman or other landowner, or the assignee of land-revenue, for the amount thereof shall be discharged.

The Punjab Land-revenue Bill.
(Chapter XII.—Supplemental Provisions.—Sections 139-146.)

Procedure in case of deposit on account of a payment due to Government.

139. If the deposit purports to be made on account of any payment due to the Government, it may be credited accordingly.

Procedure in case of other deposits.

140. (1) A Revenue-officer receiving a deposit purporting to be made on any other account shall give notice of the receipt thereof to every person who he has reason to believe claims or is entitled to the deposit, and may pay the amount thereof to any person appearing to him to be entitled to the same, or may, if he thinks fit, retain the deposit pending the decision of a Civil Court as to the person so entitled.

(2) No suit or other proceeding shall be instituted against the Secretary of State for India in Council, or against any officer of the Government, in respect of anything done by a Revenue-officer under this section, but nothing in this sub-section shall prevent any person entitled to receive the amount of any such deposit from recovering it from a person to whom it has been paid by a Revenue-officer.

Execution of Orders of Civil and Criminal Courts by Revenue-officers.

Orders of Civil and Criminal Courts for execution of processes against land or the produce thereof to be addressed to a Revenue-officer.

141. Orders issued by any Civil or Criminal Court for the attachment, sale or delivery of any land or interest in land, or for the attachment or sale of the produce of any land, shall be addressed to the Collector or such Revenue-officer as the Collector may appoint in this behalf, and be executed by the Collector or that officer in accordance with the provisions of the law applicable to the Court issuing the orders and with any rules consistent therewith made by the Financial Commissioner with the concurrence of the Chief Court and the previous sanction of the Local Government.

Attachment of assigned land-revenue.

142. (1) Notwithstanding anything in any other enactment for the time being in force, an order issued by any Court for the attachment of assigned land-revenue shall require the person by whom the revenue is payable to pay it to the Collector, and the Collector to hold it subject to the further orders of the Court.

(2) A payment to the Collector under sub-section (1) shall be an effectual discharge to the person making it.

Preservation of attached Produce.

Preservation of attached produce.

143. (1) The attachment of the produce of any land in pursuance of an order of any Court or other authority shall not prevent the person to whom the produce belongs from reaping, gathering or storing it or doing any other act necessary for its preservation.

(2) The attaching officer shall do or cause to be done all acts necessary for the preservation of the produce if the person to whom it belongs fails to do so.

(3) When sale of produce follows on its attachment, the purchaser shall be entitled, by himself or by any person appointed by him in this behalf, to enter on the place where the produce is and do all that is necessary for the purpose of preserving

Division of Produce.

Division of produce.

144. In either of the following cases, namely:

(a) where land-revenue is paid by division or appraisement of the produce,

(b) where a superior and an inferior landowner, or two or more shareholders in a holding or tenancy, are jointly interested in any produce, and either or any of the landowners or tenants, as the case may be, desires the assistance of a Revenue-officer for the purpose of dividing or appraising the produce, the provisions of the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887, with respect to the division or appraisement of produce shall apply so far as they can be made applicable.

Miscellaneous.

Village-cesses.

145. (1) At any of the following times, namely:

(a) when a record-of-rights is being made or specially revised for an estate,

(b) when the local area in which an estate is situate is being generally re-assessed and before the assessment has been confirmed,

(c) at any other time on an order made with respect to any estate by the Local Government with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, a Revenue-officer shall prepare a list of village-cesses, if any, levied in the estate which have been generally or specially approved by the Local Government, or the title to which has before the passing of this Act been judicially established.

(2) When a list has been prepared for an estate under sub-section (1), a village-cess not comprised therein shall not be recoverable by suit in any Court.

(3) The Local Government may impose on the collection of any village-cess comprised in the list such conditions as to police or other establishments connected with the village, market or fair in or on account of which the cess is levied, as it thinks fit.

(4) The Governor-General in Council may, on a reference from the Local Government, declare whether any cess, contribution or due levied in an estate is or is not a village-cess.

(5) A declaration of the Governor-General in Council under the last foregoing sub-section shall be conclusive, and shall not be liable to be questioned in any Court.

Superior landowners' dues.

146. Where a superior landowner is entitled to receive in respect of any land from an inferior landowner dues in kind or in cash of fluctuating quantity or amount, the Collector may—

(a) on the application of both landowners, or,

(b) with the previous sanction of the Local Government, on the application of either of them, commute those dues into a fixed percentage of the land-revenue payable by the inferior landowner in respect of the land

The Punjab Land-revenue Bill.
(Chapter XII.—Supplemental Provisions.—Sections 147-155.)

Substitution of service for payment of land-revenue.

147. (1) The Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, authorize the remission of land-revenue in whole or in part in consideration of the person liable therefor undertaking to render in lieu thereof of such public service as may be specified in an agreement to be approved by the Local Government and executed by that person.

(2) The Local Government may, with the like sanction, cancel any remission authorized, and agreement made, under sub-section (1).

(3) If a landowner bound by an agreement under that sub-section to render public service in lieu of paying land-revenue fails to render the service to the satisfaction of the Collector, the Collector may determine the portion of the land-revenue remitted which is represented by the service in respect of which the landowner is in default, and, with the previous sanction of the Financial Commissioner, recover that portion as if it were an arrear of land-revenue due in respect of the land for the land-revenue whereof the service was substituted.

Recovery of cost of assessing assigned land-revenue.

148. (1) When land of which the land-revenue has been assigned in whole or in part is re-assessed, the assignee shall be liable to pay such a share of the cost of making the re-assessment as the Financial Commissioner may determine to be just.

(2) That share may be recovered by the Collector by deduction of the amount thereof from the land-revenue due to the assignee.

Penalty for failure to attend within limits of estate in obedience to order of Revenue-officer.

149. If a person required by a summons, notice, order or proclamation proceeding from a Revenue-officer to attend at a certain time and place within the limits of the estate in which he ordinarily resides, or in which he holds or cultivates land, fails to comply with the requisition, he shall be liable at the discretion of the Revenue-officer to fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

Prevention of encroachment on common lands.

150. Where land which has been reserved for the common purposes of the co-sharers therein has been encroached on by any co-sharer, a Revenue-officer may, on the application of any other co-sharer, eject the encroaching co-sharer from the land and, by order proclaimed in manner mentioned in section 22, forbid repetition of the encroachment.

Papers kept by village-officers to be deemed public documents.

151. (1) Any record or paper which a village-officer is required by law or by any rule under this Act to prepare or keep shall be deemed to be the property of the Government.

(2) A village-officer shall, with respect to any such record or paper in his custody, be deemed for the purposes of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, to be a public officer having the custody of a public document which any person has a right to inspect. I of 1872

Costs.

152. (1) A Revenue-officer may give and apportion the costs of any proceeding under this Act in any manner he thinks fit;

(2) But if he orders that the costs of any such proceeding shall not follow the event, he shall record his reasons for the order.

Computation of periods limited for appeals and applications for review.

153. In the computation of the period for an appeal from, or an application for the review of, an order under this Act the limitation therefor shall be governed by the Indian Limitation Act, 1877. XV of 1877.

Restriction on Revenue-officers bidding at auctions or trading.

154. (1) A Revenue-officer, or a person employed in a revenue-office, shall not—

(a) purchase or bid for, either in person or by agent, in his own name or in that of another, or jointly or in shares with others, any property which any Revenue-officer or Revenue Court in the district in which he is employed has ordered to be sold, or,

(b) in contravention of any rules made by the Local Government in this behalf, engage in trade in that district.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to preclude any person from becoming a member of a company incorporated under the Indian Companies Act, 1882, or other law. VI of 1882.

Power to make rules.

155. (1) The Financial Commissioner may, in addition to the other rules which may be made by him under this Act, make rules consistent with this Act and any other enactment for the time being in force—

(a) fixing the number and amount of the instalments, and the times and places and the manner, by, at and in which any sum other than rent or land-revenue which is payable under this Act or of which a record has been made thereunder is to be paid;

(b) fixing the dates on which profits are to be divisible by headmen or other persons by whom they are realized on behalf of co-sharers;

(c) prescribing the fees to be charged for the service and execution of processes issued by Revenue-officers and Revenue Courts, the mode in which those fees are to be collected, the number of persons to be employed in the service and execution of those processes, and the remuneration and duties of those persons;

(d) regulating the procedure in cases where persons are entitled to inspect records of revenue-offices, or records or papers in the custody of village-officers, or to obtain copies of the same, and prescribing the fees payable for searches and copies;

(e) prescribing forms for such books, entries, statistics and accounts as the Financial Commissioner thinks necessary to be kept,

(Chapter XII.—Supplemental Provisions.—Sections 156-158.)

made or compiled in revenue-offices or submitted to any authority;

(f) declaring what shall be the language of any of those offices, and determining in what cases persons practising in those offices shall be permitted to address the presiding officers thereof in English; and

(g) generally for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) Until rules are made under clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section (1) the sums therein referred to shall be payable by the instalments, at the times and places, and in the manner by, at and in which they are now payable.

(3) Rules made by the Financial Commissioner under this or any other section of this Act shall not take effect until they have been sanctioned by the Local Government, and rules under clause (e) of sub-section (1) shall not take effect until they have also been confirmed by the Governor-General in Council.

Rules to be made after previous publication.

156. The power to make any rules under this Act is subject to the control of the Governor-General in Council, and to the condition of the rules being made after previous publication.

Powers exerciseable by the Financial Commissioner from time to time.

157. All powers conferred by this Act on the Financial Commissioner may be exercised from time to time as occasion requires.

Exclusion of Jurisdiction of Civil Courts.

Exclusion of jurisdiction of Civil Courts in matters within the jurisdiction of Revenue-officers.

158. Except as otherwise provided by this Act—

(1) a Civil Court shall not have jurisdiction in any matter which the Local Government or a Revenue-officer is empowered by this Act to dispose of, or take cognizance of the manner in which the Local Government or any Revenue-officer exercises any powers vested in it or him by or under this Act; and in particular—

(2) a Civil Court shall not exercise jurisdiction with respect to—

(i) any question as to the limits of any land which has been defined by a Revenue-officer as land to which this Act does or does not apply;

(ii) any claim to compel the performance of any duties imposed by this Act or any other enactment for the time being in force on any Revenue-officer, as such;

(iii) any claim to the office of kánúngo, zaildár, inámdár or village-officer, or in respect of any injury caused by exclusion from such office, or to compel the performance of the duties or a division of the emoluments thereof;

(v) the framing of a record-of-rights or annual record, or the preparation, signing or attestation of any of the documents included in such a record;

(vi) the correction of any entry in a record-of-rights, annual record or register of mutations;

(vii) any notification of the undertaking of the general re-assessment of a district or tahsil having been sanctioned by the Governor-General in Council;

(viii) the claim of any person to be liable for an assessment of land-revenue or of any other revenue assessed under this Act;

(ix) the amount of land-revenue to be assessed on any estate or to be paid in respect of any holding under this Act;

(x) the amount of, or the liability of any person to pay, any other revenue to be assessed under this Act, or any cess, charge or rate to be assessed on an estate or holding under this Act or any other enactment for the time being in force;

(xi) any claim relating to the allowance to be received by a landowner who has given notice of his refusal to be liable for an assessment, or any claim connected with, or arising out of, any proceedings taken in consequence of the refusal of any person to be liable for an assessment under this Act;

(xii) the formation of an estate out of waste-land;

(xiii) any claim to hold free of revenue any land, mills, fisheries or natural products of land or water;

(xiv) any claim connected with, or arising out of, the collection by the Government, or the enforcement by the Government of any process for the recovery, of land-revenue or any sum recoverable as an arrear of land-revenue;

(xv) any claim to set aside, on any ground other than fraud, a sale for the recovery of an arrear of land-revenue or any sum recoverable as an arrear of land-revenue;

(xvi) the amount of, or the liability of any person to pay, any fees, fines, costs or other charges imposed under this Act;

(xvii) any claim for partition of an estate, holding or tenancy, or any question connected with, or arising out of, proceedings for partition, not being a question as to title in any of the property of which partition is sought;

The Punjab Land-revenue Bill.
(The Schedule.)

(xviii) any question as to the allotment of land on the partition of an estate, holding or tenancy, or as to the distribution of land subject by established custom to periodical re-distribution, or as to the distribution of land-revenue on the partition of an estate or holding or on a periodical re-distribution of land, or as to the distribution of rent on the partition of a tenancy;

(xix) any claim to set aside or disturb a division or appraisement of produce confirmed or varied by a Revenue-officer under this Act;

(xx) any proceeding under this Act for the commutation of the dues of a superior land-owner;

(xxi) any claim arising out of the enforcement of an agreement to render public service in lieu of paying land-revenue; or

(xxii) any claim arising out of the liability of an assignee of land-revenue to pay a share of the cost of collecting or re-assessing such revenue, or arising out of the liability of an assignee to pay out of assigned land-revenue, or of a person who would be liable for land-revenue if it had not been released, compounded for or redeemed to pay on the land-revenue for which he would but for such release, composition or redemption be liable, such a percentage for the remuneration of a zaildár, inámdár or village-officer as may be prescribed by rules for the time being in force under this Act.
